f. Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched. (II Chr. 34:25.) Thou shalt not oppress an hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he be of thy brethren, or of thy strangers that are in thy land within thy gates. (Dt. 24:14.) Behold, the hire of the laborers which have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth; and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth. (Js. 5:4.)

g. Blessed is every one that feareth the Lord; that walketh in his ways. For thou shalt eat the labor of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee. (Ps. 128:1, 2.) Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings. (Is. 3:10.) Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the Lord our God, to whom we send thee; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the Lord our God. (Jer. 42:6.) He hath shown thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? (Mic. 6:8.) If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them. (Jno. 13:17.)

h. We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: for we have sinned against the Lord our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the Lord our God. (Jer. 3:25.)

i. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, my servant shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servant shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servant shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed. (Is. 65:13.) But the Lord is with me as a mighty terrible one: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail: they shall be greatly ashamed; for they shall not prosper: their everlasting confusion shall never be forgotten. (Jer. 20:11.)

j. I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life: and their dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth. (Jer. 34:20.)

k. I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like a broken wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not?

29 O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the Lord.

30 Thus saith the Lord, Write ye this man childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, sitting upon the throne of Dā'vid, and ruling any more in Jū'dah.

CHAPTER 23.

1 He prophesieth a restoration of the scattered flock. 5 Christ shall rule and save them. 9 Against false prophets, 33 and mockers of the true prophets.

1 [1]Woe [a]be unto the [2]pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the Lord.

2 Therefore thus saith the Lord God of Ĭs'ra-el against the [2]pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I [b]will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the Lord.

3 And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.

4 And I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the Lord.

5 ¶ Behold, [c]the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto Dā'vid a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, [b]and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

6 In his days Jū'dah shall be saved, and Ĭs'ra-el shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

7 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that they shall no more say, The Lord liveth, which brought up the children of Ĭs'ra-el out of the land of Ē'gўpt;

8 But, the Lord liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Ĭs'ra-el out of the north country, [d]and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

9 ¶ [3]Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets; all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the Lord, and because of the words of his holiness.

10 For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourneth; the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their course is evil, and their force is not right.

11 For [e]both prophet and priest are profane; yea, in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the Lord.

12 Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the Lord.

13 And I have seen folly in the prophets of Sa-mā'rĭ-à; they prophesied in Bā'al, and caused my people Ĭs'ra-el to err.

14 I have seen also in the prophets of Je-rū'sa-lĕm an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen [f]also the hands of evildoers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as Sŏd'om, and the inhabitants thereof as Go-mŏr'rah.

15 Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts concerning the prophets; Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Je-rū'sa-lĕm is profaneness gone forth into all the land.

16 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Hearken not [g]unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the Lord.

17 They say still unto them that despise me, The Lord hath said, Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, [h]No evil shall come upon you.

18 For [i]who hath stood in the counsel of the Lord, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked [4]his word, and heard it?

19 Behold, a whirlwind of the Lord is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

20 The anger of the Lord shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.

21 I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

23 Am [j]I a God at hand, saith the Lord, and not a God afar off?

24 Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the Lord. Do [k]not I fill heaven and earth? saith the Lord.

25 I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.

26 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart;

27 Which think to [l]cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, as their fathers have forgotten my name for Bā'al.

Ch. 23. B. C. 599.

1. In ch. 23 is recorded the prophecy concerning the wicked rulers who are to be superseded by the king who should reign over the united and restored Jews.

2. Shepherds.

3. Vs. 9-40, the false prophets.

4. Should be "my word."

vessel. (Ps. 31:12.) Israel is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel wherein is no pleasure. (Hos. 8:8.)

Chapter 23.

a. Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God unto the shepherds; Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks? (Ez. 34:2.) Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them. (Ez. 34:10.)

b. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. (Ecc. 12:14.) And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. (Rev. 22:12.) Therefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend. (I Cor. 8:13.) For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people. (Heb. 10:30.)

c. And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. (Is. 11:1.)

d. Fear not; for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west. (Is. 43:5.)

e. Her prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law. (Zeph. 3:4.)

f. Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life. (Ez. 13:22.)

g. Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge. (Prov. 19:27.) Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. (Mat. 7:15.)

h. The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the Lord, and say, Is not the Lord among us? none evil can come upon us. (Mic. 3:11.)

i. Hast thou heard the secret of God? and dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself? (Job 15:8.) For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ. (I Cor. 2:16.)

j. Who is like unto the Lord our God, who dwelleth on high, Who humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven, and in the earth! (Ps. 113:5, 6.)

k. But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, the heaven, and heaven of heavens, cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded! (I Ks. 8:27.) Thus saith the Lord, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest? (Is. 66:1.)

l. If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and giveth thee a sign or a wonder, And the sign or the wonder come to 28 The prophet that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word [m]faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the Lord.

29 Is not my word like as a fire? saith the Lord; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?

30 Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, saith the Lord, that steal my words every one from his neighbour.

31 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the Lord, that use their tongues, and say, He saith.

32 Behold, I am against them that prophesy false dreams, saith the Lord, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the Lord.

33 ¶ And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest shall ask thee, saying, What is the burden of the Lord? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? I will even forsake you, saith the Lord.

34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the Lord, I will even punish that man and his house.

35 Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the Lord answered? and, What hath the Lord spoken?

36 And the burden of the Lord shall ye mention no more: for every man's [n]word shall be his burden; for ye [o]have perverted the words of the living God, of the Lord of hosts our God.

37 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the Lord answered thee? and, What hath the Lord spoken?

38 But since ye say, The burden of the Lord; therefore thus saith the Lord; Because ye say this word, The burden of the Lord, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the Lord;

39 Therefore, behold, I, even I, [p]will [5]utterly forget you, and I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of my presence:

40 And I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

CHAPTER 24.

1 Under the type of good and bad figs, 4 he foresheweth the restoration of them that were in captivity, 8 and the desolation of Zedekiah and the rest.

5. As you have forgotten me.

Ch. 24. B. C. 598.

1. In ch. 24 is prophesied the restoration of the Jews, captive in Babylon, who are represented by a basket of good figs, also the destruction of those who remain, who are represented by a basket of wortbless figs. In vs. 1-3 is given the symbol of the two baskets.

2. The fig trees bore three crops a year. The first, which ripened in June, were the choicest.

3. Perhaps the sycamore figs, which, unless punctured as they ripen, are worthless.

4. Vs. 4-10 give the interpretation of the symbol of the two baskets of figs.

5. Partially fulfilled in the restoration from Babylon; fully fulfilled hereafter.

Ch. 25. B. C. 607-606.

1. In ch. 25 is recorded the prophecy of the 70 years' captivity, and after that the destruction of Babylon and all the other nations which oppressed the Jews.

1 [1]The Lord shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the Lord, after that Něb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon had carried away captive Jĕc-o-nī'ah the son of Je-hoi'a-kim king of Jū'dah, and the princes of Jū'dah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Je-rų'sa-lĕm, and had brought them to Băb'ў-lon.

2 One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are [2]first ripe: and the other basket had very [3]naughty figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad.

3 Then said the Lord unto me, What seest thou, Jĕr-e-mī'ah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

4 ¶ [4]Again the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

5 Thus saith the Lord, the God of Ĭs'ra-el; Like these good [2]figs, so will I [a]acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Jū'dah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chăl-dē'ans for their good.

6 For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and I will bring [5]them again to this land: and I [b]will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

7 And I will give them [c]an heart to know me, that I am the Lord: and they shall be [d]my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart.

8 ¶ And as the evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the Lord, So will I give Zĕd-e-kī'ah the king of Jū'dah, and his princes, and the residue of Je-rų'sa-lĕm, that remain in this land, and them that dwell in the land of Ē'gўpt:

9 And I will deliver them [e]to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt [f]and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

CHAPTER 25.

1 Jeremiah, reproving the Jews' disobedience to the prophets, 8 foretelleth the seventy years' captivity, 12 and the destruction of Babylon. 15 Under the type of a cup of wine he foresheweth the destruction of all nations. 34 The howling of the shepherds.

pass, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them; Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams; for the Lord your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. (Dt. 13:1-3.)

m. As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. (I Pet. 4:10.)

n. But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. (Mat. 12:36.)

o. Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. (Gal. 1:7, 8.) As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction (II Pet. 3:16.)

p. My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children. (Hos. 4:6.) Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh. And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim. (Jer. 7:14, 15.) And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here. (Ez. 8:9.)

a. For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren. (Heb. 2:11.)

b. Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul. (Jer. 32:41.) And I will cause the captivity of Judah, and the captivity of Israel, to return, and will build them, as at the first. (Jer. 33:7.)

c. And the Lord thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live. (Dt. 30:6.) A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you, and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. (Ez. 36:26.)

d. And I have put my words in thy mouth, and I have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people. (Is. 51:16.) And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness. (Zech. 8:8.)

e. The Lord shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them; and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth. (Dt. 28:25.) Then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and this house, which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight; and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all people. (I Ks. 9:7.) Therefore thus saith the Lord; Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbor: behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the Lord, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth. (Jer. 34:17.)

f. And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them. (Jer. 29:18.)

of Jū'dah, that was the first year of Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon;

2 The which Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet spake unto all the people of Jū'dah, and to all the inhabitants of Je-rų'sa-lĕm, saying,

3 From the thirteenth year of Jo-sī'ah the son of Ā'mon king of Jū'dah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year, the word of the Lord hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened.

4 [2]And the Lord hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, rising early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear.

5 They said, [a]Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the Lord hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever:

6 And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt.

7 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the Lord; that ye might [b]provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

8 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts; Because ye have not heard my words,

9 Behold, I will send and [c]take all the families of the north, saith the Lord, and Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar the king of Băb'ў-lon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations.

10 Moreover I will take from them the voice [d]of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle.

11 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Băb'ў-lon [3]seventy years.

12 ¶ [4]And it shall come to pass, when [e]seventy years [5]are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Băb'ў-lon, and that nation, saith the Lord, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chăl-dē'ans, and will make it perpetual [6]desolations.

13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jĕr-e-mī'ah hath prophesied against all the nations.

14 For many nations and great kings shall serve [7]themselves of them also: [f]and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands.

15 ¶ For thus saith the Lord God of Īs'ra-el unto me; Take the wine cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it.

16 And they shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.

17 Then took I the cup at the Lord's hand, and made all the nations to [8]drink, unto whom the Lord had sent me:

18 To wit, [9]Je-rų'sa-lĕm, and the cities of Jū'dah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and a curse; as it is this day;

19 [10]Phā'raōh king of Ē'ġўpt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people;

20 And all the mingled people, and all the kings of the land of Ūz, and all the kings of the land of the Phī-lĭs'tĭnes, and Ăsh'ke-lŏn, and Āz'zah, and Ēk'rŏn, and the remnant of [11]Āsh'dŏd,

21 Ē'dom, and Mō'ab, and the children of Ām'mŏn,

22 And all the kings of Tў'rus, and all the kings of Zī'dŏn, and the kings of the isles which are beyond the sea,

23 Dē'dan, and Tē'mā, and Bŭz, and all that are in the utmost corners,

24 And all the kings of [12]A-rā'bĭ-ā, and all the kings of the mingled people that dwell in the desert,

25 And all the kings of [13]Zīm'rī, and all the kings of [14]Ē'lăm, and all the kings of the Mēdes, 26 And all the kings [15]of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: and the king of Shē'shăch shall drink after them.

27 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Īs'ra-el; [16g]Drink ye, and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.

28 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Ye shall certainly drink.

29 For, lo, [h]I begin to [17]bring evil on the city, which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the Lord of hosts.

30 [18]Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them, The Lord [i]shall roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he shall mightily roar upon his habitation; he shall give a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

31 A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth; for the Lord hath a controversy with the nations, he will plead with all [19]flesh;

2. In vs. 4-11 is recorded the judgment sent upon Judah.

3. The actual number of years, the truth of which has been proven by profane chronology as well as sacred prophecy. It began in 606 B. C., the fourth year of Jehoiakim's reign and extended to 536 B. C., the first year of Cyrus.

4. In vs. 12-29 are recorded the judgments menacing Babylon and other nations.

5. Just 68 years after Jerusalem was captured, or 538 B. C., Babylon was taken.

6. How perfectly fulfilled. The absolute nothingness of this once great and vast empire is not relieved even by monumental ruins.

7. The Chaldeans.

8. True in symbolical vision.

9. The most important, by many said to be the most guilty, therefore mentioned first.

16. A fig. typifying the complete helplessness of the people under divine afflictions.

17. If Jehovah spares not his own on account of their sins, how much less will he be expected to spare the heathen?

18. Vs. 30-38 detail the judgments on the world.

19. The whole world.

Chapter 25.

a. Yet the Lord testified against Israel and against Judah by all the prophets, and by all the seers, saying, Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets. (II Ks. 17:13.)

b. Do they provoke me to anger? saith the Lord: do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces? (Jer. 7:19.)

c. For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the Lord; and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah. (Jer. 1:15.)

d. I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts. (Hos. 2:11.) And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived. (Rev. 18:23.)

e. For thus saith the Lord, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. (Jer. 29:10.) In the first year of his reign, I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem. (Dan. 9:2.)

f. Call together the archers against Babylon: all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her: for she hath been proud against the Lord, against the Holy One of Israel. (Jer. 50:29.) For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people. (Heb. 10:30.) Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend. (I Cor. 8:13.)

g. Thou art filled with shame for glory: drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered; the cup of the Lord's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory. (Hab. 2:16.)

h. Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth: much more the wicked and the sinner. (Prov. 11:31.) For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God? (I Pet. 4:17.)

i. The Lord shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry, yea, roar; he shall prevail against his enemies. (Is. 42:13.) The Lord also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the Lord will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel. (Joel 3:16.)

he will give them that are wicked to the sword, saith the Lord.

32 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great whirlwind shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

33 And the slain of the Lord shall be at that day from one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

34 ¶ Howl, ye shepherds, and cry; and wallow [20]yourselves in the ashes, ye principal of the flock: for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are accomplished; and ye shall fall like a pleasant vessel.

35 And [j]the shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape.

36 A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and an howling of the principal of the flock, shall be heard: for the Lord hath spoiled their pasture.

37 And the peaceable habitations are cut down because of the fierce anger of the Lord.

38 He hath forsaken his covert, as the lion: for their land is desolate because of the fierceness of the oppressor, and because of his fierce anger.

CHAPTER 26.

1 Jeremiah by promises and threatenings exhorteth to repentance. 8 He is apprehended, 10 and arraigned. 12 His apology. 16 He is quit in judgment, by the example of Micah, 20 and of Urijah, 24 and by the care of Ahikam.

1 [1]In the beginning of the reign of Je-hoi'akim the son of Jo-sī'ah king of Jū'dah came this word from the Lord, saying,

2 Thus saith the Lord; Stand in the court of the Lord's house, and speak unto all the cities of Jū'dah, which [a]come to worship in the Lord's house, [b]all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; diminish not a word:

3 If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may [2]repent [c]me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings.

4 And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord; [d]If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you,

5 To hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened;

6 Then will I make this house like [3e]Shī'lōh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.

7 So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jĕr-e-mī'ah speaking these words in the house of the Lord.

8 ¶ [4]Now it came to pass, when Jĕr-e-mī'ah had made an end of speaking all that the Lord had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the [f]priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the Lord, saying, This house shall be like Shī-lōh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jĕr-e-mī'ah in the house of the Lord.

10 ¶ When the princes of Jū'dah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the Lord, and sat down in the entry of the new gate of the Lord's house.

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy to die; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

12 ¶ Then spake Jĕr-e-mī'ah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The Lord sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard.

13 Therefore now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the Lord your God; and the Lord [e]will [5]repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

14 As for me, behold, [g]I am in your hand: do with me as seemeth good and meet unto you.

15 But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring [h]innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the Lord hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears.

16 ¶ Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets; This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the Lord our God.

17 Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying,

18 Mī'cah the Mō'ras-thīte prophesied in the days of Hĕz-e-kī'ah king of Jū'dah, and spake to all the people of Jū'dah, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; [i]Zī'ōn shall be plowed like a field, and Je-rū'sa-lĕm shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

19 Did Hĕz-e-kī'ah king of Jū'dah and all Jū'dah put him at all to death? did he not fear the Lord, and besought the [j]Lord, and the Lord [5]repented [c]him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? [k]Thus might we procure great evil against our souls.

20. Roll yourselves in ashes, symbolical of mourning and humiliation.

Ch. 26. B. C. 609.

1. In ch. 26 are given the details concerning the prophecy for which Jer. was declared worthy of death, but was saved by the interposition of Ahikam.

2. This opportunity is extended to the people, not that God didn't know what the answer would be, but to show them that his judgments were just because they had refused to comply with the conditions of pardon.

3. Where the sanctuary once dwelt, hence the abode of Jehovah.

4. In vs. 8-19 is recorded the indignation of the people.

5. To be sorry for in a favorable sense, to sympathize with.

j. Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself. (Amos 2:14.)

Chapter 26.

a. Three times thou shalt keep a feast unto me in the year. (Ex. 23:14.) But unto the place which the Lord your God shall choose out of all your tribes to put his name there, even unto his habitation shall ye seek, and thither thou shalt come. (Dt. 12:5.)

b. Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears. (Ez. 3:10.) Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen. (Mat. 28:20.) For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God. (Acts 20:27.)

c. And the Lord said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth, both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them. (Gen. 6:7.) It repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king: for he is turned back from following me, and hath not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel; and he cried unto the Lord all night. (I Sam. 15:11.) And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. (Ps. 106:45.) And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. (Joel 2:13.)

d. But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day, that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee. (Dt. 28:15.)

e. So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men. (Ps. 78:60.) But go ye now unto my place which was in Shiloh, where I set my name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel. (Jer. 7:12.) And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen: for the Lord God shall slay thee, and call his servants by another name. (Is. 65:15.)

f. They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly. (Amos 5:10.) But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. (Mat. 27:20.)

g. And now, behold, we are in thine hand: as it seemeth good and right unto thee to do unto us, do. (Josh. 9:25.) Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing against you. (Jer. 38:5.)

h. If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt. (Jer. 7:6.) So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye are; for blood it defileth the land: and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it. (Num. 35:33.) These six things doth the Lord hate; yea, seven are an abomination unto him: A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood. (Prov. 6:16, 17.)

i. Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest. (Mic. 3:12.)

j. By mercy and truth iniquity is purged; and by the fear of the Lord men depart from evil. (Prov. 16:6.) The fear of the Lord is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate. (Prov. 8:13.) The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever. (Ps. 111:10.)

k. But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God. (Acts 5:39.)

20 [6]And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the Lord, U-rī′jah the son of Shĕm-a-ī′ah of Kĭr′jath-jē′a-rĭm, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jĕr-e-mī′ah:

21 And when Je-hoi′a-kim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death: but when U-rī′jah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Ē′gўpt;

22 And Je-hoi′a-kim the king sent men into Ē′gўpt, namely, Ēl′na-than the son of Āch′bor, and certain men with him into Ē′gўpt.

23 And they fetched forth U-rī′jah out of Ē′gўpt, and brought him unto Je-hoi′a-kim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

24 Nevertheless the hand of A-hī′kam the son of Shā′phan was with Jĕr-e-mī′ah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

6. In vs. 20-24 is recorded the fate of Urijah, the prophet.

CHAPTER 27.

1 He prophesieth the subduing of the neighbour kings unto Nebuchadnezzar. 8 He exhorteth them to yield. 19 He foretelleth the remnant of the vessels shall be carried to Babylon.

Ch. 27. B. C. 598.

1 [1]In the beginning of the reign of [2]Je-hoi′a-kim the son of Jo-sī′ah king of Jū′dah came this word unto Jĕr-e-mī′ah from the Lord, saying,

1. In ch. 27, Jer. prophesies through the symbol of a yoke the subjection of the neighboring kings unto Nebuchadnezzar. Vs. 1-11 describe the subjugation.

2 Thus saith the Lord to me; Make thee bonds and yokes, and put them upon thy neck,

2. Zedekiah is meant here.

3 And send them to the king of Ē′dom, and to the king of Mō′ab, and to the king of the Ām′mŏn-ītes, and to the king of Tўr′us, and to the king of Zī′dŏn, by the hand of the messengers which come to Je-rų′sa-lĕm unto Zĕd-e-kī′ah king of Jū′dah;

3. The Jews for whom the address was intended.

4 And command them to say unto their masters, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Īs′ra-el; Thus shall ye say unto your masters;

4. Vs. 12-15, the subjugation of King Zedekiah predicted.

5 [a]I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power and by my outstretched arm, and [b]have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me.

5. Neb. is armed with Jehovah's authority, therefore why will ye persist against him?

6 And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz′zar the king of Băb′ў-lon, [c]my servant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7 And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the very time of his land come: and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him.

6. Vs. 16-22, prophecies concerning the vessels of the temple. They shall be carried to Babylon to remain until the Jews are restored to their own land.

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz′zar the king of Băb′ў-lon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Băb′ў-lon, that nation will I punish, saith the Lord, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

7. Brazen sea.

9 Therefore hearken not [3]ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Băb′ў-lon:

10 For they prophesy a lie unto you, to remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish.

11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Băb′ў-lon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the Lord; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 ¶ [4]I spake also to Zĕd-e-kī′ah king of Jū′dah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Băb′ў-lon, and serve him and his people, and live.

13 [d]Why will ye die, [5]thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the Lord hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Băb′ў-lon?

14 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Băb′ў-lon: for they prophesy [e]a lie unto you.

15 For I have not sent them, saith the Lord, yet they prophesy a lie in my name; that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you.

16 [6]Also I spake to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the Lord; Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, the [f]vessels of the Lord's house shall now shortly be brought again from Băb′ў-lon: for they prophesy a lie unto you.

17 Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Băb′ў-lon, and live: wherefore should this city be laid waste?

18 But if they be prophets, and if the word of the Lord be with them, let them now make [g]intercession to the Lord of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the Lord, and in the house of the king of Jū′dah, and at Je-rų′sa-lĕm, go not to Băb′ў-lon.

19 ¶ For thus saith the Lord of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the [7]sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city,

20 Which Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz′zar king of Băb′ў-lon took not, when he carried away captive Jĕc-o-nī′ah the son of Je-hoi′a-kim king of Jū′dah from Je-rų′sa-lĕm to Băb′ў-lon, and all the nobles of Jū′dah and Je-rų′sa-lĕm;

21 Yea, thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Īs′ra-el, concerning the vessels that remain [h]in the house of the Lord, and in the house of the king of Jū′dah and of Je-rų′sa-lĕm;

22 They shall be carried to Băb′ў-lon, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, saith the Lord; then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.

Chapter 27.

a. I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded. (Is. 45:12.)

b. The heaven, even the heavens, are the Lord's; but the earth hath he given to the children of men. (Ps. 115:16.) This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men. (Dan. 4:17.)

c. And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them. (Jer. 43:10.) Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled; yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it. (Ez. 29:18.)

d. Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel? (Ez. 18:31.)

e. Then the Lord said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart. (Jer. 14:14.)

f. And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure-house of his god. (Dan. 1:2.)

g. Now therefore restore the man his wife; for he is a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou restore her not, know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, and all that are thine. (Gen. 20:7.) Therefore take unto you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you; for him will I accept; lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job. (Job 42:8.) Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. (Js. 5:16.)

h. Therefore is the anger of the Lord kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them: and the hills did tremble, and their carcases were torn in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. (Is. 5:25.)

CHAPTER 28.

1 Hananiah prophesieth falsely the return of the vessels, and of Jeconiah. 5 Jeremiah sheweth that the event will declare who are true prophets. 12 He telleth of an iron yoke.

1 [1]And it came to pass the same year,[1] in the beginning of the reign of Zĕd-e-kī'ah king of Jū'dah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hăn-a-nī'ah the son of Ā'zur the prophet, which was of Gĭb'e-on, spake unto me in the house of the Lord, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, the God of Ĭs'ra-el, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Băb'ў-lon.

3 Within two full years will I bring again into this place [a]all the vessels of the Lord's house, that Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon took away from this place, and carried them to Băb'ў-lon:

4 And I will bring again to this place Jĕc-o-nī'ah the son of Je-hoi'a-kim king of Jū'dah, with all the captives of Jū'dah, that went into Băb'ў-lon, saith the Lord: for I will break the yoke of the king of Băb'ў-lon.

5 ¶ [2]Then the prophet Jĕr-e-mī'ah said unto the prophet Hăn-a-nī'ah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the Lord,

6 Even the prophet Jĕr-e-mī'ah said, Amen: the Lord do so: the Lord perform [b]thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the Lord's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Băb'ў-lon into this place.

7 Nevertheless hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people;

8 The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.

9 [c]The prophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the Lord hath truly sent him.

10 ¶ Then Hăn-a-nī'ah the prophet took the yoke from off the prophet Jĕr-e-mī'ah's neck, [3]and brake it.

11 And Hăn-a-nī'ah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the Lord; Even so will I break the yoke of Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jĕr-e-mī'ah went [d]his way.

12 ¶ Then the word of the Lord came unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet, after that Hăn-a-nī'ah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jĕr-e-mī'ah, saying, 13 Go and tell Hăn-a-nī'ah, saying, Thus saith the Lord; Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes [4]of iron.

Ch. 28. B. C. 596.

1. In ch. 28 is recorded the sequel to the prophecies of ch. 27. Hananiah breaks the yoke of Jer., thus trying to show that the prophecy is a false one and that Neb.'s yoke shall be broken. Jer. foretells that yokes of iron will succeed those of wood and that Hananiah shall die. Vs. 1-4 give Hananiah's false prophecy.

2. Vs. 5-11, Jer.'s gentle answer.

3. By his act showing an impetuous unwillingness to await developments.

4. Emblems of the most bitter bondage.

5. This part of the prophecy was fulfilled two months later, i. e., in the seventh month.

Ch. 29. B. C. 599-598.

1. Ch. 29 is a letter written by Jer. to the Jews who have been taken captive to Babylon. Hananiah, and others like him, had been falsely telling them that Neb.'s yoke would be speedily destroyed and they would be released. Jer. writes them this letter to set aright all false notions which they may have.

14 For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Ĭs'ra-el; [e]I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also.

15 ¶ Then said the prophet Jĕr-e-mī'ah unto Hăn-a-nī'ah the prophet, Hear now, Hăn-a-nī'ah; The Lord hath not sent thee; but [f]thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

16 Therefore thus saith the Lord; Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt [5]die, because thou hast taught [g]rebellion against the Lord.

17 So Hăn-a-nī'ah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

CHAPTER 29.

1 Jeremiah sendeth a letter to the captives in Babylon not to believe the dreams of their prophets, 10 and that they shall return after seventy years. 20 He sheweth the fearful end of Ahab and Zedekiah. 24 Shemaiah writeth a letter against Jeremiah. 30 Jeremiah readeth his doom.

1 [1]Now these are the words of the letter that Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet sent from Je-rū'sa-lĕm unto the residue of the elders which were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar had carried away captive from Je-rū'sa-lĕm to Băb'ў-lon;

2 (After that Jĕc-o-nī'ah the king, and the queen, and the eunuchs, the princes of Jū'dah and Je-rū'sa-lĕm, and the carpenters, and the smiths, were departed from Je-rū'sa-lĕm;)

3 By the hand of Ēl'a-sah the son of Shā'phan, and Gĕm-a-rī'ah the son of Hĭl-kī'ah, (whom Zĕd-e-kī'ah king of Jū'dah sent unto Băb'ў-lon to Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon,) saying,

4 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Ĭs'ra-el, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Je-rū'sa-lĕm unto Băb'ў-lon;

5 Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them;

6 Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished.

7 And [a]seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, [b]and pray unto the Lord for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.

8 ¶ For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Ĭs'ra-el; Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, [c]deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed.

9 For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the Lord.

10 ¶ For thus saith the Lord, That after

a. And he carried out thence all the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the Lord, as the Lord had said. (II Ks. 24:13.)

b. As for me, I have not hastened from being a pastor to follow thee: neither have I desired the woeful day; thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was right before thee. (Jer. 17:16.)

c. When a prophet speaketh in the name of the Lord, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the Lord hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not be afraid of him. (Dt. 18:22.) To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. (Is. 8:20.) Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God; because many false prophets are gone out into the world. (I Jno. 4:1.)

d. Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him. (Prov. 26:4.)

e. Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies, which the Lord shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee. (Dt. 28:48.)

f. And thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thine house, shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast prophesied lies. (Jer. 20:6.) Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life. (Ez. 13:22.)

g. And that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death; because he hath spoken to turn you away from the Lord your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to thrust thee out of the way which the Lord thy God commanded thee to walk in: so shalt thou put the evil away from the midst of thee. (Dt. 13:5.)

a. I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men. (I Tim. 2:1.)

b. That they may offer sacrifices of sweet savors unto the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons. (Ezra 6:10.) For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. (I Tim. 2:2.)

c. Then the Lord said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart. (Jer. 14:14.) I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran; I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. (Jer. 23:21.) Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. (Eph. 5:6.)

[d]seventy years be accomplished at Băb'ў-lon I will visit you, and perform my good [2]word toward you, in causing you to return to this place.

11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.

12 Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.

13 And [e]ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.

14 And [f]I will be found of you, saith the Lord: and I will turn away your captivity, and [g]I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the Lord; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

15 ¶ Because ye have said, The Lord hath raised us up prophets in Băb'ў-lon;

16 Know that thus saith the Lord of the king that sitteth upon the throne of Dā'vid, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, and of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity;

17 Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

18 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and [h]will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them:

19 Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the Lord, which I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith the Lord.

20 ¶ Hear ye therefore the word of the Lord, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Je-rū'sa-lĕm to Băb'ў-lon:

21 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Ĭs'ra-el, of Ā'hăb the son of Kŏl-a-ī'ah, and of Zĕd-e-kī'ah the son of Mā-a-sē'iah, which prophesy [i]a lie unto you in my name; Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon; and he shall slay them before your eyes;

22 And of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Jū'dah which are in Băb'ў-lon, saying, The Lord make thee like Zĕd-e-kī'ah and like Ā'hăb, whom the king of Băb'ў-lon [3]roasted in the fire;

23 Because [j]they have committed villany in Ĭs'ra-el, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; even I know, and am a [k]witness, saith the Lord.

24 ¶ Thus shalt thou also speak to Shĕm-a-ī'ah the Ne-hĕl'a-mīte, saying,

25 Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, the God of Ĭs'ra-el, saying, Because thou hast sent letters in thy name unto all the people that are at Je-rū'sa-lĕm, and to Zĕph-a-nī'ah the son of Mā-a-sē'iah the priest, and to all the priests, saying,

26 The Lord hath made thee priest in the stead of Je-hoi'a-dà the priest, that ye should be officers in the house of the Lord, for every man that is mad, and maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldest put him in prison, and in the stocks.

27 Now therefore why hast thou not reproved Jĕr-e-mī'ah of Ān'a-thoth, which maketh himself a prophet to you?

28 For therefore he sent unto us in Băb'ў-lon, saying, This captivity is long: build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

29 And Zĕph-a-nī'ah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet.

30 ¶ Then came the word of the Lord unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah, saying,

31 Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the Lord concerning Shĕm-a-ī'ah the Ne-hĕl'a-mīte; Because that Shĕm-a-ī'ah hath prophesied unto you, and I sent him not, and he caused you to trust in a lie:

32 Therefore thus saith the Lord; Behold, I will punish Shĕm-a-ī'ah the Ne-hĕl'a-mīte, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people; neither shall he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the Lord; because he hath taught [4]rebellion against the Lord.

CHAPTER 30.

1 God sheweth Jeremiah the return of the Jews. 4 After their trouble they shall have deliverance. 10 He comforteth Jacob. 18 Their return shall be gracious. 20 Wrath shall fall on the wicked.

1 [1]The word that came to Jĕr-e-mī'ah from the Lord, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the Lord God of Ĭs'ra-el, saying, [a]Write [2]thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book.

3 For, lo, the days come, saith the Lord, that [b]I will bring again the captivity of my people Ĭs'ra-el and Jū'dah, saith the Lord: and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

2. Promise of a return.

3. A Chaldean punishment. (Dan. 3:6)—"And whoso falleth not down and worshipeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace."

4. That is, endeavoring to oppose God's will as to the time.

Ch. 30. B. C. 606.

1. Beginning with ch. 30 and extending to ch. 34, Jer.'s vision is raised beyond the sin and sorrows of his people and centered upon a closer union of them with God, and dwells particularly on the promises of prosperity before them. A portion, at least, of these prophecies were written in the tenth year of Zedekiah's reign, when the sin and punishment of the people was at its severest. Chs. 30 and 31 have been called "a triumphal hymn of Israel's salvation."

2. This prophecy was for all the people of God everywhere, hence must be written.

d. To fulfil the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years. (II Chr. 36:21.) Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing. (Ezra 1:1.) And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the Lord, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it perpetual desolations. (Jer. 25:12.)

e. Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. (Mat. 7:7.) For thou, Lord, hast not forsaken them that seek thee. (Ps. 9:10.) The Lord is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you. (II Chr. 15:2.) I sought the Lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears. (Ps. 34:4.) And they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart. (Jer. 24:7.)

f. For what nation is there so great, who hath God so nigh unto them, as the Lord our God is in all things that we call upon him for? (Dt. 4:7.) For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him. (Ps. 32:6.) God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. (Ps. 46:1.) Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near. (Is. 55:6.)

g. And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and I will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase (3). But, The Lord liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land. (Jer. 23:3, 8.)

h. The Lord shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them; and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth. (Dt. 28:25.)

i. But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. (II Pet. 2:1.)

j. I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies; they strengthen also the hands of evil-doers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah. (Jer. 23:14.)

k. And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the Lord of hosts. (Mal. 3:5.) Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. (Heb. 13:4.)

a. Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever. (Is. 30:8.)

b. And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them. (Amos 9:14.) Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe evidences, and seal them, and take witnesses in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south: for I will cause their captivity to return, saith the Lord. (Jer. 32:44.)

4 ¶ [3]And these are the words that the Lord spake concerning Īs'ra-el and concerning Jū'dah.

5 For thus saith the Lord; We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

7 Alas! for that [4]day is great, [c]so that none is like it; it is even the time of Jā'cob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.

8 [5]For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him:

9 But they shall serve the Lord their God, and [6]Dā'vid [d]their king, whom I will [e]raise up unto them.

10 ¶ Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jā'cob, saith the Lord; neither be dismayed, O Īs'ra-el: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jā'cob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.

11 For I am with thee, saith the Lord, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee [f]in measure, and will not leave thee [7]altogether unpunished.

12 [8]For thus saith the Lord, [g]Thy bruise is [9]incurable, and thy wound is grievous.

13 There is none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up: thou hast no healing medicines.

14 All thy [10]lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not; for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins were increased.

15 Why criest thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee.

16 Therefore all they that devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey.

17 For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the Lord; because they called thee an Outcast, saying, This is Zī'ŏn, whom no man seeketh after.

18 ¶ [11]Thus saith the Lord; Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jā'cob's tents, and have mercy on his dwellingplaces; and the city shall be builded upon her own heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.

19 And [h]out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of them that make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

20 Their children also shall be as aforetime, and their congregation shall be established before me, and I will punish all that oppress them.

21 And their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will [i]cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto me: for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the Lord.

22 And ye shall be [j]my people, and I will be your God.

23 Behold, the whirlwind of the Lord goeth forth with fury, a continuing whirlwind: it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

24 The fierce anger of the Lord shall not return, until he have done it, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it.

CHAPTER 31.

1 The restoration of Israel. 10 The publication thereof. 15 Rahel mourning is comforted. 18 Ephraim repenting is brought home again. 35 The stability, 38 and amplitude of the church.

1 [1]At the same time, saith the Lord, will I be the God of all the families of Īs'ra-el, and they shall [a]be my people.

2 Thus saith the Lord, The people which were left of the sword found grace in the [2]wilderness; even Īs'ra-el, when I went to cause him to rest.

3 The Lord hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, [b]I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee.

4 Again I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Īs'ra-el: thou shalt again be adorned with thy [3]tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry.

5 [c]Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the mountains of Sa-mā'rĭ-à: the planters shall plant, and shall eat them as common things.

6 For there shall be a day, that the watchmen upon the mount Ē'phră-ĭm shall cry, Arise ye, and let us go up to [4]Zī'ŏn unto the Lord our God.

7 [5]For thus saith the Lord; [d]Sing with gladness for Jā'cob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O Lord, save thy people, the remnant of Īs'ra-el.

8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return [6]thither.

9 They [e]shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a

d. Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people. (Is. 55:3, 4.)

e. And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David. (Luke 1:69.) Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne. (Acts 2:30.)

f. O Lord, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure. (Ps. 6:1.) In measure, when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind. (Is. 27:8.)

g. But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the Lord arose against his people, till there was no remedy. (II Chr. 36:16.)

h. And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs, and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away. (Is. 35:10.)

i. And he spake unto Korah, and unto all his company, saying, Even tomorrow the Lord will show who are his, and who is holy; and will cause him to come near unto him: even him whom he hath chosen will he cause to come near unto him. (Num. 16:5.)

j. And I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God. (Ex. 6:7.) And I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God. (Hos. 2:23.) They shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people; and they shall say, The Lord is my God. (Zech. 13:9.)

a. See j, ch. 30.

b. I have loved you, saith the Lord: yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother, saith the Lord: yet I loved Jacob. (Mal. 1:2.)

And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them. (Amos 9:14.)

d. Sing unto the Lord; for he hath done excellent things: this is known in all the earth. (Is. 12:5.)

e. They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. (Ps. 126:5.) In those days, and in that time, saith the Lord, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and weeping: they shall go, and seek the Lord their God. (Jer. 50:4.)

straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: for I am a father to Ĭs'ra-el, and Ē'phră-ĭm is my firstborn.

10 ¶ Hear the word of the Lord, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Ĭs'ra-el [f]will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock.

11 For the Lord hath redeemed Jā'cob, and ransomed him from the hand of him that was stronger than he.

12 Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zī'ŏn, and shall flow together to [g]the goodness of the Lord, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; [h]and they shall not sorrow any more at all.

13 Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.

14 And I will [7]satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the Lord.

15 ¶ Thus saith the Lord; A voice was heard in Rā'mah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rā'hel weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not.

16 Thus saith the Lord; Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the Lord; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy.

17 And there is hope in thine end, saith the Lord, that thy children shall come again to their own border.

18 ¶ I have surely heard Ē'phră-ĭm bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the Lord my God.

19 Surely [i]after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.

20 Is Ē'phră-ĭm my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: [j]therefore my bowels are troubled for him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the Lord.

21 Set thee up waymarks, make thee high heaps: set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Ĭs'ra-el, turn again to these thy cities.

22 ¶ How long wilt thou go about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the Lord hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman [8]shall compass a man.

23 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Ĭs'ra-el; As [9]yet they shall use this speech in the land of Jū'dah and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity; The Lord bless thee, O habitation of justice, and mountain of [10]holiness.

24 And there shall dwell in Jū'dah itself, and in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks.

25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.

26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me.

27 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will sow the house of Ĭs'ra-el and the house of Jū'dah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

28 And it shall come to pass, that like as I have [k]watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, saith the Lord.

29 In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge.

30 [l]But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 ¶ Behold, the [11]days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a [12]new covenant with the house of Ĭs'ra-el, and with the house of Jū'dah:

32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Ē'gўpt; which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the Lord:

33 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Ĭs'ra-el; After those days, saith the Lord, [m]I will put my law in their [13]inward parts, and write it in their hearts; [n]and will be their God, and they shall [o]be my people.

34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for [o]they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

35 ¶ Thus saith the Lord, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The Lord of hosts is his name:

36 If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the Lord, then the seed of Ĭs'ra-el also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

37 Thus saith the Lord; [p]If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will cast off all the seed of Ĭs'ra-el for all that they have done, saith the Lord.

38 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that the city shall be built to the Lord from the tower of Ha-năn'e-el unto the gate of the corner.

39 And the measuring line shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill Gā'rĕb, and shall compass about to Gō'ath.

k. Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them. (Jer. 44:27.)

l. For every man shall bear his own burden. (Gal. 6:5.) Who will render to every man according to his deeds. (Rom. 2:6.)

m. I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart. (Ps. 40:8.) And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh. (Ez. 11:19.)

n. And ye shall be my people, and I will be your God. (Jer. 30:22.)

o. And all thy children shall be taught of the Lord; and great shall be the peace of thy children. (Is. 54:13.) It is written in the Prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me. (Jno. 6:45.)

p. As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured; so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me. (Jer. 33:22.)

40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields unto the brook of Kĭd'ron, unto the corner of the horse gate toward the east, [q]shall be holy unto the Lord; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more for ever.

CHAPTER 32.

1 Jeremiah, being imprisoned by Zedekiah, 6 buyeth Hanameel's field. 13 Baruch must preserve the evidences, as tokens of the people's return. 26 God confirmeth the captivity for their sins.

1 [1]The word that came to Jĕr-e-mī'ah from the Lord in the tenth year of Zĕd-e-kī'ah king of Jū'dah, which was the eighteenth year of Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar.

2 For then the king of Băb'ў-lon's army besieged Je-rų'sa-lĕm: and Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet was shut up in the court [2]of the prison, which was in the king of Jū'dah's house.

3 For Zĕd-e-kī'ah king of Jū'dah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Băb'ў-lon, and he shall take it;

4 And Zĕd-e-kī'ah king of Jū'dah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chăl-dē'ans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Băb'ў-lon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes;

5 And he shall lead Zĕd-e-kī'ah to Băb'ў-lon, and there shall he be [a]until [3]I visit him, saith the Lord: though [b]ye fight with the Chăl-dē'ans, ye shall not prosper.

6 ¶ [4]And Jĕr-e-mī'ah said, The word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

7 Behold, Ha-năm'e-el the son of Shăl'lum thine [5]uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Ăn'a-thoth: for the [c]right of redemption is thine to buy it.

8 So Ha-năm'e-el mine uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the Lord, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Ăn'a-thoth, which is in the country of Bĕn'ja-min: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew this was the word of the Lord.

9 And I bought the field of Ha-năm'e-el my uncle's son, that was in Ăn'a-thoth, and weighed him the money, even [6]seventeen shekels of silver.

10 And I subscribed the evidence, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open:

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto Bā'rųch the son of Ne-rī'ah, the son of Mā-a-sē'iah, in the sight of Ha-năm'e-el mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 ¶ And I charged Bā'rųch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Ĭs'ra-el; Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days.

15 For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Ĭs'ra-el; Houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land.

16 ¶ [7]Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Bā'rųch the son of Ne-rī'ah, [d]I prayed unto the Lord, saying,

17 Ah Lord God! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too [8]hard for thee:

18 Thou shewest [e]lovingkindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the Great, [f]the Mighty God, the Lord of hosts, is his name,

19 Great in counsel, and mighty in work: for thine eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men: to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings:

20 Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Ē'gўpt, even unto this day, and in Ĭs'ra-el, and among other men; and hast made thee a name, as at this day;

21 And [g]hast brought forth thy people Ĭs'ra-el out of the land of Ē'gўpt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with great terror;

22 And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, [h]a land flowing with milk and honey;

23 And they came in, and possessed it; but [i]they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them:

24 Behold the mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chăl-dē'ans, that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken [j]is come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it.

25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord God, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; for the city is given into the hand of the Chăl-dē'ans.

26 ¶ [9]Then came the word of the Lord unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah, saying,

27 Behold, I am the Lord, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me?

28 Therefore thus saith the Lord; Behold, I

Ch. 32. B. C. 590.

1. In this ch. Jer. is imprisoned for his prophecy against Jerusalem. His prayer for a fuller and more perfect revelation is given; also Jehovah's answer.

2. Treated with consideration, and was not confined to the dungeon.

3. That is, in a good sense.

4. In vs. 6-15 Jer. buys property in Anathoth.

5. Shallum.

6. About $10.00.

7. In vs. 16-23 is recorded Jeremiah's prayer for a more perfect revelation.

8. Too wonderful.

9. In vs. 26-44 is recorded Jehovah's answer.

q. So shall ye know that I am the Lord your God dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her any more. (Joel 3:17.)

Chapter 32.

a. They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, saith the Lord: then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place. (Jer. 27:22.)

b. There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the Lord. (Prov. 21:30.) Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without the walls, and I will assemble them into the midst of this city. (Jer. 21:4.)

c. And I thought to advertise thee, saying, Buy it before the inhabitants, and before the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem it, redeem it; but if thou will not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know: for there is none to redeem it besides thee; and I am after thee. And he said, I will redeem it. (Ruth 4:4.)

d. I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes. (Dan. 9:3.) The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth. (Ps. 145:18.) Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens. (Lam. 3:41.) Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. (Mat. 7:7, 8.)

e. And showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments. (Ex. 20:6.) Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty. (Ex. 34:7.)

f. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace. (Is. 9:6.)

g. Wherefore say unto the children of Israel, I am the Lord, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched-out arm, and with great judgments. (Ex. 6:6.) And brought out Israel from among them: for his mercy endureth for ever. (Ps. 136:11.)

h. And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey. (Ex. 3:8.)

i. Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee; and they wrought great provocations. (Neh. 9:26.)

j. Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all good things are come upon you, which the Lord your God promised you; so shall the Lord will give this city into the hand of the Chăl-dē'anş, and into the hand of Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'-zar king of Băb'ў-lon, and he shall take it:

29 And the Chăl-dē'anş, that fight against this city, shall come and set fire on this city, and burn it with the houses, [k]upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Bā'al, and poured out drink offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.

30 For the children of Ĭs'ra-el and the children of Jū'dah have only done evil before me from their youth: for the children of Ĭs'ra-el have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the Lord.

31 For this city hath been to me as a provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; [l]that I should remove it from before my face,

32 Because of all the evil of the children of Ĭs'ra-el and of the children of Jū'dah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Jū'dah, and the inhabitants of Je-rų'sa-lĕm.

33 And they have turned unto me the back, and not the face: though I taught them, [m]rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.

34 But they [n]set their [10]abominations in the house, which is called by my name, to defile it.

35 And they built the high places of Bā'al, which are in the valley of the son of Hĭn'nom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Mō'lech; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Jū'dah to sin.

36 ¶ And now therefore thus saith the Lord, the God of Ĭs'ra-el, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Băb'ў-lon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence;

37 Behold, I will gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them [o]to dwell safely:

38 And they shall be my people, and I will be their God:

39 And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them:

40 And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

41 Yea, [p]I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul.

42 For thus saith the Lord; Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.

43 And fields shall be bought in this land, whereof ye say, It is desolate without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chăl-dē'anş.

44 Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe evidences, and seal them, and take witnesses in the land of Bĕn'ja-min, and in the places about Je-rų'sa-lĕm, and in the cities of Jū'dah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south: for I will cause their captivity to return, saith the Lord.

10. Idols.

CHAPTER 33.

1 God promiseth to the captivity a gracious return, 9 a joyful state, 12 a settled government, 15 Christ the Branch of righteousness, 17 a continuance of kingdom and priesthood, 20 and a stability of a blessed seed.

Ch. 33. B. C. 590.

1 [1]Moreover the word of the Lord came unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah the second time, while he was yet [a]shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

1. In ch. 33 is recorded a prophecy of the restoration from Babylon and the setting up of Messiah, as King and Priest. In vs. 1-14 is described the happiness of the returning exiles.

2 Thus saith the Lord the maker thereof, the Lord that formed it, to establish it; [b]the Lord is his name;

2. The city.

3 Call [c]unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.

4 For thus saith the Lord, the God of Ĭs'ra-el, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Jū'dah, which are thrown down by the mounts, and by the sword;

5 They come to fight with the Chăl-dē'anş, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city.

3. Overwhelmed by the wonderful revelations of God.

6 Behold, [d]I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

7 And [e]I will cause the captivity of Jū'dah and the captivity of Ĭs'ra-el to return, and will build them, as at the first.

8 And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.

9 ¶ And [2]it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall fear [3]and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure unto it.

10 Thus saith the Lord; Again there shall be heard in this [4]place, which ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Jū'dah, and in the streets of Je-rų'sa-lĕm, that are desolate, without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast,

bring upon you all evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land which the Lord your God hath given you. (Josh. 23:15.)

k. And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be defiled as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose roofs they have burned incense unto all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink offerings unto other gods. (Jer. 19:13.)

l. And the Lord said, I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there. (II Ks. 23:27.)

m. And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the Lord, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not. (Jer. 7:13.)

n. For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the Lord: they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to pollute it. (Jer. 7:30.) Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and, behold, northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry. (Ez. 8:5.)

o. And I will give them an heart to know me, that I am the Lord: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart. (Jer. 24:7.)

p. And the Lord thy God will make thee plenteous in every work of thine hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good: for the Lord will again rejoice over thee for good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers. (Dt. 30:9.) The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love; he will joy over thee with singing. (Zeph. 3:17.)

b. The Lord is a man of war: the Lord is his name. (Ex. 15:3.) Seek him that maketh the seven stars and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The Lord is his name. (Amos 5:8.)

c. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honor him. (Ps. 91:15.) And call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me. (Ps. 50:15.) Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. (Is. 55:6, 7.)

d. For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the Lord; because they called thee an Outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after. (Jer. 30:17.)

e. Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be 11 The voice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that shall say, [f]Praise the Lord of hosts: for the Lord is good; for his [g]mercy endureth for ever: and of them that shall bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the Lord. For I will cause to return the captivity of the land, as at the first, saith the Lord.

12 Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Again in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be an habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down.

13 In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Běn'ja-min, and in the places about Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and in the cities of Jū'dah, shall the flocks pass again under the hands of him that telleth them, saith the Lord.

14 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that [h]I will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Ĭs'ra-el and to the house of Jū'dah.

15 ¶ [5]In those days, and at that time, will I cause the [i]Branch of righteousness to grow up unto Dā'vid; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land.

16 [j]In those days shall Jū'dah be saved, and Je-ru'sa-lĕm shall dwell safely: and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, The Lord our righteousness.

17 ¶ For thus saith the Lord; [k]Dā'vid shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Ĭs'ra-el;

18 Neither shall the priests the Lē'vītes want a man before me to [l]offer burnt offerings, and to kindle meat offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.

19 ¶ [6]And the word of the Lord came unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah, saying,

20 Thus saith the Lord; If ye can break [m]my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season;

21 Then may also my covenant be broken with Dā'vid my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Lē'vītes the priests, my ministers.

22 As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of Dā'vid my servant, and the Lē'vītes shall minister unto me.

23 Moreover the word of the Lord came to Jĕr-e-mī'ah, saying,

24 Considerest thou not what [7]this people have spoken, saying, The [8]two families which the Lord hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.

25 Thus saith the Lord; If my covenant [n]be not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth;

26 Then will I cast away the seed of Jā'cob, and Dā'vid my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Ā'brā-hăm, Ī'saac, and Jā'cob: [o]for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.

5. In vs. 15-18 is recorded the prophecy of Christ, the Branch, both King and Priest.

6. In vs. 19-26, God's perpetual covenant.

7. The Jews.

8. Israel and Judea.

CHAPTER 34.

1 Jeremiah prophesieth the captivity of Zedekiah and the city. 8 The princes and the people having dismissed their bondservants, contrary to the covenant of God, reassume them. 12 Jeremiah, for their disobedience, giveth them and Zedekiah into the hands of their enemies.

Ch. 34. B. C. 591-590.

1 [1]The word which came unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah from the Lord, when Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth of his dominion, and all the people, fought against Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and against all the cities thereof, saying,

2 Thus saith the Lord, the God of Ĭs'ra-el; Go and speak to Zĕd-e-kī'ah king of Jū'dah, and tell him, Thus saith the Lord; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Băb'ў-lon, and he shall burn it with fire:

3 And thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Băb'ў-lon, and he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Băb'ў-lon.

4 Yet hear the word of the Lord, O Zĕd-e-kī'ah king of Jū'dah; Thus saith the Lord of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword:

5 But thou shalt die in peace: and with the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, so shall they burn odours for thee; and they will lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the Lord.

6 Then Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet spake all these words unto Zĕd-e-kī'ah king of Jū'dah in Je-ru'sa-lĕm, 7 When the king of Băb'ў-lon's army fought against Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and against all the cities of Jū'dah that were left, against [2]Lā'chish, and against [2]A-zē'kah: for these defenced cities remained of the cities of Jū'dah.

8 ¶ [3]This is the word that came unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah from the Lord, after that the king Zĕd-e-kī'ah had made a covenant with all the peo-

1. In ch. 34 that part of the prophecy recorded in 32:1-5 (referring to Zed., because of which Jer. was imprisoned) is here continued. Because of their disobedience and perfidy, Zed. and his people shall be taken into bondage

2. Lachish and Azekah are situated in the southwestern part of Judah. Both were fortified by Rehoboam (II Chr. 11:19).

3. In vs. 8-22, judgments are pronounced against the people for annulling the order to liberate their slaves.

clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. (Ez. 36:25.) In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness. (Zech. 13:1.) Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy. (Mic. 7:18.)

f. Give thanks unto the Lord, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the people. (I Chr. 16:8.)

g. And they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks unto the Lord; because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. (Ezra 3:11.) The Lord, The Lord God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth. (Ex. 34:6.) With the merciful thou wilt show thyself merciful. (Ps. 18:25.) Turn unto me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies. (Ps. 69:16.) And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. (Ps. 106:45.) For I am merciful, saith the Lord, and I will not keep anger for ever. (Jer. 3:12.)

h. For thus saith the Lord, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. (Jer. 29:10.) Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment. And a man shall be as an hiding-place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place; as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land. (Is. 32:1, 2.) And I will set up one Shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. And I the Lord will be their God, and my servant David a prince among them; I the Lord have spoken it. And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. (Ez. 34:23-25.)

i. In that day shall the branch of the Lord be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel. (Is. 4:2.) And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. (Is. 11:1.)

j. Israel then shall dwell in safety alone: the fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine; also his heavens shall drop down dew. (Dt. 33:28.) But Israel shall be saved in the Lord with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end. (Is. 45:17.)

k. There shall not be cut off from David.—And thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever. (II Sam. 7:16.) His seed also will I make to endure for ever, and his throne as the days of heaven. (Ps. 89:29.) He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David. (Luke 1:32.)

l. I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. (Rom. 12:1.) And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. (Rev. 1:6.)

m. It shall be established for ever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven. (Ps. 89:37.) For this is as the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee. (Is. 54:9.)

n. While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease. (Gen. 8:22.) The day is thine, the night also is thine; thou hast prepared the light and the sun. (Ps. 74:16.)

o. Now these are the children of the province that went up out of the captivity, of those which had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away unto Babylon, and came again unto Jerusalem and Judah, every one unto his city. (Ezra 2:1.)

ple which were at Je-ru'sa-lĕm, to proclaim liberty unto them;

9 [a]That every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being an Hē'brew or an Hē'brew-ess, go free; [b]that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother.

10 Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his manservant, and every one his maidservant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go.

11 But afterward they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.

12 ¶ Therefore the word of the Lord came to Jĕr-e-mī'ah from the Lord, saying,

13 Thus saith the Lord, the God of Ĭs'ra-el; I made a [c]covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Ē'gўpt, out of the house of bondmen, saying,

14 At the end of [d]seven [4]years let ye go every man his brother an Hē'brew, which hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear.

15 And ye were now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had [c]made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name:

16 But ye turned and [5]polluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids.

17 Therefore thus saith the Lord; Ye have not [f]hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: [g]behold, I proclaim [6]a liberty for you, saith the Lord, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

18 And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, when they cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof,

19 The princes of Jū'dah, and the princes of Je-ru'sa-lĕm, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between the parts of the calf;

20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life: and their [h]dead [7]bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth.

21 And Zĕd-e-kī'ah king of Jū'dah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Băb'ў-lon's army, which are gone up from you.

22 Behold, I will command, saith the Lord, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, [i]and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Jū'dah a desolation without an inhabitant.

4. At the end of six years Hebrew bondage ceased. (Dt. 15:12)—"And if thy brother, an Hebrew man or an Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee and serve thee six years, then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee."

5. Violated your oath.

6. Your punishment shall be according to your offence.

7. As the makers of the covenant passed the pieces of the calf, so shall those who violated the covenant have their bodies cut to pieces.

CHAPTER 35.

1 By the obedience of the Rechabites, 12 Jeremiah condemneth the disobedience of the Jews. 18 God blesseth the Rechabites for their obedience.

Ch. 35. B. C. 607.

1 [1]The word which came unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah from the Lord in the days of Je-hoi'a-kim the son of Jo-sī'ah king of Jū'dah, saying,

2 Go unto the house of the Rē'chab-ītes, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the Lord, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink.

3 Then I took Ja-ăz-a-nī'ah the son of Jĕr-e-mī'ah, the son of Hăb-a-zī-nī'ah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rē'chab-ītes;

4 And I brought them into the house of the Lord, into the chamber of the sons of Hā'nan, the son of Ĭg-da-lī'ah, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Mā-a-sē'iah the son of Shăl'lum, the keeper [2]of the door:

5 And I set before the sons of the house of the Rē'chab-ītes pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink ye wine.

6 But they said, We will drink no wine: for Jŏn'a-dăb the son of Rē'chab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever:

7 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; [a]that ye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers.

8 Thus have we obeyed [b]the voice of Jŏn'a-dăb the son of Rē'chab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters;

9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed:

10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jŏn'a-dăb our father commanded us.

11 But it came to pass, when Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon came up into the

a. Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their olive yards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, the oil, that ye exact of them. (Neh. 5:11.)

b. And if thy brother that dwelleth by thee be waxen poor, and be sold unto thee; thou shalt not compel him to serve as a bond-servant. (Lev. 25:39.)

c. And Moses came and told the people all the words of the Lord, and all the judgments: and all the people answered with one voice, and said, All the words which the Lord hath said will we do (3). And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, All that the Lord hath said will we do, and be obedient. And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the Lord hath made with you concerning all these words. (Ex. 24:3, 7, 8.) The Lord our God made a covenant with us in Horeb. The Lord made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day (2, 3). Go thou near, and hear all that the Lord our God shall say; and speak thou unto us all that the Lord our God shall speak unto thee; and we will hear it, and do it. (Dt. 5:2, 3, 27.)

d. And if thy brother, an Hebrew man, or an Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years, then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee. (Dt. 15:12.) But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no bondmen: but they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen. (I Ks. 9:22.) If thou buy an Hebrew servant, six years he shall serve; and in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing. (Ex. 21:2.)

e. And the king stood by a pillar, and made a covenant before the Lord, to walk after the Lord, and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes with all their heart and all their soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book: and all the people stood to the covenant. (II Ks. 23:3.)

f. Yet many years didst thou forbear them, and testifiedst against them by thy Spirit in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands. (Neh. 9:30.)

g. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. (Mat. 7:2.) That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified. (I Thess. 4:6.)

h. And the carcases of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them away. (Jer. 7:33.) They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcases shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth. (Jer. 16:4.)

i. Thus saith the Lord, This city shall surely be given into the hand of Babylon's army, which shall take it. (Jer. 38:3.)

a. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. (Ex. 20:12.) Honor thy father and mother; (which is the first commandment with promise:) That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth. (Eph. 6:2, 3.)

b. My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Je-ru'sa-lĕm for fear of the army of the Chăl-dē'ans, and for fear of the army of the Sȳr'-ĭ-ans: so we dwell at Je-ru'sa-lĕm.

12 ¶ [3]Then came the word of the Lord unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah, saying,

13 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Ĭs'ra-el; Go and tell the men of Jū'dah and the inhabitants of Je-ru'sa-lĕm, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the Lord.

14 The words of Jŏn'a-dăb the son of Rē'-chab, that he [4]commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, [c]rising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me.

15 [d]I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return [e]ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.

16 Because the sons of Jŏn'a-dăb the son of Rē'chab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me:

17 Therefore thus saith the Lord God of hosts, the God of Ĭs'ra-el; Behold, I [f]will bring upon Jū'dah and upon all the inhabitants of Je-ru'sa-lĕm all the evil that I have pronounced against them: [g]because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

18 ¶ And Jĕr-e-mī'ah said unto the house of the Rē'chab-ītes, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Ĭs'ra-el; Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jŏn'a-dăb your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you:

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Ĭs'ra-el; Jŏn'a-dăb the son of Rē'-chab shall not [5]want a man to stand before me for ever.

CHAPTER 36.

1 Jeremiah causeth Baruch to write his prophecy, 5 and publickly to read it. 11 The princes, having intelligence thereof, send Jehudi to fetch the roll, and read it. 20 The king Jehoiakim, being certified thereof, heareth part of it, and burneth the roll. 32 Baruch writeth a new copy.

1 [1]And it came to pass in the fourth [2]year of Je-hoi'a-kim the son of Jo-sī'ah king of Jū'-dah, that this word came unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah from the Lord, saying,

2 Take thee a roll of a book, and [a]write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Ĭs'ra-el, and against Jū'dah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of Jo-sī'ah, even unto this day.

3 [b]It may be that the house of Jū'dah will [3]hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may [c]return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

4 Then Jĕr-e-mī'ah called Bā'rŭch the son of Ne-rī'ah: and [d]Bā'rŭch wrote from the mouth of Jĕr-e-mī'ah all the words of the Lord, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.

5 And Jĕr-e-mī'ah commanded Bā'rŭch, saying, I am [4]shut up; I cannot go into the house of the Lord:

6 Therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the Lord in the ears of the people in the Lord's house upon the [5]fasting day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Jū'dah that come out of their cities.

7 It may be they will present their supplication before the Lord, and will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the Lord hath pronounced against this people.

8 And Bā'rŭch the son of Ne-rī'ah did according to all that Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the Lord in the Lord's house.

9 [e]And it came to pass in the fifth year of Je-hoi'a-kim the son of Jo-sī'ah king of Jū'dah, in the ninth month, that [6]they proclaimed a [5]fast before the Lord to all the people in Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and to all the people that came from the cities of Jū'dah unto Je-ru'sa-lĕm.

10 Then read Bā'rŭch in the book the words of Jĕr-e-mī'ah in the house of the Lord, in the chamber of Gĕm-a-rī'ah the son of Shā'phan the scribe, in the higher court, at the entry of the new gate of the Lord's house, in the ears of all the people.

11 ¶ When Mī-chā'iah the son of Gĕm-a-rī'-ah, the son of Shā'phan, had heard out of the book all the words of the Lord, 12 Then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's [7]chamber: and, lo, all the princes sat there, even E-lĭsh'a-mà the scribe, and Del-a-ī'ah the son of Shĕm-a-ī'ah, and Ēl'-na-than the son of Āch'bor, and Gĕm-a-rī'ah the son of Shā'phan, and Zĕd-e-kī'ah the son of Hăn-a-nī'ah, and all the princes.

13 Then Mī-chā'iah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Bā'rŭch read the book in the ears of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Je-hū'dī law of thy mother. (Prov. 1:8.) Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well-pleasing unto the Lord. (Col. 3:20.)

c. And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the Lord, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not. (Jer. 7:13.) From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year, the word of the Lord hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened. (Jer. 25:3.)

d. Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them. (Jer. 7:25.)

e. Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the Lord; Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good. (Jer. 18:11.) They said, Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the Lord hath given unto you and your fathers for ever and ever: And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt. (Jer. 25:5, 6.)

f. Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all good things are come upon you, which the Lord your God promised you; so shall the Lord bring upon you all evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land which the Lord your God hath given you. (Josh. 23:15.)

g. Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded. (Prov. 1:24.) b. If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may repent me of the evil which I purpose to do unto them, because of the evil of their doings. (Jer. 26:3.) d. The word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying. (Jer. 45:1.)

e. the son of Nĕth-a-nī'ah, the son of Shĕl-e-mī'ah, the son of Cu'shī, unto Bā'ruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Bā'ruch the son of Ne-rī'ah took the roll in his hand, and came unto [f]them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Bā'ruch read it in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Bā'ruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Bā'ruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Bā'ruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

19 [8]Then said the princes unto Bā'ruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jĕr-e-mī'ah; and let no man know where ye be.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of E-lĭsh'a-mà the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Je-hū'dī to fetch the roll: and he took it out of E'lĭsh-a-mà the scribe's chamber. And Je-hū'dī read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in the winterhouse in the ninth month: and there was a [9]fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to pass, that when Je-hū'dī had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

24 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.

25 Nevertheless Ēl'na-than and Del-a-ī'ah and Gĕm-a-rī'ah [g]had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them.

26 But the king commanded Je-räh'me-el the son of Hăm'me-lĕch, and Sĕr-a-ī'ah the son of Āz'rĭ-el, and Shĕl-a-mī'ah the son of Āb'de-el, to take [h]Bā'ruch the scribe and Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet: but the [i]Lord hid them.

27 ¶ [10]Then the word of the Lord came to Jĕr-e-mī'ah, after [j]that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Bā'ruch wrote at the mouth of Jĕr-e-mī'ah, saying,

28 Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Je-hoi'a-kim the king of Jū'dah hath burned.

29 And thou shalt say to Je-hoi'a-kim king of Jū'dah, Thus saith the Lord; Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Băb'ў-lon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast?

30 Therefore thus saith the Lord of Je-hoi'a-kim king of Jū'dah; [k]He shall have none to sit upon the throne of Dā'vid: and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

31 And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Je-ru'sa'lĕm, and upon the men of Jū'dah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them; but they hearkened not.

32 ¶ Then took Jĕr-e-mī'ah another roll, and gave it to Bā'ruch the scribe, the son of Ne-rī'ah; [l]who wrote therein from the mouth of Jĕr-e-mī'ah all the words of the book which Je-hoi'a-kim king of Jū'dah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words.

CHAPTER 37.

1 The Egyptians having raised the siege of the Chaldeans, king Zedekiah sendeth to Jeremiah to pray for the people. 6 Jeremiah prophesieth the Chaldeans' certain return and victory. 11 He is taken for a fugitive, beaten, and put in prison. 16 He assureth Zedekiah of the captivity.

1 [1]And king Zĕd-e-kī'ah the son of Jo-sī'ah reigned instead of [2]Co-nī'ah the son of Je-hoi'a-kim, [3]whom Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon made king in the land of Jū'dah.

2 But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the Lord, which he spake by the prophet Jĕr-e-mī'ah.

3 And Zĕd-e-kī'ah the king sent Jē'hū-cal the son of Shĕl-e-mī'ah and Zĕph-a-nī'ah the son of Mā-a-sē'iah the priest to the prophet Jĕr-e-mī'ah, saying, Pray now unto the Lord our God for us.

4 Now Jĕr-e-mī'ah came in and went out among the people: for they had not put him into prison.

5 Then Phā'raōh's army was come forth out of Ē'gў̆pt: and when the Chăl-dē'anş that besieged Je-ru'sa-lĕm heard tidings of them, they departed from Je-ru'sa-lĕm.

6 ¶ Then came the word of the Lord unto the prophet Jĕr-e-mī'ah, saying,

7 Thus saith the Lord, the God of Īs'ra-el; Thus shall ye say to the king of Jū'dah, that [a]sent you unto me to enquire of me; Behold, Phā'raōh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Ē'gў̆pt into their own land.

8 [b]And the Chăl-dē'anş shall come again, and fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire.

9 Thus saith the Lord; Deceive not yourselves, saying, The Chăl-dē'anş shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart.

10 For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chăl-dē'anş that fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet [c]should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

f. And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house. (Ez. 2:6.)

g. Be not ye therefore partakers with them (7). And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. (Eph. 5:7, 11.)

h. Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city (34). O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! (Mat. 23:34, 37.)

i. God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. (Ps. 46:1.) He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. (Ps. 91:1.) The Lord shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in, from this time forth, and even for evermore. (Ps. 121:8.) And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the Lord, to deliver thee. (Jer. 1:19.)

j. There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the Lord. (Prov. 21:30.)

k. Thus saith the Lord, Write ye this man childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah. (Jer. 22:30.)

l. And thou shalt speak unto him, and put words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye shall do. (Ex. 4:15.)

a. Enquire, I pray thee, of the Lord for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us; if so be that the Lord will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us. (Jer. 21:2.)

b. The Lord bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect. (Ps. 33:10.) There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the Lord. (Prov. 21:30.) Woe to the rebellious children, saith the Lord, that take counsel, but not of me; and that cover with a covering, but not of my Spirit, that they may add sin to sin. (Is. 30:1.) And Zedekiah king of Judah, and his princes, will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which are gone up from you. Behold, I will command, saith the Lord, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire. (Jer. 34:21, 22.)

c. Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the 11 ¶ [4]And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chăl-dē'ans was broken [5]up from Je-ru'sa-lĕm for fear of Phā'raōh's army, 12 Then Jĕr-e-mī'ah went forth out of Je-ru'sa-lĕm to go into the land of Bĕn'ja-min, to separate [6]himself thence in the midst of the people.

13 And when he was in the gate of Bĕn'ja-min, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Ī-rī'jah, the son of Shĕl-e-mī'ah, the son of Hăn-a-nī'ah; and he took Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet, saying, Thou fallest away to the Chăl-dē'ans.

14 Then said Jĕr-e-mī'ah, It is false; I fall not away to the Chăl-dē'ans. But he hearkened not to him: so Ī-rī'jah took Jĕr-e-mī'ah, and brought him to the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jĕr-e-mī'ah, and smote him, and put him in prison in the house of Jŏn'a-than the scribe: for they had made that the prison.

16 ¶ [7]When Jĕr-e-mī'ah was entered into the dungeon, [8]and into the cabins, and Jĕr-e-mī'ah had remained there many days;

17 Then Zĕd-e-kī'ah the king sent, and took him out: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, [d]Is there any word from the Lord? And Jĕr-e-mī'ah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Băb'ў-lon.

18 Moreover Jĕr-e-mī'ah said unto king Zĕd-e-kī'ah, What have I [9]offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?

19 Where are now [9]your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Băb'ў-lon shall not come against you, nor against this land?

20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jŏn'a-than the scribe, lest I die there.

21 Then Zĕd-e-kī'ah the king commanded that they should commit Jĕr-e-mī'ah into the court of the prison, and [e]that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, [f]until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jĕr-e-mī'ah remained [g]in the court of the prison.

CHAPTER 38.

1 Jeremiah, by a false suggestion, is put into the dungeon of Malhiah. 7 Ebed-melech, by suit, getteth him some enlargement. 14 Upon secret conference he counselleth the king by yielding to save his life. 24 By the king's instructions he concealeth the conference from the princes.

1 [1]Then Shĕph-a-tī'ah the son of Măt'tan, and Gĕd-a-lī'ah the son of Păsh'ŭr, and Jū'cal the son of Shĕl-e-mī'ah, and Păsh'ŭr the son of Măl-chī'ah, [a]heard the words that Jĕr-e-mī'ah had spoken unto all the people, saying,

2 Thus saith the Lord, He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chăl-dē'ans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.

3 Thus saith the Lord, [b]This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Băb'ў-lon's army, which shall take it.

4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, [c]let this man be put to death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the welfare of this people, but the [2]hurt.

5 Then Zĕd-e-kī'ah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing against you.

6 [3]Then took they Jĕr-e-mī'ah, and cast him into [d]the [4]dungeon of Măl-chī'ah the son of Hăm'me-lĕch, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jĕr-e-mī'ah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jĕr-e-mī'ah sunk in the mire.

7 ¶ Now when Ē'bĕd-mē'lĕch the Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-an, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jĕr-e-mī'ah in the [4]dungeon; the king then sitting in the gate of Bĕn'ja-min;

8 Ē'bĕd-mē'lĕch went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet, whom they have cast into the [4]dungeon; and he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is: for there is no more bread in the city.

10 Then the king commanded Ē'bĕd-mē'lĕch the Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-an, saying, Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet out of the [4]dungeon, before he die.

11 So Ē'bĕd-mē'lĕch took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jĕr-e-mī'ah.

12 And [e]Ē'bĕd-mē'lĕch the Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-an said unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine armholes under the cords. And Jĕr-e-mī'ah did so.

13 So they drew up Jĕr-e-mī'ah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jĕr-e-mī'ah remained in the court of the prison.

14 [5]¶ Then Zĕd-e-kī'ah the king sent, and took Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet unto him into the third entry that is in the house of the Lord: and the king said unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah, I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me.

15 Then Jĕr-e-mī'ah said unto Zĕd-e-kī'ah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt [6]thou not hearken unto me?

king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without the walls, and I will assemble them into the midst of this city. (Jer. 21:4.)

d. For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly. (Mk. 6:20.)

e. And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook (7). Arise, get to Zarephath, which belongeth to Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee. (I Ks. 17:6, 9.) In famine he shall redeem thee from death; and in war from the power of the sword. (Job 5:20.)

f. And on the ninth day of the fourth month the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land. (II Ks. 25:3.) So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. (Jer. 52:5, 6.) See ch. 38:9.

a. And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I set before you the way of life, and the way of death. (Jer. 21:8.) But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming. (Acts 13:45.)

b. For I have set my face against this city for evil, and not for good, saith the Lord; it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire. (Jer. 21:10.) Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it. (Jer. 32:3.)

c. Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes, and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy to die; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears. (Jer. 26:11.) Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words. (Amos 7:10.)

d. They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast a stone upon me. (Lam. 3:53.) And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. (Mat. 25:40.)

e. He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward. (Mat. 10:41.) For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward. (Mk. 9:41.) Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she 16 So Zĕd-e-kī'ah the king sware secretly unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah, saying, As the Lord liveth, [f]that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

17 Then said Jĕr-e-mī'ah unto Zĕd-e-kī'ah, Thus saith the Lord, the God of hosts, the God of Īs'ra-el; If thou wilt assuredly [g]go forth unto the king of Băb'ў-lon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house:

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Băb'ў-lon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chăl-dē'anș, and they shall burn it with fire, and [h]thou shalt not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zĕd-e-kī'ah the king said unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chăl-dē'anș, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.

20 But Jĕr-e-mī'ah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the Lord, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

21 But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the Lord hath shewed me:

22 And, behold, all the [7]women that are left in the king of Jū'dah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Băb'ў-lon's princes, and those women shall say, Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy children to the Chăl-dē'anș: and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Băb'ў-lon: and thou shalt cause this city to be burned with fire.

24 ¶ Then said Zĕd-e-kī'ah unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee:

26 Then thou shalt say unto them, [i]I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jŏn'a-than's house, to die there.

27 Then came all the princes unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

28 So [j]Jĕr-e-mī'ah abode in the court of the prison until the day that Je-rū'sa-lĕm was taken: and he was there when Je-rū'sa-lĕm was taken.

CHAPTER 39.

1 Jerusalem is taken. 4 Zedekiah is made blind, and sent to Babylon. 8 The city ruinated, 9 the people captivated. 11 Nebuchadrezzar's charge for the good usage of Jeremiah.

1 [1]In the ninth year of Zĕd-e-kī'ah king of Jū'dah, in the tenth month, came Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon and all his army against Je-rū'sa-lĕm, and they besieged it.

2 And in the eleventh year of Zĕd-e-kī'ah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up.

3 And all the princes of the king of Băb'ў-lon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nĕr'gal-sha-rē'zer, Săm'găr-nē'bo, Săr-sē'chim, Răb'sa-rĭs, Nĕr'gal-sha-rē'zer, Răb'-măg, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Băb'ў-lon.

4 ¶ [2]And it came to pass, that when Zĕd-e-kī'ah the king of Jū'dah [3]saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the [4]two walls: and he went out the way of the plain.

5 But the Chăl-dē'anș' army pursued after them, and [a]overtook Zĕd-e-kī'ah in the plains of Jĕr'ĭ-chō: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nĕb-u-chăd-nez'zar king of Băb'ў-lon to [5]Rĭb'lah in the land of Hā'math, where he gave judgment upon him.

6 Then the king of Băb'ў-lon slew the sons of Zĕd-e-kī'ah in Rĭb'lah before his eyes: also the king of Băb'ў-lon slew all the nobles of Jū'dah.

7 Moreover he put out [6]Zĕd-e-kī'ah's eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to Băb'ў-lon.

8 ¶ And the [b]Chăl-dē'anș burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Je-rū'sa-lĕm.

9 [c]Then [7]Nĕb'u-zär-ā'dan the [8]captain of the guard carried away captive into Băb'ў-lon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that [9]fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained.

10 But Nĕb'u-zär-ā'dan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, which had nothing, in the land of Jū'dah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

11 ¶ Now Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon gave charge concerning Jĕr-e-mī'ah to Nĕb'u-zär-ā'dan the captain of the guard, saying, 12 Take him, and [d]look well to him, and do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee.

13 So Nĕb'u-zär-ā'dan the captain of the guard sent, and Nĕb-u-shăs'ban, Răb'-sa-rĭs, and Nĕr'gal-sha-rē'zer, Răb'-măg, and all the king of Băb'ў-lon's princes;

14 Even they sent, and took Jĕr-e-mī'ah out of the court of the prison, and committed him unto Gĕd-a-lī'ah the son of A-hī'kam the son of Shā'phan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people.

hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her. (Mk. 14:9.) And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. (Eph. 4:32.)

f. The burden of the word of the Lord for Israel, saith the Lord, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him. (Zech. 12:1.) Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live? (Heb. 12:9.)

g. See ch. 39:3.

h. Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel; Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him; Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire: And thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon. (Jer. 34:2, 3.)

i. Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there. (Jer. 37:20.)

j. Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison. (Jer. 37:21.)

a. And Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes; And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I visit him, saith the Lord: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper. (Jer. 32:4, 5.)

b. And he burnt the house of the Lord, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great man's house burnt he with fire. (II Ks. 25:9.) And burned the house of the Lord, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burned he with fire. (Jer. 52:13.)

c. Now the rest of the people that were left in the city, and the fugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carry away. (II Ks. 25:11.) Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude. (Jer. 52:15.)

d. Set thine eyes upon him.—He shall deliver thee in six troubles; yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee. In famine he shall redeem thee from death; and in war from the power of the sword. (Job 5:19, 20.)

15 ¶ [10]Now the word of the Lord [11]came unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

16 Go and speak to [e]Ē'bĕd-mē'lĕch the Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-an, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Īs'ra-el; Behold, [f]I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee.

17 But I will [g]deliver thee in that day, saith the Lord: and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men of [12]whom thou art afraid.

18 For I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee: because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the Lord.

CHAPTER 40.

1 Jeremiah, being set free by Nebuzar-adan, goeth to Gedaliah. 7 The dispersed Jews repair unto him. 13 Johanan revealing Ishmael's conspiracy is not believed.

1 [1]The word that came to Jĕr-e-mī'ah from the Lord, after that Nĕb'u-zär-ā'dan the captain of the guard had let him go from [2]Rā'mah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all that were carried away captive of Je-ru'sa-lĕm and Jū'dah, which were carried away captive unto Băb'ў-lon.

2 And the captain of the guard took Jĕr-e-mī'ah, and [a]said unto him, The Lord thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place.

3 Now the Lord hath brought it, and done according as he hath said: [b]because ye have sinned against the Lord, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.

4 And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which were upon thine hand. If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Băb'ў-lon, come; and [c]I will look well unto thee: but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Băb'ў-lon, forbear: behold, all the land is before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go.

5 Now while he was not yet [3]gone back, he said, Go back also to Gĕd-a-lī'ah the son of A-hī'kam the son of Shā'phan, whom the king of Băb'ў-lon hath made governor over the cities of Jū'dah, and dwell with him among the people: or go wheresoever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard [d]gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go.

6 [4]Then went Jĕr-e-mī'ah unto Gĕd-a-lī'ah the son of A-hī'kam to [5]Mĭz'pah; and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land.

11. Supposed to be at the time of Jer.'s deliverance and put here so as not to make a breach in the narration.

12. The Chaldeans.

Ch. 40. B. C. 588.

1. This ch. records the gathering of the people to Gedaliah and the conspiracy of Ishmael against him. Vs. 1-5 record the release of Jer.

2. About 5 miles north of Jerusalem.

3. While he hesitated, wavered.

4. Vs. 6-12 record the gathering of the people to Gedaliah.

5. Near Raamah, five miles north of Jerusalem, the place where Samuel judged the people, also where Saul was chosen king. (I Sam. 10:17-24.)

6. Vs. 13-16, Ishmael's conspiracy against Gedaliah made known.

7 ¶ Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Băb'ў-lon had made Gĕd-a-lī'ah the son of A-hī'kam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of the poor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Băb'ў-lon;

8 Then they came to Gĕd-a-lī'ah to Mĭz'pah, even Īsh'ma-el the son of Nĕth-a-nī'ah, and Jo-hā'nan and Jŏn'a-than the sons of Ka-rē'ah, and Sĕr-a-ī'ah the son of Tăn'hu-mĕth, and the sons of Ē'phāi the Ne-tŏph'a-thīte, and Jĕz-a-nī'ah the son of a Ma-ăch'a-thīte, they and their men.

9 And Gĕd-a-lī'ah the son of A-hī'kam the son of Shā'phan sware unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chăl-dē'anş: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Băb'ў-lon, and it shall be well with you.

10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mĭz'pah, to serve the Chăl-dē'anş, which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.

11 Likewise when all the [e]Jewş that were in Mō'ab, and among the Ām'mŏn-ītes, and in Ē'dom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Băb'ў-lon had left a remnant of Jū'dah, and that he had set over them Gĕd-a-lī'ah the son of A-hī'kam the son of Shā'phan;

12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Jū'dah, to Gĕd-a-lī'ah, unto Mĭz'pah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much.

13 ¶ [6]Moreover Jo-hā'nan the son of Ka-rē'ah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gĕd-a-lī'ah to Mĭz'pah, 14 And said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that Bā'a-lĭs the king of the Ām'mŏn-ītes hath sent Īsh'ma-el the son of Nĕth-a-nī'ah to slay thee? But Gĕd-a-lī'ah the son of A-hī'kam believed them not.

15 Then Jo-hā'nan the son of Ka-rē'ah spake to Gĕd-a-lī'ah in Mĭz'pah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Īsh'ma-el the son of Nĕth-a-nī'ah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jewş which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant in Jū'dah perish?

16 But Gĕd-a-lī'ah the son of A-hī'kam said unto Jo-hā'nan the son of Ka-rē'ah, Thou shalt [f]not do this thing: for thou speakest falsely of Īsh'ma-el.

The Lord said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant; verily I will cause the enemy to entreat thee well in the time of evil and in the time of affliction (11). And I will make thee unto this people a fenced brasen wall: and they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee to save thee, and to deliver thee, saith the Lord. And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible. (Jer. 15:11, 20, 21.)

e. And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward. (Mat. 10:42.)

g. The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me. (Heb. 13:6.) If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. (Dan. 3:17.) And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. (Mat. 6:13.) Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain. (Acts 2:23.) Thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah. (Ps. 32:7.) There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the Lord. (Prov. 21:30.)

Chapter 40.

a. Even all nations shall say, Wherefore hath the Lord done thus unto this land? what meaneth the heat of this great anger? Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the Lord God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt. (Dt. 29:24, 25.) All that found them have devoured them; and their adversaries said, We offend not, because they have sinned against the Lord, the habitation of justice, even the Lord, the hope of their fathers. (Jer. 50:7.)

b. Yea, all Israel hath transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him. (Dan. 9:11.)

c. I will set mine eyes upon thee.—When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him. (Prov. 16:7.) For bodily exercise profiteth little; but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. (I Tim. 4:8.) Be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me. (Heb. 13:5, 6.)

d. Them that honor me I will honor, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed. (I Sam. 2:30.) Better is little with the fear of the Lord, than great treasure, and trouble therewith. (Prov. 15:16.) But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. (Mat. 6:33.)

e. Let mine outcasts dwell with thee, Moab; be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler: for the extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth, the oppressors are consumed out of the land. (Is. 16:4.) Neither shouldest thou [Edom] have stood in the crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldest thou have delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress. (Ob. 14.)

f. The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going. (Prov. 14:15.) Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil. (I Cor. 13:4, 5.) Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men. (I Cor. 14:20.)

CHAPTER 41.

1 Ishmael, treacherously killing Gedaliah and others, purposeth with the residue to flee unto the Ammonites. 11 Johanan recovereth the captives, and mindeth to flee into Egypt.

1 [1]Now it came to pass in the [2]seventh month, that Ĭsh'ma-el the son of Nĕth-a-nī'ah the son of E-lĭsh'a-mà, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gĕd-a-lī'ah the son of A-hī'kam to Mĭz'pah; and there they [a]did [3]eat bread together in Mĭz'pah.

2 Then arose Ĭsh'ma-el the son of Nĕth-a-nī'ah, and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gĕd-a-lī'ah the son of A-hī'kam the son of Shā'phan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Băb'ў-lon had made governor over the land.

3 Ĭsh'ma-el also slew [b]all the Jews that were with him, even with Gĕd-a-lī'ah, at Mĭz'pah, and the Chăl-dē'ans that were found there, and the men of war.

4 And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gĕd-a-lī'ah, and no man [4]knew it,

5 That there came certain from Shē'chem, from Shī'lōh, and from Sa-mā'rĭ-à, even fourscore men, [c]having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having [5]cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the Lord.

6 And Ĭsh'ma-el the son of Nĕth-a-nī'ah went forth from Mĭz'pah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gĕd-a-lī'ah the son of A-hī'kam.

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ĭsh'ma-el the son of Nĕth-a-nī'ah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ĭsh'ma-el, Slay us not: for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbare, and slew them not among their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ĭsh'ma-el had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain because of Gĕd-a-lī'ah, was it which Ā'sà the king had made for fear of Bā'a-shà king of Ĭs'ra-el: and Ĭsh'ma-el the son of Nĕth-a-nī'ah filled it with them that were slain.

10 Then Ĭsh'ma-el carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mĭz'pah, even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mĭz'pah, whon Nĕb'u-zăr-ā'dan the captain of the guard had committed to Gĕd-a-lī'ah the son of A-hī'kam: and Ĭsh'ma-el the son of Nĕth-a-nī'ah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the Ām'mŏn-ītes.

11 ¶ [6]But when [7]Jo-hā'nan the son of Ka-rē'ah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ĭsh'ma-el the son of Nĕth-a-nī'ah had done, 12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ĭsh'ma-el the son of Nĕth-a-nī'ah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gĭb'e-on.

13 Now it came to pass, that when all the people which were with Ĭsh'ma-el saw Jo-hā'nan the son of Ka-rē'ah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad.

14 So all the people that Ĭsh'ma-el had carried away captive from Mĭz'pah cast about and returned, and went unto Jo-hā'nan the son of Ka-rē'ah.

15 But Ĭsh'ma-el the son of Nĕth-a-nī'ah escaped from Jo-hā'nan with eight men, and went to the Ām'mŏn-ītes.

16 Then took Jo-hā'nan the son of Ka-rē'ah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ĭsh'ma-el the son of Nĕth-a-nī'ah, from Mĭz'pah, after that he had slain Gĕd-a-lī'ah the son of A-hī'kam, even mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again from Gĭb'e-on:

17 And they departed, and dwelt in the habitation of [d]Chĭm'ham, which is by Bĕth'-lĕhĕm, to go to enter into Ē'gўpt, 18 Because of the Chăl-dē'ans: for they were afraid of them, because Ĭsh'ma-el the son of Nĕth-a-nī'ah had slain Gĕd-a-lī'ah the son of A-hī'kam, whom the king of Băb'ў-lon made governor in the land.

Ch. 41. B. C. 588.

1. This ch. is largely devoted to the incidents connected with the murder of Gedaliah by Ishmael, and the efforts made to capture the murderer.

2. Thus Gedaliah was not in office quite two months.

3. Feigned hospitality for the purpose of treachery.

4. No man beyond or away from Mizpah.

5. A practice forbidden by the law. (Dt. 14) —"Ye are the children of the Lord your God, ye shall not cut yourselves nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead."

6. Vs. 11-18 record the efforts made by Johanan to avenge the death of Gedaliah.

7. The friend who had warned Gedaliah of the plot to take his life.

CHAPTER 42.

1 Johanan desireth Jeremiah to enquire of God, promising obedience to his will. 7 Jeremiah assureth him of safety in Judea, 13 and destruction in Egypt. 19 He reproveth their hypocrisy, in requiring of the Lord that which they meant not.

1 [1]Then all the captains of the forces, and Jo-hā'nan the son of Ka-rē'ah, and Jĕz-a-nī'ah the son of Hŏsh-a-ī'ah, and all the people from the least even unto the greatest, came near,

2 And said unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet, Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and [a]pray for us unto the Lord thy God, even for all this remnant; (for we are left but a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us:)

3 That the Lord thy God may shew us [b]the way wherein we may walk, and the thing that we may do.

4 Then Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray unto the Lord your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass, that whatsoever thing the Lord shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; I will [c]keep nothing back from you.

Ch. 42. B. C. 588.

1. In ch. 42, Johanan and the Jews inquire of God through Jer. what will be their fate if they go into Egypt, promising obedience to the divine will; although, if the advice they ask for is contrary to their desires, they will follow their determined course anyway. Their hypocrisy is severely reproved. Vs. 1-6 record their request of an inquiry of God.

Chapter 41.

a. Yea, mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me. (Ps. 41:9.) But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table. (Luke 22:21.)

b. Why boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually. (Ps. 52:1.) For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood. (Prov. 1:16.) For they sleep not, except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall. (Prov. 4:16.) Their feet are swift to shed blood: Destruction and misery are in their ways. (Rom. 3:15, 16.)

c. Ye shall not round the corners of your heads, neither shalt thou mar the corners of thy beard. Ye shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks upon you: I am the Lord. (Lev. 19:27, 28.) Ye are the children of the Lord your God. Ye shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead. (Dt. 14:1.) He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off. (Is. 15:2.) For every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth. (Jer. 48:37.) They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads. (Ez. 7:18.)

d. Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and of my mother: but behold thy servant Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good unto thee. And the king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee: and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that will I do for thee. (II Sam. 19:37, 38.)

a. And the children of Israel said to Samuel, Cease not to cry unto the Lord our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines. (I Sam. 7:8.) Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. (Js. 5:16.)

b. Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. (Prov. 3:5, 6.) I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust. (Ps. 91:2.) And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I and the children which God hath given me. (Heb. 2:13.) In God I will praise his word: in God I have put my trust; I will not fear what flesh can do unto me. (Ps. 56:4.)

c. And Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him. And he said, It is the Lord: let him do what seemeth him good. (I Sam. 3:18.) And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you,

5 Then they said to Jĕr-e-mī'ah, The Lord be a true and faithful witness [d]between us, if we do not even according to all things for the which the Lord thy God shall send thee to us.

6 Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will [e]obey the voice of the Lord our God, to whom we send thee; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the Lord our God.

7 ¶ [2]And it came to pass after [3]ten days, that the word of the Lord came unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah.

8 Then called he Jo-hā'nan the son of Ka-rē'ah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest,

9 And said unto them, Thus saith the Lord, the God of Ĭs'ra-el, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him;

10 If ye will still abide in this land, then [f]will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up: for I [g]repent me of the evil that I have done unto you.

11 Be not afraid of the king of Băb'ў-lon, of whom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, saith the Lord: [h]for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand.

12 And [i]I will shew mercies unto you, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land.

13 ¶ [4]But if [j]ye say, We will not dwell in this land, neither obey the voice of the Lord your God,

14 Saying, No; but we will go into the land of Ē'ġўpt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell:

15 And now therefore hear the word of the Lord, ye remnant of Jū'dah; Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Ĭs'ra-el; If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Ē'ġўpt, and go to sojourn there;

16 Then it shall come to pass, that the sword, which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Ē'ġўpt, and the famine, whereof ye were afraid, shall follow close after you there in Ē'ġўpt; and there ye shall die.

17 So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Ē'ġўpt to sojourn there; they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them.

18 For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Ĭs'ra-el; As mine anger and my fury hath been [k]poured forth upon the inhabitants of Je-rū'sa-lĕm; so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Ē'ġўpt: and [l]ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more.

19 ¶ [5]The Lord hath said concerning you, O ye remnant of Jū'dah; Go ye not into Ē'ġўpt: know certainly that I have admonished you this day.

20 For [m]ye [6]dissembled in your hearts, when ye sent me unto the Lord your God, saying, Pray for us unto the Lord our God; and according unto all that the Lord our God shall say, so declare unto us, and we will do it.

21 And now I have this day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of the Lord your God, nor any thing for the which he hath sent me unto you.

22 Now therefore know certainly that ye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire to go and to sojourn.

CHAPTER 43.

1 Johanan, discrediting Jeremiah's prophecy, carrieth Jeremiah and others into Egypt. 8 Jeremiah prophesieth by a type the conquest of Egypt by the Babylonians.

1 [1]And it came to pass, that when Jĕr-e-mī'ah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the Lord their God, for which the Lord their God had sent him to them, even all these words,

2 Then spake Āz-a-rī'ah the son of Hŏsh-a-ī'ah, and [2]Jo-hā'nan the son of Ka-rē'ah, and all [a]the proud men, saying unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah, Thou speakest falsely: the Lord our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Ē'ġўpt to sojourn there:

3 But Bā'rụch the son of Ne-rī'ah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chăl-dē'ans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Băb'ў-lon.

4 So Jo-hā'nan the son of Ka-rē'ah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the Lord, to dwell in the land of Jū'dah.

5 But Jo-hā'nan the son of Ka-rē'ah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Jū'dah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Jū'dah;

6 Even men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nĕb'u-zăr-ā'dan the captain of the guard had left with Gĕd-a-lī'ah the son of A-hī'kam the son of Shā'phan, and Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet, and Bā'rụch the son of Ne-rī'ah.

7 So they came into the land of Ē'ġўpt: for

2. Vs. 7-12 record Jeremiah's answer.

3. A delay, perhaps to better prepare them for the forthcoming answer.

4. Vs. 13-18 give the destruction in Egypt as the second part of the answer.

5. In vs. 19-22 their hypocrisy is severely reproved by Jer.

6. Been deceitful.

Ch. 43. B. C. 588.

1. In this ch. the journey is made to Egypt, and Jer. foretells the conquest by Nebuchadnezzar. Vs. 1-7 record the journey.

2. Johanan seems to have become greatly changed in some way. He was once the friend of Gedaliah, but now the persecutor of Jer.

but have shown you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house. (Acts 20:20.)

d. And Mizpah; for he said, The Lord watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another. If thou shalt afflict my daughters, or if thou shalt take other wives besides my daughters, no man is with us; see, God is witness betwixt me and thee. (Gen. 31:49, 50.)

e. And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, All that the Lord hath said will we do, and be obedient. (Ex. 24:7.) (I stood between the Lord and you at that time, to show you the word of the Lord; for ye were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up into the mount;) saying (5), Thou shalt have none other gods before me. (Dt. 5:5, 7.) And the people said unto Joshua, The Lord our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey. (Josh. 24:24.)

f. And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, saith the Lord. (Jer. 31:28.)

g. For the Lord shall judge his people, and repent himself for his servants, when he seeth that their power is gone, and there is none shut up, or left. (Dt. 32:36.) Nevertheless he regarded their affliction, when he heard their cry: And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. (Ps. 106:44, 45.) Thou hast forsaken me, saith the Lord, thou art gone backward: therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee; I am weary with repenting. (Jer. 15:6.)

h. The Lord is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me? (Ps. 118:6.) Fear not; for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west. (Is. 43:5.) What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? (Rom. 8:31.)

i. And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. He made them also to be pitied of all those that carried them captives. (Ps. 106:45, 46.) But though he caused grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies. (Lam. 3:32.)

j. As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the Lord, we will not hearken unto thee. (Jer. 44:16.)

k. Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched. (Jer. 7:20.)

l. And I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them. (Jer. 24:9.) Then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth. (Jer. 26:6.) And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them. (Jer. 29:18.)

m. And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness. (Ez. 33:31.) Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. (Gal. 6:7.)

a. Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips are our own: who is lord over us? (Ps. 12:4.) Your words have been stout against me, saith the Lord: yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee? (Mal. 3:13.) And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. (II Thess. 2:10.)

they obeyed not the voice of the Lord: thus came they even to Täh'pan-hēs.

8 ¶ [3]Then came the word of the Lord unto Jĕr-e-mī'ah in Täh'pan-hēs, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brickkiln, which is at the entry of Phā'raōh's house in Täh'-pan-hēs, in the sight of the men of Jū'dah;

10 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Is'ra-el; Behold, I will send and take [b]Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar the king of Băb'y-lon, my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.

11 And when he cometh, he shall smite the land of Ē'ġyp't, and deliver [c]such as are for death [4]to death; and such as are for captivity [4]to captivity; and such as are for the sword [4]to the sword.

12 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the [d]gods of Ē'ġyp't; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives: and he shall array himself with the land of Ē'ġyp't, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace.

13 He shall break also the images of Bĕth-shē'mĕsh, that is in the land of Ē'ġyp't; and the houses of the gods of the E-ġyp'tians shall he burn with fire.

CHAPTER 44.

1 Jeremiah expresseth the desolation of Judah for their idolatry. 11 He prophesieth their destruction, who commit idolatry in Egypt. 15 The obstinacy of the Jews. 20 Jeremiah threateneth them for the same, 29 and prophesieth the destruction of Egypt.

1 [1]The word that came to Jĕr-e-mī'ah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of E'ġyp't, which dwell at Mīg'dol, and at Täh'-pan-hēs, and at Nŏph, and in the country of [2]Păth'ros, saying,

2 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Is'ra-el; Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and upon all the cities of Jū'dah; and, behold, this day they are [e]a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein,

3 Because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went [3]to burn [b]incense, and to serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, ye, nor your fathers.

4 Howbeit [c]I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate.

5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods.

6 Wherefore my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Jū'dah and in the streets of Je-ru'sa-lĕm; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day.

3. Vs. 8-13, the prophecy concerning Egypt.

4. According as God shall order, some shall die by the plague, others by the sword, others be taken captive; perhaps according to their sin and stubbornness.

Ch. 44. B. C. 587.

1. In this ch. Jer. severely reproves the Jews for their idolatry in Egypt and pronounces judgments upon them and Egypt also.

2. Upper Egypt.

3. Going to burn incense.

4. In vs. 8-14 the people are told that continuation in idolatry can bring only ruin.

5. In vs. 15-19 the Judahites reply that they have been prosperous when living in idolatry.

7 Therefore now thus saith the Lord, the God of hosts, the God of Is'ra-el; Wherefore commit ye this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of Jū'dah, to leave you none to remain;

8 [4]In that ye [d]provoke me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Ē'ġyp't, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Jū'dah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Jū'dah, and in the streets of Je-ru'-sa-lĕm?

10 They are not humbled even unto this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Is'ra-el; Behold, [e]I will set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Jū'dah.

12 And I will take the remnant of Jū'dah, that have set their faces to go into the land of E'ġyp't to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Ē'ġyp't; they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine: and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.

13 For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Ē'ġyp't, as I have punished Je-ru'sa-lĕm, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence:

14 So that none of the remnant of Jū'dah, which are gone into the land of Ē'ġyp't to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Jū'dah, to the which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return but such as shall escape.

15 ¶ [5]Then all the men which knew that their wives had burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Ē'ġyp't, in Păth'ros, answered Jĕr-e-mī'ah, saying,

16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the Lord, [f]we will not hearken unto thee.

17 But we will certainly [g]do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Jū'dah, and in the

b. Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. I have given him the land of Egypt for his labor wherewith he served against it [Tyre], because they wrought for me, saith the Lord God. (Ez. 29:19, 20.)

c. And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the Lord; Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity. (Jer. 15:2.) Then said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another. (Zech. 11:9.)

d. For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the Lord. (Ex. 12:12.)

a. Behold, I will command, saith the Lord, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant. (Jer. 34:22.) And I will make Jerusalem heaps, and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant. (Jer. 9:11.)

b. Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burnt incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents. (Jer. 19:4.) They sacrificed unto devils, not to God; to gods whom they knew not, to new gods that came newly up, whom your fathers feared not. (Dt. 32:17.)

c. And the Lord God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising up betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place. (II Chr. 36:15.) And the Lord hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, rising early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear. (Jer. 25:4.)

d. And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt. Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the Lord; that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt. (Jer. 25:6, 7.)

e. And the soul that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people. (Lev. 20:6.) And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good. (Amos 9:4.)

f. Thus saith the Lord, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein. (Jer. 6:16.)

g. That which is gone out of thy lips thou shalt keep and perform; even a free-will offering, according as thou hast vowed unto the Lord streets of Je-ru'sa-lĕm: for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil.

18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

19 And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, without our men?

20 ¶ Then Jĕr-e-mī'ah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying,

21 [6]The incense that ye burned in the cities of Jū'dah, and in the streets of Je-ru'sa-lĕm, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the Lord remember them, and came it not into his mind?

22 So that the Lord could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land [h]a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day.

23 Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against the Lord, and have not obeyed the voice of the Lord, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore [i]this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

24 [7]Moreover Jĕr-e-mī'ah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the Lord, all Jū'dah that are in the land of Ē'ġўpt:

25 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Is'ra-el, saying; Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your [8]hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows.

26 Therefore hear ye the word of the Lord, all Jū'dah that dwell in the land of Ē'ġўpt; Behold, [j]I have sworn by my great name, saith the Lord, that [k]my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Jū'dah in all the land of Ē'ġўpt, saying, The Lord God liveth.

27 Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Jū'dah that are in the land of Ē'ġўpt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.

28 Yet [l]a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Ē'ġўpt into the land of Jū'dah, and all the remnant of Jū'dah, that are gone into the land of Ē'ġўpt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine, or their's.

6. In vs. 21-23 Jer. declares idolatry to be their real cause of trouble.

7. In vs. 24-30 Jer. prophesies still other distress because of their persistence in idolatry.

8. Allusion to the making of their sacrificial cakes.

Ch. 45. B. C. 607.

1. This ch. of five verses contains Jeremiah's assurances to Baruch.

2. Jer. writes a letter to Baruch; this, like the epistles of Paul and John, was to be a message of helpfulness to all future generations.

3. Vs. 2-5 record the message.

Ch. 46. B. C. 607.

1. The prophesies in chs. 46-52 are concerning foreign people. In this ch. the reference is to Egypt.

2. Said to have been the sixth king, reigning from 611 to 595 B. C.

3. Vs. 3-12 record the song of triumph for Egypt's defeat.

4. Small shield.

5. Coats of mail.

29 ¶ And this shall be a sign unto you, saith the Lord, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil:

30 Thus saith the Lord; Behold, I will give Phā'raōh-hōph'rà king of Ē'ġўpt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave Zĕd-e-kī'ah king of Jū'dah into the hand of Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon, his enemy, and that sought his life.

CHAPTER 45.

1 Baruch being dismayed, 4 Jeremiah instructeth and comforteth him.

1 [1]The [a]word that Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet spake unto [2]Bā'rụch the son of Ne-rī'ah, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jĕr-e-mī'ah, in the fourth year of Je-hoi'a-kim the son of Jo-sī'ah king of Jū'day, saying,

2 [3]Thus saith the Lord, the God of Is'ra-el, unto thee, O Bā'rụch;

3 Thou didst say, Woe is me now! for the Lord hath added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.

4 ¶ Thus shalt thou say unto him, The Lord saith thus; Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.

5 And seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not: for, behold, [b]I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the Lord: but thy life will I give unto thee for a prey in all places whither thou goest.

CHAPTER 46.

1 Jeremiah prophesieth the overthrow of Pharaoh's army at Euphrates, 13 and the conquest of Egypt by Nebuchadrezzar. 27 He comforteth Jacob in their chastisement.

1 [1]The word of the Lord which came to Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet against the Ġĕn'tīleṣ;

2 Against Ē'ġўpt, [a]against the army of [2]Phā'raōh-nē'cho king of Ē'ġўpt, which was by the river Eū-phrā'tēṣ in Căr'chĕ-mīsh, which Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon smote in the fourth year of Je-hoi'a-kim the son of Jo-sī'ah king of Jū'dah.

3 [3]Order ye the [4]buckler and shield, and draw near to battle.

4 Harness the horses; and get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, and put on the [5]brigandines.

5 Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? and their mighty ones are beaten down, and are fled apace, and look not back: for fear was round about, saith the Lord.

6 Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; they shall stumble, and fall toward the north by the river Eū-phrā'tēṣ.

7 Who is this that cometh up as a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers?

thy God, which thou hast promised with thy mouth. (Dt. 23:23.) And she said unto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth unto the Lord, do to me according to that which hath proceeded out of thy mouth; forasmuch as the Lord hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of the children of Ammon. (Jud. 11:36.)

h. And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years (11). To wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and a curse; as it is this day (18). He hath forsaken his covert, as the lion: for their land is desolate because of the fierceness of the oppressor, and because of his fierce anger. (Jer. 25:11, 18, 38.)

i. Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him. And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem. (Dan. 9:11, 12.)

j. By myself have I sworn, saith the Lord: for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son: That in blessing I will bless thee. (Gen. 22:16, 17.)

k. But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth? (Ps. 50:16.)

l. And yet for all that, when they be in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them: for I am the Lord their God. (Lev. 26:44.) O Lord, I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: O Lord, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy. (Hab. 3:2.)

Chapter 45.

a. The Lord God hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned. (Is. 50:4.)

b. And all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them. (Jer. 25:26.)

Chapter 46.

a. Make bright the arrows; gather the shields: the Lord hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the Lord, the vengeance of his temple. (Jer. 51:11.) He that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily. (Nah. 2:1.)

ters are moved like the rivers; and he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city and the inhabitants thereof.

9 Come up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; the Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-anṣ and the Lĭb'ў-anṣ, that handle the shield; and the Lўd'ĭ-anṣ, that handle and bend the bow.

10 For this is [b]the day of the Lord God of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and [c]the sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate and made drunk with their blood: for the Lord God of hosts hath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Eū-phrā'tēṣ.

11 Go up into Gĭl'e-ăd, and take [6]balm, O virgin, the daughter of Ē'ġўpt: in vain shalt thou use many medicines; for thou shalt not be [7]cured.

12 The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together.

13 ¶ [8]The word that the Lord spake to Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet, how Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon should come and [d]smite the land of Ē'ġўpt.

14 Declare ye in Ē'ġўpt, and publish in Mĭg'dol, and publish in Nōph and in Tăh'pan-hēṣ: say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee; for the sword shall devour round about thee.

15 Why are thy valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the Lord did drive them.

16 [9]He made many to fall, yea, one fell upon another: and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword.

17 They did cry there, Phā'raōh king of Ē'ġўpt is but a [10]noise; he hath passed the time appointed.

18 As I live, saith the King, whose name is the Lord of hosts, Surely as Tā'bor is among the mountains, and as Cär'mel by the sea, so shall he come.

19 O thou daughter dwelling in Ē'ġўpt, furnish thyself to go into captivity: for [11]Nōph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant.

20 Ē'ġўpt is like a very fair heifer, but destruction cometh; it cometh out of the north.

21 Also her hired men are in the midst of her like fatted bullocks; for they also are turned back, and are fled away together: they did not stand, because the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation.

22 [c]The [12]voice thereof shall go like a serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with [13]axes, as hewers of wood.

23 They shall cut down her forest, saith the Lord, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the grasshoppers, and are innumerable.

24 The daughter of Ē'ġўpt shall be confounded; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.

25 The Lord of hosts, the God of Ĭs'ra-el, saith; Behold, I will punish the [14]multitude of Nō, and Phā'raōh, and Ē'ġўpt, [f]with their gods, and their kings; even Phā'raōh, and all them that trust in him:

26 And I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon, and into the hand of his servants: and afterward it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the Lord.

27 ¶ [15]But [g]fear not thou, O my servant Jā'cob, and be not dismayed, O Ĭs'ra-el: for, behold, I will save thee from afar off, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jā'cob shall return, and be in rest and at ease, and none shall make him afraid.

28 Fear thou not, O Jā'cob my servant, saith the Lord: for I am with thee; for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven thee: but I will not make a full end of thee, but correct thee in measure: yet will I not leave thee wholly unpunished.

CHAPTER 47.

The destruction of the Philistines.

1 [1]The word of the Lord that came to Jĕr-e-mī'ah the [a]prophet against the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes, before that Phā'raōh smote Gā'zā.

2 [2]Thus saith the Lord; Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and all that is therein; the city, and them that dwell therein: then the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.

3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, and at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers shall not look back to their children for feebleness of hands;

4 Because of the day that cometh to spoil all the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes, and to cut off from [b]Tў'rus and Zī'don every helper that remaineth: for the Lord will spoil the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes, the remnant of the country of Căph'tor.

5 Baldness is come upon Gā'zā; Ăsh'ke-lŏn is cut off with the remnant of their valley: how long wilt thou [3]cut thyself?

6 O thou sword [c]of the Lord, how long will it be ere thou be quiet? put up thyself into thy scabbard, rest, and be still.

7 How can it be quiet, seeing the Lord hath given it a charge against Ăsh'ke-lŏn, and against the [4]sea shore? there hath he appointed it.

4. Philistia.

Ch. 48. B. C. 600.

1. This ch. records the prophecy concerning Moab. In this prophecy, Jer. uses the one of Is. 15:16, making necessary changes and adapting it to his purpose.

2. Concerning.

3. The city of Nebo.

4. A city close to Nebo.

b. Alas for the day! for the day of the Lord is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come. (Joel 1:15.)

c. I will make mine arrows drunk with blood, and my sword devour flesh; and that with the blood of the slain and of the captives, from the beginning of revenges upon the enemy. (Dt. 32:42.) The sword of the Lord is filled with blood, it is made fat with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the Lord hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea. (Is. 34:6.)

d. Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. I have given him the land of Egypt for his labor wherewith he served against it [Tyre], because they wrought for me, saith the Lord God. (Ez. 29:19, 20.) Fulfilled B. C. 571.

e. And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust, and thy voice shall be, as of one that hath a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and thy speech shall whisper out of the dust. (Is. 29:4.)

f. Thus saith the Lord God; I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of Noph; and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt. (Ez. 30:13.)

g. Thus saith the Lord that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob, my servant; and thou, Jesurun, whom I have chosen. (Is. 44:2.)

Chapter 47.

a. Thus saith the Lord God; Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy it for the old hatred; Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will stretch out mine hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethims, and destroy the remnant of the sea-coast. (Ez. 25:15, 16.)

b. Then took I the cup at the Lord's hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the Lord had sent me (17). And all the kings of Tyrus, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the isles which are beyond the sea. (Jer. 25:17, 22.)

c. And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the Lord; Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked. (Ez. 21:3.)

and taken: [5]Mĭs'gab is confounded and dismayed.

2 There shall be no more praise of Mō'ab: in Hĕsh'bŏn they have devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation. Also thou shalt be cut down, O Măd'men; the sword shall pursue thee.

3 A voice of crying shall be from [6]Hŏr-o-nā'im, spoiling and great destruction.

4 Mō'ab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

5 For in the going up of Lu'hith continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Hŏr-o-nā'im the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

6 Flee, save your lives, and be like the heath in the wilderness.

7 ¶ [a]For because thou hast trusted in thy works and in thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken: and Chĕ'mŏsh shall go forth into captivity with his priests and his princes together.

8 And the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape: the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the Lord hath spoken.

9 [7]Give wings unto Mō'ab, that it may flee and get away: for the cities thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein.

10 [b]Cursed be he that doeth the work of the Lord [8]deceitfully, and cursed be that keepeth back his sword from blood.

11 ¶ Mō'ab hath been at ease from his youth, and he hath settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent is not changed.

12 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will send unto him wanderers, that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles.

13 And Mō'ab shall be ashamed of Chĕ'mŏsh, as the house of Ĭs'ra-el was ashamed of [9]Bĕth'-el their confidence.

14 ¶ How say ye, We are mighty and strong men for the war?

15 Mō'ab is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, saith the King, whose name is the Lord of hosts.

16 [10]The calamity of Mō'ab is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast.

17 All ye that are about him, bemoan him; and all ye that know his name, say, [c]How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod!

18 Thou daughter that dost inhabit Dī'bŏn, come down from thy glory, and sit in [11]thirst; for the spoiler of Mō'ab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds.

19 O inhabitant of Ar'ŏ-ēr, stand by the way, and espy; ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth, and say, What is done?

20 Mō'ab is confounded; for it is broken down: howl and cry; tell ye it in Ar'nŏn, that Mō'ab is spoiled,

21 And judgment is come upon the plain country; upon Hō'lŏn, and upon Ja-hā'zah, and upon Mĕph'a-ăth,

22 And upon Dī'bŏn, and upon Nē'bo, and upon Bĕth-dĭb-la-thā'im, 23 And upon Kĭr-ĭ-a-thā'im, and upon Bĕth-gā'mŭl, and upon Bĕth-mē'on, 24 And upon Kĕ'rĭ-ōth, and upon Bŏz'rah, and upon all the cities of the land of Mō'ab, far or near.

25 The horn of Mō'ab is cut off, and his arm is broken, saith the Lord.

26 ¶ [12]Make [d]ye him drunken: for he magnified himself against the Lord: Mō'ab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.

27 For [e]was not Ĭs'ra-el a derision unto thee? was he found among thieves? for since thou spakest of him, thou skippedst for joy.

28 O ye that dwell in Mō'ab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock, and be like the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth.

29 We have heard the pride of Mō'ab, (he is exceeding proud) his loftiness, and his arrogancy, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.

30 I know his wrath, saith the Lord; but it shall not be so; his lies shall not so effect it.

31 Therefore [f]will I howl for Mō'ab, and I will cry out for all Mō'ab; mine heart shall mourn for the men of Kĭr-hē'rĕş.

32 O vine of Sĭb'mah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jā'zēr: thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jā'zēr: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer fruits and upon thy vintage.

33 And joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Mō'ab; and I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting.

34 From the cry of Hĕsh'bŏn even unto Ē-le-ā'leh, and even unto Jā'hăz, have they uttered their voice, from Zō'ar even unto Hŏr-o-nā'im, as an heifer of three years old: for the waters also of Nĭm'rim shall be desolate.

35 Moreover I will cause to cease in Mō'ab, saith the Lord, him that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.

36 Therefore mine heart shall sound for Mō'ab like pipes, and mine heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kĭr-hē'rĕş: because the riches that he hath gotten are perished.

37 For [g]every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth.

38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the house tops of Mō'ab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Mō'ab like a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the Lord.

39 They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how hath Mō'ab turned the back with shame! so shall Mō'ab be a derision and a dismaying to all them about him.

40 For thus saith the Lord; Behold, he [13]shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread his wings over Mō'ab.

41 Kĕ'rĭ-ōth is taken, and the [h]strong holds are surprised, and the mighty men's hearts in Mō'ab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

42 And Mō'ab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against the Lord.

5. A high or chief fortress of the country.

6. Two caves.

7. Vs. 9-15 record the demonstration of Moab.

8. Negligently.

9. Ashamed of their idols at Bethel.

10. Vs. 16-25 detail the particulars of Moab's ruin.

11. In the desert.

12. Vs. 26-47 describe the contrast.

13. Nebuchadnezzar.

Chapter 48.

a. Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness. (Ps. 52:7.)

b. Curse ye Meroz, said the angel of the Lord, curse ye bitterly the inhabitants thereof; because they came not to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord against the mighty. (Jud. 5:23.)

c. For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Midian. (Is. 9:4.)

d. For thus saith the Lord God of Israel unto me; Take the wine-cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it. (Jer. 25:15.)

e. Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth. (Prov. 24:17.) I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border. (Zeph. 2:8.)

f. My heart shall cry out for Moab; his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an heifer of three years old: for by the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of destruction. (Is. 15:5.)

g. He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off. In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, weeping abundantly. (Is. 15:2, 3.)

h. And they shall be afraid: pangs and sorrow shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth: they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames. (Is. 13:8.)

43 Fear, and the pit, and the snare shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Mō'ab, saith the Lord.

44 He that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon it, even upon Mō'ab, the year of their visitation, saith the Lord.

45 They that fled stood under the shadow of Hĕsh'bŏn because of the force: but a fire shall come forth out of Hĕsh'bŏn, and a flame from the midst of Sī'hŏn, and shall devour the corner of Mō'ab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones.

46 Woe be unto thee, O Mō'ab! the people of Chĕ'mŏsh perisheth: for thy sons are taken captives, and thy daughters captives.

47 ¶ Yet will I bring again the captivity of Mō'ab in the latter days, saith the Lord. Thus far is the judgment of Mō'ab.

CHAPTER 49.

1 The judgment of the Ammonites. 6 Their restoration. 7 The judgment of Edom, 23 of Damascus, 28 of Kedar, 30 of Hazor, 34 and of Elam. 39 The restoration of Elam.

Ch. 49. B. C. 600.

1. In this ch. is recorded the prophecy concerning Ammon, Idumea, Damascus, Kedar, Hazor and Elam. Vs. 1-6 record the prophecy of Ammon.

1 [1]Concerning the Ām'mŏn-ītes, thus saith the Lord; Hath Īs'ra-el no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth their king inherit Găd, and his people dwell in his cities?

2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in Răb'bah of the Ām'mŏn-ītes; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Īs'ra-el be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the Lord.

2. Vs. 7-22 record the prophecy against Edom.

3 Howl, O Hĕsh'bŏn, for Ā'ī is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Răb'bah, gird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges; for their king shall go into captivity, and his priests and his princes together.

3. A little province in the northeastern part of Idumea, the home of one of the wise men (Eliphaz) of the book of Job.

4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me?

4. Meaning into the depths of the desert.

5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord God of hosts, from all those that be about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth.

6 And afterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ām'mŏn, saith the Lord.

7 ¶ [2]Concerning [a]Ē'dom, thus saith the Lord of hosts; Is wisdom no more in [3]Tē'man? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished?

5. Ancestor of the Edomites.

8 Flee ye, turn back, [4]dwell [b]deep, O inhabitants of Dē'dan; for I will bring the calamity [c]of [5]Ē'saụ upon him, the time that I will visit him.

9 If grapegatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? if thieves by night, they will destroy till they have enough.

10 But I have made Ē'saụ bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and he is not.

11 Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me.

12 For thus saith the Lord; Behold, they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken; and art thou he that shall altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it.

13 For [d]I have sworn by myself, saith the Lord, that Bŏz'rah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.

14 I have heard a [e]rumour from the Lord, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather ye together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle.

15 For, lo, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men.

16 Thy terribleness hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: though thou shouldest make thy nest as high as the eagle, [f]I will bring thee down from thence, saith the Lord.

17 Also Ē'dom shall be a desolation: every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.

18 As in the overthrow of Sŏd'om and Gomŏr'rah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the Lord, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it.

19 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jor'dan against the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make him run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

20 Therefore [g]hear the counsel of the Lord, that he hath taken against Ē'dom; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Tē'man: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.

21 The earth is moved at the noise of their fall, at the cry the noise thereof was heard in the Red sea.

22 Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bŏz'rah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Ē'dom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

23 ¶ Concerning Da-măs'cus. Hā'math is confounded, and Ar'pad: for they have heard evil tidings: they are fainthearted; [h]there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet.

24 Da-măs'cus is waxed feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail.

25 How is the city of praise not left, the city of my joy!

26 Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the Lord of hosts.

27 And I will kindle a [i]fire in the wall of Da-măs'cus, and it shall consume the palaces of Bĕn-hā'dăd.

28 ¶ Concerning Kē'dăr, and concerning the

Chapter 49.

a. Thus saith the Lord; For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever. (Amos 1:11.)

b. And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the Lord, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth. (Is. 2:19.)

c. Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the Lord, as in the days of old, and as in former years. (Mal. 3:4.)

d. And said, By myself have I sworn, saith the Lord; for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son. (Gen. 22:16.)

e. Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised. (Ob. 2.)

f. The Lord will destroy the house of the proud: but he will establish the border of the widow. (Prov. 15:25.) Though they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down. (Amos 9:2.)

g. Therefore hear ye the counsel of the Lord, that he hath taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out; surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them. (Jer. 50:45.)

h. But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt. (Is. 57:20.) Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile. (Rom. 2:9.)

i. But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Benhadad. (Amos 1:4.)

kingdoms of Hā'zor, which Něb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon shall smite, thus saith the Lord; Arise ye, go up to Kē'där, and spoil the men of the east.

29 Their tents and their flocks shall they take away: they shall take to themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry unto them, Fear is on every side.

30 ¶ Flee, get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hā'zor, saith the Lord; for Něb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you.

31 Arise, get you up unto the wealthy nation, that dwelleth without care, saith the Lord, which have neither gates nor bars, which [j]dwell alone.

32 And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil: and I will scatter into all winds them that are in the utmost corners; and I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, saith the Lord.

33 And [c]Hā'zor shall be a dwelling for [7]dragons, and a desolation for ever: there shall no man abide there, nor any son of man dwell in it.

34 ¶ The word of the Lord that came to Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet against Ē'lăm in the beginning of the reign of Zĕd-e-kī'ah king of Jū'dah, saying, 35 Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Behold, I will break the bow of Ē'lăm, the chief of their might.

36 And upon Ē'lăm will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation whither the outcasts of Ē'lăm shall not come.

37 For I will cause Ē'lăm to be dismayed before their enemies, and before them that seek their life: and I will bring evil upon them, even my fierce anger, saith the Lord; and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them:

38 And I will set my throne in Ē'lăm, and will destroy from thence the king and the princes, saith the Lord.

39 ¶ But it shall come to pass in the [8]latter days, that I will bring again the captivity of Ē'lăm, saith the Lord.

CHAPTER 50.

1, 9, 21, 35 The judgment of Babylon. 4, 17, 33, The redemption of Israel.

1 [1]The word that the Lord spake [2]against Băb'ў-lon and against the land of the Chăl-dē'ans by Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet.

2 [3]Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Băb'ў-lon is taken, Bĕl is confounded, Me-rō'dăch is broken in pieces; [a]her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

6. Meaning settled, tribes.

7. Jackals.

8. The end of days.

Ch. 50. B. C. 595.

1. In this ch. is recorded the prophecy of the downfall and humiliation of Babylon, also Israel's redemption. It was delivered during the fourth year of Zed.'s reign.

2. Concerning.

3. Vs. 2-10 detail the fall of Babylon and Israel's deliverance.

4. Medes.

5. When Babylon shall have fallen.

6. Vs. 11-40 record the humiliation of Babylon and glory of Israel.

7. Babylon.

8. King of Assyria.

3 For out of the [4]north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.

4 ¶ In those [5]days, and in that time, saith the Lord, the children of Īs'ra-el shall come, they and the children of Jū'dah together, going and [b]weeping: they shall go, and seek the [c]Lord their God.

5 They shall ask the way to Zī'ŏn with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the Lord in [d]a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

6 My people hath been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their restingplace.

7 All that found them have devoured them: and their adversaries said, [e]We offend not, because they have sinned against the Lord, the habitation of justice, even the Lord, the hope of their fathers.

8 Remove out of the midst of Băb'ў-lon, and go forth out of the land of the Chăl-dē'ans, and be as the he goats before the flocks.

9 ¶ For, lo, I will raise and cause to come up against Băb'ў-lon an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty expert man; none shall return in vain.

10 And Chăl-dē'a shall be a spoil: [f]all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the Lord.

11 [6]Because ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage, because ye are grown fat as the heifer at grass, and bellow as bulls;

12 Your [7]mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

13 Because of the wrath of the Lord it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate: every one that goeth by Băb'ў-lon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

14 Put yourselves in array against Băb'ў-lon round about: all ye that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the Lord.

15 Shout against her round about: she hath given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down: for it is the vengeance of the Lord: take vengeance upon her; [g]as she hath done, do unto her.

16 Cut off the sower from Băb'ў-lon, and him that handleth the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.

17 ¶ [8]Īs'ra-el is [h]a scattered sheep; the lions have driven him away: first the king of Āsj. For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him: lo, the people shall dwell alone, and shall not be reckoned among the nations. (Num. 23:9.) Israel then shall dwell in safety alone: the fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine; also his heavens shall drop down dew. (Dt. 33:28.)

Chapter 50.

a. And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garments; and he shall go forth from thence in peace. (Jer. 43:12.)

b. But many of the priests and Levites, and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy. (Ezra 3:12.) And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications; and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born. (Zech. 12:10.)

c. Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the Lord their God, and David their king; and shall fear the Lord and his goodness in the latter days. (Hos. 3:5.) Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. (Mat. 7:7.) And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, hast not forsaken them that seek thee. (Ps. 9:10.) And he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin; The Lord is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you. (II Chr. 15:2.) I sought the Lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears. (Ps. 34:4.)

d. At the same time, saith the Lord, will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people. (Jer. 31:1.) For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls. (I Pet. 2:25.)

e. O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us. (Dan. 9:16.)

f. And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire. (Rev. 17:16.)

g. O daughter of Babylon, who are to be destroyed; happy shall he be that rewardeth thee as thou hast served us. (Ps. 137:8.) Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double. (Rev. 18:6.)

h. I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the sỹr'ĭ-â hath devoured him; and last this Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ỹ-lon hath broken his bones.

18 Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Ĭs'ra-el; Behold, I will punish the king of Băb'ỹ-lon and his land, as I have punished the king of Ăs-sỹr'ĭ-â.

19 And I will bring Ĭs'ra-el again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Căr'mel and Bā'shăn, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ē'phră-ĭm and Gĭl'e-ăd.

20 In those days, and in that time, saith the Lord, [i]the iniquity of Ĭs'ra-el shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Jū'dah, and they shall not be found: for I will [j]pardon [j]them whom I reserve.

21 ¶ [10]Go up against the land of Mĕr-a-thā'-im, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pē'kŏd: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the Lord, and do [k]according to all that I have commanded thee.

22 A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction.

23 How is the [11]hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Băb'ỹ-lon become a desolation among the nations!

24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Băb'ỹ-lon, and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the Lord.

25 The Lord hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth the weapons of his [12]indignation: for this is the work of the Lord God of hosts in the land of the Chăl-dē'ans.

26 Come against her from the utmost border, open her storehouses: cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left.

27 Slay all her [13]bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: woe unto them! for their day is come, the time of their visitation.

28 The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Băb'ỹ-lon, to declare in Zĭ'ŏn the vengeance of the Lord our God, the vengeance of his temple.

29 [14]Call together the archers against Băb'ỹ-lon: all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: recompense [l]her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her: [m]for she hath been proud against the Lord, against the Holy One of Ĭs'ra-el.

30 Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the Lord.

31 Behold, I am against thee, O thou most proud, saith the Lord God of hosts: for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.

32 And the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

33 ¶ Thus saith the Lord of hosts; The children of Ĭs'ra-el and the children of Jū'dah were oppressed together: and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go.

9. Israel's sin, great as it was, God's mercy was greater.

10. Vs. 21-28 detail the punishment for sin.

11. Babylon, so called because it had broken to pieces many nations.

12. The Medes and Persians.

13. Her strong, soldier-like young men.

14. Vs. 29-40 record the humbling of pride and humiliation.

15. Babblers, soothsayers.

16. In vs. 41-60 are given the agents of their destruction.

34 Their Redeemer is strong; the Lord of hosts is his name: he shall throughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Băb'ỹ-lon.

35 ¶ A sword is upon the Chăl-dē'ans, saith the Lord, and upon the inhabitants of Băb'ỹ-lon, and upon her princes, and upon her wise men.

36 A sword is upon the [15]liars; and they shall dote: a sword is upon her mighty men; and they shall be dismayed.

37 A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all the mingled people that are in the midst of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed.

38 A drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of graven images, and they are mad upon their idols.

39 Therefore the wild beasts of the desert with the wild beasts of the islands shall dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein: [n]and it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

40 As God overthrew Sŏd'om and Go-mŏr'-rah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the Lord; so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein.

41 [16]Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation, and many kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

42 They shall hold the bow and the lance: they are cruel, and will not shew mercy: their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Băb'ỹ-lon.

43 The king of Băb'ỹ-lon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble: anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail.

44 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jor'dan unto the habitation of the strong: but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

45 Therefore hear ye [o]the counsel of the Lord, that he hath taken against Băb'ỹ-lon; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chăl-dē'ans: Surely [p]the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them.

46 At the noise of the taking of Băb'ỹ-lon the earth is moved, and the cry is heard among the nations.

valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land. (Joel 3:2.)

i. And they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more. (Jer. 31:34.)

j. Except the Lord of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah. (Is. 1:9.)

k. I will send him against an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets. (Is. 10:6.) That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure; even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid. (Is. 44:28.) Behold, I will command, saith the Lord, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant. (Jer. 34:22.)

l. Render unto them a recompence, O Lord, according to the work of their hands. (Lam. 3:64.) And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? (Rev. 6:10.) But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, saith the Lord; and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall devour all things round about it. (Jer. 21:14.)

m. For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else besides me. (Is. 47:10.)

n. It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there; neither shall the shepherds make their fold there. (Is. 13:20.)

o. The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations. (Ps. 33:11.) The Lord of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand. (Is. 14:24.)

p. But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty. (1 Cor. 1:27.)

1 [1]Thus saith the Lord; Behold, I will raise up against Băb'ў-lon, and against them that dwell in the midst of them that rise up against me, a destroying wind;

2 And will send unto Băb'ў-lon fanners, that shall [2]fan her, and shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about.

3 Against him that bendeth let the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his brigandine: and spare ye not her young men; destroy ye utterly all her host.

4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chăl-dē'anş, and they that are thrust through in her streets.

5 [3]For Ĭs'ra-el hath not been forsaken, nor Jū'dah of his God, of the Lord of hosts; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Ĭs'ra-el.

6 [a]Flee out of the midst of Băb'ў-lon, and deliver every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for this is the time of the Lord's vengeance; he will render unto her a recompence.

7 Băb'ў-lon hath been a golden cup in the Lord's hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are mad.

8 Băb'ў-lon is suddenly [b]fallen and destroyed: howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.

9 We would have healed Băb'ў-lon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country: for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.

10 The Lord hath brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zī'ŏn the work of the Lord our God.

11 Make bright the arrows; gather the shields: the Lord hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Mēdeş: for his device is against Băb'ў-lon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the Lord, the vengeance of his temple.

12 Set up the standard upon the walls of Băb'ў-lon, make the watch strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the Lord hath both devised and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Băb'ў-lon.

13 [c]O thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the measure of thy covetousness.

14 The Lord of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, as with caterpillers; and they shall lift up a shout against thee.

15 [4]He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.

16 When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens; and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

17 Every man is brutish by his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

18 They are vanity, the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

19 The portion of Jā'cob is not like them; for he is the former of all things: and Ĭs'ra-el is the rod of his inheritance: the Lord of hosts is his name.

20 Thou art my battle ax and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms;

21 And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider;

22 With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces [d]old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid;

23 I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers.

24 And I will render unto Băb'ў-lon and to all the inhabitants of Chăl-dē'ā all their evil that they have done in Zī'ŏn in your sight, saith the Lord.

25 Behold, I am against thee, O destroying mountain, saith the Lord, which destroyest all the earth: and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the rocks, and will make thee a burnt mountain.

26 And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the Lord.

27 [5]Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ār'ă-rat, Mĭn'nī, and Āsh'chĕ-naz; appoint a captain against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillers.

28 Prepare against her the nations with the kings of the Mēdeş, the captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion.

29 And the land shall tremble and sorrow: for every purpose of the Lord shall be performed against Băb'ў-lon, to make the land of Băb'ў-lon a desolation without an inhabitant.

30 The mighty men of Băb'ў-lon have forborn to fight, they have remained in their holds: their might hath failed; they became as women: they have burned her dwellingplaces; [e]her bars are broken.

31 One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to shew the king of Băb'ў-lon that his city is taken at one end, 32 And that the passages are stopped, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are affrighted.

33 For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Ĭs'ra-el; The daughter of Băb'ў-lon is [f]like a threshingfloor, it is time to thresh her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come.

34 Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar the king of Băb'ў-lon

Ch. 51. B. C. 595.

1. In this ch. is continued the prophecy against Babylon, giving the many incidents connected with its humiliation and destruction. Vs. 1-4 record the hostile nations.

2. Winnow her, separate her from her prosperity.

3. In vs. 5-14 is recorded the destruction of Babylon.

4. In vs. 15-26 is recorded Jehovah's wrath against the idols.

5. In vs. 27-37 are summoned the nations to appear against Babylon.

Chapter 51.

a. And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. (Rev. 18:4.)

b. And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground. (Is. 21:9.) And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning. (Rev. 18:9.)

c. And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither: I will show unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters. (Rev. 17:1.)

d. Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or him that stooped for age: he gave them all into his hand. (II Chr. 36:17.)

e. Her gates are sunken into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars; her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more; her prophets also find nó vision from the Lord. (Lam. 2:9.) Behold, thy people in the midst of thee are women: the gates of thy land shall be set wide open unto thine enemies: the fire shall devour thy bars. (Nah. 3:13.)

f. O my threshing, and the corn of my floor: that which I have heard of the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you. (Is. 21:10.) Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the Lord, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth. (Mic. 4:13.)

hath devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a [6]dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

35 The violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Băb'ў-lon, shall the inhabitant of Zĭ'ŏn say; and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chăl-dē'ă, shall Je-rū'sa-lĕm say.

36 Therefore thus saith the Lord; Behold, I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her [7]sea, and make her springs dry.

37 [g]And Băb'ў-lon shall become heaps, a dwellingplace for dragons, an astonishment, and an hissing, without an inhabitant.

38 [8]They shall roar together like lions: they shall yell as lions' whelps.

39 In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the Lord.

40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he goats.

41 How is Shē'shăch taken! and how is the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Băb'ў-lon become an astonishment among the nations!

42 [h]The sea is come up upon Băb'ў-lon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.

43 Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby.

44 And I will punish Bĕl in Băb'ў-lon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him: yea, the wall of Băb'ў-lon shall fall.

45 My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the Lord.

46 And lest your heart faint, and ye fear for the rumour that shall be heard in the land; a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that I will do judgment upon the graven images of Băb'ў-lon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.

48 Then [i]the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Băb'ў-lon: for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the Lord.

49 As Băb'ў-lon hath caused the slain of Ĭs'ra-el to fall, so at Băb'ў-lon shall fall the slain of all the earth.

50 [9]Ye [j]that have escaped the sword, go away, stand not still: remember the Lord afar off, and let Je-rū'sa-lĕm come into your mind.

51 We are [k]confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the Lord's house.

52 Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will do judgment upon her graven images: and through all her land the wounded shall groan.

53 Though [l]Băb'ў-lon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the Lord.

54 A sound of a cry cometh from Băb'ў-lon, and great destruction from the land of the Chăl-dē'anş:

55 Because the Lord hath spoiled Băb'ў-lon, and destroyed out of her the great voice; when her waves do roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered:

56 Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Băb'ў-lon, and her mighty men are taken, every one of their bows is broken: [m]for the Lord God of recompences shall surely requite.

57 And I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the King, whose name is the Lord of hosts.

58 Thus saith the Lord of hosts; The broad walls of Băb'ў-lon shall be utterly broken, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the people shall labour in vain, and the folk in the fire, and they shall be weary.

59 ¶ The word which Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet commanded Sĕr-a-ī'ah the son of Ne-rī'ah, the son of Mā-a-sē'iah, when he went with Zĕd-e-kī'ah the king of Jū'dah into Băb'ў-lon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Sĕr-a-ī'ah was a quiet prince.

60 So Jĕr-e-mī'ah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Băb'ў-lon, even all these words that are written against Băb'ў-lon.

61 And Jĕr-e-mī'ah said to Sĕr-a-ī'ah, When thou comest to Băb'ў-lon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words;

62 Then shalt thou say, O Lord, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever.

63 And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind [n]a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Eū-phrā'tēş:

64 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Băb'ў-lon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: and they shall be weary. Thus far [10]are the words of Jĕr-e-mī'ah.

CHAPTER 52.

1 Zedekiah rebelleth. 4 Jerusalem is besieged and taken. 8 Zedekiah's sons killed, and his own eyes put out. 12 Nebuzar-adan burneth and spoileth the city. 24 He carrieth away the captives. 31 Evil-merodach advanceth Jehoiachin.

1 [1]Zĕd-e-kī'ah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Je-rū'sa-lĕm. And his mother's name was Ha-mū'tal the daughter of Jĕr-e-mī'ah of Lĭb'nah.

2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the Lord, according to all that Je-hoi'a-kim had done.

6. Supposed to be the crocodile.

7. The Euphrates River. In ancient times, the distinction between river and sea was not as marked as at present.

8. Vs. 38-49 present the picture of Babylon's destruction.

9. Vs. 50-58 detail the final summing up of the incidents and purpose of the entire prophecy.

10. The word "for" here implies that ch. 52 has been added by another.

Ch. 52. B. C. 599-588.

1. This ch. is supposed to have been written by some one other than Jer., perhaps Ezra, and constitutes a historical supplement to the previous prophecies.

g. And the wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleasant palaces: and her time is near to come, and her days shall not be prolonged. (Is. 13:22.) And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird. (Rev. 18:2.)

h. Now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks. And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over; he shall reach even to the neck: and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel. (Is. 8:7, 8.)

i. Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the Lord hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted. (Is. 49:13.) Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her. (Rev. 18:20.)

j. Yet a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt who sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine, or theirs. (Jer. 44:28.)

k. We are become a reproach to our neighbors, a scorn and derision to them that are round about us. (Ps. 79:4.)

l. And they said, Go to, let us build us a city, and a tower whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth. (Gen. 11:4.) Though they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down. (Amos 9:2.) Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the Lord. (Ob. 4.)

m. To me belongeth vengeance and recompence; their foot shall slide in due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste. (Dt. 32:35.) O Lord God, to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, show thyself. (Ps. 94:1.)

n. And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and

3 For through the anger of the Lord it came to pass in Je-ru'sa-lĕm and Jū'dah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zĕd-e-kī'ah [a]rebelled against the king of Băb'ў-lon.

4 ¶ And it came to pass in the [b]ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon came, he and all his army, against Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and [c]pitched against it, and built forts against it round about.

5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zĕd-e-kī'ah.

7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chăl-dē'anş were by the city round about:) and they went by the way of the plain.

8 ¶ But the army of the Chăl-dē'anş pursued after the king, and overtook Zĕd-e-kī'ah in the plains of Jĕr'ĭ-chō; and all his army was scattered from him.

9 Then they took the [2]king, and carried him up unto the king of Băb'ў-lon to Rĭb'lah in the land of Hā'math; where he gave judgment upon him.

10 And the king of Băb'ў-lon slew the sons of Zĕd-e-kī'ah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Jū'dah in Rĭb'lah.

11 Then he put out the eyes of Zĕd-e-kī'ah; and the king of Băb'ў-lon bound him in chains, and carried him to Băb'ў-lon, and put him in [3]prison, till the day of his death.

12 ¶ Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon, came Nĕb'u-zär-ā'dan, captain of the guard, which served the king of Băb'ў-lon, into Je-ru'sa-lĕm,

13 And [e]burned the house of the Lord, and the king's house; and all the houses of Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and all the houses of the great men, burned he with fire:

14 And all the army of the Chăl-dē'anş, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Je-ru'sa-lĕm round about.

15 Then Nĕb'u-zär-ā'dan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Băb'ў-lon, and the rest of the multitude.

16 But Nĕb'u-zär-ā'dan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land for vinedressers and for husbandmen.

17 [f]Also the pillars of brass that were in the house of the Lord, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the Lord, the Chăl-dē'anş brake, and carried all the brass of them to Băb'ў-lon.

18 The [g]caldrons also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.

19 And the basons, and the firepans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away.

20 The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brasen bulls that were under the bases, which king Sŏl'o-mon had made in the house of the Lord: the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

21 And concerning the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a fillet of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow.

22 And a chapiter of brass was upon it; and the height of one chapiter was five cubits, with network and pomegranates upon the chapiters round about, all of brass. The second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these.

23 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and all the pomegranates upon the network were an hundred round about.

24 ¶ And the captain of the guard took Sĕr-ā-ī'ah the chief priest, and Zĕph-a-nī'ah the second priest, and the three keepers of the door:

25 He took also out of the city an eunuch, which had the charge of the men of war; and seven men of them that were near the king's person, which were found in the city; and the principal scribe of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in the midst of the city.

26 So Nĕb'u-zär-ā'dan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Băb'ў-lon to Rĭb'lah.

27 And the king of Băb'ў-lon smote them, and put them to death in Rĭb'lah in the land of Hā'math. [h]Thus Jū'dah was carried away captive out of his own land.

28 [4]This is the people whom Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand Jews and three and twenty:

29 In the eighteenth year of Nĕb-u-chăd-

4. In vs. 28-30 is given a record of the various deportations of the Jews under Nebuchadnezzar: in the seventh year of his reign, 3,023; in the 18th year, 832; in the 23rd year, 745; a total of 4,600.

cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all. (Rev. 18:21.)

Chapter 52.

a. Say now to the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon; And hath taken of the king's seed, and made a covenant with him, and hath taken an oath of him: he hath also taken the mighty of the land: That the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand. But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered? As I live, saith the Lord God, surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die. (Ez. 17:12-16.)

b. And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he, and all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it; and they built forts against it round about. (II Ks. 25:1.)

c. And he shall besiege thee in all thy gates, until the high and fenced walls come down, wherein thou trustedst, throughout all thy land: and he shall besiege thee in all thy gates, throughout all thy land, which the Lord thy God hath given thee. And thou shalt eat the fruit of thine own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters, which the Lord thy God hath given thee, in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee: So that the man that is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children which he shall leave: So that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat: because he hath nothing left him in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all thy gates. (Dt. 28:52-55.)

d. And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the quarrel of my covenant: and when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send a pestilence among you; and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy. And when I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight: and ye shall eat, and not be satisfied. (Lev. 26:25, 26.)

e. Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest. (Mic. 3:12.)

f. For thus saith the Lord of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city, Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem (19, 20). They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, saith the Lord: then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place. (Jer. 27:19, 20, 22.)

g. And the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away. And the fire-pans, and the bowls, and such things as were of gold, in gold, and of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away. The two pillars, one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the Lord; the brass of all these vessels was without weight. (II Ks. 25:14-16.)

h. And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste (33). As long as it lieth desolate it shall rest; because it did not rest in your sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it. (Lev. 26:33, 35.)

rĕz'zar he carried away captive from Je-rụ'-sa-lĕm eight hundred thirty and two persons:

30 In the three and twentieth year of Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar Nĕb'u-zär-ā'dan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

31 ¶ And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Je-hoi'a-chin king of Jū'dah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Ē'vĭl-me-rō'dach king of Băb'ў-lon in the first year of his reign lifted [5]up the head of Je-hoi'-a-chin king of Jū'dah, and brought him forth out of prison.

32 And spake kindly unto him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Băb'ў-lon, 33 And changed his prison garments: and he did continually eat bread before him all the days of his life.

34 And for his diet, there was a continual diet given him of the king of Băb'ў-lon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

5. The phrase, "lifted up the head," is a frequent one much used in the east to express the removal of sorrow from any cause, having its origin in the common custom which people have of drooping or holding down the head when in grief or trouble, hence "lifting up the head" means removing the cause, when the person will, in rejoicing, carry the head erect.

LAMENTATIONS OF JEREMIAH

NOTE.—The Lamentations of Jeremiah concerning the fall and destruction of Jerusalem and the overthrow of Judea by the Chaldeans, portray the great misery and trouble which had fallen to the lot of the covenant people, picturing incidentally thereto the lives and characteristics of certain individuals whose history was so interwoven with the life and destruction of the chosen people, that a history of their trials and sufferings could not be told independent of these individuals. This book is called "the saddest wail of all literature." Though such it is, it is not on account of any mere human or earthly sorrows and disappointments, but of that deeper and piercing agony of soul, resultant from the destruction of spiritual hope and aspirations.

CHAPTER 1.

The miserable estate of Jerusalem by reason of her sin.

Ch. 1. B. C. 588.

1 [1]How doth the city sit solitary, that was full of people! how is she become as a [2]widow! she that was great among the nations, and princess among the provinces, how is she become tributary!

2 She [a]weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks: among all her [3]lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have [b]dealt treacherously with her, they are become her enemies.

3 Jū'dah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude: [c]she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits.

4 The ways of Zī'ŏn do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries are the chief, her enemies prosper; for the Lord hath afflicted her [d]for the multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zī'ŏn all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like [4]harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Je-rū'sa-lĕm remembered in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths.

8 Je-rū'sa-lĕm hath grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because [e]they have seen her nakedness: yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

9 Her filthiness is in her skirts; she remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O Lord, behold my affliction: for the enemy hath magnified himself.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that they should not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat to relieve the soul: see, O Lord, and consider; for I am become vile.

12 ¶ [5]Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by? behold, and see [f]if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the Lord hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against them: he hath spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back: he hath made me desolate and faint all the day.

14 [g]The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand: they are wreathed, and come up upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fall, the Lord hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.

15 The Lord hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me: he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: [h]the Lord hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Jū'dah, as in a winepress.

16 For these things I weep; mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

17 Zī'ŏn spreadeth forth her hands, and there is none to comfort her: the Lord hath commanded concerning Jā'cob, that his adversaries should be round about him: Je-rū'sa-lĕm is as a menstruous woman among them.

18 ¶ The Lord is righteous; for I have rebelled against his [i]commandment: hear, [j]I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow: my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, but they deceived me: my priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, while they sought their meat to relieve their souls.

20 Behold, O Lord; for I am in distress: my [k]bowels are troubled; mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: abroad the [l]sword bereaveth, at home there is as death.

21 They have heard that I sigh: there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring the day that thou hast called, and they shall be like unto me.

22 Let all their wickedness come before

1. Ch. 1 treats of the miseries and afflictions of the people and the consequent lamentations.

2. Meaning Jerusalem, which is here personified as a woman who had lost both children and husband and been betrayed by her friends; and while sitting helpless amidst her grief, she weeps over them.

3. That is, the nations who were friendly to the Jews.

4. Like a helpless, frightened, fleeing deer.

5. Vs. 12-22, the grief and lamentations of Jerusalem, the widow, are made present, as though she were a grief-stricken woman, speaking through her sorrows to the reader.

Ref. Lamentations. Chapter 1.

a. But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride; and mine eyes shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the Lord's flock is carried away captive. (Jer. 13:17.)

b. He hath put my brethren far from me, and mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me. My kinsfolk have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me. (Job. 19:13, 14.) I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbors, and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without fled from me. (Ps. 31:11.)

c. And the Lord shall scatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone. (Dt. 28:64.)

d. And they that are left of you shall pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them. (Lev. 26:39.)

e. And if thou say in thine heart, Wherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts discovered, and thy heels made bare. (Jer. 13:22.)

f. And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem. (Dan. 9:12.)

g. Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies, which the Lord shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee. (Dt. 28:48.)

h. I have trodden the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment. (Is. 63:3.) And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the wine-press of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. (Rev. 19:15.)

i. If ye will fear the Lord, and serve him, and obey his voice, and not rebel against the commandment of the Lord, then shall both ye and also the king that reigneth over you continue following the Lord your God. (I Sam. 12:14.)

j. The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth. (Ps. 145:18.) Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens. (Lam. 3:41.) Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you (7): For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. (Mat. 7:7, 8.)

k. My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war. (Jer. 4:19.) How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together. (Hos. 11:8.)

l. The sword without, and terror within, shall destroy both the young man and the virgin, the suckling also with the man of grey hairs. (Dt. 32:25.)

thee; and do unto them, [m]as thou hast done unto me for all my transgressions: for my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth the misery of Jerusalem. 20 He complaineth thereof to God.

1 [1]How hath the Lord covered the daughter of [2]Zī'ŏn with a cloud in his anger, and [a]cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of [3]Ĭs'ra-el, and remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger!

2 The Lord hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jā'cob, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Jū'dah; he hath brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Ĭs'ra-el: he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jā'cob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

4 He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zī'ŏn: he poured out his fury like fire.

5 The Lord was as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Ĭs'ra-el, he hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Jū'dah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden: he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: the Lord hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zī'ŏn, and hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.

7 The Lord hath [b]cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have made a noise in the house of the Lord, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 The Lord hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zī'ŏn: he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the walls to lament; they languished together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars: [c]her king and her princes are among the Gĕn'tīleş: the law is no more; [d]her prophets also find no vision from the Lord.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zī'ŏn [e]sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Je-ru'sa-lĕm hang down their heads to the ground.

11 [3]Mine eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled, my [4]liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because the children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city.

Ch. 2. B. C. 588.

1. In ch. 2. the miseries of the people are referred directly to Jehovah, as evidences of his great displeasure of their sins. Also a prayer to God for help.

2. Jerusalem.

3. In vs. 11-16 is recorded the lamentation.

4. The only occurrence of this word in the Old Testament. It is used here in a symbolical sense. The liver was thought to be the seat of the passions, therefore as the bile is poured out, so likewise are their feelings poured out before the Lord. (J. F. B.)

5. Vs. 17-19, the general call to prayer.

6. Vs. 20-22, the prayer.

Ch. 3. B. C. 588.

1. In ch. 3, Jer. presents his own afflictions and personal experiences as an example to the Jews of how they should conduct themselves, so that they might have a hope of restoration.

2. In vs. 1-18 Jer. speaks of his own personal experiences.

3. Calamity.

4. Prosperity.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Je-ru'sa-lĕm? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zī'ŏn? for thy breach is great like the sea: who can heal thee?

14 Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee: and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens and causes of banishment.

15 All that pass by clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Je-ru'sa-lĕm, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

16 All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.

17 [f]The Lord hath done that which he [f]had devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

18 Their heart cried unto the Lord, O wall of the daughter of Zī'ŏn, let tears run down like a river day and night: give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

19 Arise, cry out in the night: in the beginning of the [g]watches [h]pour out thine heart like water before the face of the Lord: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, that faint for hunger [i]in the top of every street.

20 ¶ [j]Behold, O Lord, and consider [j]to whom thou hast done this. Shall the women eat their fruit, and children of a span long? shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?

21 The young [k]and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger; thou hast killed, and not pitied.

22 Thou hast called as in a solemn day my terrors round about, so that in the day of the Lord's anger none escaped nor remained: those that I have swaddled and brought up hath mine enemy consumed.

CHAPTER 3.

1 The faithful bewail their calamities. 22 By the mercies of God they nourish their hope. 37 They acknowledge God's justice.

1 [1]I am the [2]man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

2 He hath led me, and brought me into [3]darkness, but not into [4]light.

3 Surely against me is he turned; he turneth his hand against me all the day.

m. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. (Ecc. 12:14.) Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend. (I Cor. 8:13.) For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people. (Heb. 10:30.)

Chapter 2.

a. And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. (Mat. 11:23.)

b. As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty: but they made the images of their abominations and of their detestable things therein: therefore have I set it far from them. (Ez. 7:20.)

c. The Lord shall bring thee, and thy king which thou shalt set over thee, unto a nation which neither thou nor thy fathers have known; and there shalt thou serve other gods, wood and stone. (Dt. 28:36.)

d. Now for a long season Israel hath been without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law. (II Chr. 15:3.)

e. So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great. (Job 2:13.)

f. But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day, that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee. (Dt. 28:15.)

g. Watch ye therefore; for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning. (Mk. 13:35.)

h. Trust in him at all times; ye people, pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. Selah. (Ps. 62:8.)

i. Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as a wild bull in a net: they are full of the fury of the Lord, the rebuke of thy God. (Is. 51:20.)

j. And Moses besought the Lord his God, and said, Lord, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand? (Ex. 32:11.)

k. Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who 4 My flesh and my skin hath he made old; he hath broken my bones.

5 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with gall and travail.
6 He hath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old.
7 He hath hedged me about, that I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy.
8 [a]Also when I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer.
9 He hath inclosed my ways with hewn stone, he hath made my paths crooked.
10 He was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.
11 He hath turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.
12 He hath bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.
13 He hath caused the arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.
14 I was a [b]derision to all my people; and their song all the day.
15 He hath [c]filled me with bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.
16 He hath also broken my teeth with gravel stones, he hath covered me with ashes.
17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace: I forgat prosperity.
18 And I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the Lord:
19 [5]Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.
20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is humbled in me.
21 This I recall to my mind, therefore have I hope.
22 ¶ [d]It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.
23 They [6]are new every morning: great is [c]thy faithfulness.
24 The Lord is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him.
25 The Lord is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

5. Vs. 19-32, humble acknowledgment of the sovereignty and mercy of God.

6. They, meaning mercies of God.

7. That is, who else, like God, can speak and it shall be done?

8. In vs. 40-66 is recorded the confession of sins and lamentations over the consequent evil.

26 It is good that a man should both hope [f]and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord.
27 [g]It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.
28 He sitteth alone and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him.
29 [h]He putteth his mouth in the dust; if so be there may be hope.
30 [i]He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproach.
31 [j]For the Lord will not cast off for ever:
32 But though he cause grief, yet will he [k]have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.
33 For [l]he doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men.
34 To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth, 35 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the most High, 36 To subvert a man in his cause, [m]the Lord approveth not.
37 ¶ [7]Who is he [n]that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the Lord commandeth it not?
38 Out of the mouth of the most High proceedeth not evil and good?
39 Wherefore doth a living man complain, [o]a man for the punishment of his sins?
40 [8]Let [p]us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord.
41 [q]Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.
42 We [r]have transgressed and have rebelled: thou hast not pardoned.
43 Thou hast covered with anger, and persecuted us: thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied.
44 Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, that our prayer should not pass through.
45 Thou hast made us as the [s]offscouring and refuse in the midst of the people.
46 All our enemies have opened their mouths against us.
47 Fear and a snare is come upon us, desolation and destruction.
48 Mine eye runneth down with rivers of slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or him that stooped for age; he gave them all into his hand. (II Chr. 36:17.)

Chapter 3.

a. I cry unto thee, and thou dost not hear me: I stand up, and thou regardest me not. (Job 30:20.) O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou hearest not; and in the night season, and am not silent. (Ps. 22:2.)

b. O Lord, thou hast deceived me, and I was deceived; thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed: I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me. (Jer. 20:7.)

c. Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink. (Jer. 9:15.)

d. For thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds. (Ps. 57:10.)

e. Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; for he is faithful that promised. (Heb. 10:23.)

f. Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass. (Ps. 37:7.) I waited patiently for the Lord; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry. (Ps. 40:1.) For thus saith the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel; In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength; and ye would not. (Is. 30:15.)

g. So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. (Ps. 90:12.) Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them. (Ecc. 12:1.)

h. Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes. (Job 42:6.) I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my horn in the dust. (Job 16:15.)

i. Now gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us; they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek. (Mic. 5:1.) But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil; but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also. (Mat. 5:39.)

j. For the Lord will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance. (Ps. 94:14.) Will the Lord cast off for ever? and will he be favorable no more? (7). And I said, This is my infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High. (Ps. 77:7, 10.) For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee. In little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the Lord thy Redeemer. For this is as the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee. For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on me. (Is. 54:7-10.)

k. But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not; yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath. (Ps. 78:38.) Many times did he deliver them; but they provoked him with their counsel, and were brought low for their iniquity. Nevertheless he regarded their affliction, when he heard their cry: And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. (Ps. 106:43-45.)

l. Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my bowels are troubled for him: I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the Lord. (Jer. 31:20.) Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel? (Ez. 33:11.)

m. Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he? (Hab. 1:13.)

n. For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast. (Ps. 33:9.) For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that. (Js. 4:15.)

o. I will bear the indignation of the Lord, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness. (Mic. 7:9.) Why criest thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee. (Jer. 30:15.) And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him: For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. (Heb. 12:5, 6.)

p. I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy testimonies. (Ps. 119:59.) Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts; And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting. (Ps. 139:23, 24.)

q. Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul. (Ps. 25:1.) Hear the voice of my supplications when I cry unto thee, when I lift up my hands toward thy holy oracle. (Ps. 28:2.) Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense, and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice. (Ps. 141:2.)

r. Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee; and they wrought great provocations. (Neh. 9:26.) We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments. (Dan. 9:5.)

s. Being defamed, we entreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day. (I Cor. 4:13.)

water for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

49 Mine eye trickleth down, and ceaseth not, without any intermission, 50 Till the Lord [t]look down, and behold from heaven.

51 Mine eye affecteth mine heart because of all the daughters of my city.

52 Mine enemies chased me sore, like a bird, without cause.

53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast a stone upon me.

54 Waters flowed over mine head; then I said, I am cut off.

55 ¶ I called upon thy name, O Lord, out of the low dungeon.

56 Thou hast heard my voice: hide not thine ear at my breathing, at my cry.

57 Thou drewest near in the day that I called upon thee: thou saidst, Fear not.

58 O Lord, thou hast pleaded the causes of my soul; thou hast redeemed my life.

59 O Lord, thou hast seen my wrong: judge thou my cause.

60 Thou hast seen all their vengeance and all their imaginations against me.

61 Thou hast heard their reproach, O Lord, and all their imaginations against me;

62 The lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.

63 Behold their sitting down, and their rising up; I am their musick.

64 ¶ Render [u]unto them a recompence, O Lord, according to the work of their hands.

65 Give them sorrow of heart, thy curse unto them.

66 Persecute and [v]destroy them in anger from under the heavens of the Lord.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Zion bewaileth her pitiful estate. 13 She confesseth her sins. 21 Edom is threatened. 22 Zion is comforted.

1 [1]How is the gold [2]become [2a]dim! how is the most fine [2]gold changed! the stones [2]of the sanctuary are poured out in the top of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zī'ŏn, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

3 Even the sea [4]monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruel, like the [5]ostriches in the wilderness.

4 [b]The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: the young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.

5 They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: they that were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills.

6 For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sŏd'om, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.

7 Her [6]Năz'a-rītes were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than [7]rubies, their polishing was of sapphire:

8 Their visage is blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

9 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.

10 [c]The hands of the pitiful women have sodden their own children: they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

11 The Lord hath accomplished his fury; he hath poured out his fierce anger, and [d]hath kindled a fire in Zī'ŏn, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

12 [8]The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Je-ru'sa-lĕm.

13 ¶ [e]For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that [f]have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her,

14 They have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments.

15 They cried unto them, Depart ye; it is unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fled away and wandered, they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.

16 The anger of the Lord hath divided them; he will no more regard them: they respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.

17 [9]As for us, our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

18 [g]They hunt our steps, that we cannot go

Ch. 4. B. C. 588.

1. In this ch. is recorded the capture of Jerusalem and the hope of restoration: the retributive justice awaiting Idumea.

2. Symbolical expressions meaning sons of Zion.

3. The loss and decay of glory and national character.

4. Jackals.

5. The ostrich is used as the type of "unmotherhood," supposed to have had its origin in the fact of the eggs being laid in the sand and left to be hatched by the heat of the sun, rather than the warmth of the body of the bird.

6. An order as being specially set aside or consecrated to the service of God.

7. Chorals.

8. Vs. 12-16 record the sufferings of the priests and prophets.

9. In vs. 17-20 is found the hopeless trust of the people.

t. Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy strength, the sounding of thy bowels and of thy mercies toward me? are they restrained? (Is. 63:15.)

u. Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavors: give them after the work of their hands; render to them their desert. (Ps. 28:4.) Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for this is the time of the Lord's vengeance; he will render unto her a recompence. (Jer. 51:6.) And I will render unto Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the Lord (24). Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken: every one of their bows is broken: for the Lord God of recompences shall surely requite. (Jer. 51:24, 56.)

v. And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them; there remained not so much as one of them. (Ex. 14:28.) Let their way be dark and slippery: and let the angel of the Lord persecute them. (Ps. 35:6.)

a. And he burnt the house of the Lord, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great man's house burnt he with fire. And all the army of the Chaldees, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down the walls of Jerusalem round about. (II Ks. 25:9, 10.) They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be removed: their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the Lord: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels: because it is the stumblingblock of their iniquity. As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations and of their detestable things therein: therefore have I set it far from them. And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall pollute it. My face will I turn also from them, and they shall pollute my secret place: for the robbers shall enter into it, and defile it. (Ez. 7:19-22.)

b. My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death. (Ps 22:15.)

c. And thou shalt eat the fruit of thine own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters, which the Lord thy God hath given thee, in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee (53). The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter, And toward her young one that cometh out from between her feet, and toward her children which she shall bear: for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly in the siege and straitness, wherewith thine enemy shall distress thee in thy gates, (Dt. 28:53, 56, 57.) And I will make this city desolate, and an hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all the plagues thereof. And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons, and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend, in the siege and straitness wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them. (Jer. 19:8, 9.)

d. For a fire is kindled in mine anger, and shall burn unto the lowest hell, and shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains. (Dt. 32:22.)

e. The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof? (Jer. 5:31.)

f. Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets (31). That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar (35). O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! (Mat. 23:31, 35, 37.)

g. And the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between two walls, which is by the king's garden; (now the Chaldees were against the city round about;) and the king went the way toward the plain. (II Ks. 25:4.)

in our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come.

19 Our persecutors are swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the Lord, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.

21 ¶ [10]Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Ē'dom, that dwellest in the land of Ūz; the cup [h]also shall pass through unto thee: thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

22 ¶ The punishment of [i]thine iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zī'ŏn; he will no more carry thee away into captivity: he will visit [j]thine iniquity, O daughter of Ē'dom; he will discover thy sins.

CHAPTER 5.

A pitiful complaint of Zion in prayer unto God.

1 [1]Remember, [a]O [2]Lord, what is come upon us: consider, and behold our reproach.

2 Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens.

3 We are orphans and fatherless, our mothers are as widows.

4 We have drunken our water for money; our wood is sold unto us.

5 Our necks are under persecution: we labour, and have no rest.

10. Vs. 21, 22, restoration is promised; Jerusalem's punishments are full; the day-dawn is foretold.

Ch. 5. B. C. 588.

1. In this ch. the general distress and sufferings of the people are pitifully placed before Jehovah, and Jer. prays for their reproach to be removed and the covenant people to be restored.

2. In vs. 1-7 is detailed the general distress of the people.

3. In vs. 8-18 many individual illustrations of severe punishment are given.

4. In vs. 19-22 is the prayer for restoration.

6 We have given the hand to the Ē-ġўp'-tians, and to the Ās-sўr'ī-ans, to be satisfied with bread.

7 [b]Our fathers have sinned, and are not; and we have borne their iniquities.

8 [3]Servants have ruled over us: there is none that doth deliver us out of their hand.

9 We gat our bread with the peril of our lives because of the sword of the wilderness.

10 Our skin was black like an oven because of the terrible famine.

11 [c]They ravished the women in Zī'ŏn, and the maids in the cities of Jū'dah.

12 Princes are hanged up by their hand: the faces of elders were not honoured.

13 They took the young men to grind, and the children fell under the wood.

14 The elders have ceased from the gate, the young men from their musick.

15 The joy of our heart is ceased; our dance is turned into mourning.

16 The crown is fallen from our head: woe unto us, that we have sinned!

17 For this our heart is faint; for these things our eyes are dim.

18 Because of the mountain of Zī'ŏn, which is desolate, the foxes walk upon it.

19 [4]Thou, O Lord, remainest for ever; thy throne from generation to generation.

20 Wherefore dost thou [d]forget us for ever, and forsake us so long time?

21 Turn [e]thou us unto thee, O Lord, and we shall be turned; renew our days as of old.

22 But thou hast utterly rejected us; thou art very wroth against us.

h. And the unicorns shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls; and their land shall be soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness. (Is. 34:7.) Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save. Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat? I have trodden the wine-press alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment. For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come. And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me. And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth. (Is. 63:1-6.) Thus saith the Lord; For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever: But I will send a fire upon Teman, which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah. (Amos 1:11, 12.)

i. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the Lord's hand double for all her sins. (Is. 40:2.) And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first. And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and, whereby they have transgressed against me. (Jer. 33:7, 8.)

j. But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbors, and he is not. (Jer. 49:10.) I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness. Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the Lord of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the Lord hath indignation for ever. (Mal. 1:3, 4.)

a. Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall. My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is humble in me. (Lam. 3:19, 20.)

b. Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me. (Ex. 20:5.) We acknowledge, O Lord, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers; for we have sinned against thee. (Jer. 14:20.)

c. For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city. (Zech. 14:2.) Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished. (Is. 13:16.)

d. How long wilt thou forget me, O Lord? for ever? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me? (Ps. 13:1.) Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression? (Ps. 44:24.)

e. Turn us again, O God, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved. (Ps. 80:3.) I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the Lord my God. (Jer. 31:18.)

PROPHET EZEKIEL

NOTE.—Ezekiel is one of the most difficult and obscure of all the books of the Bible. It has been called "the abyss of Holy Scriptures" and "a maze of divine secrets," and is as little understood by laymen and clergy as any other book of the Bible. The prophet made a very free use of symbols and so secreted his thought beneath a shell which first must be pierced before the meaning could be understood, that but few there are, even of the scholars, who have not only failed to make a systematic study of, but, as the scholars themselves acknowledge, have even read the book. Yet those who have made a careful study of it, declare it to be a "masterpiece equaled only by the book of Job." It is almost a book of visions, though definitely historical because the dates with which it is most concerned are definitely given; yet it is not a history, but a spiritual interpreter of history. The author lived in close communion with his Creator, his eye of prophetic vision upon the oracles of heaven, at the same time living in close touch with his fellowmen, ever seeking to reveal the will and purpose of heaven to the sin-ridden, chosen people, to give them help and comfort and to bring them the salvation of a long-suffering God. His visions are keen, vivid, and intricate, his sermons comprehensive and plain, his design and purpose to show the chosen people their transgressions and reveal to them the perfect will of God.

Ezekiel is the only one of the book of prophets which is universally conceded by all critics to be in the same form and condition as when it left the hands of the author, the prophet Ezekiel. So mysterious was it to the Jew, that they were not permitted to read it until they had reached the age of 30. Kautzsch says that Ezekiel "shows a grand scale of variation from the simplest and most naive utterances to the most artistic and most complicated." Ewald, that he "excels all former prophets, as a writer, in point of skill, beauty and perfection of treatment." His style is enriched by "charming and telling metaphor, full of new terms and surprises, often very beautifully elaborated." Ez. was probably the greatest of all the Old Testament makers of parables, allegories, and riddles. His visions were clear and comprehensive, in which all the splendors of the majesties of earth and heaven are intertwined and thrown together, forming, says Jerome, "a labyrinth of the mysteries of God." The one great purpose and effort of the author is to explain all history by the controlling hand of God. For about 22 years, beginning in the fifth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin, "when the heavens were open to him and he saw the visions of Jehovah," he prophesied to the captive Jews.

In the study of Ez. one fact should ever be kept in mind as the key of the entire book, viz., that while nearly all the words of the prophet are presented here in visions, yet he gives the date and circumstances connected with them so definitely that it is evidently his intention for the reader to learn the key words of his symbolical figures, then understand and accept the events as real and true, revealing the providence of God.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The time of Ezekiel's prophecy at Chebar.
4 His vision of four cherubim, 15 of the four wheels, 26 and of the glory of God.

1 Now [1]it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river of Chē'bär, that [a]the heavens [2]were opened, and I saw visions [b]of God.

2 In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of king Je-hoi'a-chin's captivity,

3 The word [c]of the Lord came expressly unto [3]E-zē'kĭ-ĕl the priest, the son of Bū'zī, in the land of the Chăl-dē'ans by the river Chē'bär; and the hand [d]of the Lord was there upon him.

4 ¶ [4]And I looked, and, behold, a whirlwind came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire [5]infolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.

5 Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness [6]of a man.

6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings.

7 And their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled like the colour of burnished brass.

8 And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.

9 Their wings were joined one to another; they turned not when they went; they went every one [7]straight forward.

10 As for [e]the likeness of their faces, they four had the face of a man, and the face of a lion, on the right side: and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle.

Ch. 1. B. C. 595.

1. In this ch. Ez. gives account of his call to the prophetic office. All critics agree that this ch. is a genuine account of the experiences of the prophet written by himself.

2. Not a dream, but a clear manifestation.

3. Of Ez. nothing is known save what he has told himself, which was but little; however, the fact that he kept himself in the background is proof of his modesty and devotion to his work. He was thoroughly consecrated to his work, given up to holy thoughts and heavenly dreams, for 22 years a prophet in Babylon. Kamrath has called him "the Jewish Calvin," because of his great influence and mental grasp of the many and vast problems concerning his people. He was contemporary with Jeremiah and Daniel. The former had sustained his prophetic office for 34 years before Ez.'s first prophecy and continued to prophesy for about seven years afterward; Daniel's prophecies dating near the close of Ez.'s ministry. We never meet with Ez. as an ordinary man; he always acts and thinks and feels as a prophet.

4. In vs. 4-28 is detailed Ez.'s vision, at which time he received his call to the prophetic office.

5. Incessant flashes of lightning which illuminated the whole cloud until it looked like amber.

6. The first impression received by the prophet and the one which remained with him longest was "they had the likeness of a man." The heavenly favored type of creation was consummated in humanity.

7. There was no hesitancy or waywardness, the entire company moved as one, and all straight forward; perhaps symbolical of the calm, quiet, undisturbed manner that all powers, natural and supernatural, fulfill Jehovah's will.

8. Each side was a front, so that they could move toward any point of the compass without the slightest turn.

9. Connected with each living creature is a wheel; the carefulness with which they are described perhaps proves their symbolical nature.

11 Thus were their faces: and their wings were stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and [f]two covered their bodies.

12 And they went every one straight forward: whither the spirit was to go, they went; and they turned [8]not when they went.

13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, [g]and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

14 And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 ¶ Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold one [9]wheel upon the earth by the living creatures, with his four faces.

16 The appearance of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of a [10]beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel [11]in the middle of a wheel.

17 When they went, they went upon their four sides: and they turned [12]not when they went.

18 As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their rings were full of eyes round about them four.

20 Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over [14]against them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

11. Each wheel seemed to be intersected by another wheel at right angles, thus no matter what direction the chariot was moving there were four wheels in a natural position. Wheels symbolize the unsearchableness, wisdom and vigilance of a divine nature and power.

12. They revolved, but did not turn around when changing angles.

13. Perfect harmony displayed between the wheels and the living creatures.

14. That is, beside them.

Ref. Ezekiel. Chapter 1.

a. And Jesus, when he was baptised, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were open unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him. (Mat. 3:16.) And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens open, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him. (Mk. 1:10.) And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. (Acts 7:56.) After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will show thee things which must be hereafter. (Rev. 4:1.) And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man. (Jno. 1:51.)

b. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the Lord's hand double for all her sins. (Is. 40:2.) And they saw the God of Israel: and there was under his feet as it were a paved work of a sapphire stone, and as it were the body of heaven in his clearness. (Ex. 24:10.) And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I the Lord will make myself known unto him in a vision, and will speak unto him in a dream. (Num. 12:6.) The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which ye saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah. (Is. 1:1.)

c. For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them. (II Pet. 2:21.)

d. And the hand of the Lord was on Elijah; and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel. (I Ks. 18:46.) But now bring me a minstrel. And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that the hand of the Lord came upon him. (II Ks. 3:15.)

e. And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle. (Rev. 4:7.)

f. Above it stood the seraphim: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. (Is. 6:2.)

g. And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and ed up over against them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 And [h]the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

23 And under the [15]firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies.

24 And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of great waters, as [i]the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings.

25 And there was a [16]voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let [17]down their wings.

26 ¶ And above the firmament that was over their heads was the [18]likeness of a throne, [j]as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the [19]likeness [k]as the appearance of a man above upon it.

27 And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about.

28 As the appearance of the [20]bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the Lord. And when I saw it, [l]I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice [21]of one that spake.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Ezekiel's commission. 6 His instruction. 9 The roll of his heavy prophecy.

1 [1]And he said unto me, Son [2]of man, stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee.

2 And [a]the spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.

3 And he said unto me, Son [2]of man, I send thee to the children of Ĭs'ra-el, to a rebellious [3]nation that hath rebelled against me: [b]they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

4 For they are [4]impudent [c]children and stiff-hearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord [5]God.

6 ¶ And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: [e]be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

7 And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are most rebellious.

8 But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee; Be [f]not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and [g]eat that I give thee.

9 ¶ And when I looked, behold, an hand was sent unto me; and, lo, a roll [6]of a book was therein;

CHAPTER 3.

1 Ezekiel eateth the roll. 15 God sheweth him the rule of prophecy. 22 God shutteth and openeth the prophet's mouth.

1 [1]Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou [2]findest; [a]eat this roll, and go speak unto the house of Ĭs'ra-el.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I [b]eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.

4 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Ĭs'ra-el, and speak with my words unto them.

5 For thou art not sent to a people of a strange speech and of an hard language, but to the house of Ĭs'ra-el;

6 Not to many people of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. [c]Surely, had I sent

15. Here meaning the platform of Jehovah's throne.

16. Of the Almighty.

17. While Jehovah spoke the creatures let down their wings, thus giving reverent attention and due respect to the Almighty's utterances.

18. It should be observed how careful Ez. is to describe his vision at all times, saying the "likeness of," never saying "it is."

19. Here the Godhead, the ruler of the universe, appears to the prophet in the likeness of enthroned humanity. Here is the throne and God "as a man" with the "appearance of fire round about." As others are called "sons of God," he is called "the Son of man." (Mat. 16: 13)—"Whom do men say that I, the Son of man, am?" He is thus the representative "of the fullness of the Godhead" (Col. 2:9), also the embodied representative of humanity. Thus seated upon the throne above is one who has the appearance of man.

20. As in the days of Noah, the bow was suspended in the heavens as a sign that there should be no more destroying flood, so now it is stretched across the throne of the universe as a sign of the covenant of mercy to God's people. "Like hanging out from the throne of the eternal a flag of peace, assuring all that the purpose of heaven was to preserve rather than to destroy." (Rev. 4:3)—"And there was a rainbow round about the throne in sight like unto an emerald."

21. To the heathen their gods are pictured in the likeness of some fiendish monster. What is the purpose of this striking symbol as seen by the Hebrew prophet? Can it be to show the world that Israel's God is not a monster, but is "human divine"?

Ch. 2. B. C. 595.

1. In this ch. we are introduced to the most solemn occasions of history. Jehovah on his throne has commanded and received the attention of a man to whom he is now about to deliver his commission of prophecy. By many critics this ch. is called the minister's ch.

2. It should be observed that when Jehovah has an important commission to deliver to his people, he selects a man as the agent.

3. Rebellious ones: each tribe seems to be counted as a nation.

4. Stiff-necked, hard-hearted, hard-faced. When the heart is wrong the face soon shows it.

5. Jehovah, the national covenant-name of the merciful, long-suffering, gracious One, abundant in loving kindness and truth.

6. Beginning with the 9th verse and extending to the 11th verse of ch. 3, the servant of God is taught that he must not speak his own words but the words of Jehovah.

Ch. 3. B. C. 595.

1. In this ch. is beautifully illustrated the intertwining of the human and divine parts in the divine service: Jehovah furnishes the truth (ch. 2:9), but man must take, eat it, digest it, and assimilate it (vs. 2, 3). Thus man is taught by Jehovah, but as a pupil he has his work to do and must do it.

2. Put thyself in right relations with Jehovah, be obedient to his commands and devoted to his service.

voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. (Rev. 4:5.)

h. Then I looked, and, behold, in a firmament that was above the head of the cherubim there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. (Ez. 10:1.)

i. After it a voice roareth: he thundereth with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard. God thundereth marvellously with his voice; great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend. (Job 37:4, 5.) The voice of the Lord is upon the waters; the God of glory thundereth: the Lord is upon many waters. (Ps. 29:3.)

j. And they saw the God of Israel: and there was under his feet as it were a paved work of a sapphire stone, and as it were the body of heaven in his clearness. (Ex. 24:10.)

k. In the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple. (Is. 6:1.) And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle. (Rev. 1:13.)

l. So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man; for at the time of the end shall be the vision. (Dan. 8:17.) And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last. (Rev. 1:17.)

a. See ch. 3:24.

b. We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: for we have sinned against the Lord our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the Lord our God. (Jer. 3:25.)

c. Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness. (Ps. 95:8.) Because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass. (Is. 48:4.) O Lord, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return. (Jer. 5:3.)

d. If, when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people. (Ez. 33:3.)

e. By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. (Heb. 11:27.) But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled. (I Pet. 3:14.)

f. And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said unto them, Hear now, ye rebels; must we fetch you water out of this rock? And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice; and the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also. And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye believed me not, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them. This is the waters of Meribah, because the children of Israel strove with the Lord, and he was sanctified in them (10-13). Aaron shall be gathered unto his people: for he shall not enter into the land which I have given unto the children of Israel, because ye rebelled against my word at the water of Meribah. (Num. 20:10-13, 24.) The Lord God hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back. (Is. 50:5.)

g. And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey. (Rev. 10:9.)

h. Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat the fruit of their doings. (Is. 3:10.) Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of every man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile. (Rom. 2:9.) Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another god: their drink offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips. (Ps. 16:4.) Evil pursueth sinners: but to the righteous good shall be repaid. (Prov. 13:21.)

a. See ch. 2:8, 9.

b. And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey. (Rev. 10:9.)

c. Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee.

7 But the house of Ĭs'ra-el will not hearken unto thee; [d]for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Ĭs'ra-el are impudent [e]and hardhearted.

8 Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 As an adamant [f]harder than flint have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

10 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

11 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord God; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

12 [2]Then the spirit [g]took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the [g]glory of the Lord from his place.

13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great rushing.

14 So the spirit [g]lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the [h]heat of my spirit; but the hand of the Lord was strong upon me.

15 ¶ Then I came to them of the captivity at Tĕl-ā'bib, that dwelt by the river of Chē'bär, and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days.

16 [6]And it came to pass at the end of [7]seven days, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Ĭs'ra-el: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

18 When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the [k]wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man [i]shall die in [8]his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

19 Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

20 Again, When a righteous man doth turn [j]from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a [9]stumblingblock before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

21 Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; also thou hast delivered thy soul.

22 ¶ [10]And the hand of the Lord was there upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with thee.

23 Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and, behold, the glory of the Lord stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river of Chē'bär: and I fell on my face.

24 Then the spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thine house.

25 But thou, O son of man, behold, they shall put bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them:

26 And [k]I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them a reprover: for they are a rebellious house.

27 But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear: [l]for they are a rebellious house.

CHAPTER 4.

Under the type of a siege is shewed the time from the defection of Jeroboam to the captivity.

1 [1]Thou also, son of man, take thee a [2]tile, and lay it before thee, and pourtray upon it the city, even Je-ru'sa-lĕm:

2 And lay siege [3]against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set battering rams against it round about.

3 Moreover take thou unto thee an [4]iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face [5]against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. [a]This shall be a sign to the house of Ĭs'ra-el.

4 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Ĭs'ra-el upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt [6]lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity.

5 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, [7]three hundred and ninety days: [b]so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Ĭs'ra-el.

6 And when thou hast accomplished them,

3. In vs. 12-15, the prophet's extreme bitterness of soul and discomfiture in the presence of his first congregation is detailed, thus displaying the hot, turbulent, passionate nature of the prophet and his absolute unfitness in his own strength for the work before him.

4. Inner compulsions were moving him.

5. The righteous fury against the sins which he was sent to condemn. (Jer. 6:11)—"Therefore I am full of the fury of the Lord; I am weary with holding in; I will pour it out upon the children abroad and upon the assembly of young men together."

6. In vs. 16-21, God again, at the end of seven days, lays his hand upon Ez., and with increased solemnity recommissions him.

7. For seven days Jehovah silently watched the inner struggles of the rebellious prophet, when he again summoned him to his presence.

8. Through his iniquity. Sin is made the instrument of its own punishment.

9. That is, men are given over to judicial blindness and to their own corruption when they do not retain God in their knowledge, so they stumble over their own sins in punishment.

10. In vs. 22-27 is given the account of the glory of Jehovah as revealed in the second vision.

Ch. 4. B. C. 595.

1. Beginning with this ch. and extending to the 24th, is a series of symbols used to explain and make impressive the wickedness and doom of the chosen people and the holy city because of their idolatrous practices.

2. That is, draw the picture of the besieged city on the tile. Many tiles and bricks have been found in Assyria which had been used for the identical purpose that Jehovah commands the prophet in this instance.

3. That is, picture the siege.

4. Iron protections or machines used by the Babylonians and Assyrians behind which the archers stood, shooting through a window.

5. The first instance when Jehovah and his prophet have taken sides with the enemy.

6. "Lying on his side, held down as with cords (v. 8) and unable to turn, he represents Israel pressed down and held in the grasp of the punishment of iniquity." (Davidson.)

7. The Hebrew text gives a hundred-ninety days, which includes the 40 days of v. 6, each day representing a year. If this interpretation is accepted, the destruction of Jerusalem is counted (586 B. C.) to the restoration, which gives an almost exact and lit. fulfillment of the prophecy; the captivity of Israel then being counted 150 years longer than that of Judah, therefore the 190 years of Israel would extend from 734 B. C. to 538 B. C., the year of restoration.

mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. (Mat. 11:21.)

d. Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also. (Jno. 15:20.) And the Lord said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them. (I Sam. 8:7.)

e. Because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass. (Is. 48:4.) Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed. (Jer. 3:3.)

f. For the Lord God will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed. (Is. 50:7.) But truly I am full of power by the Spirit of the Lord, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin. (Mic. 3:8.)

g. And the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the threshold of the house: and he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's inkhorn by his side. (Ez. 9:3.) See v. 23.

h. For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. (Rom. 1:16.)

i. But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand. (Ez. 33:6.)

j. For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. (II Pet. 2:20.)

k. In that day shall thy mouth be opened to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb: and thou shalt be a sign unto them; and they shall know that I am the Lord. (Ez. 24:27.) And, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season. And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple. And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple; for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless. (Luke 1:20-22.)

l. Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house. Therefore, thou son of man, prepare thee stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house. (Ez. 12:2, 3.)

a. In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground; for I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Israel (6). Say, I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them: they shall remove, and go into captivity. (Ez. 12:6, 11.) Thus Ezekiel is unto you a sign: according to all that he hath done shall ye do; and when this cometh, ye shall know that I am the Lord God (24). In that day shall thy mouth be open to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb: and thou shalt be a sign unto them; and they shall know that I am the Lord. (Ez. 24:24, 27.)

b. After the number of the days in which ye searched the land, even forty days, each day for a year, shall ye bear your iniquities, even forty years; and ye shall know my breach of promise. (Num. 14:34.) But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months. (Rev. 11:2.)

lie again on thy [8]right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Jū'dah forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year.

7 Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Je-rū'sa-lĕm, and thine arm shall be [9]uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it.

8 And, [c]behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege.

9 [10]¶ Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and [11]fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, [12]three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

10 And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, [13]twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it.

11 Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of an [14]hin: from time to time shalt thou drink.

12 And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it with [15]dung that cometh out of man, in their sight.

13 And the Lord said, Even thus shall the children of Īs'ra-el eat their defiled bread among the Gĕn'tīles, whither I will drive them.

14 [16]Then said I, Ah Lord God! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I [d]not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there [17]abominable [e]flesh into my mouth.

15 Then [18]he said unto me, Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith.

16 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the [f]staff of bread in Je-rū'sa-lĕm: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall drink water by measure, and with astonishment:

17 That they may want bread and water, and be astonied one with another, and consume [g]away for their iniquity.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Under the type of hair, 5 is shewed the judgment of Jerusalem for their rebellion, 12 by famine, sword, and dispersion.

1 [1]And thou, son of man, take thee a sharp [2]knife, take thee a barber's razor, and cause it to pass upon thine head and upon thy beard: then take thee [3]balances to weigh, and divide the hair.

2 Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled: and thou shalt take a third part, and smite [4]about it with a knife: and a third part thou shalt [5]scatter in the wind; and I will draw out [6]a sword after them.

3 Thou shalt also take thereof a few [6]in number, and bind them in thy skirts.

4 Then take of them again, and [a]cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; for thereof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Īs'ra-el.

5 ¶ [7]Thus saith the Lord God; This is Je-rū'sa-lĕm: I have set it in the midst [8]of the nations and countries that are round about her.

6 And she hath [b]changed my judgments into [9]wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her: for they have [c]refused my [10]judgments and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, neither have done according to the [12]judgments of the nations that are round about you;

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I, even I, am against thee, and will execute judgments in the midst of thee in the sight of the nations.

9 And [d]I will do in thee that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all thine abominations.

10 Therefore the fathers [13]shall [e]eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I [f]will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I [g]scatter into all the winds.

11 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God; Surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary

8. The left side represented the northern kingdom of Israel, the right side Judah, the southern kingdom.

9. The uncovered arm of the prophet represents the arm of Jehovah as made bare and ready for action. (Is. 52:10)—"The Lord hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God."

10. In vs. 9-17, the prophet's food is given, symbolizing the condition of the people in exile.

11. Bread.

12. 190 days, according to the Hebrew text.

13. About one-half the amount of prison fare in the United States.

14. A little more than two pints.

15. Typifying the extreme loathsomeness and uncleanness of the people.

16. Vs. 16, 17 should be read in connection with vs. 10, 11, which they explain.

17. This may be spoiled flesh (Lev. 19:7)—"And if it be eaten on the third day it is abominable; it shall not be accepted:" or unclean meats (Dt. 14:7, 8), "Them that chew the cud or divide the cloven hoof are unclean unto you, and the swine,—ye shall not eat of their flesh nor touch their dead carcass;" or flesh offered to idols (I Cor. 8).

18. Jehovah.

Ch. 5. B. C. 594.

1. In this ch. the complete destruction and scattering of the chosen people are symbolized by the treatment which the prophet is commanded to give his hair.

2. Symbolizing that the people are to be cut off with the sword.

3. Not the least inaccuracy is to be permitted, exact judicial judgment is weighed and executed. (Dt. 16:20) —"That which is altogether just, shalt thou follow."

4. That is, those who escape the famine and pestilence within the gate, will fall by the sword from the outside.

5. Jehovah's sword in the hands of the heathen will overtake them.

6. The remnant who are true to Jehovah and who are carefully preserved.

7. In vs. 5-11 is given the divine interpretation of the prophet's great picture sermon. It is declared that because Jerusalem was the most highly favored of all the cities, yet exceeded all in wickedness, its punishment is to be most severe.

8. Palestine, the center of the world.

9. Have wickedly rebelled against my judicial decrees.

10. Would not obey.

12. That is, they have even fallen below the heathen standard. (Jer. 2:11)—"Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit."

13. Expressing the awfulness of the famine. (Jer. 19:9)—"And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend, in the siege and straitness wherewith their enemies and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them."

c. But thou, O son of man, behold, they shall put bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them. (Ez. 3:25.)

d. And ye shall be holy men unto me: neither shall ye eat any flesh that is torn of beasts in the field; ye shall cast it to the dogs. (Ex. 22:31.) And he that eateth of the carcase of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: he also that beareth the carcase of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even. (Lev. 11:40.)

e. Which remain among the graves, and lodge in the monuments; which eat swine's flesh, and broth of abominable things is in their vessels. (Is. 65:4.)

f. And when I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight: and ye shall eat, and not be satisfied. (Lev. 26:26.) Moreover he called for a famine upon the land: he brake the whole staff of bread. (Ps. 105:16.) For, behold, the Lord, the Lord of hosts, doth take away from Jerusalem and from Judah the stay and the staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water. (Is. 3:1.)

g. And they that are left of you shall pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them. (Lev. 26:39.)

a. So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return but such as shall escape. (Jer. 44:14.)

b. Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen. (Rom. 1:25.) For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. (Jude 4.)

c. But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments; and refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not. (Neh. 9:16, 17.) They kept not the covenant of God, and refused to walk in his law. (Ps. 78:10.) They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers. (Jer. 11:10.)

d. The anger of the Lord hath divided them: he will no more regard them: they respected not the persons of the priests, they favored not the elders. (Lam. 4:16.) And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem. (Dan. 9:12.)

e. And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat. (Lev. 26:29.) And thou shalt eat the fruit of thine own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters, which the Lord thy God hath given thee, in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee. (Dt. 28:53.) So we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the next day, Give thy son, that we may eat him; and she hath hid her son. (II Ks. 6:29.)

f. Before the Lord: for he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity. (Ps. 98:9.) Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment. (Jno. 7:24.) For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. (Ecc. 12:14.) Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend. (I Cor. 8:13.)

g. And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste. (Lev. 26:33.) And the Lord shall scatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone. (Dt. 28:64.)

with all thy detestable [14]things, and with all thine [14]abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee; neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have [15]any pity.

12 ¶ [h]A third [16]part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee: and a third [16]part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and I will scatter [16]a third [16]part into all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them.

13 Thus shall mine [17]anger be accomplished, and I will cause my [18]fury to rest upon them, [i]and I will be [19]comforted: and they shall [20]know that I the Lord have spoken it in my [21]zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them.

14 Moreover I will make [22]thee waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by.

15 So it shall be a reproach and a [22]taunt, an instruction and an [22]astonishment unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall [f]execute judgments in thee in anger and in fury and in [j]furious rebukes. I the Lord have spoken it.

16 When I shall send upon them the evil arrows of famine, which shall be for their destruction, and which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your staff of bread:

17 So will I send upon you famine and evil [23]beasts, and they shall bereave thee; and [k]pestilence and blood shall pass through thee; and I will bring the sword upon thee. I the Lord have spoken it.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The judgment of Israel for their idolatry. 8 A remnant shall be blessed. 11 The faithful are exhorted to lament their calamities.

1 [1]And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face toward the [2]mountains of Is'ra-el, and prophesy against them,

3 And say, Ye mountains of Is'ra-el, hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the [3]Lord God to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys; Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your [4]high places.

4 And your altars shall be desolate, and [5]your [a]images shall be broken: and I will cast down your slain men before your idols.

5 And I will lay the dead carcases of the children of Is'ra-el before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars.

6 In all your dwellingplaces the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be [6]abolished.

14. Objects of their idolatrous worship.

15. Judgment must be executed.

16. The three parts sig. completeness.

17. The divine indignation against sin.

18. Hated displeasure.

19. Sig. that his righteous judgments should work satisfactory vindication.

20. By bitter experiences.

21. The heat of love.

22. These terrible warnings were for the purpose of moving the people to repentance, but when they failed in this, they were sorrowfully fulfilled.

23. The fact of the evil beasts roaming the land shows the utter desolation of the country.

Ch. 6. B. C. 594.

1. In this ch. the captivity and destruction of Israel is continued, the cause being the persistent idolatrous tendencies of the people.

2. Defiled because of the idolatrous worship which had its high places in the mountains.

3. Jehovah.

4. The altars of idolatrous sacrifices which had been placed on elevated places.

5. Images which had been dedicated to Baal.

6. Blotted out.

7. As a result of the terrible chastisements or punishments with which they were to be visited.

8. The remnant few would be saved as through fire to preserve the true faith. (Is. 2:9)—"Except the Lord of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah."

9. From this point backward their whole history had been a series of national apostasies from the true God; from this point forward there has not been a single instance of this.

10. They shall condemn themselves for their own unworthiness.

Ch. 7. B. C. 594.

1. This ch. contains not only the continuation of the subject of Israel's destruction and separation, but also Jehovah's lament over his land and people which have become destroyed through sin. It has been made plain in this ch. that the time for repentance has passed, the end has come, and that Jehovah's righteous anger will be quickly followed with judgment and the people's sins will be the rod of their punishment.

2. Though Jehovah is merciful, persistency in sin will bring a time when he cannot spare the guilty. (Ex. 34:7)—"Keeping loving kindness for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin: and that will by no means clear the guilty."

3. The greatest evil which can befall a man or nation is to have their evil ways turned back upon them. Whenever a people which has sown to the wind begin to reap the whirlwind, then they begin to think that there may be a God.

4. One of the final evils.

7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and ye shall know [7]that I am the Lord.

8 ¶ [b]Yet will I leave [8]a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries.

9 And they that escape of you shall [9]remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a [a]whoring after their idols: and they shall lothe [10]themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.

10 And they shall know that I am the Lord, and that I have not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them.

11 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; Smite with [c]thine hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Is'ra-el! for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.

12 He that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my fury upon them.

13 Then shall ye know that I am the Lord, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, [d]upon every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idols.

14 So will I stretch out my hand upon them, and make the land desolate, yea, more desolate than the wilderness toward Dĭb'lăth, in all their habitations: and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The final desolation of Israel. 16 The mournful repentance of them that escape. 20 The enemies defile the sanctuary because of the Israelites' abominations. 23 Under the type of a chain is shewed their miserable captivity.

1 [1]Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Also, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God unto the land of Is'ra-el; An end, [a]the end is come upon the four corners of the land.

3 Now is the end come upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, and will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense upon thee all thine abominations.

4 And mine eye shall not [2]spare thee, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense [3]thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

5 Thus saith the Lord God; An evil, [b]an [1]only evil, behold, is come.

h. And it come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the Lord; Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity. (Jer. 15:2.)

i. For the Lord shall judge his people, and repent himself for his servants, when he seeth that their power is gone, and there is none shut up, or left. (Dt. 32:36.) Therefore saith the Lord, the Lord of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies. (Is. 1:24.)

j. And I will execute great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes; and they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them. (Ez. 25:17.)

k. And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone. (Ez. 38:22.)

a. And in all things that I have said unto you be circumspect: and make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth. (Ex. 23:13.) Thou shalt have none other gods before me. (Dt. 5:7.) Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry. (I Cor. 10:14.) Ye shall make you no idols nor graven image, neither rear you up a standing image, neither shall ye set up any image of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I am the Lord your God. (Lev. 26:1)

b. Yet a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine or theirs. (Jer. 44:28.)

c. Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite thine hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which enteretb into their privy chambers. (Ez. 21:14.)

d. For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill and under every green tree thou wanderest, playing the harlot. (Jer. 2:20.) They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery. (Hos. 4:13.)

Chapter 7.

a. And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the Lord unto me, The end is come upon my people of Israel; I will not again pass by them any more. (Amos 8:2.) And ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. (Mat. 24:6.)

b. Therefore thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth

6 An end is come, the end is come: it [5]watcheth for thee; behold, it is come.

7 The [6]mourning is come unto thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: [c]the time is come, the day [7]of trouble is near, and not the [8]sounding again of the mountains.

8 Now will I shortly [d]pour out my fury upon thee, and accomplish mine anger upon thee: and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense thee for all thine abominations.

9 And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will recompense thee according to thy ways and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the Lord that smiteth.

10 Behold the day, behold, it is come: the morning is gone forth; the rod hath [9]blossomed, pride hath budded.

11 Violence is risen up into a [10]rod of wickedness: none of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of any of their's: neither shall [e]there be wailing for them.

12 The time is come, the day draweth near: let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn: for wrath is upon all the [11]multitude thereof.

13 For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they were yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, which shall not return; neither shall any strengthen himself [12]in the iniquity of his life.

14 They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready; but [13]none goeth to the battle: for my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

15 [f]The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him.

16 ¶ But they [g]that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one [14]for his iniquity.

17 All hands [h]shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak [15]as water.

18 They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads.

19 They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be removed: their [i]silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the Lord: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels: because it is [j]the [16]stumblingblock of their iniquity.

20 ¶ As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty: but they made the images of their abominations and of their detestable things therein: therefore have I set it far from them.

21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall pollute it.

22 My face will I turn also from them, and they shall pollute my secret place: for the robbers shall enter into it, and defile it.

23 ¶ Make [17]a chain: for the land is full of bloody crimes, and [k]the city is full of violence.

24 Wherefore I will bring the [18]worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be defiled.

25 Destruction cometh; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none.

26 [l]Mischief shall come upon mischief, and rumour shall be upon rumour; [m]then shall they seek a vision of the prophet; but the law [19]shall perish from [n]the priest, and counsel from the ancients.

27 The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do [o]unto them after their way, and according to their deserts will I judge them; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Ezekiel, in a vision at Jerusalem, 5 is shewed the image of jealousy, 7 the chambers of imagery, 15 the worshippers towards the sun. 18 God's wrath for their idolatry.

1 [1]And it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and the elders of Jū'dah sat before me, that the hand of the [2]Lord God fell there upon me.

2 Then [a]I beheld, and lo a likeness as the appearance [3]of fire: from the appearance of his loins even downward, fire; and from his loins even upward, as the appearance of brightness, as the colour of amber.

3 And he put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock [4]of mine head; and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Je-ru'sa-lĕm, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; where [b]was the

6. The doom is come. (R. V.)
7. The day when the shouts of joy cease and the shouts of trouble begin.
8. Echo.
9. From the tree of idolatry and pride which they have planted and nurtured shall be cut the rod of punishment.
10. Their own violence has become the rod with which they are to be scourged.
11. Everybody, including all classes.
12. Whose life is in his iniquity.
13. The prophecy of the collapse of Judah's military preparation. God has deserted them, they are possessed with fear, and flee before the battle. (Dt. 28:25)—"The Lord shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies, thou shalt go out one way against them and flee seven ways before them, and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth."

15. Incapable of resistance, utterly prostrated through fear.
16. Those ways and things which they have heretofore depended upon in their sins will now be a stumbling block to them.
17. The land is full of sin and crime, let the captive chain be forged.
18. The Chaldeans. (Jer. 6:23)—"They shall lay hold on bow and sphere; they are cruel and have no mercy; their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses set in array as men of war against thee, O daughter of Zion!"
19. Instruction shall perish; calamity upon calamity shall fall upon the people, until they will at last be driven to seek a vision from Jehovah's prophet, and when the vision fails to come, they shall seek the priest and elders, but all alike are powerless to help, the day of repentance is past. (Mic. 3:6)—"Therefore night shall be unto you that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets and the day shall be dark over them."

Ch. 8. B. C. 594.

1. A little over a year has passed since Ez.'s first vision and call to the prophetic office, and now he receives his third vision of the glory of Jehovah. He has completed his 190 days of lying upon his side before the city, which was the greatest task of his life. He is now at his home and a third vision appears unto him.
2. Ez.'s ordinary method of saying, a great task has been laid upon me.
3. The context would indicate that an error had been made here and this should read "appearance of a man"; which would be a very easy mistake made, as the Hebrew words for fire and man are so nearly alike that they can hardly be distinguished.
4. In the vision Ez. not only sees God, but feels him.

of it, both his ears shall tingle. And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab; and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down. (II Ks. 21:12, 13.) What do ye imagine against the Lord? he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time. (Nah. 1:9.)

c. The great day of the Lord is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the Lord: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly. (Zeph. 1:14.)

d. But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. (Ez. 20:8.)

e. For thus saith the Lord, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the Lord, even loving-kindness and mercies. (Jer. 16:5.)

f. The sword without, and terror within, shall destroy both the young man and the virgin, the suckling also with the man of grey hairs. (Dt. 32:25.) Behold, O Lord, for I am in distress; my bowels are troubled; mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled; abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death. (Lam. 1:20.)

g. Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries. (Ez. 6:8.)

h. In that day shall he swear, saying, I will not be an healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people. (Is. 3:7.) We have heard the fame thereof: our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and pain, as of a woman in travail. (Jer. 6:24.)

i. Riches profit not in the day of wrath: but righteousness delivereth from death. (Prov. 11:4.) Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the Lord's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land. (Zeph. 1:18.)

j. Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord God, and they shall bear their iniquity. (Ez. 44:12.)

k. Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; besides his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the Lord. (II Ks. 21:16.)

l. I will heap mischiefs upon them; I will spend mine arrows upon them. (Dt. 32:23.) Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment. (Jer. 4:20.)

m. Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars: her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more; her prophets also find no vision from the Lord. (Lam. 2:9.)

n. For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the Lord of hosts. But ye are departed out of the way; ye have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the Lord of hosts. Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been partial in the law. (Mal. 2:7-9.)

o. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. (Ecc. 12:14.) And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. (Rev. 22:12.) Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend. (I Cor. 8:13.) From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool. (Heb. 10:13.)

a. And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it. (Ez. 1:26.)

b. For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the seat of the image [5]of jealousy, which [c]provoketh to jealousy.

4 And, behold, the glory of the God of Īs'ra-el was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain.

5 ¶ [6]Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry.

6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the [d]great [7]abominations that the house of Īs'ra-el committeth here, that I should go far off [8]from my sanctuary? but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

7 ¶ And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold a hole [9]in the wall.

8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, [10]dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.

10 So I went in and saw; and behold every form [11]of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Īs'ra-el, pourtrayed upon the wall round about.

11 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Īs'ra-el, and in the midst of them stood Ja-ăz-a-nī'ah the son of Shā'phan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up.

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Īs'ra-el do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The Lord seeth us not; the Lord hath forsaken the earth.

13 ¶ He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the Lord's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tăm'mŭz.

15 ¶ Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see [12]greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the Lord's house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the Lord, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the Lord, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped [e]the sun toward the east.

17 ¶ Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Jū'dah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

18 Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye [13]shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and though they [f]cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

CHAPTER 9.

1 A vision, whereby is shewed the preservation of some, 5 and destruction of the rest.

1 He [1]cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand.

2 And, behold, six [2]men came from the way of the higher gate, which lieth toward the north, and every man a slaughter weapon in his hand; [g]and one man [3]among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side: and they went in, and stood beside the [4]brasen altar.

3 And the glory of the God of Īs'ra-el was gone up from the [5]cherub, whereupon he was, to the threshold of the house. And he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's inkhorn by his side;

4 And the Lord said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Je-rū'sa-lĕm, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men [h]that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.

5 ¶ And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity:

6 Slay [c]utterly old and young, both maids and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my [6]sanctuary. Then they began at the [7]ancient men which were before the house.

7 And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

8 ¶ And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, Ah Lord God! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Īs'ra-el in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Je-rū'sa-lĕm?

9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Īs'ra-el and Jū'dah is exceeding great, and the land is [d]full of blood, and the city full of perverseness: for they say, The Lord hath forsaken the earth, and the Lord seeth not.

10 And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will [e]recompense their way upon their head.

11 And, behold, the man clothed with linen, which had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have done [8]as thou hast commanded me.

5. Supposed to be the idol Ashtaroth, which had been set up in the temple and which had been drawing the people away from the worship of Jehovah.

6. In vs. 5-18, the wickedness of the city and Jehovah's sentence upon it appear unto Ez. in a vision.

7. Idol-worship.

8. That is, these abominations had driven Jehovah from the temple.

10. At the palace of a secret entrance which had been closed.

11. Worshiped in Egypt and still found engraved in the walls.

12. That is, greater in respect to place and the persons committing it; for in the inner court immediately before the door of the temple, 25 men, representing the whole priesthood, stood with their backs to the temple, making obeisance to the sun.

13. Retributive justice will surely come upon them.

Ch. 9. B. C. 594.

1. In this ch. Jehovah follows the vision of impiety, given in ch. 8, with a vision of punishment to be visited upon all who have not the "saving sign" upon their foreheads.

2. Symbolical of the divine executioners, six being the usual sign of the world and Satanic acts, as some say, representing worldly heathen forces which have been overruled, and, in their madness, have executed the judgments of heaven.

3. This seventh man is Jehovah's scribe, who knows the names of all his people. He is to be the priest-mediator between God's justice and human sin, and the number seven now sig. that the number is complete and that the work is divine. White linen garments are the symbol of purity. The divine scribe and chief of the others was thus clothed.

4. Where they paused for further orders.

5. The bearer of Jehovah's throne.

6. Consecrated ones; the heaviest and first judgments to fall upon those who have had the greatest privileges and yet sinned.

7. The elders.

8. That is, the leader or chief of the six, he has put the divinely appointed mark upon those true to God, and the others have been slain.

Lord: they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to pollute it. (Jer. 7:30.)

c. They provoked him to jealousy with strange gods, with abominations provoked they him to anger. (Dt. 32:16.)

d. And the Lord said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers; and this people will rise up, and go a whoring after the gods of the strangers of the land whither they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them. (Dt. 31:16.)

e. And lest thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, shouldest be driven to worship them, and serve them, which the Lord thy God hath divided unto all nations under the whole heaven. (Dt. 4:19.) If I beheld the sun when it shined, or the moon walking in brightness. (Job 31:26.) But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil. (Jer. 44:17.)

f. Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me. (Prov. 1:28.) Therefore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them. (Jer. 11:11.)

a. He shall put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these are holy garments; therefore shall he wash his flesh in water, and so put them on. (Lev. 16:4.) And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles. (Rev. 15:6.)

b. Horror hath taken hold upon me because of the wicked that forsake thy law. (Ps. 119:53.) (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds.) (II Pet. 2:8.)

c. And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads. (Rev. 9:4.) For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the city which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the Lord of hosts. (Jer. 25:29.) For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God? (I Pet. 4:17.)

d. Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; besides his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the Lord. (II Ks. 21:16.)

e. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. (Ecc. 12:14.) And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. (Rev. 22:12.) Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend. (I Cor. 8:13.) For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people. (Heb. 10:30.)

CHAPTER 10.

1 The vision of the coals of fire, to be scattered over the city. 8 The vision of the cherubim.

1 Then I [1]looked, and, behold, in the firmament that was [a]above the head of the cherubim there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.

2 And he spake unto the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill thine hand with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter [2]them over the city. And he went in in my sight.

3 Now the cherubim stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the [3]cloud filled the inner court.

4 [b]Then the glory of the Lord went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the Lord's glory.

5 And the sound of the [c]cherubim's wings was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh.

6 And it came to pass, that when he had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take [4]fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubim; then he went in, and stood beside the wheels.

7 And one cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubim unto the fire that was between the cherubim, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen: who took it, and went out.

8 ¶ And there appeared in the cherubim the form of a man's hand under their wings.

9 And when I looked, behold the four wheels by the cherubim, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a beryl stone.

10 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel.

12 And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full [d]of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had.

13 As for the wheels, it was cried unto them in my hearing, O wheel.

14 And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 And the cherubim were lifted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river of Chē'bär.

16 And when the cherubim went, the wheels went by them: and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them.

17 When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these lifted up themselves also: for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

18 Then [f]the glory of the Lord departed from off the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubim.

19 And [e]the [5]cherubim lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also were beside them, and every one stood at the door of the east gate of the Lord's house; and the glory of the God of Īs'ra-el was over them above.

20 [6]This is the living creature that I saw

Ch. 10. B. C. 594.

1. In ch. 10 is given the fourth vision of Jehovah, which is very similar to the one in ch. 1. The great emphasis the prophet places upon this vision in the minutae of description indicates that he understood it to contain some revelation. In fact, it is really the key to the entire prophecy, expressing the human in the attributes of Jehovah in contrast to the beastly conception of the heathen's god, and that the entire world and its government are irrevocably overshadowed and governed by Jehovah, the Divine King.

2. Symbolical of judgment to come, which Josephus says was fulfilled by Nebuzaradan. "In the fifth month and first day of the month, in the eleventh year of the reign of Zedekiah, he robbed the temple, set fire to it, also burnt the palace and overthrew the city."

3. Jehovah has always appeared to man in a cloud. To Moses "the glory of the Lord appeared in a cloud." On the Mount of Transfiguration, "a cloud overshadowed them."

4. Fire is symbolical of God's purity, therefore the destructive agency is really the destructive holiness of Jehovah. Orelli says, "What really destroys the town is the destructive holiness of Jehovah."

5. To depart, following the glory of the Lord, who had now returned to his chariot and moves out of the temple.

6. If we try to dissect this vision we are in great danger of taking all the life out of it. It must not be forgotten that the cloud and the lightning, the wheels and cherubim, were only "the pictorial clothing of the supreme truth that in his vision Ezekiel's soul met the infinite and eternal face to face and heard the secret of Jehovah's counsel from his own mouth (W. Robinson Smith); yet, we may be able to catch, if only in dim outline, the meaning of each part of this complex picture. Not until Ez. had several times seen this vision did he realize that the "living creatures" who were the glory bearers of Jehovah were the cherubim. They were so unlike the cherubim of the temple with which he was acquainted that he never realized their essential identity until he saw the vision in the temple itself, and perceived that these living creatures took the place above the mercy seat which the carved cherubim formerly occupied, just as the flying wheels and the throne took the place always sacred to the unseen glory (the Shekinah). It is surprising that expositors, notwithstanding the marked difference between Ez.'s cherubim and those of the tabernacle and temple, have yet attempted to make them as nearly identical in form as possible. Even M. Pinches supposes there must have been "a peculiar cherubic form" which Ez. recognized in the living creatures, "though kept secret from others," and even yet an "unfathomable mystery" (Smith's Dict. of the Bible, 1803). But whatever Ezekiel's words imply here, they could not declare exact similarity of form (Ex. 25:20; I Ks. 8:7). Indeed, the chief object in repeating the vision must have been to bring out the new truth revealed by this new view of these strange symbolic creatures as cherubim. Muller's idea (Ez. studien, 1895) that Ez. substituted the cherubim in this vision for "living creatures" and made certain other changes because of the criticism of those to whom he had told the first vision, is as deficient in a just appreciation of the prophet's character as in spiritual discernment. V. 22 is in itself sufficient refutation of this hypothesis. Every Hebrew would have been surprised at the identification by a priest, such as Ez., of these animal forms with the temple cherubim, and would begin to search at once for the points of comparison and contrast, and for spiritual lessons hidden therein. On the other hand, it is equally clear that these "living creatures" of Ez. were no copies of the so-called "winged bulls" of Assyria. Those stone guardians of the temple, with their single human face and long beard and miter ornamented with horns, were strikingly different from these fiery four-faced "living ones" covered with eyes. It has recently been doubted whether the name Kerubi is ever used for these "guardians of the palace" (Davis, Gen. & Semetic Tradition). But if, indeed, those complex animal forms bore the same name as these living creatures of Ez., this would only more quickly lead everyone who listened on the banks of the old Babylonian canal to the recital of this strange vision, to compare and contrast these very different forms in order to learn the lessons, which thus might be taught of providence and deity. What these spiritual lessons were we may be able now only to grasp very partially. One may well regret that the author of the Epistle to the Hebrews, when he spoke of the "cherubim of glory," was forced to add, "of which we cannot now speak particularly" (Heb. 9:3-5). How much controversy and confusion of tongues it would have saved if he had given just then one of the parentheses of which he was so fond! The similarity between the Babylonian and all forms of the Hebrew cherubim is evident. All of these "mighty ones" were symbolical forms manifesting the invisible. They were divine watchers and guardians, mediators between God and man, representatives of the divine will, protectors of the divine law, and upholders of the divine throne. How different from the Hebrew cherubim! They were wholly dominated by the One. There was no caprice or personal feeling possible. In Eden, in the tabernacle, in the temple, on the Chebar, everywhere and always, Jehovah dwells "between the cherubim" and his will and his spirit moves them. But while the Bible cherubim agree in this and thus differ vitally from the Babylonian, there is a vast growth to be traced in the Hebrew conception represented by these symbolic forms. The cherubim in Eden are guardians of the tree of life, and their revolving sword or "disk of fire" (Lenormant) is especially emphasized. They were pre-eminently representatives of the divine justice and power. The cherubim of the tabernacle and the temple have no sword. They watch over the mercy seat and the written law, and point the way with beckoning wings to the new Eden—the gates of which are now open—and to the tree of life, of which, through God's mercy, even the sinful man can now eat. All the cherubic heraldry wrought into the tapestry of the tabernacle and adorning the walls of the temple was a heraldry of grace. But Ez.'s vision shows a great advance upon any previous revelation. Before this the cherubim were seen only in the temple. They were guardians of the covenant of grace which God had made with the Israelites. Only Israelites could enter the temple. It was only the sins of the Jewish nation which the high priest confessed, and for which he received pardon as he knelt close to the mercy seat, shadowed by the glorious wings of the cherubim. Where the cherubim are, God's holy place must be; but Ez. sees the cherubim outside the temple and outside the limits by which heretofore he and his nation had always bounded the "holy city" and the "holy land." God's holy place and the holy guardians of his law and covenant are not confined any more within the walls of Jerusalem. The throne which the Jews always thought of as above the cherubim in the temple is now seen on the Chebar. Jehovah now "fills the whole earth with his glory," and all nature "with the flowing edge of his robe" (Jer. 7:4), and the symbolic cherubim are no longer of the exclusive Jewish type. They have taken on a manifold form. They are neither Jewish, Egyptian nor Babylonian. They combine all elements. The single faced cherub of the Jerusalem temple has become the four-sided, four-winged, four-faced cherub of God's universal sanctuary. It looks toward every point of the compass, toward every nation of men. The images of gold in the local holy of holies have given way to living beings full of spiritual fires. The cloud of incense hiding the unseen Presence has given place to "the likeness of a man upon the throne." The Palestinian and Jewish conception of God and his providence has gone down before the new and lofty thought that the one God belongs to the whole earth and the whole earth to him, and that all forms of life, even the gods and genii of the heathen and the guardians of death, are but manifestations or servants of the One supreme. Never have the omnipotence, the omnipresence,

a. And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the color of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above. (Ez. 1:22.) And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne in sight like unto an emerald. (Rev. 4:3.)

b. As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the Lord. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake. (Ez. 1:28.) And Moses was not able to enter into the tent of the congregation, because the cloud abode thereon, and the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle. (Ex. 40:35.)

c. And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of great waters, as the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings. (Ez. 1:24.)

d. And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come. (Rev. 4:8.)

e. Then did the cherubim lift up their wings, and the wheels beside under the God of Īs'ra-el by the river of Chē'bär; and I knew that they were the cherubim.

21 [f]Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

22 And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chē'bär, their appearances and themselves: [g]they went every one straight forward.

CHAPTER 11.

1 The presumption of the princes. 13 Ezekiel complaining, God sheweth him his purpose in saving a remnant.

1 [1]Moreover the spirit lifted me up, and brought me unto the east gate of the Lord's house, which looketh eastward: and behold at the door of the gate five and twenty men; among whom I saw Ja-ăz-a-nī'ah the son of Ā'zŭr, and Pĕl-a-tī'ah the son of Be-nā'iah, princes of the people.

2 Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men that devise mischief, and give wicked counsel in this city:

3 Which say, It is not near; let us build houses: this city is the [2]caldron, and we be the flesh.

4 ¶ Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man.

5 And the Spirit of the Lord fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak; Thus saith the Lord; Thus have ye said, O house of Īs'ra-el: for [a]I [3]know the things that come into your mind, every one of them.

6 Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; [b]Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the [4]caldron: but I will bring you forth out of the midst of it.

8 Ye have [c]feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord God.

9 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you.

10 Ye shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Īs'ra-el; [d]and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

11 This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; but I will judge you in the border of Īs'ra-el:

12 And ye shall know that I am the Lord: for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but have [e]done after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.

13 ¶ And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that Pĕl-a-tī'ah the son of Be-nā'iah died. Then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord God! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Īs'ra-el?

14 Again the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Īs'ra-el wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Je-ru'sa-lĕm have said, Get you far from the Lord: unto us is this land given in possession.

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God; Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as a little [5]sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God; [f]I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Īs'ra-el.

18 And they shall come thither, and [g]they shall take away all the detestable things thereof and all the abominations thereof from thence.

19 And I will give them one heart, and I will put [h]a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh:

20 That they may walk in my statutes, and [i]keep mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

21 But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will [j]recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord God.

Christ; the man representing his incarnation; the lion, the emblem of Judah, his eternal kingship; the ox, his atoning sacrifice; the eagle, his heavenly spirit and essential divinity. So also many of the earliest fathers believed that these "living creatures" prefigured the four evangelists: St. Matthew having written the gospel of his humanity; St. Mark, the eagle gospel; St. Luke, the priestly or sacrificial narrative; and St. John, the royal gospel, showing his glorious generation from the Father—though later writers almost universally assign the eagle to St. John, and the lion to St. Mark. (Cobern.)

1. In vs. 1-21 is recorded the wicked advice of the political leaders.

2. Jer. had compared the city to a seething pot, which means caldron in Heb. (Jer. 1:13)—"And the word of the Lord came unto me the second time saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a seething pot, and the face thereof is toward the north." This is the sneering answer of the war party to the prophet's prediction. If they were to be in a caldron, they would strengthen the iron walls of the kettle and remain in rather than jump into the Babylonian fires.

3. Their secret plottings and plans are well known to Jehovah and his prophets.

4. The city shall be a caldron to them but not to you; ye shall meet your doom on the frontier.

5. The thought is here expressed that it is the presence of Jehovah that makes the sanctuary and not the sanctuary that secures the presence of Jehovah; therefore, Jehovah being with them in the country where they go, there they will have a sanctuary also.

them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. (Ez. 11:22.)

f. And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings (6). And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings. (Ez. 1:6, 8.)

g. Bless the Lord, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word. (Ps. 103:20.)

Chapter 11.

a. But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men. (Jno. 2:24.) And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works. (Rev. 2:23.)

b. And I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel: Is it not for you to know judgment? Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones. (Mic. 3:1, 2.)

c. The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him; but the desire of the righteous shall be granted. (Prov. 10:24.)

d. The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah. (Ps. 9:16.)

e. After the doings of the land of Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, shall ye not do: and after the doings of the land of Canaan, whither I bring you, shall ye not do: neither shall ye walk in their ordinances. (Lev. 18:3.) Take heed to thyself that thou be not snared by following them, after that they be destroyed from before thee; and that thou enquire not after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? even so will I do likewise. (Dt. 12:30.)

f. Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good. (Jer. 24:5.)

g. Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their dwelling places, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God. (Ez. 37:23.)

h. Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. (Ps. 51:10.) But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people. (Jer. 31:33.)

i. Therefore shall ye keep my commandments, and do them: I am the Lord. (Lev. 22:31.) My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments. (Prov. 3:1.) Thou shalt keep therefore his statutes, and his commandments, which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, for ever. (Dt. 4:40.) But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day, that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee. (Dt. 28:15.) That thou mightest fear the Lord thy God, to keep all his statutes, and his commandments, which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of thy life; and that thy days may be prolonged. (Dt. 6:2.)

j. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. (Ecc. 12:14.) And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man 22 ¶ [c]Then did the cherubim lift up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Ĭs'ra-el was over them above.

23 And the glory of the Lord went up from the midst of the city, and stood [k]upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city.

24 ¶ [7]Afterwards the spirit took me up, and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chăl-dē'ȧ, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me.

25 Then I [l]spake unto them of the captivity all the things that the Lord had shewed me.

CHAPTER 12.

1 The type of Ezekiel's removing. 8 It shewed the captivity of Zedekiah. 17 Ezekiel's trembling sheweth the Jews' desolation.

1 [1]The word of the Lord also came unto me, saying,

3 Therefore, thou son of man, prepare thee stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house.

4 Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing: and thou shalt go forth at even in their sight, as they that go forth into captivity.

5 Dig thou through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby.

6 In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground: [a]for I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Ĭs'ra-el.

7 And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the even I digged through the wall with mine hand; I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight.

8 ¶ [3]And in the morning came the word of the Lord unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, hath not the house of Ĭs'ra-el, the rebellious house, said unto thee, What [b]doest thou?

10 Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; This [c]burden concerneth the prince in Je-rū'sa-lĕm, and all the house of Ĭs'ra-el that are among them.

11 Say, I am [a]your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them: they shall remove and go into captivity.

12 And the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes.

13 My net [4]also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and I will bring him to Băb'ў-lon to the land of the Chăl-dē'ans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there.

14 And I will scatter toward every wind all that are about him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them.

15 [d]And they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries.

16 But I will leave [e]a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

17 ¶ Moreover the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

18 Son of man, eat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and with carefulness;

19 And say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord God of the inhabitants of Je-rū'sa-lĕm, and of the land of Ĭs'ra-el; They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may be desolate from all that is therein, because of the violence of all them that dwell therein.

20 And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

21 ¶ And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

22 Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Ĭs'ra-el, saying, [f]The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth?

23 Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord God; I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Ĭs'ra-el; but say unto them, [g]The days are at hand, and the effect of every vision.

24 For there shall be no more any vain vision nor flattering divination within the house of Ĭs'ra-el.

25 For I am the Lord: I will speak, and [h]the word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord God.

26 ¶ Again the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

27 Son of man, behold, they of the house of Ĭs'ra-el say, The vision that he seeth is for many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are far off.

28 Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; There [i]shall none of my words be prolonged any more, but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord God.

6. Vs. 22, 23, Jehovah leaves Jerusalem.

7. Vs. 24, 25, Ez. awakens from his vision and gives a description of it to his fellow captives.

Ch. 12. B. C. 594.

1. Beginning with this ch. and continuing through to the 20th, is shown the necessity of Israel's destruction. She has been threatened many times for her disobedience and her punishment has been postponed, but she has passed the day of repentance, and destruction is the only course left for Jehovah to pursue.

2. They have become so steeped in sin that their conscience has become seared and their moral perception deadened until having eyes they see not. (Is. 6:9)—"And he said, Go and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not."

3. In vs. 8-12, the exiles' interest has become aroused and Ezekiel is permitted to explain his acted parable.

4. They might outwit their earthly enemy, but will be caught in Jehovah's net. (Hos. 7:12)—"When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them as their congregation hath heard."

according as his work shall be. (Rev. 22:12.) For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people. (Heb. 10:30.)

k. And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south. (Zech. 14:4.)

l. And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shown you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house. (Acts 20:20.)

a. Thus Ezekiel is unto you a sign: according to all that he hath done shall ye do; and when this cometh, ye shall know that I am the Lord God. (Ez. 24:24.) Behold, I and the children whom the Lord hath given me, are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the Lord of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion. (Is. 8:18.) And the Lord said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Ethiopia. (Is. 20:3.)

b. And the people said unto me, Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so? (Ez. 24:19.) Then said I, Ah Lord God! they say of me, Doth he not speak parables? (Ez. 20:49.)

c. And Elijah said unto Elisha, Tarry here, I pray thee; for the Lord hath sent me to Bethel. And Elisha said unto him, As the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they went down to Bethel (2). And he went from thence to mount Carmel: and from thence he returned to Samaria (25). And Elijah said unto him, Elisha, tarry here, I pray thee; for the Lord hath sent me to Jericho. And he said, As the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they came to Jericho. (II Ks. 2:2, 25, 4.) Then said Jehu to Bidkar his captain, Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the Lord laid this burden upon him. (II Ks. 9:25.) The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see. (Is. 13:1.)

d. Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him. (Prov. 9:16.) And the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I stretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them. (Ex. 7:5.)

e. For thus hath the Lord said, The whole land shall be desolate; yet will I not make a full end. (Jer. 4:27.)

f. And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation. (II Pet. 3:4.)

g. Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the Lord cometh, for it is nigh at hand. (Joel 2:1.) The great day of the Lord is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the Lord: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly. (Zeph. 1:14.)

h. So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. (Is. 55:11.)

i. The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the

CHAPTER 13.

1 The reproof of lying prophets, 10 and their untempered mortar. 17 Of prophetesses and their pillows.

1 [1]And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of [2]Is'ra-el that prophesy, and say thou unto them that prophesy out of their [a]own [3]hearts, Hear ye the word of the Lord:

3 Thus saith the Lord God; Woe unto the foolish [4]prophets, that follow their own [5]spirit, and have seen [6]nothing!

4 O Is'ra-el, thy prophets are [b]like the [7]foxes in the deserts.

5 Ye have not gone [c]up into the gaps, neither made up [8]the hedge for the house of Is'ra-el to stand in the battle in the day of the Lord.

6 They have seen [9]vanity and lying divination, saying, The Lord saith: and the Lord hath not sent them: and they have made [d]others to hope that they would confirm the word.

7 Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The Lord saith it; albeit I have not spoken?

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye have spoken [10]vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against [11]you, saith the Lord God.

9 And mine [12]hand [e]shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the assembly of my people, neither [f]shall they be written in the writing of the house of Is'ra-el, [g]neither shall they enter into the land of Is'ra-el; and ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

10 ¶ Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, Peace; and there was no peace; and one built up a wall, and, lo, others [13]daubed it with untempered mortar:

11 Say unto them which [13]daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: [h]there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it.

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have [14]daubed it?

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones in my fury to consume it.

Ch. 13. B C. 594.

1. In ch. 13, Ez. rebukes the false prophets who have inspired the people with delusive hopes. He explains the difference between the true and false prophets of Jehovah, viz., (1) they differ in their motives; (2) in the spirit controlling them (see v. 7); (3) in the ultimate fulfillment of their prophecies, which are always at variance with historic facts (see vs. 8, 10, 16).

2. Indeed prophets of Israel, but not prophets of Jehovah.

3. That is, their desire was to please the people rather than tell the truth.

4. "Fool" in scriptural language means impious. (Jer. 23:14)—"I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery and walk in lies; they strengthen also the hands of evil-doers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah."

5. That is, the spirit which controls them is from within their own hearts and not from above.

6. No heavenly vision.

7. That is, they will not assist you to build in strength, but will undermine your strength as foxes undermine walls.

8. They cannot build enduringly before Jehovah.

9. Nothingness, falsehood. Yet they have deceived the people into believing that their false lies will become true.

10. Falsehood, lies.

11. To punish your wicked profanation of my name.

12. Upon the disobedient the hand of Jehovah shall fall heavily.

13. The false prophets, with whited plaster.

14. The false prophets simply veneered the structure instead of covering it with uniting cement or plaster.

15. Though the Chaldeans wrought the destruction, they were executing Jehovah's judgments.

16. The lying prophets are the false teachers. Their sin is greater than that of the people, as some of the people escaped, but the false prophets were all alike destroyed (v. 14).

17. To quiet the fears and calm the conscience of the wicked is an awful thing in the sight of Jehovah.

18. Who sew bandages upon the joints.

Ch. 14. B. C. 594.

1. In vs. 1-5, the idolatrous elders vainly inquire of God concerning the future.

14 So will I break down [15]the wall that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

15 Thus will I accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar, and will say unto you, The wall is no more, neither [16]they that daubed it;

16 To wit, the prophets of Is'ra-el which prophesy concerning Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and which see visions of peace to her, and there is no [17]peace, saith the Lord God.

17 ¶ Likewise, thou son of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, which prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them,

18 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; Woe to the women that sew pillows to all [18]armholes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature to hunt souls! Will ye hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you?

19 And will ye pollute me among my people [i]for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hear your lies?

20 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly.

21 Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

22 Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and [j]strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life:

23 Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER 14.

1 God answereth idolaters. 12 His irrevocable sentence of famine, 17 of the sword, 19 and of pestilence.

1 [1]Then came certain of the elders of Is'ra-el unto me, and sat before me.

Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate; and thy city shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant. (Jer. 4:7.) Behold, a whirlwind of the Lord is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked. The anger of the Lord shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly. (Jer. 23:19, 20.)

a. Then the Lord said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart. (Jer. 14:14.)

b. Her prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law. (Zeph. 3:4.)

c. Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them (23). Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed. (Ps. 106:23, 30.) And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none. (Ez. 22:30.)

d. The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going. (Prov. 14:15.) And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie. (II Thess. 2:11.)

e. And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The Lord hath not called thy name Pashur, but Magor-missabib. For thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will make thee a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends: and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold it: and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword. Moreover I will deliver all the strength of this city, and all the labors thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon. And thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thine house, shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast prophesied lies. (Jer. 20:3-6.) Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah; The Lord hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie. Therefore thus saith the Lord; Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion against the Lord. (Jer. 28:15, 16.)

f. And my God put into mine heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy: and I found a register of the genealogy of them which come up at the first, and found written therein. (Neh. 7:5.) Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, and not be written with the righteous. (Ps. 69:28.)

g. And I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and ye shall know that I am the Lord. (Ez. 20:38.)

h. And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone. (Ez. 38:22.)

i. To have respect of persons is not good; for, for a piece of bread that man will transgress. (Prov. 28:21.)

j. I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies; they strengthen also the hands of evil-doers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah. (Jer. 23:14.) But ye turned, and polluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids. (Jer. 34:16.)

2 And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put [a]the [2]stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face: [b]should I be enquired of at all by them?

4 Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Every man of the house of Īs'ra-el that [c]setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the [2]stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet: I the Lord will answer him that cometh according [d]to the [3]multitude of his idols;

5 That I may take the house of Īs'ra-el in their [e]own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.

6 ¶ [4]Therefore say unto the house of Īs'ra-el, Thus saith the Lord God; [f]Repent, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations.

7 For every one of the house of Īs'ra-el, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Īs'ra-el, which [g]separateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the [a]stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a prophet to enquire of him concerning me; I the Lord [5]will answer him by myself:

8 And [h]I will set my face against that man, and will make him a [6]sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

9 And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, I the Lord [i]have deceived [7]that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Īs'ra-el.

10 And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him;

11 That the house of Īs'ra-el may go no more [8]astray from me, neither be polluted any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord God.

12 ¶ [9]The word of the Lord came again to me, saying,

13 Son of man, when the land sinneth against me by trespassing [10]grievously, then will I stretch out mine hand upon it, and will break the [j]staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it:

14 [11]Though these [k]three men, Nō'ah, Dăn'iel, and Jōb, were in [12]it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord [13]God.

15 ¶ If I cause [l]noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they [14]spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts:

16 Though these three [11]men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver [15]neither sons nor daughters; they only shall be [15]delivered, but the land shall be desolate.

17 ¶ Or if [m]I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I [n]cut off man and beast from it:

18 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered themselves.

19 ¶ Or if I send [o]a pestilence into that land, and pour out my fury upon it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast:

20 Though Nō'ah, Dăn'iel, and Jōb, were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall but

2. Israel was stumbling over idolatry, falling into sin.

3. Jehovah's punishment will be proportionate to their transgressions.

4. In vs. 6-11 is given the law of Jehovah which controls even false prophets.

5. Jehovah has been speaking to them through the prophet; if they do not repent he will answer them in person.

6. The punishment of this unrepentent idolator shall be a sign before the world. (Num. 26:10)—"And the earth opened her mouth and swallowed them up together with Korah, when that company died, what time the fire devoured 250 men: and they became a sign."

7. The false prophet delivered a lie to the people; he who follows falsehood will lose the power to know the truth. Jehovah's laws are so framed that man's sins and abominations are the rod by which he is chastised. (Ez. 7:3)—"Now is the end come upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee and will judge thee according to thy ways and will recompense upon thee all thine abominations."

8. That is, these punishments which are assumed to fall upon the people are reformatory, that the people may no more go astray.

9. In vs. 12-21 is given the divine law governing the certainty of punishment which shall fall upon evildoing.

10. Unfaithfulness.

11. The three most righteous men, if present, could not save this idolatrous land.

12. The land occupied by the wicked apostate people of Jehovah (Holy Land).

13. Jehovah, God.

14. Bereave.

15. Because of the extreme wickedness of the people and the many opportunities which Jehovah has given them, the day of deliverance is past and punishment cannot be averted.

Chapter 14.

a. They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be removed: their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the Lord: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels: because it is the stumblingblock of their iniquity. (Ez. 7:19.) I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the stumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the Lord. (Zeph. 1:3.)

b. And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, What have I to do with thee? get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, Nay: for the Lord hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab. (II Ks. 3:13.) The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord: but the prayer of the upright is his delight. (Prov. 15:8.) And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you; yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood. (Is. 1:15.) Therefore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them. (Jer. 11:11.)

c. And she bare him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah. (Gen. 25:2.) Thou shalt have none other gods before me. (Dt. 5:7.) Now therefore fear the Lord, and serve him in sincerity and in truth: and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve ye the Lord. (Josh. 24:14.) Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen. (I Jno. 5:21.)

d. And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee: because thou hast sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the Lord. Behold, I will bring evil upon thee, and will take away thy posterity, and will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Israel, And will make thine house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the provocation wherewith thou hast provoked me to anger, and made Israel to sin. And of Jezebel also spake the Lord, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel. Him that dieth of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat. (I Ks. 21:20-24.)

e. Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. But exhort one another daily, while it is called Today; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end; While it is said, Today if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation. For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses. But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness? And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not? So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief. (Heb. 3:12-19.)

f. Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God. Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. (Ez. 18:30.) And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do return unto the Lord with all your hearts, then put away the strange gods and Ashtaroth from among you, and prepare your hearts unto the Lord, and serve him only; and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines. (I Sam. 7:3.) But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them, though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there. (Neh. 1:9.) In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats. (Is. 2:20.) Ye shall defile also the covering of thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt cast them away as a menstruous cloth; thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence. (Is. 30:22.)

g. And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. (Joel 2:13.) No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. (Mat. 6:24.)

h. And I will set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people; because he hath given of his seed unto Molech, to defile my sanctuary, and to profane my holy name. (Lev. 20:3.)

i. Now therefore, behold, the Lord hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the Lord hath spoken evil concerning thee. (I Ks. 22:23.) With him is strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceiver are his. (Job 12:16.) And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie. (II Thess. 2:11.)

j. And when I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight: and ye shall eat, and not be satisfied. (Lev. 26:26.) For, behold, the Lord, the Lord of hosts, doth take away from Jerusalem and from Judah the stay and the staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water. (Is. 3:1.)

k. Then said the Lord unto me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth. (Jer. 15:1.)

l. And the Lord sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and much people of Israel died. (Num. 21:6.) I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number; and your highways shall be desolate. (Lev. 26:22.)

m. And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the quarrel of my covenant: and when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence among you; and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy. (Lev. 26:25.)

n. Therefore thus saith the Lord God; I will also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; and they of Dedan shall fall by the sword. (Ez. 25:13.) I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the stumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the Lord. (Zeph. 1:3.)

o. So the Lord sent a pestilence upon Israel, from the morning even to the time appointed: and there died of the people from Dan even to Beersheba seventy thousand men. (II Sam. 24:15.) Now will I shortly pour out my fury upon thee, and accomplish mine anger upon deliver their own souls by their [16]righteousness.

21 For thus saith the Lord God; How much [17]more when I send my four [p]sore judgments upon Je-ru'sa-lĕm, the sword, and the famine, and the noisome beast, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast?

22 ¶ [18]Yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant [19]that shall be brought forth, both sons and daughters: behold, they shall come forth unto you, and ye shall see their way and their doings: and ye shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Je-ru'sa-lĕm, even concerning all that I have brought upon it.

23 And they shall comfort you, when ye see their ways and their doings: and ye shall know that I have not done [q]without cause all that I have done in it, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER 15.

1 By the unfitness of the vine branch for any work 6 is shewed the rejection of Jerusalem.

1 [1]And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, What is the [a]vine tree more than any tree, or than a branch which is among the trees of the forest?

3 Shall wood be taken thereof to do any work? or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon?

4 Behold, [b]it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire devoureth both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burned. Is it meet for any work?

5 Behold, when it was whole, it was meet for no work: how much less shall it be meet yet for any work, when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned?

6 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God; As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Je-ru'sa-lĕm.

7 And I will set my face against them; they [c]shall go out from [2]one fire, and another fire shall devour them; [d]and ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I set my face against them.

8 And I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a [3]trespass, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER 16.

1 Under the similitude of a wretched infant is shewed the natural state of Jerusalem. 6 God's love towards her. 44 Her sin calleth for judgments. 60 Mercy is promised her in the end.

1 [1]Again the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, cause Je-ru'sa-lĕm to know her abominations,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God unto Je-ru'sa-lĕm; Thy birth and thy nativity is of the land of [2]Cā'nāan; thy father was an [3]Ăm'-or-īte, and thy mother an [3]Hīt'tīte.

4 And as for thy nativity, in the day thou wast born thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water to [4]supple thee; thou wast not salted [5]at all, nor swaddled at all.

5 None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the lothing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

6 ¶ And when I passed by thee, and saw thee [6]polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy [7]blood, Live.

7 I have caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to excellent ornaments: thy breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; [a]and I spread my skirt [8]over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I sware unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and [b]thou becamest [9]mine.

9 Then washed [10]I thee with water; yea, I throughly washed away thy blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil.

10 I [10]clothed thee also with broidered work, and shod thee with badgers' skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk.

11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thy hands, and a chain on thy neck.

12 And I put a [11]jewel on thy forehead, and earrings in thine ears, and a beautiful [12]crown upon thine head.

13 Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and broidered work; [c]thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil: and thou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

14 And thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness, which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ But [d]thou didst trust in thine own beauty, [e]and playedst the [13]harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was.

16 And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy high places with divers colours,

1. Persistent transgression has finally woven around itself such a strong net of guilt that righteousness cannot penetrate it until Jehovah's retributive justice makes a breach in it.

17. If transgression which had brought upon itself only one judgment could not be averted, how much more impossible would it be to prevent the judgment upon a transgression which was so great as to merit all four of Jehovah's judgments, viz., the sword, wild beasts, famine, and pestilence.

18. In vs. 22, 23, the beneficent effects of the punishment prove its justice.

19. The righteous few shall be preserved and they shall bring forth sons and daughters whose purity of life will prove the wisdom of the judgments.

Ch. 15. B. C. 594.

1. In this ch. Ez. uses the illustration of the vine to show the condition of Jerusalem. Save for its fruits, the vine was utterly worthless as it could be used for nothing else, so likewise when the chosen people, the vine planted by Jehovah, has lost its fruits (its religion) it has become insignificant and without use or service to the world.

2. Calamity.

3. That is, the Jews were not only sinners like other nations, but, having been chosen by Jehovah, they were rebels and apostates.

Ch. 16. B. C. 594.

1. In this ch. is given a detailed application of the parabolical delineation of the vine in ch. 15 to Jerusalem, which is personified as a daughter.

2. The land in which Abraham, Isaac and Jacob sojourned before going to Egypt and from which thou didst derive far more of thy innate characteristics than from the virtues of those thy progenitors.

3. In the sense that Hittite and Amorite irreligious impurities greatly influenced Israel.

4. To cleanse. (R. V.)

5. In ancient times, throughout the East, it was the custom to rub newborn babes with salt as a visible covenant symbol of bringing the child into relationship with the tribe.

6. Weltering. (R. V.)

7. That is, in spite of thine uncleanness.

8. The eastern symbol of marriage.

9. The ripening of love.

10. Jehovah's purification, making ready for the wedding.

11. Rather a ring in thy nose.

12. The marriage crown which is still used in Palestine.

13. By embracing idolatry and transferring the affections from Jehovah, they were unfaithful to him, hence played the harlot.

thee; and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense thee for all thine abominations. (Ez. 7:8.)

p. Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, neither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you. (Ez. 5:7.)

q. And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbor, Wherefore hath the Lord done thus unto this great city? Then they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the Lord their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them. (Jer. 22:8, 9.) And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, Ah Lord God! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem? (Ez. 9:8.)

a. Now will I sing to my well-beloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My well-beloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill. (Is. 5:1.) Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it. (Ps. 80:8.) Israel is an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly images. (Hos. 10:1.)

b. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. (Jno. 15:6.) But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned. (Heb. 6:8.)

c. And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake. (Is. 24:18.) As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him. (Amos 5:19.)

d. And mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the Lord. (Ez. 7:4.)

a. And he said, Who art thou? And she answered, I am Ruth thine handmaid: spread therefore thy skirt over thine handmaid; for thou art a near kinsman. (Ruth 3:9.)

b. Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine. (Ex. 19:5.) Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I remember thee, the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown. (Jer. 2:2.)

c. He made him ride on the high places of the earth, that he might eat the increase of the fields; and he made him to suck honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock. (Dt. 32:13.)

d. But Jeshurun waxed fat, and kicked: thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness: then he forsook God which made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation. (Dt. 32:15.) Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the Lord, The temple of the Lord, The temple of the Lord, are these. (Jer. 7:4.)

e. How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers. (Is. 1:21.) For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

17 Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images of men, and didst commit whoredom with them,

18 And tookedst thy broidered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them.

19 My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord God.

20 Moreover [f]thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter, 21 That thou hast slain [g]my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them?

22 And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

23 And it came to pass after all thy wickedness, (woe, woe unto thee! saith the Lord God;)

24 That thou hast also built unto thee an eminent place, and hast made thee an high place in every street.

25 Thou hast built thy high place at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms.

26 Thou hast also committed fornication with the E-ġўp'tians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

27 Behold, therefore I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes, which are ashamed of thy lewd way.

28 Thou [h]hast played the whore also with the Ās'sўr'ĭ-ans, because thou wast insatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication in the land of Cā'năan unto Chăl-dē'ā; and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How weak [14]is thine heart, saith the Lord God, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an imperious whorish woman;

31 In that thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as an harlot, in that thou scornest hire;

14. Sin weakens the heart, hence the polychrome Bible reads, "How consumed wert thou by passion."

15. That is, her former lovers, the idolatrous nations shall be her executioners.

16. That is, their great wickedness is of so long duration that it would be wicked to allow it to go unpunished any longer.

17. That is, been guilty of idolatry.

18. In vs. 44-59, the loathsome wickedness of Jerusalem described as the sister in wickedness of Sodom.

32 But as a wife that comitteth adultery, which taketh strangers instead of her husband!

33 They give gifts to all whores: but thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom.

34 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms: and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee, therefore thou art contrary.

35 ¶ Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of the Lord:

36 Thus saith the Lord God; Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them;

37 Behold, therefore [i]I will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy nakedness unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness.

38 And I will judge thee, as women that break wedlock and [j]shed blood are judged; and I will give thee blood in fury and jealousy.

39 And I will also give thee into their [15]hand, and they shall throw down thine eminent place, and shall break down thy high places: they [k]shall strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take thy fair jewels, and leave thee naked and bare.

40 They shall also bring up a company against thee, and they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords.

41 And they shall burn thine houses with fire, and execute judgments upon thee in the sight of many women: and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and thou also shalt give no hire any more.

42 So will I [l]make my fury toward thee to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be [m]no more angry.

43 Because [16]thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast fretted me in all these things; behold, therefore I also will recompense thy way upon thine head, saith the Lord God: and thou shalt not commit this [17]lewdness above all thine abominations.

44 ¶ [18]Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter.

45 Thou art thy mother's daughter, that lotheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which lothed

I will not transgress: when upon every high hill and under every green tree thou wanderest, playing the harlot. (Jer. 2:20.)

f. But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea, and made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord cast out from before the children of Israel. (II Ks. 16:3.)

g. And I will establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee in their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee (7). And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a token of the covenant betwixt me and you. (Gen. 17:7, 11.) Sanctify unto me all the first-born, whatsoever openeth the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast: it is mine. (Ex. 13:2.)

h. And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river? (Jer. 2:18.) When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound. (Hos. 5:13.)

i. And if thou say in thine heart, Wherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts discovered, and thy heels made bare. (Jer. 13:22.) Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honored her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness: yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward. (Lam. 1:8.) Behold, I am against thee, saith the Lord of hosts; and I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will show the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame. (Nah. 3:5.)

j. Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man. (Gen. 9:6.) He that smiteth a man so that he die, shall be surely put to death. (Ex. 21:12.)

k. They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels. (Ez. 23:26.) Lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst. (Hos. 2:3.)

l. Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the Lord have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them. (Ez. 5:13.) Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am the Lord (21). Likewise, thou son of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, which prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them. (Ez. 13:21, 17.) And David built there an altar unto the Lord, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So the Lord was entreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel. (II Sam. 24:25.) Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country. (Zech. 6:8.)

m. Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured out my Spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord God. (Ez. 39:29.) Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the Lord's hand double for all her sins. (Is. 40:1, 2.) For as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee. For the their husbands and their children: your mother was an Hĭt'tīte, and your father an Ām'or-īte.

46 And thine elder sister is Sa-mā'rĭ-à, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand: and [n]thy younger sister, that dwelleth at thy right hand, is Sŏd'om and her [19]daughters.

47 Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations: but, as if that were a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways.

48 As I live, saith the Lord God, Sŏd'om [o]thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters.

49 Behold, [20]this was the iniquity of thy sister Sŏd'om, pride, [p]fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.

50 And they were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore [q]I took them away as I saw good.

51 Neither hath Sa-mā'rĭ-à committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and hast justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done.

52 Thou also, which hast judged thy sisters, bear thine own shame for thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more righteous than thou: yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters.

53 When I shall bring again their captivity, [r]the captivity of Sŏd'om and her daughters, and the captivity of Sa-mā'rĭ-à and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them:

54 That thou mayest bear thine own shame, and mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou art a comfort unto them.

55 When thy sisters, Sŏd'om and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Sa-mā'rĭ-à and her daughters shall return to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate.

56 For thy sister Sŏd'om was not mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy pride, 57 Before thy wickedness was discovered, as at the time of thy reproach of the daughters of Sўr'ĭ-à, and all that are round about her, the daughters of the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes, which despise thee round about.

58 Thou hast borne thy lewdness and thine abominations, saith the Lord.

59 For thus saith the Lord God; I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast despised the oath in breaking the covenant.

60 ¶ [21]Nevertheless I will [s]remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee [t]an everlasting [22]covenant.

19. Suburban towns and colonies.

20. Pride, wealth, idleness, indifference to the poor and idolatry were the iniquity of Sodom.

21. In vs. 60-63 the everlasting covenant of Jehovah will be remembered.

22. The old covenant has been broken, but Jehovah is ready to establish an everlasting covenant which is to include as daughters of Israel the hitherto despised nations, such as Sodom.

Ch. 17. B. C. 594.

1. In this ch. is recorded the prophet's parable of the great eagle and spreading vine. It should be remembered that Ez. lived during the age of riddles, fables and allegories. He was contemporary with Aesop.

2. A riddle is truth couched in dark language, a parable is a spiritual truth presented by a comparison drawn through material symbols or objects.

3. Nebuchadnezzar, whose kingdom was widespread (long-winged) composed of many people (feathers), of many nations (diverse colors).

4. The mountain of the Lord's house. Used here to continue the metaphor as did the mountains.

5. Babylon.

6. The king of Egypt.

7. That is, Zed. turned to Egypt for nourishment.

8. Vs. 11-24, the riddle is explained.

61 Then thou shalt remember thy ways, and be ashamed, when thou shalt receive thy sisters, thine elder and thy younger: and I will give them unto thee for [u]daughters, but not by thy covenant.

62 And I will establish my covenant with thee; and thou shalt know that I am the Lord:

63 That thou mayest remember, and be confounded, and never open thy mouth any more because of thy shame, when I am pacified toward thee for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Under the parable of two eagles and a vine,
11 is shewed God's judgment upon Jerusalem for revolting from Babylon to Egypt.

1 [1]And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, put forth a [2]riddle, and speak a [2]parable unto the house of Ĭs'ra-el;

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; A great [3]eagle with great wings, longwinged, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came unto Lĕb'a-non, and took the highest [4]branch of the cedar:

4 He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffick; he set it in a city of [5]merchants.

5 He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in [a]a fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow tree.

6 And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

7 There was also another [6]great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, this vine did [7]bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord God; Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof.

10 Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

11 ¶ [3]Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

12 Say now to [b]the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Băb'ў-lon is come to Je-ru'samountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee. (Is. 54:9, 10.)

n. For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, and of the fields of Gomorrah: their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters are bitter. (Dt. 32:32.) Hear the word of the Lord, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah. (Is. 1:10.)

o. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city. (Mat. 10:15.) And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shall be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee. (Mat. 11:23, 24.)

p. And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered every where, before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, even as the garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, as thou comest unto Zoar. (Gen. 13:10.)

q. Then the Lord rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the Lord out of heaven. (Gen. 19:24.) He shall be driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world. (Job 18:18.)

r. And let that man be as the cities which the Lord overthrew, and repented not: and let him hear the cry in the morning, and the shouting at noon-tide. (Jer. 20:16.)

s. And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. (Ps. 106:45.) And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope: and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt. (Hos. 2:15.)

t. And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me. (Jer. 32:40.)

u. Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the Lord. (Is. 54:1.) Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side. (Is. 60:4.) But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all. (Gal. 4:26.)

Chapter 17.

a. For the Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land; a land of brooks of water, of fountains, and depths that spring out of valleys and hills; A land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates; a land of oil olive and honey; A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness, thou shalt not lack any thing in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills thou mayest dig grass. (Dt. 8:7-9.)

b. And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among them. (Ez. 2:5.) Son of man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said unto thee, What doest thou? (Ez. 12:9.)

lĕm, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Băb'ў-lon;

13 And hath taken of the king's seed, and made a covenant with him, and hath taken an oath of him: he hath also taken the mighty of the land:

14 That the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand.

15 But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Ē'gўpt, that they might give him horses and much people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered?

16 As I live, saith the Lord God, surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him in the midst of [9]Băb'ў-lon he shall die.

17 Neither [c]shall Phā'raōh with his mighty army and great company [10]make for him in the war, by casting up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many persons:

18 Seeing he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when, lo, he had given his hand, and hath done all these things, he shall not escape.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head.

20 And I will spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Băb'ў-lon, and [d]will plead with him there for his [11]trespass that he hath trespassed against me.

21 And [e]all his [12]fugitives with all his bands shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scattered toward all winds: and ye shall know that I the Lord have spoken it.

22 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; I will also take of the [13]highest [f]branch of the high cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the top of his young twigs a tender one, and will plant it upon an high mountain and eminent:

23 In the mountain of the height of Ĭs'ra-el will I [14]plant it; and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of the branches thereof shall they dwell.

24 And all the trees of the [15]field shall know that I the Lord [g]have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: I the Lord have spoken and have done it.

CHAPTER 18.

1 God reproveth the unjust parable of sour grapes. 25 He defendeth his justice, 31 exhorteth to repentance.

1 [1]The word of the Lord came unto me again, saying,

2 What mean ye, that ye use this proverb concerning the land of Ĭs'ra-el, saying, [a]The fathers have eaten sour [2]grapes, and the children's [2]teeth are set on edge?

3 As I live, saith the Lord God, ye shall not have [3]occasion any more to use this proverb in Ĭs'ra-el.

4 Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: [b]the soul that [4]sinneth, it shall die.

5 ¶ But if a man be [5]just, and do that which is lawful and right,

6 And hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted [c]up his eyes to the idols of the house of Ĭs'ra-el, neither hath defiled [d]his neighbour's wife, neither hath come near to a [e]menstruous woman,

7 And hath not oppressed any, but hath restored to the debtor his pledge, hath spoiled none by [6]violence, hath [f]given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment;

8 He that hath not given [g]forth upon [7]usury, neither hath taken any increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, hath executed [h]true judgment between man and man,

9 Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept [i]my judgments, to deal truly; he is [8]just, he shall surely live, saith the Lord God.

10 ¶ [9]If he beget a son that is a [10]robber, a shedder of blood, and that doeth the like to any one of these things,

11 And that doeth not any of [11]those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and [d]defiled his neighbour's wife,

12 Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, hath committed abomination, 13 Hath given [g]forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely [12]die; his [13]blood shall be upon him.

9. He had brought on himself the worst form of evil, which he had sought a deliverance from, in a mild sense, by perjured treachery.
10. Old English for help him. The assistance of Egypt shall be in vain.
11. His unfaithfulness.
12. His chosen soldiers who accompany him in his flight.
13. Jehovah will do better than the heathen kings; they attempted to pluck the highest branch (v. 3), but he will likewise take of the highest branch and plant the house of David to whom the kingdom belongs by an everlasting covenant, and it shall be the shelter of the whole world, and shall be forever the Messiah's kingdom.
14. Zion; destined to be the moral center and eminence of grace and glory of the world, out topping all mundane elevation. The kingdom typically began with the return from Babylon and rebuilding of the temple; fully began with Christ's appearance, and shall have its highest manifestations at his reappearing to reign in Zion and thence over the whole earth. (J. F. B.)
15. That is, all the nations shall know Jehovah by the exaltation of his people and punishment of the proud and strong. (Luke 1:51-53.)

Ch. 18. B. C. 594.

1. Ch. 18 may truly be called, as someone has said, "a sermon on divine justice and human freedom." In it Ez. hopes to show his country their sins and win them back to Jehovah by teaching them the justice of the divine plan. The keynote of the ch. is, "The soul that sinneth, it shall die," or, in other words, each individual is personally responsible for his own acts.
2. This was the claim made by the people as the excuse because of which they hoped to escape the result of their sins. The prophet replies in substance, it is true it has come because of sin, but because of your own sin.
3. That is, their own sin shall be made so plain they will see they have no occasion to make such a statement.
4. The keynote of the ch., see v. 20.
5. Ez.'s definition for a just man is, one who is faithful to God and obedient to his law, honest, merciful, generous and true-hearted. Mic. 6:8 defines the just man as one who must "do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly before God."
6. Robbery, either in violation of law or by taking advantage of his unfortunate brothers.
7. The law prohibited any Hebrew from charging another Hebrew interest.
8. He who truly obeys the commandments of God must have an inner spirit of righteousness and is therefore just.
9. In vs. 10-13 the prophet declares the wicked son of a righteous father shall not escape the punishment of his sins.
10. A doer of violence.
11. The same as "these things," meaning the qualities of a just man.
12. The legal sentence expressed in Ex. 21:15, 22-18, and Lev. 20:11.
13. That is, he is responsible for his own death because the judgments he would put upon others came upon himself.

---

c. Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that sent you unto me to enquire of me; Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land. (Jer. 37:7.)

d. Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord God. (Ez. 20:36.)

e. And I will scatter toward every wind all that are about him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them. (Ez. 12:14.)

f. And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. (Is. 11:1.) Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. (Jer. 23:5.)

g. He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree. (Luke 1:52.)

a. Our fathers have sinned, and are not; and we have borne their iniquities. (Lam. 5:7.)

b. For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Rom. 6:23.) But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die. (Gen. 2:17.) For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. (Jno. 3:16.)

c. Because they had not executed my judgments, but had despised my statutes, and had polluted my sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. (Ez. 20:24.) Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Ye eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the land? (Ez. 33:25.) And lest thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, shouldest be driven to worship them, and serve them, which the Lord thy God hath divided unto all nations under the whole heaven. (Dt. 4:19.)

d. Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. (Heb. 13:4.) Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolators, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind. (I Cor. 6:9.)

e. The nakedness of thy sister, the daughter of thy father, or daughter of thy mother, whether she be born at home, or born abroad, even their nakedness thou shalt not uncover. (Lev. 18:9.)

f. Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh? (Is. 58:7.) For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in. (Mat. 25:35.)

g. Take thou no usury of him, or increase: but fear thy God; that thy brother may live with thee. (Lev. 25:36.) He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved. (Ps. 15:5.) If thou lend money to any of my people that is poor by thee, thou shalt not be to him as an usurer, neither shalt thou lay upon him usury. (Ex. 22:25.)

h. Before the Lord: for he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity. (Ps. 98:9.) Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment. (Jno. 7:24.) He is the Rock, his work is perfect; for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth, and without iniquity, just and right is he. (Dt. 32:4.) Therefore the Lord hath recompensed me according to my righteousness; according to my cleanness in his eye-sight. With the merciful thou wilt show thyself merciful, and with the upright man thou wilt show thyself upright. With the pure thou wilt show thyself pure, and with the froward thou wilt show thyself unsavory. (II Sam. 22:25-27.)

i. Therefore shall ye keep my commandments, and do them: I am the Lord. (Lev. 22:31.) My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments. (Prov. 3:1.) But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe 14 ¶ [14]Now, lo, if he beget a son, that seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and [15]considereth, and doeth not such like,

15 That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Is'ra-el, hath not defiled his neighbour's wife,

16 Neither hath oppressed any, hath not withholden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given [f]his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment,

17 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my judgments, hath walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.

18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even [j]he shall die in his iniquity.

19 ¶ [16]Yet, say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the [17]iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.

20 The soul that sinneth, it shall die. [k]The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: the [18]righteousness [l]of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness [18]of the wicked shall be upon him.

21 But if the wicked [m]will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

22 All his transgressions [n]that he hath committed, they shall not be [19]mentioned unto him: in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live.

23 Have [o]I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God: and not that he should return from his ways, and live?

24 ¶ But when the [p]righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? [q]All his righteousness that he hath done shall not [20]be mentioned: in his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

25 ¶ Yet ye say, [r]The way of the Lord is not [21]equal. Hear now, O house of Is'ra-el; Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal?

26 When a righteous man turneth [p]away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die.

27 Again, when the wicked man turneth [s]away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive.

28 Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

29 Yet saith the house of Is'ra-el, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Is'ra-el, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

30 Therefore I will judge you, O house of Is'ra-el, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God. [t]Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.

31 ¶ Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you [u]a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Is'ra-el?

32 For I have no [22]pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye.

CHAPTER 19.

1 A lamentation for the princes of Israel, under the parable of lion's whelps taken in a pit, 10 and for Jerusalem, under the parable of a wasted vine.

1 [1]Moreover take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Is'ra-el,

2 And say, What is thy [2]mother? A lioness: she lay down among lions, she nourished her whelps among your lions.

3 And she brought up one of her whelps: it became a young [3]lion, and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men.

14. In vs. 14-18 the prophet declares that the righteous son of a wicked father shall not be punished.

15. Feareth. (R. V.)

16. In vs. 19-30, the prophet meets the objection of the people to the principles of divine government as above laid down.

17. Sinfulness to which the prophet answers in vs. 19-24.

18. One who is rewarded according to his works.

19. Remembered.

20. Shall not be remembered to his credit because he has covered them with sins.

21. Yet the people claimed that the ways of God were not equal or just. The prophet would not argue the question with them, he simply stated the divine principles of government.

22. In II Pet. 3:9 we read, "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise as men count slackness; but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance."

Ch. 19. B. C. 594.

1. Ch. 19 is a dirge or elegy over the fallen house of David.

2. Judea.

3. Jehoahaz, son of Josiah; carried captive to Egypt. II Ks. 23: 33.

to do all his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day, that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee. (Dt. 28:15.)

j. When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand. (Ez. 3:18.)

k. The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers: every man shall be put to death for his own sin. (Dt. 24:16.) But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge. (Jer. 31:30.)

l. Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings. (Is. 3:10.) Then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness. (I Ks. 8:32.) For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works. (Mat. 16:27.) Who will render to every man according to his deeds: To them who by patient continuance in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, eternal life; But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath, Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile. (Rom. 2:6-9.)

m. Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth. But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby. (Ez. 33:12, 19.) See vs. 27, 28.

n. None of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live. (Ez. 33:16.) I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins. (Is. 43:25.) In those days, and in that time, saith the Lord, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve. (Jer. 50:20.) He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. (Mic. 7.19.)

o. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. (II Pet. 3:9.) For he doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men. (Lam. 3:33.) How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? Mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together. (Hos. 11:8.) p. When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby. (Ez. 33:18.) It repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king: for he is turned back from following me, and hath not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel; and he cried unto the Lord all night. (I Sam. 15:11.) And Joash did that which was right in the sight of the Lord all the days of Jehoiada the priest (2). Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king: then the king hearkened unto them. And they left the house of the Lord God of their fathers, and served groves and idols: and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass. Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the Lord; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear. And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the Lord, that ye cannot prosper? because ye have forsaken the Lord, he hath also forsaken you. And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the Lord. Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The Lord look upon it, and require it. (II Chr. 24:2, 17-22.)

q. Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him. (Heb. 10:38.) For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. (II Pet. 2:20.)

r. Ye have said, It is vain to serve God; and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the Lord of hosts? (Mal. 3:14.)

s. Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord: Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. (Is. 1:18.) Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. (Is. 55:7.)

t. And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. (Mat. 3:2.) Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent. (Rev. 2:5.)

4 The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with [4]chains unto the land of [a]Ē′gўpt.
5 Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took [5]another of her whelps, and made him a young lion.
6 And he went up and down among the lions, he became a young lion, and learned to catch the [6]prey, and devoured men.
7 And he knew their desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fulness thereof, by the noise of his roaring.
8 Then [b]the [7]nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him: he was taken in their pit.
9 And they put him in ward in chains, and brought him to the king of Băb′ў-lon: they brought him into holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon [c]the mountains of Ĭs′- ra-el.
10 ¶ Thy mother is like a vine in thy blood, planted by the waters: she was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters.
11 And she had strong [8]rods for the sceptres of them that bare rule, and her stature was exalted among the thick branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.
12 But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the [d]east wind dried up her fruit: her strong rods were broken and withered; the fire consumed them.
13 And now she is planted [e]in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground.
14 And fire [f]is gone out of a rod of her branches, which hath devoured her fruit, so that she hath no strong rod to be a sceptre to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.

CHAPTER 20.

1 God refuseth to be consulted by the elders of Israel. 5 Their rebellions in Egypt, 27 and in the land. 33 He promiseth to gather them by the gospel.

1 [1]And it came to pass in the [2]seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Ĭs′ra-el came to enquire [a]of the Lord, and sat before me.
2 Then came the word of the Lord unto me, saying,
3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Ĭs′- ra-el, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Are ye come to [a]enquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord God, [b]I will not be [3]enquired of by you.

4. Or hooks, which were fastened in the noses of wild beasts.

5. Jehoiakim, brother of Jehoahaz. II Ks. 23:24.

6. That is, to do evil or to gratify his passion.

7. The Chaldeans, Syrians, Moab and Ammon.

8. The princes of the royal house of David.

Ch. 20. B. C. 593.

1. In this ch. the idolatrous elders again inquire of Jehovah, but Jehovah will not receive them. Israel's protracted rebelliousness is exposed and the promise repeated that God will yet restore his people.

2. From the carrying away of Jeconiah.

3. Because they were so deeply steeped in sin that they could not morally understand or appreciate the will of God.

4. Plead for them.

5. In vs. 5-29, the prophet recites before the elders the idolatrous life of their fathers.

6. That is, at the exodus.

7. By worshiping the idols and doing the vile things of the heathen.

8. His name stood for the attributes he possessed; hence not to punish sin would pollute or stain the reputation of Jehovah among the nations.

9. Rather shall live through them.

10. A visible sign, a constant reminder to the people of their relationship to Jehovah.

4 Wilt thou [4]judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge them? [c]cause them to know the abominations of their fathers:
5 ¶ [5]And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; In the day [6]when I chose Ĭs′ra-el, and lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jā′cob, and made myself [d]known unto them in the land of Ē′gўpt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, I am the Lord your God;
6 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Ē′gўpt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands:
7 Then said I unto them, Cast ye away every man [e]the abominations of his eyes, and defile [7]not yourselves with the idols of Ē′gўpt: I am the Lord your God.
8 But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Ē′gўpt:
then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Ē′gўpt.
9 But I wrought for [8]my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Ē′gўpt.
10 ¶ Wherefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Ē′gўpt, and brought them into the wilderness.
11 And [f]I gave them my statutes, and shewed them my judgments, which [g]if a man do, he shall [9]even live in them.
12 Moreover also I gave them my [10]sabbaths, [h]to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the Lord that sanctify them.
13 But the house of Ĭs′ra-el rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they despised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them;
and my sabbaths they greatly polluted: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them.
14 But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.
15 Yet also I lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands;
16 Because they despised my judgments, and

Chapter 19.

a. And Pharaoh-nechoh put him in bands at Riblah, in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and put the land to a tribute of an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold. (II Ks. 23:33.)

b. And the Lord sent against him bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by his servants the prophets. (II Ks. 24:2.)

c. And say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys; Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places. (Ez. 6:3.)

d. Though he be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come, the wind of the Lord shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: and he shall spoil the treasure of all pleasant vessels. (Hos. 13:15.)

e. Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies, which the Lord shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee. (Dt. 28:48.)

f. And the bramble said unto the trees, If in truth ye anoint me king over you, then come and put your trust in my shadow: and if not, let fire come out of the bramble, and devour the cedars of Lebanon. (Jud. 9:15.)

Chapter 20.

a. And he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall ask counsel for him after the judgment of Urim before the Lord: at his word shall they go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he, and all the children of Israel with him, even all the congregation. (Num. 27:21.) Now after the death of Joshua it came to pass, that the children of Israel asked the Lord, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Canaanites first, to fight against them? (Jud. 1:1.) And when Saul enquired of the Lord, the Lord answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets. (I Sam. 28:6.) I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye. (Ps. 32:8.) If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. (Js. 1:5.)

b. And I will set my face against that man and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the Lord. (Ez. 14:8.)

c. Fill ye up then a measure of your fathers. (Mat. 23:32.)

d. And the people believed: and when they heard that the Lord had visited the children of Israel, and that he had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped. (Ex. 4:31.)

e. And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the Lord that was before the porch of the Lord. (II Chr. 15:8.)

f. And what nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day? (Dt. 4:8.)

g. Ye shall therefore keep my statutes, and my judgments; which if a man do, he shall live in them: I am the Lord. (Lev. 18:5.) For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them. (Rom. 10:5.) And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them. (Gal. 3:12.)

h. Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. (Ex. 20:8.) Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily my sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the Lord that doth sanctify you. (Ex. 31:13.) And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant. (Neh. 9:14.)

walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: for [i]their heart went after their idols.

17 [11]Nevertheless [j]mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness.

18 But I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols:

19 I am the Lord your God; [k]walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them;

20 And [l]hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the Lord your God.

21 Notwithstanding the [12]children rebelled against me: they walked not in my statutes, neither kept my judgments to do them, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; they polluted my sabbaths: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness.

22 Nevertheless I withdrew mine hand, and wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth.

23 I lifted up mine hand unto them also in the wilderness, that I would [13]scatter [m]them among the heathen, and disperse them through the countries;

24 Because they had not executed my judgments, but had despised my statutes, and had polluted my sabbaths, and [n]their eyes were after their fathers' idols.

25 Wherefore [o]I gave them also statutes that were [14]not good, and judgments whereby they should not live;

26 And I [15]polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might [16]know that I am the Lord.

27 ¶ Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Ĭs'ra-el, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Yet in this your fathers have [17]blasphemed [p]me, in that they have committed a [18]trespass against me.

28 For when I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out there their drink offerings.

29 Then I said unto them, What is the high place whereunto ye go? And the name thereof is called Bā'mah unto this day.

30 [19]Wherefore say unto the house of Ĭs'ra-el, Thus saith the Lord God; Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers? and commit ye whoredom after their abominations?

31 For when ye offer your gifts, when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day: and [q]shall I be enquired of by you, O house of Ĭs'ra-el? As I live, saith the Lord God, I will not be [20]enquired of by you.

32 And that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all, that ye say, We will be as the [21]heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.

33 ¶ As I live, saith the Lord God, surely with a mighty [22]hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you:

34 And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with [23]fury poured out.

35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will [r]I plead with you face to face.

36 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Ē'gўpt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord God.

37 And I will cause you to pass under the [24]rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant:

38 And I [s]will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Ĭs'ra-ĕl: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

39 As for you, O house of Ĭs'ra-el, thus saith the Lord God; Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter [25]also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but [t]pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols.

40 For in mine holy [26]mountain, in the mountain of the height of Ĭs'ra-el, saith the Lord God, there shall all the house of Ĭs'ra-el, all of them in the land, serve me: there [u]will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the firstfruits of your oblations, with [27]all your holy things.

41 I will accept you with your sweet savour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye

11. It should be observed here that Ez. not only understood the Hebrew history, but also placed the same interpretation upon it that the orthodox church has ever done.

12. Even the children sinned as their fathers, though it was in the face of all Jehovah had done.

13. Here Jehovah changes their punishment from annihilation to captivity.

14. That is, they would not follow the statutes of God, so he allowed them to follow their own for a season, which was not good for them.

15. That is, gave them up to their own desires when they polluted themselves, a just retribution for their polluting the Sabbath.

16. That is, they refused to know God as a gracious and merciful Father, hence, through a just retribution for their sins, they were compelled to know him as a great and powerful judge.

17. That is, insulted Jehovah. Many were guilty of idolatrous worship and the others offered their sacrifices in forbidden places called the high places, which were the places where sacrifices were offered to idols.

18. Unfaithfulness. This verse would indicate that the most fearful blasphemy or sin was not in words alone, but also in irreverence and indifference. (Num. 15:30)—"The soul that doeth ought presumptuously, whether he be born in the land or a stranger, the same reproacheth the Lord; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people."

19. In vs. 30-44 the prophet declares that though the sons followed the examples of their fathers, yet Jehovah shall display his power, goodness and mercy, and his name will yet be glorified.

20. That is, those who were steeped in pollution were not qualified or competent to understand Jehovah's wisdom.

21. For 18 centuries the Jews have remained dispersed among all nations without a home, but still a distinctive people a constant living witness to the truth of the prophecy here given by Ez.

22. That is, in spite of their existence, Jehovah would assert his rights over them and not allow them to be taken from him because of his covenant.

23. Not to destroy but to restore them.

24. As the shepherd makes his flock pass under the rod, in counting them, so Jehovah will count every Israelite.

25. According to Dr. Skinner, the Syriac reads, "But as for you, O house of Israel, if ye will not hearken unto me, go serve every man his idols. Yet hereafter ye shall no more proclaim my holy name."

26. Zion or Moriah, which stands pre-eminent above all mountains because of the manifested presence of God there with Israel.

27. The best they can give.

i. For their heart was not right with him, neither were they stedfast in his covenant. (Ps. 78:37.) Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the Prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness? (Acts 7:42.)

j. But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not; yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath. (Ps. 78:38.)

k. Therefore shall ye keep my commandments, and do them: I am the Lord. (Lev. 22:31.) My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments. (Prov. 3:1.) Thou shalt keep therefore his statutes and his commandments, which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, for ever. (Dt. 4:40.) Therefore shall ye keep all the commandments which I command you this day, that ye may be strong, and go in and possess the land whither ye go to possess it. (Dt. 11:8.)

l. Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work; but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers. (Jer. 17:22.)

m. And the Lord shall scatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone. (Dt. 28:64.) To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands. (Ps. 106:27.)

n. And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. (Ez. 6:9.)

o. So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust: and they walked in their own counsels. (Ps. 81:12.) Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonor their own bodies between themselves. (Rom. 1:24.) And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie. (II Thess. 2:11.)

p. And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things. (Rom. 1:23.)

q. He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination. (Prov. 28:9.)

r. Wherefore I will yet plead with you, saith the Lord, and with your children's children will I plead (9). Yet thou sayest, Because I am innocent, surely his anger shall turn from me: behold, I will plead with thee, because thou sayest, I have not sinned. (Jer. 2:9, 35.)

s. And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the he-goats. (Ez. 34:17.) Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire. (Mat. 3:12.) And before him shall be gathered all nations; and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats. (Mat. 25:32.)

t. Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting. (Is. 1:13.)

u. Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all people. (Is. 56:7.) I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. (Rom. 12:1.)

have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you before the [28]heathen.

42 And [v]ye shall [29]know that I am the Lord, when I shall bring you into the land of Ĭs'ra-el, into the country for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers.

43 And there shall ye remember your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled; and [w]ye shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that ye have committed.

44 And ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I have wrought with you [x]for my name's sake, not according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Ĭs'ra-el, saith the Lord God.

45 ¶ [30]Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

46 Son of man, set thy face toward the south, and drop thy word toward the [31]south, and prophesy against the forest of the south field;

47 And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the Lord; Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, [y]I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burned therein.

48 And [z]all flesh shall see that I the Lord have kindled it: it shall not be quenched.

49 Then said I, Ah Lord God! they say of me, Doth he not speak parables?

CHAPTER 21.

Ezekiel prophesieth against Jerusalem with a sign of sighing.

1 And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face toward Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and [a]drop thy word toward the [1]holy [b]places, and prophesy against the land of Ĭs'ra-el,

3 And say to the land of Ĭs'ra-el, Thus saith the Lord; Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked.

4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh from the south to the north:

5 That all flesh may know that I the Lord have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath: it [c]shall not return any more.

6 Sigh therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins; and with bitterness sigh before their eyes.

7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings; because it cometh: and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord God.

8 ¶ [2]Again the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord; Say, [d]A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furbished:

10 It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter; it is furbished that it may glitter: should we then [3]make mirth? it contemneth the rod of my son, as every tree.

11 And he hath given it to be furbished, that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, and it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the slayer.

12 Cry and howl, son of man: for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Ĭs'ra-el: terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people: [e]smite therefore upon thy thigh.

13 Because it is [4]a [f]trial, and what if the sword contemn even the rod? it shall be no more, saith the Lord God.

14 Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite thine hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which entereth into their privy chambers.

15 I have set the point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied: ah! it is made bright, it is wrapped up for the slaughter.

16 Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, or on the left, whithersoever thy face is set.

17 I will also smite mine hands together, and I will [g]cause my fury to rest: I the Lord have said it.

18 ¶ The word of the Lord came unto me again, saying,

19 Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Băb'ў-lon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land: and choose thou a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city.

20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to [h]Răb'bath of the Ām'mŏn-ītes, and to Jū'dah in Je-ru'sa-lĕm the defenced.

21 For the king of Băb'ў-lon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he made his arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked in the liver.

22 At his right hand was the divination for Je-ru'sa-lĕm, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to [i]appoint battering rams

28. That is, when the heathen nations saw the Hebrews restored they would know that the calamities which had befallen them were true punishments of sin and not Jehovah's inability to protect them.

29. When the Israelite is able to look back and see the retributive justice of every punishment, he will know that God is Jehovah.

30. In vs. 45-49, Ez. prophesies the destruction of Jerusalem with fire and sword.

31. To the land of Israel.

Ch. 21. B. C. 593.

1. Referring to the temple in Jerusalem.

2. In vs. 8-22 is a wild irregular song of the sword.

3. When such a calamity is impending it is no time for mirth.

4. That is, the sword of the Lord will subject all to the ordeal.

v. Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God; I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel. (Ez. 11:17.)

w. And they that are left of you shall pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them. (Lev. 26:39.) I will go and return to my place, till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early. (Hos. 5:15.)

x. Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went. (Ez. 36:22.)

y. But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, saith the Lord; and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall devour all things round about it. (Jer. 21:14.) For God shall bring every work unto judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. (Ecc. 12:14.) And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. (Rev. 22:12.)

z. The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah. (Ps. 9:16.) For Tophet is ordained of old; yea, for the king it is prepared; he hath made it deep and large; the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of the Lord, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it. (Is. 30:33.)

Chapter 21.

a. My doctrine shall drop as the rain, my speech shall distil as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as the showers upon the grass. (Dt. 32:2.) Now therefore hear thou the word of the Lord: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Israel, and drop not thy word against the house of Isaac. (Amos 7:16.)

b. For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God? (I Pet. 4:17.)

c. I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear. (Is. 45:23.)

d. If I whet my glittering sword, and mine hand take hold on judgment, I will render vengeance to mine enemies, and will reward them that hate me. (Dt. 32:41.)

e. Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth. (Jer. 31:19.)

f. If the scourge slay suddenly, he will laugh at the trial of the innocent. (Job 9:23.) How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality. (II Cor. 8:2.)

g. Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the Lord have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them. (Ez. 5:13.)

h. And Joab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city. (II Sam. 12:26.) But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind. (Amos 1:14.)

i. And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

23 And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, to them that have sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand.

25 ¶ And thou, [j]profane wicked prince of Is'ra-el, whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end, 26 Thus saith the Lord God; Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same: exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high.

27 I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and it shall be no more, until he [k]come whose right it is; and I will give it him.

28 ¶ [5]And thou, son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God concerning the Am'mŏn-ītes, and concerning their reproach; even say thou, The sword, the sword is drawn: for the slaughter it is furbished, to consume because of the glittering:

29 Whiles they see vanity unto thee, whiles they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain, of the wicked, whose day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end.

30 Shall I cause it to return into his sheath? I will judge thee in the place where thou wast created, in the land of thy nativity.

31 And I will pour out mine indignation upon thee, I will blow against thee in the [l]fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of brutish men, and skilful to destroy.

32 Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land; thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the Lord have spoken it.

CHAPTER 22.

1 A catalogue of sins in Jerusalem. 23 The corruption of prophets, priests, princes, and people.

1 [1]Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Now, thou son of man, wilt thou [a]judge, wilt thou judge the [2]bloody city? yea, thou shalt shew her all her abominations.

3 Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord God, The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, that her time [3]may come, and maketh [b]idols against herself to defile herself.

4 Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast [c]shed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years: [4]therefore have I made thee a reproach unto the heathen, and a mocking to all countries.

5 Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art infamous and much vexed.

6 Behold, [d]the princes of Is'ra-el, every one were in thee to their power to shed blood.

7 In thee have they set light by father and mother: in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow.

8 [5]Thou hast despised mine holy things, and hast profaned my sabbaths.

9 In thee are men that carry tales to shed blood: and in thee they eat upon the mountains: in the midst of thee they commit lewdness.

10 In thee have they discovered their fathers' nakedness: in thee have they humbled her that was set apart for pollution.

11 And one hath committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and another hath lewdly defiled his daughter in law; and another in thee hath humbled his sister, his father's daughter.

12 In thee [e]have they taken gifts to shed blood; thou [f]hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten me, saith the Lord God.

13 ¶ Behold, therefore I have smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee.

14 Can [g]thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? [h]I the Lord have spoken it, and will do it.

15 And I will scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and will consume thy filthiness out of thee.

16 And thou shalt take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, and [i]thou shalt know that I am the Lord.

17 And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

18 [6]Son of man, the house of Is'ra-el is to me become dross: all they are brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are even the dross of silver.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Je-ru'-sa-lĕm.

20 As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.

21 Yea, I will gather you, and blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.

22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst

5. In vs. 28-32, the prophet declares that the Ammonites rejoicing over Jerusalem's punishment, shall suffer more severely themselves.

Ch. 22. B. C. 593.

1. In this ch. the prophet gives a description of the many sins of the people of Jerusalem, including the prophets and priests.

2. Referring to the sacrifice of children.

3. That is, instead of deriving assistance from their bloody sacrifices to the idols, they have brought upon themselves the time of their punishment.

4. The reason, because of her sins.

5. Jerusalem.

6. In vs. 18-22 the prophet compares Israel in Assyrian bondage to one in the furnace.

mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set battering-rams against it round about. (Ez. 4:2.)

j. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. (II Ks. 24:19.) And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the Lord, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. (Jer. 52:2.)

k. But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbors, and he is not. (Jer. 49:10.) He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David. (Luke 1:32.)

l. And the Lord shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shall show the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones. (Is. 30:30.)

Chapter 22.

a. Wilt thou judge them, son of man? wilt thou judge them? cause them to know the abominations of their fathers. (Ez. 20:4.) The Lord said moreover unto me: Son of man, wilt thou judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, declare unto them their abominations. (Ez. 23:36.)

b. For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels; that I should make thee a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore ye shall bear the reproach of my people. (Mic. 6:16.)

c. Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; besides his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the Lord. (II Ks. 21:16.)

d. Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them. (Is. 1:23.)

e. Thou shalt not wrest judgment; thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous. (Dt. 16:19.)

f. If thou lend money to any of my people that is poor by thee, thou shalt not be to him as an usurer, neither shalt thou lay upon him usury. (Ex. 22:25.) Thou shalt not lend upon usury to thy brother; usury of money, usury of victuals, usuary of any thing that is lent upon usury. (Dt. 23:19.)

g. Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the Lord shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together. (Is. 31:3.) Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he? (I Cor. 10:22.)

h. And all the trees of the field shall know that I the Lord have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: I the Lord have spoken and have done it. (Ez. 17:24.)

i. The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion, Selah. (Ps. 9:16.)

thereof; and ye shall know that I the Lord have poured out my fury upon you.

23 ¶ And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation.

25 There [j]is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they [k]have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.

26 Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

27 Her [l]princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.

28 And her prophets have daubed them with untempered mortar, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord God, when the Lord hath not spoken.

29 The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy: yea, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully.

30 And [m]I sought for a man among them that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but [7]I found none.

31 Therefore have I poured out mine [n]indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own [o]way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER 23.

1 The whoredoms of Aholah and Aholibah. 36 The prophet reproveth the adulteries of them both, 45 and sheweth their judgments.

1 [1]The word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, there were two women, the [2]daughters of one mother:

3 And [a]they committed whoredoms in Ē′gўpt; they committed whoredoms in their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

4 And the names of them were A-hō′lah the elder, and A-hŏl′ĭ-bah her sister: and they were mine, and they bare sons and daughters. Thus were their names; Sa-mā′rĭ-â is A-hō′lah, and Je-ru′sa-lĕm [b]A-hŏl′ĭ-bah.

5 And [3]A-hō′lah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on [c]the Ās-sўr′ĭ-anş her neighbours,

6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

7 [4]Thus she committed her whoredoms with them, with all them that were the chosen men of Ās-sўr′ĭ-â, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled herself.

8 Neither left she her whoredoms brought from Ē′gўpt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.

9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Ās-sўr′ĭ-anş, upon whom she doted.

10 These [d]discovered her nakedness: they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became [e]famous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her.

11 And when her sister [5]A-hŏl′ĭ-bah saw this, she was more [5]corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms more than her sister in her whoredoms.

12 She doted upon the Ās-sўr′ĭ-anş her neighbours, captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way,

14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chăl-dē′anş pourtrayed with vermilion,

15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Băb-ў-lō′nĭ-anş of Chăl-dē′â, the land of their nativity:

16 And as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chăl-dē′â.

17 And the Băb-ў-lō′nĭ-anş came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and her mind was [6]alienated from them.

18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then my mind was

7. Not that there was no faithful one among them, for Jeremiah and Baruch were still there; but among those just enumerated as guilty of such sins, there were none morally able for such an office.

Ch. 23. B. C. 593.

1. In this ch. the prophet pictures the sin of Israel and Judah under the names of two lewd sisters. Here is expressed one of the most disgusting pictures of lust and crime to be found in literature. In reading this picture so revolting, it should be remembered that the prophet lived in an age and country where such crimes were not only common, but the heathen deities were represented as being appeased by such loathsomeness. Hence, in making his illustration, he attacked their vilest practices.

2. Israel and Judah one nation by birth from the same ancestress, Sarah.

3. Referring to Jerusalem's forsaking her true Lord, her husband, and going off after the false idols of the Assyrians.

4. In vs. 7-10 she does not even remain true to her Assyrian paramour, but goes off after the Egyptians.

5. Meaning Judah, with greater privileges, was more corrupt than her sister Israel.

6. Which occurred after the satisfying of her passion and she began to feel the heavy hand of the Babylonians upon her; but her sin had been so great that she could not return to Jehovah, her lawful husband, without bitter repentance.

j. And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way by consent: for they commit lewdness. (Hos. 6:9.) For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. (Jer. 6:13.)

k. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation. (Mat. 23:14.) For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. (Acts 20:29.)

l. Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them. (Is. 1:23.) Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow. (Zeph. 3:3.)

m. Run ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; and I will pardon it. (Jer. 5:1.) And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him. (Is. 59:16.) And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me. (Is. 63:5.)

n. O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hands is mine indignation. (Is. 10:5.) They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the Lord, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land. (Is. 13:5.) Behold, the name of the Lord cometh from far, burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire. (Is. 30:27.)

o. Now is the end come upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, and will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense upon thee all thine abominations (3). Now will I shortly pour out my fury upon thee, and accomplish mine anger upon thee; and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense thee for all thine abominations. And mine eyes shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will recompense thee according to thy ways and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the Lord that smiteth. (Ez. 7:3, 8, 9.) And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will recompense their way upon their head. (Ez. 9:10.) But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath, Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile. (Rom. 2:8, 9.)

a. Now therefore fear the Lord, and serve him in sincerity and in truth: and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve ye the Lord. (Josh. 24:14.) But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. (Ez. 20:8.)

b. That thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which thou hast said, My name shall be there; that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall make toward this place. (I Ks. 8:29.)

c. There is a league between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent unto thee a present of silver and gold: come and break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me. (I Ks. 15:19.) For they are gone up to Assyria, a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim hath hired lovers. (Hos. 8:9.)

d. Behold, therefore I will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy nakedness unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness. (Ez. 16:37.)

e. Even all nations shall say, Wherefore hath the Lord done thus unto this land? what meaneth the heat of this great anger? Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the Lord God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt. (Dt. 29:24, 25.)

alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister.

19 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Ē'ġўpt.

20 For she doted upon their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

21 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the E-ġўp'tians for the paps of thy youth.

22 ¶ [f]Therefore, O A-hŏl'ī-bah, thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side;

23 The Băb-ў-lō'nĭ-anş, and all the Chăl-dē'anş, Pē'kŏd, and Shō'a, and Kō'a, and all the Ăs-sўr'ī-anş with them: all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses.

24 And they shall come against thee with [f]chariots, wagons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler and shield and helmet round about: and I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge [g]thee according to their judgments.

25 And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose [s]and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire.

26 [h]They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels.

27 Thus [i]will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and thy whoredom brought from the land of Ē'ġўpt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Ē'ġўpt any more.

28 For thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them whom thou hatest, into the hand of them from whom thy mind is alienated:

29 And they shall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy labour, and shall leave thee naked and bare: and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

30 I will do these things unto thee, because thou hast [j]gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.

31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give her [k]cup into thine hand.

32 Thus saith the Lord God; Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup deep and large: thou shalt be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much.

7. In vs. 22-26 the prophet declares that for every lust there is a fierce punishment which shall be executed.

8. Adulteresses in Egypt and Chaldea were so punished. The oriental adulterous beauties especially bejeweled the nose and ears. Now how just that in retribution the bejeweled members should be mutilated, allegorically applied to Judah, the spiritual adulteress.

33 Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Sa-mā'rĭ-a.

34 Thou shalt even drink it and suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, and pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou [l]hast forgotten me, and cast [m]me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

36 ¶ The Lord said moreover unto me; Son of man, wilt thou judge A-hō'lah and A-hŏl'ī-bah? yea, declare unto them their abominations;

37 That they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery, and have also caused their sons, whom they bare unto me, to pass for them through the fire, to devour them.

38 Moreover this they have done unto me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my sabbaths.

39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, thus have they done in the midst of mine house.

40 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent; and, lo, they came: for whom thou didst wash thyself, [n]paintedst thy eyes, and deckedst thyself with ornaments,

41 And satest upon a stately bed, and a table prepared before it, whereupon thou hast set mine incense and mine oil.

42 And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men of the common sort were brought Sa-bē'anş from the wilderness, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

43 Then said I unto her that was old in adulteries, Will they now commit whoredoms with her, and she with them?

44 Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot: so went they in unto A-hō'lah and unto A-hŏl'ī-bah, the lewd women.

45 ¶ And the righteous men, they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

46 For thus saith the Lord God; I will bring up a company upon them, and will give them to be removed and spoiled.

47 And the company shall stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; [o]they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.

48 Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out

f. The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the prancing horses, and of the jumping chariots. (Nah. 3:2.) At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, and at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers shall not look back to their children for feebleness of hands. (Jer. 47:3.)

g. And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let us fall now into the hand of the Lord; for his mercies are great: and let me not fall into the hand of man. (II Sam. 24:14.)

h. And I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down thine eminent place, and shall break down thy high places: they shall strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take thy fair jewels, and leave thee naked and bare. (Ez. 16:39.)

i. And they shall burn thine houses with fire, and execute judgments upon thee in the sight of many women: and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and thou also shalt give no hire any more. (Ez. 16:41.) And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots. (Mic. 5:10.)

j. And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. (Ez. 6:9.)

k. Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup. (Ps. 11:6.) For in the hand of the Lord there is a cup, and the wine is red; it is full of mixture; and he poureth out of the same: but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them. (Ps. 75:8.) For thus saith the Lord God of Israel unto me; Take the wine-cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it. (Jer. 25:15.)

l. Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without number. (Jer. 2:32.) A voice was heard upon the high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel: for they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten the Lord their God. (Jer. 3:21.) This is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the Lord; because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood. (Jer. 13:25.)

m. But hast done evil above all that were before thee: for thou hast gone and made thee other gods, and molten images, to provoke me to anger, and hast cast me behind thy back. (I Ks. 14:9.) Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee; and they wrought great provocation. (Neh. 9:26.)

n. And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window. (II Ks. 9:30.) And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou rentest thy face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; thy lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life. (Jer. 4:30.)

o. Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or him that stooped for age; he gave them all into his hand. (II Chr. 36:17.)

of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness.

49 And they shall [p]recompense your lewdness upon you, and ye shall bear the sins of your idols: and ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

CHAPTER 24.

1 Under the parable of a boiling pot, 6 is shewed the irrevocable destruction of Jerusalem.

1 [1]Again in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Băb'-y-lon set himself against Je-ru'sa-lĕm this same day.

3 And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Set on a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it:

4 Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take the choice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them seethe the bones of it therein.

6 ¶ Wherefore thus saith the Lord God; Woe to [a]the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; let no lot fall upon it.

7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock; [b]she poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust;

8 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; [c]I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.

9 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; [d]Woe to the [2]bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great.

10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burned.

12 She hath wearied herself with lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire.

13 In thy filthiness [3]is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee.

14 I the Lord have spoken it: it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, [e]neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ [4]Also the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

16 Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down.

17 Forbear to cry, [f]make no mourning for the dead, [g]bind the tire of thine head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy lips, and eat not the bread of men.

18 So I spake unto the people in the morning: and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded.

19 ¶ And the people said unto me, Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so?

20 Then I answered them, The word of the Lord came unto me, saying, 21 Speak unto the house of Ĭs'ra-el, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, [h]I will [5]profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, [i]the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pitieth; and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword.

22 And ye shall do as I have done: ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.

23 And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ye shall not mourn nor weep; but ye shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one toward another.

24 Thus E-zĕ'kĭ-ĕl is unto you a sign: according to all that he hath done shall ye do: and when this cometh, ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Also, thou son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their minds, their sons and their daughters, 26 That he that escapeth in that day shall come unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with thine ears?

CHAPTER 25.

God's vengeance, for their insolency against the Jews, upon the Ammonites, Moab, Seir, Edom, and upon the Philistines.

1 [1]The word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face against [a]the Ăm'-mŏn-ītes, and prophesy against them;

3 And say unto the Ăm'mŏn-ītes, Hear the

Ch. 24. B. C. 590.

1. In this ch. is the prophet's vision of the boiling caldron and of the death of his own wife.

2. Jerusalem.

3. Thy determined, deliberate wickedness.

4. In vs. 15-27 is recorded the account of the death of Ez.'s wife and its prophetic lesson. History fails to record a more pathetic page than these few brief words of the personal history of this holy man of God, when he was commanded to weep not over the death of his wife.

5. That is, what the wife was to the prophet the sanctuary was to Jehovah. It perhaps should also be observed as to the sacredness of the prophet's home in this comparison.

Ch. 25. B. C. 590.

1. Beginning with this ch. and extending to the 32nd inclusive, Ez. begins a series of prophecies against the enemies of the chosen people, interweaving them with compassion and hope for the Israelites. Seven heathen nations come under his condemnation, viz., Ammon, Edom, Tyre, Moab, Zidon, Philistia, and Egypt. Why Babylon was not considered is, perhaps, because the prophet regarded that nation, at this time, as acting as God's minister of judgment against other nations. Nebuchadrezzar was king.

p. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. (Ecc. 12:14.) And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. (Rev. 22:12.) Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend. (I Cor. 8:13.) For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people. (Heb. 10:30.)

a. Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord God; The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, that her time may come, and maketh idols against herself to defile herself. (Ez. 22:3.)

b. And whatsoever man there be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, which hunteth and catcheth any beast or fowl that may be eaten; he shall even pour out the blood thereof, and cover it with dust. (Lev. 17:13.) Only ye shall not eat the blood: ye shall pour it upon the earth as water. (Dt. 12:16.)

c. For mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes. (Jer. 16:17.) For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. (Mat. 7:2.)

d. Woe to the bloody city! it is all full of lies and robbery, the prey departeth not. (Nah. 3:1.) Woe to him that buildeth a town with blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity! (Hab. 2:12.)

e. Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God; Surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee; neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity. (Ez. 5:11.)

f. For thus saith the Lord, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the Lord, even loving-kindness and mercies. (Jer. 16:5.)

g. And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons, Uncover not your heads, neither rend your clothes, lest ye die, and lest wrath come upon all the people: but let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the Lord hath kindled. (Lev. 10:6.)

h. And thou, even thyself, shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in the land which thou knowest not: for ye have kindled a fire in mine anger, which shall burn for ever. (Jer. 17:4.)

i. One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to enquire in his temple. (Ps. 27:4.)

j. And I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them a reprover: for they are a rebellious house. (Ez. 3:26.) In that day will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the Lord. (Ez. 29:21.)

Chapter 25.

a. Appoint a way, that the sword may come to Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defenced (20). And thou, son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord God concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; even say thou, The sword, the sword is drawn: for the slaughter it is furbished, to consume because of the glittering. (Ez. 21:20, 28.) And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God; Because thou saidst, Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Is'ra-el, when it was desolate; and against the house of Jū'dah, when they went into captivity;

4 Behold, therefore I will deliver thee to the men of the east for a possession, and they shall set their [2]palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shall eat thy fruit, and they shall drink thy milk.

5 And I will make Răb'bah a stable for camels, and the Ăm'mŏn-ītes a couching place for flocks: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

6 For thus saith the Lord God; Because thou hast clapped thine [b]hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced in [c]heart with all thy [3]despite against the land of Is'ra-el;

7 Behold, therefore I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and will deliver thee for a spoil to the heathen; and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries: I will destroy thee; and thou shalt know that I am the Lord.

8 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; Because that Mō'ab and Sē'ĭr do say, Behold, the house of Jū'dah is like unto all the heathen;

9 Therefore, behold, I will open the side of Mō'ab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Bĕth-jĕsh'ĭ-mŏth, Bā'al-mē'on, and Kĭr-ĭ-a-thā'-im,

10 Unto the men of the east with the Ăm'-mŏn-ītes, and will give them in possession, that the Ăm'mŏn-ītes may not be remembered among the nations.

11 And I will execute judgments upon Mō'-ab; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

12 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; Because [d]that Ē'dom hath dealt against the house of Jū'dah by taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended, and revenged himself upon them;

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; I will also stretch out mine hand upon Ē'dom, and will cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Tē'man; and they of Dē'dan shall fall by the sword.

14 And [e]I will lay my vengeance upon Ē'dom by the hand of my people Is'ra-el: and they shall do in Ē'dom according to mine anger and according to my fury; and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; Because [f]the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy it for the old hatred;

16 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will stretch out mine hand upon the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes, and I will cut off the Chĕr'ĕth-ĭms, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast.

17 And I will execute great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes; and they shall [g]know that [4]I am the Lord, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them.

2. Encampments.

3. Contempt.

4. That is, the Philistines are not being punished by the true God as Israel is and for the same purpose, i. e., to bring them to a true knowledge of Jehovah. They shall know me, not in mercy, but by my vengeance on them. "The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands." (Ps. 9:16.)

CHAPTER 26.

1 Tyrus, for insulting against Jerusalem, is threatened. 7 The mourning and astonishment of the sea at her fall.

1 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, [a]because that [1]Tȳ'rus hath said against Je-rū'sa-lĕm, Aha, she is broken that was the [2]gates of the people: she is [b]turned unto me: I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste:

3 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against thee, O Tȳ'rus, and will cause many nations to come up against thee, as the sea causeth his waves to come up.

4 And they shall destroy the walls of Tȳ'rus, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock.

5 It shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God: and it shall become a spoil to the nations.

6 And her [3]daughters which are in the field shall be slain by the sword; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

7 ¶ For thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will bring upon Tȳ'rus Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ȳ-lon, a [c]king [4]of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people.

8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field: and he shall make a fort against thee, and cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee.

9 And he shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers.

10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.

11 With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets: he shall slay thy people by the sword, and thy strong garrisons shall go down to the ground.

12 And they shall make a spoil of thy riches, and make a prey of thy [d]merchandise: and they shall break down thy walls, and destroy thy to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah. (Jer. 27:3.)

b. Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place. (Job 27:23.) All that pass by clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth? (Lam. 2:15.)

c. I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border (8). This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the Lord of hosts. (Zeph. 2:8, 10.) But thou shouldest not have looked on the day of thy brother in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress. (Ob. 12.)

d. For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away captives. (II Chr. 28:17.) Remember, O Lord, the children of Edom in the day of Jerusalem; who said, Rase it, rase it, even to the foundation thereof. (Ps. 137:7.)

e. But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west; they shall spoil them of the east together: they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall obey them. (Is. 11:14.)

f. Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head. (Joel 3:4.) Thus saith the Lord; For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof, because they carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Edom. (Amos 1:6.)

Chapter 26.

a. The burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them. (Is. 23:1.) Because of the day that cometh to spoil all the Philistines, and to cut off from Tyrus and Zidon every helper that remaineth; for the Lord will spoil the Philistines, the remnant of the country of Caphtor. (Jer. 47:4.) Thus saith the Lord; for three transgressions of Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not the brotherly covenant. (Amos 1:9.)

b. Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head; Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things: The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold unto the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border. (Joel 3:4-6.)

c. Artaxerxes, king of kings, unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, and at such a time. (Ezra 7:12.) Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory. (Dan. 2:37.)

d. Who hath taken his counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, pleasant houses: and they shall lay thy stones and thy timber and thy dust in the midst of the water.

13 And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease; and the sound of thy harps shall be no more heard.

14 And I will make thee like the top of a rock: thou shalt be a place to spread nets upon; thou shalt be built no more: for I the Lord [c]have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God to Tȳ'rus; Shall not the isles [f]shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee?

16 Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their broidered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and [g]shall tremble at every moment, and be astonished at thee.

17 And they shall take up a [h]lamentation for thee, and say to thee, How [i]art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited of seafaring men, the renowned city, which wast strong [j]in the sea, she and her inhabitants, which cause their terror to be on all that haunt it!

18 Now shall the isles [k]tremble in the day of thy fall; yea, the isles that are in the sea shall be troubled at thy departure.

19 For thus saith the Lord God; When I shall make thee a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep upon thee, and great waters shall cover thee;

20 [5]When I shall bring thee down with them that descend into the pit, with the people of old time, and shall set thee in the low parts of the earth, in places desolate of old, with them that go down to the pit, that thou be not inhabited; and I [k]shall set glory in the land of the living;

21 I will make thee a terror, and thou shalt be no more: though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou never be found again, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER 27.

The great and unrecoverable fall of Tyrus.

1 [1]The word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

2 Now, thou son of man, [a]take up a lamentation for Tȳ'rus;

3 And say unto Tȳ'rus, O thou that art situate at the entry of the sea, which art a merchant of the people for many isles, Thus saith the Lord God; O Tȳ'rus, thou hast said, I am of perfect beauty.

4 Thy borders are in the midst of the seas, thy builders have perfected thy beauty.

5 They have made all thy ship boards of fir trees of Sē'nĭr: they have taken cedars from Lĕb'a-non to make masts for thee.

6 Of the oaks of Bā'shăn have they made thine oars; the company of the Ash ŭr-ītes have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of the isles of Chīt'tim.

7 Fine linen with broidered work from Ē'gȳpt was that which thou spreadest forth to be thy sail; blue and purple from the isles of E-lī'shah was that which covered thee.

8 The inhabitants of Zī'don and Ăr'văd were thy mariners: thy wise men, O Tȳ'rus, that were in thee, were thy pilots.

9 The ancients of [2]Gē'bal and the wise men thereof were in thee thy calkers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in thee to occupy thy merchandise.

10 They of [3]Pēr'ṣiȧ and of Lŭd and of Phŭt were in thine army, thy men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness.

11 The men of Ăr'văd with thine army were upon thy walls round about, and the [4]Găm'-ma-dims were in thy towers: they hanged their shields upon thy walls round about; they have made thy beauty perfect.

12 [5]Tär'shish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs.

13 [6]Jā'văn, Tu'bal, and Mē'shech, they were thy merchants: they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass in thy market.

14 They of the house of [7]To-gär'mah traded in thy fairs with horses and horsemen and mules.

15 The men of [8]Dē'dan were thy merchants; many isles were the merchandise of thine hand: they brought thee for a present horns of ivory and ebony.

16 [9]Sȳr'ī-ȧ was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of the wares of thy making: they occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and broidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and agate.

17 Jū'dah, and the land of Īs'ra-el, they were thy merchants: they traded in thy market [b]wheat of Mĭn'nith, and Păn'năg, and honey, and oil, and balm.

18 [10]Da-măs'cus was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Hĕl'bon, and white wool.

19 [11]Dăn also and [11]Jā'văn going to and fro occupied in thy fairs: [12]bright iron, [13]cassia, and calamus, were in thy market.

20 Dē'dan was thy merchant in precious clothes for chariots.

21 [14]A-rā'bĭ-ȧ, and all the princes of Kē'dăr, they occupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and goats: in these were they thy merchants.

22 The merchants of Shē'bȧ and Rā'a-mah, they were thy merchants: they occupied in thy fairs with chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold.

whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honorable of the earth? (8). And her merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the Lord: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the Lord, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing. (Is. 23:8, 18.)

e. For the Lord of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back? (Is. 14:27.)

f. The earth is moved at the noise of their fall; at the cry, the noise thereof was heard in the Red sea. (Jer. 49:21.) I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth. (Ez. 31:16.)

g. Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall banish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall. (Ez. 32:10.)

h. Moreover take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel (1). And fire is gone out of a rod of her branches, which hath devoured her fruit, so that she hath no strong rod to be a sceptre to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation. (Ez. 19:1, 14.) Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, Thou art like a young lion of the nations, and thou art as a whale in the seas; and thou camest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and fouledst their rivers (2). This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord God. (Ez. 32:2, 16.)

i. They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how hath Moab turned the back with shame! so shall Moab be a derision and a dismaying to all them about him. (Jer. 48:39.) How is the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! How is Babylon become a desolation among the nations! (Jer. 50:23.)

b. And he smote them from Aroer, even till thou come to Minnith, even twenty cities, and unto the plain of the vineyards, with a very great slaughter. Thus the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel. (Jud. 11:33.) And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because their country was nourished by the king's country. (Acts 12:20.)

23 Hā'ran, and Căn'neh, and Ē'dĕn, the merchants of Shĕ'bà, Ăs'shur, and Chĭl'măd, were thy merchants.

24 These were thy merchants in all sorts of things, in blue clothes, and broidered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, among thy merchandise.

25 The ships of Tär'shish did sing of thee in thy market: and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the midst of the seas.

26 ¶ Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: the east wind hath broken thee in the midst of the seas.

27 Thy riches, and thy fairs, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the occupiers of thy merchandise, and all thy men of war, that are in thee, and in all thy company which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin.

28 The suburbs shall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots.

29 And [c]all that handle the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land;

30 And shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall [d]cast up dust upon their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes:

31 And they shall make themselves utterly bald for thee, and gird them with sackcloth, and they shall weep for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing.

32 And in their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and lament over thee, saying, What city is like Tȳ'rus, like the destroyed in the midst of the sea?

33 When thy wares went forth out of the seas, thou filledst many people; thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches and of thy merchandise.

34 In the time when thou shalt be broken by the seas in the depths of the waters thy merchandise and all thy company in the midst of thee shall fall.

35 All the inhabitants of the isles shall be astonished at thee, and their kings shall be sore afraid, they shall be troubled in their countenance.

36 The merchants among the people shall hiss at thee; thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt be any more.

CHAPTER 28.

1 God's judgment upon the prince of Tyrus for his sacrilegious pride. 11 A lamentation of his great glory corrupted by sin. 20 The judgment of Zidon. 24 The restoration of Israel.

1 [1]The word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, say unto the prince of [2]Tȳ'rus, Thus saith the Lord God; [a]Because thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a [3]God, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; [b]yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God:

3 Behold, thou art wiser than Dăn'iel; there is no secret that they can hide from thee:

4 With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures:

5 By thy great wisdom and by thy traffick hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up because [c]of thy riches:

6 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God;

7 Behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon thee, [d]the [4]terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness.

8 They shall bring thee down to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.

9 Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no God, in the hand of him that slayeth thee.

10 Thou shalt die the deaths of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

11 ¶ Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

12 Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tȳ'rus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God; Thou [5]sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.

13 Thou hast been in [e]Ē'dĕn the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created.

14 Thou art the anointed [f]cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon [g]the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

15 Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

17 Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast [6]corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I [h]will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.

18 Thou hast [7]defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffick; therefore will I bring forth a

20 ¶ Again the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, set thy face against Zī'don, [i]and prophesy against it,

22 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against thee, O Zī'don; and I will be glorified in the midst of thee: and they [j]shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her.

23 For [k]I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall be judged in the midst of her by the sword upon her on every side; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

24 ¶ And there shall be no more a pricking brier unto the house of Īs'ra-el, nor any grieving thorn of all that are round about them, that despised them; and they shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Thus saith the Lord God; When I shall have [l]gathered the house of Īs'ra-el from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to my servant Jā'cob.

26 And they shall dwell safely therein, and shall build houses, and plant vineyards; yea, they shall dwell with confidence, when I have executed judgments upon all those that despise them round about them; and they shall [j]know that I am the Lord their God.

CHAPTER 29.

1 The judgment of Pharaoh for his treachery to Israel. 8 The desolation of Egypt. 21 Israel shall be restored.

1 [1]In the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face against Phā'raōh king of Ē'ġўpt, and prophesy against him, and [a]against all Ē'ġўpt:

3 Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord God; [b]Behold, I am against thee, Phā'raōh king of Ē'ġўpt, the great [2]dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, [3]and I have made it for myself.

4 But [c]I will put [4]hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales, and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

5 And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: [d]thou shalt fall upon the open fields; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field and to the fowls of the heaven.

6 And all the inhabitants of Ē'ġўpt shall know that I am the Lord, because they have been a [e]staff of reed to the house of Īs'ra-el.

7 When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand.

8 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee.

9 And the land of Ē'ġўpt shall be desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the Lord: because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it.

10 Behold, therefore I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Ē'ġўpt utterly waste and desolate, from the tower of Sў-ē'ne even unto the border of Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-à.

11 No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited [5]forty years.

12 And I will make the land of Ē'ġўpt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years: and I will [6]scatter the E-ġўp'tiaṇs among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

13 ¶ Yet thus saith the Lord God; At the end of [f]forty years will I gather the E-ġўp'tiaṇs from the people whither they were scattered:

14 And I will bring again the captivity of Ē'ġўpt, and will cause them to return into the land of Păth'ros, into the land of their [7]habitation; and they shall be there a base kingdom.

15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.

16 And it shall be no more [g]the confidence of the house of Īs'ra-el, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but they shall [h]know that I am the Lord God.

17 ¶ [8]And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon caused his army to serve a great service against Tў'rus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder [9]was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tў'rus, for the service that he had served against it:

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will give the land of Ē'ġўpt unto Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.

1. The next four chs. (29-33) record the prophecy against Egypt, the last of the great world-powers against which Ez. prophesied.

2. The crocodile

3. The canals of Egypt, which were called rivers.

4. A method sometimes used in catching the crocodile.

5. A prophecy not yet literally fulfilled.

6. Great numbers of the Egyptians were carried away by oriental conquerors and were used as slaves.

7. Birth. (R. V.)

8. Vs. 17-20 contain the latest of Ez.'s prophecies.

9. Rubbed bare. It is claimed that Neb. attempted to fill up the strait between the city and the main land and thus reach the inland city. Hence the great labor imposed upon the people is the occasion of peeled shoulders.

i. Be thou ashamed, O Zidon; for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins (4). And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon: arise, pass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest. (Is. 23:4, 12.)

j. The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah. (Ps. 9:16.) And the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I stretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them. (Ex. 7:5.)

l. And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. (Is. 11:12.) Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel. (Hos. 1:11.)

Chapter 29.

a. The burden of Egypt. Behold, the Lord rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it. (Is. 19:1.)

b. Thus saith the Lord; Behold, I will give Pharaoh-hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and that sought his life. (Jer. 44:30.)

c. Because thy rage against me and thy tumult is come up into mine ears, therefore I will put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest. (II Ks. 19:28.)

d. And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried; they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth. (Jer. 8:2.)

e. Now, behold, thou trustest upon the staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all that trust on him. (II Ks. 18:21.)

f. In that day shall there be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians. (Is. 19:23.)

g. That walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt! (Is. 30:2.)

h. The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth; the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah. (Ps.

20 I have given him the land of Ē'ġўpt [i]for his labour wherewith he [j]served against it, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord God.

21 ¶ In that day will I cause the horn of the house of Ĭs'ra-el to bud forth, and I will give thee [k]the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER 30.

The desolation of Egypt and her helpers.

1 [1]The word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God; Howl ye, [2]Woe worth the day!

3 For [a]the day is near, even the [3]day of the Lord is near, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the heathen.

4 And the sword shall come upon Ē'ġўpt, and great pain shall be in Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-ą, when the slain shall fall in Ē'ġўpt, and they shall take away her multitude, and [b]her foundations shall be broken down.

5 Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-ą, and Lĭb'ў-ą, and Lўd'ĭ-ą, and all the mingled people, and Chŭb, and the men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

6 Thus saith the Lord; They also that uphold Ē'ġўpt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Sў-ē'ne shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord God.

7 And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted.

8 And they shall know that I am the Lord, when I have set a fire in Ē'ġўpt, and when all her helpers shall be destroyed.

9 In that day [c]shall messengers go forth from me in ships to make the careless Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-ąns afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Ē'ġўpt: for, lo, it cometh.

10 Thus saith the Lord God; [d]I will also make the multitude of Ē'ġўpt to cease by the hand of Nĕb-u-chăd-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon.

11 He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land: and they shall draw their swords against Ē'ġўpt, and fill the land with the slain.

12 And I will make the rivers dry, and sell [e]the land into the hand of the wicked: and I will make the land waste, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I the Lord have spoken it.

13 Thus saith the Lord God; I will also destroy [f]the idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of [4]Nōph; and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Ē'ġўpt: and I will put a fear in the land of Ē'ġўpt.

14 And I will make [5]Păth'ros desolate, and will set fire in Zō'an, and will execute judgments in Nō.

15 And I will pour my fury upon [6]Sĭn, the strength of Ē'ġўpt; and I will cut off the multitude of Nō.

16 And I will set fire in Ē'ġўpt: Sĭn shall have great pain, and Nō shall be rent asunder, and Nōph shall have distresses daily.

17 The young men of [7]Ā'ven and of Pī-bē'-seth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall go into captivity.

18 At Te-hăph'ne-hēs also the day shall be darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Ē'ġўpt: and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.

19 Thus will I execute judgments in Ē'ġўpt: and they shall know that I am the Lord.

20 ¶ And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, I have broken the arm of Phā'raōh king of Ē'ġўpt; and, lo, it shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword.

22 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against Phā'raōh king of Ē'ġўpt, and will [g]break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.

23 And [h]I will scatter the E-ġў'tiąns among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Băb'ў-lon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break Phā'raōh's arms, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man.

25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Băb'ў-lon, and the arms of Phā'raōh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Băb'ў-lon, and he shall stretch it out upon [i]the land of Ē'ġўpt.

26 And I will scatter the E-ġў'tiąns among the nations, and disperse them among the countries; and they shall know [j]that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER 31.

1 The glory of Assyria, 10 and the fall thereof for pride.

1 [1]And it came to pass in the eleventh year, [2]in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

Ch. 30. B. C. 572-588.

1. Ch. 30 is a continuation of the prophecy in ch. 29, directed against Egypt.

2. Woe be the day.

3. The day when Jehovah reckons accounts and metes out rewards or punishments to the nations.

4. Memphis, capital of Middle Egypt.

5. Upper Egypt. Famous for its great buildings and ruins.

6. The frontier fortress on the northeast, called the key of Egypt, situated at the opposite end of the country from Thebes.

7. Meaning vanity or iniquity, applied to Heliopion in allusion to its idolatry.

Ch. 31. B. C. 588.

1. In ch. 31 the overthrow of Egypt is predicted through illustration of Assyria, there being a difference in the extent only; Assyria was to cease to exist, while Egypt was to lose its prominence as a world-empire.

2. About June, 586 B. C., or two months before the fall of Jerusalem.

9:16.) And the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I stretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them. (Ex. 7:5.)

i. And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I the Lord, which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel. (Is. 45:3.)

j. Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the Lord, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations. (Jer. 25:9.)

k. Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. (Amos 3:7.) In that day shall thy mouth be opened to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb: and thou shalt be a sign unto them; and they shall know that I am the Lord. (Ez. 24:27.)

Chapter 30.

a. The morning is come unto thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: the time is come, the day of trouble is near, and not the sounding again of the mountains. (Ez. 7:7.) Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the Lord cometh, for it is nigh at hand. (Joel 2:1.)

b. Shout against her round about: she hath given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down; for it is the vengeance of the Lord: take vengeance upon her; as she hath done, do unto her. (Jer. 50:15.)

c. Woe to the land shadowing with wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia: That sendeth ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of bulrushes upon the waters, saying, Go, ye swift messengers, to a nation scattered and peeled, to a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden down, whose land the rivers have spoiled! (Is. 18:1, 2.)

d. Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. (Ez. 29:19.)

e. And the Egyptians will I give over into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the Lord, the Lord of hosts. (Is. 19:4.)

f. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered; and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land. (Zech. 13:2.) Thou shalt have none other gods before me. (Dt. 5:7.)

g. For the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the Lord upholdeth the righteous. (Ps. 37:17.)

h. And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years: and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. (Ez. 29:12.)

i. Thus saith the Lord; Behold, I will give Pharaoh-hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and that sought his life. (Jer. 44:30.)

j. The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah. (Ps. 9:16.) And the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I

2 Son of man, speak unto Phā'raōh king of Ē'gўpt, and to his multitude; Whom art thou like in thy greatness?

3 ¶ Behold, the Ăs-sўr'ĭ-an was a cedar in Lĕb'a-non [a]with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 The waters made him great, the deep set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long because of the multitude of waters, when he shot forth.

6 All the [b]fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the [c]garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chestnut trees were not like his branches; nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Ē'dĕn, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

10 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and [d]his heart is lifted up in his height;

11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness.

12 And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

13 [e]Upon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches:

14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord God; In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused Lĕb'a-non to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 I made the nations to [f]shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Ē'dĕn, the choice and best of Lĕb'a-non, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

17 They also went down into hell with him unto them that be slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that [g]dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen.

18 ¶ To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Ē'dĕn? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Ē'dĕn unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword. This [h]is [3]Phā'raōh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER 32.

A lamentation for the fearful fall of Egypt.

1 [1]And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, take up a lamentation for Phā'raōh king of Ē'gўpt, and say unto him, [a]Thou art like a young lion of the nations, and thou art as a [b]whale in the seas: and thou camest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and fouledst their rivers.

3 Thus saith the Lord God; I will therefore spread out my net over thee with a company of many people; and they shall bring thee up in my net.

4 Then [c]will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

5 And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6 I will also water with thy blood the [2]land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee.

7 And when I shall put thee out, [d]I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof [3]dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8 All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord God.

9 I will also vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.

10 Yea, I will make many people amazed

3. The king was so great that the mention of his name would cause fear and trembling; yet, like all the other scorners of Jehovah's people, he was to be cast into the pit.

Ch. 32. B. C. 587.

1. This ch. contains two elegies over the great Pharaoh, delivered the first and 15th days of the month respectively. Jerusalem had been overthrown and the revolt was begun against Pharaoh. It was in the 12th year from the carrying away of Jehoiachin.

2. Though the rivers are to continue full to the banks, it shall be a flood.

3. Black, because extinguished.

stretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them. (Ex. 7:5.)

Chapter 31.

a. Specially the day that thou stoodest before the Lord thy God in Horeb, when the Lord said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children. (Dt. 4:10.)

b. In the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it; and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of the branches thereof shall they dwell. (Ez. 17:23.) The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it. (Dan. 4:12.)

c. The priests said not, Where is the Lord? and they that handle the law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit. (Jer. 2:8.) This evil people, which refused to hear my words, which walk in the imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing. (Jer. 13:10.)

d. But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him. (Dan. 5:20.)

e. They shall be left together unto the fowls of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth: and the fowls shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them. (Is. 18:6.)

f. Thus saith the Lord God to Tyrus; Shall not the isles shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee? (Ez. 26:15.)

g. The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the Lord, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen. (Lam. 4:20.)

h. Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness. (Ps. 52:7.)

Chapter 32.

a. And she brought up one of her whelps: it became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men (3). And he went up and down among the lions, he became a young lion, and learned to catch the prey, and devoured men. (Ez. 19:3, 6.)

b. In that day the Lord with his sore and great and strong sword shall punish leviathan the piercing serpent, even leviathan that crooked serpent; and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea. (Is. 27:1.)

c. And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the open fields; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field and to the fowls of the heaven. (Ez. 29:5.)

d. For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine. (Is. 13:10.) The sun shall be

[c]at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and [f]they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

11 ¶ For thus saith the Lord God; The sword of the king of Băb'ў-lon shall come upon thee.

12 By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, the terrible of the nations, all of them: and they shall spoil the pomp of Ē'ġўpt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.

13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

14 Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord God.

15 When I shall make the land of Ē'ġўpt desolate, and the country shall be destitute of that whereof it was full, when I smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know [g]that I am the Lord.

16 This is the [h]lamentation wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for her, even for Ē'ġўpt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord God.

17 ¶ It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, wail for the multitude of Ē'ġўpt, and [i]cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.

19 Whom dost thou pass in beauty? [j]go down, and be thou laid with the uncircumcised.

20 They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword: draw her and all her multitudes.

21 The strong [k]among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell with them that help him: they are gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword.

22 Ăs'shur is there and all her company: his graves are about him: all of them slain, fallen by the sword:

23 Whose graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is round about her grave: all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which caused terror in the land of the living.

24 There is Ē'lăm and all her multitude round about her grave, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, which caused their terror in the land of the living; yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit.

25 They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slain.

26 There is Mē'shech, Tū'bal, and all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living.

27 And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are gone down to hell with their weapons of war: and they have laid their swords under their heads, but their iniquities shall be upon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.

28 Yea, thou shalt be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain with the sword.

29 There is Ē'dom, her kings, and all her princes, which with their might are laid by them that were slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with them that go down to the pit.

30 There [k]be the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Zī-dō'nĭ-anş, which are gone down with the slain; with their terror they are ashamed of their might; and they lie uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword, and bear their shame with them that go down to the pit.

31 Phā'raōh shall see them, and shall be [l]comforted over all his multitude, even Phā'raōh and all his army slain by the sword, saith the Lord God.

32 For I have caused my terror in the land of the living: and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that are slain with the sword, even Phā'raōh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER 33.

7 Ezekiel is admonished of his duty. 10 God sheweth the justice of his ways towards the penitent, and towards revolters.

1 [1]Again the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak to [a]the children of thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their watchman:

3 If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people;

4 Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, [b]his blood shall be upon his own head.

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

4. The strong, mighty ones. The prophet here refers to Is. 14:9. "Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations."

5. That is, there shall be other kingdoms as his companions in the downfall.

Ch. 33. B. C. 587.

1. Beginning with this ch., there is a change in the tone of Ez.'s prophecies; heretofore they have been of a threatening nature, but henceforth they are to be conciliatory. Retributive justice has reached its limit in the overthrow, and hope now begins to dawn. Vs. 1-6 give the duties of a prophet.

turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the Lord come. (Joel 2:31.)

e. All the inhabitants of the isles shall be astonished at thee, and their kings shall be sore afraid, they shall be troubled in their countenance. (Ez. 27:35.)

f. Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their broidered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble at every moment, and be astonished at thee. (Ez. 26:16.)

g. The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah. (Ps. 9:16.) And the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I stretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them. (Ex. 7:5.)

h. And David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son. (II Sam. 1:17.) And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah; and all the singing men and the singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the Lamentations. (II Chr. 35:25.)

i. When I shall bring thee down with them that descend into the pit, with the people of old time, and shall set thee in the low parts of the earth, in places desolate of old, with them that go down to the pit, that thou be not inhabited; and I shall set glory in the land of the living. (Ez. 26:20.)

j. But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. (Ez. 20:8.) Thus saith the Lord God; Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy it for the old hatred. (Ez. 25:15.)

k. Gomer, and all his bands; the house of Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands; and many people with thee (6). And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army. (Ez. 38:6, 15.)

Chapter 33.

a. And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them; and tell them, Thus saith the Lord God, Whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear. (Ez. 3:11.) And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, Wilt thou not show us what thou meanest by these? (Ez. 37:18.)

b. Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be upon him. (Ez. 18:13.)

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, [c]and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

7 ¶ [2]So [d]thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Ĭs'ra-el; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.

8 When I say unto the wicked, [e]O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he [f]do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Ĭs'ra-el; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, how should we then live?

11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, [g]I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for [h]why will ye die, O house of Ĭs'ra-el?

12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The [i]righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, [j]he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right;

15 If the wicked [k]restore the pledge, give again that he had robbed, walk in the [l]statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.

16 None [m]of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

17 ¶ Yet the children of thy people say, The way [3]of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal.

2. Vs. 7-20 lay down the principles of God's moral government.

3. That is, the Lord's way of doing things in his moral government.

4. A year and a half after the capture of the city. Some think as the words for 11 and 12 are so nearly alike, that the manuscript really read, "11th year," although the messenger may have been a year and a half on the way, being compelled to travel slowly and secretly because of the enemy. Plumptre suggests that the one who escaped was Baruch, the assistant prophet to Jeremiah.

5. In vs. 23-29 the news of the complete destruction of the holy city has utterly paralyzed and confounded the captives.

6. In vs. 30-33 profound reverence and attention now are seen to be given to Ez. because of the startling fulfillment of his last prophecy.

18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and [n]committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.

19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.

20 ¶ Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. O ye house of Ĭs'ra-el, I will judge you every one after his ways.

21 ¶ [4]And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Je-ru'sa-lĕm came unto me, saying, The city is smitten.

22 Now the hand of the Lord was upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came; and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

23 [5]Then the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Ĭs'ra-el speak, saying, Ā'brā-hăm [o]was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.

25 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Ye eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the land?

26 Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbour's wife: and shall ye possess the land?

27 Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and him that is in the open field [p]will I give to the beasts to be devoured, and they that be in the forts and in the caves shall die of the pestilence.

28 For [q]I will lay the land most desolate, and the pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mountains of Ĭs'ra-el shall be desolate, that none shall pass through.

29 Then shall they know that I am the Lord, when I have laid the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed.

30 ¶ [6]Also, thou son of man, the children of thy people still are talking against thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak [r]one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the Lord.

31 And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do

c. His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. (Is. 56:10.)

d. Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. (Ez. 3:17.) I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved. (Hab. 2:1.)

e. Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him; for the reward of his hands shall be given him. (Is. 3:11.)

f. And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. (Luke 12:47.)

g. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. (II Pet. 3:9.)

h. Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel? (Ez. 18:31.)

i. Again, When a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand. (Ez. 3:20.)

j. If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. (II Chr. 7:14.)

k. And hath not oppressed any, but hath restored to the debtor his pledge, hath spoiled none by violence, hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment. (Ez. 18:7.)

l. Ye shall therefore keep my statutes, and my judgments; which if a man do, he shall live in them: I am the Lord. (Lev. 18:5.) Therefore shall ye keep my commandments, and do them: I am the Lord. (Lev. 22:31.) My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments. (Prov. 3:1.)

m. All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live. (Ez. 18:22.) Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. (Is. 1:18.) I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins. (Is. 43:25.)

n. Again, When a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die; because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand. (Ez. 3:20.) But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? All his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die. (Ez. 18:24.)

o. Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you: for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him. (Is. 51:2.) And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child. (Acts 7:5.)

p. Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy hands, and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured. (Ez. 39:4.)

q. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein. (Jer. 44:2.)

r. Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honor me, but have re-them: for with their mouth they shew much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness.

32 And, lo, thou art unto them as a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do them not.

33 And when this cometh to pass, (lo, it will come,) then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

CHAPTER 34.

1 A reproof of the shepherds. 7 God's judgment against them. 11 God's providence for his flock. 20 The kingdom of Christ.

1 [1]And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Ĭs'ra-el, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God unto the shepherds; [a]Woe be to the shepherds of Ĭs'ra-el that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks?

3 Ye [b]eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

4 [c]The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought [d]that which was lost; but with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them.

5 And they were scattered, because there is no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered.

6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them.

7 ¶ Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the Lord;

8 As I live, saith the Lord God, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock;

9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the Lord;

10 Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and [e]I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

11 ¶ [2]For thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out.

12 As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.

13 And [f]I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Ĭs'ra-el by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

14 I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Ĭs'ra-el shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Ĭs'ra-el.

15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord God.

16 [g]I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment.

17 [3]And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord God; [h]Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the he goats.

18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet?

19 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.

20 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God unto them; Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle.

21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad;

22 Therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between cattle and cattle.

23 [4]And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, [i]even my servant Dā'vid; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

24 And I the Lord will be their God, and my servant Dā'vid a prince among them; I the Lord have spoken it.

25 And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they [j]shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.

26 And I will make them and the places round about [k]my hill a blessing; and I will

Ch. 34. B. C. 587.

1. In this ch. the prophet deals out severe reproofs against the false shepherds who have sought to appease and comfort the people, rather than persuade them to cease from their evil ways and turn to Jehovah; the promise of the true shepherd is also made.

2. In vs. 11-16 we are told that Jehovah himself is the good shepherd, and that he will keep, protect and care for his own and bring them all back to their home land, save those who have fatted themselves on their brother's calamities, whom he will feed in judgment.

3. In vs. 17-22 it is declared the good shepherd will not allow the crowd of rams and he-goats (priests and prophets) to feed mercilessly on the weak people.

4. In vs. 23-31 is repeated the promise of the Messiah.

---

moved their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men. (Is. 29:13.)

Chapter 34.

a. Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the Lord. (Jer. 23:1.)

b. Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain, from his quarter. (Is. 56:11.)

c. For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shall not visit those that be cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor feed that that standeth still: but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces. (Zech. 11:16.) And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient. (II Tim. 2:24.)

d. What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? (Luke 15:4.)

e. When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand. (Ez. 3:18.) Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you. (Heb. 13:17.)

f. And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains: and mine elect shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there. And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for my people that have sought me. (Is. 65:9, 10.) And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase. (Jer. 23:3.)

g. For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost. (Mat. 18:11.)

h. Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I punished the goats; for the Lord of hosts hath visited his flock the house of Judah, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle. (Zech. 10:3.) And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as the shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats. (Mat. 25:32.)

i. But they shall serve the Lord their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them. (Jer. 30:9.) Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the Lord their God, and David their king; and shall fear the Lord and his goodness in the latter days. (Hos. 3:5.)

j. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. (Jer. 23:5.)

k. Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all people. (Is. 56:7.)

cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be [l]showers of blessing.

27 And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the Lord, when I have [m]broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that [n]served themselves of them.

28 And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.

29 And I will raise up for them a plant of renown, and they shall be no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear the shame of the heathen any more.

30 Thus shall they [o]know that I the Lord their God am with them, and that they, even the house of Is'ra-el, are my people, saith the Lord God.

31 And ye my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER 35.

The judgment of mount Seir for their hatred of Israel.

1 [1]Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face against mount Sē'ĭr, and [a]prophesy against it,

3 And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, O mount Sē'ĭr, I am against thee, and [2]I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee most desolate.

4 I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am the Lord.

5 Because thou hast had a perpetual hatred, and hast shed the blood of the children of Is'ra-el by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, [b]in the time that their [3]iniquity had an end:

6 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: [c]sith thou hast not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee.

7 Thus will I make mount Sē'ĭr most desolate, and cut off from it him that passeth out and him that returneth.

8 And I will fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword.

9 [d]I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return: and ye shall know [e]that I am the Lord.

10 Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; [f]whereas the Lord was there:

Ch. 35. B. C. 587.

1. In this ch. is pronounced the judgment on Edom; the beginning of the humiliation and downfall of those who have been preying on Israel.

2. That is, Idumea. (Is. 36:9)—"And these are the generations of Esau, the father of the Edomites in mount Seir." Thus Edom, the very center of the bitterest enmity of the chosen people, is the ideal place of judgment upon those who are enemies of God's people.

3. That is, their iniquity reached its consummation when it exulted over Jerusalem's downfall and assisted the enemy to destroy it. (Ps. 137: 7)—"Remember, O Lord, the children of Edom in the day of Jerusalem, who said, Rase it, rase it, even to the foundation thereof."

Ch. 36. B. C. 587.

1. In ch. 36, Israel had been avenged of her foes, then restored both to inward holiness and outward prosperity.

2. The land of Israel.

11 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, I will even do [g]according to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself known [h]among them, when I have judged thee.

12 And [i]thou shalt know that I am the Lord, and that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Is'ra-el, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to consume.

13 Thus with your mouth ye have boasted against me, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard them.

14 Thus saith the Lord God; [j]When the whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate.

15 As thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Is'ra-el, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Sē'ĭr, and all I-dū-mē'ā, even all of it: and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER 36.

The land of Israel is comforted, both by destruction of the heathen, 8 and by the promised blessings of God.

1 [1]Also, thou son of man, prophesy unto the mountains [2]of Is'ra-el, and say, Ye mountains of Is'ra-el, hear the word of the Lord:

2 Thus saith the Lord God; Because [a]the enemy hath said against you, Aha, even the ancient high places are our's in possession:

3 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God; Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and [a]ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people:

4 Therefore, ye mountains of Is'ra-el, hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and derision to the residue of the heathen that are round about;

5 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all I-dū-mē'ā, which have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey.

6 Prophesy therefore concerning the land of Is'ra-el, and say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have [b]borne the shame of the heathen:

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; I have

l. Thou, O God, didst send a plentiful rain, whereby thou didst confirm thine inheritance, when it was weary. (Ps. 68:9.) Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. (Mal. 3:10.)

m. For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill and under every green tree thou wanderest, playing the harlot. (Jer. 2:20.)

n. For many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of them also: and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands. (Jer. 25:14.)

o. For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed; for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. (II Tim. 1:12.)

Chapter 35.

a. Concerning Edom, thus saith the Lord of hosts; Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished? (Jer. 49:7.)

b. Remember, O Lord, the children of Edom in the day of Jerusalem; who said, Rase it, rase it, even to the foundation thereof. (Ps. 137:7.) Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people, and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy. (Dan. 9:24.)

c. As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him; as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him. (Ps. 109:17.)

d. Also Edom shall be a desolation: every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof. (Jer. 49:17.)

e. The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah. (Ps. 9:16.) And the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I stretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them. (Ex. 7:5.)

f. Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness (1). God is known in her palaces for a refuge. (Ps. 48:1, 3.)

g. Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. (Mat. 7:1, 2.)

h. With my soul have I desired thee in the night: yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness. (Is. 26:9.)

i. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed. (Is. 65:13.)

Chapter 36.

a. And thou shalt become an astonishment, a proverb, and a by-word, among all nations whither the Lord shall lead thee. (Dt. 28:37.)

b. Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us: for we are [c]lifted up mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame.

8 ¶ But ye, O mountains of Ĭs'ra-el, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Ĭs'ra-el; for they are at hand to come.

9 For, behold, I am for you, and [d]I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown:

10 And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Ĭs'ra-el, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded:

11 And I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit: and I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Ĭs'ra-el; and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth bereave them of men.

13 Thus saith the Lord God; Because they say unto you, [e]Thou land devourest up men, and hast bereaved thy nations;

14 Therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord God.

15 Neither will I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord God.

16 ¶ [3]Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, when the house of Ĭs'ra-el dwelt in their own land, [f]they defiled it by their own way and by their doings: their way was before me as [g]the uncleanness of a removed woman.

18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them [h]for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols wherewith they had polluted it:

19 And I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them.

20 And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they [i]profaned my holy name, when they said to them, These are the people of the Lord, and are gone forth out of his land.

21 ¶ But I had pity [j]for mine holy name, which the house of Ĭs'ra-el had profaned among the heathen, whither they went.

22 Therefore say unto the house of Ĭs'ra-el, Thus saith the Lord God; I do not this for your sakes, O house of Ĭs'ra-el, [k]but for mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.

23 And I will [4]sanctify [l]my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, saith the Lord God, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes.

24 For [m]I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.

25 ¶ Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

26 A [5]new [n]heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.

27 And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them.

28 And [o]ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

29 I will also [p]save you from all your uncleannesses: and I will call for the corn, and will increase it, and lay no famine upon you.

30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen.

31 Then [q]shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations.

3. In vs. 16-24 is a recapitulation of the uncleanness of Israel and her efforts at excusing herself rather than repenting and purifying herself, all the time claiming allegiance to Jehovah, yet honoring idols. (Ez. 14:7.)

4. Vindicate and manifest as holy.

5. Mind and will.

exceedingly filled with contempt. Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud. (Ps. 123:3, 4.)

c. And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; In the day when I chose Israel and lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, I am the Lord your God. (Ez. 20:5.)

d. And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith the Lord, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth; And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jezreel. And I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God. (Hos. 2:21-23.)

e. And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and all the people that we saw in it are men of a great stature. (Num. 13:32.)

f. And the land is defiled: therefore I do visit the iniquity thereof upon it, and the land itself vomiteth out her inhabitants. (Lev. 18:25.)

g. And if a woman having an issue, and her issue in her flesh be blood, she shall be put apart seven days; and whosoever toucheth her shall be unclean until the even. (Lev. 15:19.)

h. Thus saith the Lord God; Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them (36). And I will judge thee, as women that break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will give thee blood in fury and jealousy. (Ez. 16:36, 38.)

i. Now therefore, what have I here, saith the Lord, that my people is taken away for nought? They that rule over them make them to howl, saith the Lord; and my name continually every day is blasphemed. (Is. 52:5.) For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written. (Rom. 2:24.)

j. But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt. (Ez. 20:9.)

k. Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thine heart, dost thou go to possess their land; but for the wickedness of these nations the Lord thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which the Lord sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. (Dt. 9:5.) Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power to be known. (Ps. 106:8.)

l. I will accept you with your sweet savor, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen. (Ez. 20:41.) But the Lord of hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and God, that is holy, shall be sanctified in righteousness. (Is. 5:16.) But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear. (I Pet. 3:15.)

m. And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country. (Ez. 34:13.) Fear not; for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west; I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth. (Is. 43:5, 6.)

n. And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them. (Jer. 32:39.) Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. (Ps. 51:10.) Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God (3). Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. (Jno. 3:3, 5.) Therefore, if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. (II Cor. 5:17.)

o. Thus saith the Lord God; When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to my servant Jacob. (Ez. 28:25.)

p. And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS; for he shall save his people from their sins. (Mat. 1:21.) According to their uncleanness, and according to their transgressions, have I done unto them, and hid my face from them. (Ez. 39:24.) For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed: for the Lord dwelleth in Zion. (Joel 3:21.)

q. And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. (Ez. 6:9.) And there shall ye remember your ways, and all your doings, 32 Not [r]for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord God, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Ĭs'ra-el.

33 Thus saith the Lord God; In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities I will [s]also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded.

34 And the [t]desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by.

35 And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of [u]Ē'dĕn; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited.

36 Then the heathen that are left round about you shall [v]know that I the Lord build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: I the Lord have spoken it, and I will do it.

37 Thus saith the Lord God; [w]I will yet for this be enquired of by the house of Ĭs'ra-el, to do it for them; I will increase them with men like a flock.

38 As the holy flock, as the flock of Je-rụ'-sa-lĕm in her solemn feasts; so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men: and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER 37.

1 By the resurrection of dry bones, 11 the dead hope of Israel is revived. 20 The promises of Christ's kingdom.

1 [1]The hand of the Lord was upon me, and carried me out [a]in the spirit of the Lord, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones,

2 And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord God, thou knowest.

4 Again he said unto me, [b]Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the Lord.

5 Thus saith the Lord God unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live:

6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.

Ch. 37. B. C. 587.

1. In ch. 37 is recorded one of the most wonderful visions of the Old Testament. The people were possessed with the gloom of hopeless despair. For 150 years Israel had been withering under the power of Assyrian bondage. At this time appears the vision of the dead and dry bones. The prophet, inspired with prophetic impulse from heaven, cried unto the bones before him, "O bones, hear the word of the Lord," when a mysterious noise as of a groaning earthquake seemed to rend the air, and the prophet was confronted with the terrifying sight of seeing the dislocated dry bones each rushing toward its fellow until they all came together and were covered with flesh and became again the organs of life, thus symbolizing the death and resurrection of Israel.

9 Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord God; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

11 ¶ Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Ĭs'ra-el: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.

12 Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Ĭs'ra-el.

13 And ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, 14 And shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the Lord have spoken it, and performed it, saith the Lord.

15 ¶ The word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

16 Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Jū'dah, and for [c]the children of Ĭs'ra-el his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Jō'şeph, the stick of Ē'phrā-ĭm, and for all the house of Ĭs'ra-el his companions:

17 And join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand.

18 ¶ And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, [d]Wilt thou not shew us what thou meanest by these?

19 Say [e]unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will take the stick of Jō'şeph, which is in the hand of Ē'phrā-ĭm, and the tribes of Ĭs'ra-el his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Jū'dah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand.

20 ¶ And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand before their eyes.

21 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will take the children of Ĭs'-ra-el from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land:

22 And [f]I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Ĭs'ra-el; and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all:

23 Neither [g]shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable wherein ye have been defiled; and ye shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that ye have committed. (Ez. 20:43.)

r. Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thine heart, dost thou go to possess their land; but for the wickedness of these nations the Lord thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which the Lord sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. (Dt. 9:5.)

s. Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called; and whom he called, them he also justified; and whom he justified, them he also glorified. What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? (Rom. 8:30-32.)

t. Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the Lord, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations. (Jer. 25:9.)

u. For the Lord shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the Lord; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody. (Is. 51:3.)

v. So that a man shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: verily he is a God that judgeth in the earth. (Ps. 58:11.) And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God: for they shall wisely consider of his doing. (Ps. 64:9.)

w. I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth: I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain: I the Lord speak righteousness, I declare things that are right (19). Thus saith the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands demand ye me. (Is. 45:19, 11.)

Chapter 37.

a. So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the Lord was strong upon me. (Ez. 3:14.) And Jesus, being full of the Holy Ghost, returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness. (Luke 4:1.)

b. So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. (Is. 55:11.) So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. (Rom. 10:17.)

c. And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the Lord his God was with him. (II Chr. 15:9.)

d. Son of man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said unto thee, What doest thou? (Ez. 12:9.) And the people said unto me, Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so? (Ez. 24:19.)

e. And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them again to place them; for I have mercy upon them; and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the Lord their God, and will hear them. (Zech. 10:6.)

f. The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim. (Is. 11:13.) In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers. (Jer. 3:18.)

g. Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their dwelling-places, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God.

24 And [h]Dā'vid my servant shall be king over them; and [i]they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them.

25 And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jā'cob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they, and their children, and their children's children for ever: and [j]my servant Dā'vid shall be their prince for ever.

26 Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in [k]the midst of them for evermore.

27 My tabernacle also shall be with them: yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

28 And the heathen shall know that I the Lord do sanctify Is'ra-el, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore.

CHAPTER 38.

1 The army of Gog. 14 God's judgment against him.

1 [1]And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face against Gŏg, the land of Mā'gŏg, the chief prince of Mē'shech and Tu'bal, and prophesy against him,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against thee, O Gŏg, the chief prince of Mē'shech and Tu'bal:

4 And I will turn thee back, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords:

5 Pēr'sĭa, Ē-thī-ō'pī-a, and Lĭb'y-a with them; all of them with shield and helmet:

6 Gō'mer, and all his bands; the house of To-gär'mah of the north quarters, and all his bands: and many people with thee.

7 Be thou [a]prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them.

8 ¶ After many [b]days thou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Is'ra-el, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell safely all of them.

9 Thou shalt ascend and come [c]like a storm, thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou, and all thy bands, and many people with thee.

Ch. 38. B. C. 587.

1. "Ch. 38 contains the most difficult prophecy in the Old Testament, difficult because we know not the king nor the people intended by it." (Adam Clark.)

Again Clark claims that Gog was a hidden name for the Americans, and Meshech and Tubal for Turks or Christians, although he receives but little support from other Biblical scholars. Dr. Cornill says, "No other ch. in Ez. is so shrouded in mystery." Many Heb. authorities claim Cyges, King of Lydia, was the original king of Gog, and that Magog, called "Land of Gog," was Lydia. Only one thing is certain and agreed upon by Biblical students regarding this prophecy, viz., it has not been and cannot be fulfilled literally, but must be considered spiritually.

10 Thus saith the Lord God; It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt think an evil thought:

11 And thou shalt say, [d]I will go up to the land of unwalled villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates,

12 To take a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn thine hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the midst of the land.

13 Shē'bà, and Dē'dan, and the merchants of Tär'shish, with all [e]the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?

14 ¶ Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gŏg, Thus saith the Lord God; In that day when my people of Is'ra-el dwelleth safely, shalt thou not know it?

15 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army:

16 And thou shalt come up against my people of Is'ra-el, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, [f]that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gŏg, before their eyes.

17 Thus saith the Lord God; Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Is'ra-el, which prophesied in those days many years that I would bring thee against them?

18 And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gŏg shall come against the land of Is'ra-el, saith the Lord God, that my fury shall come up in my face.

19 For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely [g]in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Is'ra-el;

20 So that [h]the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.

21 And I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord God: every man's [i]sword shall be against his brother.

22 And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. (Ez. 36:25.)

h. He shall feed his flock like a shepherd; he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young. (Is. 40:11.) Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. (Jer. 23:5.)

i. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice. (Jno. 10:16.)

j. Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him. (Jno. 12:4.)

k. Now therefore, O Lord God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel; yet so that thy children take heed to their way to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me. (II Chr. 6:16.)

Chapter 38.

a. Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces. (Is. 8:9.)

b. When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come upon thee, even in the latter days, if thou turn to the Lord thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice. (Dt. 4:30.)

c. Behold, the Lord hath a mighty and strong one, which as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand. (Is. 28:2.)

d. Arise, get you up unto the wealthy nation, that dwelleth without care, saith the Lord, which have neither gates nor bars, which dwell alone. (Jer. 49:31.)

e. And she brought up one of her whelps: it became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men (3). Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelps, and made him a young lion. (Ez. 19:3, 5.)

f. And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, that he shall follow after them; and I will be honored upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host; that the Egyptians may know that I am the Lord. And they did so. (Ex. 14:4.)

g. For thus saith the Lord of hosts; Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land; And I will shake all nations, and the Desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the Lord of hosts. (Hag. 2:6, 7.)

h. Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away. (Hos. 4:3.)

i. And the three hundred blew the trumpets, and the Lord set every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the host: and the that are with him, an overflowing rain, and [j]great hailstones, fire, and brimstone.

23 Thus will I magnify myself, and sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they [k]shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER 39.

1 God's judgment upon Gog. 8 Israel's victory.

1 [1]Therefore, thou son of man, prophesy against Gŏg, and say, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against thee, O Gŏg, the chief prince of Mē'shech and Tu'bal:

2 And I will turn thee back, and leave but the sixth part of thee, and will cause thee to come up from the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Is'ra-el:

3 And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.

4 Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Is'ra-el, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: [a]I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured.

5 Thou shalt fall upon the open field: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

6 And I will send a fire on Mā'gŏg, and among them that dwell carelessly in the isles: and they shall know that I am the Lord.

7 So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Is'ra-el; and I will not let them [b]pollute my holy name any more: and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the Holy One in Is'ra-el.

8 ¶ Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord God; this is the day whereof [c]I have spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Is'ra-el shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the handstaves, and the spears, and they shall burn them with fire seven years:

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: [d]and they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord God.

11 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gŏg a place there of graves in Is'ra-el, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gŏg and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley of Hā'mon-gŏg.

12 And seven months shall the house of Is'ra-el be burying of them, that they may cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown the day that I shall be glorified, saith the Lord God.

14 And they shall sever out men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hā'mon-gŏg.

16 And also the name of the city shall be [2]Ha-mō'nah. Thus shall they cleanse the land.

17 And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God; Speak [e]unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble [f]yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Is'ra-el, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.

18 [g]Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them [h]fatlings of Bā'shăn.

19 And ye shall eat [3]fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

20 [4]Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord God.

21 And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and [i]my hand that I have laid upon them.

22 So the house of Is'ra-el shall know that I am the Lord their [5]God from that day and forward.

23 ¶ And the heathen shall know that the house of Is'ra-el went into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against me, therefore hid I my face from them, and [j]gave them into the hand of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword.

24 According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and hid my face from them.

25 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; [k]Now will I bring again the captivity of Jā'cob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Is'ra-el, and will be jealous for my holy name;

26 After that they have borne their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid.

27 When [l]I have brought them again from

l. Thus saith the Lord God; When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations;

28 Then shall they know that I am the Lord their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.

29 Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have [6]poured out my spirit upon the house of Is'ra-el, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER 40.

The time, manner, and end of the vision.

1 [1]In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the [2]beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that [a]the city was smitten, in the selfsame day the hand of the Lord was upon me, and brought me thither.

2 In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Is'ra-el, [b]and set me upon a very [3]high mountain, by which was as the frame of a city on the south.

3 And he brought me thither, and, behold, there was a [4]man, whose appearance was like [c]the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate.

4 And the man said unto me, Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the extent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither: [d]declare all that thou seest to the house of Is'ra-el.

5 And behold a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and an hand breadth: so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.

6 ¶ Then came he unto the gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

7 And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

12 The space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side: and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door.

14 He made also [e]posts of threescore cubits, even unto the post of the [f]court round about the gate.

15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate were fifty cubits.

16 And there were narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches: and windows were round about inward: and upon each post were palm trees.

17 [5]Then brought he me into [g]the outward court, and, lo, there were chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: [h]thirty chambers were upon the pavement.

18 And the pavement by the side of the gates over against the length of the gates was the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 ¶ And the gate of the outward court that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

21 And the little chambers thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

22 And their windows, and their arches, and their palm trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them.

23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits.

24 ¶ After that he brought me toward the south, and behold a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures.

25 And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.

27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits.

28 [6]And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures;

29 And [i]the little chambers thereof, and the

Chapter 40.

a. And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten. (Ez. 33:21.)

b. And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God. (Rev. 21:10.)

e. Wisdom hath builded her house, she hath hewn out her seven pillars. (Prov. 9:1.) Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God; and I will write upon him my new name. (Rev. 3:12.)

f. Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple. (Ps. 65:4.) My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God. (Ps. 84:2.)

g. But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months. (Rev. 11:2.)

h. And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for twenty chambers. (Ez. 45:5.)

i. Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlors thereof, and of the place of the mercyseat. And the pattern of all that he had by the Spirit, of the courts of the house of the Lord, and of all the chambers round about, of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries of the dedicated things. (I Chr. 28:11, 12.) Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

30 And the arches round about were five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad.

31 And the arches thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps.

32 ¶ And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

35 ¶ And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures;

36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

38 And the chambers and the entries thereof were by the posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt offering.

40 And at the side without, as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt offering, of a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt offering and the sacrifice.

43 And within were hooks, an hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 ¶ And without the inner gate were the chambers of [l]the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south: one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north.

45 And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, [m]the keepers of the charge of the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of Zā'dōk among the sons of Lē'vī, which [n]come near to the Lord to minister unto him.

47 So he measured the court, an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar that was before the house.

48 ¶ And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.

49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

CHAPTER 41.

The parts, chambers, and ornaments of the temple.

1 [1]Afterward he brought me to the [a]temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits: and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door, two cubits; and the door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits.

4 So [b]he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, be-

And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. (II Cor. 6:16.) In whom all the building, fitly framed together, groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord. (Eph. 2:21.) Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God; and I will write upon him my new name. (Rev. 3:12.)

b. And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar. (I Ks. 6:10.) And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I fore the temple: and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side.

6 And [c]the side chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side chambers round about, that they might have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7 And there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

8 I saw also the height of the house round about: [d]the foundations of the side chambers were a full reed of six great cubits.

9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side chamber without, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side chambers that were within.

10 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

11 And the doors of the side chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

12 [2]Now the building that was before the separate place at the end toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long;

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the [e]galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court;

16 [3]The door posts, and the [f]narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the door, cieled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered;

17 To that above the door, even unto the inner house, and without, and by all the wall round about within and without, by measure.

18 [4]And it was made with [g]cherubim and palm trees, so that a palm tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and every cherub had [h]two faces;

2. In vs. 12-15 the "separate place" described.

3. In vs. 16-26 the exact measurements are given of the interior of the temple. The ornaments are also described, which are like those in Solomon's temple.

4. Vs. 18-22 is a description of the carving upon the wainscoting.

Ch. 42. B. C. 574.

1. In this ch. is given a description of the chambers of the priests and the measurements of the temple.

2. That is, the building became narrower as it rose in height.

19 So that [i]the face of a man was toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side: it was made through all the house round about.

20 From the ground unto above the door were cherubim and palm trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

21 The posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

22 The [j]altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the table that is before the Lord.

23 And the [k]temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

24 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without.

26 And there were [f]narrow windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the side chambers of the house, and thick planks.

CHAPTER 42.

1 The chambers for the priests. 13 The use thereof.

1 [1]Then he brought me forth into the [a]utter court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits.

3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the utter court, was gallery against gallery in three stories.

4 And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors toward the north.

5 Now the upper chambers were [2]shorter: for the galleries were higher than these, than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

7 And the wall that was without over against the chambers, toward the utter court on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

8 For the length of the chambers that were heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. (Rev. 21:2, 3.)

c. And against the wall of the house he built chambers round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the oracle: and he made chambers round about. The nethermost chamber was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for without in the wall of the house he made narrowed rests round about, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house. (I Ks. 6:5, 6.)

d. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste. (Is. 28:16.) And behold a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and an hand-breadth: so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed. (Ez. 40:5.)

e. Thus saith the Lord of hosts; If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee places to walk among these that stand by. (Zech. 3:7.)

f. And there were narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches; and windows were round about inward: and upon each post were palm trees. (Ez. 40:16.)

g. And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, within and without. (I Ks. 6:29.)

h. And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle. (Ez. 10:14.)

i. As for the likeness of their faces, they four had the face of a man, and the face of a lion on the right side; and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle. (Ez. 1:10.)

j. The tabernacle of the congregation, and the ark of the testimony, and the mercyseat that is thereupon, and all the furniture of the tabernacle. (Ex. 31:7.)

k. And for the entering of the oracle he made doors of olive tree: the lintel and side posts were a fifth part of the wall. The two doors also were of olive tree; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubim, and upon the palm trees. (I Ks. 6:31, 32.)

Chapter 42.

a. But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months. (Rev. 11:2.)

in the utter court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits.

9 And from under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goeth into them from the utter court.

10 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 ¶ Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that [b]approach unto the Lord [c]shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the [d]meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy.

14 When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the utter court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

15 Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about.

16 He measured the east side with the measuring reed, [3]five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

17 He measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

18 He measured the south side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed.

19 ¶ He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.

20 He measured it by the four sides: [e]it had a wall round about, five hundred reeds long, and five [f]hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

CHAPTER 43.

1 The returning of the glory of God into the temple. 7 The sin of Israel hindered God's presence. 10 The prophet exhorteth Israel to repentance, and observation of the law of the house. 13 The measures, 18 and the ordinances of the altar.

3. A square of more than one and one-seventh miles, greater than all of ancient Jerusalem.

Ch. 43. B. C. 574.

1. In this ch. is given an account of Jehovah's return to the temple, everything being now ready.

2. In vs. 6-9 the prophet is addressed by someone from within, while the man with the measuring rod stands by his side.

3. Vs. 10-12 indicate that there is not only a deep symbolical meaning attached to this vision but that it would be understood by those for whom it was intended.

1 [1]Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east:

2 And, [a]behold, the glory of the God of Īs'ra-el came from the way of the east: and his voice was like a noise of many waters: and the earth shined with his glory.

3 And it was [b]according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came [c]to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chē'bär; and I fell upon my face.

4 And the glory of the Lord came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east.

5 So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, the glory of the Lord filled the house.

6 [2]And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house; and the man stood by me.

7 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and [d]the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Īs'ra-el for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Īs'ra-el [e]no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places.

8 In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

9 Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcases of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

10 ¶ [3]Thou son of man, shew the house to the house of Īs'ra-el, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the pattern.

11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, [f]shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

12 This is the law of the house; Upon the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

13 ¶ And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits: The cubit is a cubit and an hand breadth; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a span: and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground

b. And the priests the sons of Levi shall come near; (for them the Lord thy God hath chosen to minister unto him, and to bless in the name of the Lord; and by their word shall every controversy and every stroke be tried). (Dt. 21:5.)

c. And the remainder thereof shall Aaron and his sons eat: with unleavened bread shall it be eaten in the holy place; in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eat it. (Lev. 6:16.) And it shall be Aaron's and his sons'; and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy unto him of the offerings of the Lord made by fire by a perpetual statute. (Lev. 24:9.)

d. And the remnant of the meat offering shall be Aaron's and his sons': it is the thing most holy of the offerings of the Lord made by fire. (Lev. 2:3.)

e. And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a winepress therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes. (Is. 5:2.) In that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a strong city; salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks. (Is. 26:1.)

f. Of this there shall be for the sanctuary five hundred in length, and five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the suburbs thereof. (Ez. 45:2.)

Chapter 43.

a. And the cherubim lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also were beside them; and every one stood at the door of the east gate of the Lord's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. (Ez. 10:19.) And the glory of the Lord went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city. (Ez. 11:23.)

b. And I looked, and behold, a whirlwind came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the color of amber, out of the midst of the fire. (Ez. 1:4.)

c. See, I have this day set thee over the nations, and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant. (Jer. 1:10.)

d. Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren, and my people: As for me, I had in mine heart to build an house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and for the footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building. (I Chr. 28:2.) Exalt ye the Lord our God, and worship at his footstool; for he is holy. (Ps. 99:5.) And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God. (Ex. 29:45.) Why leap ye, ye high hills? this is the hill which God desireth to dwell in; yea, the Lord will dwell in it for ever. (Ps. 68:16.)

e. So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them pollute my holy name any more: and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the Holy One in Israel. (Ez. 39:7.) Ephraim shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? I have heard him, and observed him: I am like a green fir tree. From me is thy fruit found. (Hos. 14:8.)

f. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have com-even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

15 So the altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar and upward shall be four horns.

16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and his stairs shall look toward the east.

18 ¶ [4]And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord God; These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to [g]sprinkle blood thereon.

19 And thou shalt give to the priests the Lē'vītes that be of the seed of Zā'dōk, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord God, [h]a young bullock for a sin offering.

20 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it.

21 Thou shalt take the bullock also of the sin offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, without the sanctuary.

22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.

23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.

24 And thou shalt offer them before the Lord, and the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering unto the Lord.

25 [i]Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin offering: they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.

26 Seven days shall they purge the altar and purify it; and they shall consecrate themselves.

27 And when these days are expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings upon the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will [j]accept you, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER 44.

1 The east gate assigned only to the prince.
9 Idolaters uncapable of the priest's office.
17 Ordinances for the priests.

4. In vs. 18-27 is given the consecration of the altar.

Ch. 44. B. C. 574.

1. The east gate of the temple has now been closed because the glory of Jehovah had entered into the house through it and it was therefore to be closed because too sacred to be used by others. In this ch. are given the ordinances for the priests.

2. In vs. 4, 5, the prophet again sees the glory of Jehovah in the inner temple, and is told that every detail of the temple ritual is symbolical.

1 [1]Then he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary which looketh toward the east; and it was shut.

2 Then said the Lord unto me; This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the Lord, the God of Īs'ra-el, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

3 It is for the prince; the prince, he shall sit in it to [a]eat bread before the Lord; he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

4 ¶ [2]Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and, behold, the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord: [b]and I fell upon my face.

5 And the Lord said unto me, [c]Son of man, mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the Lord, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary.

6 And thou shalt say to the [d]rebellious, even to the house of Īs'ra-el, Thus saith the Lord God; O ye house of Īs'ra-el, let it suffice you of all your abominations,

7 In that ye have brought into my sanctuary strangers, uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer [e]my bread, [f]the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant because of all your abominations.

8 And ye have not kept the charge of mine holy things: but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

9 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; [g]No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Īs'ra-el.

10 And [h]the Lē'vītes that are gone away far from me, when Īs'ra-el went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity.

11 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them.

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the house of Īs'ra-el to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord God, and they shall bear their iniquity.

13 And they shall not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place: but they shall [i]bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed.

14 But I will make them keepers of the manded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen. (Mat. 28:20.)

g. And he shall kill the bullock before the Lord: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall bring the blood, and sprinkle the blood round about upon the altar that is by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. (Lev. 1:5.)

h. And thou shalt cause a bullock to be brought before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the bullock. (Ex. 29:10.)

i. And thus shalt thou do unto Aaron, and to his sons, according to all things which I have commanded thee: seven days shalt thou consecrate them. (Ex. 29:35.)

j. Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. (Rom. 5:1.) To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved. (Eph. 1:6.)

Chapter 44.

a. Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar? (I Cor. 10:18.) Then Jacob offered sacrifice upon the mount, and called his brethren to eat bread: and they did eat bread, and tarried all night in the mount. (Gen. 31:54.)

b. As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the Lord. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake. (Ez. 1:28.)

c. And the man said unto me, Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall show thee; for to the intent that I might show them unto thee art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel. (Ez. 40:4.)

d. And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among them. (Ez. 2:5.)

e. They shall be holy unto their God, and not profane the name of their God: for the offerings of the Lord made by fire, and the bread of their God, they do offer: therefore they shall be holy. (Lev. 21:6.)

f. And the priest shall burn them upon the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire for a sweet savor. All the fat is the Lord's. (Lev. 3:16.) For the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul. (Lev. 17:11.)

g. But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth? (Ps. 50:16.) Thy testimonies are very sure: holiness becometh thine house, O Lord, for ever. (Ps. 93:5.) So shall ye know that I am the Lord your God dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her any more. (Joel 3:17.)

h. And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burnt incense, from Geba to Beersheba, and brake down the high places of the gates that were in the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city. (II Ks. 23:8.)

i. There be the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Zi-charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

15 ¶ But [j]the priests the Lē'vītes, the sons of [2]Zā'dōk, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Īs'ra-el went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord God:

16 They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister unto me, and they shall [k]keep my charge.

17 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with [4]linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, whiles they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within.

18 They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat.

19 And when they go forth into the utter court, even into the utter court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall not sanctify the people with their garments.

20 Neither shall they [5]shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads.

21 [l]Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they enter into the inner court.

22 Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her that is put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Īs'ra-el, or a widow that had a priest before.

23 And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.

24 And in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep my [m]laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; [n]and they shall hallow my sabbaths.

25 And they shall come at no [6]dead person to defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves.

26 And after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him seven days.

27 And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, unto the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, saith the Lord God.

28 And it shall be unto them for an inheritance: I [o]am their inheritance: and ye shall give them no possession in Īs'ra-el: I am their possession.

3. The priests of the line of Ithamar, who were to be discharged from ministrations in the temple because of their corruptions.

4. Symbolical of purity.

5. Worshipers of the Egyptian idols Serapis and Isis shave their heads, therefore Jehovah's priests must not do so.

6. The priest is forbidden to touch the dead or to enter the room where the corpse lay, for by so doing he would become ritually defiled and unfit for duty. (Num. 19:14)—"This is the law when a man dieth in a tent; all that come into the tent and all that is in the tent shall be unclean seven days."

Ch. 45. B. C. 574.

1. In this ch. is given the account of the allotment of the land for the sanctuary and the princes, also directions as to what the temple ministers should eat.

29 They shall eat the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every dedicated thing in Īs'ra-el shall be their's.

30 And the first of all the firstfruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priest's: ye shall also give unto the priest the first of your dough, [p]that he may cause the blessing to rest in thine house.

31 The priests shall not eat of any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast.

CHAPTER 45.

1 The portion of land for the sanctuary, 6 for the city, 7 and for the prince. 9 Ordinances for the prince.

1 [1]Moreover, when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall [a]offer an oblation unto the Lord, an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

2 Of this there shall be for the sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the suburbs thereof.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place.

4 The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the Lord: and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary.

5 And [b]the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Lē'vītes, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for [c]twenty chambers.

6 ¶ And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Īs'ra-el.

7 ¶ And a portion shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward: and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border.

8 In the land shall be his possession in Īs'ra-el: and my princes shall no more oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Īs'ra-el according to their tribes.

donians, which are gone down with the slain; with their terror they are ashamed of their might; and they lie uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword, and bear their shame with them that go down to the pit. (Ez. 32:30.)

j. And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of Zadok among the sons of Levi, which come near to the Lord to minister unto him. (Ez. 40:46.)

k. Therefore shall ye abide at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night seven days, and keep the charge of the Lord, that ye die not: for so I am commanded. (Lev. 8:35.) For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the Lord of hosts. (Mal. 2:7.)

l. Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations. (Lev. 10:9.)

m. Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. (I Tim. 4:12.) But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. (I Tim. 6:11.) Therefore shall ye keep my commandments, and do them: I am the Lord. (Lev. 22:31.) My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments. (Prov. 3:1.) Thou shalt keep therefore his statutes, and his commandments, which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with they children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, for ever. (Dt. 4:40.)

n. Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they showed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. (Ez. 22:26.)

o. And the Lord spake unto Aaron, Thou shall have no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any part among them: I am thy part and thine inheritance among the children of Israel. (Num. 18:20.)

p. Honor the Lord with thy substance, and with the first-fruits of all thine increase. (Prov. 3:9.) Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. (Mal. 3:10.)

Chapter 45.

a. And by the border of Judah, from the east side unto the west side, shall be the offering which ye shall offer of five and twenty thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the other parts, from the east side unto the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in the midst of it. (Ez. 48:8.)

b. And over against the border of the priests the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand. (Ez. 48:13.)

c. Then brought he me into the outward court, and, lo, there were chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: thirty chambers were upon the pavement. (Ez. 40:17.)

9 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; Let it suffice you, O princes of Is'ra-el: [d]remove violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away your exactions from my people, saith the Lord God.

10 Ye shall have just [e]balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.

11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of an homer, and the ephah the tenth part of an homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer.

12 [2]And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your maneh.

13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer; the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of barley:

14 Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, ye shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is an homer of ten baths; for ten baths are an homer:

15 And one lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Is'ra-el; for a meat offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make [f]reconciliation for them, saith the Lord God.

16 All the people of the land shall give this oblation for the prince in Is'ra-el.

17 And it shall be the prince's part to give burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and drink offerings, in the feasts, and in the new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all solemnities of the house of Is'ra-el: he shall [g]prepare the sin offering, and the meat offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Is'ra-el.

18 Thus saith the Lord God; In the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and [h]cleanse the sanctuary:

19 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the settle of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court.

20 And so thou shalt do the seventh day of the month [i]for every one that erreth, and for him that is simple: so shall ye reconcile the house.

21 In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten.

22 And upon that day shall the [j]prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land [k]a bullock for a sin offering.

23 And [l]seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the Lord, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a kid of the goats daily for a sin offering.

24 And he shall prepare a meat offering of an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and an hin of oil for an ephah.

25 In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, shall he do the like in the [m]feast of the seven days, according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meat offering, and according to the oil.

2. When the Chaldeans destroyed the temple, the standard weights were lost.

Ch. 46. B. C. 574.

1. In ch. 46 is a continuation of the ordinances for public worship.

2. It is here observed that the offerings on the Sabbath are to be larger than those of the week days, to imply that the worship of Jehovah is now to be of a more munificent and sacrificing spirit than formerly.

CHAPTER 46.

1 Ordinances for the prince in his worship, 9 and for the people. 19 The courts for boiling and baking.

1 [1]Thus saith the Lord God; The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the [a]sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened.

2 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.

3 Likewise [b]the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the Lord in the sabbaths and in the new moons.

4 And the [c]burnt offering that the prince shall offer unto the Lord in the sabbath day shall be six [2]lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish.

5 And the meat offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and the meat offering for the lambs as he shall be able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

6 And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish.

7 And he shall prepare a meat offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs according as his hand shall attain unto, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

8 And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof.

9 ¶ But when the people of the land [d]shall come before the Lord in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against it.

10 And the prince in the midst of them,

---

d. Thus saith the Lord; Execute ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place. (Jer. 22:3.)

e. Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in mete-yard, in weight, or in measure. (Lev. 19:35.) A false balance is abomination to the Lord: but a just weight is his delight. (Prov. 11:1.)

f. And he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering; and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him. (Lev. 1:4.) Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. (Tit. 2:14.)

g. For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. (II Cor. 5:21.) Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree. (Gal. 3:13.)

h. And Aaron shall offer his bullock of the sin offering which is for himself, and make an atonement for himself, and for his house. (Lev. 16:6.)

i. And if any one of the common people sin through ignorance, while he doeth somewhat against any of the commandments of the Lord concerning things which ought not to be done, and be guilty. (Lev. 4:27.)

j. Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. (Mat. 20:28.) Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. (I Pet. 2:24.) For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit. (I Pet. 3:18.)

k. When the sin, which they have sinned against it, is known, then the congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sin, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation. (Lev. 4:14.)

l. But ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the Lord seven days: in the seventh day is an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein. (Lev. 23:8.)

m. And on the fifteenth day of the seventh month ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work, and ye shall keep a feast unto the Lord seven days. (Num. 29:12.) Thou shalt observe the feast of tabernacles seven days, after that thou hast gathered in thy corn and thy wine. (Dt. 16:13.)

Chapter 46.

a. There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God. For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. (Heb. 4:9, 10.)

b. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name. (Ps. 100:4.) And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense. (Luke 1:10.)

c. And a tenth part of an ephah of flour for a meat offering, mingled with a fourth part of an hin of beaten oil (5). And on the sabbath day two lambs of the first year without spot, and two-tenth deals of flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, and a drink offering thereof. (Num. 28:5, 9.)

d. Three times thou shalt keep a feast unto me in the year (14). Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the Lord God. (Ex. 23:14, 17.) Three times in a year shall all thy males appear before the Lord thy God in the place which he shall choose; in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles: and they shall not appear before the Lord empty. (Dt. 16:16.)

when they go in, shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth.

11 And in the feasts and in the solemnities the meat offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

12 Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary [c]burnt offering or peace offerings voluntarily unto the Lord, one shall then open him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he did on the sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

13 Thou [f]shalt daily prepare a burnt offering unto the Lord of a lamb of the first year without blemish: thou shalt prepare it [g]every morning.

14 And thou shalt prepare a meat offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of an hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a meat offering continually by a perpetual ordinance unto the Lord.

15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meat offering, and the oil, every morning for a continual burnt offering.

16 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons'; it shall be their possession by inheritance.

17 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to the [h]year of liberty; after it shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them.

18 Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession: that my people be not scattered every man from his possession.

19 ¶ [3]After he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the two sides westward.

20 Then said he unto me, This is the place where the priests shall [i]boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, where they shall [j]bake the meat offering; that they bear them not out into the utter court, to sanctify the people.

21 Then he brought me forth into the utter court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court.

3. Vs. 19-24 give a description of kitchens of the priests.

22 In the four corners of the court there were courts joined of forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four corners were of one measure.

23 And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling places under the rows round about.

24 Then said he unto me, These are the places of them that boil, where the ministers of the house shall [k]boil the sacrifice of the people.

CHAPTER 47.

1 The vision of the holy waters. 6 The virtue of them.

Ch. 47. B. C. 574.

1. In this ch. is the vision of the holy waters flowing from underneath the temple with powers to convert the desert into a paradise and to sweeten the water of the Dead Sea, symbolizing the power of the religion of Jehovah in its redeeming work. These waters finally enter the deep depression in the Jordan valley, and everywhere along the bank of the river is manifested the power of the water, as there the leaves never wither and the trees bear fruit monthly. Thus typifying that the blessings of God are no longer restricted to one people and one locality, but henceforth are to be for all people in all lands.

2. Symbolizing that man's blessings flow from the sanctuary of God.

1 [1]Afterward he brought me again unto the door of the house; and, behold, [a]waters issued out from under the threshold [2]of the house eastward: for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar.

2 Then brought he me out of the way of the gate northward, and led me about the way without unto the utter gate by the way that looketh eastward; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

3 And when [b]the man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the waters were to the ancles.

4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins.

5 Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

6 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river.

7 Now when I had returned, behold, at the bank of the river were very many trees [c]on the one side and on the other.

8 Then said he unto me, These waters issue out toward the east country, and go down into the desert, and go into the sea: which being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed.

9 And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the rivers shall come, shall live: and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the river cometh.

c. Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. (Mat. 20:28.) I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. (Gal. 2:20.) Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. (Tit. 2:14.)

f. Now this is that which thou shalt offer upon the altar; two lambs of the first year day by day continually. (Ex. 29:38.) And thou shalt say unto them, This is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the Lord; two lambs of the first year without spot, day by day, for a continual burnt offering. (Num. 28:3.)

g. To show forth thy loving-kindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness every night. (Ps. 92:2.) Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice. (Ps. 55:17.) That he would grant unto us, that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, might serve him without fear, In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life. (Luke 1:74, 75.)

h. And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubilee unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family. (Lev. 25:10.)

i. And they roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance: but the other holy offerings sod they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them speedily among all the people. (II Chr. 35:13.)

j. And if thou bring an oblation of a meat offering baken in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil. And if thy oblation be a meat offering baken in a pan, it shall be of fine flour unleavened, mingled with oil (4, 5). And if thy oblation be a meat offering baken in the frying-pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil. (Lev. 2:4, 5, 7.)

k. I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. (Rom. 12:1.) That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost. (Rom. 15:16.) But to do good and to communicate forget not; for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. (Heb. 13:16.)

a. There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High. (Ps. 46:4.) And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters, and a fountain shall come forth of the house of the Lord, and shall water the valley of Shittim. (Joel 3:18.) In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness. (Zech. 13:1.) And it shall be in that day, that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be. (Zech. 14:8.) And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. (Rev. 22:1.)

b. And he brought me thither, and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate. (Ez. 40:3.) I lifted up mine eyes again, and looked, and, behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand. (Zech. 2:1.) And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein. (Rev. 11:1.)

c. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. (Ps. 1:3.) The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like the cedar in Lebanon.

10 And it shall come to pass, that [d]the fishers shall stand upon it from Ĕn-gē'dī even unto Ĕn-eg'la-ĭm; they shall be a place to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many.

11 But the miry places thereof and the marishes thereof shall not be healed; they shall be given to salt.

12 And by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, [e]whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for [f]medicine.

13 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; This shall be the border, whereby ye shall inherit the land according to the twelve tribes of Ĭs'ra-el: [g]Jō'seph shall have two portions.

14 And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another: concerning the which I [h]lifted up mine hand to give it unto your fathers: and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance.

15 [3]And this shall be the border of the land toward the north side, from the great sea, the way of Hĕth'lŏn, as men go to Zē'dăd;

16 [4]Hā'math, Be-rō'thah, Sĭb'ra-ĭm, which is between the border of Da-măs'cus and the border of Hā'math; Hā'zar-hat'tĭ-cŏn, which is by the coast of Hau'ran.

17 And the border from the sea shall be Hā'zar-ē'nan, the border of Da-măs'cus, and the north northward, and the border of Hā'math. And this is the north side.

18 And the east side ye shall measure from Hau'ran, and from Da-măs'cus, and from Gĭl'e-ăd, and from the land of Ĭs'ra-el by Jor'dan, from the border unto the east sea. And this is the east side.

19 And the south side southward, from Tā'mar even to the waters of strife in Kā'desh, the river to the great sea. And this is the south side southward.

20 The west side also shall be the great sea from the border, till a man come over against Hā'math. This is the west side.

21 So shall ye divide this land unto you according to the tribes of Ĭs'ra-el.

22 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you, and [j]to the strangers that sojourn among you, which shall beget children among you: [k]and they shall be unto you as born in the country among the children of Ĭs'ra-el; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Ĭs'ra-el.

23 And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord God.

3. In the remaining verses of the ch. the prophet traces the boundaries of the newly organized land.

Ch. 48. B. C. 574.

1. In this ch. is given an account of the allotment of the land to several tribes.

2. The tribe of Dan is to have the least honorable at the extreme north, because of its low moral and semi-heathen tendencies so long practiced. For the same reason, in Rev. 7:5-8, St. John omits the mention of the name of Dan.

3. No one of note is mentioned in the Old Testament as coming from this tribe and only one is mentioned in the New Testament—the prophetess Anna.

4. Heretofore the division of the two and a half tribes east of the Jordan and the nine and a half west was produced by the splitting of Manasseh, but in the new arrangement this tribe is to be reunited.

5. For upwards of 400 years, under the Judges, this tribe held a pre-eminence over the others.

6. Because of incest and instability. (Gen. 49:4)—"Unstable as water, thou shalt not excel; because thou wentest up to thy father's bed, then defilest thou it." Hence, distinguished prophet, priest or king never came from this tribe.

CHAPTER 48.

1 The portions of the twelve tribes, 8 of the sanctuary.

1 [1]Now these are the names of the tribes. From the north end to the coast of the way of Hĕth'lŏn, as one goeth to Hā'math, Hā'zar-ē'nan, the border of Da-măs'cus northward, to the coast of Hā'math; for these are his sides east and west; a portion for [2]Dăn.

2 And by the border of Dăn, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Āsh'ēr.

3 And by the border of [3]Āsh'ēr, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Năph'ta-lī.

4 And by the border of Năph'ta-lī, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for [4]Ma-năs'seh.

5 And by the border of Ma-năs'seh, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for [5]Ē'phră-ĭm.

6 And by the border of Ē'phră-ĭm, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for [6]Reu'ben.

7 And by the border of Reu'ben, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Jū'dah.

8 ¶ And by the border of Jū'dah, from the east side unto the west side, shall be the offering which ye shall offer of five and twenty thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the other parts, from the east side unto the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in the midst of it.

9 The oblation that ye shall offer unto the Lord shall be of five and twenty thousand in length, and of ten thousand in breadth.

10 And for them, even for the priests, shall be this holy oblation; toward the north five and twenty thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south five and twenty thousand in length: and the sanctuary of the Lord shall be in the midst thereof.

11 It shall be for the priests that are sanctified of the sons of Zā'dŏk; which have kept my charge, which went not astray when the children of Ĭs'ra-el went astray, as the Lē'vītes went astray.

12 And this oblation of the land that is offered shall be unto them a [a]thing most holy by the border of the Lē'vītes.

13 And over against the border of the priests the Lē'vītes shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand.

14 And [b]they shall not sell of it, neither exchange, nor alienate the firstfruits of the land: for it is holy unto the Lord.

(Fs. 92:12.) Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified. (Is. 60:21.) In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. (Rev. 22:2.)

d. And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men. (Mat. 4:19.) Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind. (Mat. 13:47.)

e. He is green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden. (Job 8:16.) For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit. (Jer. 17:8.)

f. In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. (Rev. 22:2.)

g. And now thy two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, which were born unto thee in the land of Egypt before I came unto thee into Egypt, are mine: as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine. (Gen. 48:5.) Now the sons of Reuben, the first-born of Israel, (for he was the first-born; but, forasmuch as he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel; and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright.) (I Chr. 5:1.)

h. And the Lord appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the Lord, who appeared unto him. (Gen. 12:7.) And said, By myself have I sworn, saith the Lord; for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son; That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies. (Gen. 22:16, 17.)

i. Pass ye unto Calneh, and see; and from thence go ye to Hamath the great; then go down to Gath of the Philistines: be they better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border? (2). But, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the Lord the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of the wilderness. (Amos 6:2, 14.)

j. And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. (Acts 2:5.) That the Gentiles should be fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel. (Eph. 3:6.)

k. For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. (Rom. 10:12.) For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. (Gal. 3:26-29.)

Chapter 48.

a. Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel. (I Cor. 9:14.)

b. Thou shalt not delay to offer the first of thy ripe fruits, and of thy liquors; the first-born of thy sons shalt thou give unto me. (Ex.

15 ¶ And the [c]five thousand, that are left in the breadth over against the five and twenty thousand, shall be [d]a profane place for the city, for dwelling, and for suburbs: and the city shall be in the midst thereof.

16 And these shall be the measures thereof; the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred.

17 And the suburbs of the city shall be toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty.

18 And the residue in length over against the oblation of the holy portion shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward: and it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion; and the increase thereof shall be for food unto them that serve the city.

19 And they that serve the city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Ĭs'ra-el.

20 All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy [e]oblation foursquare, with the possession of the city.

21 ¶ And the residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the city, over against the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward over against the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, over against the portions for the prince: and it shall be the holy oblation; and the sanctuary [f]of the house shall be in the midst thereof.

22 Moreover from the possession of the Lē'vītes, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Jū'dah and the border of Bĕn'ja-min, shall be for the prince.

23 As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side unto the west side, Bĕn'ja-min shall have a portion.

24 And by the border of [7]Bĕn'ja-min, from the east side unto the west side, Sĭm'e-on shall have a portion.

25 And by the border of [8]Sĭm'e-on, from the east side unto the west side, Ĭs'sa-char a portion.

26 And by the border of [9]Ĭs'sa-char, from the east side unto the west side, Zĕb'u-lun a portion.

27 And by the border of Zĕb'u-lun, from the east side unto the west side, Găd a portion.

28 And by the border of Găd, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from [g]Tā'mar unto the waters of [h]strife in Kā'desh, and to the river toward the great sea.

29 This is the land which ye shall divide by lot unto the tribes of Ĭs'ra-el for inheritance, and these are their portions, saith the Lord God.

30 ¶ And these are the goings out of the city on the north side, four thousand and five hundred measures.

31 And the [i]gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Ĭs'ra-el: three gates northward; one gate of Reu'ben, one gate of Jū'dah, one gate of Lē'vī.

32 And at the east side four thousand and five hundred: and three gates; and one gate of Jō'seph, one gate of Bĕn'ja-min, one gate of Dăn.

33 And at the south side four thousand and five hundred measures: and three gates; one gate of Sĭm'e-on, one gate of Ĭs'sa-char, one gate of Zĕb'u-lun.

34 At the west side four thousand and five hundred, with their three gates; one gate of Găd, one gate of Āsh'ĕr, one gate of Năph'ta-lī.

35 It was round about eighteen thousand measures: and the name of the city from that day shall be, [j]The Lord is there.

7. Together with Judah this tribe has ever been loyal to the house of David.

8. In Dt. 33. Simeon is omitted in the blessings of Moses, perhaps because a Simeonite prince led the Israelites in their idolatrous whoredom with Midian. (Num. 25:14)—"Now the name of the Israelite that was slain, even what was slain with the Midianitish woman, was Zimri, the son of Salu, a prince of the chief house among the Simeonites."

9. The portion of this tribe had been on the plain of Esdraelon. Their never meddling with other nations, or engaging in wars except in self-defense, caused them to be compared to a "Strong ass couching down between two burdens." (Gen. 49:14.)

22:29.) Notwithstanding no devoted thing that a man shall devote unto the Lord of all that he hath, both of man and beast, and of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is most holy unto the Lord (28). He shall not search whether it be good or bad, neither shall he change it: and if he change it at all, then both it and the change thereof shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed. (Lev. 27:28, 33.)

c. And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel. (Ez. 45:6.)

d. And the officers shall speak unto the people, saying, What man is there that hath built a new house, and hath not dedicated it? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it. (Dt. 20:5.)

e. How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob! and thy tabernacles, O Israel! (Num. 24:5.) Look upon Zion, the city of our solemnities; thine eyes shall see Jerusalem a quiet habitation, a tabernacle that shall not be taken down; not one of the stakes thereof shall ever be removed, neither shall any of the cords thereof be broken. (Is. 33:20.)

f. And the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at Shiloh, and set up the tabernacle of the congregation there. And the land was subdued before them. (Josh. 18:1.) And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it. (Is. 2:2.) And I will shake all nations, and the Desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the Lord of hosts (7). The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the Lord of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the Lord of hosts. (Hag. 2:7, 9.) Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. (Mat. 11:28.) But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear. For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them: and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them. (Mat. 13:16, 17.) And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me. (Jno. 12:32.) Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks. (Rev. 2:1.) And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. (Rev. 21:3.)

g. Then there came some that told Jehoshaphat, saying, There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea on this side Syria; and, behold, they be in Hazazontamar, which is Engedi. (II Chr. 20:2.)

h. Then came the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, into the desert of Zin in the first month: and the people abode in Kadesh; and Miriam died there, and was buried there (1). This is the water of Meribah; because the children of Israel strove with the Lord, and he was sanctified in them. (Num. 20:1, 13.) They angered him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes. (Ps. 106:32.)

i. Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders: but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise. (Is. 60:18.) And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel. (Rev. 21:12.)

j. Then Gideon built an altar there unto the Lord, and called it Jehovah-shalom: unto this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abiezrites. (Jud. 6:24.)

THE BOOK OF DANIEL

NOTE.—The Book of Daniel receives its name from him who is not only the most important personage in it, but also was until late years regarded as the author, at least in the main. However, many recent Christian scholars have come to the conclusion that the book belongs more particularly to the age of Antiochus Epiphanes (B. C. 175-163), although a majority of scholars still hold to the view that Daniel was the author. The book falls into two divisions. Chs. 1-6 give the history of Daniel; chs. 7-12, visions and revelations to Daniel. The book is not to be regarded either as a history or as a biography, but rather as a vision from heaven, in which the mysteries of the past, present and future had the veil lifted from over them in symbolic pictures and thus revealed through the prophet to the world "God's view of things." The world, people, powers and principalities were seen by the prophet and recorded as "they appear before the throne of God." The purpose of the book is to show the extraordinary and wonderful means which Jehovah made use of in a period of the deepest misery, when the theocracy seemed dissolved and rapidly approaching its utter destruction, to afford assistance to his people, showing that he had not entirely forsaken them, that his presence still continued with them, even without the temple and beyond the land of promise.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Jehoiakim's captivity. 3 Ashpenaz taketh Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. 8 They refusing the king's portion do prosper with pulse and water. 17 Their excellency in wisdom.

1 In the third [1]year of the reign of Je-hoi'a-kim king of Jū'dah came Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon unto Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and besieged it.

2 And the Lord gave Je-hoi'a-kim king of Jū'dah into his hand, with part of the vessels [a]of the house of God: which he carried into the land of Shī'när to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

3 ¶ And the king spake unto Ăsh'pe-naz the master of his [2]eunuchs, that he should bring certain of the children of Is'ra-el, and of the king's seed, and of the princes;

4 Children in whom was [b]no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chăl-dē'ans.

5 And the king appointed them a daily provision of the [3]king's meat, and of the wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king.

6 Now among these were of the children of [4]Jū'dah, Dăn'iel, Hăn-a-nī'ah, Mīsh'a-el, and Āz-a-rī'ah.

7 Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: for [c]he gave unto Dăn'iel the name of Bĕl-te-shăz'zar; and to Hăn-a-nī'ah, of Shā'drach; and to Mīsh'a-el, of Mē'shach; and to Āz-a-rī'ah, of A-bĕd'-nē-gō.

8 ¶ But Dăn'iel purposed in his heart that he would not [5]defile himself [d]with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

9 Now [e]God had brought Dăn'iel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

10 And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Dăn'iel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse liking than the children which are of your sort? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king.

11 Then said Dăn'iel to Mĕl'zar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Dăn'iel, Hăn-a-nī'ah, Mīsh'a-el, and Āz-a-rī'ah, 12 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink.

13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

14 So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

16 Thus Mĕl'zar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse.

17 ¶ As for these four children, [f]God [6]gave them [g]knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and [7]Dăn'iel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

18 Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar.

19 And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Dăn'iel, Hăn-a-nī'ah, Mīsh'a-el, and Āz-a-rī'ah: therefore stood they before the king.

20 And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king enquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

21 And [h]Dăn'iel continued even unto the first year of king [i]Çў'rus.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Nebuchadnezzar, forgetting his dream, requireth it of the Chaldeans. 10 They acknowledging their inability are judged to die. 14 Daniel findeth the dream. 24 He staying the decree is brought to the king. 36 The interpretation. 46 Daniel's advancement.

1 And in the second year of the reign of Nĕb-

Ch. 1. B. C. 607-606.

1. Of the reign of Jehoiakim, Jeremiah takes notice of the fraction of the first year, hence gives the same date as the fourth year. Daniel does not count the fraction of the first year. (Jer. 25:1)—"The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon."

2. That is, courtiers.

3. Dainties.

4. The noblest tribe, the one to which the "king's seed" belonged.

5. Because to do so would have given sanction to idolatry, but Daniel, like Moses, "chose rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season."

6. Thus God had made one of the despised covenant people eclipse the Chaldean sages in the very science in which they most prided themselves.

7. Hero and traditional author of the Book of Daniel; a man of high physical and intellectual endowments, taken by Nebuchadnezzar in the third year of Jehoiakim into Babylonian exile. Together with three companions he was assigned to be educated at the king's court. They all refused to defile themselves by eating of the royal food, by which eating they would seem to be honoring the idolatrous spirit. They were rewarded for their fidelity by being given fairer appearances than any of the other youths, also superior understanding and wisdom to all the wise men of the realm. After all the wise men had failed to interpret the king's dream, Daniel was called for and furnished the interpretation thereof and was made ruler over all Babylon. After the death of Nebuchadnezzar, he was again forced into the background until the handwriting on the wall, during Belshazzar's feast. Again the wise men of the realm failed, and Daniel was called to give the interpretation. A conspiracy was raised against him and he was thrown into the den of lions, but Jehovah was with him and the animals harmed him not. His accusers were then thrown into the den and were fiercely devoured by the animals, thus causing the nations to fear and tremble at the name of Daniel's God.

Ref. Daniel. Chapter 1.

a. Belshazzar, whilst he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein. (Dan. 5:2.) Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the Lord to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon. (II Chr. 36:7.) For thus said the Lord of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city, Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem. (Jer. 27:19, 20.)

b. And if a man cause a blemish in his neighbor; as he hath done, so shall it be done to him. (Lev. 24:19.)

c. Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and showing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation. (Dan. 5:12.)

d. And the Lord said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them. (Ez. 4:13.) Abstain from all appearance of evil. (I Thess. 5:22.)

e. But the Lord was with Joseph, and showed him mercy, and gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison. (Gen. 39:21.) And forgive thy people that have sinned against thee, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against thee, and give them compassion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them. (I Ks. 8:50.) When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him. (Prov. 16:7.)

f. Behold, I have done according to thy words: lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee. (I Ks. 3:12.) This also cometh forth from the Lord of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working. (Is. 28:29.) If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. (Js. 1:5.)

g. And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds. (Acts 7:22.)

h. So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian. (Dan. 6:28.)

i. Thus saith the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two-leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut (1). For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast not known me (4). That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none besides me: I am the Lord, and there is none else (6). I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways: he shall build my city, and he shall let go my captives, not for price nor reward, saith the Lord of hosts. (Is. 45:1, 4, 6, 13.)

u-chăd-nĕz'zar Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar dreamed dreams, wherewith his [a]spirit was troubled, and [b]his sleep brake from him.

2 Then [c]the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chăl-dē'anș, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

4 [1]Then spake the Chăl-dē'anș to the king in Sўr'ĭ-ack, O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Chăl-dē'anș, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be [d]cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.

6 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and [e]rewards and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpertation thereof.

7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, [f]there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

10 ¶ The Chăl-dē'anș [2]answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chăl-dē'an.

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, [g]except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the [h]king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Băb'ў-lon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Dăn'iel and his fellows to be slain.

14 ¶ Then Dăn'iel answered with counsel and wisdom to Ā'rĭ-ŏch the [i]captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Băb'ў-lon.

15 He answered and said to Ā'rĭ-ŏch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Ā'rĭ-ŏch made the thing known to Dăn'iel.

16 Then Dăn'iel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation.

17 Then Dăn'iel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hăn-a-nī'ah, Mĭsh'a-el, and Āz-a-rī'ah, his companions:

18 That they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Dăn'iel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Băb'ў-lon.

19 ¶ Then was the secret revealed unto Dăn'iel [j]in a night vision. Then Dăn'iel blessed the God of heaven.

20 Dăn'iel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his:

21 And he changeth [k]the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: [l]he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding:

22 He [m]revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and [n]the light dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.

24 ¶ Therefore Dăn'iel went in unto Ā'rĭ-ŏch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Băb'ў-lon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Băb'ў-lon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Ā'rĭ-ŏch brought in Dăn'iel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a [3]man of the captives of Jū'dah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation.

26 The king answered and said to Dăn'iel, whose name was Bĕl-te-shăz'zar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?

27 [4]Dăn'iel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king;

28 [o]But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these;

29 As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come

Ch. 2. B. C. 603.

1. With this verse the Chaldee portion of Daniel begins and extends to close of ch. 7. It treats of the character of the Gentile power. The remaining portion of the book was in Hebrew and treated largely of the Jews.

2. Heretofore the magicians had been dealing with questions which were of such a nature that they could easily mislead the interested parties, but in this instance when the king demanded that they tell him the dream as well as the interpretation, they were for the first time, perhaps, face to face with a proposition which would prove them to be as the king suggested, true or false diviners.

3. Like many another, Arioch would leave the impression that he found the man.

4. In vs. 27-35 Daniel tells the king the dream, which was the thing that the magician said no man could do. (V. 10.)

Chapter 2.

a. And it came to pass in the morning, that his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dreams; but there was none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh. (Gen. 41:8.) For God speaketh once, yet twice, yet man perceiveth it not. In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed; Then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction, That he may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man. (Job. 33:14-17.)

b. On that night could not the king sleep; and he commanded to bring the book of records of the Chronicles; and they were read before the king. (Esth. 6:1.)

c. Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers: now the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments. (Ex. 7:11.) Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee. Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it. (Is. 47:13, 14.)

d. Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and, being set up, let him be hanged thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this. (Ezra 6:11.)

e. Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation. (Dan. 5:17.)

f. All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live; but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days. (Esth. 4:11.)

g. There is a man in thy kingdom in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father, light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers. (Dan. 5:11.) But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible. (Mat. 19:26.)

h. Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law? (Ps. 94:20.) As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the poor people. (Prov. 28:15.)

i. And the Midianites sold him into Egypt unto Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh's, and captain of the guard. (Gen. 37:36.)

j. In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed; Then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction. (Job 33:15, 16.)

k. For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south. But God is the judge: he putteth down one, and setteth up another. (Ps. 75:6, 7.)

l. If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. (Js. 1:5.)

m. The secret of the Lord is with them that fear him; and he will show them his covenant. (Ps. 25:14.) Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do. (Heb. 4:13.)

n. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. (Js. 1:17.)

o. And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, It is not in me: God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace. (Gen. 41:16.) For, lo, he that formeth to pass hereafter: and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass.

30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

31 ¶ Thou, O king, [5]sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible.

32 This image's [6]head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, 33 His [7]legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.

34 Thou sawest till that a [8]stone was cut out [p]without [9]hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image [q]became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

36 ¶ This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

37 Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38 And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold.

39 And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

41 And whereas thou sawest [10]the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

44 And in the [11]days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which [r]shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but [s]it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

46 ¶ Then the [t]king Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar fell upon his face, and worshipped Dăn'iel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him.

47 The king answered unto Dăn'iel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

48 Then the king made Dăn'iel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Băb'ў-lon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Băb'ў-lon.

49 Then Dăn'iel requested of the king, and he [u]set Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and A-bĕd'-nĕ-gō, over the affairs of the province of Băb'ў-lon: but Dăn'iel sat in the gate of the king.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Nebuchadnezzar dedicateth a golden image in Dura. 8 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego are accused for not worshipping the image. 19 God delivereth them out of the furnace.

1 [1]Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar the king made an image [2]of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dụ'rȧ, in the province of Băb'ў-lon.

2 Then Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar the king had set up.

3 Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar had set up.

4 Then an herald cried aloud, To you [q]it is commanded, O people, nations, and [3]languages,

5 That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulci-

5. The great world-power as a colossal human form: Babylon, the head of gold; Medo-Persia, breast and arms of silver; Graeco-Macedonia, belly and thighs of brass; Rome, legs and feet of iron and clay. It will be observed that only those kingdoms are mentioned which were sustaining some relation to the kingdom of God.

6. The head being of gold, and the baser metals coming into use in the different members respectively to the feet, indicate the growing degeneracy.

7. Sig. the two Roman consuls.

8. The Messiah and his kingdom. (Is. 28:16)—"Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste."

9. In contrast with "made with hands of man," the God of heaven shall set up a kingdom. (V. 44.)

10. That is, brittle, the nations were broken into pieces.

11. That is, the last of the four.

Ch. 3. B. C. 580.

1 In this ch. is recorded the account of the great idol made by Nebuchadnezzar, also deliverance of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego from the fiery furnace.

2. Though Nebuchadnezzar made a confession of God, still he continued to worship idols.

3. Recent explorations prove Babylon to have been a nation of many languages; in fact, its population was as thoroughly mixed as that of New York at the present day (1904).

the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The Lord, The God of hosts, is his name. (Amos 4:13.)

p. Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the Lord unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts. (Zech. 4:6.) And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. (Mat. 16:18.) For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. (II Cor. 5:1.)

q. And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it. (Is. 2:2.)

r. The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be. (Gen. 49:10.) Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion (6). Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him. (Ps. 2:6, 12.) How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation (3). And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honored him that liveth for ever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation. (Dan. 4:3, 34.) I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel; for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end. (Dan. 6:26.) He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David. (Luke 1:32.)

s. Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel. (Ps. 2:9.) The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool. (Ps. 110:1.) Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. (I Cor. 15:24.)

t. And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him. (Acts 10:25.) Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people. Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out, And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein. (Acts 14:13-15.) And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which showed me these things. Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God. (Rev. 22, 8, 9.)

u. When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is hidden. (Prov. 28:12.)

Chapter 3.

a. Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law? (Ps. 94:20.)

mer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar the king hath set up:

6 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of [b]a [4]burning fiery furnace.

7 Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar the king had set up.

8 ¶ Wherefore at that time certain Chăl-dē'ans came near, and [c]accused the Jews.

9 They spake and said to the king Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar, O king, live for ever.

10 Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, shall fall down and worship the golden image:

11 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

12 There are certain [5]Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Băb'y-lon, Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and A-bĕd'-nĕ-gō; these men, O king, have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

13 ¶ Then Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and A-bĕd'-nĕ-gō. Then [d]they brought these men before the king.

14 Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar spake and said unto them, Is it true, O Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and A-bĕd'-nĕ-gō, do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?

15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

16 Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and A-bĕd'-nĕ-gō, answered and said to the king, O Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar, we [e]are not careful to answer thee in this matter.

17 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he [f]will deliver us out of thine hand, O king.

18 But if not, [g]be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

4. An order aimed at the Jews by those who were jealous of their high position in the king's court.

5. The charge is here made that those certain Jews to whom the king had granted such favors had frequently disobeyed his edicts.

6. It was an ancient eastern custom to say of a man who was angry with another, "His face is black against him."

7. The rod they had hoped to bring down in the wrath upon the hated covenant people fell in retribution upon themselves.

19 ¶ Then was Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar full of fury, and the form [6]of his visage was changed against Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and A-bĕd'-nĕ-gō: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

20 And he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and A-bĕd'-nĕ-gō, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their hosen, and their hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

22 Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and A-bĕd'-nĕ-go.

23 And these three men, Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and A-bĕd'-nĕ-gō, fell down [h]bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar the king was astonied, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.

25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, [i]walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God.

26 ¶ Then Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and A-bĕd'-nĕ-gō, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and A-bĕd'-nĕ-gō, came forth of the midst of the fire.

27 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, [j]upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them.

28 Then Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and A-bĕd'-nĕ-gō, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that [k]trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God.

29 Therefore I make a [7]decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and A-bĕd'-nĕ-gō, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill: because there is no other God that can deliver after this sort.

30 Then the king promoted Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and A-bĕd'-nĕ-gō, in the province of Băb'y-lon.

b. And of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The Lord make thee like Zedekiah, and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire. (Jer. 29:22.) And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed. (Rev. 13:15.)

c. And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shown him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai. (Esth. 3:6.)

d. But take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them. (Mk. 13:9.)

e. But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak. (Mat. 10:19.) But none of these things moved me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. (Acts 20:24.)

f. David said moreover, The Lord that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said unto David, Go, and the Lord be with thee. (I Sam. 17:37.) Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us. (II Cor. 1:10.)

g. Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven. (Mat. 10:32.) Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season. (Heb. 11:25.) And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good? But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye; and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled; But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear. (I Pet. 3:13-15.)

h. Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy. (Ps. 33:18.) I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler (2-4). A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked. Because thou hast made the Lord which is my refuge, even the Most High, thy habitation. (Ps. 91:2-4, 7-9.) And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gedeon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthae; of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets. (Heb. 11:32.)

i. A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench: he shall bring forth judgment unto truth. (Is 42:3.) See Is. 43:2.

j. They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover. (Mk. 16:18.) Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens. (Heb. 11:34.)

k. O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him. (Ps. 34:8.) Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is. (Jer. 17:7.)

CHAPTER 4.

1 Nebuchadnezzar confesseth God's kingdom, 4 maketh relation of his dreams. 8 Daniel heareth the dream. 19 He interpreteth it.

1 [1]Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar the king, unto all [2]people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

2 I thought it good to shew the signs and wonders [b]that the high God hath wrought toward me.

3 How [c]great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is [d]an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

4 ¶ I Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace:

5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, [e]and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head [f]troubled me.

6 Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Băb'ў-lon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream.

7 Then [g]came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chăl-dē'anş, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof.

8 ¶ But at the last [2]Dăn'iel came in before me, whose name was Bĕl-te-shăz'zar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the [h]spirit of the holy gods: and before him I told the dream, saying,

9 O Bĕl-te-shăz'zar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed; I saw, and behold a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great.

11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth:

12 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: [i]the beasts of the field [3]had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and an holy [4]one [j]came down from heaven;

14 He cried aloud, and said thus, [k]Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the [l]beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches:

15 Nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth:

16 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let seven times pass over him.

17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the [5]demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know [m]that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.

18 This dream I king Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar have seen. Now thou, O Bĕl-te-shăz'zar, declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 ¶ Then Dăn'iel, whose name was Bĕl-te-shăz'zar, was astonied for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, Bĕl-te-shăz'zar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Bĕl-te-shăz'zar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth;

21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

22 It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, [n]and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

23 And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him;

24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the most High, which is come upon my lord the king:

25 That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, [o]till thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to [p]whomsoever he will.

Ch. 4. B. C. 570-569.

1. In this ch. Nebuchadnezzar has a second dream relating to himself, which indicates the punishment which shall be sent upon him for his haughtiness.

2. It would seem that Jehovah had so ordered that Daniel should not be called until all earthly means had failed and the king would be compelled to seek Jehovah.

3. Lay in the shadow.

4. An angel called "the watcher" because ever on the watch to execute Jehovah's will.

5. That is, determination. Because every mortal shall be humbled who tries to obscure the glory of God.

Chapter 4.

a. See Dan. 3:4.

b. See ch. 3:26.

c. See ch. 6:27.

d. See ch. 2:44.

e. But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these. (Dan. 2:28.)

f. And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him. (Dan. 2:1.)

g. And it came to pass in the morning, that his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dream; but there was none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh. (Gen. 41:8.) And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead? (Is. 8:19.)

h. The secret of the Lord is with them that fear him; and he will show them his covenant. (Ps. 25:14.)

i. All the fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations. (Ez. 31:6.)

j. And he said, The Lord came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir unto them; he shined forth from mount Paran, and he came with ten thousands of saints: from his right hand went a fiery law for them. (Dt. 33:2.) Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven. (Mat. 18:10.)

k. Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in the city, and the Lord hath not done it? (Amos 3:6.) And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. (Mat. 3:10.)

l. And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him. (Ez. 31:12.)

m. The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah. (Ps. 9:16.) That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art the Most High over all the earth. (Ps. 83:18.)

n. And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him. And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the very time of his land come; and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him. (Jer. 27:6, 7.)

o. The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah. (Ps. 9:16.) And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing. (Ps. 64:9.) That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art the Most High over all the earth. (Ps. 83:18.)

p. I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power and by my outstretched arm, and have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me. (Jer. 27:5.)

26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule.

27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; if it may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

28 ¶ All this came upon the king Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar.

29 At the end of [c]twelve months he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Băb'ў-lon.

30 The king spake, and said, Is not this great Băb'ў-lon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

31 While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee.

32 And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 And at the end of the days I Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honoured him that liveth for ever, whose dominion is [q]an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation:

35 And [r]all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and [s]he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and [t]none can stay his hand, or say unto him, [u]What doest thou?

36 [7]At the same time my reason returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added [v]unto me.

37 Now I Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, [w]all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride [x]he is able to abase.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Belshazzar's impious feast. 5 A handwriting, unknown to the magicians, troubleth the king.

1 [1]Bĕl-shăz'zar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

6. A respite granted to him that he might be without excuse, as the 120 years were granted before the flood. (Gen. 6:3)—"And the Lord said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh, yet his days shall be 120 years."

7. G. V. Smith, of the East India Museum Co., says an inscription has been found containing a record of Nebuchadnezzar's insanity.

Ch. 5. B. C. 538.

1. In this ch. is given an account of Belshazzar's impious feast, also the handwriting on the wall and Daniel's interpretation thereof, declaring the doom of Babylon and its king.

2. An act of either reckless or purposeful profanity.

3. The hand was the organ of divine power. (Ezk. 8:3)—"And he put forth the form of a hand."

2 Bĕl-shăz'zar, whiles he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his [a]father Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar had taken out of the temple which was in Je-ru'sa-lĕm; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might [b]drink therein.

3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the [2]temple of the house of God which was at Je-ru'sa-lĕm; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them.

4 They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 ¶ [c]In the same hour came forth [3]fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaister of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the king's countenance was changed, and his [d]thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees [e]smote one against another.

7 The king cried aloud to bring in the [f]astrologers, the Chăl-dē'anş, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Băb'ў-lon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

8 Then came in all the king's wise men: but [g]they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

9 Then was king Bĕl-shăz'zar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his lords were astonied.

10 ¶ Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: and the queen spake and said, O king, live for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed:

11 There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chăl-dē'anş, and soothsayers;

12 Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Dăn'iel, whom the king named Bĕl-te-shăz'zar: now let Dăn'iel be called, and he will shew the interpretation.

13 Then was Dăn'iel brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Dăn'iel, Art thou that Dăn'iel, which art of the children of the captivity of Jū'dah, whom the king my father brought out of Jew'rў?

14 I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and un-

q. The Lord is King, for ever and ever. (Ps. 10:16.) But the Lord is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting king. (Jer. 10:10.) And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. (Luke 1:33.)

r. Behold, thou hast made my days as an handbreadth, and mine age is as nothing before thee; verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah. (Ps. 39:5.) Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing. (Is. 40:15.)

s. Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is now their God? But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased. (Ps. 115:2, 3.)

t. When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only. (Job 34:29.)

u. Behold, he taketh away, who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What doest thou? (Job 9:12.) Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus? (Rom. 9:20.)

v. By humility, and the fear of the Lord, are riches, honor, and life. (Prov. 22:4.) But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. (Mat. 6:33.)

w. For the word of the Lord is right; and all his works are done in truth. (Ps. 33:4.) And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints. (Rev. 15:3.)

x. Now I know that the Lord is greater than all gods: for in the thing wherein they dealt proudly he was above them. (Ex. 18:11.)

Chapter 5.

a. And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the very time of his land come; and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him. (Jer. 27:7.)

b. Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise. (Prob. 20:1.)

c. While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee. (Dan. 4:31.)

d. Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, and shall drive him to his feet. (Job 18:11.)

e. She is empty, and void, and waste; and the heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all gather blackness. (Nah. 2:10.)

f. Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee. (Is. 47:13.)

g. Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret derstanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee.

15 And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not shew the interpretation of the thing:

16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 ¶ Then Dăn'iel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 O thou king, [h]the most high God gave Nĕb-u-chăd-nĕz'zar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour:

19 And for the majesty that he gave him, all [i]people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down.

20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

21 And he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22 And thou his son, O Bĕl-shăz'zar, [j]hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this;

23 But hast [k]lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, [l]nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified:

4. Thus restoring Daniel to a similar rank he had held under Nebuchadnezzar.

5. This statement is corroborated by Xenophon.

Ch. 6. B. C. 537.

1. This ch. records the fate and experience of Daniel, the righteous man, while in the power of a world-kingdom. He is cast into the lions' den, but the protecting hand of Jehovah delivers him from the beasts.

2. The greatest testimony which could have been given Daniel was that his enemies could find no fault in him save that he walked according to the law of his God.

3. The princes and all in authority with him.

24 Then was the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written.

25 ¶ And this is the writing that was written, MĒ'NE, MĒ'NE, TĒ'KEL, U-PHĂR'SIN.

26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MĒ'NE; God hath numbered [m]thy kingdom, and finished it.

27 TĒ'KEL; [n]Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

28 PĒ'RĒS; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the [o]Mēdes and [p]Pēr'sians.

29 Then commanded Bĕl-shăz'zar, and they clothed [4]Dăn'iel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 ¶ In that [q]night was Bĕl-shăz'zar the king of the Chăl-dē'ans slain.

31 And Da-rī'us the Mē'dī-an took the kingdom, being about [5]threescore and two years old.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Daniel is made chief of the presidents. 10 He is cast into the lions' den. 18 He is saved. 24 His adversaries devoured.

1 [1]It pleased Da-rī'us to set over the kingdom an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom;

2 And over these three presidents; of whom [a]Dăn'iel was first: that the princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage.

3 Then this Dăn'iel was preferred above the presidents and princes, [b]because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

4 ¶ Then the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Dăn'iel concerning the kingdom; but [c]they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him.

5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Dăn'iel, except we find it against him concerning the law [2]of his God.

6 Then these presidents and princes assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Da-rī'us, live for ever.

7 All the [3]presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, show unto the king. (Dan. 2:27.)

h. Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory. (Dan. 2:37.)

i. Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the Lord, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations. (Jer. 25:9.) And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the very time of his land come: and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him. (Jer. 27:7.)

j. And humbled not himself before the Lord, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but Amon trespassed more and more. (II Chr. 33:23.) And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord his God, and humbled not himself before Jeremiah the prophet, speaking from the mouth of the Lord. (II Chr. 36:12.) I will speak of thy testimonies also before kings, and will not be ashamed. (Ps. 119:46.)

k. Call together the archers against Babylon: all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her: for she hath been proud against the Lord, against the Holy One of Israel. (Jer. 50:29.)

l. They have mouths, but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not; They have ears, but they hear not; noses have they, but they smell not; They have hands, but they handle not; feet have they, but they walk not; neither speak they through their throat. They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them. (Ps. 115:5, 8.)

m. And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the Lord, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it perpetual desolations. (Jer. 25:12.)

n. Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know mine integrity. (Job 31:6.) Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in a balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity. (Ps. 62:9.) All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes: but the Lord weigheth the spirits. (Prov. 16:2.)

o. Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver; and as for gold, they shall not delight in it. Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eyes shall not spare children. And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. (Is. 13:17-19.) A grievous vision is declared unto me; the treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler spoileth. Go up, O Elam: besiege, O Media: all the sighing thereof have I made to cease. (Is. 21:2.) Make bright the arrows; gather the shields: the Lord hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the Lord, the vengeance of his temple. Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the Lord hath both devised and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Babylon (11, 12). Prepare against her the nations with the kings of the Medes, the captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion. (Jer. 51:11, 12, 28.)

p. So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian. (Dan. 6:28.)

q. One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to show the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end (31). And I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the King, whose name is the Lord of hosts. (Jer. 51:31, 57.)

Chapter 6.

a. Wherefore the Lord God of Israel saith, I said indeed, that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever: but now the Lord saith, Be it far from me; for them that honor me I will honor, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed. (I Sam. 2:30.)

b. The wise shall inherit glory: but shame shall be the promotion of fools. (Prov. 3:35.) At the beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to show thee; for thou art greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision. (Dan. 9:23.)

c. That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world. (Phil. 2:15.) Having your conthat whosoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions.

8 Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the [d]law of the Mēdeş and Pēr'şianş, which altereth not.

9 Wherefore king Da-rī'us signed the writing and the decree.

10 ¶ Now when Dăn'iel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber [e]toward Je-rū'sa-lĕm, he kneeled upon his knees [f]three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime.

11 Then these men assembled, and found Dăn'iel praying and making supplication before his God.

12 Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any God or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Mēdeş and Pēr'şianş, which altereth not.

13 Then answered they and said before the king, That Dăn'iel, which is of the children of the captivity of Jū'dah, [4]regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day.

14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore [5]displeased with himself, and set his heart on Dăn'iel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Mēdeş and Pēr'şianş is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Dăn'iel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Dăn'iel, [g]Thy God [6]whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

17 And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Dăn'iel.

18 ¶ Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were instruments of musick brought before him: and his sleep went from him.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Dăn'iel: and the king spake and said to Dăn'iel, O Dăn'iel, servant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

21 Then said Dăn'iel unto the king, O king, live for ever.

22 My God hath sent his [7]angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Dăn'iel up out of the den. So Dăn'iel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God.

24 ¶ And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Dăn'iel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, [h]their children, [8]and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

25 ¶ Then king Da-rī'us wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

26 [i]I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men [j]tremble and fear before the God of Dăn'iel: for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.

27 He delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Dăn'iel from the power of the lions.

28 So this Dăn'iel prospered in the reign of Da-rī'us, and in the reign of [k]Çȳ'rus the Pēr'şian.

4. They only mention the fact of his captivity, refraining from mentioning that he had ever been prime minister.

5. For allowing himself to be entrapped into issuing such a hasty decree.

6. Men always admire fidelity and piety to God in others, though disregarding it themselves.

7. This instrument of his deliverance.

8. With the Persians, the whole kindred were involved in the guilt of one.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Daniel's vision of four beasts. 9 Of God's kingdom.

Ch. 7. B. C. 555.

1 [1]In the first year of Bĕl-shăz'zar king of Băb'ȳ-lon Dăn'iel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters.

1. In this ch. is recorded Daniel's vision of the four beasts.

2 Dăn'iel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea.

2. Indicating a diminishing of the aggressiveness of the Babylonians.

3 And four great beasts [a]came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

4 The first was [b]like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were [2]plucked, and it was lifted up [3]from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart [4]was given to it.

3. That is, from its groveling bestiality.

4. Symbolizing the humanizing of the kingdom.

5 And behold another beast, a second, like to a [5]bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

5. Symbolizing the austere life of the Persians.

versation honest among the Gentiles; that, whereas they speak against you as evil doers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. (I Pet. 2:12.)

d. If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate unto another that is better than she. (Esth. 1:19.)

e. Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven. (Mat. 10:32.) But as for me, I will come unto thy house in the multitude of thy mercy; and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple. (Ps. 5:7.) Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight: yet I will look again toward thy holy temple. (Jon. 2:4.)

f. Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud; and he shall hear my voice. (Ps. 55:17.) Now Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour. (Acts 3:1.) Pray without ceasing. In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. (I Thess. 5:17, 18.)

g. Fear thou not, for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness. (Is. 41:10.) Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us. (II Cor. 1:10.)

h. The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers: every man shall be put to death for his own sin. (Dt. 24:16.) But the children of the murderers he slew not: according unto that which is written in the book of the law of Moses, wherein the Lord commanded, saying, The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall be put to death for his own sin. (II Ks. 14:6.)

i. Therefore I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill; because there is no other God that can deliver after this sort. (Dan. 3:29.)

j. The Lord reigneth; let the people tremble: he sitteth between the cherubim; let the earth be moved. (Ps. 99:1.)

k. Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying. (Ezra 1:1.)

Chapter 7.

a. And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. (Rev. 13:1.)

b. The Lord shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand. (Dt. 28:49.) Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariot shall be as a whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us! for we are spoiled. (Jer. 4:13.) Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening

6 After this I beheld, and lo another, like a [6]leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth [7]beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; [c]and it had ten horns.

8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there [d]came up among them another [8]little horn, before whom there were three of the first [9]horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes [10]of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

9 ¶ I [e]beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient [11]of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

10 A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: [f]thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

11 I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: [g]I beheld even [12]till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, [h]one like the [13]Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

14 And [i]there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is [j]an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 ¶ I Dăn'iel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

6. Smaller than the lion, yet swifter. Alexander, king of the small kingdom Macedon, attacked Darius at the head of the vast empire, extending from the Aegean Sea to the Indus and in twelve years subjugated much of Europe and Asia.

7. Symbolizing the Syriac Egyptian kingdom.

8. Little at first, but waxing greater than all the others. The Roman empire.

9. The Exarchate of Ravenna, the kingdom of the Lombards and the state of Rome secured as a prize by Pope Zachary for acknowledging the usurper Pipin lawful king of France.

10. The eyes are expressive of intelligence. In the fall of man in the garden, the serpent's promise was that man's eyes should be opened, therefore the anti-Christ would consummate high intellectual culture independent of God.

11. The everlasting Father.

12. Typifying the execution upon earth of the judgments pronounced in the heavenly court of Jehovah.

13. A son of man. (R. V.)

14. The expression, "Time, times, and half-time" is supposed to refer to the three and a half years when anti-Christs interfered with the sacrificial offering in the temple, although there are scholars who claim that it is a symbol of persecution, being as it is the fracture or part of the perfect seven. Therefore representing the fracturing or breaking of the natural order or normal conditions.

17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 But the saints of the most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet;

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

22 Until the [11]Ancient of [k]days came, [l]and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

25 And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they [m]shall be given into his hand [n]until a time and [14]times and the dividing of time.

26 But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end.

27 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, [o]whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Dăn'iel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I [p]kept the matter in my heart.

wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat. (Hab. 1:8.)

c. And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. (Rev. 13:1.)

d. And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land. (Dan. 8:9.)

e. Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. (I Cor. 15:24.) And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. (Rev. 20:4.)

f. The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels: the Lord is among them, as in Sinai, in the holy place. (Ps. 68:17.) And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands. (Rev. 5:11.)

g. And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. (Rev. 19:20.)

h. And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. (Mat. 24:30.) And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. (Rev. 14:14.)

i. The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool. (Ps. 110:1.) Yet have I set my King upon my holy hill of Zion. (Ps. 2:6.) And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. (Mat. 28:18.) And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all. (Eph. 1:22, 23.)

j. Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations. (Ps. 145:13.) And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. (Luke 1:33.) Wherefore, we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear. (Heb. 12:28.)

k. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming. (II Thess. 2:8.)

l. Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters? (I Cor. 6:2.) And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. (Rev. 20:4.)

m. And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. (Rev. 13:7.)

n. And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. (Rev. 12:14.)

o. And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. (Dan. 2:44.) He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever, and of his kingdom there shall be no end. (Luke 1:32, 33.) The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man? (Jno. 12:34.) But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom. (Heb. 1:8.) For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. (II Pet. 1:11.) And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, the kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever. (Rev. 11:15.)

p. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart. (Luke 2:19.)

CHAPTER 8.

1 Daniel's vision of the ram and he goat. 13 The two thousand three hundred days of sacrifice. 15 Gabriel comforteth Daniel.

1 [1]In the third year of the reign of king Bĕl-shăz'zar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Dăn'iel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

2 And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shu'shan in the palace, which is in the province of Ē'lăm; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ū'la-ī.

3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; [a]but he did according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, an he [2]goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had [3]two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward [b]the south, and toward the east, and toward the [c]pleasant land.

10 And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and [d]it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.

13 ¶ Then I heard [e]one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, when I, even I Dăn'iel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ū'la-ī, which called, and [f]said, [4]Gā'brĭ-el, make this man to understand the vision.

17 So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and [g]fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

18 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright.

19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be.

20 The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Mē'dĭ-a and Pēr'şĭa.

21 And the rough goat is the king of Grē'cĭa: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.

22 Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.

23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king [h]of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

24 And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people.

25 And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be [i]broken without hand.

26 And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true: [j]wherefore shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days.

27 And I Dăn'iel fainted, and was sick [5]certain days; afterward I rose up, [k]and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

Ch. 8. B. C. 553.

1. In ch. 8 is given an account of Daniel's vision of the ram and he-goat.

2. The Grecian empire.

1 Daniel prayeth for the restoration of Jerusalem. 20 Gabriel informeth him of the seventy weeks.

1 [1]In the first year of Da-rī'us the son of A-hăş-ū-ē'rus, of the seed of Mēdes, which was made king over the realm of the Chăl-dē'ans;

1. The date of this ch. is about 537 B. C., about a year before Cyrus permitted the Jews to return from exile and about 69 years after Daniel had been taken captive.

Chapter 8.

a. And a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will. (Dan. 11:3.)

b. And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him. (Dan. 11:25.)

c. Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King. (Ps. 48:2.) In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands. (Ez. 20:6.)

d. And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born. (Rev. 12:4.)

e. Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us, they did minister the things which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the Gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into. (I Pet. 1:12.)

f. And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to show thee these glad tidings. (Luke 1:19.)

g. And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last. (Rev. 1:17.)

h. The Lord shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand; A nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor show favor to the young. (Dt. 28:49, 50.)

i. In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away without hand. (Job 34:20.) For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her. (Lam. 4:6.)

j. Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is for many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are far off. (Ez. 12:27.) And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book; for the time is at hand. (Rev. 22:10.)

k. Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon. Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel sat in the gate of the king. (Dan. 2:48, 49.)

derstood by [2]books the number of the years, whereof the word of the Lord came to [a]Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Je-ru'sa-lĕm.

3 ¶ And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and [3]supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes:

4 And I prayed unto the Lord my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;

5 We [b]have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments:

6 Neither [c]have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Jū'dah, and to the inhabitants of Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and unto all Is'ra-el, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 [d]To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses though we have rebelled against him;

10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, all [e]Is'ra-el have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Mō'sĕs the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he hath [f]confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Je-ru'sa-lĕm.

13 As it is written in the law of Mō'sĕs, all this evil is come upon us: yet made we not our prayer before the Lord our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the Lord [g]watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the Lord our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Ē'gўpt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 ¶ O Lord, according to all thy [4]righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Je-ru'sa-lĕm, thy holy mountain: because for [h]our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Je-ru'sa-lĕm and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake.

18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies.

19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, [i]for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 ¶ And whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Is'ra-el, and presenting my supplication before the Lord my God for the holy mountain of my God;

21 Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gā'brĭ-el, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation.

22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Dăn'iel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee; for thou art greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision.

24 [6]Seventy [5]weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of [7]sins, and to make reconciliation [8]for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting [9]righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and [j]to anoint the most Holy.

25 Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Je-ru'sa-lĕm unto the [k]Mĕs-sī'ah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and

3. Intercessions, entreaties for mercy.

4. According to thy promises of mercy and not according to stern justice.

5. Supposed to be 490 years expressed in a form of concealed definiteness, a usual way with prophets.

6. In vs. 24-27 is recorded the prophecy of 70 weeks.

7. That is, an end will be put to this terrible flood of crime and wickedness.

8. That is, make an atonement for sin.

9. That is, never to cease or pass away. Eternal with God.

Chapter 9.

a. To fulfil the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years. (II Chr. 36:21.) And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years. And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the Lord, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it perpetual desolations. (Jer. 25:11, 12.) For thus saith the Lord, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. (Jer. 29:10.)

b. Yet if they shall bethink themselves in the land whither they were carried captives, and repent, and make supplication unto thee in the land of them that carried them captives, saying, We have sinned, and have done perversely, we have committed wickedness. (I Ks. 8:47.) We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly. (Ps. 106:6.) Thou meetest him that rejoiceth and worketh righteousness; those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: in those is continuance, and we shall be saved. But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us, because of our iniquities. (Is. 64:5-7.)

d. And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not. (Neh. 9:17.) But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared (4). Let Israel hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption. (Ps. 130:4, 7.)

e. Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more. The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment. (Is. 1:5, 6.) Therefore will I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one from the least even unto the greatest is given to covetousness, from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. (Jer. 8:10.)

f. The Lord hath done that which he had devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries. (Lam. 2:17.) For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. (Mat. 5:18.)

g. And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them to build, and to plant, saith the Lord. (Jer. 31:28.)

h. Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honored her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness; yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward. (Lam. 1:8.)

i. Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name; and deliver us, and purge away our sins, for thy name's sake. (Ps. 79:9.)

j. He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ. (Jno. 1:41.)

k. He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken. (Is. 53:8.) For I de-threescore and [10]two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

26 And after threescore and two weeks shall Mĕs-sī'ah be cut off, [l]but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come [m]shall destroy the city [n]and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

27 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of [o]abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the [p]consummation, and that determined shall [q]be poured upon the desolate.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Daniel having humbled himself seeth a vision. 10 Being troubled with fear he is comforted by the angel.

1 In the third year of Çȳ'rus king of Pĕr'şiȧ a thing was revealed unto Dăn'iel, whose name was called Bĕl-te-shăz'zar; and the thing [1]was true, but the time appointed [2]was long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Dăn'iel was mourning [3]three full weeks.

3 I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hĭd'de-kel;

5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Ū'phăz:

6 His body also was like the [4]beryl, and his [a]face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Dăn'iel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw [b]this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 ¶ And, behold, an hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.

11 And he said unto me, O Dăn'iel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, [c]Fear not, Dăn'iel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Pĕr'şiȧ withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, [d]Mī'chaĕl, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Pĕr'şiȧ.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

16 And, behold, one like the [5]similitude of the sons of men touched [e]my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are [6]turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For [7]how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me, 19 And said, O man greatly beloved, [c]fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight [f]with the prince of Pĕr'şiȧ: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grē'ciȧ shall come.

21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but [8]Mī'chaël your prince.

CHAPTER 11.

1 The overthrow of Persia by the king of Grecia. 30 The invasion and tyranny of the Romans.

1 [1]Also I in the first year of Da-rī'us the Mēde, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Belivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures. (I Cor. 15:3.)

l. For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit. (I Pet. 3:18.)

m. For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation. (Luke 19:43, 44.)

n. And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. (Mat. 24:2.)

o. When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand,) Then let them which be in Judea flee into the mountains. (Mat. 24:15, 16.)

p. For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return: the consumption decree shall overflow with righteousness. For the Lord God of hosts shall make a consumption, even determined, in the midst of all the land. (Is. 10:22, 23.)

q. But if ye will not hearken unto me, and will not do all these commandments; And if ye shall despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that ye break my covenant: I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror, consumption, and the burning ague, that shall consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart: and ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it. (Lev. 26:14-16.)

Chapter 10.

a. His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire; And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters. (Rev. 1:14, 15.)

b. And after six days Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart, And was transfigured before them; and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light. (Mat. 17:1, 2.)

c. And the angel said unto them, Fear not; for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. (Luke 2:10.) Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness. (Is. 41:10.)

d. Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil, he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee. (Jude 9.) And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. (Rev. 12:7, 8.)

e. And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged. (Is. 6:7.) Then the Lord put forth his hand, and touched my mouth. And the Lord said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth. (Jer. 1:9.)

f. Then the angel of the Lord went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians an hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses. (Is. 37:36.) And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory; and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost. (Acts 12:23.)

hold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Pĕr'şiȧ; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grē'cią.

3 And a [2]mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and [a]do according to his will.

4 And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside those.

5 ¶ And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the [3]king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times.

7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail:

8 And shall also carry captives into Ē'ġўpt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

10 But his sons shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, [b]and overflow, and pass through: then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it.

13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the [4]king of the south: also the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

2. Alexander the Great. See v. 4.

3. Bernice, daughter of Ptolemy Philadelphus.

4. Philip, king of Macedon.

5. Antiochus against Ptolemy Ephiphanes.

6. Steadfast, determined.

7. That is, Antiochus.

8. Ptolemy Philometer, son of Cleopatra, sister of Antiochus, who was joined in covenant with him.

15 So the king of the north shall come, and [c]cast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities: and the arms [d]of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 But he that [5]cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and [e]none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also set his [6]face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus shall [7]he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him.

19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and [f]not be found.

20 Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle.

21 And in his estate shall stand up a [g]vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the [h]kingdom by flatteries.

22 And with the arms of a flood shall they be [i]overflown from behind him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince [8]of the covenant.

23 And after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

24 He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that [j]feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak [k]lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land.

29 At the time appointed he shall return,

Chapter 11.

a. I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great. (Dan. 8:4.)

b. And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over; he shall reach even to the neck: and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel. (Is. 8:8.) And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined. (Dan. 9:26.)

c. For thus hath the Lord of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and cast them out against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her. (Jer. 6:6.)

d. There is no king saved by the multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength. An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength. (Ps. 33:16, 17.)

e. There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life: as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee: I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee. (Josh. 1:5.)

f. He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found; yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night. (Job 20:8.) Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not; yea, I sought him, but he could not be found. (Ps. 37:36.) God shall likewise destroy thee for ever: he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah. (Ps. 52:5.) I will make thee a terror, and thou shalt be no more: though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou never be found again, saith the Lord God. (Ez. 26:21.)

g. And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land (9). And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand. (Dan. 8:9, 25.)

h. And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel. (II Sam. 15:6.)

i. And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people. And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand. (Dan. 8:24, 25.)

j. Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide; keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom. (Mic. 7:5.)

k. They speak vanity every one with his neighbor: with flattering and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter.

30 ¶ For [l]the ships of Chĭt'tim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that [9]forsake the holy covenant.

31 And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall [m]pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate.

32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do [n]know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

33 And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: [o]yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity and by spoil, many days.

34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try [p]them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for [10]a time appointed.

36 And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall [q]exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers nor the desire of women, [r]nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all.

38 But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain.

40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

41 He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Ē'dom, and Mō'ab, and the chief of the children of Ăm'mŏn.

42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Ē'gўpt shall not escape.

43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Ē'gўpt: and the Lĭb'ў-anş and the Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-anş shall be at his steps.

44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many.

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the [s]seas in the glorious holy [11]mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

9. That is, to favor the Jews who have forsaken God and joined the heathen.

10. That is, God will not allow his people punished beyond a limit appointed.

11. Jerusalem and Mt. Zion.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Michael shall deliver Israel from their troubles. 5 Daniel is informed of the times.

1 [1]And at that time shall Mī'chaĕl stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: [a]and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people [b]shall be delivered, every one that shall be [c]found [2]written in the book.

2 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

3 And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness [d]as the stars for ever and ever.

4 But thou, O Dăn'iel, shut up the words, and seal [3]the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run [4]to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

5 ¶ Then I Dăn'iel looked, and, behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river.

6 And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever [e]that it shall be for a [5]time, times, and an half; and [f]when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

1. Ch. 12 contains a description of the vision and an epilogue to the book.

2. That is, Jehovah has inscribed in a book the names of all the righteous. (Rev. 13:8)—"And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world." (Ex. 32:32)—"Yet now if thou wilt forgive their sin, and if not blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book, which thou hast written."

3. The words of Daniel were not perfectly understood at that time, consequently they were to be sealed and kept in perfect security until the time when God would make all plain.

4. Scrutinizing and searching the book, whose seals have been unloosed.

5. "Time, times and half-time," or three and a half, is half of seven, the perfect or complete number, thus indicating a semi-perfect state—probationary.

lips, and with a double heart, do they speak. (Ps. 12:2.) Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity. (Ps. 62:9.)

l. Fulfilled B. C. 168.—And ships shall come from the coast of Chittim, and shall afflict Asshur, and shall afflict Eber, and he also shall perish for ever. (Num. 24:24.) For pass over the isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing. (Jer. 2:10.)

m. As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations and of their detestable things therein: therefore have I set it far from them. And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall pollute it. (Ez. 7:20, 21.) Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. (Dan. 8:11.)

n. And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart, and with a willing mind; for the Lord searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever. (I Chr. 28:9.)

o. Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens (33, 34). And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment: They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goat-skins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented. (Heb. 11:33, 34, 36, 37.)

p. Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. (Js. 1:12.) That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honor and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ. (I Pet. 1:7.)

q. Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God. (II Thess. 2:4.) And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months. (Rev. 13:5.)

r. For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north. (Is. 14:13.)

s. But I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea, and his hinder part toward the utmost sea, and his stink shall come up, and his ill savor shall come up, because he hath done great things. (Joel 2:20.)

Chapter 12.

a. For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. (Mat. 24:21.)

b. And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob. (Rom. 11:26.)

c. Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin—; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written. (Ex. 32:32.) Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven. (Luke 10:20.)

d. There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory. (I Cor. 15:41.)

e. And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. (Rev. 12:14.)

f. And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled. (Luke 21:24.)

8 And I heard, but I [6]understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?

9 And he said, Go thy way, Dăn'iel: for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end.

10 Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand.

6. While Daniel understood the leading features of the vision, yet he did not understand as to the times.

7. In the grave.

8. Implying justification unto life.

11 And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

12 Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days.

13 But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou [g]shalt [7]rest, and [8]stand in thy [h]lot at the end of the days.

g. He shall enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness. (Is. 57:2.) And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them. (Rev. 14:13.)

h. But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away. Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous. For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish. (Ps. 1:2-6.)

HOSEA

NOTE.—The first of the 12 minor prophets. Not the first because it was thought to have been written first, as Joel and Amos were both written prior to Hosea, but placed first because it is the longest. Called one of the minor prophets, not because it is considered more doubtful in point of inspired authority, but simply in point of size. All 12 of the books of the minor prophets do not fill as many pages as Ezekiel. Hosea wrote during the time of Jeroboam, and has been called the prophet of the decline and fall of Israel.

The book we have is by no means considered as embracing all the teachings of Hosea, but simply that portion which, in the providence of God, should be preserved for future generations. The author is especially characterized for his vivid earnestness and unalloyed patriotism. His style is abrupt and unrounded. The first and third chs. are in prose—the remaining portion is rhythmical.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Hosea, to shew God's judgment for spiritual whoredom, taketh Gomer, 4 and hath by her Jezreel, 6 Lo-ruhamah, 8 and Loammi. 10 The restoration of Judah and Israel.

1 The [1]word [a]of the Lord that came unto Ho-şē'a, the son of Be-ē'rī, in the days of Ūz-zī'ah, Jō'tham, Ā'hăz, and Hĕz-e-kī'ah, kings of Jū'dah, and in the days of Jĕr-o-bō'am the son of Jō'ăsh, king of Ĭs'ra-el.

2 The beginning of the word of the Lord by Ho-şē'a. And the Lord said to Ho-şē'a, Go, take unto thee a wife of [2]whoredoms and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the Lord.

3 So he went and took Gō'mer the daughter of Dĭb'la-ĭm; which conceived, and bare him a son.

4 And the Lord said unto him, Call his name Jĕz're-el; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jĕz're-el upon the house of Jē'hū, [b]and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Ĭs'ra-el.

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Ĭs'ra-el in the valley of Jĕz're-el.

6 ¶ And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name [3]Lo-ru'ha-mah: for I will no more have mercy upon the house of Ĭs'ra-el; but I will utterly [4]take them away.

7 But I will have [5]mercy upon the house of Jū'dah, and will save them by the Lord their God, and will not save them by [6]bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

8 ¶ Now when she had weaned Lo-ru'ha-mah, she conceived, and bare a [7]son.

9 Then said God, Call his name [8]Lō-ăm'mī: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

10 ¶ Yet [c]the number of the children of Ĭs'ra-el shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured [9]nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are [d]the sons of the living God.

11 Then shall the children of Jū'dah and the children of Ĭs'ra-el be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jĕz're-el.

Ch. 1. B. C. 785.

1. In ch. 1 the spiritual whoredom of Israel is symbolically set forth. It should be remembered that this is the sin which largely brought upon Israel her many punishments.

2. A symbolical vision or picture of Israel's unfaithfulness to Jehovah, who had married the nation at Sinai. (Ez. 16:8, 15)—"Now when I passed by thee and looked upon thee, behold thy time was the time of love, and I spread my skirt over thee and covered thy nakedness: Yea I swore unto thee and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and thou becamest mine" (8). "But thou didst trust in thine own beauty and playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornication on every one that passed by" (15).

3. Meaning uncompassionated.

4. Israel was never restored from Assyria as Judah was from Babylon.

5. Mentioned in contrast with Israel. Their accusations were more on the order of inconstancy than absolute rebellion.

6. That is, their warlike strength upon which Israel was relying. For this Jehovah would not save them.

7. The third child.

8. Meaning, not my people.

9. Partially fulfilled in the return from Babylon, but to be fulfilled in its fullness, hereafter in Israel's restoration. (Rom. 11:26)—"And so all Israel shall be saved, as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob."

Ch. 2. B. C. 785.

1. In this ch. is made the application of the symbols in ch. 1.

2. Expostulate.

3. An allegory, the meaning of which is that north Israel shall be put to open shame and deprived of the blessings promised them.

4. The day when delivered from the bondage of Egypt.

5. That is, Israel was unfaithful to Jehovah and took up Baalim, idol worship.

6. That is, hindrances, as her captivity, to separate her from her idols.

7. Crosses in an evil course are sometimes Jehovah's hedges or walls to turn us back.

8. She did not know it was Jehovah and not the idols or "lovers" alluded to.

9. That is, strip her of her necessaries by removing the blessings of God, and leave her in open shame to the mercy of the powerless idols.

10. The wages of a harlot.

11. Idols.

12. Nevertheless.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Idolatry of the people. 6 God's judgments against them. 14 His promises of reconciliation with them.

1 [1]Say ye unto your brethren, Ăm'mī; and to your sisters, Ru'ha-mah.

2 Plead [2]with your mother, plead: for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her [a]whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

3 Lest [b]I [3]strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she [4]was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with [c]thirst.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of whoredoms.

5 For their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go [5]after my lovers, [d]that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink.

6 ¶ Therefore, behold, I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and [6]make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: [7]then shall she say, I will go and return to my [e]first husband; for then was it better with me than now.

8 For she did not [8]know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Bā'al.

9 Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now will I discover her [9]lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.

11 [f]I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

12 And I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, whereof she hath said, These are my [10]rewards that my [11]lovers have given me: and [g]I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

13 And I will visit upon her the days of Bā'al-ĭm, wherein she burned incense to them, and she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgat me, saith the Lord.

14 ¶ Therefore, [12]behold, I will allure her,

a. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man; but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. (II Pet. 1:21.)

b. And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and smote him before the people, and slew him, and reigned in his stead (10). This was the word of the Lord which he spake unto Jehu, saying, Thy son shall sit on the throne of Israel unto the fourth generation. And so it came to pass. (II Ks. 15:10, 12.)

c. As he saith also in Osee, I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved. And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God. Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved. (Rom. 9:25-27.)

d. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name. (Jno. 1:12.) Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God! therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. (I Jno. 3:1.)

Chapter 2.

a. Thou hast built thy high place at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms. (Ez. 16:25.)

b. And if thou say in thine heart, Wherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts discovered, and thy heels made bare. (Jer. 13:22.)

c. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord. (Amos 8:11.)

d. But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil. (Jer. 44:17.)

e. Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I sware unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and thou becamest mine. (Ez. 16:8.)

f. The new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merry-hearted do sigh. (Is. 24:7.) And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentations; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day. (Amos 8:10.)

g. And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down. (Is. 5:5.)

and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her.

15 And I will give her her vineyards from [13]thence, and [h]the valley of A'chor for a door of hope: and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of E'gy̆pt.

16 And it shall be at that day, saith the Lord, that thou shalt call me Ish'ī; and shalt call me no more [i]Bā'al-ī.

17 For I will take away the names of Bā'al-īm out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

18 And in that day will I make a [j]covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and [k]I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely.

19 And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in lovingkindness, and in mercies.

20 I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness: and [l]thou shalt know the Lord.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, [m]I will [14]hear, saith the Lord, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth;

22 And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jĕz're-el.

23 And I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I [n]will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

CHAPTER 3.

1 By the expiation of an adulteress, 4 is shewed the desolation of Israel before their restoration.

1 Then said the Lord unto me, Go [1]yet, love a woman beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the Lord toward the children of Is'ra-el, who look to other gods, and love [2]flagons of wine.

2 So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and for an homer of barley, and an half homer of barley:

3 And I said unto her, Thou shalt abide [a]for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man: so will I also be for thee.

4 For the children of Is'ra-el shall abide many days without a [3]king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without [b]an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim:

5 Afterward shall the children of Is'ra-el [4]return, and [c]seek the Lord their God, and Dā'vid their king; and shall fear the Lord and his goodness in the [d]latter [5]days.

CHAPTER 4.

1 God's judgments against the sins of the people, 6 and of the priests, 12 and against their idolatry.

1 [1]Hear the word of the Lord, ye children of [2]Is'ra-el: for the Lord hath a [a]controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land.

2 By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood [3]toucheth blood.

3 Therefore [b]shall the land mourn, and [c]every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

4 Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for [4]thy people are as they [d]that strive with the priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall [e]in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will destroy thy mother.

6 ¶ My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

7 As they were increased, so they sinned against me: therefore will I change their glory into shame.

8 They eat up [5]the sin of my people, and they set their heart on their iniquity.

9 And there shall be, [6]like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their ways, and reward them for their doings.

10 For [f]they shall eat, and not have enough: they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have left off to take heed to the Lord.

11 Whoredom and wine and new wine [g]take away the heart.

12 ¶ My people ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err,

a. And she shall put the raiment of her captivity from off her, and shall remain in thine house, and bewail her father and her mother a full month: and after that thou shalt go in unto her, and be her husband, and she shall be thy wife. (Dt. 21:13.)

b. In that day shall there be an altar to the Lord in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border thereof to the Lord. (Is. 19:19.)

c. Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. (Mat. 7:7.) And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, hast not forsaken them that seek thee. (Ps. 9:10.) And he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin; The Lord is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you. (II Chr. 15:2.) I sought the Lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears. (Ps. 34:4.)

d. But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the Lord shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it. (Mic. 4:1.)

Chapter 4.

a. Hear ye, O mountains, the Lord's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the Lord hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel. (Mic. 6:2.)

b. Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of Egypt. (Amos 8:8.)

c. I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the stumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the Lord. (Zeph. 1:3.)

d. And the man that will do presumptuously, and will not hearken unto the priest, that standeth to minister there before the Lord thy God, or unto the judge, even that man shall die: and thou shalt put away the evil from Israel. (Dt. 17:12.)

e. Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe unto us! for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. (Jer. 6:4.)

f. Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver; and that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword. (Mic. 6:14.)

g. But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; the priest and the prophet have erred through strong and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: [h]therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14 I will not punish your [7]daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall fall.

15 ¶ Though thou, Ĭs'ra-el, play the harlot, yet let not Jū'dah offend; and come not ye unto Gĭl'găl, neither go ye up to [i]Bĕth-ā'ven, nor [j]swear, The Lord liveth.

16 For Ĭs'ra-el slideth back as a backsliding heifer: now the Lord will feed them as a lamb in a large place.

17 Ē'phrăĭm is joined to idols: let [k]him alone.

18 Their drink is sour: they have committed whoredom continually: her rulers with shame do love, Give ye.

19 The wind hath bound her up in her wings, and they shall [l]be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

CHAPTER 5.

1 God's judgments against the priests, the people, and the princes of Israel, for their manifold sins, 15 until they repent.

1 [1]Hear ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Ĭs'ra-el; and give ye ear, O house of the [2]king; for judgment is [3]toward you, because ye have been a snare on Mĭz'pah, and a net spread upon Tā'bor.

2 And the [4]revolters are [5]profound to make [6]slaughter, though I have been a rebuker of them all.

3 I [a]know [7]Ē'phrăĭm, and Ĭs'ra-el is not hid from me: for now, O Ē'phrăĭm, thou committest whoredom, and Ĭs'ra-el is defiled.

4 They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the Lord.

5 And the pride of Ĭs'ra-el doth testify to his face: therefore shall Ĭs'ra-el and Ē'phrăĭm fall in their iniquity; Jū'dah also shall fall with them.

6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the Lord; but they shall not find him; he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have dealt treacherously against the Lord: for they have begotten strange children: now shall a month devour them with their portions.

8 Blow ye the cornet in Gĭb'e-ah, and the trumpet in Rā'mah: cry aloud at Bĕth-ā'ven, after thee, O Bĕn'ja-min.

9 Ē'phrăĭm shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Ĭs'ra-el have I made known that which shall surely be.

10 The princes of Jū'dah were like them that [b]remove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

11 Ē'phrăĭm is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after [c]the commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto Ē'phrăĭm as a moth, and to the house of Jū'dah as rottenness.

13 When Ē'phrăĭm saw his sickness, and Jū'dah saw his wound, then went Ē'phrăĭm to the Ăs-sўr'ĭ-an, and sent to king Jā'reb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

14 For I will be unto Ē'phrăĭm as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Jū'dah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15 ¶ I will go and return to my place, till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me [d]early.

CHAPTER 6.

An exhortation to repentance.

1 Come, [1]and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and [a]he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2 After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live [2]in his sight.

3 Then [b]shall we know, [3]if we follow on to know the Lord: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

4 ¶ O Ē'phrăĭm, what shall I do unto thee? O Jū'dah, what shall I do unto thee? for your [4]goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore have I hewed them [c]by the prophets; I have slain them by [d]the words of my mouth: and thy [5]judgments are as the light that goeth forth.

6 For I desired [e]mercy, and [6]not sacrifice; and the [f]knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

7 But they like men have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.

1. In ch. 5 the prophet discourses on the judgments Jehovah shall send upon the priests, princes and people of Israel.

2. Pekah.

3. That is, the judgments of retributions of Jehovah threaten you.

4. Apostates.

5. Deeply rooted; excessive in their idolatrous practices.

6. It should be observed here that the prophet does not say "make sacrifices," instead he uses the word "slaughter," as their so-called sacrifices are only butcheries. They were offered to idols and not to the true and living God.

7. Is here mentioned as foremost in idolatrous worship. For 400 years in early history, Ephraim with the two dependent tribes, Manasseh and Benjamin, held pre-eminence in the whole nation.

Ch. 6. B. C. 780.

1. Vs. 1-3 are closely connected with ch. 5. The prophet here readily enters into Israel's feelings of repentance. They exclaim, "Let us return to God that he may return to us," as in ch. 5:15, Jehovah had returned unto his place.

2. Live under the influence of his blessings as they had of old.

3. That is, be zealous to know Jehovah as our Master and Friend, and well might they, because the loss of this knowledge was the cause of Israel's fall and misery.

4. Godliness.

5. The judgments sent upon thee in retribution.

6. That is, rather than sacrifice; Jehovah values moral obedience above ceremonial sacrifice.

drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment. (Is. 28:7.)

h. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient. (Rom. 1:28.)

i. And he set the one in Bethel, and the other put he in Dan. (I Ks. 12:29.) The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it. (Hos. 10:5.)

j. They that swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, Thy God, O Dan, liveth; and, The manner of Beersheba liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again. (Amos 8:14.) I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the Chemarims with the priests; And them that worship the host of heaven upon the house-tops; and them that worship and that swear by the Lord, and that swear by Malcham. (Zeph. 1:4, 5.)

k. Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall in the ditch. (Mat. 15:14.)

l. As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets. (Jer. 2:26.)

Chapter 5.

a. Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance. (Ps. 90:8.)

b. Thou shalt not remove thy neighbor's land-mark, which they of old time have set in thine inheritance, which thou shalt inherit in the land that the Lord thy God giveth thee to possess it. (Dt. 19:14.)

c. Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. (I Ks. 12:28.)

d. Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. (Mat. 7:7.) And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, hast not forsaken them that seek thee. (Ps. 9:10.) And he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin; The Lord is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you. (II Chr. 15:2.) I sought the Lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears. (Ps. 34:4.)

Chapter 6.

a. For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the Lord; because they called thee an Outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after. (Jer. 30:17.)

b. The Proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel; To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding (1, 2). For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck. (Prov. 1:1, 2, 9.)

d. For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. (Heb. 4:12.)

e. But if ye had known what this meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless. (Mat. 12:7.)

f. And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. (Jno. 17:3.)

8 Gĭl'e-ăd is a city of them that work iniquity, and is polluted with blood.

9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way by consent: for they commit lewdness.

10 I have seen an horrible thing in the house of Ĭs'ra-el: there is the whoredom of Ē'phrăim, Ĭs'ra-el is defiled.

11 Also, O Jū'dah, he hath set an harvest for thee, [g]when I returned the [7]captivity of my people.

CHAPTER 7.

1 A reproof of manifold sins. 11 God's wrath against them.

1 When [1]I would have healed [2]Ĭs'ra-el, then the iniquity of Ē'phrăim was discovered, and the wickedness of Sa-mā'rĭ-à: for they commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without.

2 And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their [a]own doings have [3]beset them about; they are [b]before my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with [c]their lies.

4 They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.

5 In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners.

6 For they have made ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges; all their kings [d]are fallen: [e]there is none among them that calleth unto me.

8 Ē'phrăim, he [f]hath mixed himself among the people; Ē'phrăim is a cake [4]not turned.

9 [5]Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, [6]gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not.

10 And the pride of Ĭs'ra-el testifieth to his face: and they do not return to the Lord their God, nor seek him for all this.

11 ¶ Ē'phrăim also is like a [7]silly dove without heart: they call to Ē'gўpt, they go to Ăs-sўr'ĭ-à.

12 When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them, [g]as their congregation hath heard.

13 Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

14 And they have [h]not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

15 Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.

16 They return, but not to the most High: they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision in the land of Ē'gўpt.

CHAPTER 8.

Destruction threatened for impiety, and idolatry.

1 [1]Set the trumpet to thy mouth. He shall come [a]as an eagle against the house of the Lord, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

2 Ĭs'ra-el [b]shall [2]cry unto me, My God, we know thee.

3 Ĭs'ra-el hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him.

4 They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off.

5 ¶ Thy calf, O Sa-mā'rĭ-à, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them: [c]how long will it be ere they attain to innocency?

6 For from Ĭs'ra-el was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Sa-mā'rĭ-à shall be broken in pieces.

7 For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.

8 [3]Ĭs'ra-el is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gĕn'tīleş as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.

9 For [d]they are gone up to Ăs-sўr'ĭ-à, a wild [4]ass alone by himself: Ē'phrăim hath hired lovers.

10 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall sorrow a little for the burden of [e]the king of princes.

11 Because [5]Ē'phrăim hath made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.

12 I have written to him [f]the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing.

13 They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it; but the Lord accepteth them not; now will he remember their

7. When Jehovah caused 200,000 women, sons and daughters, to be returned from captivity by Israel. (II Chr. 28:6-15.)

Ch. 7. B. C. 780.

1. In this ch. the prophet delivers a severe reproof to Israel, especially to the ruling class, whose moral life has become the stumbling block to the nation.

2. That is, politically as well as morally.

3. As witnesses against them.

4. A cake burnt on one side and dough on the other. An image of the worthlessness of Ephraim.

5. Foreigners.

6. Indications of a national dissolution.

7. Meaning easily deceived.

Ch. 8. B. C. 760.

1. In ch. 8 the prophet threatens the destruction of Israel because of its idolatry.

2. That is, when they feel the weight of punishment they will claim their original relationship to Jehovah and cry aloud unto him.

3. Vs. 8-14 declare the judgment as already having begun, because of their intercourse with Assyria, their religious abuses, and their placing of confidence in the 45 cities instead of Jehovah.

4. A figure representing Israel's headstrong perversity.

5. "For," as a justification of the above threat.

g. When the Lord turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream. (Ps. 126:1.)

Chapter 7.

a. His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his sins. (Prov. 5:22.)

b. Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance. (Ps. 90:8.)

c. Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them. (Rom. 1:32.)

d. And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and smote him before the people, and slew him, and reigned in his stead (10). For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and slew him, and reigned in his stead (14). But Pekah the son of Remaliah, a captain of his, conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria, in the palace of the king's house, with Argob and Arieh, and with him fifty men of the Gileadites: and he killed him, and reigned in his room (25). And Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and smote him, and slew him, and reigned in his stead, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah. (II Ks. 15:10, 14, 25, 30.)

e. For the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the Lord of hosts. (Is. 9:13.) And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us, because of our iniquities. (Is. 64:7.)

f. They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom the Lord commanded them: But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works. (Ps. 106:34, 35.)

g. But if ye will not hearken unto me, and will not do all these commandments; And if ye shall despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that ye break my covenant: I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror, consumption, and the burning ague, that shall consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart: and ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it. (Lev. 26:14-16.)

h. Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honor me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men. (Is. 29:13.)

Chapter 8.

a. Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as a whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us! for we are spoiled. (Jer. 4:13.)

b. When he slew them, then they sought him; and they returned and enquired early after God. (Ps. 78:34.) Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. (Mat. 7:21.)

c. I have seen thine adulteries, and thy neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, and thine abominations on the hills in the fields. Woe unto thee, O Jerusalem! Wilt thou not be made clean? when shall it once be? (Jer. 13:27.)

d. And Pul the king of Assyria came against the land: and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him to confirm the kingdom in his hand. (II Ks. 15:19.)

e. For thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people. (Ez. 26:7.)

f. Keep therefore and do them: for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people. (Dt. 4:6.)

iniquity, and visit their sins: they shall return to Ē'gўpt.

14 For [6]Ĭs'ra-el hath forgotten his Maker, and [g]buildeth temples; and Jū'dah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

CHAPTER 9.

The distress and captivity of Israel for their sins and idolatry.

1 [1]Rejoice not, O Ĭs'ra-el, for joy, as other people: for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved a reward upon every cornfloor.

2 The floor and the winepress shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.

3 They shall not dwell in [a]the Lord's land; but Ē'phră-ĭm shall return to Ē'gўpt, and [b]they shall eat unclean things in Ăs-sўr'ĭ-à.

4 They shall not offer [2]wine offerings to the Lord, neither shall they be pleasing [3]unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as the [c]bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the Lord.

5 What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the Lord?

6 For, lo, they are gone because of destruction: Ē'gўpt shall gather them up, [4]Mĕm'phis shall bury them: the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompence are come; Ĭs'ra-el shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 The watchman of Ē'phră-ĭm was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred in the house of his God.

9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of [d]Gĭb'e-ah: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

10 [5]I found Ĭs'ra-el [e]like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the firstripe in the fig tree at her first time: but they went to Bā'al-pē'or, and separated themselves unto that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved.

11 As for Ē'phră-ĭm, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.

12 Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, woe also to them when I depart from them!

13 Ē'phră-ĭm, as I saw Tўr'us, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ē'phră-ĭm shall bring forth his children to the murderer.

14 Give [f]them, O Lord: what wilt thou give? give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

15 All their wickedness is in Gĭl'găl: for there I [6]hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them no more: all their princes are revolters.

16 Ē'phră-ĭm is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit: yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even the beloved fruit of their womb.

17 My God [g]will cast them away, because they did not hearken unto him: and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

CHAPTER 10.

Israel is reproved and threatened for their impiety and idolatry.

1 Ĭs'ra-el [1]is an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto [2]himself: according to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly images.

2 [a]Their heart is divided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall break down their altars, he shall spoil their images.

3 For now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the Lord; what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up as [3]hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Sa-mā'rĭ-à shall fear because of the [b]calves of Bĕth-ā'ven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shall be also carried unto Ăs-sўr'ĭ-à for a present to [c]king Jā'reb: Ē'phră-ĭm shall receive shame, and Ĭs'ra-el shall be ashamed of his own counsel.

7 As for Sa-mā'rĭ-à, her king is cut off as the [4]foam upon the water.

8 The high places also of Ā'ven, the [d]sin of Ĭs'ra-el, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

9 [5]O Ĭs'ra-el, thou hast sinned from the days of Gĭb'e-ah: there they stood: the battle in Gĭb'e-ah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 It is in [e]my desire that I should chastise them; and the people shall be gathered against them, when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 And Ē'phră-ĭm is as an [6]heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ē'phră-ĭm to ride; Jū'dah shall plow, and Jā'cob shall break his clods.

12 Sow to [f]yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the Lord, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

6. Another and later reason (i. e., worldliness and self-dependence) for the "swallowing up" in v. 8.

Ch. 9. B. C. 760.

1. The prophet now forcibly presents to the people their early history, showing them that they have always met the mercy of Jehovah with rebellion, hence there is no course left open for him but to cast off, which he does, into captivity.

2. That is, the wine they drink shall not be pleasing to Jehovah, because it was always offered in connection with their idolatrous sacrifices.

3. As being offered on a profane soil.

4. The ancient capital of Egypt, situated on the west bank of the Nile, south of Cairo.

5. In vs. 10-17 the prophet declares the continued infidelity of the people shall be visited with awful punishment.

6. That is, the divine hatred for sin, which required punishment.

Ch. 10. B. C. 740.

1. That is, stripped of its fruit.

2. Not unto Jehovah.

3. The divine judgment shall be as deadly as hemlock.

4. A fig. denoting short life and speedy dissolution.

5. In vs. 9-15 is recorded another demonstration of Israel's guilt.

6. Israel is here compared to a heifer treading the threshing-floor, which could freely eat as it trudged around in its course, but it became rebellious and its master was compelled to send it to the heavier and more laborious task of the field.

g. And he made an house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sons of Levi. (I Ks. 12:31.)

Chapter 9.

a. The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine; for ye are strangers and sojourners with me. (Lev. 25:23.)

b. And the Lord said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them. (Ez. 4:13.)

c. I have not eaten thereof in my mourning, neither have I taken away ought thereof for any unclean use, nor given ought thereof for the dead: but I have hearkened to the voice of the Lord my God, and have done according to all that thou hast commanded me. (Dt. 26:14.)

d. Now as they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, certain sons of Belial, beset the house round about, and beat at the door, and spake to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring forth the man that came into thine house, that we may know him. (Jud. 19:22.)

e. He found him in a desert land, and in the waste howling wilderness; he led him about, he instructed him, he kept him as the apple of his eye. (Dt. 32:10.)

f. For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck. (Luke 23:29.)

g. Therefore the Lord was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only. (II Ks. 17:18.)

Chapter 10.

a. And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? If the Lord be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word. (I Ks. 18:21.)

b. Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. (I Ks. 12:28.)

c. When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound. (Hos. 5:13.)

d. And I took your sin, the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, even until it was as small as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount. (Dt. 9:21.)

e. And it shall come to pass, that as the Lord rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the Lord will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it. (Dt. 28:63.)

f. The wicked worketh a deceitful work: but to him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward. (Prov. 11:18.)

13 [g]Ye have [7]plowed wickedness, ye have [8]reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit [9]of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

14 [10]Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shăl'man spoiled [h]Bĕth-ăr'bel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

15 So shall Bĕth'-el do unto you because of your[i] great wickedness: in the morning shall the king of Ĭs'ra-el utterly be cut off.

CHAPTER 11.

The ingratitude of Israel unto God for his benefits.

1 [1]When Ĭs'ra-el was a [2]child, then I loved him, and called my [3]son [a]out of Ē'gўpt.

2 As they called them, [4]so they went from them: [b]they sacrificed unto Bā'al-ĭm, and burned incense to graven images.

3 I taught Ē'phră-ĭm also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that [c]I healed them.

4 I drew them with cords [5]of a man, with bands of love: and I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and I laid meat unto them.

5 ¶ He shall not return into the land of Ē'gўpt, but the Ās-sўr'ĭ-an shall be his king, because [d]they refused to return.

6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels.

7 And my people are bent to [6]backsliding from me: though they called them to the most High, none at all would exalt him.

8 [7]How [e]shall I give thee up, Ē'phră-ĭm? how shall I deliver thee, Ĭs'ra-el? how shall I make thee as Ăd'mah? how shall I set thee as Ze-bō'ĭm? [f]mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

9 I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ē'phră-ĭm: [g]for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the [8]midst of thee: and I will not enter into the city.

10 They shall walk after the Lord: he shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.

11 They shall tremble as a bird out of Ē'gўpt, and as a [9]dove out of the land of Ās-sўr'ĭ-ā: and I will place them in their houses, saith the Lord.

7. Plotted wickedness.

8. The fruit of iniquity.

9. The "fruit of lies" here suggests that Israel has been guilty and endeavoring to avail herself of the fruit of her guilt which, in the justice of God, shall become retributive unto her.

10. In vs. 14, 15 the prophet briefly describes the ruin of Israel.

Ch. 11. B. C. 740-728.

1. Though Jehovah's former blessings have been received by Israel only in the spirit of ingratitude resulting in punishment, yet Jehovah promises restoration when retribution has been completed.

2. That is, in the earliest stage of her national existence.

3. A dual call, first into the land of Canaan, second to set before the world an example of true religion.

4. The more they call, the farther they went from them, but the calling kept alive a true spirit in the breast of a remnant which in time bore fruit.

5. A new image suggesting kindness; Jehovah will draw his people unto him by such methods as men can bear.

6. Not only do they backslide, but are determined to do so.

7. In vs. 8-11 is recorded a conflict between justice and love. Justice demands that all relations between Jehovah and Israel be cut off, but love remonstrates, giving the assurance that retribution will produce the necessary healing effect.

8. As thy God.

9. Observe the fig. has changed from a silly dove "easily deceived" to a dove flying to the windows.

Ch. 12. B. C. 725.

1. In this ch. the prophet severely reproves Ephraim and Judah for their infidelity.

2. That is, followeth vain illusions, such as alliances with idolaters.

3. Under Ahaz, Judah had fallen into idolatry.

4. Jacob.

5. He contended with.

12 Ē'phră-ĭm compasseth me about with lies, and the house of Ĭs'ra-el with deceit: but Jū'dah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the saints.

CHAPTER 12.

A reproof of Ephraim, Judah, and Jacob.

1 [1]Ē'phră-ĭm feedeth on [2]wind, and followeth after the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; [a]and they do make a covenant with the Ās-sўr'ĭ-anș, and oil is [b]carried into Ē'gўpt.

2 The Lord hath also a controversy with [3]Jū'dah, and will punish Jā'cob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him.

3 ¶ [4]He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he [c]had power with God:

4 Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he [5]wept, and made supplication unto him: he found him in [d]Bĕth'-el, and there he spake with us;

5 Even the Lord God of hosts; the Lord is his memorial.

6 Therefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually.

7 ¶ He is a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to oppress.

8 And Ē'phră-ĭm said, Yet I am become rich, I have found me out substance: in all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me that were sin.

9 And I that am the Lord thy God from the land of Ē'gўpt will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feast.

10 I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, by the ministry of the prophets.

11 Is there iniquity in Gĭl'e-ăd? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in [e]Gĭl'găl; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

12 And Jā'cob fled into the country of Sўr'ĭ-ā, and Ĭs'ra-el served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.

13 And by a prophet the Lord brought Ĭs'ra-el out of Ē'gўpt, and by a prophet was he preserved.

14 Ē'phră-ĭm provoked him to anger most bitterly: therefore shall he leave his blood upon him, and his reproach shall his Lord return unto him.

---

g. He that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity: and the rod of his anger shall fail. (Prov. 22:8.)

h. Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? have they delivered Samaria out of mine hand? (II Ks. 18:34.) Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah? (II Ks. 19:13.)

Chapter 11.

a. And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the Lord, Israel is my son, even my first-born. (Ex. 4:22.)

b. And they left all the commandments of the Lord their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made a grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal. (II Ks. 17:16.)

c. And said, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the Lord thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and will keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that healeth thee. (Ex. 15:26.)

d. Yet the Lord testified against Israel and against Judah, by all the prophets, and by all the seers, saying, Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets. (II Ks. 17:13.) B. C. 728.

e. Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how shall I do for the daughter of my people? (Jer. 9:7.) And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it. (Luke 19:41.)

f. Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my bowels are troubled for him: I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the Lord. (Jer. 31:20.)

g. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. (Is. 55:8, 9.)

Chapter 12.

a. And the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year; therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison. (II Ks. 17:4.) When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb; yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound. (Hos. 5:13.) Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart: they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria. (Hos. 7:11.)

b. The burden of the beasts of the south: Into the land of trouble and anguish, from whence come the young and old lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them. (Is. 30:6.) And thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell. (Is. 57:9.)

c. And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day (24). And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed. (Gen. 32:24, 28.)

d. And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set upon the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it. And, behold! the Lord stood above it, and said, I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed (12, 13). And he called the name of that place Bethel; but the name of that city was called Luz at the first. (Gen. 28:12, 13, 19.) And God appeared unto Jacob again, when he came out of Padanaram, and blessed him. And God said unto him, Thy name is Jacob: thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, but Israel shall be thy name: and he called his name Israel (9, 10). And Jacob called the name of the place where God spake with him, Bethel. (Gen. 35:9, 10, 15.)

e. Come to Bethel, and transgress; at Gilgal multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after three years. (Amos 4:4.)

CHAPTER 13.

Ephraim's glory, by reason of idolatry, vanisheth.

Ch. 13. B. C. 725.

1 [1]When Ē'phrăim spake [a]trembling, he exalted himself in Ĭs'ra-el; but [b]when he offended in Bā'al, he died.

1. In this ch. the fatal consequence of Ephraim's sinful ingratitude to God is presented. Israel's persistent infidelity has been the signing of her death-warrant.

2 And now [2]they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men that sacrifice kiss the calves.

2. That is, the present generation continues to walk in the sinful paths of their profligate ancestors.

3 Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

3. Thy destruction is of thyself.

4 Yet I am the Lord thy God from the land of Ē'gўpt, and thou shalt know no god but me: for there is no saviour beside me.

5 ¶ I did know thee in the wilderness, in the land of great drought.

6 According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted; therefore have they forgotten me.

7 Therefore I will be unto them as a lion: as a leopard by the way will I observe them:

8 I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: [c]the wild beast shall tear them.

4. That is, Jehovah will not be turned aside from his original purpose.

9 ¶ O Ĭs'ra-el, [3]thou hast destroyed thyself; but in me is thine help.

10 I will be thy king: where is any other that may save thee in all thy cities? and thy judges of whom thou saidst, Give me a king and princes?

11 I [d]gave thee a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath.

12 [e]The iniquity of Ē'phrăim is bound up; his sin is hid.

13 The sorrows of a travailing woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for he should not stay long in the place of the breaking forth of children.

14 [f]I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death: [g]O death, I will be thy plagues; O grave, I will

Ch. 14. B. C. 725.

1. In this ch. Jehovah again promises his blessings upon their repentance. Their abandonment of idolatry is foretold, also that the just shall walk in the way of God, while the wicked shall stumble therein.

2. In vs. 5-9 Jehovah describes the blessings he will give, upon their true repentance.

3. Stumble and fall over their own transgressions.

be thy destruction: [h]repentance shall [4]be hid from mine eyes.

15 ¶ Though he be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come, the wind of the Lord shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: he shall spoil the treasure of all pleasant vessels.

16 Sa-mā'rĭ-ā shall become desolate; [i]for she hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword: their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.

CHAPTER 14.

1 An exhortation to repentance. 4 A promise of God's blessing.

1 [1]O Ĭs'ra-el, return unto the Lord thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.

2 Take with [a]you words, and turn to the Lord: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves [b]of our lips.

3 Ās'shur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses: neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy.

4 ¶ I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.

5 [2]I will be as the dew unto Ĭs'ra-el: he shall grow as the lily, and cast forth his roots as Lĕb'a-non.

6 His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive tree, and his smell as Lĕb'a-non.

7 They that dwell under his shadow shall return; they shall revive as the corn, and grow as the vine: the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lĕb'a-non.

8 Ē'phrăim shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? I have [c]heard him, and observed him: I am like a green fir tree. [d]From me is thy fruit found.

9 Who [e]is wise, and he shall understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? for [f]the ways of the Lord are right, and the just shall walk in them: but the transgressors shall fall [3]therein.

Chapter 13.

a. Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honor is humility. (Prov. 18:12.)

b. And they left all the commandments of the Lord their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made a grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal. (II Ks. 17:16.)

c. Why hast thou then broken down her hedges, so that all they which pass by the way do pluck her? The boar out of the wood doth waste it, and the wild beast of the field doth devour it. (Ps. 80:12, 13.)

d. And the Lord said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them. (I Sam. 8:7.)

e. Is not this laid up in store with me, and sealed up among my treasures? (Dt. 32:34.) My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity. (Job 14:17.)

f. He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the Lord hath spoken it. (Is. 25:8.) Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel (12). And shall put my Spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the Lord have spoken it, and performed it, saith the Lord. (Ez. 37:12, 14.)

g. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? (I Cor. 15:54, 55.)

h. For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance. (Rom. 11:29.)

i. Because they obeyed not the voice of the Lord their God, but transgressed his covenant, and all that Moses the servant of the Lord commanded, and would not hear them, nor do them. (II Ks. 18:12.)

Chapter 14.

a. Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God? (Joel 2:17.)

b. By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name. (Heb. 13:15.)

c. I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the Lord my God. (Jer. 31:18.)

d. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. (Js. 1:17.)

e. Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. (Jno. 18:37.)

f. The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But Wisdom is justified of her children. (Mat. 11:19.) Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner. (I Pet. 2:7.)

JOEL

NOTE.—The Book of Joel consists of three chs. containing an account of the prophecy of Joel, occasioned by the great desolation of Judah by a plague of locusts. The locusts were accompanied by a burning drouth, until all food for man and beast was destroyed. Joel used the occasion as a text for his prophecy, claiming that a calamity which led to such a result was so serious that it was from the hand of Jehovah as retribution. He prophesied entirely of Judea. His style is pure, characterized by smoothness and fluency. Someone has said, he combined the strength of Micah, tenderness of Jeremiah, vividness of Nahum, and sublimity of Isaiah.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Joel, declaring sundry judgments of God, exhorteth to observe them, 8 and to mourn. 14 He prescribeth a fast for complaint.

1 [1]The [a]word of the Lord that came to Jō'el the son of Pe-thū'el.

2 Hear this, ye [2]old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. Hath [3]this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

3 [b]Tell ye [4]your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

4 That which [5]the palmerworm hath left hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworn hath left hath the caterpiller eaten.

5 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; [c]for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For a [6]nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, [d]whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion.

7 He hath [e]laid my vine waste, and barked my fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

8 ¶ Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

9 The meat [7]offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the Lord; the priests, the Lord's ministers, mourn.

10 The field is wasted, [f]the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

11 Be [g]ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

12 The vine is dried up, and the fig tree languisheth; the [8]pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men.

13 Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests: howl, ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat offering and the drink offering is withholden from the house of your God.

14 ¶ Sanctify ye a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the Lord your God, and cry unto the Lord, 15 Alas for the day! for the day of the Lord is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.

16 Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, [h]joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 The seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

18 How do [i]the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

19 O Lord, to thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field.

20 The beasts of the field [j]cry also unto thee: for the [k]rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The terribleness of God's judgment. 12 He exhorteth to repentance, 15 prescribeth a fast, 18 promiseth a blessing thereon.

1 [1]Blow ye the trumpet in Zī'ŏn, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for [a]the day of the Lord cometh, for it is nigh at hand;

2 [b]A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong; [c]there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.

3 A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Ē'dĕn before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them.

4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained: all faces shall gather blackness.

7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

8 Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

10 The earth shall quake before them; the

Ch. 1. B. C. 800.

1. In ch. 1 the prophet gives a vivid description of the terrible desolation caused by the plague of locusts, which was one of the instruments of divine judgment mentioned by Moses. (Dt. 28:38, 39)—"Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field and shall gather but little in, for the locust shall consume it. Thou shalt plant vineyards and dress them, but shalt neither drink of the wine nor gather the grapes; for the worms shall eat them."

2. Addressed, because of their age, as the best judges of the past.

3. Have you ever seen so grievous a calamity?

4. That they may be admonished to fear Jehovah. (Ex. 13:8) —"And thou shalt show thy son in that day, saying, This is done because of that which the Lord did unto me when I came forth out of Egypt."

5. This verse contains the subject or text which is later expanded. The prophet does not mean to speak of four different species of insects, but the four stages of development of the locust, the gnawing, swarming, licking, consuming locust.

6. Alluding to the locust.

7. Meal or food offering.

8. A tree with a straight stem about 20 feet high; bearing fruit about the size of an orange, blood-red throughout.

Ch. 2. B. C. 800.

1. In this ch. the prophet declares the locusts to be symbols of an overrunning and consuming enemy, and that the motive of the judgment is to lead to repentance.

Ref. Joel. Chapter 1.

a. God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets. (Heb. 1:1.) For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man; but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. (II Pet. 1:21.)

b. We will not hide them from their children, showing to the generation to come the praises of the Lord, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done. (Ps. 78:4.)

c. Many days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women: for the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come. (Is. 32:10.)

d. And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions. (Rev. 9:8.)

e. And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned nor digged; but there shall come up briers and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it. (Is. 5:6.)

f. Thus saith the Lord against all mine evil neighbors, that touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit; Behold, I will pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Judah from among them. (Jer. 12:14.)

g. And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the pits, and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; they were ashamed and confounded, and covered their heads. (Jer. 14:3.)

h. And there ye shall eat before the Lord your God, and ye shall rejoice in all that ye put your hand unto, ye and your households, wherein the Lord thy God hath blessed thee. (Dt. 12:7.)

i. Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away. (Hos. 4:3.)

j. The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their meat from God. (Ps. 104:21.)

k. And it came to pass after a while, that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land. (I Ks. 17:7.)

Chapter 2.

a. For the day of the Lord is near upon all the heathen: as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee: thy reward shall return upon thine own head. (Ob. 15.)

b. Woe unto you that desire the day of the Lord! to what end is it for you? the day of the Lord is darkness, and not light. (Amos 5:18.)

c. And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the coasts of Egypt: very grievous were they; before them there heavens [2]shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining:

11 And the Lord shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: [d]for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible; and who can abide it?

12 ¶ Therefore also now, saith the Lord, turn [e]ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning:

13 And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is [f]gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

14 Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him; even a meat offering and a drink offering unto the Lord your God?

15 ¶ [3]Blow the trumpet in Zī'ŏn, sanctify a [3]fast, call a solemn assembly:

16 Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the [g]bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.

17 Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep [h]between the porch and the altar, and let them say, [i]Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

18 ¶ Then will the Lord [j]be jealous for his land, and pity his people.

19 Yea, the Lord will answer and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen:

20 But [k]I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea, and his hinder part toward the [l]utmost sea, and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things.

21 ¶ Fear not, [m]O land; be glad and rejoice: for the Lord will do great things.

22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for [n]the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength.

23 Be glad then, ye children of Zī'ŏn, and rejoice in the Lord your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you [o]the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.

24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow with wine and oil.

25 And I will restore [4]to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpiller, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you.

26 And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed.

27 And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Īs'ra-el, and that [p]I am the Lord your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

28 ¶ And it [q]shall come to pass afterward, that I [r]will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

29 And also upon [s]the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

30 And I will shew [5]wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the Lord come.

32 And it shall come to pass, that [t]whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be delivered: for [u]in mount Zī'ŏn and in Je-rų'sa-lĕm shall be deliverance, as the Lord hath said, and in the remnant whom the Lord shall call.

CHAPTER 3.

1 God's judgments against the enemies of his people. 9 God will be known in his judgment. 18 His blessing upon the church.

1 [1]For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall [2]bring again the captivity of Jū'dah and Je-rų'sa-lĕm,

2 I will also gather [3]all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Je-hŏsh'a-phăt and [a]will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Īs'ra-el, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

3 And they have [b]cast lots for my people; and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a [4]girl for wine, that they might drink.

4 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O

---

2. That is, the illuminating powers of the heavenly bodies are disturbed by the swarming locusts.

3. To call the people to a national gathering to fast and seek repentance.

4. All that has been lost shall be restored upon their due repentance.

5. "The great and terrible day of Jehovah of which Jerusalem's overthrow is the type." (Mal. 4, 5)—"Behold I will send you Elijah, the prophet, before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord."

Ch. 3. B. C. 800.

1. In this ch. is given the account of Jehovah's vengeance on the foes of Israel in the valley of Jehoshaphat; also his blessings on the church.

2. Beginning with the return from Babylon and continuing to the second event of Christ when God will restore his church to perfect felicity. (Calvin.)

3. That is, persecutors of Judah.

4. So little value was placed on a Jewish girl that she was sold for a drink of wine.

were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such. (Ex. 10:14.)

d. Their Redeemer is strong; The Lord of hosts is his name: he shall throughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon. (Jer. 50:34.)

e. If thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the Lord, return unto me; and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remove. (Jer. 4:1.) Therefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually. (Hos. 12:6.)

f. And the Lord passed by before him, and proclaimed, The Lord, The Lord God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth. (Ex. 34:6.)

g. Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency. (I Cor. 7:5.)

h. That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar. (Mat. 23:35.)

i. And Moses besought the Lord his God, and said, Lord, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand? (Ex. 32:11.)

j. So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. (Zech. 1:14.)

k. And the Lord turned a mighty strong west wind, which took away the locusts, and cast them into the Red sea; there remained not one locust in all the coasts of Egypt. (Ex. 10:19.)

l. Every place whereon the soles of your feet shall tread shall be yours: from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even unto the uttermost sea, shall your coast be. (Dt. 11:24.)

m. There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love. (I Jno. 4:18.)

n. For the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things. (Zech. 8:12.)

o. Be patient, therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain. (Js. 5:7.)

p. I am the Lord, and there is none else, there is no God besides me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me. (Is. 45:5.)

q. But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel; And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. (Acts 2:16, 17.)

r. But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified. (Jno. 7:39.)

s. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. (Gal. 3:28.)

t. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. (Rom. 10:13.)

u. I bring near my righteousness; it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not tarry: and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory. (Is. 46:13.)

Chapter 3.

a. For by fire, and by his sword, will the Lord plead with all flesh: and the slain of the Lord shall be many. (Is. 66:16.)

b. In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the strangers carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered

[c]Tȳre, and Zī'dŏn, and all the coasts of Păl'estīne? [d]will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and [e]speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head;

5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things:

6 The children also of Jū'dah and the children of Je-rū'sa-lĕm have ye sold unto the Grē'cians, that ye might remove them far from their border.

7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head.

8 And I will sell your [5]sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Jū'dah, and they shall sell them to the [f]Sa-bē'ans, to a people far off: for the Lord hath spoken it.

9 ¶ Proclaim ye this among the Gĕn'tīles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up:

10 Beat your [g]plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: [h]let the weak say, I am strong.

11 Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O Lord.

12 Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to [i]the valley of Je-hŏsh'a-phăt: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about.

13 Put [j]ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great.

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of [6]decision: for the day of the Lord is near in the valley of decision.

15 The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

16 The Lord also shall roar out of Zī'ŏn, and utter his voice from Je-rū'sa-lĕm; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the Lord will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Ĭs'ra-el.

17 So shall ye know that I am the Lord your God dwelling in Zī'ŏn, my holy mountain: then shall Je-rū'sa-lĕm be holy, and there shall no [k]strangers pass through her any more.

18 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Jū'dah shall flow with waters, and [l]a fountain shall come forth of the house of the Lord, and shall water the valley of Shĭt'tim.

19 Ē'gўpt shall be a desolation, and Ē'dom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the violence against the children of Jū'dah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

20 But Jū'dah shall dwell for ever, and Je-rū'sa-lĕm from generation to generation.

21 For I will cleanse their [7]blood that I have not cleansed: for the Lord dwelleth in Zī'ŏn.

5. Lit. fulfilled when the Jews sold the Phoenicians who had sold them to the country afar off.

6. The valley where they shall meet their doom, the valley of Jehoshaphat.

7. Jehovah will cleanse from the extremest guilt, represented by blood. He saves from guilt that he may save from punishment.

into his gates, and cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them. (Ob. 11.)

c. Thus saith the Lord; For three transgressions of Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not the brotherly covenant. (Amos 1:9.)

d. Thus saith the Lord God; Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy it for the old hatred. (Ez. 25:15.)

e. To me belongeth vengeance and recompence; their foot shall slide in due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste. (Dt. 32:35.) And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them? (Luke 18:7.)

f. And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men of the common sort were brought Sabeans from the wilderness, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads. (Ez. 23:42.)

g. And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. (Is. 2:4.)

h. In that day shall the Lord defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of the Lord before them. (Zech. 12:8.)

i. And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Berachah; and there they blessed the Lord: therefore the name of the same place was called The valley of Berachah, unto this day. (II Chr. 20:26.)

j. And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe. (Rev. 14:15.)

k. And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination or maketh a lie; but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life. (Rev. 21:27.)

l. And it shall be in that day, that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be. (Zech. 14:8.)

AMOS

NOTE.—The Book of Amos is named from its author, a Judean by birth, a monotheist in religion. There is not a verse in his writings where he admits the possibility of any other deity except Jehovah. He scarcely uses a sentence which is not impregnated with a deep sense of Jehovah's righteousness and nearness to His people. To him Jehovah is all-powerful in heaven, earth and sheol. There is nothing which happens by chance in his conception of Jehovah; there is nothing in the affairs of nations or men not under the immediate control of the one true, living, and ever-present God. His style is bold and pure, aggressive and courageous, which qualities are simply reflections of the character of the man himself. He could see nothing but the truth of Jehovah, consequently to some his language would seem to border on the verge of severity, although it was only because of his high conception of the universality of Jehovah's power and the awfulness of sin.

CHAPTER 1.

1 God's judgment upon Syria, 6 upon the Philistines, 9 upon Tyrus, 11 upon Edom, 13 upon Ammon.

1 The words of Ā'mos, who was among [a]the herdmen of Te-kō'ā, which he saw concerning Ĭs'ra-el in the days of Ūz-zī'ah king of Jū'dah, and in the days of Jĕr-o-bō'am the son of Jō'āsh king of Ĭs'ra-el, two years before the [b]earthquake.

2 And he said, The Lord will roar from Zī'ŏn, and utter his voice from Je-rū'sa-lĕm; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Cär'mel shall wither.

3 Thus saith the Lord; For three [1]transgressions of Da-măs'cus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; [c]because they have threshed Gĭl'e-ăd with threshing [2]instruments of iron:

4 But I will send a fire into the house of Hăz'a-el, which shall devour the palaces of Bĕn-hā'dăd.

5 I will break also the bar of Da-măs'cus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Ā'ven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from the house of Ē'dĕn: and the people of Sўr'ĭ-à shall go into captivity unto Kĭr, saith the Lord.

6 ¶ Thus saith the Lord; For three transgressions of [3][d]Gā'zà, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to [4]Ē'dom:

7 But I will send a [5]fire on the wall of Gā'zà, which shall devour the palaces thereof:

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Āsh'dŏd, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Āsh'ke-lŏn, and I will turn mine hand against Ēk'rŏn: and the remnant of the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes shall perish, saith the Lord God.

9 ¶ Thus saith the Lord; For three transgressions of Tўr'us, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to Ē'dom, and remembered not the brotherly covenant:

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tўr'us, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

11 ¶ Thus saith the Lord; For three transgressions of [c]Ē'dom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue his brother [f]with the sword, and did cast off all pĭty, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever:

12 But I will send a fire upon [6]Tē'man, which shall devour the palaces of [7]Bŏz'rah.

13 ¶ Thus saith the Lord; for three [1]transgressions of the children of Ām'mŏn, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ripped up the women with child of Gĭl'e-ăd, that they might enlarge their border:

14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of [g]Răb'bah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind:

15 And their king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, saith the Lord.

Ch. 1. B. C. 787.

1. So persistent have been the sins of Damascus that Jehovah cannot now turn away their punishment.

2. Sometimes the victims were thrown down and the threshing-sledges with the sharp teeth downward were drawn over their bodies.

3. The southernmost of the five capitals of Philistia, the key to Palestine on the south here used as meaning the whole Philistine nation.

4. Judah's most bitter hold.

5. That is, the flame of war.

6. A city of Edom, named after a grandson of Esau. It was especially famed for its wisdom.

7. A city of Edom. (Is. 63:1.)

CHAPTER 2.

1 God's wrath against Moab, 4 Judah, 6 and Israel. 9 God complaineth of their unthankfulness.

1 Thus saith the Lord; For [1]three transgressions of Mō'ab, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he [c]burned the bones of the king of Ē'dom into lime:

2 But I will send a fire upon Mō'ab, and it shall devour the palaces of [2]Kĭr'ĭ-ŏth: and Mō'ab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet:

3 And I will cut off [b]the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the Lord.

4 ¶ Thus saith the Lord; For three transgressions of Jū'dah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; [c]because they have despised the [3]law of the Lord, and have not kept his [4]commandments, and [d]their lies caused them to err, after the which their fathers have walked:

5 But I [e]will send a fire upon Jū'dah, and it shall devour the palaces of Je-rū'sa-lĕm.

6 ¶ Thus saith the Lord; For three transgressions of Ĭs'ra-el, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they sold [f]the righteous for silver, and the poor [5]for a pair of shoes;

7 That pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek: and a [g]man and his father will go in unto the same [6]maid, to profane my [h]holy name:

8 And they lay themselves down upon clothes laid to pledge by every altar, and they

Ch. 2. B. C. 787.

1. That is, because of their persistency in transgression, Jehovah cannot turn away their punishment.

2. The chief city of Moab.

3. The prophet now begins the reproof of his own people, who differ from the other nations in that their sin is directed against God, not merely against man, and that their sin is not committed in ignorance nor in haste, but is willful and in spite of the light that has been given to them.

4. Ceremonial and civil law.

5. Wooden sandals.

6. One of the maids attached to the idol Astartes. A part of her worship was prostitution.

Ref. Amos. Chapter 1.

a. And Joab sent to Tekoah, and fetched thence a wise woman, and said unto her, I pray thee, feign thyself to be a mourner, and put on now mourning apparel. (II Sam. 14:2.) He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds. (Ps. 78:70.)

b. And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the Lord my God shall come, and all the saints with thee. (Zech. 14:5.)

c. Neither did he leave of the people to Jehoahaz but fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria had destroyed them, and had made them like the dust by threshing. (II Ks. 13:7.)

d. Rejoice not thou, whole Palestina, because the rod of him that smote thee is broken: for out of the serpent's root shall come forth a cockatrice, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent. (Is. 14:29.)

e. Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the Lord of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the Lord hath indignation for ever. (Mal. 1:4.)

f. For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away captives. (II Chr. 28:17.)

g. And Joab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city. (II Sam. 12:26.) And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the Ammonites a couching place for flocks: and ye shall know that I am the Lord. (Ez. 25:5.)

Chapter 2.

a. Then he took his eldest son, that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offering upon the wall. And there was great indignation against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land. (II Ks. 3:27.)

b. I shall see him, but not now; I shall behold him, but not nigh: there shall come a Star out of Jacob, and a Sceptre shall rise out of Israel, and shall smite the corners of Moab, and destroy all the children of Sheth. (Num. 24:17.)

c. We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses. (Neh. 1:7.) Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him. (Dan. 9:11.)

d. Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves. (Is. 28:15.) Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served a creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen. (Rom. 1:25.)

e. For Israel hath forgotten his Maker, and buildeth temples; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof. (Hos. 8:14.)

f. That make a man an offender for a word, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the just for a thing of nought. (Is. 29:21.)

g. And one hath committed abomination with his neighbor's wife; and another hath lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in thee hath humbled his sister, his father's daughter. (Ez. 22:11.)

h. And I will set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people; because he hath given of his seed unto Molech, drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god.

9 ¶ Yet destroyed I the Ăm'or-īte before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath.

10 Also I brought you up from the land of Ē'gўpt, and led you forty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Ăm'or-īte.

11 And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Năz'a-rītes. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Īs'ra-el? saith the Lord.

12 But ye gave the Năz'a-rītes wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, [f]saying, Prophesy not.

13 Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

14 Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself:

15 Neither shall he stand that handleth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself: neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself.

16 And he that is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith the Lord.

CHAPTER 3.

The necessity of God's judgment against Israel.

1 [1]Hear this word that the Lord hath spoken against you, O children of Īs'ra-el, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Ē'gўpt, saying,

2 You only have I known of all the families of the earth: [a]therefore [2]I will punish you for all your iniquities.

3 Can two walk together, except they be agreed?

4 Will a lion roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing?

5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all?

6 Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the Lord hath not done it?

7 Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but [b]he revealeth his [3]secret unto his servants the prophets.

8 The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord God hath spoken, [c]who can but prophesy?

9 ¶ Publish in the palaces at [4]Āsh'dŏd, and in the palaces in the land of Ē'gўpt, and say,

Ch. 3. B. C. 787.

1. In ch. 3 is recorded that portion of the prophecy where the ingratitude with which Israel repaid God's love calls down upon the people severe judgments. All will be destroyed save a small remnant.

2. The greater the privilege the greater the punishment.

3. That is, his will or purpose, which he desired carried out through the lives of men.

4. That is, Philistia

5. For.

Ch. 4. B. C. 787.

1. In ch. 4, the prophet reproves the nobles for their oppression and the whole nation for idolatry. He also declares that, as they have heretofore resisted the judgments of God, and reformed not, they must now prepare for the last and greatest of all judgments.

Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Sa-mā'rī-à, and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the oppressed in the midst thereof.

10 For they know not to do right, saith the Lord, who store up violence and robbery in their palaces.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; [d]An adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled.

12 Thus saith the Lord; As the shepherd taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Īs'ra-el be taken out that dwell in Sa-mā'rī-à in the corner of a bed, and in Da-măs'cus in a couch.

13 Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jā'-cob, saith the Lord God, the God of hosts, 14 [5]That in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Īs'ra-el upon him I will also visit the altars of Bĕth'-el: and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

15 And I will smite the winter house with the summer house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith the Lord.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He reproveth Israel for oppression, 4 for idolatry, 8 and for their incorrigibleness.

1 [1]Hear this word, ye kine of Bā'shăn, that are in the mountain of Sa-mā'rī-à, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

2 The Lord God hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fishhooks.

3 And ye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the Lord.

4 ¶ Come to [a]Bĕth'-el, and transgress; at Gĭl'găl [b]multiply transgression; and [c]bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after [d]three years:

5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free offerings: for this liketh you, O ye children of Īs'ra-el, saith the Lord God.

6 ¶ And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: [e]yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

7 And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.

8 So two or three cities wandered unto one to defile my sanctuary, and to profane my holy name. (Lev. 20:3.) For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written. (Rom. 2:24.)

i. Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophesy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits. (Is. 30:10.)

Chapter 3.

a. And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem. (Dan. 9:12.) And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with my stripes. (Luke 12:47.)

b. And the Lord said, Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do? (Gen. 18:17.) For the froward is abomination to the Lord: but his secret is with the righteous. (Prov. 3:32.) Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his Lord doeth: but I have called you friend; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you. (Jno. 15:15.)

c. For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel! (I Cor. 9:16.)

d. In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes. (II Ks. 17:6.) And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it. And at the end of three years they took it; even in the sixth year of Hezekiah, that is the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken. And the king of Assyria did carry away Israel unto Assyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes. (II Ks. 18:9-11.)

a. As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord God; Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols. (Ez. 20:39.)

b. Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend: and come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to Beth-aven, nor swear, The Lord liveth. (Hos. 4:15.) Is there iniquity in Gilead? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in Gilgal; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields. (Hos. 12:11.)

c. And thou shalt say unto them, This is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the Lord; two lambs of the first year without spot, day by day, for a continual burnt offering. The one lamb shalt thou offer in the morning, and the other lamb shalt thou offer at even. (Num. 28:3, 4.)

d. At the end of three years thou shalt bring forth all the tithes of thine increase the same year, and shalt lay it up within thy gates. (Dt. 14:28.)

e. I smote you with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the labors of your hands; yet ye turned not to me, saith the Lord. (Hag. 2:17.)

city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

9 I [f]have smitten you with blasting and mildew: when your gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees increased, the palmerworm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

10 I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Ē'gўpt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

11 I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sŏd'om and Go-mŏr'rah, [g]and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Ĭs'ra-el: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to [2]meet thy God, O Ĭs'ra-el.

13 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, [h]The Lord, The God of hosts, is his name.

CHAPTER 5.

1 A lamentation for Israel. 4 An exhortation to repentance. 21 God rejecteth their hypocritical service.

1 [1]Hear ye this word which I [a]take up against you, even a lamentation, O house of Ĭs'ra-el.

2 The virgin of Ĭs'ra-el is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

3 For thus saith the Lord God; The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Ĭs'ra-el.

4 ¶ For thus saith the Lord unto the house of Ĭs'ra-el, [2]Seek [b]ye me, and ye shall live:

5 But seek not [c]Bĕth'-el, nor enter into Gĭl'găl, and pass not to Bē'er-shē'bă: for Gĭl'găl shall surely go into captivity, and Bĕth'-el shall come to nought.

6 Seek the Lord, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Jō'sĕph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Bĕth'-el.

7 Ye who turn judgment to [3]wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth,

2. That is, Jehovah is now about to visit upon them their last and greatest punishment, the extinction of their nationality. Now what can they do toward relieving the extreme severity?

Ch. 5. B. C. 787.

1. Ch. 5, is an elegy delivered over the prostrate kingdom of Israel. Jehovah declares that the day of judgment shall be terrible to those who scorn and despise it, also that ceremonial services are not accepted by him when the true worship of the heart does not exist. The people are again exhorted to repent.

2. That is, seek me and live.

3. Justice perverted becomes a bitter wrong.

4. A continuation of v. 13. The prophet recognizes that the people will continue in their unrighteousness.

5. Meal or food offering.

8 Seek him that maketh the seven stars and Ŏ-rī'on, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The Lord is his name:

9 That strengtheneth the spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.

10 They [d]hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they [e]abhor him that speaketh uprightly.

11 Forasmuch therefore as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat: ye have [f]built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.

14 Seek [g]good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the Lord, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye [h]have spoken.

15 Hate the [i]evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: [j]it may be that the Lord God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Jō'sĕph.

16 Therefore [4]the Lord, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.

17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will pass through thee, saith the Lord.

18 Woe [k]unto you that desire the day of the Lord! to what end is it for you? the day of the Lord is darkness, and not light.

19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

20 Shall not the day of the Lord be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

21 ¶ I [l]hate, I despise your feast days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.

22 Though ye offer me burnt offerings and your meat [5]offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.

---

f. The Lord shall smite thee with a consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the sword, and with blasting, and with mildew; and they shall pursue thee until thou perish. (Dt. 28:22.)

g. And the Lord said unto Satan, The Lord rebuke thee, O Satan; even the Lord that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire? (Zech. 3:2.)

h. As for our Redeemer, the Lord of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel. (Is. 47:4.)

Chapter 5.

a. Cut off thine hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for the Lord hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath. (Jer. 7:29.)

b. The Lord is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you. (II Chr. 15:2.) Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. (Mat. 7:7.) For thou, Lord, hast not forsaken them that seek thee. (Ps. 9:10.) I sought the Lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears. (Ps. 34:4.)

c. Come to Bethel, and transgress; at Gilgal multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after three years. (Amos 4:4.)

d. That make a man an offender for a word, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the just for a thing of nought. (Is. 29:21.)

e. And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, Michaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may enquire of the Lord: but I hate him; for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. (I Ks. 22:8.)

f. Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: thou shalt build an house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not gather the grapes thereof (30). Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and shalt gather but little in; for the locust shall consume it. Thou shalt plant vineyards, and dress them, but shalt neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes; for the worms shall eat them. (Dt. 28:30, 38, 39.) Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine. (Mic. 6:15.) Therefore their goods shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof. (Zeph. 1:13.)

g. Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. (Mat. 7:7.)

h. The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the Lord, and say, Is not the Lord among us? none evil can come upon us. (Mic. 3:11.)

i. Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. (Rom. 12:9.)

j. And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the people, Ye have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up unto the Lord; peradventure I shall make an atonement for your sin. (Ex. 32:30.)

k. Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth? (Ez. 12:22.) There shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts, And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation. (II Pet. 3:3, 4.)

l. To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the Lord: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he-goats. When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts? Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting. Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them. And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you; yea, when ye make many 24 But let [6]judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

25 Have [m]ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Ĭs'ra-el?

26 But ye have borne the tabernacle of your Mō'lŏch and Chī'ŭn your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.

27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Da-măs'cus, saith the Lord, whose name is The God of hosts.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The wantonness of Israel, 7 shall be plagued with desolation, 12 and their incorrigibleness.

1 [1]Woe to them that are at ease in Zī'ŏn, and trust in the mountain of Sa-mā'rĭ-a, which are named [a]chief of the nations, to whom the house of Ĭs'ra-el came!

2 Pass ye unto [2]Căl'neh, and see; and from thence go ye to [b]Hā'math the great: then go down to Găth of the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes: be they better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border?

3 Ye that [c]put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near;

4 That lie upon beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall;

5 That chant to the sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of musick like Dā'vid;

6 That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments: but they are not grieved for the affliction of Jō'seph.

7 ¶ Therefore now shall they go captive with the first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed.

8 The Lord God hath sworn by himself, saith the Lord the God of hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jā'cob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city with all that is therein.

9 And it shall come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

10 And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he that burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue: for we may not make mention of the name of the Lord.

11 For, behold, the Lord commandeth, and he will smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts.

12 ¶ Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? for [d]ye have turned judgment into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into hemlock:

13 Ye [e]which rejoice in a [3]thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength?

14 But, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Ĭs'ra-el, saith the Lord the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the [f]entering in of Hē'math unto the river of the wilderness.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The judgments of the grasshoppers, 4 and of the fire, are diverted by the prayer of Amos. 10 Amaziah complaineth of Amos.

1 [1]Thus hath the Lord God shewed unto me; and, behold, he formed grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.

2 And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord God, forgive, I beseech thee: [a]by whom shall Jā'cob arise? for he is small.

3 The [b]Lord repented for this: It shall not be, saith the Lord.

4 ¶ Thus hath the Lord God shewed unto me: and, behold, the Lord God called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part.

5 Then said I, O Lord God, cease, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jā'cob arise? for he is small.

6 The Lord [2]repented [b]for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord God.

7 ¶ Thus he shewed me: and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumbline, with a [3]plumbline in his hand.

8 And the Lord said unto me, Ā'mos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Ĭs'ra-el: [c]I will not again pass by them any more:

9 And the high places of Ī'şaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Ĭs'ra-el shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jĕr-o-bō'am with the sword.

10 ¶ [4]Then Ăm-a-zī'ah [d]the priest of Bĕth'-el sent to Jĕr-o-bō'am king of Ĭs'ra-el, saying, Ā'mos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Ĭs'ra-el: the land is not able to bear all his words.

11 For thus Ā'mos saith, Jĕr-o-bō'am shall die by the sword, and Ĭs'ra-el shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.

12 Also Ăm-a-zī'ah said unto Ā'mos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Jū'dah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:

13 But prophesy not again any more at Bĕth'-el; for it is the king's chapel, and it is the king's court.

14 ¶ Then answered Ā'mos, and said to Ăm-a-zī'ah, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was an herdman, and a gatherer of sycomore fruit:

15 And the Lord took me as I followed the

m. Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the Prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness? (Acts 7:42.)

Chapter 6.

a. Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine. (Ex. 19:5.)

b. Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and of Ivah? have they delivered Samaria out of mine hand? (II Ks. 18:34.)

c. Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is for many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are far off. (Ez. 12:27.)

d. They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field. (Hos. 10:4.)

e. There is no king saved by the multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength. An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength. (Ps. 33:16, 17.)

f. And at that time Solomon held a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt, before the Lord our God, seven days and seven days, even fourteen days. (I Ks. 8:65.)

Chapter 7.

a. These two things are come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the sword: by whom shall I comfort thee? (Is. 51:19.)

b. For the Lord shall judge his people, and repent himself for his servants, when he seeth that their power is gone, and there is none shut up, or left. (Dt. 32:36.) Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. (Js. 5:16.) Nevertheless he regarded their affliction, when he heard their cry. (Ps. 106:44.) And the Lord repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people. (Ex. 32:14.) And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. (Joel 2:13.) He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer. (Ps. 102:17.)

c. Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy. (Mic. 7:18.)

d. And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast that is in Judah, and he offered upon the altar. So did he in Bethel, sacrificing unto the calves flock, and the Lord said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Ĭs'ra-el.

16 ¶ Now therefore hear thou the word of the Lord: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Ĭs'ra-el, and drop not thy word against the house of Ĭ'ṣaac.

17 Therefore [c]thus saith the Lord; Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Ĭs'ra-el shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

CHAPTER 8.

1 By a basket of summer fruit is shewed the propinquity of Israel's end. 4 Oppression is reproved.

1 Thus hath the [1]Lord God shewed unto me: and behold a basket of [2]summer fruit.

2 And he said, Ā'mos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the Lord unto me, [a]The end is come upon my people of Ĭs'ra-el; I will not again pass by them any more.

3 And the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord God: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth with silence.

4 ¶ Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail,

5 Saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit?

6 That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

7 The Lord hath sworn by the excellency of Jā'cob, Surely I will never [3]forget any of their works.

8 Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of Ē'ġўpt.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord God, that I [b]will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day:

10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and [4]baldness upon every head; and [c]I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

11 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of [d]hearing [5]the words of the Lord:

12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the Lord, and shall not find it.

13 In that day shall the fair virgins and young men [6]faint for thirst.

14 They that swear [e]by the sin of Sa-mā'rĭ-ā, and say, Thy god, O Dăn, liveth; and, The [f]manner of Bē'er-shē'bà liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again.

CHAPTER 9.

1 The certainty of the desolation. 11 The restoring of the tabernacle of David.

1 [1]I saw the Lord standing upon the altar: and he said, Smite the lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: and cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered.

2 Though [a]they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:

3 And though they [b]hide themselves in the top of Cär'mel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them:

4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, [c]thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and [d]I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.

5 And the Lord God of hosts is he that toucheth the land, and it shall [e]melt, and all that dwell therein shall mourn: and it shall rise up wholly like a flood; and shall be drowned, as by the flood of Ē'ġўpt.

6 It is he that buildeth his stories in the heaven, and hath founded his troop in the earth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The Lord is his name.

7 [2]Are ye not as children of the Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-anṣ unto me, O children of Ĭs'ra-el? saith the Lord. Have not I brought up Ĭs'ra-el out of the land of Ē'ġўpt? and the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes from [f]Căph'tor, and the Sўr'ĭ-anṣ from Kīr?

8 Behold, [g]the eyes of the Lord God are upon the sinful kingdom, and I [h]will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jā'cob, saith the Lord.

9 For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Ĭs'ra-el among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth.

that he had made; and he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made. (I Ks. 12:32.)

e. Then came the word of the Lord unto Jeremiah, saying, Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the Lord concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite; Because that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and I sent him not, and he caused you to trust in a lie; Therefore thus saith the Lord; Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people; neither shall he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the Lord; because he hath taught rebellion against the Lord. OBADIAH

NOTE.—The shortest book in the Old Testament and placed next to Amos to serve as a commentary to the brief prophecy of that book. Amos predicts the subjugation of Edom by the Jews. Obadiah, containing a fuller statement of this subject, immediately follows as an explanatory statement.

1 The destruction of Edom, 3 for their pride, 10 and for their wrong unto Jacob. 17 The salvation and victory of Jacob.

1 [1]The vision of Ō-ba-dī'ah. Thus saith the Lord God [a]concerning Ē'dom; We have heard a rumour from the Lord, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

2 Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised.

3 ¶ The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts [b]of the rock, whose habitation is high; [c]that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4 Though thou [d]exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the Lord.

5 If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grapegatherers came to thee, would they not leave some grapes?

6 How are the things of Ē'saụ searched out! how are his hidden things sought up!

7 All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; they that eat thy bread have laid a wound under thee: there is none understanding in him.

8 Shall I not in that day, saith the Lord, even destroy the wise men out of Ē'dom, and understanding out of the mount of Ē'saụ?

9 And thy [e]mighty men, O Tē'man, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Ē'saụ may be cut off by slaughter.

10 ¶ For thy [f]violence against thy brother Jā'cob [2]shame shall cover thee, and [g]thou shalt be cut off for ever.

11 In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the strangers carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots upon Jerụ'sa-lĕm, even thou wast as one of them.

12 But thou shouldest not have looked on the [3]day of thy brother in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have [h]rejoiced over the children of Jū'dah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

13 Thou shouldest not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity;

14 Neither shouldest thou have stood in the crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldest thou have delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress.

15 For the [4]day of the Lord is near upon all the heathen: [i]as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee: thy reward shall return upon thine own head.

16 For as ye have drunk [5]upon my holy mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually, yea, they shall drink, and they shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.

17 ¶ But upon mount Zī'ŏn shall be [j]deliverance, and there shall be holiness; and the house of Jā'cob shall possess their possessions.

18 And the house of Jā'cob shall be a fire, and the house of Jō'sẹph a flame, and the house of Ē'saụ for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Ē'saụ; for the Lord hath spoken it.

19 And they of the south shall possess the mount of Ē'saụ; [k]and they of the plain the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnẹs: and they shall possess the fields of Ē'phrā-ĭm, and the fields of Sa-mā'rĭ-ā: and Bĕn'ja-min shall possess Gĭl'e-ăd.

20 And the captivity of this host of the children of Ĭs'ra-el shall possess that of the Cā'năan-ītes, even unto Zăr'e-phăth; and the captivity of Je-rụ'sa-lĕm, which is in Sĕph'a-răd, shall possess the cities of the south.

21 And [l]saviours shall come up on mount Zī'ŏn to [6]judge the mount of Ē'saụ; and the kingdom shall be the Lord's.

3. The day of his calamity.

4. The day when Jehovah will manifest himself as a righteous punisher of the ungodly.

JONAH

NOTE.—The Book of Jonah receives its name from him who is its chief personage. As to the author, the Christian scholars are very much divided, many of them claiming that Jonah was himself the author, while about an equal number claim that some unknown person was the author, they being unwilling to assign the authorship to Jonah, yet unable to produce anyone else as the probable author. The book seemingly was written chiefly for the purpose of reproof to Israel, for she had been boasting of being God's elect, yet repented not of her sin, though warned by many prophets; while the great heathen city, Nineveh, center of the great world-power, repented under the preaching of one lone prophet during a period of 40 days. Another purpose of the book is to show forth the folly of disobeying God when one is called to any work.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Jonah, sent to Nineveh, fleeth to Tarshish.
4 He is bewrayed by a tempest, 11 thrown into the sea, 17 and swallowed by a fish.

1 [1]Now the word of the Lord came unto [a]Jō'nah the son of A-mĭt'ta-ī, saying,

2 Arise, go to [2]Nĭn'e-veh, that great city, and cry against it; for [b]their wickedness is come up before me.

3 But Jō'nah rose up to [3]flee unto Tär'shish from the presence of the Lord, and went down to [4][c]Jŏp'pà; and he found a ship going to [5]Tär'shish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tär'shish from the presence of the Lord.

4 ¶ But the Lord sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jō'nah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, [d]call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jō'nah.

8 Then said they unto him, [e]Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 [6]And he said unto them, I am an Hē'brew; and I fear the Lord, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the Lord, because he had told them.

11 ¶ Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous.

12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring it to the land; [f]but they [7]could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the Lord, and said, We beseech thee, O Lord, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and [g]lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O Lord, hast done as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jō'nah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea [h]ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men feared the Lord exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice unto the Lord, and made vows.

17 ¶ Now the Lord had prepared a great fish to swallow [8]up [i]Jō'nah. And Jō'nah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

Ch. 1. B. C. 862.

1. In ch. 1 is given an account of Jonah's mission to Nineveh, his flight, punishment, and miraculous preservation.

2. Situated east of the Tigris; the great city of the heathen nations at that time. This is the only account of a prophet being sent to preach to the heathen. In this case it was not so much to preach repentance to Nineveh as to shame Israel by the fact that a heathen city repented under the first preachings of one lone stranger, whereas God's people have not repented under the powerful preaching of many prophets for many years.

3. In ch. 4 2, is a hint at the cause of Jonah's flight. He seems to have been afraid that, after warning so powerful a heathen city, his prophecies would be set aside by God's "Repenting of the evil which he had threatened, just as he had so long done in sparing Israel."

3. It is also claimed that Jonah felt the sting of being sent to preach to a foreign, idolatrous nation, whose destruction he preferred personally to their repentance.

4. In the region of Dan.

5. Taetessus, in Spain. In the opposite direction to Nineveh.

6. Jonah seems to have purposely used the word Hebrew, as they never used the word Israelite except among themselves.

7. Because Jehovah's displeasure was against them.

8. A symbol of death and miraculous preservation. Typifying the present condition of Nineveh and the necessity of a spiritual resurrection from the depth of sin and moral degradation of their present existence.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Prayer of Jonah. 10 He is delivered from the fish.

1 [1]Then Jō'nah prayed unto the Lord his God out of the fish's belly,

2 And said, I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the Lord, and he heard me; out of the belly of [a]hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

3 For thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the midst of the seas; and the floods compassed me about: all thy billows and thy waves passed over me.

4 Then [b]I said, I am cast out [2]of thy sight; yet I will look again toward [c]thy holy temple.

5 The waters compassed me about, even to the soul: thy depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life from [d]corruption, O Lord my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me I remembered the Lord: [e]and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.

8 They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will [f]sacrifice unto thee with the

Ch. 2. B. C. 862.

1. In this ch. is given an account of Jonah's prayer of faith and deliverance.

2. That is, from favorable regard as a just retribution of one who had fled from the presence of the Lord. He at once desired to flee from the presence of Jehovah, which, after having done, he considers to be the bitterest sorrow he could be forced to bear.

Ref. Jonah. Chapter 1.

a. He restored the coast of Israel from the entering of Hamath unto the sea of the plain, according to the word of the Lord God of Israel, which he spake by the hand of his servant Jonah, the son of Amittai, the prophet, which was of Gath-hepher. (II Ks. 14:25.)

b. Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me. (Gen. 18:20, 21.) Behold, the hire of the laborers which have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth; and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth. (Js. 5:4.)

c. And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as thou shalt need; and we will bring it to thee in floats by sea to Joppa, and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem. (II Chr. 2:16.) Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas. (Acts 9:36.)

d. Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses. (Ps. 107:28.) And they cried unto the Lord, and said, We have sinned, because we have forsaken the Lord, and have served Baalim and Ashtaroth: but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve thee. (I Sam. 12:10.)

e. And Joshua said unto Achan, My son, give, I pray thee, glory to the Lord God of Israel, and make confession unto him; and tell me now what thou hast done; hide it not from me. (Josh. 7:19.) Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what thou hast done. (I Sam. 14:43.)

f. There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the Lord. (Prov. 21:30.) Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he? (I Cor. 10:22.)

g. Be merciful, O Lord, unto thy people Israel, whom thou hast redeemed, and lay not innocent blood unto thy people of Israel's charge. And the blood shall be forgiven them. (Dt. 21:8.)

h. Thou rulest the raging of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them. (Ps. 89:9.) And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish! Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm. And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him. (Luke 8:24, 25.)

i. For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly, so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. (Mat. 12:40.) A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. (Mat. 16:4.)

a. Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations. (Is. 14:9.)

b. For I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes: nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee. (Ps. 31:22.)

c. What prayer and supplication soever be made by any man, or by all thy people Israel, which shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands toward this house: Then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his ways, whose heart thou knowest. (I Ks. 8:38, 39.) We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair. (II Cor. 4:8.)

d. For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. (Ps. 16:10.)

e. In my distress I called upon the Lord, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears. (Ps. 18:6.)

f. Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the Most High. (Ps. 50:14.) I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows unto the Lord voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the Lord.

10 ¶ And the Lord [g]spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jō'nah upon the dry land.

CHAPTER 3.

Jonah, sent again, preacheth to the Ninevites.

1 [1]And the word of the Lord came unto Jō'nah the second time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto Nĭn'e-veh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

3 So Jō'nah arose, and went unto Nĭn'e-veh, according to the word of the Lord. Now Nĭn'e-veh was an exceeding great city of [2]three days' journey.

4 And Jō'nah began to enter into the city a [3]days' journey, and [a]he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and [4]Nĭn'e-veh shall be overthrown.

5 ¶ So the people of [b]Nĭn'e-veh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nĭn'e-veh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nĭn'e-veh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water:

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn [c]every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands.

9 Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 ¶ And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God [d]repented [5]of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

CHAPTER 4.

Jonah, repining at God's mercy, is reproved.

1 [1]But it [a]displeased Jō'nah exceedingly, and he was [2]very angry.

2 And he prayed unto the Lord, and said, I pray thee, O Lord, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tär'shish: for I knew that thou art a [b]gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

3 Therefore [c]now, O Lord, take, I beseech thee, my life from me: for it is better for me to die than to live.

4 ¶ Then said the Lord, Doest thou well to be angry?

5 So Jō'nah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the Lord God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jō'nah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jō'nah was exceeding glad of the gourd.

7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.

8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jō'nah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

9 And God said to Jō'nah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry, even unto death.

10 Then said the Lord, Thou hast had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night:

11 And should not I [d]spare Nĭn'e-veh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand [2]persons [e]that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much [f]cattle?

Ch. 3. B. C. 862.

1. In this ch. is recorded Jonah's second commission to Nineveh, the repentance of the people there, consequent forgiveness of them.

2. About 60 miles around, and would allow 20 miles for a journey. Heathen writers have corroborated Jonah's statement by claiming the city to be in circuit 480 stadia, also that a day's journey was about 150 stadia. (Diorous Siculus.)
In Jonah 4:11, the number of children are numbered at 120,000, which would give a population of about 1,000,000. The great walls were about 100 ft. high and broad enough at the top to give roadway for three chariots abreast. There were over 1,500 lofty towers along its course.

3. Not an uninterrupted day's journey, as the city was only about 18 miles in length; but a day's journey including his stopping from time to time to proclaim his message to the gathering crowds around him.

4. By thus being so definitely stated the message was not a crying out against the sins of Nineveh, but an announcement of its ruin in 40 days, which number is often associated with humiliation, viz., for 40 days Moses, Elijah, and Christ fasted.

5. When they so readily repented, the relations which they had formerly sustained to Jehovah were materially altered, hence the threatened judgment was not executed and it is said "God repented."

Ch. 4. B. C. 862.

1. In this ch. Jonah repines at the mercy God has extended to Nineveh and is reproved by the type of a gourd.

2. Hot with grief or vexation, rather than the passion of anger.

3. 120,000.

now in the presence of all his people. (Ps. 116:17, 18.) By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name. (Heb. 13:15.)

g. For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. (Mat. 8:9.)

Chapter 3.

a. When a prophet speaketh in the name of the Lord, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the Lord hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not be afraid of him. (Dt. 18:22.)

b. The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here. (Mat. 12:41.)

c. Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. (Is. 55:6, 7.)

d. For the Lord shall judge his people, and repent himself for his servants, when he seeth that their power is gone, and there is none shut up, or left. (Dt. 32:36.) And it repented the Lord that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart. (Gen. 6:6.)

Chapter 4.

a. Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil, because I am good? (Mat. 20:15.)

b. And the Lord passed by before him, and proclaimed, The Lord, The Lord God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth. (Ex. 34:6.)

c. But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree: and he requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough; now, O Lord, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers. (I Ks. 19:4.)

d. Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel? (Ez. 33:11.)

e. Moreover your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, and your children, which in that day had no knowledge between good and evil, they shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it. (Dt. 1:39.)

f. Thy righteousness is like the great mountains; thy judgments are a great deep: O Lord, thou preservest man and beast. (Ps. 36:6.) The Lord is good to all; and his tender mercies are over all his works. (Ps. 145:9.)

MICAH

NOTE.—The author of Micah was a native of Moresheth in Judah, about 30 miles southwest from Jerusalem. He prophesied concerning Samaria and Jerusalem in the days of Ahaz, Jotham and Hezekiah of Judah. The book is written in three divisions. First, chs. 1-3 contain prophecies concerning Samaria and Judah, threatening them with judgments on account of their great wickedness; second, chs. 4, 5 are chiefly concerning Messiah and Israel's prosperity under his reign; third, chs. 6, 7 are descriptive of true religion, rebuking the great wickedness of the people and at the same time encouraging them to look to Jehovah for pardon. The style is strong, sublime and vehement. Especially is it noted for its rapid transitions, elegant tropes and piquant plays upon words. A very successful use of the dialogue is made. The highest, purest spirit of piety and morality permeate the entire book.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Micah sheweth the wrath of God against Jacob for idolatry. 10 He exhorteth to mourning.

1 [1]The [a]word of the Lord that came to [b]Mī'-cah the Mō'ras-thīte in the days of Jō'tham, Ā'hăz, and Hĕz-e-kī'ah, kings of Jū'dah, which he saw concerning Sa-mā'rĭ-à and Je-rū'sa-lĕm.

2 [c]Hear, all ye people; hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord God [2]be witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

3 For, behold, [d]the Lord cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth.

4 And the mountains shall be [3]molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

5 For the [e]transgression of Jā'cob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Ĭs'ra-el. What is the trangression of Jā'cob? is it not Sa-mā'-rĭ-à? and what are the high places of Jū'dah? are they not Je-rū'sa-lĕm?

6 Therefore I will make Sa-mā'rĭ-à [f]as an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof shall be burned with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

8 Therefore I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and [4]naked: I will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the owls.

9 For her wound is incurable; for [g]it is come unto Jū'dah; he is come unto the gate of my people, even to Je-rū'sa-lĕm.

10 ¶ Declare ye it not at [5]Găth, weep ye not at all: in the house of Āph'rah roll thyself in the dust.

11 Pass ye away, thou inhabitant of [6]Săph'-ĭr, having thy shame naked: the inhabitant of Zā'a-năn came not forth in the mourning of Bĕth-ē'zel; he shall receive of you his standing.

12 For the inhabitant of Mā'roth waited carefully for good: but evil came down from the Lord unto the gate of Je-rū'sa-lĕm.

13 O thou [h]inhabitant of Lā'chish, bind the chariot to the swift beast: she is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zī'ŏn: for the transgressions of Ĭs'ra-el were found in thee.

14 Therefore shalt thou give presents to Mŏr'esh-eth-găth: the houses of Āch'zīb shall be a lie to the kings of Ĭs'ra-el.

15 Yet will I bring an heir unto thee, O inhabitant of Ma-rē'shah: he shall come unto A-dŭl'lăm the glory of Ĭs'ra-el.

16 Make thee bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

Ch. 1. B. C. 750.

1. Ch. 1 contains an account of the wrath of God directed against Samaria and Judah because of their great wickedness. Samaria is to be overthrown, which is a subject calling upon the people for mourning.

2. That is, Jehovah is now giving you warning, and when the time comes you cannot say, I was not notified. The Lord will be a witness against you.

3. Imagery from the terrible earthquakes and volcanoes are used to describe the awful terror which accompanies the coming of Jehovah in judgment.

4. Of sandals and upper garments to the waist, the sign of mourning.

5. Gratify not the exultant spirit of the foe who would rejoice at the calamity of the Hebrews. (II Sam. 1: 20)—"Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Askelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph."

6. A little village amidst the hills of Judah, the name meaning beauty. Heretofore it has been the "beautiful village," as its name signifies; but now its shame shall be made naked, i. e., it shall be dismantled of its walls which were the garments of cities and its citizens carried into captivity.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Against oppression. 7 A reproof of injustice and idolatry. 12 A promise of restoring Jacob.

1 [1]Woe to them [a]that [2]devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light, they practise it, because [b]it is in the power [3]of their hand.

2 And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

3 Therefore thus saith the Lord; Behold, against [c]this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is evil.

4 ¶ In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! turning away he hath divided our fields.

5 Therefore [4]thou shalt have none that shall cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the Lord.

6 [d]Prophesy ye [5]not, say they to them that prophesy: they shall not prophesy to them, that they shall not take shame.

7 ¶ O thou that art named the house of Jā'cob, is the spirit of the Lord straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do good to him that walketh uprightly?

8 Even of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.

9 The [e]women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.

10 Arise ye, and depart; for this is not

Ch. 2. B. C. 730.

1. In ch. 2 the prophet denounces the evil tendencies of the day, recounting the people's unwillingness to hear the truth, prophesies expulsion from their land, as the proof of their sin, yet promises restoration through the remnant, faithful Judah, and therefore Israel will finally be restored.

2. Deliberately planned, designed.

3. Their rule of conduct is, might makes right.

4. The reason taken up from v. 3, which is because of their crime or sins committed.

5. When the prophets would tell the people of their wickedness, they were in the habit of saying to the prophets, "Cease, prophesy no longer," therefore Jehovah will take them at their word and leave them to their shame.

Ref. Micah. Chapter 1.

a. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man; but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. (II Pet. 1:21.)

b. Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest. (Jer. 26:18.)

c. Hear, O my people, and I will speak, O Israel, and I will testify against thee: I am God, even thy God. (Ps. 50:7.) Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the Lord hath spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me. (Is. 1:2.)

d. For, behold, the Lord cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain. (Is. 26:21.)

e. Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts. (Jer. 2:19.)

f. Hast thou not heard long ago how I have done it, and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste fenced cities into ruinous heaps. (II Ks. 19:25.)

g. Now in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah did Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them. (II Ks. 18:13.) Now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks. And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over; he shall reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel. (Is. 8:7, 8.)

h. And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, I have offended; return from me: that which thou puttest on me will I bear. And the king of Assyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver, and thirty talents of gold. (II Ks. 18:14.)

Chapter 2.

a. For they have made ready their heart like an oven, while they lie in wait; their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire. (Hos. 7:6.)

b. It is in the power of my hand to do you hurt: but the God of your father spake unto me yesternight, saying, Take thou heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad. (Gen. 31:29.)

c. And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the Lord of hosts. (Jer. 8:3.)

d. This is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of the Lord: Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophesy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits. (Is. 30:9, 10.) But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophesy not. (Amos 2:12.)

e. And the children of Israel carried away captive their brethren your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.

11 If a man walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.

12 ¶ I will surely assemble, O Jā'cob, all of thee; I will surely gather the [f]remnant of Is'ra-el; I will put them together as the sheep of Bŏz'rah, as the flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

13 The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and their king shall pass before them, and the Lord on the head of them.

CHAPTER 3.

1 The cruelty of the princes. 5 The falsehood of the prophets. 8 The security of them both.

1 [1]And I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jā'cob, and ye princes of the house of Is'ra-el; Is it not for you to know [2]judgment?

2 Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones;

3 Who [a]also [3]eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.

4 Then [4]shall [b]they cry unto the Lord, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

5 ¶ Thus saith the Lord concerning the prophets that make my people err, that [c]bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him.

6 Therefore [d]night shall [5]be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yea, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer of God.

8 ¶ But truly I am full of power by the [e]spirit of the Lord, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jā'cob his transgression, and to Is'ra-el his sin.

9 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jā'cob, and princes of the house of Is'ra-el, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.

10 They build up Zī'ŏn with blood, and Je-ru'sa-lĕm with iniquity.

Ch. 3. B. C. 710.

1. In this ch. special attention is given to the sins of the prophets, priests and princes.

2. As ye sit in judgment on others, ye should know the justice of the judgments against your own wicked ways.

3. Species of cruel oppression, indicating that the punishment and sins shall correspond.

4. At the time of judgment at which Micah is warning them.

5. Darkness was the image of calamity, which should press upon them so overwhelmingly as to cause them to cease their pretensions of divining. (Zech. 13:4)—"And it shall come to pass in that day that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither shall they wear a rough garment to deceive."

Ch. 4. B. C. 710.

1. In ch. 4 is an account of the prophet's predictions concerning the coming of Christ and the establishment of his kingdom.

2. Though all other people walk after many gods, yet we (the Jews in dispersion) will walk in the name of the Lord, a resolution of the exiled Jews.

11 The [f]heads thereof judge for reward, and [g]the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the Lord, and say, Is not the Lord among us? none evil can come upon us.

12 Therefore shall Zī'ŏn for your sake be [h]plowed as a field, [i]and Je-ru'sa-lĕm shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

CHAPTER 4.

1 The glory, 8 kingdom, 11 and victory of the church.

1 [1]But [a]in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the Lord shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it.

2 And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, and to the house of the God of Jā'cob; and he [b]will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zī'ŏn, and the word of the Lord from Je-ru'sa-lĕm.

3 ¶ And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into [c]plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither [d]shall they learn war any more.

4 But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the Lord of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For [e]all [2]people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the Lord our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith the Lord, [f]will I assemble her that halteth, [g]and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted;

7 And I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the Lord [h]shall reign over them in mount Zī'ŏn from henceforth, even for ever.

8 ¶ And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zī'ŏn, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Je-ru'sa-lĕm.

9 Now why dost thou cry out aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail.

10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zī'ŏn, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Băb'ў-lon; there shalt thou be delivtwo hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria. (II Chr. 28:8.)

f. Behold, at that time I will undo all that afflict thee; and I will save her that halteth, and gather her that was driven out; and I will get them praise and fame in every land where they have been put to shame. (Zeph. 3:19.)

Chapter 3.

a. Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon the Lord. (Ps. 14:4.)

b. Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me. (Prov. 1:28.)

c. Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. (Mat. 7:15.)

d. Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand; and ye shall know that I am the Lord. (Ez. 13:23.)

e. And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God (1). And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power. (I Cor. 2:1, 4.)

f. Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them. (Is. 1:23.)

g. For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. (Jer. 6:13.) Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. (Tit. 1:11.)

h. Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest. (Jer. 26:18.)

i. O God, the heathen are come into thine inheritance; thy holy temple have they defiled; they have laid Jerusalem on heaps. (Ps. 79:1.)

Chapter 4.

a. And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it. (Is. 2:2.)

b. It is written in the Prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me. (Jno. 6:45.)

c. Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning-hooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong. (Joel 3:10.)

d. In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth. (Ps. 72:7.)

e. Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit. (Jer. 2:11.)

f. I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment. (Ez. 34:16.)

g. The Lord doth build up Jerusalem: he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel. (Ps. 147:2.)

h. Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, when the Lord of hosts shall reign in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and before his ancients gloriously. (Is. 24:23.) And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, MAKING INLAID PEARL WORK OF THE ORIENT.

ered; there the Lord shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

11 ¶ Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zī'ŏn.

12 But they know not the thoughts of the Lord, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor.

13 Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zī'ŏn: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the Lord, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Birth of Christ. 4 His kingdom. 8 His conquest.

1 [1]Now gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: they shall smite the judge of Ĭs'ra-el with a rod upon the cheek.

2 But thou, [a]Bĕth'-lĕ-hĕm Ĕph'ră-tah, though thou be little among the thousands of Jū'dah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be [b]ruler in Ĭs'ra-el; whose goings [c]forth have been from of old, from everlasting.

3 Therefore will he give them up, until the time that she which travaileth hath brought forth: then the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Ĭs'ra-el.

4 ¶ And he shall stand and feed in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God; and they shall abide: for now [d]shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

5 And this man [e]shall be the peace, when the Ăs-sўr'ĭ-an shall come into our land: and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight principal men.

6 And they shall waste the land of Ăs-sўr'-ĭ-â with the sword, and the land of [2]Nĭm'rŏd in the entrances thereof: thus shall he deliver us from the Ăs-sўr'ĭ-an, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders.

7 And the remnant of Jā'cob shall be in the midst of many [f]people as a dew from the Lord, as the showers upon the grass, that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men.

8 ¶ And the remnant of Jā'cob shall be among the Gĕn'tīleş in the midst of many people as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep: who, if he go through, both treadeth down, and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

Ch. 5. B. C. 710.

1. In ch. 5 the prophet speaks of the calamities preceding the coming of Christ, his birth, and the conquest of Israel's foes.

2. Babylon.

Ch. 6. B. C. 710.

1. In ch. 6 the prophet appeals to all creation to produce evidence, if they can, of a single case wherein the acts of Jehovah have not been merciful as well as just. He tells the people that Jehovah requires of them real piety, justice, and purity of heart rather than sacrifice.

2. That is, on the contrary from things harsh, Jehovah showed them every kindness from their earliest national existence.

9 Thine hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

10 And [g]it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots:

11 And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds:

12 And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand; and thou shalt have no more soothsayers:

13 [h] Thy graven images also will I cut off, and thy standing images out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more worship the work of thine hands.

14 And I will pluck up thy groves out of the midst of thee: so will I destroy thy cities.

15 And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not heard.

CHAPTER 6.

1 God's controversy for unkindness, 6 for ignorance, 10 for injustice, 16 and for idolatry.

1 [1]Hear ye now what the Lord saith; Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2 Hear ye, O mountains, [a]the Lord's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the Lord hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Ĭs'ra-el.

3 O my people, [b]what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me.

4 [2]For I have brought thee up out of the land of Ē'gўpt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Mō'şeş, Aâr'on, and Mĭr'ĭ-am.

5 O my people, remember now what Bā'lăk [c]king of Mō'ab consulted, and what Bā'laam the son of Bē'or answered him from Shĭt'tim unto Gĭl'găl; that ye may know the righteousness of the Lord.

6 ¶ Wherewith [d]shall I come before the Lord, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves of a year old?

7 Will [e]the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? [f]shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

8 He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

9 The Lord's voice crieth unto the city, and which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed. (Dan. 7:14.)

Chapter 5.

a. And thou, Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel. (Mat. 2:6.)

b. The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be. (Gen. 49:10.)

c. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God. (Ps. 90:2.) In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. (Jno. 1:1.)

d. He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth. (Ps. 72:8.) He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David. (Luke 1:32.)

e. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. (Is. 9:6.) Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men. (Luke 2:14.) For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us. (Eph. 2:14.)

f. Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth. (Ps. 110:3.)

g. And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle-bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace unto the heathen; and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth. (Zech. 9:10.)

h. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered; and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land. (Zech. 13:2.)

Chapter 6.

a. The Lord hath also a controversy with Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him. (Hos. 12:2.)

b. Thus saith the Lord, What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain? (Jer. 2:5.)

c. He sent messengers therefore unto Balaam the son of Beor, to Pethor, which is by the river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt: behold, they cover the face of the earth, and they abide over against me. (Num. 22:5.)

d. But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication. (Rev. 2:14.)

e. I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he-goats out of thy folds. (Ps. 50:9.) For thou desirest not sacrifice, else would I give it; thou delightest not in burnt offering. (Ps. 51:16.) To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the Lord: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he-goats. (Is. 1:11.)

f. But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea, and made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord cast out from before the children of Israel. (II Ks. 16:3.)

the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.

10 ¶ Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the [g]scant measure that is abominable?

11 Shall I count them pure with the wicked [h]balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?

12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

13 Therefore also will I make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy sins.

14 Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver; and that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword.

15 Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.

16 ¶ For the statutes of [h]Ōm'rī are kept, and all the works of the house of Ā'hăb, and ye walk in their counsels; that I should make thee a [i]desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore ye shall bear the reproach of my people.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The church putteth her confidence not in man, but in God. 8 She triumpheth over her enemies.

1 [1]Woe is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grapegleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: [a]my soul desired the firstripe fruit.

2 The good man is perished out of the earth: and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net.

3 ¶ That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, [b]and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

4 The best of them is as a brier: the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity.

5 ¶ Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide: keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

6 For the son dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter in law against her mother in law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

7 Therefore I will look unto the Lord; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me.

8 ¶ Rejoice [c]not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the Lord shall be a light unto me.

9 I will bear the indignation of the Lord, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

10 Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, Where is the Lord thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets.

11 In the day that thy walls are to be built, in that day shall the decree be far removed.

12 In that day also he shall come even to thee from Ās-sўr'ī-â, and from the fortified cities, and from the fortress even to the river, and from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.

13 [d]Notwithstanding the land shall be desolate because of them that dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.

14 ¶ [2]Feed thy people with thy rod, the flock of thine heritage, which dwell solitarily in [e]the wood, in the midst of Cär'mel: let them feed in Bā'shăn and Gĭl'a-ăd, as in the days of old.

15 According to the days of thy coming out of the land of Ē'gўpt will I shew unto him marvellous things.

16 ¶ The nations [f]shall see and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf.

17 They shall lick [3]the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the Lord our God, and shall fear because of thee.

18 Who is [g]a God like unto thee, that pardoneth [h]iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

19 He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue [i]our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

20 Thou [j]wilt perform the truth to Jā'cob, and the mercy to Ā'bră-hăm, which thou hast sworn unto our fathers [k]from the days of old.

3. With the pure God is pure; with the froward he returns their wickedness upon them.

Ch. 7. B. C. 710.

1. Ch. 7 is rather a summary of the complaints of universal corruption and the turning of the faithful remnant of the people to absolute trust and faith in Jehovah, when they are confronted by divine promises and break forth in praises of the character of Jehovah.

2. Implying care and control of.

3. In prostration as suppliants. (Ps. 72, 9)—"They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; and his enemies shall lick the dust."

g. Thou shalt not have in thy bag divers weights, a great and a small. (Dt. 25:13.) A false balance is abomination to the Lord: but a just weight is his delight. (Prov. 11:1.) Divers weights, and divers measures, both of them are alike abomination to the Lord. (Prov. 20:10.)

h. But Omri wrought evil in the eyes of the Lord, and did worse than all that were before him. For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin, to provoke the Lord God of Israel to anger with their vanities. (I Ks. 16:25, 26.)

i. We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces; for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the Lord's house. (Jer. 51:51.)

Chapter 7.

a. I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the first-ripe in the fig tree at her first time: but they went to Baal-peor, and separated themselves unto that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved. (Hos. 9:10.)

b. Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them. (Is. 1:23.)

c. For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief. Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth. (Prov. 24:16, 17.) Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz: the cup also shall pass through unto thee: thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked. (Lam. 4:21.)

d. But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, saith the Lord: and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall devour all things round about it. (Jer. 21:14.)

e. They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. (Jno. 17:16.)

f. Lord, when thy hand is lifted up, they will not see: but they shall see, and be ashamed for their envy at the people; yea, the fire of thine enemies shall devour them. (Is. 26:11.)

g. Who is like unto thee, O Lord, among the gods? who is like thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders? (Ex. 15:11.)

h. In those days, and in that time, saith the Lord, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve. (Jer. 50:20.)

i. Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. (Rom. 6:6:) For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. (Rom. 8:2.)

j. To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant, The oath which he sware to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, might serve him without fear, In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life. (Luke 1:72-75.) For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance. (Rom. 11:29.)

k. Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac: And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant. (Ps. 105:9, 10.)

NAHUM

NOTE.—The name Nahum means consolation and vengeance; symbolizing the consolation in this book for Jehovah's people and the vengeance which is coming upon his enemies. In the first ch. the two themes are alternate; but, as the prophet advances, vengeance on the Assyrian foe especially predominates. The object of the prophet was to inspire his countrymen, the Jews, with the assurance that no matter how alarming their position might become, and how powerful the Assyrians might grow, the latter would fail and their capital, Nineveh, should fall.

CHAPTER 1.

The majesty of God in goodness to his people, and severity against his enemies.

1 [1]The burden [2]of Nĭn'e-veh. The book of the vision of Nā'hum the Ĕl'kosh-īte.

2 God is [3]jealous, and [a]the Lord [4]revengeth; the Lord revengeth, and is furious; the Lord will take [5]vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

3 The Lord is [b]slow to [6]anger, and great in power, and will not at all [7]acquit the wicked: the [c]Lord hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 He [d]rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bā'shăn [8]languisheth, and Căr'mel, and the flower of Lĕb'a-non languisheth.

5 The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.

6 Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

7 The Lord is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and [e]he knoweth them that trust in him.

8 But with an [9]overrunning [f]flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

9 What do ye imagine against the Lord? he will make an utter end: affliction shall not [10]rise up the second time.

10 For while they be folden together as thorns, and while [g]they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

11 There is one come out of thee, that imagineth evil against the Lord, a wicked counsellor.

12 Thus saith the Lord; Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when he shall pass through. Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

13 For now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

14 And the Lord hath given a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image: I will make thy grave; for thou art vile.

Ch. 1. B. C. 713.

1. In this ch. the prophet seeks to impress upon the people that Jehovah is a jealous God, protecting his own people, when true to him, against the merciless invasions of the proud heathen.

2. The prophetic doom which is here pronounced by Nahum, 150 years after Jonah's prophecy.

3. As human beings can be jealous only of those they love, likewise God can be jealous of men because he loves them.

4. That is, turn back upon. The effects of their own life.

5. Will cause them to reap the whirlwind which they have sown.

6. He gives man every opportunity to repent and turn from his sins before being cut off.

7. Will not treat as innocent.

8. Once famed for its rich vegetation, now languisheth in the drouth.

9. Might, which overruns every barrier like a flood; frequently applied to great calamities.

10. That is, no occasion for a second punishment, as the first shall work the desired end.

Ch. 2. B. C. 713.

1. In ch. 2, the great Nineveh is brought low, according to the sure word of Jehovah.

2. The Medo-Babylonian army is here meant.

3. That is, the time for Nineveh's overthrow is here; it has wrought its work of chastisement upon Judah and Israel and is now ready for the fire.

4. The 'Medo-Babylonian generals.

5. The ancients colored their shields red, in order that the enemy could not see the profusion of blood in case they were wounded.

6. The name of the queen of Nineveh; some scholars claiming the personified name of Nineveh.

15 Behold upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Jū'dah, keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for the wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

CHAPTER 2.

The victorious armies of God against Nineveh.

1 [1]He that [2]dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.

2 For the Lord hath [3]turned away the excellency of Jā'cob, as the excellency of Ĭs'ra-el: for the emptiers have [a]emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.

3 The shield of his mighty [4]men is made [5]red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots shall be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir trees shall be terribly shaken.

4 The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall justle one against another in the broad ways: they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings.

5 He shall recount his worthies: they shall stumble in their walk; they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the defence shall be prepared.

6 The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be dissolved.

7 And [6]Hŭz'zăb shall be led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves, tabering upon their breasts.

8 But Nĭn'e-veh is of old like a pool of water: yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, shall they cry; but none shall look back.

9 Take [b]ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold: for there is none end of the store and glory out of all the pleasant furniture.

10 She is empty, and void, and waste: and the [c]heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all gather blackness.

11 Where is the dwelling of the lions, and the feedingplace of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion, walked, and the [d]lion's whelp, and none made them afraid?

12 The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravin.

13 Behold, I am against thee, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will burn her [e]chariots in the

a. For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images. (Ps. 78:58.) O Lord God, to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, show thyself. (Ps. 94:1.)

b. And the Lord passed by before him, and proclaimed, The Lord, The Lord God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty. (Ex. 34:6, 7.) The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy. (Ps. 103:8.)

c. And it came to pass on the third day, in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that was in the camp trembled. (Ex. 19:16.)

d. And as they that bare the ark were come unto Jordan, and the feet of the priests that bare the ark were dipped in the brim of the water, (for Jordan overfloweth all his banks all the time of harvest,) That the waters which came down from above stood and rose up upon an heap very far from the city Adam, that is beside Zaretan: and those that came down toward the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, failed, and were cut off: and the people passed over right against Jericho. (Josh. 3:15, 16.)

e. For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish. (Ps. 1:6.) I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. (Jno. 10:14.) Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his, And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity. (II Tim. 2:19.)

f. Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of Egypt. (Amos 8:8.)

g. For thus saith the Lord God of Israel unto me; Take the wine-cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it. And they shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them. (Jer. 25:15, 16.)

a. Why hast thou then broken down her hedges, so that all they which pass by the way do pluck her? The boar out of the wood doth waste it, and the wild beast of the field doth devour it. (Ps. 80:12, 13.)

b. Woe to thee that spoilest, and thou wast not spoiled; and dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee! when thou shalt cease to spoil, thou shalt be spoiled; and when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with thee. (Is. 33:1.) Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken; every one of their bows is broken: for the Lord God of recompences shall surely requite. (Jer. 51:56.)

c. Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every man's heart shall melt. (Is. 13:7.)

d. Their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions; yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it. (Is. 5:29.)

e. He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire. (Ps. 46:9.)

smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions: and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

CHAPTER 3.

The miserable ruin of Nineveh.

1 [1]Woe to the [2]bloody [a]city! it is all full of lies and robbery; the prey [3]departeth not;

2 The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the pransing horses, and of the jumping chariots.

3 The horseman lifteth up both the bright sword and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases; and there is none end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses:

4 Because of the [4]multitude of the whoredoms of the wellfavoured harlot, the [b]mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.

5 Behold, I am against thee, saith the Lord of hosts; and [c]I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will shew the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.

6 And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as a gazingstock.

7 And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee shall flee from thee, and say, Nĭn'e-veh is laid waste: who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee?

8 Art thou better than [d]populous Nō, that was situate among the rivers, that had the waters round about it, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea?

9 Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-ȧ and Ē'gўpt were her strength, and it was infinite; Pŭt and Lu'bĭm were thy helpers.

Ch. 3. B. C. 713.

1. In ch. 3 the prophet shows the cause of Nineveh's doom to be her tyranny and cruelty.

2. Blood for blood, her own blood for the blood of others she has shed.

3. That is, Nineveh never ceases to prey upon others.

4. The assigned reason for Nineveh's destruction.

5. The report.

6. Implying the great extent and fearful enormity of Nineveh's guilt, which will not allow of any hope of restoration.

10 Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity: her young children also were dashed in pieces at the top of all the streets: and [e]they cast lots for her honourable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.

11 Thou also shalt be drunken: thou shalt be hid, thou also shall seek strength because of the enemy.

12 All thy strong holds shall be like fig trees with the firstripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater.

13 Behold, [f]thy people in the midst of thee are women: the gates of thy land shall be set wide open unto thine enemies: the fire shall devour thy bars.

14 Draw thee waters for the siege, fortify thy strong holds: go into clay, and tread the mortar, make strong the brickkiln.

15 There shall the fire devour thee; the sword shall cut thee off, it shall eat thee up like the cankerworm: make thyself many as the [g]cankerworm, make thyself many as the locusts.

16 Thou hast multiplied thy merchants above the stars of heaven: the cankerworm spoileth, and fleeth away.

17 Thy [h]crowned are as the locusts, and thy captains as the great grasshoppers, which camp in the hedges in the cold day, but when the sun ariseth they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.

18 Thy shepherds slumber, O king of [i]Ās-sўr'ĭ-ȧ: thy nobles shall dwell in the dust: thy people [j]is scattered upon the mountains, and no man gathereth them.

19 There is no healing of thy bruise; thy wound is grievous: all [k]that hear the [5]bruit of thee shall clap the hands over thee: for upon whom [6]hath not thy wickedness passed continually?

Chapter 3.

a. Now, thou son of man, wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge the bloody city? yea, thou shalt show her all her abominations. (Ez. 22:2.) Woe to him that buildeth a town with blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity! (Hab. 2:12.)

b. But these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments. (Is. 47:9.)

c. Take the millstones, and grind meal: uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers. Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man. (Is. 47:2, 3.)

d. The Lord of hosts, the God of Israel saith: Behold, I will punish the multitude of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their gods, and their kings; even Pharaoh, and all them that trust in him. (Jer. 46:25.)

e. And they have cast lots for my people; and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine; that they might drink. (Joel 3:3.) In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the strangers carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them. (Ob. 11.)

f. The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they have remained in their holds: their might hath failed; they became as women: they have burned her dwelling places, her bars are broken. (Jer. 51:30.)

g. That which the palmer-worm hath left hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the canker-worm eaten; and that which the canker-worm hath left hath the caterpillar eaten. (Joel 1:4.)

h. And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men. (Rev. 9:7.)

i. Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria. (Jer. 50:18.) Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs. (Ez. 31:3.)

j. And he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the hills, as sheep that have not a shepherd: and the Lord said, These have no master; let them return every man to his house in peace. (I Ks. 22:17.)

k. All that pass by clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth? (Lam. 2:15.) This is the rejoicing city that dwelt carelessly, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none besides me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her shall hiss, and wag his hand. (Zeph. 2:15.)

HABAKKUK

NOTE.—There is nothing known of the writer of Habakkuk outside of this book, as his name occurs nowhere in Jewish history. The time of his writing is supposed to be about 605 B. C., as it was the fifth year of the reign of Jehoiakim. The book is divided into two parts, a prophecy and a prayer. The prophecy is in the form of a dialogue, represented as taking place between Jehovah and the prophet, in which the wickedness of men and the holiness of Jehovah are discussed (chs. 1, 2), while the prayer is one of the sublimest descriptions in literature of Jehovah's power exhibited in the Exodus of the Israelites. For sublimity and beauty it is not surpassed in the Old Testament. The placing of Habakkuk immediately following Nahum is very appropriate, as Nahum treats of the judgments of Jehovah on Assyria for its wickedness against Israel, and Habakkuk treats of the judgments inflicted upon the Chaldeans for the same reason.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Unto Habakkuk, complaining of the iniquity of the land, 5 is shewed the fearful vengeance by the Chaldeans. 12 He complaineth that vengeance should be executed by them who are far worse.

1 [1]The burden [2]which Ha-băk'kŭk the prophet did see.

Ch. 1. B. C. 626.

2 O Lord, how long [a]shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!

1. In ch. 1 the prophet complains to Jehovah of the prevalence of injustice, and Jehovah calls his attention to the divine purpose of using the Chaldean hordes as his avengers; while the prophet declares that they are worse than those upon whom vengeance is to be taken.

3 Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention.

4 [3]Therefore the [b]law is slacked, and [4]judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore wrong judgment proceedeth.

2. The predicted sentence of doom.

5 ¶ Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

6 For, lo, I raise up the Chăl-dē'ans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwellingplaces that are not their's.

7 They are terrible and dreadful: their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.

3. Because thou hast suffered such crimes to exist unpunished.

8 Their horses [c]also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

9 They [d]shall come all for violence: their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand.

4. Justice.

10 And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it.

11 Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, imputing this his power unto his god.

12 ¶ Art thou not from [e]everlasting, O Lord my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. O Lord, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O mighty God, thou hast established them for correction.

13 Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

Ch. 2. B. C. 626.

1. In ch. 2 the prophet is waiting for an answer to the complaints that he has made. He is told by Jehovah to wait in faith, that the Chaldeans shall be punished for their cruel rapacity.

14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

15 They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag: therefore they rejoice and are glad.

16 Therefore they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their meat plenteous.

17 Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

CHAPTER 2.

1 Unto Habakkuk, waiting for an answer, is shewed that he must wait by faith. 5 The judgment upon the Chaldeans for unsatiableness.

1 [1]I will stand upon [a]my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved.

2. Assigning the reason why the prophecy should be written, i. e., its fulfillment is in the future.

2 And the Lord answered me, and said, [b]Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

3 For [2]the [c]vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

4 Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the [d]just shall [3]live by his faith.

3. That is, the believing Jew will not despair, but will wait for the delayed promises of Jehovah to be fulfilled.

5 ¶ Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

6 Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Woe to him that increaseth that [e]which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay!

7 Shall they not [f]rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

8 Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

Ref. Habakkuk. Chapter 1.

a. Rivers of waters run down mine eyes, because they keep not thy law. (Ps. 119:136.) For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds. (II Pet. 2:8.)

b. Do ye indeed speak righteousness, O congregation? do ye judge uprightly, O ye sons of men? Yea, in heart ye work wickedness; ye weigh the violence of your hands in the earth. (Ps. 58:1, 2.)

c. The Lord shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand; A nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor show favor to the young. (Dt. 28:49, 50.) Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from far, O house of Israel, saith the Lord: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say. (Jer. 5:15.)

d. The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant. (Jer. 4:7.)

e. The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms. (Dt. 33:27.) Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God. (Ps. 90:2.) Hast thou not known, hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding. (Is. 40:28.)

Chapter 2.

a. And he cried, A lion; My lord, I stand continually upon the watch-tower in the day-time, and I am set in my ward whole nights. (Is 21:8.)

b. For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning; That we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. (Rom. 15:4.)

c. Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days. (Dan. 10:14.)

d. He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him. (Jno. 3:36.) For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith. (Rom. 1:17.) But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. (Gal. 3:11.) Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him. (Heb. 10:38.)

e. Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out. (Jer. 51:34.)

f. Thus saith the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two-leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut; I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight:

10 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against [4]thy soul.

11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam [5]out of the timber shall answer it.

12 ¶ Woe to him that buildeth [6]a town with blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity!

13 Behold, is it not of the Lord of hosts that the people shall labour in [h]the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity?

14 For the earth shall be filled [i]with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

15 ¶ Woe unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that puttest thy bottle to him, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!

16 Thou art filled [j]with shame for glory: drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the Lord's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory.

17 For the violence [k]of Lĕb'a-non shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid, because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

18 ¶ What profiteth [7]the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?

19 Woe unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

20 But the Lord is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Habakkuk in his prayer trembleth at God's majesty. 17 The confidence of his faith.

1 A [1]prayer of Ha-băk'kŭk the prophet upon Shĭ-gī'o-noth.

2 O Lord, I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: O Lord, [2]revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.

3 God came from Tē'man, and the Holy One from mount Pā'ran. [3]Sē'lah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

4 And his brightness was as the light; he had horns coming out of his hand: and there was the hiding of his power.

5 Before him went the pestilence, and burning coals went forth at his feet.

6 He stood, and [a]measured the earth: he beheld, and drove asunder the nations; and the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills did bow: his ways are everlasting.

7 I saw the tents of Cu'shan in affliction: and the curtains of the land of Mĭd'ĭ-an did tremble.

8 Was the [b]Lord displeased against the rivers? was thine anger against the rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon thine horses and thy chariots of salvation?

9 Thy bow was made quite naked, according to the oaths of the tribes, even thy word. Sē'lah. Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers.

10 The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high.

11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear.

12 Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst thresh the [c]heathen in anger.

13 Thou wentest forth [d]for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, [e]by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Sē'lah.

14 Thou didst strike through with his staves the head of his villages: they came out as [8]a whirlwind to scatter me: their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly.

15 Thou didst walk through the sea with thine horses, through the heap of great waters.

16 When I heard my belly [4]trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.

17 ¶ Although [f]the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls:

18 Yet [g]I will rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God of my salvation.

19 The Lord God is [h]my strength, and he will make my feet like hinds' feet, and he will make me to walk upon mine high places. To the chief singer on my stringed instruments.

4. That is, the guilty causes of thine own ruin.

5. That is, the very stones of thy palace, which were built in cruelty, shall cry out against thee. (Luke 19:40) "And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out."

6. Alluding to Babylon.

7. Alluding to the powerlessness of the idols of Babylon to save them from the impending doom.

Ch. 3. B. C. 626.

1. In this ch. is recorded Habakkuk's great prayer and Jehovah's revelation of himself at Sinai, as a pledge of his interposing again in the behalf of Israel against all her foes. And as a result the prophets' confidence is greatly increased amidst their calamities.

2. That is, perfect the work of the deliverance of thy people and do not let thy promise remain longer unfulfilled.

3. A musical pause, always at the end of a verse, except in four instances, viz., here in v. 9 and in Ps. 55:19, and Ps. 57:3.

4. With the ancients, the bowels were thought to be the seat of yearning compassion, hence trembled.

I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron. (Is. 45:1, 2.)

g. Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places to all generations: they call their lands after their own names. (Ps. 49:11.) Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days. (Jas. 5:3.)

h. Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks: walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of mine hand; ye shall lie down in sorrow. (Is. 50:11.)

i. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea. (Is. 11:9.) That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art the Most High over all the earth. (Ps. 83:18.)

j. Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird. (Rev. 18:2.)

k. Thus saith the Lord of hosts: The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together; and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go. Their Redeemer is strong; The Lord of hosts is his name: he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon. (Jer. 50:33, 34.)

Chapter 3.

a. When the Most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel. (Dt. 32:8.)

b. And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the Lord caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided. And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left. (Ex. 14:21, 22.)

c. Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass; and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the Lord, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth. (Mic. 4:13.)

d. And David came to Baal-perazim, and David smote them there, and said, The Lord hath broken forth upon mine enemies before me, as the breach of waters. (II Sam. 5:20.)

e. And it came to pass, as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Bethhoron, that the Lord cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they died: they were more which died with hailstones than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword. (Josh. 10:11.) The Lord also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice; hailstones and coals of fire. Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them. (Ps. 18:13, 14.)

f. We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed. (II Cor. 4:8, 9.)

g. Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him. (Job 13:15.) I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels. (Is. 61:10.)

h. The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid. (Ps. 27:1.) The Lord is their strength, and he is the saving strength of his anointed. (Ps. 28:8.) For thou art my strength. (Ps. 31:4.) My God, my strength, in whom I will trust. (Ps. 18:2.)

ZEPHANIAH

NOTE.—This book was written during the days of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned between 641 and 610 B. C. It is directed against Judah and Jerusalem for their idolatry and attendant wickedness. Severe judgments are also predicted against the Philistines, Ethiopians, Ammonites, Moabites, and Assyria and Nineveh. The book is especially characterized by its prediction of the conversion of the heathen nation.

CHAPTER 1.

God's severe judgment against Judah for divers sins.

1 The word of the Lord which came unto Zĕph-a-nī'ah the son of Cu'shī, the son of Gĕd-a-lī'ah, the son of Ăm-a-rī'ah, the son of Hĭz-kī'ah, in the days of Jo-sī'ah the son of Ā'mon, king of Jū'dah.

2 I will utterly consume all things from off the land, saith the Lord.

3 I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the [1]stumblingblocks [a]with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the Lord.

4 I will also stretch out mine hand upon Jū'dah, and upon all the inhabitants of [2]Je-ru'-sa-lĕm; and I will cut off the remnant of [b]Bā'al from this place, and the name of the [c]Chĕm'a-rims with the priests;

5 And them that worship the host of heaven upon the house tops; and them that worship and that swear by the Lord, and that swear [d]by Măl'cham;

6 And them that are turned back from the Lord; and those that have not sought the Lord, nor enquired for him.

7 Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord God: for the day of the Lord is at hand: for the Lord hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath bid his guests.

8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the Lord's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel.

9 In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold, which fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the [e]fish gate, and an howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills.

11 Howl, ye inhabitants of [3]Măk'tesh, for all the merchant people are cut down; all they that bear silver are cut off.

12 And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Je-ru'sa-lĕm with candles, and punish the men that are [f]settled on their [4]lees: that say in their heart, The Lord will not do [5]good, neither will he do evil.

13 Therefore their goods shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but [g]not drink the wine thereof.

14 The [h]great day of the Lord is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the Lord: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness,

16 A day of [i]the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.

17 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the Lord: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.

18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the Lord's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

CHAPTER 2.

1 An exhortation to repentance. 4 The judgment of the Philistines, 8 of Moab and Ammon.

1 Gather [1]yourselves [a]together, yea, gather together, O nation not desired;

2 Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before [b]the fierce anger of the Lord come upon you, before the day of the Lord's anger come upon you.

3 Seek [c]ye the Lord, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek [2]meekness: [d]it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the Lord's anger.

4 ¶ For [3]Gā'zà shall be forsaken, and Āsh'-ke-lŏn a desolation: they shall drive out Āsh'-dŏd [e]at the noon day, and Ēk'rŏn shall be rooted up.

5 Woe unto the inhabitants of the [f]sea coast, the nation of the Chĕr'eth-ītes! the word of the Lord is against you; O Cā'năan, the land of the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.

6 And the sea coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds, and folds for flocks.

7 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Jū'dah; they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of Āsh'ke-lŏn shall they lie down in the evening: for the Lord their God shall [g]visit them, and [h]turn away their captivity.

8 ¶ I have heard the reproach of Mō'ab, and

2. Which was the fountain-head of evil; Jehovah begins with his sanctuary, where the privileges were the greatest.

2. A name applied to the Valley of Siloam, which is between Zion and Mt. Olivet. The name signifies hollow shape.

3. Hardened or crusted; meaning the ungodly are becoming hardened.

4. That is, that Jehovah takes no account of human affairs.

Ch. 2. B. C. 630.

1. In a religious assembly, to pray that judgment may be turned aside.

2. That is, not complaining against Jehovah, but composedly waiting the time of the Lord.

3. That is, the argument why the ungodly should repent.

Ref. Zephaniah. Chapter 1.

a. The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity. (Mat. 13:41.)

b. Fulfilled B. C. 624.—And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the temples of the Lord all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven; and he burned them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried the ashes of them unto Bethel. And he put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained. (II Ks. 23:4, 5.)

c. The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it. (Hos. 10:5.)

d. Because they have forsaken me, and have worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcon the god of the children of Ammon, and have not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in mine eyes, and to keep my statutes and my judgments, as did David his father. (I Ks. 11:33.)

e. Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish gate, and compassed about Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah. (II Chr. 33:14.)

f. Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he hath settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent is not changed. (Jer. 48:11.) Woe to them that are at ease in Zion. (Amos 6:1.)

g. Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine. (Mic. 6:15.)

h. Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the Lord cometh, for it is nigh at hand. (Joel 2:1.)

i. My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war. (Jer. 4:19.)

Chapter 2.

a. Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breast; let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. (Joel 2:16.)

b. Notwithstanding the Lord turned not from the fierceness of his great wrath, wherewith his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocations that Manasseh had provoked him withal. (II Ks. 23:26.)

c. Seek the Lord, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Bethel. (Amos 5:6.) And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, hast not forsaken them that seek thee. (Ps. 9:10.) And he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin; The Lord is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you. (II Chr. 15:2.)

d. Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the Lord God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph. (Amos 5:15.)

e. Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe unto us! for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. (Jer. 6:4.)

f. Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will stretch out mine hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethims, and destroy the remnant of the sea-coast. (Ez. 25:16.)

g. Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people. (Luke 1:68.)

h. And I will be found of you, saith the Lord: and I will turn away the revilings of the children of Ăm'mŏn, whereby they have reproached my people, and [i]magnified themselves against their border.

9 Therefore as I live, saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Ĭs'ra-el, Surely Mō'ab shall be as Sŏd'om, and [j]the children of Ăm'mŏn as Go-mŏr'rah, even the breeding of nettles, and saltpits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

10 This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the Lord of hosts.

11 The Lord will be terrible unto them: for he will famish all the gods [k]of the earth; and [l]men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

12 ¶ Ye Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-anş also, ye shall be slain by my sword.

13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Ăs-sўr'ĭ-à; and will make Nĭn'e-veh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

14 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all [l]the beasts of the nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he shall uncover the cedar work.

15 This is the rejoicing city [m]that dwelt carelessly, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her shall hiss, and wag his hand.

CHAPTER 3.

1 A sharp reproof of Jerusalem for divers sins.
8 An exhortation to wait for the restoration of Israel.

1 [1]Woe to her that is filthy and polluted, to the oppressing city!

2 She [a]obeyed not the voice; she received [b]not [2]correction; she trusted not in the Lord; she drew not near to her God.

3 Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow.

4 Her prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done [c]violence to the law.

5 The just Lord is in the midst thereof; he will not do iniquity: every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not; but the unjust knoweth no shame.

6 I have cut off the nations: their towers are desolate; I made their streets waste, that none passeth by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that there is none inhabitant.

7 I said, Surely thou wilt fear me, thou wilt receive instruction; so their dwelling should not be cut off, howsoever I punished them: but they rose early, and [d]corrupted all their doings.

8 ¶ Therefore wait ye [3]upon me, saith the Lord, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to [e]gather the [4]nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.

9 For then will I turn to the people a pure [5]language, that they may all call upon the name of the Lord, to serve him with one consent.

10 From [f]beyond the rivers of Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-à my suppliants, even the daughter of my dispersed, shall bring mine offering.

11 In that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee them that rejoice [g]in thy pride, and thou shalt no more be haughty because of my holy mountain.

12 I will also leave in the midst of thee [h]an afflicted and poor people, and they shall trust in the name of the Lord.

13 The remnant of Ĭs'ra-el shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

14 ¶ Sing, O daughter of Zī'ŏn; shout, O Ĭs'ra-el; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Je-rū'sa-lĕm.

15 The Lord hath taken away thy judgments, he hath cast out thine enemy: the king of Ĭs'ra-el, even the Lord, is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil any more.

16 In that day it shall be said to Je-rū'sa-lĕm, Fear thou not: and to Zī'ŏn, Let not thine hands be slack.

17 The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing.

18 I will gather them that are sorrowful for the solemn assembly, who are of thee, to whom the reproach of it was a burden.

19 Behold, at that time I will undo all that afflict thee: and I will save her that halteth, and gather her that was driven out; and I will get them praise and fame in every land where they have been put to shame.

20 At that time [i]will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name and a praise among all people of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, saith the Lord.

4. That is, the idols or gods who have their existence on earth rather than in heaven.

Ch. 3. B. C. 630.

1. In ch. 3 the prophet produces denunciations against Jerusalem, because she has not been reformed by the punishment of others, therefore she must be chastised herself, after which the promises of blessings are vouchsafed unto her.

2. That is, Jerusalem has persistently and obstinately refused correction.

3. Here Jehovah turns to the believing Jews and assures them he will wait no longer.

4. Against Jerusalem.

5. That is, their impure language—the result of wicked living—shall be changed to pure language in the service of Jehovah.

your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the Lord; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive. (Jer. 29:14.)

i. Concerning the Ammonites, thus saith the Lord; Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth their king inherit Gad, and his people dwell in his cities? (Jer. 49:1.)

j. Thus saith the Lord; For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ripped up the women with child of Gilead, that they might enlarge their border. (Amos 1:13.)

k. The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be. (Gen. 49:10.) Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father. (Joh. 4:21.)

l. But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures; and owls shall dwell there, and satyrs shall dance there. (Is. 13:21.)

m. Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasure, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, I am, and none else besides me, I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children. (Is. 47:8.)

Chapter 3

a. I spake unto thee in thy prosperity; but thou saidest, I will not hear: this hath been thy manner from thy youth, that thou obeyedst not my voice. (Jer. 22:21.)

b. O Lord, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock, they have refused to return. (Jer. 5:3.)

c. Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shown difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. (Ez. 22:26.)

d. And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth. (Gen. 6:12.)

e. I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land. (Joel 3:2.)

f. Princes shall come out of Egypt; Ethiopia shall soon stretch out her hands unto God. (Ps. 68:31.) Behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship, Was returning and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet. (Acts 8:27, 28.)

g. Think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. (Mat. 3:9.)

h. What shall one of them answer the messengers of the nation? That the Lord hath founded Zion, and the poor of his people shall trust in it. (Is. 14:32.) Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. (Mat. 5:3.) But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty. (I Cor. 1:27.)

i. For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits, that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in. (Rom. 11:25.)

HAGGAI

NOTE.—The Book of Haggai contains the account of four prophecies: the first is to the people, declaring that the failure of their crops is a punishment because they had failed to rebuild the house of God, but that if they will now do so, the presence and approval of Jehovah will be with them. The second is also addressed to and concerning all the people, predicting that the glory of Jehovah displayed in the new temple, despite its inferior outward appearance, will make it of greater splendor than that of Solomon's. The third is addressed to the priests, declaring that the wickedness of the people is a cause of the failure of crops. The fourth is made to Zerubbabel, in which Jehovah declares that He will overthrow the kingdoms of the earth, but a blessing is promised to the chosen people.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Haggai reproveth the people for neglecting the building of the house. 7 He inciteth them to the building.

1 In [1]the second year of Da-rī'us the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the Lord by Hăg'-ga-ī the prophet unto [a]Ze-rŭb'ba-bĕl the son of She-ăl'tī-el, governor of Jū'dah, and to Jŏsh'u-à the son of Jŏs'e-dĕch, the high priest, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the Lord [2]of hosts, saying, This people say, The time [3]is not come, the time that the Lord's house should be built.

3 Then came the word of the Lord by Hăg'-ga-ī [b]the prophet, saying,

4 Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your [4]cieled houses, and this house lie waste?

5 Now therefore thus saith the Lord of [2]hosts; Consider [5]your ways.

6 Ye have sown much, [6]and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.

7 ¶ Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Consider your ways.

8 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take [7]pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the Lord.

9 Ye looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did blow upon it. Why? saith the Lord of hosts. Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.

10 Therefore [c]the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit.

11 And I [d]called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands.

12 ¶ Then [e]Ze-rŭb'ba-bĕl the son of She-ăl'-tī-el, and Jŏsh'u-à the son of Jŏs'e-dĕch, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the Lord their God, and the words of Hăg-ga-ī the prophet, as the Lord their God had sent him, and the people did fear [f]before the Lord.

13 Then spake Hăg'ga-ī the Lord's messenger in the Lord's message unto the people, saying, [g]I am [8]with you, saith the Lord.

14 And the [h]Lord stirred up the spirit of Ze-rŭb'ba-bĕl the son of She-ăl'tī-el, governor of Jū'dah, and the spirit of Jŏsh'u-à the son of Jŏs'e-dĕch, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; [i]and they came and did work in the house of the Lord of hosts, their God, 15 In the four and twentieth [9]day of the sixth month, in the second year of Da-rī'us the king.

Ch. 1. B. C. 520.

1. The people are reproved for their failure to rebuild the house of God, their penitent obedience under Zerubbabel to be followed by Jehovah's presence and blessings.

2. Jehovah, Lord and Master of the powers of the earth, justly requires implicit obedience.

3. That is, the time for building a temple.

4. Wainscoted.

5. Think upon, reflect, ponder.

6. While you have neglected your duty, nothing that you have done has prospered.

7. That is, I will be with you and accept the honor due me in the service of rebuilding.

8. As soon as the people show a disposition to obey, Jehovah assures them of his presence.

9. Twenty-three days after the first message.

CHAPTER 2.

He encourageth the people by promise of greater glory to the second temple than was in the first.

1 [1]In the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of the Lord by the prophet Hăg'ga-ī, saying,

2 Speak now to Ze-rŭb'ba-bĕl the son of She-ăl'tī-el, governor of Jū'dah, and to Jŏsh'u-à the son of Jŏs'e-dĕch, the high priest, and to the residue of the people, saying,

3 Who [a]is left among you that saw this house in her first glory? and how do ye see it now? [b]is it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing?

4 Yet now be strong, O Ze-rŭb'ba-bĕl, saith the Lord; and be strong, O Jŏsh'u-à, son of Jŏs'e-dĕch, the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the Lord, and work: for I am with [2]you, saith the Lord of hosts:

5 According [c]to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Ē'gўpt, so [d]my spirit remaineth among you: fear ye not.

6 For thus saith the Lord of hosts; [e]Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the [3]heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land;

7 And I will shake all nations, and the [f]de-

Ch. 2. B. C. 520.

1. In ch. 2, the people are discouraged because of their inability to build the temple in outward splendor equal to the temple of Solomon. But Jehovah encourages them, through the prophet, by assuring them it shall be filled with a glory far exceeding that of gold and silver.

2. The greatest strength they could possess.

3. Implying the punishment of the foes of God's people, which will precede the reign of Messiah. (Is. 13:13) —"Therefore I will shake the heavens and the earth shall remove out of her place in the wrath of the Lord of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger."

Ref. Haggai. Chapter 1.

a. And the sons of Jeconiah; Assir, Salathiel his son. (I Chr. 3:17.) Then stood up Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God. (Ezra 3:2.) And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel. (Mat. 1:12.) Which was the son of Joanna, which was the son of Rhesa, which was the son of Zorobabel, which was the son of Salathiel, which was the son of Neri. (Luke 3:27.)

b. Then the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, even unto them. (Ezra 5:1.)

c. And thy heaven that is over thy head shall be brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron. The Lord shall make the rain of thy land powder and dust: from heaven shall it come down upon thee, until thou be destroyed. (Dt. 28:23, 24.) Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed. (Jer. 3:3.)

d. And Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, said unto Ahab, As the Lord God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word. (I Ks. 17:1.)

e. Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them. (Ezra 5:2.)

f. He sent redemption unto his people: he hath commanded his covenant for ever: holy and reverend is his name. (Ps. 111:9.) By mercy and truth iniquity is purged; and by the fear of the Lord men depart from evil. (Prov. 16:6.) Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. (Ecc. 12:13.) And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me. (Jer. 32:40.)

g. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen. (Mat. 28:20.) What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? (Rom. 8:31.)

h. Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth. (Ps. 110:3.) I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. (Phil. 4:13.)

i. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord. (I Cor. 15:58.)

Chapter 2.

a. But many of the priests and Levites, and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy. (Ezra 3:12.)

b. For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; they are the eyes of the Lord, which run to and fro through the whole earth. (Zech. 4:10.)

c. And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God. And they shall know that I am the Lord their God, that brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them: I am the Lord their God. (Ex. 29:45, 46.)

d. Thou gavest also thy good Spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst. (Neh. 9:20.) Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his Holy Spirit within him? (Is. 63:11.)

e. Whose voice then shook the earth; but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven. (Heb. 12:26.)

f. And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice. (Gen. 22:18.) Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, sire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the Lord of hosts.

8 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the Lord of hosts.

9 The [g]glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the Lord of hosts: and in this place will I give [h]peace, saith the Lord of hosts.

10 ¶ [4]In the four and twentieth [5]day of the ninth month, in the second year of Da-rī'us, came the word of the Lord by Hăg'ga-ī the prophet, saying,

11 Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying,

12 If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No.

13 Then said Hăg'ga-ī, If one that is unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

14 Then answered Hăg'ga-ī, and said, [i]So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the Lord; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, consider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the Lord:

16 Since those days were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the pressfat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty.

17 [j]I smote you with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the labours of your hands; yet ye [k]turned not to me, saith the Lord.

18 Consider now from this day and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, even from the day that the foundation of the Lord's temple was laid, consider it.

19 Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree, hath not brought forth: from this day will I bless you.

20 ¶ [6]And again the word of the Lord came unto Hăg'ga-ī in the four and twentieth day of the [7]month, saying,

21 Speak to Ze-rŭb'ba-bĕl, governor of Jū'dah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth;

22 And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother.

23 In that day, saith the Lord of hosts, will I take thee, O Ze-rŭb'ba-bĕl, my servant, the son of She-ăl'tĭ-el, saith the Lord, and will make thee as a signet: for [l]I have chosen thee, saith the Lord of hosts.

4. Vs. 10-19 contain the third prophecy, where the prophet tells the people that their sacrifices without obedience could not be accepted by Jehovah; but now they are obedient unto his will, the blessings of heaven will attend them.

5. Two months and three days from the second prophecy.

6. Vs. 20-23 contain the fourth prophecy, which is God's promise to Israel of his presence, insuring their safety in the great coming commotion.

7. The ninth month in the second year of Darius.

---

whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of hosts. (Mal. 3:1.)

g. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. (Jno. 1:14.)

h. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, the everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace: (Is. 9:6.) Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men. (Luke 2:14.)

i. Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled. (Tit. 1:15.)

j. The Lord shall smite thee with a consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the sword, and with blasting, and with mildew; and they shall pursue thee until thou perish. (Dt. 28:22.)

k. O Lord, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return. (Jer. 5:3.)

l. Behold my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth: I have put my Spirit upon him; he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles. (Is. 42:1.)

ZECHARIAH

NOTE.—Zechariah is a common scriptural name, there being five of that name in the Old Testament. It means one whom Jehovah remembers. Zech. was a priest as well as a prophet. It is supposed that his father, Barachiah, died while the son was quite young, therefore Zech. is sometimes called, as was the custom in those days, by the name of his grandfather; in this case, "the son of Iddo." This book divides itself into four sections. First, chs. 1-6 set forth the special providence of God and his care over Israel, revealed in eight visions; second, chs. 7, 8 are a series of exhortations to religious duty, assuring the promises of happiness attending thereto; third, chs. 10, 11 record prophecies concerning Israel, also promises regarding the coming Messiah; fourth, chs. 12-14 contain prophecies regarding Jerusalem and Judah, the punishments which shall overtake Jerusalem's enemies, also prophecies respecting the Messiah's kingdom.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Zechariah exhorteth to repentance. 7 The vision of the horses. 12 Comfortable promises are made to Jerusalem.

1 In the eighth month, [a]in the second year of Da-rī'us, came the word of the Lord unto [b]Zĕch-a-rī'ah, the son of Bĕr-e-chī'ah, the son of Ĭd'dō the prophet, saying,

2 The Lord hath been [1]sore displeased with your fathers.

3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord of [2]hosts; Turn ye [c]unto me, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the Lord of hosts.

4 Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the [2]Lord of hosts: [d]Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the Lord.

5 Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?

6 But [e]my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not [f]take hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, [g]Like as the Lord of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 ¶ Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sē'băt, in the second year of Da-rī'us, came to the word of the Lord unto Zĕch-a-rī'ah, the son of Bĕr-e-chī'ah, the son of Ĭd'dō the prophet, saying,

8 I saw by night, and behold [3]a [h]man riding upon a red [4]horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the bottom; and behind him were there red horses, [5]speckled, and white.

9 Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And [6]the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be.

10 And the man that stood among the [7]myrtle trees answered and said, [i]These are they whom the Lord hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth.

11 And [j]they answered the angel of the Lord that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

12 ¶ Then the angel of the Lord answered and said, [k]O Lord of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Je-rū'sa-lĕm and on the cities of Jū'dah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years?

13 And the Lord answered the angel that talked with me [l]with good words and comfortable words.

14 So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; I am jealous for Je-rū'sa-lĕm and for Zī'ŏn with a great jealousy.

15 And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for [m]I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

16 Therefore thus saith the Lord; I am returned to Je-rū'sa-lĕm with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the Lord of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Je-rū'sa-lĕm.

17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; and the Lord shall yet comfort Zī'ŏn, and [n]shall yet choose Je-rū'sa-lĕm.

18 ¶ [8]Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold four [9]horns.

19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Jū'dah, Ĭs'ra-el, and Je-rū'sa-lĕm.

20 And the Lord shewed me four [10]carpenters.

21 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Jū'dah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gĕn'tīles, which [o]lifted up their horn over the land of Jū'dah to scatter it.

CHAPTER 2.

1 God, in the care of Jerusalem, sendeth to measure it. 6 The redemption of Zion.

1 [1]I lifted up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold [2]a [a]man with a measuring line in his hand.

2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Je-rū'sa-lĕm, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.

3 And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him,

Ch. 1. B. C. 520-519.

1. Vehemently.

2. A common term implying the universal power and kingdom of Jehovah.

3. Jehovah the angel of the covenant, in the form of a man. (Mal. 3:1) —"Behold I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold he shall come, saith the Lord of hosts."

4. Symbolizing the divine wrath soon to fall upon the foes of the Jews.

5. Indicating an unsettled state, partly prosperous and partly otherwise. Red horses indicative of vengeance, white, of joy and happiness; speckled, of a mixed character.

6. Not the angel upon the red horse, which is shown by vs. 10-13.

7. The angel of the covenant.

8. Vs. 18-21 contain the second vision, showing that the power of the Jews' enemies shall be overthrown.

9. In the ancient times horns were the symbols of ruling powers, four here referring to the four great world powers, viz., Babylon, Medo-Persia, Graeco-Macedonia, and Rome.

10. Artificers, implying that for every enemy of God's people, he has prepared a counteracting power.

Ch. 2. B. C. 519.

1. In ch. 2 is recorded the third vision, that of the man with the measuring line.

2. The same image used in Ez. 40:3 and 41:42. The man is the Messiah, as the author of the restoration.

Ref. Zechariah. Chapter 1.

a. Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia. (Ezra 4:24.)

b. Then the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, even unto them. (Ezra 5:1.)

c. They said, Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the Lord hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever. (Jer. 25:5.) He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. (Mic. 7:19.) And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. (Luke 15:20.)

d. Go and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the Lord; and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: for I am merciful, saith the Lord, and I will not keep anger for ever. (Jer. 3:12.)

e. So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. (Is. 55:11.)

f. And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem. (Dan. 9:12.)

g. The Lord is righteous; for I have rebelled against his commandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow: my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity. (Lam. 1:18.)

h. And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword. (Rev. 6:4.)

i. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. (Ps. 91:11.) Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation? (Heb. 1:14.)

j. Bless the Lord, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word. (Ps. 103:20.)

k. Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favor her, yea, the set time, is come. (Ps. 102:13.)

l. For thus saith the Lord, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. (Jer. 29:10.)

m. I was wroth with my people, I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst show them no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke. (Is. 47:6.)

n. For the Lord will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob. (Is. 14:1.) And the Lord said unto Satan, The Lord rebuke thee, O Satan; even the Lord that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire? (Zech. 3:2.)

o. I said unto the fools, Deal not foolishly; and to the wicked, Lift not up the horn: Lift not up your horn on high: speak not with a stiff neck. (Ps. 75:4, 5.)

Chapter 2.

a. And he brought me thither, and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate. (Ez. 40:3.)

4 And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, [b]Je-ru'sa-lĕm shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein:

5 For I, saith the Lord, will be unto her [c]a wall of fire round about, and [d]will be the glory in the midst of her.

6 ¶ Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the Lord: for I have [e]spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the Lord.

7 Deliver thyself, O Zī'ŏn, that dwellest with the daughter of Băb'ў-lon.

8 For thus saith the Lord of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that [f]toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye.

9 For, behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me.

10 ¶ Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zī ŏn: for, lo, I come, and I [g]will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the Lord.

11 And many nations shall be joined to the Lord in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

12 And the Lord shall [h]inherit Jū'dah his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Je-ru'sa-lĕm again.

13 Be silent, [i]O all flesh, before the Lord: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Under the type of Joshua, the restoration of the church, 8 Christ the Branch is promised.

1 [1]And he [2]shewed me Jŏsh'u-â the high priest standing before the angel of the Lord, and Să'tan standing at his right [3]hand to resist him.

2 And the Lord said unto Să'tan, [a]The Lord [c]rebuke thee, O Să'tan; even the Lord that hath chosen [5]Je-ru'sa-lĕm rebuke thee: [b]is not this a brand plucked [c]out of the fire?

3 Now Jŏsh'u-â was clothed with filthy [c]garments, and stood before the angel.

4 And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and [d]I will clothe thee with change of raiment.

5 And I said, Let them set a fair mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the Lord stood by.

6 And the angel of the Lord protested unto Jŏsh'u-â, saying,

7 Thus saith the Lord of hosts; If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee places to walk among these that stand by.

8 Hear now, O Jŏsh'u-â the high priest, thou, and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wondered at: for, behold, I will bring forth [e]my servant [f]the BRANCH.

9 [7]For behold the stone that I have laid before Jŏsh'u-â; [g]upon one stone shall be [h]seven [c]eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the Lord of hosts, and [i]I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

10 In that day, saith the Lord of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour under the vine and under the fig tree.

CHAPTER 4.

By the golden candlestick is foreshewed the good success of Zerubbabel's foundation.

1 [1]And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep,

2 And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and [a]his seven [2]lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof:

3 And two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.

4 So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?

5 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the Lord unto Ze-rŭb'ba-bĕl, saying, Not by might, [3]nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of hosts.

7 Who art thou, [b]O great mountain? before Ze-rŭb'ba-bĕl thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.

8 Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

9 The hands of Ze-rŭb'ba-bĕl have laid the foundation of this house; his hands [c]shall also finish it; and thou [d]shalt know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me unto you.

Ch. 3. B. C. 519.

1. Ch. 3 records the fourth division, which represents Satan as accusing Joshua (the church), but the latter is justified by Jehovah through the coming Messiah.

2. The interpreting angel.

3. The usual position of an accuser. (Ps. 109:6) "Set thou a wicked man over him; and let Satan the accuser stand at his right hand."

4. Jehovah, the angel of the Lord.

5. The culmination of the issue Jehovah has chosen Jerusalem.

6. A symbol implying that Jehovah does not deny the sin of Jerusalem, as he has plucked it as a brand from the fire, but having chastised it, he will remember its sin against it no more.

7. Assigning the reason for the Jews' encouragement for rebuilding the temple.

8. Seven, the number of perfection, symbolizing the perfect eye or care of Jehovah.

Ch. 4. B. C. 519.

1. In ch. 4 is given the fifth vision, which is the golden candlestick and two olive trees.

2. The union of all in the one stem, Jehovah.

3. That is, their weakness would be made strong by the strength of Jehovah. As the lamps were fed with oil from the living olive tree, a source unseen to man, so their strength would constantly be supplied by Jehovah.

---

b. And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded. (Ez. 36:10.)

c. In that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a strong city; salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks. (Is. 26:1.)

d. The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory. (Is. 60:19.)

e. And the Lord shall scatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone. (Dt. 28:64.)

f. Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you. (II Thess. 1:6.)

g. And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. (II Cor. 6:16.)

h. For the Lord's portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance. (Dt. 32:9.)

i. But the Lord is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him. (Hab. 2:20.)

Chapter 3.

a. Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil, he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee. (Jude 9.)

b. Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. (Rom. 11:5.)

c. But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. (Is. 64:6.)

d. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. (Rev. 19:8.)

e. Behold my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth: I have put my Spirit upon him; he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles. (Is. 42:1.)

f. Through the tender mercy of our God, whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us. (Luke 1:78.)

g. The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner. (Ps. 118:22.) Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste. (Is. 28:16.)

h. And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. (Rev. 5:6.)

i. Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. (Is. 53:4.)

a. And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. (Rev. 4:5.)

b. Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done. (Mat. 21:21.)

c. And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king. (Ezra 6:15.)

d. And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power. (I Cor. 2:4.) For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know

10 For who hath despised the day of [e]small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Ze-rŭb'ba-bĕl with those seven; they are the eyes of the Lord, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

11 ¶ Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof?

12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves?

13 And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

14 Then said he, These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAPTER 5.

By the flying roll is shewed the curse of thieves and swearers.

1 [1]Then I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a flying roll.

2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is [2]twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.

3 Then he said unto me, This is the [a]curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side according to it.

4 I will bring it forth, saith the Lord of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of [b]him that sweareth falsely by my name, and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.

5 ¶ [3]Then the angel [4]that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

7 And, behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

8 And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

9 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.

10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?

11 And he said unto me, To build [c]it an house in [d]the land of Shī'när: and it shall be established and set there upon her own base.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The vision of the four chariots. 9 By the crowns of Joshua is shewed the temple and kingdom of Christ the Branch.

1 [1]And I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came four chariots out from between two [2]mountains; and the mountains were mountains of [3]brass.

2 In the first chariot were [4]red [a]horses; and in the second chariot [5]black horses;

3 And in the third chariot [6]white [b]horses; and in the fourth chariot [7]grisled and [8]bay horses.

4 Then I answered and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?

5 And the angel answered and said unto me, These [c]are the four spirits of the heavens, which go forth from [d]standing before the Lord of all the earth.

6 The black horses which are therein go forth into the north [9]country; and the white go forth after them; and the grisled go forth toward the south country.

7 And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they [e]might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.

8 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have quieted my [f]spirit in the north country.

9 ¶ [10]And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

10 Take of them of the captivity, even of [11]Hĕl'da-ī, of [12]To-bī'jah, and of Je-dā'iah, which are come from Băb'ў-lon, and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Jo-sī'ah the son of Zĕph-a-nī'ah;

11 Then take silver and gold, and [g]make crowns, and set them upon the head of Jŏsh'u-à the son of Jŏs'e-dĕch, the high priest;

12 And speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, saying, Behold [h]the man whose name is The BRANCH; and he shall grow up out of his place, and he shall [i]build the temple of the Lord:

13 Even he shall build the temple of the Lord; and he [j]shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and [k]he shall be

1. Vs. 1-4 give an account of the sixth vision.

2. 30 ft. by 15 ft., the same size as the temple porch. (1 Ks. 6:3)—"And the porch before the temple of the house, 20 cubits was the length thereof, and 10 cubits the breadth thereof."

3. Vs. 5-11 record the seventh vision, symbolizing by the woman in ephah that the wickedness and idolatry of the holy land shall be taken to Babylon to mingle with their own.

4. That is, the interpreting angel.

Ch. 6. B. C. 519.

1. Vs. 1-8 record the eighth vision, which is of four chariots, symbolizing Jehovah's disposition toward the Gentiles, especially Babylon (the north country).

2. Moriah and Olivet.

3. The metal of the ancients, symbolizing solidity; here representing the resistless firmness of Jehovah's people.

4. Implying carnage, vengeance.

5. Implying sorrow.

6. Implying victory, joy, happiness.

7. Spotted, implying partly prosperity and partly adversity.

8. Implying strength, fleetness.

9. Babylon.

10. Vs. 9-15 record the ninth vision, which was of the crowning of Joshua, symbolizing the combining of the priesthood and the kingdom in the Messiah.

11. Robust.

12. Goodness of God.

what manner of men we were among you for your sake. (I Thess. 1:5.)

e. Who is left among you that saw this house in her first glory? and how do ye see it now? is it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing? (Hag. 2:3.)

Chapter 5.

a. And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse. (Mal. 4:6.)

b. And ye shall not swear by my name falsely, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the Lord. (Lev. 19:12.) And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the Lord of hosts. (Mal. 3:5.)

c. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon; Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them; Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished. (Jer. 29:4-6.)

d. And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar. (Gen. 10:10.)

Chapter 6.

a. And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword. (Rev. 6:4.)

b. And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer. (Rev. 6:2.)

c. Who maketh his angels spirits; his ministers a flaming fire. (Ps. 104:4.) Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation? (Heb. 1:14.)

d. A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened. (Dan. 7:10.) And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to show thee these glad tidings. (Luke 1:19.)

e. Arise, walk through the land, in the length of it, and in the breadth of it; for I will give it unto thee. (Gen. 13:17.)

f. If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place; for yielding pacifieth great offences. (Ecc. 10:4.)

g. And thou shalt make a plate of pure gold, and grave upon it, like the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD. (Ex. 28:36.)

h. Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of hosts. (Mal. 3:1.) Through the tender mercy of our God, whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us. (Luke 1:78.)

i. And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. (Mat. 16:18.) And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone. (Eph. 2:20.) For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honor than the house. (Heb. 3:3.)

j. And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flagons. (Is. 22:24.)

k. The Lord hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.

14 And the crowns shall be to Hē'lem, and to To-bī'jah, and to Je-dā'iah, and to Hĕn the son of Zĕph-a-nī'ah, [l]for a memorial in the temple of the Lord.

15 And [m]they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of the Lord, and ye shall know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the Lord your God.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The captives enquire of fasting. 4 Zechariah reproveth their fasting. 8 Sin the cause of their captivity.

1 [1]And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Da-rī'us, that the word of the Lord came unto Zēch-a-rī'ah in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in Chĭs'leū;

2 When they had sent unto the house of God She-rē'zer and Rē'gem-mē'lech, and their men, to pray before the Lord,

3 And to [a]speak unto the priests which were in the house of the Lord of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?

4 ¶ Then came the word of the Lord of hosts unto me, saying,

5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, [b]even those seventy years, did ye at all fast [c]unto me, even to me?

6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, did not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?

7 Should ye not hear the words which the Lord hath cried by the former prophets, when Je-ru'sa-lĕm was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men [d]inhabited the south and the plain?

8 ¶ And the word of the Lord came unto Zĕch-a-rī'ah, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the Lord of hosts, saying, [e]Execute true judgment, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother:

10 And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

11 But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

12 Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the Lord of hosts hath sent in his spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the Lord of hosts.

13 Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the Lord of hosts.

14 But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not. Thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

CHAPTER 8.

1 The restoration of Jerusalem. 9 They are encouraged to the building by God's favour to them. 16 Good works are required of them. 18 Joy and enlargement are promised.

1 [1]Again the word of the Lord of hosts came to me, saying,

2 Thus saith the Lord of hosts; I [a]was jealous for Zī'ŏn with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.

3 Thus saith the Lord; I am returned unto Zī'ŏn, and will dwell in the midst of Je-ru'sa-lĕm: and Je-ru'sa-lĕm [b]shall be called a city of truth; and [c]the mountain of the Lord of hosts [d]the holy mountain.

4 Thus saith the Lord of hosts; [e]There shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age.

5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls [2]playing in the streets thereof.

6 Thus saith the Lord of hosts; If it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the Lord of hosts.

7 Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country;

8 And I will bring them, and [f]they shall dwell in the midst of Je-ru'sa-lĕm: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

9 ¶ Thus saith the Lord of hosts; [g]Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of [h]the prophets, which were in [i]the day that the foundation of the house of the Lord of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before these days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the Lord of hosts.

12 For the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall for ever after the order of Melchizedek. (Ps. 110:4.) Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus. (Heb. 3:1.)

l. Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her. (Mk. 14:9.)

m. But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. (Eph. 2:13.)

Chapter 7.

a. And thou shalt come unto the priests the Levites, and unto the judge that shall be in those days, and enquire; and they shall show thee the sentence of judgment. (Dt. 17:9.) For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the Lord of hosts. (Mal. 2:7.)

b. Then the angel of the Lord answered and said, O Lord of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years? (Zech. 1:12.)

c. He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks. (Rom. 14:6.)

d. And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meat offerings, and incense, and bringing sacrifices of praise, unto the house of the Lord. (Jer. 17:26.)

e. They are waxen fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge. Shall I not visit for these things? saith the Lord: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? (Jer. 5:28, 29.)

Chapter 8.

a. God is jealous, and the Lord revengeth; the Lord revengeth, and is furious; the Lord will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies. (Nah. 1:2.)

b. How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers. (Is. 1:21.)

c. And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it. (Is. 2:2.)

d. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah, and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity; The Lord bless thee, O habitation of justice, and mountain of holiness. (Jer. 31:23.)

e. There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; but the sinner, being an hundred years old, shall be accursed. (Is. 65:20.)

f. At the same time, saith the Lord, will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people. (Jer. 31:1.)

g. Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith the Lord; and be strong, O Joshua son of Josedech the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the Lord, and work: for I am with you, saith the Lord of hosts. (Hag. 2:4.)

h. Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them. (Ezra 5:2.)

give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to [j]possess all these things.

13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were [k]a curse among the heathen, O house of Jū'dah, and house of Ĭs'ra-el; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the Lord of hosts; [l]As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the Lord of hosts, and I repented not:

15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Je-rụ'sa-lĕm and to the house of Jū'dah: fear ye not.

16 ¶These are the things that ye shall do; Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates:

17 And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these [3]are things that I hate, saith the Lord.

18 ¶ And the word of the Lord of hosts came unto me, saying,

19 Thus saith the Lord of hosts; The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Jū'dah [m]joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love the truth and peace.

20 Thus saith the Lord of hosts; It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people, and the inhabitants of many cities:

21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to pray before the Lord, and to seek the Lord of hosts: I will go also.

22 Yea, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the Lord of hosts in Je-rụ'sa-lĕm, and to pray before the Lord.

23 Thus saith the Lord of hosts; In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard that God is with you.

CHAPTER 9.

1 God defendeth his church. 9 Zion is exhorted to rejoice for the coming of Christ, and his peaceable kingdom. 12 God's promises of victory and defence.

1 [1]The burden of the word of the Lord in the land of Hā'drăch, and [a]Da-măs'cus shall be the rest thereof: when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Ĭs'ra-el, shall be toward the Lord.

2 And [b]Hā'math also shall border thereby; [c]Tȳ'rus, and Zī'dŏn, though it be very wise.

3 And Tȳ'rus did build herself a strong hold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the Lord will cast her out, and he will smite [d]her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire.

5 Āsh'ke-lŏn shall see it, and fear; Gā'zà also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and Ĕk'rŏn; for her expectation shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gā'zà, and Āsh'ke-lŏn shall not be inhabited.

6 And a bastard shall dwell in Āsh'dŏd, and I will cut off the pride of the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes.

7 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even he, shall be for our God, and he shall be as a governor in Jū'dah, and Ĕk'rŏn as a Jĕb'u-sīte.

8 And [e]I will encamp about mine house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth: and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now [f]have I seen with mine eyes.

9 ¶ Rejoice [g]greatly, O daughter of Zī'ŏn; shout, O dayghter of Je-rụ'sa-lĕm: behold, thy [h]King cometh unto thee: he is [i]just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

10 And I will cut off the chariot from Ē'phră-ĭm, and the horse from Je-rụ'sa-lĕm, and the battle bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace [j]unto the heathen: and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, [k]by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy [l]prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12 ¶ Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to day do I declare that I will render double unto thee;

13 When I have bent [2]Jū'dah for me, filled the bow with Ē'phră-ĭm, and raised up thy sons, O Zī'ŏn, against thy sons, O Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man.

14 And the Lord shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord God shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south.

15 The Lord of hosts shall defend them; and they shall devour, and subdue with sling stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, and as [m]the corners of the altar.

3. The sins which Jehovah hated, therefore they should also hate them.

Ch. 9. B. C. 587.

1. The remaining chs. (9-14) are prophetical and treat of Jehovah's protection of his church.

2. A fig. wherein the prophet speaks of bending Judah as a bow and putting thereon Ephraim as an arrow, to overcome the Grecian commanders, who were the oppressors of Judah.

twentieth day of the ninth month, even from the day that the foundation of the Lord's temple was laid, consider it. (Hag. 2:18.)

j. For bodily exercise profiteth little; but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. (I Tim. 4:8.)

k. For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; As mine anger and my fury hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt: and ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more. (Jer. 42:18.)

l. And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, saith the Lord. (Jer. 31:28.)

m. And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs, and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away. (Is. 35:10.)

Chapter 9.

a. Thus saith the Lord; For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron. (Amos 1:3.)

b. Concerning Damascus, Hamath is confounded, and Arpad; for they have heard evil tidings: they are faint-hearted; there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet. (Jer. 49:23.)

c. Thus saith the Lord; for three transgressions of Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not the brotherly covenant. (Amos 1:9.)

d. And they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and say to thee, How art thou destroyed that wast inhabited of sea-faring men, the renowned city, which wast strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, which cause their terror to be on all that haunt it! (Ez. 26:17.)

e. The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them. (Ps. 34:7.)

f. And the Lord said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows. (Ex. 3:7.)

g. All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass. (Mat. 21:4, 5.)

h. Saying, Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest. (Luke 19:38.) Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel. (Jno. 1:49.)

i. Tell ye, and bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together: who hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? have not I the Lord? and there is no God else besides me; a just God, and a Saviour; there is none besides me. (Is. 45:21.) Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved. (Acts 4:12.) For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit. (I Pet. 3:18.)

j. For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us. (Eph. 2:14.)

k. Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant. (Heb. 13:20.)

l. The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound. (Is. 61:1.)

m. And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and 16 And the [n]LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for [o]they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted [p]up as an ensign upon his land.

17 For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! corn shall make the young men cheerful, and new wine the maids.

CHAPTER 10.

1 God is to be sought unto, and not idols. 5 As he visited his flock for sin, so he will save and restore them.

1 [1]Ask ye [a]of the LORD rain in the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

2 For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled, because there was no shepherd.

3 Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I punished the goats: for the LORD of hosts [b]hath visited his flock the house of Jū'dah, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle.

4 Out of him came forth the corner, out of him the [c]nail, out of him the battle bow, out of him every oppressor together.

5 ¶ And they shall be as mighty men, which tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and the riders on horses shall be confounded.

6 And I will strengthen the house of Jū'dah, and I will save the house of Jō'şeph, and I will bring them again to place them; for I have mercy upon them: and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their God, and will hear them.

7 And they of Ē'phrā-ĭm shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine: yea, their children shall see it, and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.

8 I will [d]hiss for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them: and they shall increase as they have increased.

9 And I will sow [2]them among the people: and they shall remember me in far countries; and they shall live with their children, and turn again.

10 I [e]will bring them again also out of the land of Ē'ġўpt, and gather them out of Ăs-sўr'ĭ-â; and I will bring them into the land of Gĭl'e-ăd and Lĕb'a-non; and place shall not be found for them.

Ch. 10. B. C. 587.

1. In this ch. are given the prayer to Jehovah and the promise that as he visited retributive justice on his people for sin, so will he restore and bless them for obedience.

2. Implying that their dispersion was for a purpose.

3. That is, he will cause the sea to be no longer an obstacle to Israel's return; symbolizing that, as Jehovah made a passage through the Red Sea for his people, so will he make a way through every obstacle for their restoration.

Ch. 11. B. C. 587.

1. The route, according to Josephus, by which the Romans advanced upon Jerusalem.

2. Which is no longer to remain in force, save to the faithful remnant.

11 And he shall pass through the sea [3]with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the [f]sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up: and the pride of Ās-sўr'ĭ-â shall be brought down, and [g]the sceptre of Ē'ġўpt shall depart away.

12 And I will strengthen them in the LORD; and they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 11.

1 The destruction of Jerusalem. 3 The elect being cared for, the rest are rejected. 15 The type and curse of a foolish shepherd.

1 Open thy doors, O [1]Lĕb'a-non, that the fire may devour thy cedars.

2 Howl, fir tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bā'shăn; for the forest of the vintage is come down.

3 ¶ There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jor'dan is spoiled.

4 Thus saith the LORD my God; Feed the flock of the slaughter;

5 Whose possessors slay them, and [a]hold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them [b]say, Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

7 And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, [c]O poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands; and I fed the flock.

8 Three shepherds also I cut off in [d]one month; and my soul lothed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

9 Then said I, I will not feed you: that [e]that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another.

10 ¶ And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my [2]covenant which I had made with all the people.

11 And it was broken in that day: and so [f]the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD.

12 And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So shall pour out his blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering. (Lev. 4:25.)

n. Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their dwelling places, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God. (Ez. 37:23.)

o. And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him. (Mal. 3:17.)

p. And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. (Is. 11:12.)

Chapter 10.

a. Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? Art not thou he, O Lord our God? therefore we will wait upon thee; for thou hast made all these things. (Jer. 14:22.)

b. I [illegible]sed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed [illegible] people. (Luke 1:68.)

c. A[illegible] I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a glorious throne to his father's house. (Is. 22:23.)

d. And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will hiss unto them from the end of the earth: and, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly. (Is. 5:26.)

e. For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits, that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in. (Rom. 11:25.)

f. And the Lord shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his mighty wind shall he shake his hand over the river, and shall smite it in the seven streams, and make men go over dryshod. And there shall be an highway for the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria; like as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt. (Is. 11:15, 16.)

g. Thus saith the Lord God; I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of Noph; and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt. (Ez. 30:13.)

Chapter 11.

a. Israel was holiness unto the Lord, and the first-fruits of his increase: all that devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, saith the Lord. (Jer. 2:3.)

b. And it come to pass, when he heareth the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of mine heart, to add drunkenness to thirst. (Dt. 29:19.) And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not. (II Pet. 2:3.)

c. I will also leave in the midst of thee an afflicted and poor people, and they shall trust in the name of the Lord. (Zeph. 3:12.) The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them. (Mat. 11:5.)

d. They have dealt treacherously against the Lord; for they have begotten strange children: now shall a month devour them with their portions. (Hos. 5:7.)

e. And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the Lord; Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity. (Jer. 15:2.)

f. For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth; the poor also, and him that hath no helper. He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy. He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence: and precious shall their blood be in his sight. (Ps. 72:12-14.)

they [g]weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver.

13 And the Lord said unto me, Cast it unto [h]the [3]potter: a goodly price that I was prised at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the Lord.

14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Jū'dah and Ĭs'ra-el.

15 ¶ And the Lord said unto me, [i]Take unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd.

16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shall not visit those that be cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor feed that that standeth still: but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces.

17 Woe [j]to the idol shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly [k]darkened.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Jerusalem a cup of trembling to herself, 3 and a burdensome stone to her adversaries. 6 The victorious restoring of Judah.

1 [1]The burden of the word of the Lord for Ĭs'ra-el, saith the Lord, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him.

2 Behold, I will make Je-rū'sa-lĕm a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Jū'dah and against Je-rū'sa-lĕm.

3 ¶ And in that day will I make Je-rū'sa-lĕm a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith the Lord, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open [2]mine eyes upon the house of Jū'dah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

5 And the governors of Jū'dah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Je-rū'sa-lĕm shall be my strength in the Lord of hosts their God.

6 ¶ In that day will I make the governors of Jū'dah like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Je-rū'sa-lĕm shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Je-rū'sa-lĕm.

3. A symbol sig. Jehovah's absolute power over the clay (man) framed by his own hands.

Ch. 12. B. C. 587.

1. In ch. 12 Jerusalem is recorded as the instrument of judgment on her foes. Also her repentance and restoration are described.

2. That is to watch over the safety of Judah.

Ch. 13. B. C. 587.

1. In this ch. of only nine verses is given the account of the cleansing of the Jews from idolatry and false prophesying.

7 The Lord also shall save the tents of Jū'dah first, that the glory of the house of Dā'vid and the glory of the inhabitants of Je-rū'sa-lĕm do not magnify themselves against Jū'dah.

8 In that day shall the Lord defend the inhabitants of Je-rū'sa-lĕm; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as Dā'vid; and the house of Dā'vid shall be as God, as the angel of the Lord before them.

9 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Je-rū'sa-lĕm.

10 And I will pour upon the house of Dā'vid, and upon the inhabitants of Je-rū'sa-lĕm, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.

11 In that day shall there be a great mourning in Je-rū'sa-lĕm, as the mourning of Hā-dăd-rĭm'mon in the valley of Me-gĭd'don.

12 And the land shall mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of Dā'vid apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nā'than apart, and their wives apart;

13 The family of the house of Lē'vī apart, and their wives apart; the family of Shĭm'e-ī apart, and their wives apart;

14 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

CHAPTER 13.

1 The fountain of purgation for Jerusalem, 2 from idolatry, and false prophecy. 7 The death of Christ, and the trial of a third part.

1 [1]In that day there shall be [a]a fountain opened to the house of Dā'vid and to the inhabitants of Je-rū'sa-lĕm for sin and for uncleanness.

2 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord of hosts, that I will [b]cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the [c]prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

3 And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the Lord: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither shall they wear a rough garment to deceive:

g. If the ox shall push a man-servant or a maid-servant; he shall give unto their master thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned. (Ex. 21:32.) And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver. (Mat. 26:15.)

h. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value. (Mat. 27:9.)

i. Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God unto the shepherds; Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks? (Ez. 34:2.)

j. Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the Lord. (Jer. 23:1.)

k. Therefore night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them. (Mic. 3:6.)

Chapter 12.

a. Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live? (Heb. 12:9.)

b. And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder. (Mat. 21:44.)

c. The stout-hearted are spoiled, they have slept their sleep; and none of the men of might have found their hands. At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob, both the chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep. (Ps. 76:5, 6.)

d. The Lord also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the Lord will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel. (Joel 3:16.)

e. But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty (27); That no flesh should glory in his presence (29). That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. (I Cor. 1:27, 29, 31.)

f. And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions. (Joel 2:28.)

g. Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him; and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. (Rev. 1:7.)

h. Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? (Acts 2:37.)

Chapter 13.

a. How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God! (Heb. 9:14.) But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. (I Pet. 1:19.) And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful Witness, and the first-begotten of the dead, and the Prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood. (Rev. 1:5.)

b. And in all things that I have said unto you be circumspect: and make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth. (Ex. 23:13.)

c. But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. (II Pet. 2:1.)

5 But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am an husbandman; for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.

6 And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

7 ¶ Awake, O sword, against [d]my shepherd, and against the man [e]that is my fellow, saith the Lord of hosts: [f]smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn mine hand upon [g]the little ones.

8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the Lord, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; [h]but the third shall be left therein.

9 And I will bring the third part through [i]the fire, and will [j]refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people: and they shall say, The Lord is my God.

CHAPTER 14.

1 The destroyers of Jerusalem destroyed. 4 The coming of Christ. 12 The plague of Jerusalem's enemies. 16 The remnant shall turn to the Lord, 20 and their spoils shall be holy.

1 [1]Behold, the day of the Lord cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For [a]I will gather all nations against Je-rụ'sa-lĕm to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 Then [2]shall the Lord go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of [3]battle.

4 ¶ And his feet shall stand in that day upon the [b]mount of Ŏl'ivĕş, which is before Je-rụ'sa-lĕm on the east, and the mount of Ŏl'ivĕş shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, [c]and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

5 And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Ā'zăl: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the [d]earthquake in the days of Ūz-zī'ah king of Jū'dah: [e]and the Lord my God shall come, and all the [4]saints with thee.

6 And [f]it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be clear, nor dark:

7 But it shall be one day which shall be known to the [5]Lord, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at [g]evening time it shall be light.

8 And it shall be in that day, that living waters [h]shall go out from Je-rụ'sa-lĕm; half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

9 And the Lord shall be [i]king over all the earth: in that day shall there be [j]one [6]Lord, and his name one.

10 All the land shall be turned as a plain from Gē'bà to Rĭm'mŏn south of Je-rụ'sa-lĕm: and it shall be lifted up, and inhabited in her place, from Bĕn'ja-min's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the tower of Ha-năn'e-el unto the king's winepresses.

11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be [k]no more utter destruction; but Je-rụ'sa-lĕm shall be safely inhabited.

12 ¶ And this shall be the plague wherewith the Lord will smite all the people that have fought against Je-rụ'sa-lĕm; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a [l]great tumult from the Lord shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

14 And Jū'dah also shall fight at Je-rụ'sa-lĕm; and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.

15 And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

16 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Je-rụ'sa-lĕm shall even [m]go up from year to year to worship the [n]King, the Lord of hosts, and to keep the feast [7]of tabernacles.

17 And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Je-rụ'-

Ch. 14. B. C. 587.

1. In ch. 14 is recorded the last struggle with the foe, and the establishment of the day of the Lord.

2. The day of Jerusalem's extremity.

3. As he fought for Israel in crossing the Red Sea.

4. That is, the holy angels as escorts to the returning king.

5. Alluding to the Millennial period.

6. That is, he shall then be recognized by all the world.

7. The feasts of the Passover and Pentecost are here omitted, because that for which they stood having come, the types are done away with, but the feast of the Tabernacles still remains, the feast during which Christ triumphantly made his entry into Jerusalem and the pledge of his return, also the significant symbol of perfect salvation to the Gentiles.

d. He shall feed his flock like a shepherd; he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young. (Is. 40:11.) Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, Make you perfect in every good work to do his will. (Heb. 13:20, 21.)

e. I and my Father are one. (Jno. 10:30.) Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father, that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works. (Jno. 14:10.) Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God. (Phil. 2:6.)

f. And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered. (Mk. 14:27.)

g. Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. (Luke 12:32.)

h. Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. (Rom. 11:5.)

i. Behold, I have refined thee, but not with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction. (Is. 48:10.)

j. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations; That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honor and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ. (I Pet. 1:6, 7.)

Chapter 14.

a. I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land. (Joel 3:2.)

b. And the glory of the Lord went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city. (Ez. 11:23.)

c. Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about. (Joel 3:12.)

d. The words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. (Amos 1:1.)

e. And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. (Mat. 24:30.)

f. And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever. (Rev. 22:5.)

g. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. (Rev. 21:23.)

h. Afterward he brought me again unto the door of the house; and, behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward: for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar. (Ez. 47:1.)

i. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession. (Ps. 2:8.) And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. (Dan. 2:44.)

j. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; One Lord, one faith, one baptism, One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. (Eph. 4:4-6.)

k. And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields unto the brook of Kidron, unto the corner of the horse gate toward the east, shall be holy unto the Lord; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down, any more for ever. (Jer. 31:40.)

l. And there was trembling in the host, in the field, and among all the people: the garrison, and the spoilers, they also trembled, and the earth quaked: so it was a very great trembling. (I Sam. 14:15.)

m. And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the Lord. (Is. 66:23.)

n. Which in his times he shall show, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords. (I Tim. 6:15.)

sa-lĕm to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain.

18 And if the family of Ē′gўpt go not up, and come not, that have no rain; there shall be the plague, wherewith the Lord will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

19 This shall be the punishment of Ē′gўpt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

20 ¶ In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the Lord's house shall be like the bowls before the altar.

21 Yea, [o]every pot in Je-rų′sa-lĕm and in Jū′dah shall be holiness unto the Lord of hosts: and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe therein: and in that day there shall be no more the [p]Cā′năan-īte in the [q]house of the Lord of hosts.

o. And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him. (Col. 3:17.)

p. And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination or maketh a lie; but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life. (Rev. 21:27.)

q. Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God; And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; In whom all the building, fitly framed together, groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord: In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit. (Eph. 2:19-22.)

MALACHI

NOTE.—Malachi, the last book of the Old Testament, reiterates God's love of Jacob and his hatred of Esau. Censure is pronounced upon the priests for their wicked conduct and a rebuke administered to those who have formed unholy matrimonial alliances with foreign women. The announcement is also made that Jehovah himself will judge the wicked. The people are rebuked for not bringing their tithes according to the law, and for asserting that there is no reward to those who serve the Lord. The promise is renewed that all who serve the Lord acceptably shall receive their reward.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Malachi complaineth of Israel's unkindness.
6 Of their irreligiousness, 12 and profaneness.

1 [1]The burden [2]of the word of the Lord to Ĭs'ra-el by Măl'a-chī.

2 I have loved [a]you, saith the Lord. Yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not Ē'saụ Jā'cob's brother? saith the Lord: yet [b]I loved Jā'cob,

3 And I hated Ē'saụ, and [c]laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the [4]dragons of the wilderness.

4 Whereas Ē'dom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the Lord of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the Lord hath indignation for ever.

5 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, [b]The Lord will be magnified from the border of Ĭs'ra-el.

6 ¶ A son [c]honoureth his father, and a servant his master: [d]if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the Lord of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

7 [c]Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar; and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, [f]The [5]table of the Lord is contemptible.

8 And if ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or [g]accept thy person? saith the Lord of hosts.

9 And now, I pray you, beseech God that he will be gracious unto us: this hath been by your means: will he regard your persons? saith the Lord of hosts.

10 [c]Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? [h]neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the Lord of hosts, [i]neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

11 For [j]from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name shall be great among the Gĕn'tīles; [k]and in every place [l]incense shall be offered unto [m]my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the Lord of hosts.

12 ¶ But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the Lord is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible.

13 Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith the Lord of hosts; and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should [n]I accept this of your hand? saith the Lord.

14 But [o]cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the Lord of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He sharply reproveth the priests for neglecting their covenant, 11 and the people for idolatry, 17 and for infidelity.

1 [1]And now, O ye priests, this commandment is for [2]you.

2 If [a]ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the Lord of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

3 Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and one shall take you away with it.

4 And ye [3]shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Lē'vī, saith the Lord of hosts.

5 My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him [b]for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name.

6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did [c]turn many away from iniquity.

7 For [d]the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: [e]for he is the messenger of the Lord of hosts.

Ch. 1. B. C. 397.

1. In ch. 1, Jehovah, through Malachi, complains of the ingratitude with which Israel has received his love. He also speaks of the mercenary spirit of the priests and declares that a Gentile spiritual priesthood shall supersede them.

2. Sentence.

3. He had loved them with that divine love which surpasses all earthly love.

4. Jackals.

5. The altar.

6. Who, even from the greatest to the least among them, would serve except for their hire.

Ch. 2. B. C. 397.

1. Ch. 2 contains the reproof of the priests for violating the covenant, also the people for their unfaithfulness.

2. Especially to the priests, because it was their duty to lead the people aright.

3. By bitter experiences.

Ref. Malachi. Chapter 1.

a. And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, O mount Seir, I am against thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee most desolate. (Ez. 35:3.)

b. Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favor my righteous cause; yea, let them say continually, Let the Lord be magnified, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant. (Ps. 35:27.)

c. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. (Ex. 20:12.)

d. And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? (Luke 6:46.)

e. And if there be any blemish therein, as if it be lame, or blind, or have any ill blemish, thou shalt not sacrifice it unto the Lord thy God. (Dt. 15:21.)

f. The altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof, two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the table that is before the Lord. (Ez. 41:22.)

g. Therefore take unto you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you; for him will I accept; lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job. (Job 42:8.)

h. For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: Whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things. (Phil. 3:18, 19.)

i. To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the Lord: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he goats. (Is. 1:11.) To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me. (Jer. 6:20.)

j. So shall they fear the name of the Lord from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him. (Is. 59:19.)

k. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet in Jerusalem, worship the Father. (Jno. 4:21.) I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands without wrath and doubting. (I Tim. 2:8.)

l. And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. (Rev. 8:3.)

m. And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory, and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles. (Is. 66:19.)

n. But whatsoever hath a blemish, that shall ye not offer; for it shall not be acceptable for you. (Lev. 22:20.)

o. But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession. (Acts 5:1.)

Chapter 2.

a. But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day, that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee. (Dt. 28:15.)

b. And of Levi he said, Let thy Thummim and thy Urim be with thy holy one, whom thou didst prove at Massah, and with whom thou didst strive at the waters of Meribah. (Dt. 33:8.)

c. Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him; Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins. (Js. 5:19, 20.)

d. And thou shalt come unto the priests the Levites, and unto the judge that shall be in those days, and enquire; and they shall show thee the sentence of judgment. (Dt. 17:9.)

e. And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor 8 But ye are departed out of the way; ye [f]have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Lē'vī, saith the Lord of hosts.

9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been partial in the law.

10 [g]Have [4]we not all one father? hath [h]not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11 ¶ Jū'dah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Īs'ra-el and in Jeru'sa-lĕm; for Jū'dah hath profaned the holiness of the Lord which he loved, [i]and hath married the daughter of a strange god.

12 The Lord will cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jā'cob, and him that offereth an offering unto the Lord of hosts.

13 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the Lord with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

14 ¶ Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the Lord hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy [5]covenant.

15 And [j]did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek [k]a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For [l]the Lord, the God of Īs'ra-el, saith that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the Lord of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

17 ¶ Ye have wearied the [6]Lord with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the Lord, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

CHAPTER 3.

1 Of the messenger, majesty, and grace of Christ. 7 Of the rebellion, 13 and infidelity of the people.

1 [1]Behold, I [a]will send my [2]messenger, and he shall [b]prepare the way before me: and [c]the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, [d]even the messenger [3]of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, [e]he shall come, saith the Lord of hosts.

2 But who may abide the day of his coming? and [f]who shall stand when he appeareth? for [g]he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' sope:

3 And [h]he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Lē'vī, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may [i]offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness.

4 Then shall the offering of Jū'dah and Jeru'sa-lĕm be pleasant unto the Lord, as in the days of old, and as in former years.

5 And I [j]will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the [4]sorcerers, and against the adulterers, [k]and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the Lord of hosts.

6 For I am the Lord, [l]I change not; therefore ye [m]sons of Jā'cob are not consumed.

7 ¶ [5]Even from the days of [n]your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. [o]Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the Lord of hosts. But ye said, Wherein shall we return?

8 ¶ Will a man rob [6]God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.

9 Ye are [7]cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

10 Bring [p]ye all the tithes into [q]the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows [r]of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

11 And I will rebuke the [s]devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the Lord of hosts.

12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be [t]a delightsome land, saith the Lord of hosts.

13 ¶ Your words have been stout against me, saith the Lord. Yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee?

4. In vs. 10-16 is recorded the reproof administered to those who put away their Jewish wives and marry foreigners.

5. That is, being the covenant people, a sin against one of them is a sin against God. She is, therefore, the wife of thy covenant.

6. Inasmuch as they had neglected the greater and more important duties in attending to the lesser ones, and after observing the lesser obligations they still claim fellowship with Jehovah.

Ch. 3. B. C. 397.

1. In ch. 3, Jehovah declares that he will send his messenger as forerunner to the Messiah to punish the guilty and reward the faithful.

2. John the Baptist. (Mat. 3:3)—"For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight."

3. The covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and the manifestations of God in the Old Testament, also the human appearances of Jehovah, were all made in the person of the Divine Son; and he was, therefore, the messenger of the covenant, Old and New.

4. The Jews were led to a knowledge of the sorcerers through their idolatrous foreign wives.

5. In vs. 5-12 is recorded the reproof of the people for their failure to pay the tithes, which is the cause of their calamities. It should also be observed here, as elsewhere, that when the chosen people are reproved for their sins, they are also promised a reward if they will turn from their evil ways and obey Jehovah.

6. That is, defraud; which they had done in withholding the tithes due to Jehovah.

7. That is, they are themselves defrauded as they thought they were defrauding God; just as the eagle who robbed the altar of its offering, set fire to her nest with the burning coal which adhered to the stolen flesh.

rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. (Gal. 4:14.)

f. Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great before the Lord; for men abhorred the offering of the Lord. (I Sam. 2:17.)

g. One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. (Eph. 4:6.)

h. Did not he that made me in the womb make him? and did not one fashion us in the womb? (Job 31:15.)

i. In those days also saw I Jews that had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab. (Neh. 13:23.)

j. And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female, And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? (Mat. 19:4, 5.)

k. For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy. (I Cor. 7:14.)

l. But I say unto you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery. (Mat. 5:32.)

Chapter 3.

a. And thou, child, shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways. (Luke 1:76.)

b. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. (Is. 40:3.)

c. The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool. (Ps. 110:1.)

d. In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old. (Is. 63:9.)

e. And I will shake all nations, and the Desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the Lord of hosts. (Hag. 2:7.)

f. For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand? (Rev. 6:17.)

g. When the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning. (Is. 4:4.)

h. And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin. (Is. 1:25.)

i. Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. (I Pet. 2:5.)

j. And to you who are troubled, rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels. (II Thess. 1:7.)

k. Behold, the hire of the laborers which have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth; and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth. (Js. 5:4.)

l. God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good? (Num. 23:19.) Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. (Js. 1:17.)

m. It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. (Lam. 3:22.)

n. Ye stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye. (Acts 7:51.)

o. Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Turn ye unto me, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the Lord of hosts. (Zech. 1:3.)

p. Honor the Lord with thy substance, and with the first-fruits of all thine increase. (Prov. 3:9.)

q. And of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasures of the house of God, and over the treasures of the dedicated things. (I Chr. 26:20.)

r. In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened. (Gen. 7:11.)

s. I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: when your gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees increased, the palmer-worm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord. (Amos 4:9.)

t. And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed

14 Ye [u]have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the Lord of hosts?

15 And now [v]we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are set up; yea, they that tempt [w]God are even delivered.

16 ¶ Then they [x]that feared the [y]Lord spake often one to another: and the Lord hearkened, and heard it, and a book of [z]remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name.

17 And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

18 Then shall ye return, and [z]discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not.

CHAPTER 4.

1 God's judgment on the wicked, 2 and his blessing on the good. 4 He exhorteth to the study of the law, 5 and telleth of Elijah's coming and office.

8. The record of all our acts and the impression of all our responsibilities.

Ch. 4. B. C. 397.

1. In ch. 4, with only six verses, is declared Jehovah's judgments against the wicked, his blessings on the faithful, and the coming and office of Elijah.

2. In its full and successive fulfillment, the day of judgment.

3. As there were to be no more prophets and no direct communion till the coming of John, they are told to remember the law, lest they should forget.

4. Thus declaring his office, he comes as a prophet and not in his own person.

5. Implying that the coming of the Messiah will bring woe and sorrow to all who have not been reconciled, as it did to guilty Jerusalem, and as his second coming will to those who are not prepared.

6. A ban under which the Jews have long lain and under which the Gentile world will lie unless they are faithful to him, who came to deliver them. Be it observed that the last word of the law is one of wrath, while the first of the gospel is one of blessing. The last word from heaven standing for 400 years, during the intervening time of the old dispensation and the new, was that awful word "curse"; while the Messiah's first word on the Mount to this sincursed world was "blessed." (Mat. 5:2, 3)—"And he opened his mouth and taught them saying, Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

1 [1]For, behold, the day [2]cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

2 ¶ But unto you that fear my name shall the [a]Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

3 And [b]ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the Lord of hosts.

4 ¶ Remember [3]ye the law of Mō'şeş my servant, which I commanded unto him [c]in Hō'reb for all Ĭs'ra-el, with the statutes and judgments.

5 ¶ Behold, I will send you E-lī'jah the [4]prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord:

6 And he shall [d]turn the heart of the [5]fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with [e]a [6]curse.

exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land. (Dan. 8:9.)

u. And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are settled on their lees; that say in their heart, The Lord will not do good, neither will he do evil. (Zeph. 1:12.)

v. Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches. (Ps. 73:12.)

w. When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work. (Ps. 95:9.)

x. Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul. (Ps. 66:16.)

y. And Moses said unto the people, Fear not: for God is come to prove you, and that his fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not. (Ex. 20:20.) The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever. (Ps. 111:10.) Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. (Ecc. 12:13.) That all the people of the earth might know the hand of the Lord, that it is mighty; that ye might fear the Lord your God for ever. (Josh. 4:24.) The fear of the Lord is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate. (Prov. 8:13.) By mercy and truth iniquity is purged; and by the fear of the Lord men depart from evil. (Prov. 16:6.)

z. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. (Ecc. 12:14.) And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. (Rev. 22:12.) Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment. (Jno. 7:24.) Therefore the Lord hath recompensed me according to my righteousness; according to my cleanness in his eye-sight. With the merciful thou wilt show thyself merciful, and with the upright man thou wilt show thyself upright. With the pure thou wilt show thyself pure: and with the froward thou wilt show thyself unsavory. (II Sam. 22:25-27.)

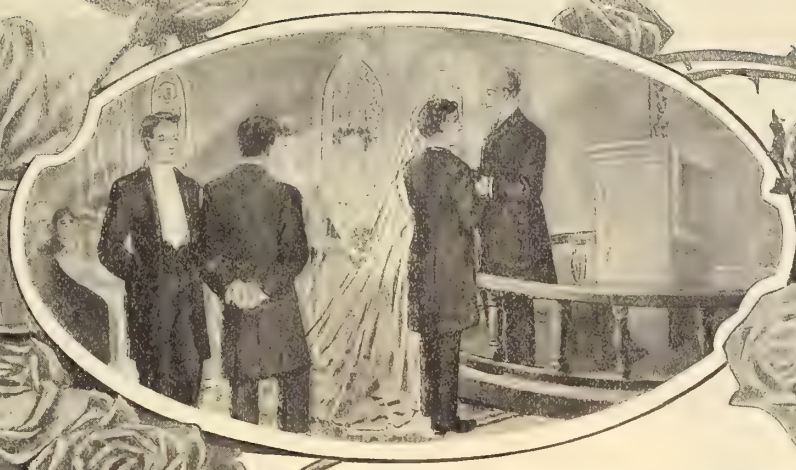
a. Through the tender mercy of our God, whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us. (Luke 1:78.) We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts. (II Pet. 1:19.)



b. Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, Where is the Lord thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets. (Mic. 7:10.)

c. Specially the day that thou stoodest before the Lord thy God in Horeb, when the Lord said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children. (Dt. 4:10.)

d. And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord. (Luke 1:17.)

e. And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined. (Dan. 9:26.) Cursed be the man that maketh any graven or molten image, an abomination unto the Lord, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place. And all the people shall answer and say, Amen. Cursed be he that setteth light by his father or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen. Cursed be he that removeth his neighbor's land-mark. And all the people shall say, Amen. Cursed be he that maketh the blind to wander out of the way. And all the people shall say, Amen. Cursed be he that perverteth the judgment of the stranger, fatherless, and widow. And all the people shall say, Amen. Cursed be he that lieth with his father's wife; because he uncovereth his father's skirt. And all the people shall say, Amen. Cursed be he that lieth with any manner of beast. And all the people shall say, Amen. Cursed be he that lieth with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen. Cursed be he that lieth with his mother-in-law. And all the people shall say, Amen. Cursed be he that smiteth his neighbor secretly. And all the people shall say, Amen. Cursed be he that taketh reward to slay an innocent person. And all the people shall say, Amen. Cursed be he that confirmeth not all the words of this law to do them. And all the people shall say, Amen. (Dt. 27:15-26.)

SAINT MATTHEW

NOTE.—The author of this Gospel is Matthew, called "Levi" in Mark 2:14 and Luke 5:27. He was one of the 12 Apostles of Christ and, at the time when he was summoned by Christ, he was one of the collectors of taxes. Matthew is one of the four Gospels ("tidings of great joy"), and is founded directly on the words used by the angel in the annunciation of the birth of Christ, in Luke 2:10—"Behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all people." The purpose of the Gospels is, therefore, to put into tangible and permanent form the proof that Christ is the Messiah promised in the Old Testament, and that he came fulfilling the mission of the Messiah there promised, i. e., to save the world from its sins and redeem mankind from the curse of the law. In order to make conclusive the authenticity of Christ, Matthew gives his genealogy as far back as Abraham. In writing the life of Christ, Matthew gives the Sermon on the Mount, also his general sayings, in order to set forth the principles of Christ's kingdom; a record of the miracles is given to prove his Sonship—that he was one with the Father and that to him all power is given in heaven and in earth—and also to establish his love and sympathy for man.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The genealogy of Christ from Abraham to Joseph. 18 He was conceived by the Holy Ghost, and born of the Virgin Mary. 19 The angel interpreteth the names of Christ.

1 The [1]book of the generation of Jē'sus [2]Chrīst, [a]the son [3]of Dā'vid, [b]the son of Ā'brăham.

2 Ā'bră-ham begat Ī'saac; and Ī'saac begat Jā'cob; and Jā'cob begat Jū'das and his brethren;

3 And Jū'das begat Phā'rĕs and Zā'rā of Thā'mar; and Phā'rĕs begat Ēs'rom; and Ēs'rom begat Ā'ram;

4 And Ā'ram begat A-mĭn'a-dab; and A-mĭn'a-dab begat Na-ăs'son; and Na-ăs'son begat Săl'mŏn;

5 And Săl'mŏn begat Bō'oz [c]of Rā'chăb; and Bō'oz begat Ō'bed of Ruth; and Ō'bed begat Jĕs'se;

6 And Jĕs'se begat Dā'vid the king; and Dā'vid the king begat Sŏl'o-mon of her that had been the wife of U-rī'as;

7 And Sŏl'o-mon begat Ro-bō'am; and Ro-bō'am begat A-bī'ă; and A-bī'ă begat Ā'să;

8 And Ā'să begat Jŏs'a-phăt; and Jŏs'a-phăt begat Jō'ram; and Jō'ram begat O-zī'as;

9 And O-zī'as begat Jō'a-thăm; and Jō'a-thăm begat Ā'chăz; and Ā'chăz begat Ēz-ĕ-kī'as;

10 And Ēz-ĕ-kī'as begat Ma-năs'sēs; and Ma-năs'sēs begat Ā'mon; and Ā'mon begat Jo-sī'as;

11 And Jo-sī'as begat Jĕch-o-nī'as and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Băb'ў-lon:

12 And after they were brought to Băb'ў-lon, Jĕch-o-nī'as begat Sa-lā'thĭ-el; and Sa-lā'thĭ-el begat Zo-rŏb'a-bĕl;

13 And Zo-rŏb'a-bĕl begat A-bī'ud; and A-bī'ud begat E-lī'a-kĭm; and E-lī'a-kĭm begat Ā'zor;

14 And Ā'zor begat Sā'dŏc; and Sā'dŏc begat Ā'chĭm; and Ā'chĭm begat E-lī'ud;

15 And E-lī'ud begat Ē-le-ā'zar; and Ē-le-ā'zar begat Măt'than; and Măt'than begat Jā'cob;

16 And Jācob begat Jō'seph the husband of Mā'rў, of whom was born [d]Jē'sus, who is called Chrīst.

17 So all the [4]generations from Ā'bră-hăm to Dā'vid are fourteen generations; and from [5]Dā'vid until the carrying away into Băb'ў-lon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Băb'ў-lon unto [6]Chrīst are fourteen generations.

18 ¶ [7]Now the [e]birth of Jē'sus Chrīst was on this wise: When as his mother [8]Mā'rў was espoused to Jō'seph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Hō'lў Ghōst.

19 Then Jō'seph, her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a [f]public example, was minded to put [g]her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, [h]the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Jō'seph, thou [i]son of Dā'vid, fear not to take unto thee Mā'rў thy wife: for that which is [e]conceived in her is of the Hō'lў Ghōst.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt [j]call his name [9]JĒ'SUS: for he shall [k]save his people from their sins.

22 Now [10]all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

Ch. 1. B. C. 1898—B. C. 1.

1. Not a book as a modern volume, but a roll, frequently called a scroll. This ch. is largely given to the genealogy of Christ, to prove the statement of v. 23, as is spoken in v. 22.

2. Not the personal name or proper name of our Saviour but a title, a designation of royal office, given by the express command of the angel (v. 21), thereby anointing him, as it were, to the office of Saviour as one who should save his people from their sins.

3. Meaning here, as elsewhere in the Scriptures, a descendant.

4. The generations are here divided into three groups, sig. the three historic epochs of Jewish history, viz., the patriarchal, the Egyptian and Mosaic.

5. The period of Israelitish monarchy. Three of the kings are here omitted, presumably for a double purpose—first, their great wickedness; second, to retain the number 14, which is twice the sacred number 7.

6. While Matthew mentions only 13 generations here, there seems to have been one clause omitted, which—there is abundant proof—was written by Matthew himself, but in some way was dropped, viz., "Josiah begat Joakim and his brethren; and Joakim begat Jechonias about the time of the first Babylonish captivity; and Jechonias begat Selathiel after they were brought to Babylon."

7. Vs. 18-25 record the angel's announcement of the birth of Jesus.

8. Of Mary, the mother of Christ, little is known. After the childhood of Christ, she appears at the wedding of Cana, again, with his brethren, trying to induce him to remove from the crowds in Galilee to his childhood home in Nazareth; she then drops out of notice until she appears at the cross at Calvary, where Christ gave her into the keeping of John, the beloved disciple. The last mention of her is in Acts 1:14, "These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women and Mary, the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren." This was in the company of the disciples after the Ascension. She is said to have died at the age of 63.

9. The Greek equivalent to the Hebrew name Joshua, who was the type of Christ, as the deliverer of Israel, leading them into the promised land; so, as Joshua delivered his people from their enemies and established them in Canaan, Jesus is the redeemer and deliverer from sin of those who believe on him and established them in the heavenly Canaan.

10. That is, the events of the miraculous birth as recorded in vs. 18-22.

Ref. St. Matthew. Chapter 1.

a. The Lord hath sworn in truth unto David; he will not turn from it; Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne. (Ps. 132:11.) And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. (Is. 11:1.) Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David. (Mat. 22:42.)

b. Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. (Gal. 3:16.)

c. And Joshua saved Rahab the harlot alive, and her father's household, and all that she had; and she dwelleth in Israel even unto this day; because she hid the messengers which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho. (Josh. 6:25.)

d. And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel. (Gen. 3:15.) For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. (Luke 2:11.) In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only-begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. (I Jno. 4:9.)

e. But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law. (Gal. 4:4.) The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be. (Gen. 49:10.) That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth, even in him. (Eph. 1:10.) And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel. (Gen. 3:15.) Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil. (Heb. 2:14.)

f. If a damsel that is a virgin be betrothed unto an husband, and a man find her in the city, and lie with her; Then ye shall bring them both out unto the gate of that city, and ye shall stone them with stones that they die; the damsel, because she cried not, being in the city; and the man, because he hath humbled his neighbor's wife: so thou shalt put away evil from among you. (Dt. 22:23, 24.)

g. When a man hath taken a wife, and married her, and it come to pass that she find no favor in his eyes, because he hath found some uncleanness in her; then let him write her a bill of divorcement, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house. (Dt. 24:1.)

h. And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to show thee these glad tidings (19). And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. (Luke 1:19, 26, 27.) And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision. (Dan. 8:16.) Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation. (Dan. 9:21.)

i. To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. (Luke 1:27.) And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, (because he was of the house and lineage of David). (Luke 2:4.)

j. And knew her not till she had brought forth her first-born son: and he called his name JESUS. (Mat. 1:25.) And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. (Luke 1:31.) And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb. (Luke 2:21.)

k. He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his 23 [l]Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name [11]Ĕm-măn'ū-el, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24 Then Jō'şeph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JĒ'SUS.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The wise men are directed to Christ by a star. 11 They worship him, and offer their presents. 14 Joseph fleeth into Egypt, with Jesus and his mother. 16 Herod slayeth the children, 20 himself dieth. 23 Christ is brought to Nazareth.

1 [1]Now when Jē'şus was [a]born in [2]Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm of [4]Jū-dæ'ā in the days of [5]Hĕr'od the king, behold, there came [b]wise [3]men from the [6]east to [7]Je-rū'sa-lĕm,

2 Saying, Where is he that is born [c]King of the Jews? for we have seen his [d]star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Hĕr'od the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Je-rū'sa-lĕm with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Chrīst should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm of Jū-dæ'ā: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 [c]And thou [8]Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm, in the land of Jū'dā, art not the least among the princes of Jū'dā: [9]for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Ĭs'ra-el.

7 Then Hĕr'od, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 [10]When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mā'rў his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto [b]him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Hĕr'od, they departed into their own country another way.

13 And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Jō'şeph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Ē'ğўpt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Hĕr'od will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into [11]Ē'ğўpt:

15 And was there until the death of Hĕr'od: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, [12]Out [f]of Ē'ğўpt have I called my son.

16 ¶ [13]Then Hĕr'od, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jĕr'e-mў the prophet, saying,

18 [g]In [14]Rā'mà was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rā'chel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 ¶ But when Hĕr'od was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Jō'şeph in Ē'ğўpt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Ĭs'ra-el: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Ĭs'ra-el.

22 But when he heard that [15]Är-chĕ-lā'us did reign in Jū-dæ'ā in the room of his father Hĕr'od, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Găl'ĭ-lee:

23 And he came and dwelt in a city [h]called [16]Năz'a-rĕth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, [i]He shall be called a Năz'a-rēne.

CHAPTER 3.

1 John preacheth: his office: life, and baptism. 7 He reprehendeth the Pharisees, 13 and baptizeth Christ in Jordan.

---

1. To our Messiah there are given three titles or offices, viz., Jesus, meaning Saviour; Christ, meaning anointed; Emmanuel, meaning God with us, or God with man, combining divinity and humanity.

Ch. 2. A. D. 1-4.

1. In ch. 2 is given an account of the visit of the wise men searching for the infant Christ; Joseph's flight to Egypt with Mary and the Christ; Herod's order to slay all male children under the age of two years in order to put to death Christ, the King of the Jews; and the bringing of Christ out of Egypt.

2. Called in the Old Testament Bethlehem-Judah to distinguish it from Bethlehem of the tribe of Zebulun. It is especially noted as the scene of the Book of Ruth. It is about 6 miles south of Jerusalem and contains at the present time (1905) about 4,000 inhabitants, mostly Christians of the Greek church.

3. Vs. 1-10 give an account of the coming of the wise men, guided by the star in the east. It is supposed that they came from Persia.

4. Palestine, between the Mediterranean on the west and Jordan on the east. This section was divided into three provinces—Galilee, Samaria and Judea.

5. Called Herod the Great, who died during the infancy of Jesus.

6. Supposed to be from Persia.

7. The first occurrence in the New Testament of the name of the holy city; in Gen. called Salem, with Melchizedek as king, who was a type of the future Messiah. It was here that Abraham brought Isaac to be sacrificed, where later Christ was actually sacrificed. Its career has been a checkered one, undergoing the fate of the Jewish race.

8. Thus are written and preserved by the Jews, the opponents of Christianity, the records of the proof of Christ. Someone has said, "Judaism has furnished the prophecy, Christianity the fulfillment, the Hebrews the record."

9. Thus lifted from the least to the greatest.

10. Vs. 12-15 narrate the return of the Magi and Joseph's flight into Egypt.

11. The Jews had established a colony in Egypt which had been in existence a long time.

12. "The prophet" here means the people Israel personified as an individual.

13. Vs. 16-23 give an account of the slaughter of the male children and Joseph's return from Egypt.

14. A village of the tribe of Benjamin, near Bethlehem.

15. Fearing that the cruelty of the father had descended to the son, which time proved to be true. After a reign of nine years, Archelaus was deposed for his cruelty and banished to Vienna, in Gaul, where he died.

16. A small village in a little valley in the southwestern part of Galilee. It is nowhere mentioned in the Old Testament, its fame and record being solely as the residence of Christ.

stripes we are healed. (Is. 53:5.) Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. (Acts 5:31.) In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace. (Eph. 1:7.) Ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin. (I Jno. 3:5.) And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful Witness, and the first-begotten of the dead, and the Prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood. (Rev. 1:5.)

l. Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. (Is. 7:14.) For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this. (Is. 9:6, 7.)

a. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, (because he was of the house and lineage of David,) To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn. (Luke 2:4-7.)

b. Because of thy temple at Jerusalem shall kings bring presents unto thee (29). Princes shall come out of Egypt; Ethiopia shall soon stretch out her hands unto God. (Ps. 68:29, 31.) The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts. (Ps. 72:10.) And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising (3). The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come: they shall bring gold and incense; and they shall show forth the praises of the Lord. (Is. 60:3, 6.)

c. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. (Jer. 23:5.) Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel. (Jno. 1:49.)

d. I shall see him, but not now; I shall behold him, but not nigh: there shall come a Star out of Jacob, and a Sceptre shall rise out of Israel, and shall smite the corners of Moab, and destroy all the children of Sheth. (Num. 24:17.)

e. But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting. (Mic. 5:2.) Hath not the Scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was? (Jno. 7:42.)

f. When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt. (Hos. 11:1.)

g. Thus saith the Lord; A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping for her children, refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not. (Jer. 31:15.)

h. And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth. (Luke 1:26.) Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him of whom Moses in the Law, and the Prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth the son of Joseph. (Jno. 1:45.)

i. And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. (Is. 11:1.)

1 [c]In [1]those [2]days came Jŏhn [3]the Băp'tĭst, preaching in the wilderness of Jū-dæ'ā,

2 And saying, Repent ye: for the [b]kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet E-ṣā'ĭas, saying, [c]The voice of one crying in the wilderness, [5]Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And the same Jŏhn had his [d]raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was [e]locusts and wild honey.

5 [f]Then went out to him Je-rū'sa-lĕm, and all Jū-dæ'ā, and all the region round about Jor'dan,

6 And were baptized of him in [6]Jor'dan, confessing their sins.

7 ¶ [7]But when he saw many of the Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ and [8]Săd'du-çeeṣ come to his baptism, he said unto them, [g]O generation of [9]vipers, who hath warned you to flee from [h]the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance:

9 And think not to say within yourselves, [i]We have Ā'brā-hăm to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Ā'brā-hăm.

10 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

11 [j]I indeed baptize you with [k]water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the [l]Hō'lў Ghōst, and with fire:

12 [m]Whose fan [10]is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with [n]unquenchable fire.

13 ¶ [11]Then [o]cometh Jē'ṣus from Găl'ĭ-lee to Jor'dan unto Jōhn, to be baptized of him.

14 But Jŏhn forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 And Jē'ṣus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to [p]fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.

16 And Jē'ṣus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the

Ch. 3. A. D. 26.

1. There has been an interval of nearly 30 years between the events of chs. 2 and 3. In ch. 2 Jesus was an infant; in ch. 3 he has reached manhood and is ready for his life work. His human father Joseph, the carpenter of Nazareth, had died, and it seems that the mother and brothers had almost lost perfect faith in his Messiahship. It is also true that his mother may be the only one of the family now living cognizant of the facts of his birth.

2. The days Jesus dwelt in Nazareth.

3. John the Baptist, a son given in answer to prayer in the old age of Zacharias, the priest, and Elizabeth, his wife. Elizabeth was a cousin of Mary, mother of Jesus. He was born about six months before Christ. Though it seems that their mothers were well acquainted with each other, yet John and Jesus each grew up as a direct gift of God, without John's having a perfect conception of Christ. This is evidenced by the fact that when Christ began to perform his miracles, John—who was then in prison—sent his messengers to inquire if this was indeed the Messiah.

5. An expression borrowed from the custom of the times. Whenever a traveler of note passed through the country, someone was sent on ahead crying to the inhabitants to assemble along the route and prepare the way.

6. The Jordan is a river of many banks, which form, as it were, several streams; as there will be one stream and a bank, then another and a bank, and so on till the river is crossed. It receives its water from the snows of Lebanon; on an average is about 90 ft. wide and 9 ft. deep.

7. Pharisees and Sadducees; heads of the church and state, who maintained their strength and standing by displays of their external sanctity. The word Pharisee means separated; a religious sect which separated itself and stood apart from the world.

8. A body of the leaders of the state, unbelievers in the divine plan for the human race. While they believed in Moses and the Pentecost they were unbelievers in the immortality of the soul, in angels or in the resurrection.

9. An emblem of wickedness.

10. A description of the judging process of the Messiah—an image taken from the threshing or winnowing floor.

11. In vs. 13-17 is recorded the baptism of Jesus and the visible descent of the Spirit upon him.

Chapter 3.

a. The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. And there went out unto him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins. And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey; And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose. I indeed have baptized you with water; but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost. (Mk. 1:3-8.)

b. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this. (Is. 9:6, 7.) And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. (Dan. 2:44.) How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation. (Dan. 4:3.) I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end. (Dan. 6:26.) And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed (14). And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him. (Dan. 7:14, 27.) From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. (Mat. 4:17.) And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand. (Mat. 10:7.) And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the Gospel. (Mk. 1:15.)

c. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. (Is. 40:3.)

d. And they answered him, He was an hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins. And he said, It is Elijah the Tishbite. (II Ks. 1:8.) And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither shall they wear a rough garment to deceive. (Zech. 13:4.)

e. Even these of them ye may eat; the locust after his kind, and the bald locust after his kind, and the beetle after his kind, and the grasshopper after his kind. (Lev. 11:22.)

f. And there went out unto him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins. (Mk. 1:5.)

g. O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. (Mat. 12:34.) Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell? (Mat. 23:33.) Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? (Luke 3:7.)

h. And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come. (I Thess. 1:10.)

i. They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free? (33). They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham. (Jno. 8:33, 39.) Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent. (Acts 13:26.) What shall we then say that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. For what saith the Scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness (1-3). And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised: that righteousness might be imputed unto them also (11). Therefore it is a faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all. (Rom. 4:1-3, 11, 16.)

j. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. (Mat. 7:19.) Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground? (Luke 13:7.) If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. (Jno. 15:6.)

k. And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptized with the Holy Ghost. (Jno. 1:33.) For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence. (Acts 1:5.) Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost. (Acts 11:16.)

l. When the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning. (Is. 4:4.) And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost. (Jno. 1:33.) And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. (Acts 2:3, 4.)

m. The oxen likewise and the young asses that ear the ground shall eat clean provender, which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan. (Is. 30:24.) Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner: but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable. (Luke 3:17.)

n. For, behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. (Mal. 4:1.) But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap: And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness. (Mal. 3:2, 3.) Let both go together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn. (Mat. 13:30.)

o. And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan. (Mk. 1:9.) Which was the son of Jose, which was the son of Eliezer, which was the son of Jorim, which was the son of Matthat, which was the son of Levi. (Luke 3:29.)

p. The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Be-heavens were opened unto him, and he [12]saw the [q]Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:

17 And lo a voice from heaven, saying, [r]This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Christ fasteth, and is tempted. 11 The angels minister unto him. 18 He calleth Peter, and Andrew, 21 James, and John, 23 and healeth all the diseased.

1 [1]Then was Jē'ṣus led [2]up of [a]the spirit into the wilderness to be [b]tempted of the devil.

2 And when he [c]had [3]fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.

3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered and said, [d]It is written, [e]Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every [4]word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 Then the devil taketh him up [f]into the holy city, and setteth him on a [5]pinnacle of the temple,

6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is [6]written, *[g]*He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jē'ṣus said unto him, It is [7]written again, [h]Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;

9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10 Then saith Jē'ṣus unto him, Get thee [8]hence, Sā'tan: for it is written, [i]Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

11 Then the devil [9]leaveth him, and, behold, [j]angels came and ministered unto him.

12 ¶ [10]Now when Jē'ṣus had heard that [11]Jŏhn was cast into [12]prison, he departed into [13]Găl'ĭ-lee;

13 And leaving [14]Năz'a-rĕth, he came and dwelt in [15]Ca-pĕr'na-ŭm, which is upon the sea [16]coast, in the borders of Zăb'u-lon and Nĕph'tha-lĭm:

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by E-sā'ias the prophet, saying,

15 The land of Zăb'u-lon, and the land of Nĕph'tha-lĭm, by the way of the sea, beyond Jor'dan, Găl'ĭ-lee of the Gĕn'tīleṣ;

16 [k]The [17]people which [18]sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up.

17 ¶ From that [19]time Jē'ṣus began to preach, and to say, [20][l]Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 ¶ [21]And [m]Jē'ṣus, walking by the sea of Găl'ĭ-lee, saw two [22]brethren, Sī'mon [n]called [23]Pē'tēr, and [24]An'drew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and [o]I will make you fishers of men.

20 And [p]they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21 And going on [q]from thence, he saw other two brethren, Jāmeṣ the son of Zĕb'e-dee, and Jŏhn his brother, in a ship with Zĕb'e-dee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 ¶ [25]And Jē'ṣus went about all Găl'ĭ-lee, teaching in their [r]synagogues, and preaching

11. That is, after the temptation.
12. The ministry of Christ has now begun and his first miracle has been performed.
13. The northern part of Palestine.
14. That is, changing his residence from Nazareth to Capernaum.
15. The place which now became the home of the ministry of Jesus
16. Lake Gennesaret.
17. People of Zebulon and Naphtali.
18. That is, content to remain without the light.
19. From the time of John's imprisonment.
20. Thus Christ took up the theme which John the Baptist laid down, viz., repentance.
21. Vs. 18-22, the call of 4 disciples—Peter, Andrew, James and John—preceded by miracles.
22. Two men radically different in natural characteristics—Peter, strong, impetuous and bold; Andrew, quiet, tame and reserved.
23. The oldest, most impetuous, ardent, and bold of the apostles. After his fall and restoration, his very nature seems to have been changed, as a sober, quiet firmness supplanted his former hasty and impetuous zeal.
24. Brother of Peter and his opposite in individual characteristics.
25. In vs. 23-25 is given an account of Christ's ministry through Galilee, which was the first Galilean circuit.

Ch. 4. A. D. 27-31.

1. From Mark 1:12—"And immediately the Spirit driveth him into the wilderness"—we infer that the incidents of ch. 4 began to be put into execution immediately after his baptism.
2. In vs. 1-11 is an account of the temptation of Jesus.
3. Preparatory to his great work, he was to be tempted, i. e., tested by Satan. Satan had been put utterly to rout in the trial of Job—now he was to be as completely overwhelmed by Jesus.
4. Like as bread feeds the body, the word feeds the soul; being the heavenly manna by which God sustains our spiritual nature.
5. Causeth him to assume a commanding position that the strength of the temptation may have all the effect possible.
6. It has ever been the pleasure of wicked men to quote a Scriptural text as a foundation or support to their wicked ways, and such was the effort of Satan when he tempted Jesus. Shakespeare truly says: "The devil can cite scriptures for his purpose."
7. Christ would teach that the texts of the Bible are to limit, modify or explain each other; i. e., they are to be interpreted in the same manner and spirit they were given.
8. Satan has now made his identity known, which was no sooner done than Jesus commanded him to "get hence"—example for all Christians. The 3 temptations through which Satan put Jesus were timely in their appeals to animal appetite, ambition, covetousness.
9. The prelude to that final hour when Jesus will cast Satan into the lake of fire.
10. In vs. 12-17 Jesus goes into Galilee.

hold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me. And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water. And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him. And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost. (Jno. 1:29-33.)

q. Behold my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth; I have put my Spirit upon him; he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles. (Is. 42:1.)

r. I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee. (Ps. 2:7.) And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. (Luke 9:35.)

Chapter 4.

a. It shall come to pass as soon as I am gone from thee, that the Spirit of the Lord shall carry thee whither I know not. (I Ks. 18:12.) So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the Lord was strong upon me. (Ez. 3:14.)

b. For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. (Heb. 4:15.) Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations. (Luke 22:28.) The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished. (II Pet. 2:9.)

c. And he was there with the Lord forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water. And he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten commandments. (Ex. 34:28.)

d. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. (Eph. 6:17.)

e. And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord doth man live. (Dt. 8:3.)

f. Awake! awake! put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean. (Is. 52:1.)

g. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. (Ps. 91:11.)

h. Ye shall not tempt the Lord your God, as ye tempted him in Massah. (Dt. 6:16.)

i. Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God, and serve him, and shalt swear by his name. (Dt. 6:13.)

j. Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation? (Heb. 1:14.)

k. I the Lord have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant to the people, for a light of the Gentiles; To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house. (Is. 42:6, 7.)

l. And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand. (Mat. 10:7.) Therefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually. (Hos. 12:6.) Even from the days of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. (Mal. 3:7.) I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. (Luke 5:32.) And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. (Luke 24:47.) Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord. (Acts 3:19.) Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee. (Acts 8:22.)

m. Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers. (Mk. 1:16.)

n. Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is, by interpretation, A stone. (Jno. 1:42.)

o. And so was also James and John, the son of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men. (Luke 5:10.) Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith the Lord, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks. (Jer. 16:16.) Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind. (Mat. 13:47.)

p. Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee. (Luke 18:28.) Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore? (Mat. 19:27.) Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee. (Mk. 10:28.)

q. And when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets. (Mk. 1:19.)

r. I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye. (Ps. 32:8.) Thus saith the Lord, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the Lord thy God which the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all Sÿr'-ĭ-â: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatics, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him [s]great multitudes of people from Găl'ĭ-lee, and from Decăp'ō-lis, and from Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and from Jū'dæ'a, and from beyond Jor'dan.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Christ beginneth his sermon in the mount: 3 declaring who are blessed: 38 exhorteth to suffer wrong, 44 to love our enemies, 48 to labour after perfectness.

1 And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 [1]Blessed [a]are the poor in [2]spirit: for [b]their's is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed [c]are they [3]that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the [d]meek: for [c]they shall inherit the earth.

Ch. 5. A. D. 31.

1. Vs. 3-16 give the 9 beatitudes and their general bearing upon the world. Thus Christ opens the discourse upon the foundation principles of his kingdom with a blessing.

2. That is, a receptive spirit, a spirit which feels the need or necessity of Christ.

3. That is, religious grief, penitence, a mourning on account of sin.

4. That is, a heart cleansed of an evil conscience and purged of dead works.

5. In this verse a blessing is placed upon endurance of character.

6. In vs. 13-16 are enjoined duties upon the faithful or blessed ones.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: [f]for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: [g]for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed [h]are the [4]pure in heart: for [i]they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the [j]peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blessed [k]are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile [5]you, and [k]persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 ¶ [6]Ye are the [l]salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 [m]Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go. (Is. 48:17.) Good and upright is the Lord: therefore will he teach sinners in the way. (Ps. 25:8.) And they went into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught. And they were astonished at his doctrine; for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes. (Mk. 1:21, 22.) And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands? (Mk. 6:2.)

s. The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be. (Gen. 49:10.) Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people. (Is. 55:4.)

a. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise. (Ps. 51:17.) For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the Lord: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor, and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word. (Is. 66:2.) And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh. Blessed are ye when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake. Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets. (Luke 6:20-23.)

b. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. (Mk. 10:14.) And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God. (Luke 6:20.) And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me. (Luke 22:29.) Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. (Mat. 25:34.)

c. And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation. (II Cor. 1:7.) And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. (Rev. 21:4.) To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn. (Is. 61:2.) Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. (Jno. 16:20.) For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters; and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes. (Rev. 7:17.) If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us. (II Tim. 2:12.) He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the Lord hath spoken it. (Is. 25:8.) And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs, and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away. (Is. 35:10.)

d. But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace. (Ps. 37:11.) But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. (I Pet. 3:4.) The meek will he guide in judgment; and the meek will he teach his way. (Ps. 25:9.) The meek shall eat and be satisfied: they shall praise the Lord that seek him: your heart shall live for ever. (Ps. 22:26.) The Lord lifteth up the meek: he casteth the wicked down to the ground. (Ps. 147:6.) For the Lord taketh pleasure in his people: he will beautify the meek with salvation. (Ps. 149:4.)

e. The promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. (Rom. 4:13.)

f. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed. (Is. 65:13.) Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money, and without price. Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labor for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. (Is. 55:1, 2.) But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life. (Jno. 4:14.) I am that bread of life. (Jno. 6:48.)

g. I said, Lord, be merciful unto me: heal my soul; for I have sinned against thee. (Ps. 41:4.) For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shown no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment. (Js. 2:13.) He that despiseth his neighbor sinneth: but he that hath mercy on the poor, happy is he. (Prov. 14:21.) But to do good and to communicate forget not; for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. (Heb. 13:16.) Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart: So shalt thou find favor and good understanding in the sight of God and man. (Prov. 3:3, 4.)

h. Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord. (Heb. 12:14.) Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation. (Ps. 24:3-5.) Beloved, now are we the sons of God; and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. (I Jno. 3:2.) And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads. (Rev. 22:4.)

i. For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. (I Cor. 13:12.) Beloved, now are we the sons of God; and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure. (I Jno. 3:2, 3.)

j. Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord. (Heb. 12:14.) For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. (Rom. 8:14.) But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil. (Luke 6:35.) Salt is good; but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another. (Mk. 9:50.) Deceit is in the heart of them that imagine evil: but to the counsellors of peace is joy. (Prov. 12:20.) Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God! therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not (1). Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you. (I Jno. 3:1, 13.)

k. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory. (II Cor. 4:17.) If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us. (II Tim. 2:12.) But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled. (I Pet. 3:14.) And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God. (Luke 6:20.)

l. Salt is good; but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another. (Mk. 9:50.) Let your speech be alway with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man. (Col. 4:6.) Salt is good; but if the salt have lost his savor, wherewith shall it be seasoned? (Luke 14:34.)

m. That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world. (Phil. 2:15.) For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light. (Eph. 5:8.) And he said, It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the pre-

7. In vs. 17-20 Jesus declares that his mission is a fulfillment of the inner or true spirit of Judaism—the Mosaic Law and the Prophets.
8. The law, Jehovah's commandments, the prophecies, Jehovah's promises and threatenings.
9. The law or commands of right doing are perpetual and shall remain forever. The prophets have their authority established forever by the fulfillments of their prophecies.
10. Christ further regards the law manifested through whosoever to the least.
11. Not a blood relative, but anyone.
12. That is, rashly, vainly, without justification.
13. A Syriac word, meaning blockhead; here used as a symbol of those who would attempt to destroy one's intellectual reputation.
14. The Scriptural definition for fool is, impious, morally depraved, and therefore intellectually defective; used here as a symbol for those who would destroy one's moral reputation.
15. An Old Testament symbol of drawing nigh to God. Remember, i. e., give a close self-examination.
16. Effort is first necessary upon our part that Jehovah may take up our conditions and remove the taint of evil from which we desire to be freed, such desire evidenced by first becoming reconciled to all between whom and ourselves there may exist a discord.
17. Thy opponent at law—this stands as a symbol for our offended God; quickly for our brief period of life as compared with eternity; the way for the journey of human life; the judge for the Son of Man; prison, for the symbol of hell.
18. That is, a feeling or desire of the heart which lacks only the opportunity for guilt to render it such.
19. Entice, seduce, entrap. The meaning is, thy affections for lust and forbidden things must be sacrificed, no matter at what cost.
20. As all things are the Lord's, it is the same as if the oath were made to him.
21. That is, be moderate and temperate in thy obligations.

served of Israel; I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth. (Is. 49:6.) In him was life; and the life was the light of men. (Jno. 1:4.)

n. Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles; that, whereas they speak against you as evil doers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. (I Pet. 2:12.)

o. Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples. (Jno. 15:8.) Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happen unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the Gospel. (Phil. 1:11, 12.) Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. (I Cor. 10:31.)

p. The Lord is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make it honorable. (Is. 42:21.) For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. (Rom. 10:4.) Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. (Gal. 3:24.)

q. And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the Law to fail. (Luke 16:17.) The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; but the word of our God shall stand for ever. (Is. 40:8.) But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you. (I Pet. 1:25.)

r. For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. (Js. 2:10.) Cursed be he that confirmeth not all the words of this law to do them. And all the people shall say, Amen. (Dt. 27:26.)

s. For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. (Rom. 10:3.)

t. Thou shalt not kill. (Ex. 20:13.)

u. Judges and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy gates, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, throughout thy tribes: and they shall judge the people with just judgment. (Dt. 16:18.) And he set judges in the land, throughout all the fenced cities of Judah, city by city. (II Chr. 19:5.)

v. Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. (I Jno. 3:15.)

w. And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. (Mat. 10:28.) And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire. (Mat. 18:9.) Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves (15). Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell? (Mat. 23:15, 33.) And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched. (Mk. 9:43.) But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him (Luke 12:5.) And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell. (Js. 3:6.)

x. Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honor unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered. (I Pet. 3:7.)

y. Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto thee. (Job 22:21.) When thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison. (Luke 12:58.)

z. For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him. (Ps. 32:6.) Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near. (Is. 55:6.)

aa. Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power. (II Thess. 1:9.)

bb. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. (Mk. 10:9.) Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. (I Cor. 10:8.) Thou shalt not commit adultery. (Ex. 20:14.) Neither shalt thou commit adultery. (Dt. 5:18.) And it was told him by certain, which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee. (Luke 8:20.) For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. (Rom. 13:9.) And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this man or his wife shall surely be put to death. (Gen. 26:11.)

cc. Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her eyelids. (Prov. 6:25.) For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. (I Jno. 2:16, 17.) Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. (Heb. 13:4.)

dd. When a man hath taken a wife, and married her, and it come to pass that she find no favor in his eyes, because he hath found some uncleanness in her, then let him write her a bill of divorcement, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house. (Dt. 24:1.)

ee. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife (7). And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her. (Mk. 10:7, 11.) And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband: But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife. (I Cor. 7:10, 11.) Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery. (Luke 16:18.)

ff. His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written that no man knew but he himself. (Rev. 19:12.)

gg. But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay: lest ye fall into condemnation. (Js. 5:12.)

hh. When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that

38 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, [ii]An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth:
39 But I say unto you, [jj]That ye [22]resist not evil: [kk]but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right [23]cheek, turn to him the other also.
40 And if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloke also.
41 And whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain.
42 Give to him that asketh thee, and [ll]from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.
43 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, [mm]Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy.
44 But I say unto you, [24]Love [nn]your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to [24]them that hate you, and [24]pray [oo]for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;
45 [25]That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.
46 [pp]For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?
47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?
48 [qq]Be ye [26]therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Christ speaking of alms, 5 prayer, 14 forgiving our brethren, 16 fasting, 19 our treasure, 24 of serving God, and mammon: 25 exhorteth not to be careful for worldly things: 33 but to seek God's kingdom.

1 Take [1]heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.
2 Therefore [a]when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.
3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:
4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.
5 ¶ And when thou [2]prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.
6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter [b]into [3]thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father [c]which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.
7 But when ye pray, [d]use not [4]vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.
8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your [e]Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.
9 After this manner therefore pray ye: [5]Our [f]Father [6]which art in heaven, [g]hallowed be thy name.
10 [h]Thy [7]kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, [i]as it is in heaven.
11 Give us [j]this day our daily [8]bread.
12 And forgive us our [9]debts, as we forgive our debtors.
13 [k]And [10]lead us not into temptation, but deliver [l]us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.
14 For [m]if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

22. That is, retaliate. Nowhere does the religion of Christ condemn or prevent a right action or use of any of our primary instincts. The instinct of self-preservation is divine, i. e., is divinely given; therefore no ban is placed upon its rightful use, but retaliation or revenge, in order to inflict pain upon another, is forbidden.
24. In other words, though they are our enemies, there is no reason why we should not desire their happiness, and the best way of showing this desire is to seek a method of removing their evil disposition.
25. That is, God our Father we may and should imitate, but God the Judge we must not. To him and him alone, vengeance belongs, and, when the proper time comes, when the day is ripe, it will be rendered.
26. The Greek verb here rendered "Be ye" really is, "Ye shall be," therefore meaning that if we disregard the low, groveling morality around us, refuse to be influenced by it, but strive to relieve it, obey the law, seek the power of love in our hearts and obey its leadings, we shall be perfect even as our Heavenly Father is perfect.

Ch. 6. A. D. 31.

1. This ch is a continuation of the Sermon on the Mount. In this division of it the Lord shows the difference between doing alms, prayer and fasting openly before men, for human eyes and ears, and in doing it sincerely before Jehovah.
2. Admonitions to sincerity in prayer.
3. A symbol for secrecy; also fig. used for the innermost and secret desire of the heart, which may be the closet of prayer, though one is in the midst of a great crowd.
4. The second caution against the lack of sincerity in prayer.
5. In the prayer here taught us there is not a word used which is not full of meaning intended for a purpose. "Our Father" is a condemnation of Etheoism, which teaches there is no God; of Pantheism, that God is not a person, but rather identical with nature; of Epicureanism, that God cares naught for his creatures; of Polytheism, that there are many gods. Here Christ teaches that there is but one God and he is our Father.
6. That is, infinitely superior to all things else—he is our Father in heaven. "Hallowed be thy name"—that is, thy very name is held sacred and uttered with the profoundest reverence.
7. Have dominion over all hearts and souls. "Come"—by our permission and desire. "Thy will be done"—i. e., thy laws obeyed.
8. Needs of life.
9. That is, because of our offences we owe satisfaction, hence they are debts—debts of repentance and righteousness, which we promise to pay as fully and freely as we ask for the blessing of heaven.
10. That is, do not let us stray or purposely walk into trials which may endanger our souls; "but deliver us from evil"—that is, give us strength to overcome evil.

which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the wayside. (Mat. 13:19.) I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil. (Jno. 17:15.) Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. (Eph. 6:16.)

ii. Breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth: as he hath caused a blemish in a man, so shall it be done to him again. (Lev. 24:20.)

jj. Say not thou, I will recompense evil; but wait on the Lord, and he shall save thee. (Prov. 20:22.) Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men. (Rom. 12:17.) See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men. (I Thess. 5:15.) Not rendering evil for evil or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing. (I Pet. 3:9.)

kk. I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting. (Is. 50:6.)

ll. Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth. (Dt. 15:8.) And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again. (Luke 6:34.)

mm. Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grude against the children of thy people; but thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself: I am the Lord. (Lev. 19:18.)

nn. If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink. (Prov. 25:21.) Bless them which persecute you; bless, and curse not. (Rom. 12:14.) But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you. (Luke 6:27.) And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep. (Acts 7:60.) Honor thy father and thy mother; and, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. (Mat. 19:19.) Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. (I Jno. 4:7.)

oo. Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots. (Luke 23:34.) And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep. (Acts 7:60.)

pp. For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them. (Luke 6:32.)

qq. For I am the Lord your God: ye shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and ye shall be holy; for I am holy: neither shall ye defile yourselves with any manner of creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. (Lev. 11:44.) But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing. (Js. 1:4.) But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation. (I Pet. 1:15.)

Chapter 6.

a. Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that showeth mercy, with cheerfulness. (Rom. 12:8.)

b. He went in therefore, and shut the door upon them twain, and prayed unto the Lord. (II Ks. 4:33.)

c. And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear. (Is. 65:24.) I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. (Jer. 17:10.) And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works. (Rev. 2:23.)

d. Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth; therefore let thy words be few. (Ecc. 5:2.)

e. Thou knowest my down-sitting and mine up-rising, thou understandest my thought afar off. (Ps. 139:2.)

f. And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth. (Luke 11:2.)

g. He sent redemption unto his people: he hath commanded his covenant for ever: holy and reverend is his name. (Ps. 111:9.) And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory. (Is. 6:3.)

h. And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. (Mat. 3:2.)

i. Bless the Lord, ye his angels, that excell in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word. (Ps. 103:20.)

j. Remove far from me vanity and lies; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me. (Prov. 30:8.)

k. Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. (Mat. 26:41.) There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. (I Cor. 10:13.) The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished. (II Pet. 2:9.)

l. I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil. (Jno. 17:15.) But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil. (Mat. 5:37.)

m. Be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one an-

15 But [n]if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 ¶ Moreover [o]when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face;

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

19 ¶ [p]Lay not up for yourselves [11]treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

20 [q]But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where [r]your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 [s]The [12]light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, [t]how great is that darkness!

24 ¶ [13]No [u]man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. [v]Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

25 Therefore I say unto you, [w]Take no thought for your life, [14]what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

11. Not riches simply, but the thing which we hold to be our main or principal good, that upon which is centered our predominant affection, therefore which holds the aim of our life.

12. The lamp, the reflector, the revealer.

13. In vs. 24-34 Christ declares that the world stands not in the attitude of competition with God.

14. That is, full of care about the things we cannot control, but rather do our duty and trust Jehovah. Heaven is pledged to the fulfillment of the trust.

15. Used here as an illustration of those who are industrious, who do their full duty and God takes care of them.

16. That is, we should not be solicitous of, nor fearful of the results which come within the prerogative of God. It is our duty to use the means given us and thus endeavor to provide food and all comforts of life, but trustfully leave the fulfillment to God, who careth for all.

17. That is, God is supreme and things earthly subordinate. Seek first the supreme, and the subordinates will follow.

18. That is, desire the supremacy of God.

19. In other words, do your whole duty today, discharge your obligations as laid upon you by the will of heaven, and the morrow will be a messenger from God, which will bring its blessings to take care of you.

Ch. 7. A. D. 31.

1. In vs. 1-6 we are forbidden to usurp o. to appropriate unto ourselves God's place as judge.

2. That is, God will apply the standard of judgment to us which we apply to others, the lesson so constantly hurled down through the course of the Israelitish way from Sinai to the last of the prophets, viz., thine own works form the standard or measure of thy reward or punishment.

26 Behold [x]the [15]fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you by [y]taking thought can add [16]one cubit unto his stature?

28 And why take ye [y]thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, That even [z]Sŏl'omon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, [aa]O ye of little faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these things do the Gĕn'tīleş seek:) for [bb]your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 [cc]But [17]seek ye first the kingdom [18]of God, and his righteousness; and [dd]all these things shall be added unto you.

34 Take therefore [19]no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Christ ending his sermon in the mount, reproveth rash judgment, 7 exhorteth to prayer, 13 to enter in at the strait gate, 15 and to beware of false prophets.

1 [1]Judge [a]not, that ye be not judged.

2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall [2]be judged: [b]and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

other, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. (Eph. 4:32.) And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any; that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. (Mk. 11:25.) So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses. (Mat. 18:35.)

n. So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your heart forgive not every one his brother their trespasses. (Mat. 18:35.) He shall have judgment without mercy that hath shown no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment. (Js. 2:13.)

o. Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the Lord? (Is. 58:5.)

p. Labor not to be rich; cease from thine own wisdom. (Prov. 23:4.) Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy. (I Tim. 6:17.) Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. (Heb. 13:5.)

q. Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life. (I Tim. 6:19.) To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. (I Pet. 1:4.)

r. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. (Luke 12:34.)

s. The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness. (Luke 11:34.)

t. Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. (Rom. 1:21.) In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. (II Cor. 4:4.)

u. No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. (Luke 16:13.)

v. For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ. (Gal. 1:10.) Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God. (Js. 4:4.) Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. (I Jno. 2:15.)

w. Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be known unto God. (Phil. 4:6.)

x. Who provideth for the raven his food? when his young ones cry unto God, they wander for lack of meat. (Job 38:41.) He giveth to the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry. (Ps. 147:9.)

y. And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things. (Luke 10:41.) And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say (11). And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on. (Luke 12:11, 22.) Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. (Phil. 4:6.) Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you. (I Pet. 5:7.)

z. And when the queen of Sheba had seen all Solomon's wisdom, and the house that he had built, And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendants of his ministers, and their apparel, and his cup-bearers, and his ascent by which he went up unto the house of the Lord; there was no more spirit in her. And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thy acts, and of thy wisdom. Howbeit I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it; and, behold, the half was not told me: thy wisdom and prosperity exceedeth the fame which I heard. (I Ks. 10:4-7.) aa. And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm. (Mat. 8:26.) And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? (Mat. 14:31.) Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread? (Mat. 16:8.)

bb. But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus. (Phil. 4:19.)

cc. And I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches and honor: so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days. (I Ks. 3:13.) The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing. (Ps. 34:10.) But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you. (Luke 12:31.) For bodily exercise profiteth little; but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. (I Tim. 4:8.) Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. (Mat. 7:7.) And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, hast not forsaken them that seek thee. (Ps. 9:10.)

dd. And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration, when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. (Mat. 19:28.) And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the Gospel's. (Mk. 10:29.) And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake. (Luke 18:29.) For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. (I Tim. 4:8.)

Chapter 7.

a. Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things. (Rom. 2:1.) Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. (Rom. 14:4.) Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge. (Js. 4:11.)

b. And Adonibezek said, Threescore and ten kings, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, gathered their meat under my table: as I have done, so God hath requited me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died. (Jud. 1:7.) And he saith unto them, Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you; and unto you that hear shall more be given. (Mk. 4:24.) Give,

3 And [c]why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

6 ¶ [d]Give not that which is holy unto the [3]dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before [3]swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

7 ¶ Ask, [e]and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

8 For [f]every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much [g]more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

12 Therefore all things [h]whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for [i]this is the law and the prophets.

13 ¶ Enter [j]ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

15 ¶ Beware of [k]false prophets, [l]which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly [m]they are [l]ravening wolves.

16 Ye shall know [n]them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

17 Even so [o]every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 [p]Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 ¶ Not every one that saith unto me, [q]Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

22 Many will say to me in that [5]day, Lord, Lord, have we [r]not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

23 And then will I profess unto them, [6]I never knew you: [s]depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

24 ¶ Therefore [t]whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:

25 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:

27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: [u]and great was the fall of it.

28 And it came to pass, when Je'sus had

3. Here used as symbols of depraved men—we are now taught by the Lord how to treat them.

4. A symbol of the extreme doctrinaires who, through their error and vice, destroy the soul.

5. The day of final judgment.

6. That is, the intimacy which they claim with Christ he never knew.

and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again. (Luke 6:38.)

c. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye? (Luke 6:41.)

d. Speak not in the ears of a fool; for he will despise the wisdom of thy words. (Prov. 23:9.)

e. The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry. (Ps. 34:15.) If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. (Jno. 15:7.) If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. (Js. 1:5.)

f. I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me. (Prov. 8:17.) And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart. (Jer. 29:13.)

g. Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee. (Is. 49:15.)

h. As ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise. (Luke 6:31.)

i. Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people; but thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. (Lev. 19:18.) Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. (Rom. 13:8.) For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. (Gal. 5:14.) Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned. (I Tim. 1:5.)

j. Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able. (Luke 13:24.) And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness. (I Jno. 5:19.)

k. Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the Lord. (Jer. 23:16.) Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. (Eph. 5:6.) Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. (Col. 2:8.) But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. (II Pet. 2:1.)

l. Thus saith the Lord concerning the prophets that make my people err, that bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him. (Mic. 3:5.) Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away. (II Tim. 3:5.)

m. For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. (Acts 20:29.) Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain. (Ez. 22:27.) But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. (Jno. 10:12.)

n. For every tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes. (Luke 6:44.) Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit. (Mat. 12:33.) Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh. (Js. 3:12.)

o. But I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered. (Jer. 11:19.)

p. And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. (Mat. 3:10.) Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, These three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground? (Luke 13:7.)

q. Israel shall cry unto me, My God, we know thee. (Hos. 8:2.) (For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.) (Rom. 2:13.) But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. (Js. 1:22.) And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? (Luke 6:46.)

r. And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation. (Jno. 11:51.) And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. (I Cor. 13:2.) When once the Master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are. (Luke 13:25.)

s. Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity: for the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping. (Ps. 6:8.) Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels. (Mat. 25:41.) But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are: depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity. (Luke 13:27.)

t. Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will show you to whom he is like: he is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock; and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it; for it was founded upon a rock. But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great. (Luke 6:47-49.) But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed. (Js. 1:22-25.)

u. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. (Heb. 10:31.)

ended these sayings, the [v]people were astonished at his doctrine:

29 [w]For he [7]taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

CHAPTER 8.

2 Christ cleanseth the leper, 5 healeth the centurion's servant, 14 Peter's mother in law, 16 and many diseased: 18 sheweth how he is to be followed: 23 stilleth the tempest, 28 driveth the devils out of two men possessed, 31 and suffereth them to go into the swine.

1 [1]When he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

2 [2]And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jē'şus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jē'şus saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that [a]Mō'şeş commanded, for a testimony unto them.

5 ¶ [3]And when Jē'şus was entered into [4]Capēr'na-ŭm, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jē'şus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, [b]I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but [c]speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me; and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jē'şus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Ĭs'ra-el.

11 And I say unto you, [d]That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Ā'brā-hăm, and Ī'şaac, and Jā'cob, in the kingdom of heaven.

12 But [e]the children of the kingdom [f]shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

7. In an authoritative manner, with whom there was no variableness. In this sermon are embraced all the principles of the kingdom of Christ, save the Atonement, which cannot be presented until completed in his death and resurrection.

Ch. 8. A. D. 31.

1. In chs. 8, 9 are recorded the 10 miracles which Matthew seems to have selected as specimens or examples of Christ's works. In the Sermon on the Mount, Christ was presented as the great teacher; in chs. 8 and 9, he is presented as a reformer, through and by which the divinity of his teachings are demonstrated.

2. In vs. 2-4 is an account of the first miracle of the ch.—the cleansing of the leper.

3. In vs. 5-13 is an account of the second miracle of the ch.—the healing of the centurion's servant.

4. After the Sermon on the Mount, he entered into Capernaum.

5. In vs. 14, 15 is an account of the third miracle of the ch.—the healing of Peter's mother-in-law.

6. Mark says that Christ grasped her hand and raised her up. Luke says that he rebuked the disease. Thus, while each presents a different view, neither contradicts the other.

7. In vs. 18-27 is an account of the fourth miracle of the ch.—the stilling of the tempest on Lake Gennesaret.

8. In vs. 19-22 it should be observed that Mat. represents our Lord in the selection of his disciples as drawing a contrast between two men—the one, a scribe of much ability, offers himself but is not accepted; while the other, who was chosen, tries to enter an excuse, but is retained. Luke gives another instance where a man allows a small cause to interpose as a postponement and the Lord rejects him.

9. The title to designate the humanity of Christ. This title is mentioned 71 times in the New Testament and in every instance, save one, by Christ himself. The exception was by Stephen the Martyr. (Acts 7:56)—"And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God."

10. The disciples.

11. In vs. 28-34 is an account of the fifth miracle, the healing of the two demoniacs.

13 And Jē'şus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

14 ¶ [5]And [g]when Jē'şus was come into Pē'tēr's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever.

15 And he [6]touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.

16 ¶ When [h]the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by E-şā'ias the prophet, saying, Himself [i]took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 ¶ [7]Now when Jē'şus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

19 [8]And [j]a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jē'şus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but [k]the [9]Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

21 And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

22 But Jē'şus said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.

23 ¶ And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

24 And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, [l]Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then [m]he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

27 But the [10]men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

[11]28 ¶ And [n]when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gĕr'gĕ-sēneş, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

29 And, behold, they cried out, saying, What

v. And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands? (Mk. 6:2.) And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power. (Luke 4:32.) The officers answered, Never man spake like this man. (Jno. 7:46.)

w. The officers answered, Never man spake like this man. (Jno. 7:46.)

Chapter 8.

a. And the priest shall go forth out of the camp; and the priest shall look, and, behold, if the plague of leprosy be healed in the leper; Then shall the priest command to take for him that is to be cleansed two birds alive and clean, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop. (Lev. 14:3, 4.)

b. And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. (Luke 15:19.)

c. He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions. (Ps. 107:20.)

d. And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed. (Gen. 12:3.) For from the rising of the sun, even unto the going down of the same, my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the Lord of hosts. (Mal. 1:11.) And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God. (Luke 13:29.)

e. Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. (Mat. 21:43.)

f. And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. (Mat. 13:42.) And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. (Mat. 25:30.) Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever. (Jude 13.)

g. And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever: and they besought him for her. And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her. And immediately she arose and ministered unto them. Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ, the Son of God. And he, rebuking them, suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ. (Luke 4:38-41.) And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her. And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them. And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils. And all the city was gathered together at the door. And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him. (Mk. 1:29-34.)

h. And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils. (Mk. 1:32.)

i. Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. (Is. 53:4.) Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. (I Pet. 2:24.)

j. And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. (Luke 9:57.)

k. But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people. (Ps. 22:6.) He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not. (Is. 53:3.) He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. He came unto his own, and his own received him not. (Jno. 1:10, 11.)

l. Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. (Phil. 4:6.)

m. He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still. (Ps. 107:29.) He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry. (Nah. 1:4.)

n. And they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes. (Mk. 5:1.)

[o]have we to do with thee, Jē'ṣus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?

30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many [p]swine feeding.

31 So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.

33 And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils.

34 And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jē'ṣus: and when they saw him, [q]they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

CHAPTER 9.

2 Christ curing one sick of the palsy, 9 calleth Matthew from the receipt of custom, 10 eateth with publicans and sinners, 14 defendeth his disciples for not fasting, 20 cureth the bloody issue, 23 raiseth from death Jairus' daughter, 27 giveth sight to two blind men, 32 healeth a dumb man possessed of a devil.

1 [1]And he entered into a ship, and passed over, [a]and came into his [2]own city.

2 [3]And, [b]behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jē'ṣus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; [c]thy sins be forgiven thee.

3 And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 And Jē'ṣus [d]knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins [c]be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?

Ch. 9. A. D. 31.

1. In ch. 9 Mat. gives an account of the remaining five of the group of ten specimen miracles. They were selected as representing different periods of our Lord's ministry and not in order of time.

2. That is, by residence, Capernaum.

3. In vs. 2-8 is given an account of the sixth miracle; the healing of the man with palsy.

4. In v. 9 is the call of Matthew.

5. In vs. 10-17 is an account of the feast at Matthew's house, which was given in honor of Christ.

6. In vs. 14-17 is given a discourse on fasting; also given by Luke 5: 33-39.

6 But that ye may know that the [e]Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, [f]and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

9 ¶ [4]And [g]as Jē'ṣus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Măt'thew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 ¶ [5]And [h]it came to pass, as Jē'ṣus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

11 And when the Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and [i]sinners?

12 But when Jē'ṣus heard that, he said unto them, They [j]that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I [k]will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, [l]but sinners to repentance.

14 ¶ [6]Then came to him the disciples of Jŏhn, saying, [m]Why do we and the Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jē'ṣus said unto them, Can [n]the children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

---

o. Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? (II Cor. 6:14.)

p. And the swine, because it divideth the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carcase. (Dt. 14:8.)

q. They say unto God, Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways. (Job 21:14.)

Chapter 9.

a. And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim. (Mat. 4:13.)

b. And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four. (Mk. 2:3.) When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. (Mat. 8:10.)

c. In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace. (Eph. 1:7.) When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee (5). Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk? (Mk. 2:5, 9.) And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee (20). Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk? (Luke 5:20, 23.) And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven. (Luke 7:48.)

d. Thou knowest my down-sitting and mine up-rising, thou understandest my thought afar off. (Ps. 139:2.) And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand. (Mat. 12:25.) And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him. (Luke 9:47.) But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men. (Jno. 2:24.) And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works. (Rev. 2:23.)

e. Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. (Acts 5:31.) And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. (Mat. 8:20.)

f. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them. (Luke 2:20.) And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God. And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things today. (Luke 5:25, 26.) And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God. (Luke 17:15.) Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples. (Jno. 15:8.) So, when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done. (Acts 4:21.) Whiles by the experiment of this administration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men. (II Cor. 9:13.) And they glorified God in me. (Gal. 1:24.)

g. And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alpheus sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him. And it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him. And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners? When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not? And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bride-chamber fast while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast on those days. No man also soweth a piece of new cloth on an old garment; else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse. And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles. (Mk. 2:14-22.) See Luke 5:27-38.

h. And it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him. (Mk. 2:15.)

i. We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles. (Gal. 2:15.)

j. When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. (Mk. 2:17.) And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick. (Luke 5:31.)

k. To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the Lord than sacrifice. (Prov. 21:3.) For I desired mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings. (Hos. 6:6.) But if ye had known what this meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless. (Mat. 12:7.)

l. This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners: of whom I am chief. (I Tim. 1:15.) I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. (Luke 5:32.) When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. (Mk. 2:17.)

m. And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not? (Mk. 2:18.)

n. He that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the 18 ¶ [7]While [o]he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jē'ṣus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 ¶ [8]And, [p]behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment:

21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jē'ṣus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; [q]thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

23 And [r]when Jē'ṣus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise, 24 He said unto them, Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

26 And [t]the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

27 ¶ [9]And when Jē'ṣus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, [u]Thou son of Dā'vid, have mercy on us.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jē'ṣus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you.

30 And their eyes were opened; and Jē'ṣus straitly charged them, saying, [v]See that [10]no man know it.

31 But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 ¶ [11]As they [w]went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil.

33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Is'ra-el.

34 But the Phăr'ī-sees said, He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils.

35 [12]And Jē'ṣus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

36 ¶ But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.

37 Then saith he unto his disciples, [x]The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few;

38 Pray [y]ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Christ sendeth out his twelve apostles, enabling them with power to do miracles, 5 giveth them their charge, teacheth them, 16 comforteth them against persecutions: 40 and promiseth a blessing to those that receive them.

1 [1]And when he had called unto him his [2]twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.

2 [3]Now the names of the twelve [4]apostles are these; The first, Sī'mon, [a]who is called [5]Pē'tēr, and [6]Ān'drew his brother; [7]Jāmeṣ the son of Zēb'e-dee, and Jŏhn [8]his brother;

3 [9]Phĭl'ĭp, and [10]Bär-thol'ŏ-mew; [11]Thŏm'as, and [12]Măt'thew the publican; [13]Jāmeṣ the son of Ăl-phæ'us, and Lēb-bæ'us, whose surname was [14]Thăd-dæ'us;

7. In vs. 18-26 is given an account of the seventh miracle, the raising of the daughter of the ruler Jairus. A much fuller account is given of this miracle in Mark 5: 22-43.

8. In vs. 20-22 is an account of the eighth miracle; the healing of the issue of blood. This miracle was performed while Jesus was on his way to the ruler's house to heal the daughter.

9. In vs. 27-31 is an account of the 9th miracle; the curing of two blind men.

10. From this it seems that every time is not always a proper or opportune time to proclaim the truth of the gospel. Christ would here teach his followers discretion and the right use of judgment.

11. In vs. 32-34 is given an account of the tenth miracle; the curing of the dumb demoniac.

12. In vs. 35-38 is given an account of sending forth the 12 apostles on their missions.

Ch. 10. A. D. 31.

1. In chs. 5, 6 and 7 are given the principles of Christ's kingdom; in chs. 8 and 9, specimen miracles to prove the divinity of those principles; in ch. 10, the 12 are instructed and sent forth upon their mission.

2. Twelve disciples were chosen, referring to the 12 tribes. In Mat 19:28, Jesus says, "Ye shall sit on 12 thrones, judging the 12 tribes of Israel."

3. In vs. 1-42 the 12 receive their instructions and are sent forth on their trial mission. In vs. 2-4 is given the register of the 12.

4. From the Greek word Apostallo, meaning one sent.

5. A Galilean, son of Jona. On one occasion (Mat. 16:17) he is called "Barjona"—"Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona"—Bar, meaning son of. According to the first ch. of John, Peter was a disciple of John the Baptist (vs. 35-40). "Again the next day after, John stood and two of his disciples—one of the two which heard John speak and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother." It might be here stated that the Roman Catholic Church claims that Peter was subsequently made Bishop of Rome, upon which the Popery assert their claim to supremacy.

6. Brother to Peter, also a disciple of John the Baptist. See note 5. He was the opposite of Peter in character.

7. Of Bethsaida in Galilee. Brother of John the beloved disciple.

8. With the possible exception of Peter, the most conspicuous and interesting character of the apostles. He wrote one Gospel, three Epistles (viz., First, Second and Third John) and the Apocalypse (Book of Revelation). He was the last surviving member of the apostles, and lived till nearly the close of the first century. He was gentle, affectionate and almost feminine in character.

9. Philip, the fifth apostle, selected from Bethsaida; one of the less conspicuous of the apostles. It was to Philip that Christ put the question previous to the miracle of feeding the 5,000. His answer proved him to be much less spiritual than some of the others.

10. Supposed to be the same as Nathaniel. If true, he was the "Israelite in whom there was no guile." He is supposed to have preached in India. The time and place of his death are unknown.

11. Thomas and Didymus, two names for the same apostle. There is no authentic record of his family relations. He is especially noted as "the doubting Thomas," the one who demanded a visible evidence of the Lord's resurrection.

12. A publican and tax gatherer; a native of Galilee and cousin of Jesus.

13. Called James the Less, son of Alphaeus, called Cleopas. His mother's name was Mary, sister of Mary, the mother of Christ. He was therefore a cousin of our Lord's and supposed to be a brother of Matthew.

14. He is the "Judas, not Iscariot" (John 14:22). He was also supposed to be a brother of James the Less and therefore a cousin to Jesus. He was the Jude who wrote the epistle bearing that name.

bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. This my joy therefore is fulfilled. (Jno. 3:29.)

o. And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet. (Mk. 5:22.)

p. And a certain woman, which had an issue of blood twelve years. (Mk. 5:25.) And a woman, having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any. (Luke 8:43.)

q. And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace. (Luke 8:48.) And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague. (Mk. 5:34.) And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace. (Luke 7:50.) And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole. (Luke 17:19.) And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: thy faith hath saved thee. (Luke 18:42.)

r. And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly. (Mk. 5:38.) And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter and James and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden. (Luke 8:51.)

s. And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him. (Acts 20:10.) Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep. (Jno. 11:13.)

t. And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatic, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them. (Mat. 4:24.) And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee (28). But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter. (Mk. 1:28, 45.) And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about (41). And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about. (Luke 4:14, 37.)

u. And, behold, two blind men sitting by the way-side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou son of David! And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou son of David! (Mat. 20:30, 31.) And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me! (Luke 18:38.) And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the son of David! Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest! (9). And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying Hosanna to the son of David; they were sore displeased. (Mat. 21:9, 15.) And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me. And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me. (Mk. 10:47, 48.) And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the son of David? (Mk. 12:35.)

v. And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. (Luke 5:14.)

w. And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered. (Luke 11:14.)

x. Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth laborers into his harvest. (Luke 10:2.) Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest, Behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest. (Jno 4:35.)

y. And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers. (Eph. 4:11.) Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you. (II Thess. 3:1.)

Chapter 10.

a. And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is, by interpretation, A stone. (Jno. 1:42.)

b. Jesus answered, He it is to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. (Jno. 13:26.)

4 Sī'mon [15]the Cā'năan-īte, and [16]Jū'das Īs-căr'ī-ot, who also betrayed him.

5 [17]These twelve Jē'şus sent forth, and commanded [18]them, saying, Go not into the way [19]of the Gĕn'tīles, and into any city of [c]the Sa-mar'ī-tans enter ye not:

6 [d]But go rather to the [c]lost sheep of the house of Īs'ra-el.

7 And [f]as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand.

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give.

9 Provide [g]neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses,

10 Nor [20]scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves: for the [h]workman is worthy of his meat.

11 And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence.

12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.

13 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, [i]shake off the dust of your feet.

15 Verily I say unto you, It shall be more [21]tolerable for the land of Sŏd'om and Go-mŏr'-rhā in the day of [22]judgment, than for that city.

16 ¶ [23]Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: [j]be ye therefore wise as serpents, and [k]harmless as doves.

17 But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and [l]they will scourge you in their synagogues;

18 And [m]ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gĕn'tīles.

19 But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for [n]it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

20 For [o]it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

21 And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

22 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: [p]but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.

15. The least known of any of the apostles.

16. Throughout the New Testament this name is mentioned last as the one least respected—his only claim to notice being that he was the betrayer of Christ.

17. In vs. 5-15 are given the directions for their present journey.

18. Gave them instructions.

19. That is, they were not to go through the nations and tribes lying out of Palestine, as had been done throughout the Old Testament dispensation. Christ centers the preaching of his disciples largely upon the house of Israel, as they were to be the keepers of the light of future generations.

20. A wallet or bag.

21. It shall be, i. e., the day of judgment, because their punishment shall be according to the privileges extended them.

22. The day of final reckoning.

23. In vs. 16-23 is the prediction of the persecution of the apostles.

24. In vs. 24-42 is given an account of the duty, the struggle and the issue before the apostles.

26. Just as the right, the pure and the good are constantly at variance with the wrong and defiled, so shall the righteous members of a family be at variance with the unrighteous. The sober son loves his drunken father, but he is at variance with him. In like manner the love of Christ will set members of a family at variance with each other.

27. That is, if the wooings of affection would draw us into sin, then their strength and power must be rejected.

28. That is, saveth, in contrast with loseth; meaning he that saves his life from the duties and obligations of Christ shall lose it.

29. Receiveth as a Saviour.

23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Īs'ra-el, till the [q]Son of man be come.

24 [24]The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.

25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Be-ĕl'-ze-bŭb, how much more shall they call them of his household?

26 Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.

27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the house tops.

28 And [r]fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.

30 But [s]the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

31 Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.

32 Whosoever [t]therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.

33 But [u]whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

34 Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send [25]peace, but a sword.

35 For I am come to set a man at variance [26]against [v]his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

36 And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.

37 He that loveth [27]father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

38 And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.

39 He [w]that [28]findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it.

40 ¶ [29]He that receiveth you receiveth me,

c. And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof. (II Ks. 17:24.) Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans. (Jno. 4:9.)

d. Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. (Acts 13:46.)

e. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. (Is. 53:6.) For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls. (I Pet. 2:25.)

f. And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick. (Luke 9:2.)

g. For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end. (Luke 22:37.)

h. And in the same house remained, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the laborer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house. (Luke 10:7.) Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock? (I Cor. 9:7.) For the Scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn: and, The laborer is worthy of his reward. (I Tim. 5:18.)

i. But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium. (Acts 13:51.) And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles. (Acts 18:6.)

j. For your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil. (Rom. 16:19.) See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise. (Eph. 5:15.)

k. Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men. (I Cor. 14:20.)

l. And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. (Acts 5:40.)

m. Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church. (Acts 12:1.) Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself. (Acts 24:10.)

n. Now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say. (Ex. 4:12.) But the Lord said unto me, Say not, I am a child; for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak. (Jer. 1:7.)

o. The Spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his word was in my tongue. (II Sam. 23:2.) And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake. (Acts 6:10.)

p. Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days. (Dan. 12:12.) And let us not be weary in well-doing; for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. (Gal. 6:9.)

q. And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. (Acts 2:1.)

r. The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe. (Prov. 29:25.) But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled. (I Pet. 3:14.)

s. Wherefore I pray you to take some meat; for this is for your health: for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you. (Acts 27:34.)

t. That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. (Rom. 10:9.) He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels. (Rev. 3:5.)

u. If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us. (II Tim. 2:12.)

v. The son dishonoreth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house. (Mic. 7:6.)

w. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it. (Mat. 16:25.)

and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

41 He [x]that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward.

42 And [y]whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

CHAPTER 11.

2 John sendeth his disciples to Christ. 7 Christ's testimony concerning John. 18 The opinion of the people concerning John and Christ. 20 Christ upbraideth the unthankfulness and unrepentance of Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum: 28 and calleth to him all such as feel the burden of their sins.

Ch. 11. A. D. 31.

1. In vs. 2-6 is John's message to Jesus and the Savior's answer.

2. John the Baptist.

3. In vs. 7-15 are given the character and position of John.

4. In vs. 16-19 is an account of the general treatment of John and Jesus.

5. In vs. 20-24 is the upbraiding of the impenitent cities.

6. Less severe because of less opportunities for knowing the truth.

7. In vs. 27-30 Jesus extends the general invitation to all.

8. The whole plan of salvation.

1 And it came to pass, when Jē'şus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 [1]Now [a]when [2]Jŏhn had heard in the prison the works of Chrīst, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, Art thou he that [b]should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jē'şus answered and said unto them, Go and shew Jŏhn again those things which ye do hear and see:

5 The [c]blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and [d]the poor have the gospel preached to them.

6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be [e]offended in me.

7 ¶ [3]And as [f]they departed, Jē'şus began to say unto the multitudes concerning Jŏhn, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet.

10 For this is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 And [g]from the days of Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 For [h]all the prophets and the law prophesied until Jŏhn.

14 And if ye will receive it, this is [i]E-lī'ăs, which was for to come.

15 He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

16 ¶ [4]But [j]whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows,

17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For Jŏhn came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.

19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, [k]a friend of publicans and sinners. [l]But wisdom is justified of her children.

20 ¶ [5]Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

21 Woe unto thee, Cho-rā'zin! woe unto thee, Bĕth-sā'ī-dà! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tȳre and Sī'dŏn, they would have repented long ago [m]in sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I say unto you, It shall be more [6]tolerable for Tȳre and Sī'dŏn at the day of judgment, than for you.

23 And thou, Ca-pēr'na-ŭm, [n]which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sŏd'om, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sŏd'om in the day of judgment, than for thee.

25 ¶ At that time Jē'şus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou [o]hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.

27 [7]All [8]things [p]are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the

x. So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow woman was there gathering of sticks: and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink. (I Ks. 17:10.)

y. And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. (Mat. 25:40.) God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of love, which ye have shown toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister. (Heb. 6:10.)

a. And the disciples of John showed him of all these things. And John calling unto him two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another? (Luke 7:18, 19.) For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife. (Mat. 14:3.)

b. The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be. (Gen. 49:10.) I shall see him, but not now; I shall behold him, but not nigh: there shall come a Star out of Jacob, and a Sceptre shall rise out of Israel, and shall smite the corners of Moab, and destroy all the children of Sheth. (Num. 24:17.) Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world. (Jno. 6:14.)

c. And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness. (Is. 29:18.) To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house. (Is. 42:7.) But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me. (Jno. 5:36.)

d. The meek shall eat and be satisfied: they shall praise the Lord that seek him: your heart shall live for ever. (Ps. 22:26.) The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound. (Is. 61:1.)

e. And he shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. (Is. 8:14.) And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honor, save in his own country, and in his own house. (Mat. 13:57.) Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner, And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient; whereunto also they were appointed. (I Pet. 2:7, 8.)

f. And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind? (Luke 7:24.)

g. The Law and the Prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it. (Luke 16:16.)

h. Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord: And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse. (Mal. 4:5, 6.)

i. Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist. (Mat. 17:13.) And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord. (Luke 1:17.) He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias. (Jno. 1:23.)

j. And the Lord said, Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like? (Luke 7:31.)

k. And it came to pass as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples. (Mat. 9:10.)

l. That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world. (Phil. 2:15.)

m. But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God; yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands. (Jon. 3:8.)

n. For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north. (Is. 14:13.)

o. Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger. (Ps. 8:2.) But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty. (I Cor. 1:27.)

30 For [u]my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Christ reproveth the blindness of the Pharisees concerning the breach of the sabbath. 22 He healeth the man that was blind and dumb. 31 Blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall never be forgiven. 38 He rebuketh the unfaithful, who seek after a sign: 49 and sheweth who is his brother, sister, and mother.

1 [1]At that [2]time [a]Jē'şus went on the sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

2 But when the Phăr'ĭ-sees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not [3]read [b]what Dā'vid did, when he was an hungred, and they that were with him;

4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat [c]the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, [d]but only for the priests?

5 Or have ye not read in the [c]law, how that on the sabbath days the [4]priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

6 But I say unto you, That in this place is [f]one greater than the temple.

7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, [g]I will have [5]mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the [h]Son of man is Lord even of the [6]sabbath day.

Ch. 12. A. D. 31.

1. In vs. 1-8 is an account of Jesus' plucking corn upon the Sabbath. In this ch. are grouped together the two miracles performed by Jesus concerning the Sabbath.

2. The second passover of the ministry of Jesus.

3. Christ is not arguing for a loose regard for the Sabbath, but seeking to develop the fact that mere adhering to the form of the law without the spirit is not keeping of the law.

4. That is, they kill, flay and dress the animals to be sacrificed and bake the show bread; so, according to their construction, the law made provisions for its own profanation.

5. That is, the Lord requires a performance of mercy and not ceremonial ritualism.

6. Christ here asserts himself to be greater than the Sabbath law, established by God at the creation. This he did for the purpose of silencing the murmurings of the people concerning his interpretation of the law.

7. In vs. 9-21 Christ restores the withered hand.

8. In vs. 22-31 Christ heals a blind and dumb demoniac and replies to the malignant interpretation put upon it.

9 [7]And [i]when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue:

10 ¶ And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, [j]Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and [k]if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

14 ¶ Then [l]the Phăr'ĭ-sees went out, and held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But when Jē'şus [m]knew it, he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all;

16 And charged them that they should not make him known:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by E-şā'ĭas the prophet, saying,

18 Behold [n]my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my [o]spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gĕn'tīles.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

21 And in his name shall the Gĕn'tīles trust.

22 ¶ [8]Then [p]was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the [q]son of Dā'vid?

24 But [r]when the Phăr'ĭ-sees heard it, they hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God. (Jno. 13:3.) And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church. (Eph. 1:22.)

q. No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him. (Jno. 1:18.) Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father. (Jno. 6:46.)

r. He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked. (I Jno. 2:6.)

s. But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. (Phil. 2:7, 8.)

t. Thus saith the Lord, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, we will not walk therein. (Jer. 6:16.)

u. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous. (I Jno. 5:3.)

Chapter 12.

a. When thou comest into the standing corn of thy neighbor, then thou mayest pluck the ears with thine hand; but thou shalt not move a sickle unto thy neighbor's standing corn. (Dt. 23:25.)

b. So the priest gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but the showbread, that was taken from before the Lord, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away. (I Sam. 21:6.)

c. And thou shalt set upon the table showbread before me alway. (Ex. 25:30.)

d. And it shall be Aaron's and his sons'; and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy unto him of the offerings of the Lord made by fire by a perpetual statute. (Lev. 24:9.)

e. And on the sabbath day two lambs of the first year without spot, and two tenth deals of flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, and the drink offering thereof. (Num. 28:9.)

f. But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built! (II Chr. 6:18.)

g. For I desired mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings. (Hos. 6:6.)

h. I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet. (Rev. 1:10.) And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. (Mat. 8:20.)

i. And he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had a withered hand. And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him. And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth. And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace. And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other. And the Pharisees went forth, and straightway took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him. (Mk. 3:1-6.) And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered. And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him. But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth. Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing: Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it? And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other. And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus. (Luke 6:6-11.)

j. And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? (Luke 14:3.) Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them. (Jno. 9:16.)

k. Thou shalt not see thy brother's ass or his ox fall down by the way, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt surely help him to lift them up again. (Dt. 22:4.)

l. The Pharisees went forth, and straightway took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him. (Mk. 3:6.) Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand. (Jno. 10:39.)

m. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do. (Heb. 4:13.)

n. Behold my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth; I have put my Spirit upon him; he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles. (Is. 42:1.)

o. The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound. (Is. 61:1.) The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised. (Luke 4:18.) For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him. (Jno. 3:34.)

p. And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered. (Luke 11:14.) As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil (32). But the Pharisees said, He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils. (Mat. 9:32, 34.)

q. Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen. (Rom. 9:5.) And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, Thou son of David, have mercy on us. (Mat. 9:27.)

r. And the scribes which came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils. (Mk. 3:22.)

said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Be-ĕl'ze-bŭb the prince of the devils.

25 And Jē'sus [s]knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every [t]kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

26 And if Sā'tan cast out Sā'tan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if I by Be-ĕl'ze-bŭb cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then [u]the kingdom of God is come unto you.

29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

30 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

31 ¶ [s]Wherefore I say unto you, [v]All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: [w]but the blasphemy against the Hō'lў Ghōst shall not be forgiven unto men.

32 And whosoever [x]speaketh a word against the Son of man, [y]it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Hō'lў Ghōst, it shall not be forgiven him, neither [z]in this world, neither in the world to come.

33 Either make the tree good, and [aa]his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.

34 O [bb]generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? [cc]for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things.

36 But I say unto you, That every [dd]idle [10]word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the [ee]day of judgment.

37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 ¶ Then certain of the scribes and of the Phăr'ĭ-sees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee.

39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jō'nas:

40 For as Jō'nas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

41 The men of Nĭn'e-veh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: [ff]because they repented at the preaching of Jō'nas; and, behold, [gg]a greater than Jō'nas is here.

42 [hh]The queen of [11]the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Sŏl'o-mon; and, behold, a greater than Sŏl'o-mon is here.

43 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, [ii]he walketh [12]through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth [13]none.

44 Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept and garnished.

45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: [jj]and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

9. In consequence of what has been said.

10. The original of "idle" implied a degree of evil intent.

11. Sheba.

12. Christ here pictures Satan, not as going directly to hell, not as lingering in the unpeopled places.

13. Because he seeketh lodgment in a human heart and findeth none.

s. And needed not that any should testify of man; for he knew what was in man. (Jno. 2:25.) But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth. If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub. And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you. When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace: But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armor wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils. (Luke 11:17-22.)

t. But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another. (Gal. 5:15.)

u. And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. (Dan. 2:44.) And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. (Luke 1:33.) But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you. (Luke 11:20.)

v. Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme; But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation. (Mk. 3:28, 29.) If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it. (I Jno. 5:16.)

w. Ye stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye. (Acts 7:51.)

x. And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people. (Jno. 7:12.)

y. Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. (I Tim. 1:13.)

z. But he shall receive an hundred-fold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life. (Mk. 10:30.) And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light. (Luke 16:8.) Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting. (Luke 18:30.) Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come. (Eph. 1:21.) Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy. (I Tim. 6:17.) For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia. (II Tim. 4:10.) Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world. (Tit. 2:12.) And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come. (Heb. 6:5.)

aa. For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. (Luke 6:43.)

bb. Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell? (Mat. 23:33.)

cc. A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh. (Luke 6:45.) But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man. (Mat. 15:18.) Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. (Eph. 4:29.) As saith the proverb of the ancients, Wickedness proceedeth from the wicked: but mine hand shall not be upon thee. (I Sam. 24:13.) For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body. Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body. Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth. Even so the tongue is a little member and boasteth great things. Behold how great a matter a little fire kindleth! And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell. For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind: But the tongue can no man tame: it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God. Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be. Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter? Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh. (Js. 3:2-12.)

dd. Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient; but rather giving of thanks. (Eph. 5:4.)

ee. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city. (Mat. 10:15.)

ff. So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. (Jon. 3:5.)

gg. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. (Is. 9:6.)

hh. And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, concerning the name of the Lord, she came to prove him with hard questions. (I Ks. 10:1.)

ii. And the Lord said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the Lord, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. (Job 1:7.) Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. (I Pet. 5:8.)

jj. For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost. (Heb. 6:4.) For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, 46 ¶ [14]While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and [kk]his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.

47 Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.

48 But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?

49 And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!

50 For [ll]whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

CHAPTER 13.

3 The parable of the sower and the seed. 24 The parable of the tares, 31 of the mustard seed, 33 of the leaven, 44 of the hidden treasure, 45 of the pearl, 47 of the drawnet cast into the sea.

1 The same [1]day went Jē'ṣus out of the house, and sat by the sea side.

2 And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spake many things unto them in [2]parables, saying, [3]Behold, a sower went forth to sow;

4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up:

5 Some fell upon [a]stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no [4]deepness of earth:

6 And when the sun was [5]up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them:

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some [b]an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.

9 Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 He answered and said unto them, Because [c]it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 For [4]whosoever [d]hath, to him shall be [5]given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath [6]not, from him shall be taken away even that [7]he hath.

13 Therefore [8]speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of E-ṣā'ias, which saith, By [e]hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

15 [9]For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears [f]are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

16 But [g]blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.

17 For verily I say unto you, That many [h]prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

18 ¶ Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon [i]with joy receiveth it;

21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by [j]he is [10]offended.

22 He [k]also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 ¶ [11]Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man [12]which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, [l]his enemy came

14. In vs. 46-50 the mother and brothers of Jesus attempt to take him from the crowd.

Ch. 13. A. D. 31.

1. The same day as the transactions of ch. 12.

2. A spiritual truth presented through or by earthly symbols.

3. In vs. 3-23 is an account of the first parable, that of the sower.

4. A willing receptive desire and purpose.

5. To him (see note 4) who has the purpose shall be given that which he desires.

6. That is, who hath not the receptive purpose and desire.

7. That is, all opportunity of learning and embracing the truth.

8. For that reason.

9. Here is stated the reason the truth was withheld.

10. Ensnared, entrapped, led into evil.

11. In vs. 24-30 is an account of the second parable, the wheat and the tares.

12. Not simply like unto a man but to the whole parabolic transaction of sowing the seed.

they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. (II Pet. 2:20.)

kk. After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days. (Jno. 2:12.) His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest (3). For neither did his brethren believe in him. (Jno. 7:3, 5.) But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother. (Gal. 1:19.)

ll. For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren. (Heb. 2:11.)

Chapter 13.

a. And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh. (Ez. 11:19.)

b. Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received in the same year an hundredfold: and the Lord blessed him. (Gen. 26:12.)

c. At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. (Mat. 11:25.) And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables. (Mk. 4:11.) But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. (I Cor. 2:10.) Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints. (Col. 1:26.)

d. For he that hath, to him shall be given; and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath. (Mk. 4:25.) Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have. (Luke 8:18.)

e. And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. (Is. 6:9.) Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house. (Ez. 12:2.) He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them. (Jno. 12:40.) (According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day. (Rom. 11:8.) But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the Old Testament; which veil is done away in Christ. (II Cor. 3:14.)

f. Of whom [Christ] we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing. (Heb. 5:11.)

g. And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see: For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them. (Luke 10:23, 24.) Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed. (Jno. 20:29.)

h. These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. (Heb. 11:13.) Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you. (I Pet. 1:10.)

i. Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God. (Is. 58:2.) He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light. (Jno. 5:35.)

j. And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me. (Mat. 11:6.) This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia be turned away from me. (II Tim. 1:15.)

k. And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! (Mk. 10:23, 24.) But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. (I Tim. 6:9.)

l. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. (I Pet. 5:8.)

and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the [k]wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but [m]gather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ [13]Another parable put he forth unto them, [14]saying, [n]The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the [15]least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ [16]Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 All these things spake Jē'ṣus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; [o]I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Jē'ṣus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, [17]Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 [18]He answered and said unto them, He that [p]soweth the good seed is the Son of man;

38 [q]The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the [r]children of the wicked one;

39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; [s]the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, [t]and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

42 And [u]shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 [v]Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 ¶ [19]Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and [w]buyeth that field.

45 ¶ [20]Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking [21]goodly pearls:

46 Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ [22]Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and [x]gathered of every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the end [23]of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just,

50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jē'ṣus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

53 ¶ [24]And it came to pass, that when Jē'ṣus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 And when he was come into his own [25]country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?

55 [y]Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mā'rў? and his brethren, Jāmeṣ, and Jō'sēṣ, and Sī'mon, and Jū'das?

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

57 And they [z]were offended in him. But Jē'ṣus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

58 And [aa]he did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

13. In vs. 30-32 is an account of the third parable, that of the mustard seed.

14. As a sort of compliment to the wheat and tares to supply what was omitted in that one, viz., that while the wicked are not immediately cut off, the kingdom of God is progressive and triumphant.

15. Symbolizing the smallness of the Gospel's beginning and the final triumph and greatness of its results.

16. The fourth parable, that of the leaven in the meal.

17. Explain, solve, make plain.

18. In vs. 37-43 is given the solution or explanation of the parable of the tares and the wheat.

19. In v. 44 is given the fifth parable, the hidden treasure.

20. In vs. 4-46 is an account of the sixth parable, that of the goodly pearl.

21. The pearl was selected as the symbol of divine truth because it always impresses the eye with admiration for its beauty and value.

22. In vs. 47-49 is an account of the seventh parable, that of the fishnet.

23. The judgment.

24. In vs. 53-58, Jesus returns to Nazareth and is again rejected.

25. Nazareth.

m. Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable. (Luke 3:17.)

n. But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the Lord shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it. (Mic. 4:1.) Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it? (Luke 13:18.)

o. Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began. (Rom. 16:25.) But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory. (I Cor. 2:7.) Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints. (Col. 1:26.)

p. The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the broken hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound. (Is. 61:1.)

q. And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. (Luke 24:47.) But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. (Rom. 10:18.)

r. And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed: it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel. (Gen. 3:15.) He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. (I Jno. 3:8.)

s. Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great. (Joel 3:13.) And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe. (Rev. 14:15.)

t. But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. (II Pet. 2:1, 2.)

u. And the devil, that deceived them, was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever. (Rev. 20:10.)

v. And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. (Dan. 12:3.) After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands. (Rev. 7:9.)

w. Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money, and without price. (Is. 55:1.) I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see. (Rev. 3:18.)

x. So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests. (Mat. 22:10.)

y. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. (Is. 53:5.)

z. And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me. (Mat. 11:6.)

aa. For unto us was the Gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. (Heb. 4:2.)

CHAPTER 14.

1 Herod's opinion of Christ. 3 Wherefore John Baptist was beheaded. 13 Jesus departeth into a desert place: 15 he feedeth five thousand men with five loaves and two fishes: 22 he walketh on the sea: 34 and landing at Gennesaret, healeth the sick.

1 [1]At that time [a]Hĕr'od the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jē'sus,

2 And said unto his servants, This is Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

3 ¶ For [b]Hĕr'od had laid hold on Jŏhn, and bound him, and put him in prison for He-rō'dĭ-as' sake, his brother Phĭl'ĭp's wife.

4 For Jŏhn said unto him, [c]It is not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

6 But when Hĕr'od's birthday was kept, the daughter of He-rō'dĭ-as danced before them, and pleased Hĕr'od.

7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here Jŏhn Băp'tĭst's head in a charger.

9 And the king was sorry: [d]nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.

10 And he sent, and beheaded Jŏhn in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jē'sus.

13 ¶ When [c]Jē'sus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jē'sus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and [f]was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

15 ¶ [2]And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jē'sus said unto them, They need not depart; [g]give ye them to eat.

17 And [3]they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, Bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

Ch. 14. A. D. 32.

1. In vs. 1-14 is an account of the death of John the Baptist.

2. In vs. 15-21 is recorded the miracle of feeding the 5,000.

3. Andrew, as spokesman for the rest.

4. In vs. 22, 23 is an account of the miracle of walking on the sea.

Ch. 15. A. D. 32.

1. In vs. 1-20 is an account of the debate with the Pharisees, regarding ceremonial pollution.

20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

22 ¶ [4]And straightway Jē'sus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jē'sus went unto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jē'sus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.

28 And Pē'tĕr answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Pē'tĕr was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jē'sus.

30 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

31 And immediately Jē'sus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

32 And when they were come into the ship, the [h]wind ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth [i]thou art the Son of God.

34 ¶ And [j]when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gĕn-nĕs'a-rĕt.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased;

36 And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and [k]as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

CHAPTER 15.

3 Christ reproveth the scribes and Pharisees: 11 teacheth how that which goeth into the mouth doth not defile a man. 21 He healeth the daughter of the woman of Canaan, 32 and with seven loaves and a few little fishes feedeth four thousand men, beside women and children.

1 [1]Then came to Jē'sus scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, which were of Je-ru'sa-lĕm, saying,

2 Why do thy disciples transgress [a]the tradi-

Chapter 14.

a. And king Herod heard of him: (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do show forth themselves in him. (Mk. 6:14.)

b. Correction is grievous unto him that forsaketh the way: and he that hateth reproof shall die. (Prov. 15:10.) For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife; for he had married her. (Mk. 6:17.)

c. Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy brother's wife: it is thy brother's nakedness. (Lev. 18:16.) And if a man shall take his brother's wife, it is an unclean thing; he hath uncovered his brother's nakedness: they shall be childless. (Lev. 20:21.) Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. (Eph. 5:11.)

d. They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate. (Tit. 1:16.)

e. But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all. (Mat. 12:15.) And they departed into a desert place by ship privately. (Mk. 6:32.) And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida. (Luke 9:10.) After these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias. And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased. (Jno. 6:1, 2.)

f. For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. (Heb. 4:15.)

g. And his servitor said, What! should I set this before an hundred men? He said again, Give the people, that they may eat: for thus saith the Lord, They shall eat, and shall leave thereof. (II Ks. 4:43.)

h. He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still. (Ps. 107:29.)

i. I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee. (Ps. 2:7.) And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. (Mat. 16:16.) And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ, the Son of God. And he, rebuking them, suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ. (Luke 4:41.) And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God. (Jno. 6:69.) And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. (Acts 8:37.) And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead. (Rom. 1:4.)

j. And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore. (Mk. 6:53.)

k. For he had healed many; insomuch that they pressed upon him for to touch him, as many as had plagues. (Mk. 3:10.) And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all. (Luke 6:19.)

Chapter 15.

a. Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain de-tion of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, Honour [b]thy father and mother: and, [c]He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, [d]It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me;

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Ye [e]hypocrites, well did E-ṣā'ias prophesy of you, saying,

8 This [c]people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching [f]for doctrines the commandments of men.

10 ¶ And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:

11 Not [g]that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Phăr'ī-seeṣ were offended, after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, [h]Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let them alone: [i]they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 Then answered Pē'tēr and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jē'ṣus said, [j]Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But [k]those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.

19 For [l]out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

2. Hypocrites for maintaining and teaching a religion not founded on morality.

3. In vs. 21-33 is an account of the healing of the daughter of the Syro-Phoenician woman.

4. In vs. 33-39 is an account of the miracle of feeding the 4,000.

21 ¶[3]Then Jē'ṣus when thence, and departed into the coasts of Tȳre and Sī'dŏn.

22 And, behold, a woman of Cā'năan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have [m]mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of Dā'vid; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.

24 But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Ĭs'ra-el.

25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.

26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to [n]dogs.

27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.

28 Then Jē'ṣus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

29 And Jē'ṣus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Găl'ĭ-lee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.

30 And [o]great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jē'ṣus' feet; and he healed them:

31 Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Ĭs'ra-el.

32 ¶ Then Jē'ṣus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 [4]And [p]his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?

34 And Jē'ṣus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

ceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. (Col. 2:8.) Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth. (Tit. 1:14.) And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner. (Luke 11:38.)

b. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. [The fifth commandment.] (Ex. 20:12.) Ye shall fear every man his mother and his father, and keep my sabbaths: I am the Lord your God. (Lev. 19:3.) Honor thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise. (Eph. 6:2.)

c. And he that curseth his father or his mother shall surely be put to death. (Ex. 21:17.) Cursed be he that setteth light by his father or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen. (Dt. 27:16.) Whoso curseth his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness. (Prov. 20:20.)

d. But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, (that is to say, a gift,) by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free. (Mk. 7:11.)

e. Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honor me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men. (Is. 29:13.) And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness. (Ez. 33:31.)

f. From which some having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling, Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm. (I Tim. 1:6, 7.) Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth. (Tit. 1:14.)

g. And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common. (Acts 10:15.) I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean. (Rom. 14:14.) Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth. For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving. (I Tim. 4:3, 4.)

h. Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away; and every branch that beareth fruit he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. (Jno. 15:2.) Now if any man build upon this foundation [Jesus Christ] gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. (I Cor. 3:12, 13.) Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified. (Is. 60:21.)

i. For the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed. (Is. 9:16.) And he spake a parable unto them: Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch? (Luke 6:39.)

j. Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up? (Mat. 16:9.) And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? (Mk. 7:18.)

k. And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell. (Js. 3:6.)

l. And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. (Gen. 6:5.) Frowardness is in his heart, he deviseth mischief continually; he soweth discord. (Prov. 6:14.) The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? (Jer. 17:9.) For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders. (Mk. 7:21.)

m. And the Lord passed by before him, and proclaimed, The Lord, The Lord God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth. (Ex. 34:6.) Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer. (Ps. 4:1.) Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful. (Luke 6:36.)

n. Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you. (Mat. 7:6.) Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision. (Phil. 3:2.)

o. Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped: Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert. (Is. 35:5, 6.) The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them. (Mat. 11:5.)

p. And Moses said, The people, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand footmen; and thou hast said, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month. Shall the flocks and the herds be slain for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them? (Num. 11:21, 22.)

THE TRANSFIGURATION.—Raphael.

35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

36 And [q]he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and [r]gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full.

38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children.

39 And [s]he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of Măg'da-lå.

CHAPTER 16.

1 The Pharisees require a sign. 6 Jesus warneth his disciples of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees. 16 Peter's confession of him. 21 Jesus foresheweth his death, 23 reproving Peter for dissuading him from it: 24 and admonisheth those that will follow him, to bear the cross.

1 [1]The [a]Phăr'ĭ-seeş also with the Săd'du-çeeş came, and tempting desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven.

2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red.

3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day: for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the [b]signs of the times?

4 A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jō'nas. And he left them, and departed.

5 And [c]when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

6 ¶ Then Jē'şus said unto them, [d]Take heed and beware of the leaven of the [a]Phăr'ĭ-seeş and of the Săd'du-çeeş.

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which when Jē'şus perceived, he said unto them, O ye [e]of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread?

9 [f]Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five [g]loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

10 Neither the [h]seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the [a]Phăr'ĭ-seeş and of the Săd'du-çeeş?

12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the [a]Phăr'ĭ-seeş and of the Săd'du-çeeş.

13 ¶ [2]When Jē'şus came into the coasts of Çæs-a-rē'a Phĭ-lĭp'pī, he asked his disciples, saying, [i]Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?

14 And they said, [j]Some say that thou art Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst: [k]some, E-lī'as; and others, Jĕr-e-mī'as, or one of the prophets.

15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

16 And Sī'mon [3]Pē'tĕr answered and said, [l]Thou art the Chrīst, the Son of the living [m]God.

17 And Jē'şus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Sī'mon Bär-jō'nå: [m]for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but [c]my Father which is in heaven.

18 And I say also unto thee, That [p]thou art Pē'tĕr, and [q]upon this [4]rock I will build my

Ch. 16. A. D. 32.

1. In vs. 1-12 is the demand made by the Pharisees and Sadducees for a sign from heaven.

2. In vs. 13-19 the Apostolic College is endowed with the keys of heaven.

3. As the senior apostle, he answers for the whole number.

4. That is, the apostles were all rocks in the foundation of the church, of which Christ was the chief corner stone and Peter the spokesman, or stone upon which was engraved the name Peter (Eph. 2: 20). "And are built upon the foundations of the apostles and prophets; Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone." Therefore, this remark was addressed to Peter only as spokesman and was intended for all the apostles.

q. And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and, looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude. (Mat. 14:19.)

r. When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the Lord thy God for the good land which he hath given thee. (Dt. 8:10.) And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body, which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. (Luke 22:19.)

s. And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha. (Mk. 8:10.)

Chapter 16.

a. And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him. (Mk. 8:11.) And others, tempting him, sought of him a sign from heaven. (Luke 11:16.) For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom. (I Cor. 1:22.)

b. The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be. (Gen. 49:10.) Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. (Is. 7:14.) Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of hosts. (Mal. 3:1.)

c. Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf. (Mk. 8:14.)

d. In the meantime, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. (Luke 12:1.) And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod. (Mk. 8:15.) See v. 11.

e. Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? (Mat. 6:30.) And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm. (Mat. 8:26.) And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? (Mat. 14:31.)

f. And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes. (Mat. 14:17.) There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many? (Jno. 6:9.)

g. And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes. He said, Bring them hither to me. And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and, looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude. And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full. And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, besides women and children. (Mat. 14:17-21.)

h. And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes. (Mat. 15:34.)

i. And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am? (Mk. 8:27.) And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am? (Luke 9:18.) Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh. (Rom. 1:3.)

j. Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead; And of some, that Elias has appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again. And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him. (Luke 9:7-9.)

k. Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord. (Mal. 4:5.)

l. I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee. (Ps. 2:7.) He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering said, The Christ of God. (Luke 9:20.) Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? (I Jno. 5:5.)

m. For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God. (Eph. 2:8.) And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is, by interpretation, A stone. (Jno. 1:42.) So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs. He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep. He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep. (Jno. 21:15-17.)

n. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God? (Ps. 42:2.) And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein. (Acts 14:15.) And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God. (Rom. 9:26.) Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart. (II Cor. 3:3.) (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?) (I Tim. 3:5.) How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God! (Heb. 9:14.) And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea. (Rev. 7:2.)

o. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. (I Cor. 2:10.) To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood. (Gal. 1:16.)

p. And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is, by interpretation, A stone. (Jno. 1:42.)

q. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundachurch; and [r]the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

19 And [s]I will give unto thee the keys [5]of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever [t]thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

20 [u]Then [u]charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jē'sus the Chrīst.

21 ¶ From that time forth began Jē'sus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Je-ru'sa-lēm, and suffer [v]many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

22 Then Pē'tēr took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.

23 But he turned, and said unto Pē'tēr, Get thee behind [w]me, [7]Sā'tan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

24 ¶ Then said [x]Jē'sus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take [y]up his cross, and follow me.

25 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or [z]what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

27 For the Son [aa]of man shall come in the glory of his Father [bb]with his angels; and then [cc]he shall reward every man according to his works.

28 Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man [aa]coming in his [dd]kingdom.

5. The church is visibly represented as a temple, which has keys, these keys being now turned over to the apostles and the responsibility of its keeping being placed upon them.

6. In vs. 20-28 Christ predicts his own sufferings and ultimate coming to judge the world.

7. Not that Christ is here calling Peter Satan, but that he recognized in the speech of Peter the spirit or will of Satan.

Ch. 17. A. D. 32.

1. In vs. 1-12 is an account of the transfiguration.

2. While Mat. here gives six days, Luke gives eight days; the difference being that Luke counts the first and last days, or the day of beginning and the day of ending, which are therefore only parts of days, and Mat. omits them. The expression means, six days after the conversation of ch. 16.

3. Changed in appearance.

4. The representatives of the law and the prophets. Here meeting with Christ, delegating unto him their expiring power in whom was to be the fulfillment and culmination of all prophecy.

CHAPTER 17.

1 The transfiguration of Christ. 14 He healeth the lunatic, 22 foretelleth his own passion, 24 and payeth tribute.

1 [1]And [a]after six [2]days Jē'sus taketh Pē'tēr, Jāmeş, and Jŏhn his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart,

2 And was [3]transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And, behold, there appeared unto them [b]Mō'şeş and [4]E-lī'as talking with him.

tion: he that believeth shall not make haste. (Is. 28:16.) And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone. (Eph. 2:20.) And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. (Rev. 21:14.)

r. No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord. (Is. 54:17.) And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. (Mat. 11:23.)

s. Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained. (Jno. 20:23.) And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder: so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open. (Is. 22:22.) I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death. (Rev. 1:18.) And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth. (Rev. 3:7.)

t. Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. (Mat. 18:18.) Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained. (Jno. 20:23.)

u. And he charged them that they should tell no man of him. (Mk. 8:30.) And he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing. (Luke 9:21.)

v. And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead (9). But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them (12). And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men. (Mat. 17:9, 12, 22.) Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death. (Mat. 20:18.) Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again. (Mat. 27:63.) And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought (12). For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day. (Mk. 9:12, 31.) But first he must suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation. (Luke 17:25.) For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on. (Luke 18:32.) Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. (Jno. 2:19.)

w. Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. (Mat. 4:10.) Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. (Rom. 8:7.)

x. Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. (Acts 14:22.) That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto. (I Thess. 3:3.) Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. (II Tim. 3:12.)

y. And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me. (Mat. 10:38.)

z. None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him: (For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever:) (Ps. 49:7, 8.)

aa. And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world? (3). For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be (27). But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be (37). And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. (Mat. 24:3, 27, 37, 39.) Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels. (Mk. 8:38.) And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud, with power and great glory. (Luke 21:27.) Which also said, ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven. (Acts 1:11.) But every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming. (I Cor. 15:23.) Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain. (Js. 5:7.) And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming. (I Jno. 2:28.) Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. (Rev. 1:7.)

bb. A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened. (Dan. 7:10.) And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the Lord my God shall come, and all the saints with thee. (Zech. 14:5.) And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousand of his saints. (Jude 14.)

cc. I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. (Jer. 17:10.) Who will render to every man according to his deeds. (Rom. 2:6.) For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. (II Cor. 5:10.) And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear. (I Pet. 1:17.) And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. (Rev. 22:12.) If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works? (Prov. 24:12.) So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God. (Rom. 14:12.) Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free. (Eph. 6:8.) But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons. (Col. 3:25.) And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works. (Rev. 2:23.)

dd. And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power. (Mk. 9:1.)

Chapter 17.

a. And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them. (Mk. 9:2.) And it came to pass, about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray. And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering. And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias; Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem. But Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him. And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said. While he thus spake, there came a cloud and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud. And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen. (Luke 9:28-36.)

b. But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets. (Rom. 3:21.)

4 Then answered Pē'tēr, and said unto Jē'şus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Mō'şeş, and one for E-lī'as.

5 While he [c]yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, [d]This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; [e]hear ye him.

6 And [f]when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jē'şus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jē'şus only.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jē'şus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that E-lī'as must first come?

11 And Jē'şus answered and said unto them, E-lī'as truly shall first come, and restore [g]all things.

12 But I say unto you, That E-lī'as is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst.

15 Lord, [h]have mercy on my son: for he is lunatic, and sore vexed: for ofttimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jē'şus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jē'şus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jē'şus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 And Jē'şus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, [i]If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.

22 ¶ And [j]while they abode in Găl'ĭ-lee, Jē'şus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.

24 ¶ [6]And when they were come to Ca-pēr'na-ŭm, they that received tribute money came to Pē'tēr, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute?

25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jē'şus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Sī'mon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

26 Pē'tēr saith unto him, Of strangers. Jē'şus saith unto him, Then are the children free.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should [8][k]offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

CHAPTER 18.

1 Christ warneth his disciples to be humble and harmless: 7 to avoid offences, and not to despise the little ones: 15 how to deal with our brethren, when they offend us: 21 and how oft to forgive them: 23 parable of the king, that took account of his servants.

1 [1]At the [a]same time came the disciples unto Jē'şus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

2 And Jē'şus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, [b]and become as little [2]children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

4 Whosoever [c]therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 And [d]whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

5. In vs. 14-23 is a record of Jesus' casting out a devil from a demoniac boy.

6. That is, put a snare or entrapment in their way which might lead them to think he depreciated God's house.

Ch. 18. A. D. 32.

1. Ch. 18 is a discourse on the unity and peace of the church; and, while it is divided into parts or parables, each has a bearing upon the one subject and is to be viewed as a part illustrating in its particular way the main truth of the ch. In vs. 1-9 is an account of the controversy among the 12 apostles as to who shall be the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

2. That is, free from and innocent of the transgressions of the past and conscious of dependence upon Christ.

c. For he received from God the Father honor and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. (II Pet. 1:17.)

d. And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased. (Luke 3:22.) Behold my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth: I have put my Spirit upon him; he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles. (Is. 42:1.)

e. The Lord thy God will raise up unto thee a Prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; unto him ye shall hearken. (Dt. 18:15.) For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A Prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you. (Acts 3:22.) See that ye refuse not him that speaketh: for if they escape not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven. (Heb. 12:25.)

f. And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount. (II Pet. 1:18.)

g. And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse. (Mal. 4:6.) Many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God. (Luke 1:16.)

h. Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer. (Ps. 4:1.) With the merciful thou wilt show thyself merciful, with an upright man thou wilt show thyself upright. (Ps. 18:25.) Hear me, O Lord; for thy loving-kindness is good: turn unto me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies. (Ps. 69:16.) And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. (Luke 18:13.)

i. Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth. (Mk. 9:23.) And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you. (Luke 17:6.) To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit. (I Cor. 12:9.) Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done. (Mat. 21:21.) For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith. (Mk. 11:23.)

j. And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. (Mk. 8:31.) He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee, Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again. (Luke 24:6, 7.)

k. And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Cesar the things that are Cesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him. (Mk. 12:17.) Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God. (I Cor. 10:32.)

a. Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest. (Luke 9:46.) And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest. (Luke 22:24.) And he came to Capernaum: and, being in the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way? But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest. And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all. And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them, Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me. (Mk. 9:33-37.)

b. Surely I have behaved and quieted myself, as a child that is weaned of his mother: my soul is even as a weaned child. (Ps. 131:2.) But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. (Luke 18:16.) Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men. (I Cor. 14:20.) As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby. (I Pet. 2:2.) But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven. (Mat. 19:14.)

c. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up. (Js. 4:10.)

d. And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward. (Mat. 10:42.)

6 But whoso [c]shall [3]offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 ¶ [4]Woe unto the world because of offences! for [c]it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!

8 Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.

9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

10 [5]Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their [g]angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

12 How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 ¶ [6]Moreover [h]if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou [i]hast gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that [j]in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, [k]tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, [l]let him be unto thee as an [m]heathen man and a publican.

18 Verily [o]I say unto you, [n]Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

19 Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, [p]it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

20 For where two or [j]three are gathered together in my name, there [q]am [s]I in the midst of them.

21 ¶ Then came Pē'tĕr to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? [r]till seven times?

22 Jē'sus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, [s]Until seventy times seven.

23 ¶ Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents.

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him [t]to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants, which owed him [u]an hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellowservant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellowservants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I

3. To cause to sin or to stumble.

4. In vs. 7-9 Jesus discusses the woe of offenses.

5. In vs. 10-14 is an account of the parable of the lost sheep.

6. In vs. 15-20 is stated the method of dealing with offenders.

7. It is to be observed here that Jesus encourages a union of effort, that effort to be for some definite thing, and in that case he will be in the midst of them.

8. In vs. 21-35 is an account of the parable of the unmerciful debtor, illustrating the divine law of forgiveness. It makes plain the danger of mercilessly dealing with our fellow man, because of thereby incurring the displeasure of God.

e. And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea. (Mk. 9:42.) It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones. (Luke 17:2.)

f. But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ. (I Cor. 8:12.) Then said he unto the disciples, It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him through whom they come! (Luke 17:1.) For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you. (I Cor. 11:19.) Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils. (I Tim. 4:1.) The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born. (Mat. 26:24.)

g. The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them. (Ps. 34:7.) Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation? (Heb. 1:14.) And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these good tidings. (Luke 1:19.) And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets. (Rev. 8:2.)

h. Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbor, and not suffer sin upon him. (Lev. 19:17.) Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him. (Luke 17:3.) Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. (Gal. 6:1.) Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother. (II Thess. 3:15.) Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him. (Js. 5:19.)

i. Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins. (Js. 5:20.)

j. One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin in any trespass that he trespasseth: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established. (Dt. 19:15.) This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established. (II Cor. 13:1.) He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses: (Heb. 10:28.) It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true. (Jno. 8:17.) Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses. (I Tim. 5:19.)

k. Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear. (I Tim. 5:20.) Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints? (I Cor. 6:1.)

l. Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us (6). And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. (II Thess. 3:6, 14.)

m. Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. (Rom. 16:17.) Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us. (II Thess. 3:6.) If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not in your house, neither bid him God speed. (II Jno. 10.)

n. Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained. (Jno. 20:23.)

o. Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. (Mat. 5:24.)

p. Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. (Js. 5:16.) This is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us. (I Jno. 5:14.)

q. It was round about eighteen thousand measures: and the name of the city from that day shall be, The Lord is there. (Ez. 48:35.) Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen. (Mat. 28:20.) In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ. (I Cor. 5:4.) Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks. (Rev. 2:1.) And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. (Rev. 21:3.)

r. And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him. (Luke 17:4.)

s. Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. (Col. 3:13.)

t. Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the Lord: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen. (II Ks. 4:1.)

u. And when he had agreed with the laborers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. (Mat. 20:2.)

forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me.

33 Shouldest [v]not thou also have had compassion on thy fellowservant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

35 So [w]likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

CHAPTER 19.

2 Christ healeth the sick: 3 answereth the Pharisees concerning divorcement: 10 sheweth when marriage is necessary: 13 receiveth little children: 16 instructeth the young man how to attain eternal life: 23 telleth his disciples how hard it is for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

1 [1]And it came to pass, that when Jē'ṣus had finished these sayings, he departed [2]from Găl'ĭ-lee, and came into the coasts of Jū-dæ'ā beyond Jor'dan;

2 And great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there.

3 ¶ The Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, [a]that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female,

5 And said, [b]For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and [c]they twain shall be one flesh?

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let no man put asunder.

7 They say unto him, [d]Why did Mō'ṣeṣ then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

8 He saith unto them, Mō'ṣeṣ because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but [c]from the beginning it was not so.

9 And [f]I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

10 ¶ [g]His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

11 But he said unto them, [h]All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and [i]there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 ¶ [j]Then [j]were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jē'ṣus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 ¶ [k]And, behold, one came and said unto him, [k]Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?

17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

18 He saith unto him, Which? Jē'ṣus said, [l]Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, 19 Honour [m]thy father and thy mother: and, [n]Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?

21 [o]Jē'ṣus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, [o]go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ [p]Then said Jē'ṣus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That [p]a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

26 But Jē'ṣus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with [q]God all things are possible.

27 ¶ Then answered Pē'tēr and said unto

Ch. 19. A. D. 33.

1. In vs. 1-12 Jesus goes from Galilee into Judea and there discusses the law of marriage.

2. While Galilee had been the main scene of his ministry, he now leaves it for the last time before the crucifixion.

3. In vs. 13-15 Jesus blesses little children.

4. In vs. 16-22 is an account of the discourse with the rich young man.

5. Jesus tells the young man that, to be perfect, he must sell what he has and give to the poor; not because he could not hold to what he has and be perfect, as Moses and David were both very rich, but because the young man has unconsciously made his riches the chief object of his affection, therefore he is blindly seeking the way to heaven and must have his blindness revealed to him. Not by works but by faith must he be saved.

6. In vs. 23-30 is stated the difficulty with which men who have placed their affections in their riches can obtain salvation.

v. And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. (Eph. 4:32.) Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. (Col. 3:13.)

w. Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard. (Prov. 21:13.) And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. (Mat. 6:12.) For he shall have judgment without mercy that hath shown no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment. (Js. 2:13.)

Chapter 19.

a. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. (Gen. 1:27.) And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the Spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. (Mal. 2:15.)

b. Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh. (Gen. 2:24.) For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. (Eph. 5:31.)

c. What! know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh. (I Cor. 6:16.)

d. When a man hath taken a wife, and married her, and it come to pass that she find no favor in his eyes, because he hath found some uncleanness in her; then let him write her a bill of divorcement, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house. (Dt. 24:1.)

e. Thus saith the Lord, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein. (Jer. 6:16.)

f. But I say unto you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery. (Mat. 5:32.) And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband: But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife. (I Cor. 7:10, 11.)

g. It is better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman. (Prov. 21:19.)

h. For I would that all men were even as I myself. But every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that (7). But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn (9). But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all churches. (I Cor. 7:7, 9, 17.)

i. Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas? (5). But I have used none of these things; neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void. (I Cor. 9:5, 15.)

j. And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them. (Luke 18:15.)

k. And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? (Luke 10:25.)

l. Thou shalt not kill. (Ex. 20:13.) Thou shalt not kill. (Dt. 5:17.)

m. For God commanded, saying, Honor thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death. (Mat. 15:4.)

n. Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people; but thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself: I am the Lord. (Lev. 19:18.) For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. (Gal. 5:14.)

o. Sell that ye have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that fadeth not, where no thief approacheth, nor moth corrupteth. (Lu. 12:33.) And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need. (Acts 2:45.)

p. For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called. (I Cor. 1:26.) But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. (I Tim. 6:9.)

q. I know that thou canst do every thing, and that no thought him, Behold, [r]we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?

28 And Jē'sus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the [s]regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye [t]also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Is'ra-el.

29 And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

30 But [u]many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Christ sheweth that God is debtor unto no man: 17 foretelleth his passion: 20 by answering the mother of Zebedee's children he teacheth his disciples to be lowly: 30 and giveth two blind men their sight.

1 [1]For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went [2]out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,

4 And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So [a]when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.

11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house,

12 Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.

13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny?

14 Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.

15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? [b]Is thine eye evil, because I am good?

16 So [c]the last shall be first, and the first last: [d]for many be called, but few chosen.

17 ¶ [3]And Jē'sus going up to Je-rū'sa-lĕm took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,

18 Behold, [e]we go up to Je-rū'sa-lĕm; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,

19 And [f]shall deliver him to the Gĕn'tīles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again.

20 ¶ [4]Then came to him the mother of Zĕb'e-dee's children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.

21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons [g]may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left, in thy kingdom.

22 But Jē'sus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the [h]cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with [i]the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.

23 And he saith unto them, [j]Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to [k]give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren.

25 But Jē'sus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gĕn'tīles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them.

26 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister;

27 And [l]whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant:

28 Even [m]as the Son of man came not to be

Ch. 20. A. D. 33.

1. In vs. 1-16 is an account of the parable of the laborers in the vineyard. This parable is recorded only by Mat., and is given in answer to Peter's question asking how it shall be with those who, like himself, have left all to follow Christ. The parable also shows that no works of man can possibly confer a favor on God; that works alone cannot save him, but that he must get right, repent of sin, and keep right.

2. The man went out, i. e., God seeks men.

3. In vs. 17-19 Christ again tells of his approaching sufferings, which is his third announcement.

4. In vs. 20-28, Salome, mother of James and John, desires for her two sons the favorite places in the kingdom of the Messiah.

can be withholden from thee. (Job 42:2.) Ah Lord God! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by that great power and stretched-out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee. (Jer. 32:17.) For with God nothing shall be impossible. (Luke 1:37.)

r. Who said unto his father and to his mother, I have not seen him; neither did he acknowledge his brethren, nor knew his own children: for they have observed thy word, and kept thy covenant. (Dt. 33:9.) And they straightway left their nets, and followed him. (Mat. 4:20.) And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him. (Luke 5:11.)

s. Therefore, if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. (II Cor. 5:17.)

t. Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters? Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life! (I Cor. 6:2, 3.)

u. So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen. (Mat. 20:16.)

Chapter 20.

a. And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the laborer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house. (Luke 10:7.)

b. Eat thou not the bread of him that hath an evil eye, neither desire thou his dainty meats. (Prov. 23:6.) But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness! (Mat. 6:23.)

c. But many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first. (Mat. 19:30.)

d. For many are called, but few are chosen. (Mat. 22:14.)

e. From that time forth began Jesus to show unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day. (Mat. 16:21.)

f. And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor. (Mat. 27:2.) The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go. (Acts 3:13.)

g. And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration, when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. (Mat. 19:28.) Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts. (Js. 4:3.)

h. And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt. (Mk. 14:36.)

i. But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished! (Luke 12:50.)

j. And he [Herod] killed James the brother of John with the sword. (Acts 12:2.) And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. (Rom. 8:17.) I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ. (Rev. 1:9.)

k. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. (Mat. 25:34.) But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; for he hath prepared for them a city. (Heb. 11:16.)

l. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. (Mat. 18:4.)

m. He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself. (Jno. 13:4.) But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men. (Phil. 2:7.)

ministered unto, but to [n]minister, and [o]to give his life a ransom [p]for many.

29 [5]And as they departed from Jĕr'ĭ-chō, a great multitude followed him.

30 ¶ And, behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jē'sŭs passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou son of Dā'vid.

31 And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy [q]on us, O Lord, thou son of Dā'vid.

32 And Jē'sŭs stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I shall do unto you?

33 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

34 So Jē'sŭs had [q]compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

CHAPTER 21.

1 Christ rideth into Jerusalem, 12 driveth the buyers and sellers out of the temple, 23 putteth to silence the priests and elders, 28 and rebuketh them by the similitude of the two sons, 33 and the husbandmen, who slew such as were sent unto them.

1 [1]And when they drew nigh unto Je-rū'sa-lĕm, and were come to Bĕth'pha-gē, unto [a]the [2]mount of Ōl'ĭvēs, then sent Jē'sŭs two disciples,

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need [b]of them; and straightway he will send them.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

5 Tell [c]ye the daughter of Sī'ŏn, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.

6 And the disciples went, and did as Jē'sŭs commanded them,

7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and [d]put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon.

8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, [3]Ho-şăn'nà [e]to the son of Dā'vid: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Ho-şăn'nà in the highest.

10 [4]And [f]when he was come into Je-rū'sa-lĕm, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

11 And the multitude said, This is Jē'sŭs the [g]prophet of Năz'a-rĕth of Găl'ĭ-lee.

12 ¶ And [h]Jē'sŭs went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the [i]moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves, 13 And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.

14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.

15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Ho-şăn'nà to the son of Dā'vid; they were sore displeased,

16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jē'sŭs saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, [j]Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 ¶ And he left them, and went out of the city into Bĕth'ă-nў; and he lodged there.

18 [5]Now in the [6]morning as he returned into the city, he hungered.

19 And when he saw a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away.

20 And when [7]the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away!

21 Jē'sŭs answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but [k]also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

22 And [l]all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 ¶ [8]And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, [m]By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

---

1. In vs. 1-17 is an account of Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem, his second cleansing of the temple, also the parable of a barren fig tree. Christ has now been about 3 years actively engaged in his ministry.

2. A mountain ridge east of Jerusalem, the valley of Jehoshaphat being between them.

3. The Hebrew word meaning save now.

4. In vs. 10-16 is an account of the great commotion in the city over his coming into their midst.

5. In vs. 18-22 is an account of the withering fig tree and the lesson of faith it teaches.

6. The morning of Monday, the second day of passion week.

7. That is, Tuesday, the morning after the tree had been cursed.

8. In vs. 23-27 Christ answers the questions regarding his authority.

Ch. 21. A. D. 33.

n. For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth. (Luke 22:27.) If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet. (Jno. 13:14.)

o. Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the Lord shall prosper in his hand. (Is. 53:10.) O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us. (Dan. 9:16.) And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation: And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad. (Jno. 11:51, 52.)

p. This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. (Mat. 26:28.) So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many: and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. (Heb. 9:28.)

q. Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer. (Ps. 4:1.) Hear me, O Lord; for thy loving-kindness is good: turn unto me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies. (Ps. 69:16.) And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. (Ps. 106:45.) Be ye therefore merciful, as your father also is merciful. (Luke 6:36.)

Chapter 21.

a. And when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples. (Mk. 11:1.) And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south. (Zech. 14:4.)

b. For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich. (II Cor. 8:9.)

c. Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass. (Zech. 9:9.)

d. Then they hasted, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew with trumpets, saying, Jehu is king! (II Ks. 9:13.)

e. Save now, I beseech thee, O Lord: O Lord, I beseech thee, send now prosperity. (Ps. 118:25.)

f. And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves. (Mk. 11:15.) And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought. (Luke 19:45.)

g. Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world. (Jno. 6:14.)

h. And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables. (Jno. 2:15).

i. Then shalt thou turn it into money, and bind up the money in thine hand, and shalt go unto the place which the Lord thy God shall choose. (Dt. 14:25.)

j. Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger. (Ps. 8:2.)

k. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. (I Cor. 13:2.)

l. Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. (Mat. 7:7.) Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. (Js. 5:16.)

m. And he said, Who made thee a prince and a judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known. (Ex. 2:14.) And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have ye done this? (Acts 4:7.)

24 And [n]Jē'ṣus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

25 The baptism of Jŏhn, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; for all hold Jŏhn as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jē'ṣus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

28 ¶ [9]But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not.

31 Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jē'ṣus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 For Jŏhn came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 ¶ [10]Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, [o]which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country:

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, [p]that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And the [q]husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, [r]This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

39 And they [s]caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

41 They say unto him, [t]He will miserably destroy those wicked men, [u]and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

9. In vs. 28-32 is the parable of the two sons, in which Christ reveals to the people their mock piety and its effect.

10. In vs. 33-46 is an account of the parable of the wicked husbandman.

Ch. 22. A. D. 33.

1. In vs. 1-14 is the parable of the marriage of the king's son, and is nowhere recorded except by Mat. In this parable Christ illustrates God's dealings with the Jews in vs. 1-7, while in vs. 8-10 is traced the vocation of the Gentiles to the day of judgment. In vs. 11-14 he condemns those who, like the Pharisee, are clad in their own righteousness.

2. Alluding to the preaching of the apostles and the seventy before the death of Christ.

3. The Jews.

4. Because of their effrontery and rejection of his invitation.

5. Representing those who had rejected Christ and had clad themselves in the garment of their own righteousness.

42 Jē'ṣus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

43 Therefore say I unto you, [v]The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, [w]it will grind him to powder.

45 And when the chief priests and Phăr'ĭ-sees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

CHAPTER 22.

1 The parable of the marriage of the king's son. 12 The punishment of him that wanted the wedding garment. 15 Tribute ought to be paid to Cæsar. 23 Christ confuteth the Sadducees for the resurrection: 34 and answereth the lawyer, which is the first and great commandment.

1 [1]And Jē'ṣus answered [a]and spake unto them again by parables, and said,

2 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son,

3 And sent forth his [2]servants to call them that [2]were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And the [b]remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth [c]his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were [d]not [4]worthy.

9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the highways, and [e]gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 ¶ And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man [f]which had not on a [5]wedding garment:

n. He taketh the wise in their own craftiness; and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong. (Job 5:13.)

o. Thou preparedst room before it, and didst cause it to take deep root, and it filled the land. (Ps. 80:9.) Now will I sing to my well-beloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My well-beloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill. (Is. 5:1.) Yet I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed; how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me? (Jer. 2:21.)

p. Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon; he let out the vineyard unto keepers; every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver. (Song 8:11.)

q. And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the Lord. (II Chr. 24:21.) Rejoice, and be exceeding glad; for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. (Mat. 5:12.)

r. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possessions. (Ps. 2:8.)

s. Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain. (Acts 2:23.)

t. How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him. (Heb. 2:3.)

u. Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. (Acts 13:46.)

v. The children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. (Mat. 8:12.)

w. For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted. (Is. 60:12.)

Chapter 22.

a. Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many. (Luke 14:16.) And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God. (Rev. 19:9.)

b. Who both killed the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men. (I Thess. 2:15.)

c. The people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. (Dan. 9:26.) But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me. (Luke 19:27.)

d. And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence. (Mat. 10:11.) Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. (Acts 13:46.)

e. The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one. (Mat. 13:38.)

f. If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked. (II Cor. 5:3.) And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. (Eph. 4:24.) Thou hast a few names in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy. (Rev. 3:4.)

12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he [g]was speechless.

13 Then said the king to his servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

14 For [h]many are called, but few are chosen.

15 ¶ [6]Then went the Phăr'ĭ-seeş, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk.

16 And they sent out unto him their disciples with the He-rō'dĭ-anş, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Çæ'şar, or not?

18 But Jē'şus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny.

20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription?

21 They say unto him, Çæ'şar's. Then saith he unto them, [i]Render therefore unto Çæ'şar the things which are Çæ'şar's; and unto God the things that are God's.

22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

23 ¶ [7]The same day came to him the Săd'-du-çeeş, [j]which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him,

24 Saying, Master, [k]Mō'şeş said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 Jē'şus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, [l]not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 [s]For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as [m]the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

32 I [n]am the God of A'bră-hăm, and the God of Ī'şaac, and the God of Jā'cob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, [o]they were astonished at his doctrine.

34 ¶ [8]But when the Phăr'ĭ-seeş had heard that he had put the Săd'du-çeeş to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them, which was [p]a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, 36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?

37 Jē'şus [10]said unto him, [q]Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is [11]like unto it, [r]Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40 On [s]these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

41 ¶ [12]While the [t]Phăr'ĭ-seeş were gathered together, Jē'şus asked them, 42 Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of Dā'vid.

43 He saith unto them, How then doth Dā'-vid in [u]spirit call him Lord, saying,

44 The [v]Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

45 If Dā'vid then call him Lord, how is he his son?

46 And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

CHAPTER 23.

1 Christ admonisheth the people not to follow the evil examples of the scribes and Pharisees. 5 His disciples must beware of their ambition.

1 Then [1]spake Jē'şus to the multitude, and to his disciples,

2 Saying, [a]The scribes and the Phăr'ĭ-seeş sit in Mō'şeş' seat:

3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for [b]they say, and do not.

4 For [c]they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

6. In vs. 15-46 the Pharisees, and others of their kind, ask many questions of Jesus about tribute, the resurrection and the great commandment.

7. In vs. 23-33 is an account of the questions of the Sadducees and Christ's answer.

8. Christ corrects their error concerning human relations in heaven.

9. In vs. 34-40 is an account of the questions with the lawyer.

10. Not only the greatest, but that which embraces all the others.

11. That is, founded in love.

12. In vs. 41-46 is an account of our Lord's questioning the Pharisees concerning what they think of Christ.

Ch. 23. A. D. 33.

1. In this ch., Christ reproves the scribes and Pharisees, pronounces his lamentation over Jerusalem and his farewell to the temple.

g. Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. (Rom. 3:19.)

h. So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen. (Mat. 20:16.)

i. And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Cesar the things that are Cesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him. (Mk. 12:17.) And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cesar the things which be Cesar's, and unto God the things which be God's. (Luke 20:25.) Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor. (Rom. 13:7.)

j. For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess both. (Acts 23:8.) Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? (I Cor. 15:12.)

k. And Er, Judah's first-born, was wicked in the sight of the Lord; and the Lord slew him. And Judah said unto Onan, Go in unto thy brother's wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to thy brother. (Gen. 38:7, 8.) If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry without unto a stranger: her husband's brother shall go in unto her, and take her to him to wife, and perform the duty of an husband's brother unto her. (Dt. 25:5.)

l. For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead. (Jno. 20:9.) Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart. (Eph. 4:18.)

m. Beloved, now are we the sons of God; and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. (I Jno. 3:2.)

n. Moreover he said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face; for he was afraid to look upon God. (Ex. 3:6.) And as touching the dead, that they rise; have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? (Mk. 12:26.) But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; for he hath prepared for them a city. [2](Heb. 11:16.)

o. And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine. (Mat. 7:28.)

p. And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? (Luke 10:25.)

q. And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. (Dt. 6:5.) And now, Israel, what doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to fear the Lord thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul. (Dt. 10:12.) My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways. (Prov. 23:26.)

r. Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people; but thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself: I am the Lord. (Lev. 19:18.) Honor thy father and thy mother; and, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. (Mat. 19:19.) If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, ye do well. (Js. 2:8.)

s. Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the Law and the Prophets. (Mat. 7:12.)

t. And he said unto them, How say they that Christ is David's son? (Luke 20:41.)

u. The Spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his word was in my tongue. (II Sam. 23:2.)

v. The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool. (Ps. 110:1.) For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. (I Cor. 15:25.) But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool? (Heb. 1:13.)

Chapter 23.

a. And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, etc. (4). So they read in the book, in the law of God, distinctively, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading. (Neh. 8:4, 8.)

b. Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonorest thou God? (Rom. 2:23.)

c. Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and that write

5 But [d]all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

6 And [e]love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues,

7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Răb'bī, Răb'bī.

8 But be not ye called Răb'bī: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren.

9 And call no man your father upon the earth: [f]for one is your Father, which is in heaven.

10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.

11 But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.

12 And [g]whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

13 ¶ [2]But [h]woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

14 Woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, hypocrites! [i]for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

16 Woe unto you, [j]ye blind guides, which say, [k]Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!

17 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?

18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.

19 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by [l]him that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by [m]the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 Woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, hypocrites! [n]for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have [o]omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24 Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

25 Woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

26 Thou blind Phăr'ĭ-see, cleanse first that which is [p]within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 Woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, hypocrites! [q]for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.

28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 Woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous,

30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.

32 Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.

33 Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, [r]how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

34 ¶ [3]Wherefore, [4]behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and [s]some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:

35 That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, [t]from the blood of righteous Ā'bel unto the blood of Zăch-a-rī'as son of Băr-a-chī'as, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

36 Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

37 O Je-rŭ'sa-lĕm, Je-rŭ'sa-lĕm, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would [u]I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

38 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.

2. In vs. 13-33, eight woes are pronounced upon the existing despotism.

3. In vs. 34-39 is our Lord's farewell to Jerusalem.

4. That is, because of your great wickedness the following shall take place.

grievousness which they have prescribed. (Is. 10:1.) Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? (Acts 15:10.)

d. Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them; otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven. (Mat. 6:1.)

e. Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the high seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts. (Luke 20:46.)

f. A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honor? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the Lord of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name? (Mal. 1:6.)

g. The fear of the Lord is the instruction of wisdom; and before honor is humility. (Prov. 15:33.) Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honor the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase. (Dan. 4:37.) But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble. (Js. 4:6.)

h. Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye enter not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered. (Luke 11:52.)

i. For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts. (II Tim. 3:6.) Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. (Tit. 1:11.)

j. His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. (Is. 56:10.) Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch. (Mat. 15:14.)

k. Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths: But I say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is God's throne. (Mat. 5:33, 34.)

l. I have surely built thee an house to dwell in, a settled place for thee to abide in for ever. (I Ks. 8:13.) Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place where thine honor dwelleth. (Ps. 26:8.)

m. The Lord is in his holy temple, the Lord's throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try, the children of men. (Ps. 11:4.) But I say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is God's throne. (Mat. 5:34.) Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord; or what is the place of my rest? (Acts 7:49.)

n. But woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue, and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. (Luke 11:42.)

o. For I desired mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings. (Hos. 6:6.) He hath shown thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God. (Mic. 6:8.)

p. Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled. (Tit. 1:15.)

q. Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, Thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law? (Acts 23:3.)

r. O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. (Mat. 12:34.)

s. And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. (Acts 5:40.)

t. Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous. (I Jno. 3:12.)

u. As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings; So the Lord alone did lead him, and there was no strange god with him. (Dt. 32:11, 12.)

39 For I say unto you, [v]Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

CHAPTER 24.

1 Christ foretelleth the destruction of the temple: 3 what calamities shall be before it. 29 The signs of his coming to judgment.

1 And [1]Jē'şus [a]went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jē'şus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, [b]There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 ¶ And as he sat upon the mount of Ŏl'ĭveş, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, [c]Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

4 [2]And Jē'şus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 For [d]many shall come in my name, saying, I am Chrīst; and shall deceive many.

6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 [3]For [e]nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 Then [f]shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

10 And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And many false prophets shall rise, [g]and shall deceive many.

12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

13 But [h]he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

15 [4]When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by [i]Dăn'iel the prophet, stand in the holy place, ([j]whoso readeth, let him understand:)

16 Then let them which be in Jū-dæ'ā flee into the mountains:

Ch. 24. A. D. 33.

1. In vs. 1-39 Jesus foretells the destruction of Jerusalem.

2. In vs. 4-6 Christ warns the people not to confound Jerusalem's destruction with the end of the world.

3. In vs. 7-14 Jesus likens the commotion preceding the destruction of the city with the millennial evangelization previous to the end.

4. In vs. 15-27 Christ describes the trials of the siege and draws the contrast between the Son of Man and the false Messiah.

5. In vs. 28-31 Christ draws the comparison between the calamities of the Jews and the final end.

6. In vs. 29-31 is a picture of the appearance of the heavens at the second coming of Christ.

7. In vs. 32-51 are told the general signs of the coming of Christ and the suddenness thereof.

17 Let him which is on the house top not come down to take any thing out of his house:

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

19 And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day:

21 For [j]then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: [k]but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Chrīst, or there; believe it not.

24 For [l]there shall arise false Chrīsts, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, [m]if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

28 [5]For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 ¶ [6]Immediately [n]after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

30 And [o]then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, [p]and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

31 And [q]he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

32 [7]Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.

34 Verily I say unto you, This genĕration shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.

35 Heaven [r]and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

---

v. Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the Lord: we have blessed you out of the house of the Lord. (Ps. 118:26.) And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, Saying, Hosanna to the son of David! Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest! (Mat. 21:9.)

Chapter 24.

a. And as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here! (Mk. 13:1.)

b. Then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and this house, which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight; and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all people. (I Ks. 9:7.) Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are not the Lord's. (Jer. 5:10.) Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest. (Jer. 26:18.)

c. But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you. (I Thess. 5:1.)

d. I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran; I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. (Jer. 23:21.) I am come in my Father's name, and ye received me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive. (Jno. 5:43.)

e. And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother. (Hag. 2:22.)

f. And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. (Acts 7:59.) Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church. (Acts 12:1.)

g. Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils. (I Tim. 4:1.)

h. For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end. (Heb. 3:14.)

i. From the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days. (Dan. 12:11.)

j. And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people; and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book. (Dan. 12:1.)

k. Thus saith the Lord, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not; for a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all. (Is. 65:8.)

l. If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and giveth thee a sign or a wonder. (Dt. 13:1.) Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, and with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. (II Thess. 2:9, 10.)

m. Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having his seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity. (II Tim. 2:19.) Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. (I Pet. 1:5.)

n. I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame. (Dan. 7:11.)

o. I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. (Dan. 7:13.)

p. Behold, he cometh with clouds: and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. (Rev. 1:7.)

q. In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. (I Cor. 15:52.) For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first. (I Thess. 4:16.)

r. Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath; for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in 36 ¶ But [s]of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

37 But as the days of Nō'e were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Nō'e entered into the ark,

39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 ¶ Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

43 But [t]know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

45 Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

46 Blessed [u]is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

47 Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming;

49 And shall begin to smite his fellowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;

50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of.

51 And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him [v]his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAPTER 25.

1 The parable of the ten virgins, 14 and of the talents. 31 Also the description of the last judgment.

1 [1]Then [2]shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet [a]the bridegroom.

2 And [b]five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

Ch. 25. A. D. 33.

1. In vs. 1-13 is the parable of the 10 virgins, recorded only by Mat.

2. The judgment day.

3. The awakening of the dead at the resurrection.

4. A symbol of those who find themselves without the grace of God in the day of judgment.

5. Descriptive of the fact that the door of heaven will be closed to all who have not the oil (i. e., grace of God) in their hearts.

6. In vs. 14-30 is an account of the parable of the talents.

7. That is, trust, responsibility to be met, an obligation, a duty; not ability, as many have interpreted, for the talents were given according to their several abilities.

8. Not the vicious, but the man of omission: the one who makes no effort at the discharge of his obligations or trust.

9. "Well done," not because of the merit of the work, for our sins always overbalance all our good; but "well done" for the purpose or effort of doing our best.

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight [c]there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those [3]virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said [4]unto the wise, Give us of [4]your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: [d]and [5]the door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, [e]Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, [f]I know you not.

13 Watch [g]therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 ¶ [6]For the kingdom of heaven is [h]as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five [7]talents, to another two, and to another one; to [i]every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and [j]traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one went and digged [8]in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, [9]Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will [k]make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into [l]the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished. (Is. 51:6.) They [the heavens] shall perish; but thou remainest: and they all shall wax old as doth a garment. (Heb. 1:11.)

s. And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power. (Acts 1:7.) For yourselves know perfectly, that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. (I Thess. 5:2.)

t. Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. (Rev. 16:15.)

u. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. (II Tim. 4:7, 8.) Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. (Rev. 16:15.)

v. Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup. (Ps. 11:6.) But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. (Mat. 8:12.)

Chapter 25.

a. For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church. (Eph. 5:29.) Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honor to him; for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. (Rev. 19:7.)

b. So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests. (Mat. 22:10.)

c. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with a voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first. (I Thess. 4:16.)

d. When once the Master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are. (Luke 13:25.)

e. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. (Mat. 7:21.)

f. The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity. (Ps. 5:5.) Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he. (Hab. 1:13.)

g. Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is. (Mk. 13:33.) Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong. (I Cor. 16:13.) Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. (I Pet. 5:8.) Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. (Rev. 16:15.)

h. There was a certain householder which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, . . . and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country. (Mat. 21:33.)

i. Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith. (Rom. 12:6.) But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. (I Cor. 12:7.) And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers. (Eph. 4:11.)

j. For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold. (Prov. 3:14.) As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. (I Pet. 4:10.)

k. And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me. (Luke 22:29.) To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne. (Rev. 3:21.)

l. Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance. (Acts 2:28.) Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. (Heb. 12:2.) If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us. (II Tim. 2:12.)

two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:

25 And I was [10]afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

29 [m]For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.

30 And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 ¶ [11]When the [n]Son of [12]man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:

32 And [o]before him shall be gathered all nations; and [p]he shall [13]separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats:

33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my [q]Father, inherit the kingdom [r]prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

35 For [s]I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

36 Naked, [t]and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

10. A symbol of the moral coward.

11. In vs. 31-46 is a picture of the final judgment.

12. In every instance where the judgment scene is spoken of, the Son and not the Father is the visible judge.

13. The first separation of the good and the bad. Until now they have been allowed to live together.

Ch. 26. A. D. 33.

1. In vs. 1-16 is an account of Christ's last announcement of his death, which is to occur within the next two days, the anointing at Bethany, and Judas' agreement with the chief priests to betray his Lord.

2. Christ's ministry is now finished.

3. The sayings of the preceding ch.

4. The feast commemorating the passing of the death-angel over the Israelitish homes when the first-born of the Egyptians were cut down.

5. In vs. 6-16 is an account of the woman's anointing Jesus and the indignation of Judas at the loss of the ointment.

38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, [u]Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

41 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for [v]the devil and his angels:

42 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:

43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, [w]Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

46 And [x]these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

CHAPTER 26.

1 The rulers conspire against Christ. 14 Judas selleth him. 47 Christ, being betrayed with a kiss, 57 is carried to Caiaphas, 69 and denied of Peter.

1 [1]And it came to [2]pass, when Jē'ṣus had finished all these [3]sayings, he said unto his disciples,

2 Ye [a]know that after two days is the feast of the [4]passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Cā'ia-phăs,

4 And consulted that they might take Jē'ṣus by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 ¶ [5]Now [b]when Jē'ṣus was in Bĕth'ă-nў, in the house of Sī'mon the leper,

7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.

8 But [c]when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

m. Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have. (Luke 8:18.) Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away; and every branch that beareth fruit he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. (Jno. 15:2.)

n. And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal; yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the Lord my God shall come, and all the saints with thee. (Zech. 14:5.) Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven. (Acts 1:11.) For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first. (I Thess. 4:16.) So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. (Heb. 9:28.)

o. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. (II Cor. 5:10.) And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God: and the books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. (Rev. 20:12.)

p. And I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and ye shall know that I am the Lord. (Ez. 20:38.) And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the he-goats. (Ez. 34:17.) So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just. (Mat. 13:49.)

q. And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. (Rom. 8:17.) He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son. (Rev. 21:7.)

r. But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. (I Cor. 2:9.) But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; for he hath prepared for them a city. (Heb. 11:16.)

s. Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh? (Is. 58:7.)

t. If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit? (Js. 2:15, 16.)

u. He that oppresseth the poor reproacheth his Maker: but he that honoreth him hath mercy on the poor. (Prov. 14:31.)

v. And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains, under darkness, unto the judgment of the great day. (Jude 6.)

w. Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker. (Prov. 17:5.) For thus saith the Lord of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you; for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye. (Zech. 2:8.)

x. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. (Dan. 12:2.) And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation. (Jno. 5:29.)

Chapter 26.

a. After two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death. (Mk. 14:1.)

b. Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha. (It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.) (Jno. 11:1, 2.)

c. Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him (4). This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein. (Jno. 12:4, 6.)

9 For this ointment might have been [6]sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 When Jē'şus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 For [d]ye have the poor always with you; but [e]me ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.

13 Verily I say unto you, [f]Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

14 ¶ Then [g]one of the twelve, called Jū'das Is-căr'ĭ-ot, went unto the chief priests, 15 [7]And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 ¶ [8]Now [h]the first [9]day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jē'şus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the [10]city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jē'şus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

20 [11]Now when the even [12]was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, He that [i]dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth [j]as it is written of him: but [k]woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 Then Jŭ'das, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 ¶ [13]And as they were eating, Jē'şus [l]took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is [m]my body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

6. An indication of the covetous heart of Judas.

7. In this verse Judas seeks to make a bargain for the betrayal of Christ.

8. In vs. 17-19 is an account of the two disciples sent to prepare the passover.

9. Thursday, the day before crucifixion.

10. Jerusalem.

11. In vs. 20-25 is given an account of the last supper.

12. The passover evening.

13. In vs. 26-29 is recorded the institution of the Lord's supper.

14. In vs. 31-35 is given the information to Peter that he will deny his Lord.

15. In vs. 36-46 is given an account of the agonies of Gethsemane.

16. The elect of the elect.

17. The first pang of the terrible hour is now felt.

18. This prayer is here recorded doubtless for the fact of illustrating that one may ask for relief only to the point of the divine will.

28 For [n]this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many [o]for the remission of sins.

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Ōl'ĭvēş.

31 [14]Then saith Jē'şus unto them, All [p]ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am risen again, [q]I will go before you into Găl'ĭ-lee.

33 Pē'tēr answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

34 Jē'şus said unto him, [r]Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Pē'tēr said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 ¶ [15]Then [s]cometh Jē'şus with them unto a place called Gĕth-sĕm'a-ne, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him [16]Pē'tēr and the two sons of Zĕb'e-dee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.

38 [17]Then saith he unto them, [t]My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch [u]with me.

39 And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and [v]prayed, saying, [18]O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless [w]not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Pē'tēr, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 Watch [x]and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest:

---

d. For the poor shall never cease out of the land: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land. (Dt. 15:11.)

e. And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. (Jno. 17:11.)

f. First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. (Rom. 1:8.)

g. And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them. (Mk. 14:10.) Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve. (Luke 22:3.) Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him. (Mat. 10:4.)

h. And ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening. (Ex. 12:6.) Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed. (Luke 22:7.)

i. Yea, mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me. (Ps. 41:9.)

j. And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel. (Gen. 3:15.) And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined. (Dan. 9:26.) For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures. (I Cor. 15:3.)

k. While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled. (Jno. 17:12.)

l. For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread. (I Cor. 11:23.)

m. The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? (I Cor. 10:16.)

n. And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the Lord hath made with you concerning all these words. (Ex. 24:8.) For the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul. (Lev. 17:11.)

o. But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many. (Rom. 5:15.)

p. Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. (Jno. 16:32.)

q. And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead, and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you. (Mat. 28:7.)

r. And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me. (Luke 22:34.)

s. When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples. (Jno. 18:1.)

t. Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour. (Jno. 12:27.)

u. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. (I Pet. 5:8.)

v. And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt. (Mk. 14:36.) Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications, with strong crying and tears, unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared. (Heb. 5:7.)

w. I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me. (Jno. 5:30.) And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. (Phil. 2:8.)

x. Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints. (Eph. 6:18.)

THE LAST SUPPER. F. Von Schlegel.

behold, the [19]hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47 ¶ [20]And [y]while he yet spake, lo, Jū'das, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast.

49 And forthwith he came to Jē'sus, and said, Hail, master; and kissed him.

50 And Jē'sus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jē'sus, and took him.

51 And, behold, one of them which were with Jē'sus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jē'sus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: [z]for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels?

54 But how then shall the [aa]scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jē'sus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the [bb]scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

57 ¶ [21]And they that had laid hold on Jē'sus led him away to Cā'ia-phās the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Pē'tēr followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jē'sus, to put him to death;

60 But found none: yea, though many [cc]false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two [dd]false witnesses, 61 And said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

1. In vs. 1-14 is an account of Jesus before Pilate, and the remorse and suicide of Judas.

2. Friday, the day of the crucifixion.

63 But [ee]Jē'sus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, [ff]I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Chrīst, the Son of God.

64 Jē'sus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, [gg]Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

65 Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

66 What think ye? They answered and said, [hh]He is guilty of death.

67 Then [ii]did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with the palms of their hands, 68 Saying, Prophesy unto us, thou Chrīst, Who is he that smote thee?

69 ¶ [22]Now Pē'tēr sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jē'sus of Găl'ī-lee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jē'sus of Năz'a-rēth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Pē'tēr, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75 And Pē'tēr remembered the word of Jē'sus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and [jj]wept bitterly.

CHAPTER 27.

1 Christ is delivered bound to Pilate. 3 Judas hangeth himself. 19 Pilate, admonished of his wife, 24 washeth his hands. 29 Christ is crowned with thorns, 34 crucified, 50 dieth, and is buried.

1 [1]When the morning [2]was come, [a]all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jē'sus to put him to death:

2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and [b]delivered him to Pŏn'tī-us Pī'late the governor.

y. And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him. (Luke 22:47.) Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David, spake before concerning Judas, which was guide to them that took Jesus. (Acts 1:16.)

z. Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man. (Gen. 9:6.)

aa. And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined. (Dan. 9:26.)

bb. The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the Lord, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen. (Lam. 4:20.) See Ps. 22; Is. 53.

cc. And set two men, sons of Belial, before him, to bear witness against him, saying, Thou didst blaspheme God and the king: and then carry him out, and stone him, that he may die. (I Ks. 21:10.) Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty. (Ps. 27:12.) False witnesses did rise up: they laid to my charge things that I knew not. (Ps. 35:11.)

dd. One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: at the mouth of two witnesses or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established. (Dt. 19:15.)

ee. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. (Is. 53:7.) And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing. (Mat. 27:12.)

ff. And if a soul sin, and hear the voice of swearing, and is a witness, whether he hath seen or known of it; if he do not utter it, then he shall bear his iniquity. (Lev. 5:1.) And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the name of the Lord? (I Ks. 22:16.)

gg. The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool. (Ps. 110:1.) But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. (Rom. 14:10.) And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man. (Jno. 1:51.) For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first. (I Thess. 4:16.)

hh. He that blaspheme th the name of the Lord, he shall surely be put to death, and all the congregation shall certainly stone him; as well the stranger, as he that is born in the land, when he blasphemeth the name. (Lev. 24:16.) The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God. (Jno. 19:7.)

ii. I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting. (Is. 50:6.) He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not. (Is. 53:3.)

jj. And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications; and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born. (Zech. 12:10.) For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. (II Cor. 7:10.)

Chapter 27.

a. The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord, and against his Anointed, saying. (Ps. 2:2.) And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people, and the chief priests, and the scribes, came together, and led him into their council. (Luke 22:66.)

b. The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go. (Acts 3:13.)

3 ¶ [3]Then [c]Jū'das, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, [d]and departed, and went and hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day.

9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jĕr'e-mȳ the prophet, saying, [e]And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Is'ra-el did value;

10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

11 [4]And Jē'sus stood before the governor: and the [f]governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jē'sus said unto him, [g]Thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.

13 Then said Pī'late unto him, Hearest [h]thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

15 Now at [i]that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Ba-răb'bas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pī'late said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Ba-răb'bas, or Jē'sus which is called Chrīst?

18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19 ¶ When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a [j]dream because of him.

20 But the [k]chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Ba-răb'bas, and destroy Jē'sus.

21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Ba-răb'bas.

22 Pī'late saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jē'sus which is called Chrīst? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 ¶ When Pī'late saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, [l]His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 ¶ [5]Then released he Ba-răb'bas unto them: and when [m]he had [5]scourged Jē'sus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jē'sus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.

29 ¶ And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

30 And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, [n]and led him away to crucify him.

32 [7]And [o]as they came out, [p]they found a man of Çȳ-rē'ne, Sī'mon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.

33 And when they were come unto a place called Gŏl'go-thà, that is to say, a place of a skull, 34 ¶ They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 [8]And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down they watched him there;

37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JĒ'SUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then were there two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 ¶ [9]And [q]they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, 40 And saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

c. That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment? (5). He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again: God shall cast them out of his belly. (Job 20:5, 15.)

d. But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee. (Ps. 55:23.) Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out. (Acts 1:18.) For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. (II Cor. 7:10.)

e. And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver. And the Lord said unto me, Cast it unto the potter: a goodly price that I was prized at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the Lord. (Zech. 11:12, 13.)

f. And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, Thou sayest it. (Mk. 15:2.)

g. I give thee charge in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession; (I Tim. 6:13.)

h. Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee? (Jno. 19:10.)

i. Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired. (Mk. 15:6.) But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? (Jno. 18:39.)

j. In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed; Then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction. (Job 33:15, 16.)

k. But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them. (Mk. 15:11.) Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber. (Jno. 18:40.)

l. That innocent blood be not shed in thy land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and so blood be upon thee. (Dt. 19:10.) And David said unto him, Thy blood be upon thy head; for thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain the Lord's anointed. (II Sam. 1:16.)

m. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. (Is. 53:5.) Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. (Jno. 19:1.)

n. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. (Is. 53:7.)

o. And set two men, sons of Belial, before him, to bear witness against him, saying, Thou didst blaspheme God and the king: and then carry him out, and stone him, that he may die. (I Ks. 21:10.) And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul. (Acts 7:58.) Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate. (Heb. 13:12.)

p. They compelled one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross. (Mk. 15:21.)

q. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying. (Ps. 22:7.) I became also a reproach unto them: when they looked upon me they shaked their heads. (Ps. 109:25.)

CHURCH OF NATIVITY.

GOLGOTHA (THE PLACE OF A SKULL).

41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Ĭs'ra-el, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43 He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

45 [10]Now [r]from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour Jē'şus cried with a loud voice, saying, Ē'lī, Ē'lī, lā'mà sā-bach-thā'nī? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for E-lī'as.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a spunge, and [s]filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether E-lī'as will come to save him.

50 ¶ Jē'şus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

51 [11]And, behold, the [t]vail of the [12]temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and [u]the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;

52 And the graves were [13]opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose, 53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy [14]city, and appeared unto many.

54 Now [v]when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jē'şus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

55 [15]And many women were there beholding afar off, which followed Jē'şus from Găl'ĭ-lee, ministering unto him:

56 Among [w]which was Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'ne, and Mā'rў the mother of Jāmeş and Jō'sēş, and the mother of Zĕb'e-dee's children.

57 When [x]the even was come, there came a rich man of Ār-ĭ-mă-thæ'à, named Jō'şeph, who also himself was Jē'şus' disciple:

58 He went to Pī'late, and begged the body of Jē'şus. Then Pī'late commanded the body to be delivered.

10. In vs. 45-50 is an account of the death of Christ and the overwhelming darkness attendant thereto.

11. In vs. 51-54 is an account of the threefold effect of the death of Christ.

12. The veil of the temple had been for the purpose of screening from view the presence of God. When Christ died, the veil was rent or torn asunder, indicating that God no longer dwelt there, for in the person of Christ he had ascended to heaven.

13. The third effect of the death of Christ—even the domain of death was shaken.

1. In vs. 1-15 is given an account of the angel's announcement that Christ is risen, his appearance to the women, and the guards' false story of the resurrection.

2. According to appointment.

59 And when Jō'şeph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'ne, and the other Mā'rў, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 ¶ [16]Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Phăr'ĭ-seeş came together unto Pī'late, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that [y]deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After [z]three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pī'late said unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, make it as sure as ye can.

66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, [aa]sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

CHAPTER 28.

1 Christ's resurrection is declared by an angel to the women. 9 He himself appeareth unto them, 19 and sendeth his disciples to baptize and teach all nations.

1 [1]In the [a]end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'ne [b]and the other Mā'rў to see the sepulchre.

2 And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for [c]the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 His [d]countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow:

4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jē'şus, which was crucified.

6 He is not here: for he is risen, [e]as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, [f]he [f]goeth before you into Găl'ĭ-lee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the sepul-

u. And Mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the Lord descended upon it in fire: and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount quaked greatly. (Ex. 19:18.) Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth. (Ps. 18:7.)

v. And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God. (Mk. 15:39.) Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man. (Luke 23:47.)

w. There were also women looking on afar off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome. (Mk. 15:40.)

x. And, behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just. (Luke 23:50.) And after this, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus. (Jno. 19:38.)

y. For of a truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together. (Acts 4:27.)

z. From that time forth began Jesus to show unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day. (Mat. 16:21.) And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry. (Mat. 17:23.) And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again. (Mat. 20:19.) And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again. (Mk. 10:34.) Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day. (Luke 9:22.) And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again. (Luke 18:33.) Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. (Jno. 2:19.)

aa. And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel. (Dan. 6:17.)

Chapter 28.

a. Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them. (Luke 24:1.) The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre. (Jno. 20:1.)

b. Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's children. (Mat. 27:56.)

c. And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments. (Luke 24:4.) And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. (Jno. 20:12.)

d. His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in color to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude. (Dan. 10:6.)

e. For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly, so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. (Mat. 12:40.)

f. But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you. (Mk. 16:7.)

chre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word.

9 ¶ [3]And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, [g]Jē'şus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Jē'şus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell [h]my brethren that they go into Găl'ĭ-lee, and there shall they see me.

11 ¶ [4]Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, 13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.

14 And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you.

3. In vs. 9, 10 is an account of the second appearance of Jesus.

4. In vs. 11-15 is an account of the false report of the guard.

5. In vs. 16-20 Christ appears to the disciples in Galilee.

6. The death of Jesus having been accomplished, the Old Dispensation is ended and all power is given unto Christ, which brought into operation the New Dispensation.

15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

16 ¶ [5]Then the eleven disciples went away into Găl'ĭ-lee, into a mountain [i]where Jē'şus had appointed them.

17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

18 And Jē'şus came and spake unto them, saying, [j]All [6]power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

19 ¶ Go ye therefore, and [l]teach [k]all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Hō'lў Ghōst:

20 Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

g. Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils. (Mk. 16:9.) And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus. (Jno. 20:14.)

h. For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the first-born among many brethren. (Rom. 8:29.) For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren. (Heb. 2:11.)

i. But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee. (Mat. 26:32.)

j. Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet. (Ps. 8:6.) Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth. (Phil. 2:9, 10.) Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him. (I Pet. 3:22.) These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful. (Rev. 17:14.)

k. The Lord hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God. (Is. 52:10.) But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. (Rom. 10:18.)

CHRIST IS RISEN

SAINT MARK

NOTE.—The author of this book is, "John, whose surname was Mark." It is the shortest book of the Gospels. The author did not report the sayings of Christ so much as he gave an account of his doings. The book is further characterized by being more minute and graphic in describing the events than are the other Gospels, also more definite in stating numbers.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Office of John the Baptist. 9 Jesus is baptized, 12 tempted, 14 he preacheth: 16 calleth Peter, Andrew, James, and John: 32 healeth many diseased persons.

1 The [1]beginning of the gospel of Jē'ṣus Chrīst, [a]the Son of God;

2 As it is [2]written in the prophets, Behold, [b]I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 The [c]voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 John [d]did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the [e]baptisms of repentance for the remission of sins.

5 And there went out unto him all the land of Jū-dæ'à, and they of Je-rụ'sa-lĕm, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jor'dan, confessing their sins.

6 And Jŏhn was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey;

7 And preached, saying, [f]there cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

8 I [g]indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you [h]with the Hō'lў Ghōst.

9 [3]And [i]it came to pass in [4]those days, that Jē'ṣus came from Năz'a-rĕth of Găl'ĭ-lee, and was baptized of Jŏhn in Jor'dan.

10 And [j]straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him:

11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, [k]Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

12 [5]And [l]immediately the spirit [6]driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Sā'tan; and was with the wild beasts; [m]and the angels ministered unto him.

14 [7]Now after that Jŏhn was put in prison, Jē'ṣus came into Găl'ĭ-lee, preaching [n]the gospel of the kingdom of God, 15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

16 [8]Now [o]as he walked by the sea of Găl'ĭ-lee, he saw Sī'mon and Ăn'drew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

17 And Jē'ṣus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw Jāmeṣ the son of Zĕb'e-dee, and Jŏhn his brother, who also were in the ship mending [9]their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zĕb'e-dee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

Ch. 1. A. D. 26-31.

1. In vs. 1-8 is given an account of the ministry of John the Baptist.

2. The 2nd and 3rd verses should come after v. 4, thus clearly indicating that v. 4 was the fulfillment of prophecy, which it was (Is. 40:3). "The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God."

3. In vs. 9-11 is an account of the baptism of Jesus.

4. The days when John was baptizing.

5. In vs. 12, 13 is an account of the temptations of Jesus.

6. Impelled, led into.

7. In vs. 14, 15 is a brief statement of Christ's ministry in Galilee.

8. In vs. 16-20 is an account of the calling of 4 disciples, Peter, Andrew, James and John.

9. The mending of the nets after the miraculous draught of fishes, recorded by Luke.

Ref. Mark. Chapter 1.

a. I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee. (Ps. 2:7.) And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. (Luke 1:35.) And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. (Mat. 4:3.) Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God. (Mat. 14:33.) God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds. (Heb. 1:1, 2.)

b. Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of hosts. (Mal. 3:1.) Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him. (Mat. 10:4.) This is he of whom it is written, Behold I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee. (Luke 7:27.)

c. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. (Is. 40:3.) As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. (Luke 3:4.) For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. (Mat. 3:3.) He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias. (Jno. 1:23.)

d. In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea. (Mat. 3:1.) And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. (Luke 3:3.) And John also was baptizing in Ænon near to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized. (Jno. 3:23.)

e. When John had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. (Acts 13:24.) To give knowledge of salvation unto his people, by the remission of their sins. (Luke 1:77.)

f. Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost. (Acts 11:16.) I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire. (Mat. 3:11.)

g. Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost. (Acts 11:16.)

h. For I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my Spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring. (Is. 44:3.) And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions. (Joel 2:28.) And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. (Acts 2:4.) And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost. (Acts 10:45.) And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning. Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost. (Acts 11:15, 16.) For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. (I Cor. 12:13.)

i. Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. But John forbade him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me? And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him. And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him: And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. (Mat. 3:13-17.) Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened, And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased. (Luke 3:21, 22.)

j. And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him. (Jno. 1:32.) And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him. (Mat. 3:16.)

k. I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee. (Ps. 2:7.) And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. (Mat. 3:17.) For he received from God the Father honor and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. (II Pet. 1:17.) And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased. (Luke 3:22.)

l. Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil. (Mat. 4:1.) See Luke 4:1-11.

m. Then the devil leaveth him; and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him. (Mat. 4:11.)

n. And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungered. And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. (Mat. 4:2, 3.)

o. And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers. (Mat. 4:18.) Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. (Luke 5:4.) One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ. And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona:

21 [10]And [p]they went into Ca-pĕr'na-ŭm; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

22 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, 24 Saying, Let us alone; [q]what have we to do with thee, thou Jĕ'sus of [r]Năz'a-rĕth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the [s]Holy One of God.

25 And Jĕ'sus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit had [11]torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all [t]amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Găl'ĭ-lee.

29 [12]And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Sī'mon and An'drew, with Jāmes and John.

30 But Sī'mon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.

34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and [u]suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him.

35 And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and [v]there prayed.

36 And Sī'mon and they that were with him followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

10. In vs. 21-28 is an account of the healing of the demoniac at Capernaum.

11. That is, convulse him.

12. In vs. 29-39 is given an account of the healing of Peter's mother-in-law and others.

13. In vs. 40-45 is an account of the healing of a leper. The parallel account is recorded in Mat. 8:2-8.

Ch. 2. A. D. 31.

1. In vs. 1-12 is given an account of the curing of the man sick of the palsy. The parallel account is recorded in Mat. 9:2-8.

38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for [w]therefore came I forth.

39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Găl'ĭ-lee, and [x]cast out devils.

40 [13]And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou [y]canst make me clean.

41 And Jĕ'sus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean.

42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.

43 And he straitly charged him, and forthwith sent him away;

44 And saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things [z]which Mō'sĕs commanded, for a testimony unto them.

45 But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jĕ'sus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Christ healeth one sick of the palsy, 14 calleth Matthew from the receipt of custom, 18 and excuseth his disciples for not fasting.

1 [1]And again he entered into Ca-pĕr'na-ŭm after some days; and it was noised that he was in the house.

2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and [a]he preached the word unto them.

3 And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four.

4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay.

5 When [b]Jĕ'sus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, [c]Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.

---

thou shalt be called Cephas, which is, by interpretation, A stone. (Jno. 1:40-42.)

p. And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim. (Mat. 4:13.) And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath days. And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power. And in the synagogue there was a man which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice, saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; the Holy One of God. And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not. And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out. And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about. (Luke 4:31-37.)

q. (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.) (Luke 8:29.)

r. And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me. (Mk. 10:47.) And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him. (Mk. 16:6.) Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; the Holy One of God. (Luke 4:34.) For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes. (Acts 24:5.)

s. For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. (Ps. 16:10.) But ye denied the Holy One and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you. (Acts 3:14.) Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; the Holy One of God. (Luke 4:34.) But ye denied the Holy One and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you. (Acts 3:14.)

t. And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! (Mk. 10:24.) And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt. (Mk. 14:36.) And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment, and they were affrighted. And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him. (Mk. 16:5, 6.)

u. And he straitly charged them that they should not make him known. (Mk. 3:12.) And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ, the Son of God. And he, rebuking them, suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ. (Luke 4:41.)

v. Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications, with strong crying and tears, unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared. (Heb. 5:7.) And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed. (Luke 5:16.) And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone. (Mat. 14:23.)

w. The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound. (Is. 61:1.) I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do. (Jno. 17:4.)

x. And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel. (Gen. 3:15.)

y. Ah Lord God! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched-out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee. (Jer. 32:17.)

z. And the priest shall go forth out of the camp; and the priest shall look, and, behold, if the plague of leprosy be healed in the leper; Then shall the priest command to take for him that is to be cleansed two birds alive and clean, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop (3, 4). And on the eighth day he shall take two he-lambs without blemish, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish, and three tenth deals of fine flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, and one log of oil. (Lev. 14:3, 4, 10.)

Chapter 2.

a. And he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city. (Mat. 9:1.)

b. And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh. (Eph. 2:17.) How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him. (Heb. 2:3.)

c. And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus, seeing their faith, said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee. (Mat. 9:2.) Who for-

MARY, MOTHER OF JESUS.—Carl Dolce.

6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? [d]who can forgive sins but God only?

8 And immediately [e]when Jē'ṣus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?

10 But that ye may know that the [f]Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,)

11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

13 [2]And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14 And [g]as he passed by, he saw Lē'vī the son of Āl-phæ'us sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

15 [3]And it came to pass, that, as Jē'ṣus sat at meat in [4]his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jē'ṣus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when [h]the scribes and Phăr'ī-seeṣ saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?

17 When Jē'ṣus heard it, he saith unto them, [i]They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

18 [j]And the disciples of Jŏhn and of the Phăr'ī-seeṣ used to fast: and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of Jŏhn and of the Phăr'ī-seeṣ fast, but thy disciples fast not?

19 And Jē'ṣus said unto them, Can the children of the [k]bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the [l]bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

21 No man also seweth a piece of new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.

22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles.

23 [5]And it [m]came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, to [n]pluck the ears of corn.

24 And the Phăr'ī-seeṣ said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful?

25 And he said unto them, Have ye never read [o]what Dā'vid did, when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him?

26 How he went into the house of God in the days of A-bī'a-thär the high priest, and did eat the shewbread, [p]which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him?

27 And he said unto them, The [6]sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath:

28 Therefore the Son [q]of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Christ healeth the withered hand: 13 he chooseth his twelve apostles.

1 [1]And [a]he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had a withered hand.

2 And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him.

3 And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth.

4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace.

5 And when he had [b]looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

6 And the Phăr'ī-seeṣ went forth, and straightway [c]took counsel with the He-rō'dī-anṣ against him, how they might destroy him.

7 But Jē'ṣus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great [d]multitude from Găl'ī-lee followed him, and from Jū-dæ'ā,

8 And from Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and from I-dū-mæ'ā, and from beyond Jor'dan; and they about Tȳre and Sī'don, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.

9 And he spake to his disciples, that a small

3. In vs. 15-22 is an account of the discourses of Jesus at the feast given by Levi, i. e., Mat. The parallel account is recorded in Mat. 9: 10-17.

4. Matthew's house.

5. In vs. 23-28 is an account of the plucking of the ears of corn on the Sabbath day. The parallel account is recorded in Mat. 12:1-8.

6. Man was created and afterward the Sabbath was established to subserve man's highest good; therefore "the Sabbath was made for man."

Ch. 3. A. D. 31.

1. In vs. 1-6 is an account of the withered hand restored. The parallel account is recorded in Mat. 12:9-14.

giveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases. (Ps. 103:3.) He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. (Is. 53:11.)

d. Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one. (Job 14:4.) But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared. (Ps. 130:4.) I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins. (Is. 43:25.)

e. But the Lord said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart. (I Sam. 16:7.) O let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins. (Ps. 7:9.)

f. Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. (Acts 5:31.)

g. And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom; and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him. (Mat. 9:9.) And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me. (Luke 5:27.)

h. Which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me; for I am holier than thou. These are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burneth all the day. (Is. 65:5.)

i. But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick. But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. (Mat. 9:12, 13.) For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost. (Luke 19:10.)

j. Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not? (Mat. 9:14.)

k. Draw me, we will run after thee. The king hath brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in thee: we will remember thy love more than wine: the upright love thee. (Song 1:4.)

l. Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honor to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. (Rev. 19:7.)

m. At that time Jesus went on the sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungered, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat. (Mat. 12:1.)

n. When thou comest into the standing corn of thy neighbor, then thou mayest pluck the ears with thine hand; but thou shalt not move a sickle unto thy neighbor's standing corn. (Dt. 23:25.)

o. So the priest gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but the showbread, that was taken from before the Lord, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away. (I Sam. 21:6.)

p. And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And they shall eat those things wherewith the atonement was made, to consecrate and to sanctify them: but a stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy. (Ex. 29:32, 33.)

q. For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day. (Mat. 12:8.)

Chapter 3.

a. And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue. (Mat. 12:9.) And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered. (Luke 6:6.)

b. And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other. (Luke 6:10.)

c. Then the Pharisees went out, and held a counsel against him, how they might destroy him. (Mat. 12:14.)

d. And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases. (Luke 6:17.)

ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.

10 For he had healed many; insomuch that they pressed upon him for to touch him, as many as had plagues.

11 And [e]unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, [f]Thou art the Son of God.

12 And he [g]straitly charged them that they should not make him known.

13 [2]And he goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he would: and they came unto him.

14 And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach,

15 And to have power to heal sicknesses, and [h]to cast out devils:

16 And Sī'mon he surnamed [3]Pē'tēr;

17 And Jāmeş the son of Zĕb'e-dee, and Jŏhn the brother of Jāmeş; and he surnamed them Bō-ăn-ēr'ğeş, which is, The sons of thunder:

18 And Ăn'drew, and Phĭl'ĭp, and Bär-thŏl'ŏmew, and Măt'thew, and Thŏm'as, and Jāmeş the son of Ăl-phæ'us, and Thăd-dæ'us, and Sī'mon the Cā'năan-īte, 19 [4]And Jū'das Īs-căr'ī-ot, which also betrayed him: and they went into an house.

20 And the multitude cometh together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread.

21 And when his friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, [i]He is beside himself.

22 ¶ And the scribes which came down from Je-ru'sa-lĕm said, [j]He hath Be-ĕl'ze-bŭb, and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils.

23 And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Sā'tan cast out Sā'tan?

24 And if a kingdom [k]be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

25 And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand.

26 And if Sā'tan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.

27 No [l]man can enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house.

28 Verily I say unto you, [m]All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and [5]blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme:

29 But he that shall [5]blaspheme [n]against the Hō'lў Ghōst hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation:

30 Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

31 ¶ [6]There came then his brethren and his mother, and, standing without, sent unto him, calling him.

32 And the multitude sat about him, and they said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee.

33 And he answered them, saying, [o]Who is my mother, or my brethren?

34 And he looked round about on them which sat about him, and said, Behold my mother and [p]my brethren!

35 For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

CHAPTER 4.

1 The parable of the sower, 14 and the meaning thereof. 26 The parable of the seed growing secretly. 35 Christ stilleth the tempest on the sea.

1 [1]And [a]he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve [b]asked of him the parable.

11 [2]And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the [c]mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables:

12 That [d]seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this

2. In vs. 13-19 is an account of Jesus' withdrawal to the mountain and the choice of the twelve. The parallel account is recorded in Mat. 10:2-4.

3. Meaning rock. Peter was the oldest of the apostles.

4. In vs. 19-30 is an account of the healing of a demoniac; also of the blaspheming on the part of the Pharisees. The parallel account is found in Mat. 12:32-37.

5. To vilify, to speak impiously of, to revile, to speak evil regarding, to impute evil to the character of.

6. In vs 31-35 the mother and friends of Jesus seek him.

Ch. 4. A. D. 31.

1. In vs. 1-29 is an account of the parable of the sower and the reasons for teaching in parables.

2. In vs. 11, 12, Christ states the reason for teaching in parables.

e. And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out. (Mk. 1:23.) And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ, the Son of God. And he, rebuking them, suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ. (Luke 4:41.)

f. Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped them, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God. (Mat. 14:33.) The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. (Mk. 1:1.) Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble. (Js. 2:19.)

g. And charged them that they should not make him known. (Mat. 12:16.)

h. And when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness, and all manner of disease. (Mat. 10:1.) Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases. (Luke 9:1.)

i. For neither did his brethren believe in him. (Jno. 7:5.) And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him? (Jno. 10:20.)

j. But some of them said, He casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chief of the devils. (Luke 11:15.)

k. And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand. (Mat. 12:25.)

l. Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house. (Mat. 12:29.)

m. Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men. And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come. (Mat. 12:31, 32.) And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven. (Luke 12:10.)

n. If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it. (I Jno. 5:16.) Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace? (Heb. 10:29.)

o. Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more. (II Cor. 5:16.)

p. For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the first-born among many brethren. (Rom. 8:29.) For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren. (Heb. 2:11.)

Chapter 4.

a. The same day went Jesus out of the house, and sat by the sea side. (Mat. 13:1.)

b. Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding. (Prov. 4:7.)

c. For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. (I Cor. 1:18.)

d. And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. (Is. 6:9.) Hear not this, O foolish people, and without understanding; which have eyes, and [s]parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

14 ¶ The sower soweth the word.

15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, [c]Sā'tan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word,

19 And the cares of this world, [f]and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sown on good [g]ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21 ¶ And [h]he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

22 For [i]there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And he said unto them, [j]Take heed what ye hear: with [k]what measure ye mete, it shall be [l]measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given.

25 For [l]he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 ¶ [s]And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 ¶ [m]And he said, [n]Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 And [o]with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

35 [s]And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?

41 And they [p]feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

CHAPTER 5.

1 Christ delivereth the possessed of the legion of devils. 25 He healeth the woman of the bloody issue, 35 and raiseth from death Jairus his daughter.

1 [t]And [q]they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gădˊa-rēneṣ.

2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

3. The first parable. A parable is a spiritual truth represented through or by the means of natural or material symbols.

4. With what earnestness and sincerity of heart we give attention our profit will be measured unto us.

5. In vs. 26-29 Mark quotes beautiful similes of our Lord's which are given nowhere else.

6. In vs. 35-41 is an account of Jesus' crossing the Sea of Galilee and the stilling of the tempest. For parallel account see Mat. 8:23-34 and Luke 8:22-39.

Ch. 5. A. D. 31.

1. In vs. 1-20 is an account of the healing of the Gadarene demoniacs.

see not; which have ears, and hear not. (Jer. 5:21.) And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive. (Mat. 13:14.)

e. Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices. (II Cor. 2:11.) Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. (I Pet. 5:8.)

f. Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness. (Ps. 52:7.) Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven. (Prov. 23:5.) And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! (Luke 18:24.) But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. (I Tim. 6:9.)

g. Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God. (Rom. 7:4.) Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences. (II Cor. 5:11.)

h. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. (Mat. 5:15.) No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light. (Luke 8:16.) No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light. (Luke 11:33.)

i. Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. (Mat. 10:26.) For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known. (Luke 12:2.) For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and show unto you that eternal life which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us. (I Jno. 1:2.)

j. Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God; because many false prophets are gone out into the world. (I Jno. 4:1.)

k. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? (Mat. 7:3.)

l. For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance; but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath. (Mat. 13:12.) Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have. (Luke 8:18.)

m. And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe. (Rev. 14:15.)

n. Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field. (Mat. 13:31.) Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it? (Luke 13:18.) Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. (Acts 2:41.) And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women. (Acts 5:14.)

o. All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them. (Mat. 13:34.) I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. (Jno. 16:12.)

p. Let all the earth fear the Lord: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him: For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast. (Ps. 33:8, 9.) God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him. (Ps. 89:7.) O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth. Ps. 96:9.) Forasmuch as there is none like unto thee, O Lord; thou art great, and thy name is great in might. Who would not fear thee, O King of nations? for to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee. (Jer. 10:6, 7.) So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea; and the sea ceased from her raging. Then the men feared the Lord exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice unto the Lord, and made vows. (Jon. 1:15, 16.)

Chapter 5.

a. And when he was come to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jē'şus afar off, he ran and [b]worshipped him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jē'şus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.

9 And he [2]asked [3]him, What is thy name? And he [4]answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of [c]swine feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith [d]Jē'şus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they come to Jē'şus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and [e]in his right mind: and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.

17 And [f]they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, he [g]that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit Jē'şus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and [h]began to publish in De-căp'ō-lis how great things Jē'şus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

21 And when Jē'şus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 [5]And, [i]behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Ja-ī'rus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet, 23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live.

24 And Jē'şus went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him.

25 And a certain woman, which had an issue of blood twelve years,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse,

27 When she had heard of Jē'şus, came in the press behind, and [6]touched his garment.

28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And [j]straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

30 And Jē'şus, immediately knowing in himself that [7]virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

34 And he said unto her, Daughter, [k]thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?

36 As soon as Jē'şus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, [l]Be not afraid, only believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Pē'tēr, and Jāmeş, and Jŏhn the brother of Jāmeş.

38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth.

40 And they laughed him to scorn. But [m]when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Tăl'ĭ-thà cū'mī; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.

42 And straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.

2. Christ.

3. The man.

4. The demon snatches the man's organs of speech and answers for him.

5. In vs. 22-45 is an account of Jesus healing the daughter of Jairus, also curing of the woman with the issue of blood, who encountered him on his way to the house of Jairus.

6. The expression of faith.

7. Power.

(Mat. 8:28.) And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee. (Luke 8:26.)

b. They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; and his enemies shall lick the dust. (Ps. 72:9.) That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. (Phil. 2:10, 11.)

c. And the swine, because it divideth the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carcase. (Dt. 14:8.) Which remain among the graves, and lodge in the monuments; which eat swine's flesh, and broth of abominable things is in their vessels. (Is. 65:4.)

d. And the Lord said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; but save his life. (Job 2:6.) With him is strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceiver are his. (Job 12:16.) God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongeth unto God. (Ps. 62:11.) Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come. (Eph. 1:20, 21.) Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him. (I Pet. 3:22.)

e. And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen. (Rom. 16:20.) He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. (I Jno. 3:8.)

f. Therefore they say unto God, Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways. (Job 21:14.) And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city. (Acts 16:39.) But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. (I Cor. 2:14.)

g. What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? (Ps. 116:12.) Now the man out of whom the devils were departed, besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying. (Luke 8:38.)

h. I will mention the loving-kindnesses of the Lord, and the praises of the Lord, according to all that the Lord hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving-kindnesses. (Is. 63:7.)

i. While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live. (Mat. 9:18.)

j. And said, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the Lord thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that healeth thee. (Ex. 15:26.)

k. But Jesus turned him about; and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour. (Mat. 9:22.) The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked. (Acts 14:9, 10.)

l. Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God? (Jno. 11:40.)

m. But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up. (Acts 9:40.)

RAISING THE DAUGHTER OF JAIRUS.—Gustav Richter.

43 And [n]he charged them straitly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Christ is contemned of his countrymen. 27 John Baptist is beheaded, 29 and buried. 34 The miracle of the loaves and fishes.

1 [1]And [a]he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him.

2 And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3 Is [b]not this the carpenter, the son of Mā'rў, [c]the brother of Jāmeş, and Jō'sēş, and of Jū'da, and Sī'mon? and are not his sisters here with us? and they were offended at him.

4 But Jē'şus said unto them, [d]A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 And [e]he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

6 And he marvelled because of their unbelief. And he went round about the villages, teaching.

7 ¶ [2]And [f]he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits;

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no money in their purse:

9 But be shod with sandals; and not put on two coats.

10 And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there [3]abide till ye depart from that place.

11 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake [g]off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sŏd'om and Go-mŏr'rhà in the day of judgment, than for that city.

12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent.

13 And they cast out many devils, [h]and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 [4]And king Hĕr'od heard of him; (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

Ch. 6. A. D. 31, 32.

1. In vs. 1-6 Nazareth rejects Christ the second time. The parallel record is recorded in Mat. 13:54-58 and Luke 4:16-30.

2. In vs. 7-13 is an account of the sending out and the mission of the 12 apostles. The parallel record is recorded in Mat. 10:1-15 and Luke 9:1-6.

3. A provision to save loss of time, as it was an oriental custom that when a stranger was passing through a village the people one after another must invite him to eat with them. To reject their invitation aroused an ill feeling which frequently ended in feuds and disturbances; consequently, to save so much loss of time in accepting the invitation from house to house, the 12 were commanded to remain in one house.

4. In vs. 14-16 Herod desires to see Jesus. Parallel record is found in Mat. 14:1, 2.

5. In vs. 17-29 is an account of the imprisonment and death of John the Baptist. The parallel record is found in Mat. 14:1-12 and Luke 9:7-9.

6. In vs. 30-56 is an account of the return of the 12 apostles and the success of their mission; also the feeding of the 5,000. For parallel records see Mat. 14:13-36, Luke 9:10-17 and John 6:1-24.

15 Others said, That it is E-lī'as. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 But [i]when Hĕr'od heard thereof, he said, It is Jŏhn, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 [5]For Hĕr'od himself had sent forth and laid hold upon Jŏhn, and bound him in prison for He-rō'dī-as' sake, his brother Phĭl'ĭp's wife: for he had married her.

18 For Jŏhn had said unto Hĕr'od, [j]It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.

19 Therefore He-rō'dī-as had a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:

20 For Hĕr'od feared Jŏhn, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

21 And when a convenient day was come, that Hĕr'od on his birthday made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Găl'ĭ-lee;

22 And when the daughter of the said He-rō'dĭ-as came in, [k]and danced, and pleased Hĕr'od and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23 And he sware unto her, Whatsoever [l]thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, [m]The head of Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst.

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst.

26 And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27 And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

30 [6]And [n]the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jē'şus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

---

n. And charged them that they should not make him known. (Mat. 12:16.) And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. (Luke 5:14.)

Chapter 6.

a. And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works? (Mat. 13:54.) And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read. (Luke 4:16.)

b. For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him. He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him: he was despised, and we esteemed him not. (Is. 53:2, 3.)

c. While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him. (Mat. 12:46.) But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother. (Gal. 1:19.)

d. And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honor, save in his own country, and in his own house. (Mat. 13:57.) For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honor in his own country. (Jno. 4:44.)

e. Haste thee, escape thither; for I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither. Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar. (Gen. 19:22.) And he did not many mighty works there, because of their unbelief. (Mat. 13:58.)

f. And when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness, and all manner of disease. (Mat. 10:1.)

g. But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium. (Acts 13:51.) And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles. (Acts 18:6.)

h. Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. (Js. 5:14.)

i. But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison. (Luke 3:19, 20.)

j. And if a man shall take his brother's wife, it is an unclean thing; he hath uncovered his brother's nakedness: they shall be childless. (Lev. 20:21.) Now therefore stand still, that I may reason with you before the Lord of all the righteous acts of the Lord, which he did to you and to your fathers. (I Sam. 12:7.)

k. Moreover the Lord saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched-forth necks, and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet. (Is. 3:16.)

l. Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom. (Esth. 5:3.)

m. A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel. (Prov. 12:10.)

n. Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother. (Mat. 10:2.) And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named 32 [7]And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

34 And [o]Jē'sus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and [p]he began to teach them many things.

35 And [q]when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, [r]Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and [s]two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, [t]and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

45 [8]And [u]straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before unto Bĕth-sā'ī-dà, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

47 And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

48 And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them.

49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out:

50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.

52 For [v]they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their [w]heart was hardened.

53 And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gĕn-nĕs'a-rĕt, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him, 55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that [x]they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him were made whole.

7. In vs. 32-44 is an account of the great multitudes following Jesus and the feeding of the 5,000.

8. In vs. 45-56 is an account of Jesus' walking on the sea. The parallel record is found in Mat. 14:22-36. It is to be observed that Mark makes no mention of Peter's attempt to walk upon the water.

Ch. 7. A. D. 32.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The Pharisees find fault at the disciples for eating with unwashen hands. 14 Meat defileth not the man. 24 He healeth the Syrophenician woman's daughter of an unclean spirit.

1 [1]Then came together unto him the Phăr'ī-sees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Je-ru'sa-lĕm.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with [a]defiled, that is to say, with unwashen, hands, they found fault.

3 For the Phăr'ī-sees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brasen vessels, and of tables.

5 Then the Phăr'ī-sees and scribes asked

1. In vs. 1-23 is an account of the debate between Christ and the scribes and Pharisees concerning ceremonial traditions. Parallel account is recorded in Mat. 15:1-20.

Apostles. (Luke 6:13.) And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida. (Luke 9:10.) And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him. (Luke 22:14.) Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen (2). And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles. (Acts 1:2, 26.)

o. But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd. (Mat. 9:36.) And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick. (Mat. 14:14.)

p. And all thy children shall be taught of the Lord; and great shall be the peace of thy children. (Is. 54:13.) The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound. (Is. 61:1.) And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing. (Luke 9:11.)

q. And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals. (Mat. 14:15.) And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place. (Luke 9:12.)

r. Where should I get such a great multitude as this unto all this people? for they weep unto me, saying, Give us flesh that we may eat (13). Shall the flocks and the herds be slain for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them? (Num. 11:13, 22.) And he answered and said, Should I set this before an hundred men? He said again, Give the people, that they may eat: for thus saith the Lord, They shall eat, and shall leave thereof. (II Ks. 4:43.)

s. And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes. (Mat. 14:17.) And he said unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes. (Mat. 15:34.) And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven. (Mk. 8:5.) There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many? (Jno. 6:9.)

t. As soon as ye be come into the city, ye shall straightway find him, before he go up to the high place to eat: for the people will not eat until he come, because he doth bless the sacrifice; and afterwards they eat that be bidden. Now therefore get you up; for about this time ye shall find him. (I Sam. 9:13.) And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. (Mat. 26:26.) For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving: For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer. (I Tim. 4:4, 5.)

u. And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away. (Mat. 14:22.) And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them. (Jno. 6:17.)

v. And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened? (Mk. 8:17.)

w. The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? (Jer. 17:9.) And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other. (Mk. 3:5.)

x. And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment. (Mat. 9:20.)

Chapter 7.

a. But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean (14). And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but God hath shown me that I should not call any man common or unclean. (Acts 10:14, 28.) But I said, Not so, Lord; for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth. (Acts 11:8.) Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace? (Heb. 10:29.) And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life. (Rev. 21:27.)

JESUS AND THE SYRO-PHOENICIAN WOMAN.—F. Goodall.

him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath E-şā'ias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, [b]This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

10 For Mō'şeş said, [c]Honour thy father and thy mother; and, [d]Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is [e]Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free.

12 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother;

13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

14 ¶ And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand:

15 There is [f]nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And when he was entered into the house from the people, his [2]disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him;

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 For [g]from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an [3]evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 ¶ [4]And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tȳre and Sī'dŏn, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

26 The woman was a Greek, a Sȳ-ro-phe-nĭ'-çian by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jē'şus said unto her, [h]Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the [i]devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 ¶ [5]And again, departing from the coasts of Tȳre and Sī'dŏn, he came unto the sea of Găl'ĭ-lee, through the midst of the coasts of De-căp'ŏ-lĭs.

32 And [j]they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he [k]spit, and touched his tongue;

34 And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ĕph'phă-thâ, that is, Be opened.

35 And [l]straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And [m]he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it;

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Christ feedeth the people miraculously: 22 giveth a blind man his sight: 27 and acknowledgeth that he is the Christ, who should suffer and rise again.

1 [1]In those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jē'şus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2. That is, through Peter.

3. That is, an envious eye.

4. In vs. 24-30 is an account of the healing of the daughter of the Syro-Phoenician woman. The parallel record is found in Mat. 15:21-28.

5. In vs. 31-37 is an account of the healing of the deaf and dumb man. Parallel to Mat. 29:31.

Ch. 8. A. D. 32.

1. In vs. 1-9 is an account of the feeding of the 4,000. The parallel account is recorded in Mat. 15:32-38.

Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread. (Mat. 15:2.) And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner. (Luke 11:38.)

b. Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honor me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men. (Is. 29:13.) And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only. (Mat. 17:8.)

c. [The fifth commandment.] Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. (Ex. 20:12.) Honor thy father and thy mother, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee; that thy days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee, in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. (Dt. 5:16.) For God commanded, saying, Honor thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death. (Mat. 15:4.)

d. And he that curseth his father or his mother shall surely be put to death. (Ex. 21:17.) Whoso curseth his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness. (Prov. 20:20.)

e. But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me. (Mat. 15:5.) And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty. (Mat. 23:18.) But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel. (I Tim. 5:8.)

f. But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean. And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common. (Acts 10:14, 15.) For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. (Rom. 14:17.) But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse. (I Cor. 8:8.) Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled. (Tit. 1:15.)

g. And the Lord smelled a sweet savor; and the Lord said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done. (Gen. 8:21.) For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies. (Mat. 15:19.) Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness. (Gal. 5:19.)

h. These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. (Mat. 10:5, 6.) Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. (Acts 13:46.)

i. Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you. (Mat. 9:29.) He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sitteth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. (I Jno. 3:8.)

j. As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil. (Mat. 9:32.) And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered. (Luke 11:14.)

k. When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay. (Jno. 9:6.)

l. For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast. (Ps. 33:9.) Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. (Is. 35:5.) The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them. (Mat. 11:5.)

m. He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street. (Is. 42:2.) And he charged them straitly, that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat. (Mk. 5:43.) And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town. (Mk. 8:26.)

2 I have [a]compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, From whence [b]can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, [c]and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and [d]he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

10 ¶And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dăl-ma-nū'thà.

11 [2]And the [e]Phăr'ĭ-sees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them, and entering into the ship again departed to the other side.

14 ¶ Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 And [f]he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Phăr'ĭ-sees, and of the leaven of Hĕr'od.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

17 And when Jē'sus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 When [g]I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand?

22 [3]¶ And he cometh to Bĕth-sā'ĭ-dà; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, [h]nor tell it to any in the town.

27 [4]¶ And [i]Jē'sus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cæs-a-rē'à Phĭ-lĭp'pī: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, John the Băp'tĭst: but some say, E-lī'as; and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Pē'tĕr answereth and saith unto him, [j]Thou art the Chrĭst.

30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 [5]And [k]he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Pē'tĕr took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Pē'tĕr, saying, Get thee behind me, Sā'tan: for thou [l]savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 ¶ And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, [m]Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For [n]whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

2. In vs. 11-13 is the Pharisees' demand for a sign from heaven. Parallel account recorded in Mat. 16: 1-4.

3. In vs. 22-26 is an account of the healing of the eyes of the blind man. This miracle is recorded only by Mark.

4. In vs. 27-30 is an account of the apostolic inauguration at Caesarea Philippi. Parallel record in Mat. 16:13-21.

5. In vs. 31-38 is an account of Peter's restraining Christ and our Lord's first definite announcement of his death and resurrection. For parallel account see Mat. 16:13-27 and Luke 9:18-26.

Chapter 8.

a. The Lord is good to all; and his tender mercies are over all his works. (Ps. 145:9.) Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. (Heb. 2:17.) For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. (Heb. 4:15.)

b. And there came a man from Baal-shalisha, and brought the man of God bread of the first-fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and full ears of corn in the husk thereof. And he said, Give unto the people, that they may eat. And his servitor said, What! should I set this before an hundred men? He said again, Give the people, that they may eat: for thus saith the Lord. They shall eat, and shall leave thereof. (II Ks. 4:42, 43.)

c. When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the Lord thy God for the good land which he hath given thee. (Dt. 8:10.)

d. And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and, looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude. (Mat. 14:19.)

e. Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee. (Mat. 12:38.) The Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven. (Mat. 16:1.) They said therefore unto him, What sign showest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work? (Jno. 6:30.)

f. Then Jesus said unto them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees. (Mat. 16:6.) Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us. (I Cor. 5:6, 7.)

g. And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full. (Mat. 14:20.) And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes. (Mk. 6:43.)

h. And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, show thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. (Mat. 8:4.) And he charged them straitly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat. (Mk. 5:43.)

i. When Jesus came into the coasts of Cesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am? (Mat. 16:13.) And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am? (Luke 9:18.)

j. And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. (Mat. 16:16.) And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God. (Jno. 6:69.)

k. From that time forth began Jesus to show unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day. (Mat. 16:21.) And he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing; Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day. (Luke 9:21, 22.)

l. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. (Rom. 8:7.) But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. (I Cor. 2:14.)

m. And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me. (Mat. 10:38.) Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. (Mat. 16:24.) And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. (Gal. 5:24.)

n. He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. (Jno. 12:25.) And they over-38 Whosoever [o]therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

CHAPTER 9.

2 Jesus is transfigured. 11 He instructeth his disciples concerning the coming of Elias: 14 casteth forth a dumb and deaf spirit: 30 foretelleth his death and resurrection: 33 exhorteth his disciples to humility.

1 [1]And he said unto them, [a]Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen [b]the kingdom of God come with power.

2 ¶ And after six days Jē'ṣus taketh with him Pē'tēr, and Jāmeṣ, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding [c]white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there appeared unto them E-lī'as with Mō'ṣeṣ: and they were talking with Jē'ṣus.

5 And Pē'tēr answered and said to Jē'ṣus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Mō'ṣeṣ, and one for E-lī'as.

6 For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

7 And there [d]was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: [e]hear him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jē'ṣus only with themselves.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that E-lī'as must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, E-lī'as verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and [f]how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and [g]be set at nought.

13 But I say unto you, That E-lī'as is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 ¶ [2]And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them?

17 And [h]one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit;

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.

19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

20 And they brought him unto him: and when [i]he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child.

22 And ofttimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jē'ṣus said unto him, [j]If thou canst believe, [3]all things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.

25 When Jē'ṣus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the [k]foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jē'ṣus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ [4]And they departed thence, and passed through Găl'ī-lee; and he would not that any man should know it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and

Ch. 9. A. D. 32.

1. In vs. 1-13 is an account of the transfiguration. The parallel account is recorded in Mat. 17:1-13.

2. In vs. 14-21 is an account of Christ's healing the boy possessed with a deaf and dumb demon. For parallel account see Mat. 17:14-21.

3. A promise made to those whose soul is in harmony and communion with the spirit of God.

4. In vs. 30-32 Christ foretells his death and resurrection. For parallel account see Mat. 22:23.

came him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. (Rev. 12:11.)

o. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven. (Mat. 10:33.) But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God. (Luke 12:9.) For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. (Rom. 1:16.) If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us. (II Tim. 2:12.)

Chapter 9.

a. Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom. (Mat. 16:28.) And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. (Mk. 13:26.) But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God. (Luke 9:27.)

b. And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. (Mat. 24:30.) For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come. (Luke 22:18.)

c. I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire. (Dan. 7:9.) His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow. (Mat. 28:3.)

d. Then a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle. (Ex. 40:34.) For he received from God the Father honor and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. (II Pet. 1:17.)

e. How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him. (Heb. 2:3.)

f. But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people. (Ps. 22:6.) Awake, O sword, against my Shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the Lord of hosts: smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and I will turn mine hand upon the little ones. (Zech. 13:7.)

g. And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate. (Luke 23:11.) But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. (Phil. 3:7.)

h. And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him. And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son; for he is mine only child. (Luke 9:37, 38.)

i. And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him. (Mk. 1:26.) And as he was yet a-coming, the devil threw him down and tare him. (Luke 9:42.)

j. And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; Believe in the Lord your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper. (II Chr. 20:20.) And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you. (Luke 17:6.) Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God? (Jno. 11:40.) The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed. (Acts 14:9.)

k. How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil: for God was with him. (Acts 10:38.) He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. (I Jno. 3:8.)

after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 ¶ [5]And [l]he came to Ca-pĕr'na-ŭm: and being in the house he asked them, What was it that ye [6]disputed among yourselves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.

35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

36 And [m]he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them,

37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and [n]whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ [7]And [o]John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbad him, because he followeth not us.

39 But Jē'sus said, Forbid him not: [p]for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.

40 For he that is not against us is on our part.

41 For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Chrīst, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

42 And [q]whosoever shall [8]offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

43 And if thy hand [9]offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

44 Where [r]their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

45 And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

46 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

47 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck [s]it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire:

48 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

49 For every one shall be salted with fire, and [t]every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

50 Salt [u]is good: but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will ye season it? [v]Have salt in yourselves and [w]have peace one with another.

5. In vs. 33-50 is an account of the strife among the 12 as to whom should be greatest in the kingdom of heaven. The parallel account is recorded in Mat. 18:1-9 and Luke 9:46-50.

6. Their very thoughts are known unto him

7. In vs. 38-41 Christ administers a gentle rebuke to John for his exclusiveness.

8. Caused to stumble.

9. Cause thee to offend.

CHAPTER 10.

2 Christ disputeth with the Pharisees touching divorcement: 13 blesseth the children: 46 and restoreth to Bartimæus his sight.

1 [1]And he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Jū-dæ'a by the farther side of Jor'dan: and the people resort unto him again; and, as he [a]was wont, he taught them again.

2 ¶ And the Phăr'ī-seeş came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him.

3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Mō'şeş command you?

4 And they said, [b]Mō'şeş suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jē'sus answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept.

6 But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female.

7 For [c]this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto them, [d]Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

1. In vs. 1-12 is an account of the final departure from Galilee and a discussion of the law of marriage and divorce. The parallel account is recorded in Mat. 19:1-12 and Luke 9:51.

---

l. At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven? (Mat. 18:1.) Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest. (Luke 9:46.)

m. And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them. (Mat. 18:2.) And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them. (Mk. 10:16.)

n. He that receiveth you, receiveth me; and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me. (Mat. 10:40.) And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me; and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great. (Luke 9:48.)

o. And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp. And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Moses, one of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, forbid them. (Num. 11:27, 28.)

p. Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed; and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost. (I Cor. 12:3.)

q. But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea. (Mat. 18:6.) Then said he unto the disciples, It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him through whom they come! (Luke 17:1.)

r. And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcases of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh. (Is. 66:24.) Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power. (II Thess. 1:9.)

s. For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. (Rom. 8:13.) And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. (Gal. 5:24.)

t. And every oblation of thy meat offering shalt thou season with salt; neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat offering: with all thine offerings thou shalt offer salt. (Lev. 2:13.)

u. Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savor, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men. (Mat. 5:13.)

v. Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. (Eph. 4:29.) Let your speech be alway with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man. (Col. 4:6.)

w. If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men. (Rom. 12:18.) Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another. (Rom. 14:19.)

Chapter 10.

a. And went away again beyond Jordan, into the place where John at first baptized; and there he abode. (Jno. 10:40.) Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judea again. (Jno. 11:7.) And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine. (Mk. 4:2.) And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands? (2). And he marvelled because of their unbelief. And he went round about the villages, teaching (6). And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things. (Mk. 6:2, 6, 34.) And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the son of David? (Mk. 12:35.)

b. When a man hath taken a wife, and married her, and it come to pass that she find no favor in his eyes, because he hath found some uncleanness in her: then let him write her a bill of divorcement, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house. (Dt. 24:1.) They say unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away? (Mat. 19:7.)

c. Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh. (Gen. 2:24.) Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savor, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men. (Mat. 5:13.) Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his savor, wherewith shall it be seasoned? (Luke 14:34.)

d. But I say unto you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery. (Mat. 5:32.) Honor thy father and thy mother; and, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. (Mat. 19:19.) Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery. (Luke 16:18.)

CHRIST BLESSING LITTLE CHILDREN.—Plockhorst.

13 ¶ [2]And [e]they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Jē'ṣus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for [f]of such is the kingdom of God.

15 Verily I say unto you, [g]Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 ¶ [3]And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may [h]inherit eternal life?

18 And Jē'ṣus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God.

19 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, [i]Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.

20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then Jē'ṣus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell [j]whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure [k]in heaven: and come, [l]take up the cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ And [m]Jē'ṣus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jē'ṣus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 And Jē'ṣus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for [n]with God all things are possible.

28 ¶ Then Pē'tĕr began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

2. In vs. 13-19 is an account of the little children brought to Christ. The parallel account in Mat. 19: 13-15 and Luke 18:15-17.

3. In vs. 17-31 is an account of the rich young ruler and the possibilities of one's reaching heaven whose affections are set upon the riches of the world. Parallel account in Mat. 19:16-30 and Luke 18:18-30.

4. In vs. 32-34 Christ again foretells his sufferings. Parallel account in Mat. 20:17-19.

5. Vs. 35-46 tell how James and John sought to be chiefest in the kingdom of heaven.

29 And Jē'ṣus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, [o]There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's,

30 [p]But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with [q]persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life.

31 But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

32 ¶ [4]And they were in the way going up to Je-rū'sa-lĕm; and Jē'ṣus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. [r]And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him.

33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Je-rū'sa-lĕm; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gĕn'tīleṣ:

34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again.

35 ¶ [5]And [s]Jāmeṣ and Jŏhn, the sons of Zĕb'e-dee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire.

36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you?

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

38 But Jē'ṣus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?

39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jē'ṣus said unto them, [t]Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with Jāmeṣ and Jŏhn.

42 But Jē'ṣus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gĕn'tīleṣ exercise lord-

e. And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them. (Luke 18:15.) Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me; for of such is the kingdom of heaven. And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence. (Mat. 19:13-15.)

f. Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men. (I Cor. 14:20.)

g. And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. (Mat. 18:3.) But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me; for of such is the kingdom of heaven. (Mat. 19:14.) Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein. (Luke 18:17.) Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men. (I Cor. 14:20.) As new-born babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby. (I Pet. 2:2.)

h. And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? (Luke 10:25.) And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? (Luke 18:18.) And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. (Acts 20:32.) The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints. (Eph. 1:18.) To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. (I Pet. 1:4.) Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. (Mat. 25:34.)

i. For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. (Rom. 13:9.) For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law. (Js. 2:11.)

j. And all that believed were together, and had all things common. (Acts 2:44.) That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate. (I Tim. 6:18.)

k. Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal. (Mat. 6:19, 20.)

l. Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. (Acts 14:22.)

m. Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven. (Mat. 19:23.)

n. Ah Lord God! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched-out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee. (Jer. 32:17.)

o. And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life. (Mat. 19:29.) And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake. (Luke 18:29.)

p. And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting. (Luke 18:29, 30.)

q. Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. (Acts 14:22.) Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. (II Tim. 3:12.)

r. And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. (Mk. 8:31.) Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished. (Luke 18:31.)

s. Then came to him the mother of Zebedee's children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him. (Mat. 20:20.)

t. And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. (Acts 12:2.) I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ. (Rev. 1:9.)

ship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 But [u]so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For [v]even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and [w]to give his life a ransom for many.

46 ¶ [6]And [x]they came to Jĕr'ĭ-chō: and as he went out of Jĕr'ĭ-chō with his disciples and a great number of people, blind [7]Bär-ti-mæ'us, the son of Tī-mæ'us, sat by the highway side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jē'şus of Năz'a-rĕth, he began to cry out, and say, Jē'şus, [y]thou son of Dā'vid, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of Dā'vid, have mercy on me.

49 And Jē'şus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.

50 And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jē'şus.

51 And Jē'şus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jē'şus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately [z]he received his sight, and followed Jē'şus in the way.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Christ rideth into Jerusalem: 12 curseth the fruitless tree: 15 purgeth the temple: 20 and exhorteth his disciples to stedfastness of faith, and to forgive their enemies.

1 [1]And [a]when they came nigh to Je-ru'sa-lĕm, unto Bĕth'pha-ġe and Bĕth'ă-nỹ, at the mount of Ōl'ĭveṣ, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

6. In vs. 46-52 is an account of the healing of blind Bartimæus. For parallel account see Mat. 20:29-34.

7. The prefix "bar" means son of: therefore the word Bartimæus means son of Timæus.

Ch. 11. A. D. 33.

1. In vs. 1-11 is an account of Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem on the first day of the week. The parallel account is recorded in Mat. 21:1-9, Luke 19:29-40 and John 12:12-19.

2. In vs. 11-14 is an account of the barren fig tree. The parallel account is recorded in Mat. 21:18-22.

3. Monday of passion week.

4. Unused powers are soon forfeited. "From him that hath shall be taken away," i. e., the opportunity his powers imply.

5. In vs. 15-19 is an account of the second cleansing of the temple. The parallel account is recorded in Mat. 12:13 and Luke 19:45-48.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye [b]that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jē'şus had commanded: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jē'şus, and cast their garments on him; [c]and he sat upon him.

8 And [d]many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Ho-şăn'nà; [e]Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord:

10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father Dā'vid, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Ho-şăn'nà in the highest.

11 [2]And [f]Jē'şus entered into Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bĕth'ă-nỹ with the twelve.

12 ¶ And on the [3]morrow, when they were come from Bĕth'ă-nỹ, he was hungry:

13 And [g]seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jē'şus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for [4]ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 ¶ [5]And [h]they came to Je-ru'sa-lĕm: and Jē'şus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves;

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.

17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, [i]My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves.

18 And the [j]scribes and chief priests heard

u. Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. (Mat. 20:28.) And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me; and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great. (Luke 9:48.)

v. But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men. (Phil. 2:7.) Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered. (Heb. 5:8.)

w. He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. (Is. 53:11.) And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined. (Dan. 9:26.) Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us; for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree. (Gal. 3:13.) So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. (Heb. 9:28.)

x. And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him. (Mat. 20:29.)

y. And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. (Is. 11:1.) Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh. (Rom. 1:3.) I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star. (Rev. 22:16.)

z. Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. (Is. 35:5.)

Chapter 11.

a. And when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples, Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me. And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them. (All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.) And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them, And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon. And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way. And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the son of David! Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest. (Mat. 21:1-9.) See Luke 19:29-38.

b. The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all). (Acts 10:36.) Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds. (Heb. 1:2.) And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church. (Eph. 1:22.)

c. And he had thirty sons that rode on thirty ass colts, and they had thirty cities, which are called Havoth-jair unto this day, which are in the land of Gilead. (Jud. 10:4.) Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem; behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt, the foal of an ass. (Zech. 9:9.)

d. And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way. (Mat. 21:8.)

e. Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the Lord: we have blessed you out of the house of the Lord. (Ps. 118:26.) Behold, the Lord hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him. (Is. 62:11.)

f. And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves. (Mat. 21:12.)

g. And when he saw a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away. (Mat. 21:19.)

h. And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought. (Luke 19:45.) And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting. (Jno. 2:14.)

i. Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all people. (Is. 56:7.) And many nations shall be joined to the Lord in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me unto thee. (Zech. 2:11.)

j. And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them. But when they sought to lay it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was astonished at his doctrine.

19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.

20 ¶ [6]And in the [7]morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.

21 And Pē'tēr calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.

22 And Jē'şus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God.

23 For [k]verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall [8]say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

24 Therefore I say unto you, [l]What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

25 And when ye stand praying, [9]forgive, [m]if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

26 But [n]if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

27 ¶ [10]And they come again to Je-ru'sa-lĕm: and [o]as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders,

28 And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

29 And Jē'şus answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 The baptism of Jŏhn, was it from heaven, or of men? answer me.

31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

32 But if we shall say, Of men; they feared the people: for all men counted Jŏhn, that he was a prophet indeed.

33 And they answered and said unto Jē'şus, We cannot tell. And Jē'şus answering saith unto them, Neither [p]do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

CHAPTER 12.

1 The parable of the vineyard. 13 Christ avoideth the snare of the Pharisees about paying tribute: 41 and commendeth the poor widow for her two mites.

6. In vs. 20-26 is an account of the conversation regarding the withered fig tree upon which a curse had been pronounced.

7. Tuesday of passion week.

8. Referring to moral obstacles; thus teaching that no obstacles should stand before a confiding faith in God.

9. We must first be forgiven before Jehovah can extend unto us other blessings, and he cannot forgive us as long as we hold in our hearts aught against our brother.

10. In vs. 27-33 is an account of the dialogues between Jesus and the scribes and elders who have questioned his authority. The parallel account is recorded in Mat. 21:23-27 and Luke 20:1-8.

Ch. 12. A. D. 33.

1. In vs. 1-12 is an account of the parable of the wicked husbandman. The parallel account is recorded in Mat. 21:33-46 and Luke 20:9-18.

2. In vs. 13-40 the Pharisees and scribes seek to entrap Christ by questioning him as to whom tribute is due, also questioning him concerning the resurrection and the great commandment.

3. In vs. 14-17 is recorded the discussion regarding tribute to Caesar.

1 [1]And [q]he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the winefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, [b]and killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one son, his [c]well-beloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This [d]is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be our's.

8 And they took him, and [e]killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

10 And have ye not read this scripture; [f]The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:

11 This was the Lord's doing, and it [g]is marvellous in our eyes?

12 And they [h]sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ [2]And they send unto him certain of the Phăr'ī-sees and of the He-rō'dī-anş, to catch him in his words.

14 [3]And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Çæ'şar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Çæ'şar's.

17 And Jē'şus answering said unto them, Render to Çæ'şar the things that are Çæ'şar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet. (Mat. 21:45, 46.)

k. Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done. (Mat. 21:21.) And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you. (Luke 17:6.)

l. Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. (Mat. 7:7.) And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. (Luke 11:9.) And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. (Jno. 14:13.)

m. For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. (Mat. 6:14.)

n. So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses. (Mat. 18:35.)

o. But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; for all hold John as a prophet. (Mat. 21:26.)

p. He taketh the wise in their own craftiness; and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong. (Job 5:13.)

Chapter 12.

a. Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a wine-press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country. (Mat. 21:33.) Then began he to speak to the people this parable: A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time. (Luke 20:9.)

b. But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the Lord arose against his people, till there was no remedy. (II Chr. 36:16.) Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations. (Neh. 9:26.) Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which showed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers. (Acts 7:52.) Who both killed the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men. (I Thess. 2:15.)

c. For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh. (Rom. 8:3.) But when the fulness of time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law. (Gal. 4:4.)

d. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession. (Ps. 2:8.) Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds. (Heb. 1:2.)

e. Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain. (Acts 2:23.)

f. The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner. (Ps. 118:22.) As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. (Rom. 9:33.) And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone. (Eph. 2:20.)

g. And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. (I Tim. 3:16.)

h. Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he whom they seek to kill? (25). Then they sought to take him: but no man laid

18 ¶ [4]Then [i]come unto him the Săd'du-çees, [j]which say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, [k]Mō'şeş wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jē'şus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the [l]scriptures, [m]neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither [5]marry, nor are given in marriage; but [n]are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Mō'şeş, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Ā'bră-hăm, and the God of Ī'şaac, and the God of Jā'cob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

28 ¶ [6]And [o]one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jē'şus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Ĭs'ra-el; The Lord our God is one Lord:

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, [p]Thou shalt love thy [7]neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; [q]and there is none other but he:

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is [r]more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jē'şus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 ¶ [8]And Jē'şus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Chrĭst is the son of Dā'vid?

36 For Dā'vid himself said [s]by the Hō'lў Ghōst, [t]The Lord said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 Dā'vid therefore himself calleth him Lord; [u]and whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly.

38 ¶ And he said unto them in his doctrine, Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and love salutations in the marketplaces,

39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts:

40 Which [v]devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation.

41 ¶ [9]And Jē'şus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two [10]mites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That [w]this poor widow hath cast [11]more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury:

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, [x]even all her living.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Christ foretelleth the destruction of the temple: 10 that the gospel must be preached to all nations: 14 and that great calamities shall happen to the Jews: 24 and the manner of his coming to judgment.

1 [1]And [a]as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of [2]stones and what buildings are here!

4. In vs. 18-27 is recorded the discussion concerning the seven brothers and the resurrection.

5. As there are no births there are no marriages in heaven. The appetites of the body are all destroyed, only those affections which have their origin in heaven are retained. Love is divine, therefore love in heaven will doubtless be a continuation of the love on earth, purified of all grossness.

6. In vs. 28-34 is an account of the honest scribe. For parallel account see Mat. 22:34-40.

7. As we are commanded not to love ourselves selfishly, but truth first, in like manner shall we love our neighbors, i. e., desire their highest good, subject to the will of the Father.

8. In vs. 34-37 Christ baffles the Pharisees regarding David.

9. In vs. 41-44 is the account of the widow's two mites. Parallel account. Luke 21:1-4.

10. A mite is equal to one-fifth of a cent.

11. That is, more of faith and heart devotion.

Ch. 13. A. D. 33.

1. In ch. 13 Christ prophesies the destruction of Jerusalem and from it draws the lesson of his second coming. Parallel account is recorded in Mat. 24:1-51, and Luke 21:5-36.

2. In vol. 5 Josephus says that many of the stones were 60 ft. long, and that the pillars supporting the porches were 37½ ft. high, of solid white marble, in one piece. He further states that, during the siege, six days' constant battering against the walls made no impression upon the massive stones.

hands on him, because his hour was not yet come (30). And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him. (Jno. 7:25, 30, 44.)

i. The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him. (Mat. 22:23.) Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, which deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him. (Luke 20:27.)

j. For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess both. (Acts 23:8.) Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? (I Cor. 15:12.)

k. If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry without unto a stranger: her husband's brother shall go in unto her, and take her to him to wife, and perform the duty of an husband's brother unto her. (Dt. 25:5.)

l. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. (Dan. 12:2.)

m. (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were. (Rom. 4:17.) But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; for he hath prepared for them a city. (Heb. 11:6.)

n. So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption (42). And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly (49). In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. (I Cor. 15:42, 49, 52.) Beloved, now are we the sons of God; and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. (I Jno. 3:2.)

o. Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying. (Mat. 22:35.) And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou? And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself. And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live. (Luke 10:25-28.) But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage. (Luke 20:35.)

p. Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people; but thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself: I am the Lord. (Lev. 19:18.) If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, ye do well. (Js. 2:8.)

q. Know therefore this day, and consider it in thine heart, that the Lord he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else. (Dt. 4:39.) That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none besides me: I am the Lord, and there is none else. (Is. 45:6.) Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me. (Is. 46:9.) One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. (Eph. 4:6.)

r. And Samuel said, Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams. (I Sam. 15:22.) For I desired mercy, and not sacrifice: and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings. (Hos. 6:6.)

s. The Spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his word was in my tongue. (II Sam. 23:2.) All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness. (II Tim. 3:16.) For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man; but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. (II Pet. 1:21.)

t. The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool. (Ps. 110:1.) For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. (I Cor. 15:25.)

u. Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh. (Rom. 1:3.) I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star. (Rev. 22:16.)

v. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation. (Mat. 23:14.)

w. For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. (II Cor. 8:12.)

x. But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? (I Jno. 3:17.)

Chapter 13.

a. And Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him, for to show him the buildings of the temple. (Mat. 24:1.)

JESUS, TAKEN CAPTIVE, TURNS AND LOOKS AT JUDAS.—H. Hofmann.

2 And Jē'ṣus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? [b]there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Ōl'īveṣ over against the temple, Pē'tēr and Jāmeṣ and Jōhn and Ān'drew asked him privately,

4 [c]Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 [3]And Jē'ṣus answering them began to say, [d]Take heed lest any man deceive you:

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am [4]Christ; and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars and [5]rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the [e]end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be [6]earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be [7]famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of [8]sorrows.

9 ¶ But [f]take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 And [g]the gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 [h]But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Hō'lȳ Ghōst.

12 Now [i]the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but [j]he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 ¶ But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, [k]spoken of by Dăn'iel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then [l]let them that be in Jū-dæ'ā flee to the mountains:

15 And let him that is on the house top not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house:

3. In vs. 5-31 is recorded Christ's prophesies of the destruction of Jerusalem.

4. The first sign of the destruction preceding the second coming of Christ.

5. The second sign.

6. The third sign.

7. The fourth sign.

8. The sorrows above mentioned, though terrible, are but the beginnings of what is to be.

9. The first 23 verses of this ch. are descriptive of the ruin of the Jews. After the 24th verse are predictions regarding the judgment day.

10. The days of tribulations above mentioned.

11. Alluding to the second coming.

12. Vs. 32-37 suggest the necessary preparations for the second coming of Christ.

16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 But [m]woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For [n]in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

21 And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Chrīst; or, lo, he is there; believe him not:

22 For false Chrīsts and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if [o]it were possible, even the elect.

23 But [p]take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.

24 ¶ But [q]in [10]those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light,

25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

26 And [r]then shall they [11]see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:

29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.

30 Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.

31 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

32 ¶ [12]But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

33 [s]Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

b. And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation. (Luke 19:44.)

c. And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass? (Luke 21:7.)

d. For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed. (Jer. 29:8.) Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. (Eph. 5:6.)

e. For thus hath the Lord said, The whole land shall be desolate; yet will I not make a full end. (Jer. 4:27.) Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are not the Lord's. (Jer. 5:10.)

f. But beware of men; for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues. (Mat. 10:17.) Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. (Rev. 2:10.)

g. And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come. (Mat. 24:14.) But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. (Rom. 10:18.)

h. And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say. For the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say. (Luke 12:11, 12.) Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer: For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist. (Luke 21:14, 15.)

i. For the son dishonoreth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house. (Mic. 7:6.) And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another. (Mat. 24:10.)

j. Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days. (Dan. 12:12.) For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end. (Heb. 3:14.) He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God (7). Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. (Rev. 2:7, 10.)

k. And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate. (Dan. 9:27.)

l. Then let them which are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto. (Luke 21:21.)

m. For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck. (Luke 23:29.)

n. And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people; and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book. (Dan. 12:1.)

o. Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect. (Rom. 8:33.) Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. (I Pet. 1:5.)

p. Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness. (II Pet. 3:17.)

q. That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers. (Zeph. 1:15, 16.)

r. I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. (Dan. 7:13.) For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works. (Mat. 16:27.)

s. Watch therefore; for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. (Mat. 24:42.) Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not. (Luke 12:40.)

34 [t]For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

35 Watch [u]ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning:

36 Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.

37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

CHAPTER 14.

1 A conspiracy against Christ. 3 Precious ointment is poured on his head by a woman. 10 Judas selleth his Master for money. 22 Christ instituteth his supper. 26 Peter's denial. 43 Judas betrayeth him. 46 He is apprehended, 53 falsely accused, and condemned of the Jews' council.

1 [1]After two [2]days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 ¶ [3]And [a]being in Bĕth'ă-nȳ in the house of Sī'mon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were [4]some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three [5]hundred [b]pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Jē'şus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 ¶ And Jū'das Īs-căr'ī-ot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give [c]him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 ¶ [6]And the first day of unleavened bread, when they [d]killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the [e]passover with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

17 [7]And [f]in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they sat and did eat, Jē'şus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 [g]The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 ¶ [8]And [h]as they did eat, Jē'şus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This [i]is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 ¶ And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Ōl'īveş.

27 And Jē'şus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, [j]I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Găl'ī-lee.

29 But [k]Pē'tĕr said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

30 And Jē'şus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I

Ch. 14. A. D. 33.

1. Vs. 1-11 tell of the conspiracy of the Jews to put Jesus to death and of the supper and the anointing at Bethany. For parallel account see Mat. 26:1-16 and Luke 22:1-6 and John 12:1-11.

2. Two days before the feast of the passover.

3. In vs. 3-9 is an account of the anointing at Bethany, six days before the passover, which occurred four days before the events just related.

4. Alluding to Judas Iscariot.

5. About $45.00.

6. In vs. 12-16 is recorded the preparation for the passover; parallel to Mat. 26:17-19.

7. In vs. 17-21 is an account of the supper his betrayal indicated; parallel to Mat. 26:20-25.

8. In vs. 22-25 is an account of the institution of the Lord's Supper; parallel to Mat. 26:26-29.

---

t. Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season? (Mat. 24:45.)

u. Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come (42). Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh. (Mat. 24:42, 44.)

Chapter 14.

a. Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper. (Mat. 26:6.) See Jno. 12:1-8.

b. But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants, which owed him an hundred pence; and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest. (Mat. 18:28.)

c. And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver. (Zech. 11:12.) For the love of money is the root of all evil; which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. (I Tim. 6:10.)

d. Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed. (Luke 22:7.) Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us. (I Cor. 5:7.) Thou mayest not sacrifice the passover within any of thy gates, which the Lord thy God giveth thee. (Dt. 16:5.)

e. And ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month. and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening. (Ex. 12:6.) In the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the Lord's passover. (Lev. 23:5.)

f. Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve. (Mat. 26:20.) And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him (14). But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table. And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed! And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing. (Luke 22:14, 21-23.) I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me. (Jno. 13:18.)

g. And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined. (Dan. 9:26.) Awake, O sword, against my Shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the Lord of hosts: smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and I will turn mine hand upon the little ones. (Zech. 13:7.) And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed! (Luke 22:22.)

h. And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. (Mat. 26:26.) For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread. (I Cor. 11:23.)

i. How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God! (Heb. 9:14.)

j. And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined. (Dan. 9:26.) Awake, O sword, against my Shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the Lord of hosts: smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and I will turn mine hand upon the little ones. (Zech. 13:7.)

k. Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended. Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. (Mat. 26:33, 34.)

should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 [9]And [l]they came to a place which was named Gĕth-sĕm'a-ne: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I [m]shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him Pē'tēr and Jāmeş and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

34 And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, [n]Ā'bba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: [o]nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Pē'tēr, Sī'mon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?

38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. [p]The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, [q]the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 [r]Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 ¶ [10]And [s]immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Jū'das, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Master, master; and kissed him.

46 ¶ And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 And Jē'şus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but [t]the scriptures must be fulfilled.

50 And they all forsook him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young [11]man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him:

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 ¶ [12]And [u]they led Jē'şus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

54 And Pē'tēr followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

55 [13]And the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jē'şus to put him to death; and found none.

56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

59 But neither so did their witness agree together.

60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jē'şus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

61 But [v]he held his peace, and answered nothing. [w]Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Chrīst, the Son of the Blessed?

62 And Jē'şus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?

64 Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

65 And some began to [x]spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophesy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

66 ¶ [14]And as [y]Pē'tēr was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest:

67 And when she saw Pē'tēr warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jē'şus of Năz'a-rĕth.

9. In vs. 32-42 is an account of the agonies in the garden; parallel to Mat. 26:36-46 and Luke 22: 39-46.

10. In vs. 43-52 is an account of the betrayal and apprehension of Jesus and the flight of his disciples; parallel to Mat. 26:47-56, Luke 22: 47-53 and John 18:1-12.

11. Supposed to be Mark.

12. In vs. 53-72 is an account of Jesus before Annas and Caiaphas; parallel to Mat. 26:57-75.

13. In vs. 55-64 is an account of the mock trial and condemnation of Christ by the Sanhedrin.

14. In vs. 66-72 is recorded Peter's denial of Christ.

l. Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder. (Mat. 26:36.) And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him. (Luke 22:39.) When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples. (Jno. 18:1.)

m. As he saith also in another place, Thou art a Priest for ever, after the order of Melchisedec. (Heb. 5:6.)

n. And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. (Gal. 4:6.)

o. I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me. (Jno. 5:30.) For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. (Jno. 6:38.)

p. But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. (Rom. 7:23.) For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other; so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. (Gal. 5:17.)

q. Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end. (Jno. 13:1.)

r. Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me. (Mat. 26:46.) When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples. And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place, for Jesus ofttimes resorted thither with his disciples. (Jno. 18:1, 2.)

s. And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people. (Mat. 26:47.) Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons. (Jno. 18:3.)

t. I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people. (Ps 22:6.) He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. (Is. 53:7.) And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the law of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalms, concerning me. (Luke 24:44.)

u. And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. (Mat. 26:57.) Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off. (Luke 22:54.) And led him away to Annas first; for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year. (Jno. 18:13.)

v. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. (Is. 53:7.) Who when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously. (I Pet. 2:23.)

w. But Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God. (Mat. 26:63.)

x. I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting. (Is. 50:6.)

y. And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them. (Luke 22:55.) Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee. But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest. And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth. And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man. And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee. Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew. And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, which said unto him, Before 68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew.

69 And [z]a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 And he denied it again. [aa]And a little after, they that stood by said again to Pē'tēr, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Găl-ĭ-læ'an, and thy speech agreeth thereto.

71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.

72 And the second time the cock crew. And Pē'tēr called to mind the word that Jē'sus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice thou shalt deny me thrice. [bb]And when he thought thereon, he wept.

CHAPTER 15.

1 Jesus accused before Pilate. 15 The murderer Barabbas is loosed, and Jesus delivered up to be crucified. 17 He is crowned with thorns, 19 and mocked: 21 fainteth in bearing his cross: 27 hangeth between two thieves: 43 and is buried.

1 [1]And [a]straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jē'sus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pī'late.

2 And [b]Pī'late asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, [c]Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: [d]but he answered nothing.

4 And [e]Pī'late asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 But [f]Jē'sus yet answered nothing; so that Pī'late marvelled.

6 Now [g]at that feast he [2]released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Ba-răb'bas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pī'late answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him [h]for envy.

11 But [i]the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Ba-răb'bas unto them.

Ch. 15. A. D. 33.

1. In vs. 1-20 is the account of Jesus' second appearance before Pilate, Pilate's effort to release him, the people's clamor for his death, after which he was cruelly treated and led away to be crucified. Parallel to Mat. 27:1, 2, 11-31, and Luke 23:1-6, 13-25 and John 18:28-40;19:1-16.

2. A custom which appears to have been established and practiced only by Pilate himself, as there is no account of it in classical or Jewish history.

3. In vs. 21-37 is an account of the crucifixion and death of Christ, parallel to Mat. 27:32-50 and Luke 23:26-46 and John 19:17-30.

4. Cyrene, a city in northern Africa, where a Jewish colony was located. They maintained a regular synagogue and kept in close touch with Jerusalem.

12 And Pī'late answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call [j]the King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pī'late said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 ¶ And so Pī'late, willing to content the people, released Ba-răb'bas unto them, and delivered Jē'sus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Præ-to'rĭ-um; and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, 18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 [3]And they compel one [4]Sī'mon a Çy-rē'nĭan, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Ăl-ĕx-ăn'dēr and Rụ'fus, to bear his cross.

22 And [k]they bring him unto the place Gŏl'go-thâ, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.

23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And [l]it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, [m]And he was numbered with the transgressors.

29 And [n]they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, 30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.

31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly. (Mat. 26:69-75.)

z. And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth. (Mat. 26:71.) And after a little while, another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not. (Luke 22:58.)

aa. And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee. (Mat. 26:73.) And about the space of one hour after, another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him; for he is a Galilean. (Luke 22:59.)

bb. And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications; and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born. (Zech. 12:10.) For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. (II Cor. 7:10.)

Chapter 15.

a. The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord, and against his Anointed, saying, (Ps. 2:2.) When the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death. (Mat. 27:1.) And the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate. (Luke 23:1.)

b. And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest. (Mat. 27:11.)

c. I give thee charge in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession. (I Tim. 6:13.)

d. Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously. (I Pet. 2:23.)

e. Then said Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee? (Mat. 27:13.)

f. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. (Is. 53:7.)

g. Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would. (Mat. 27:15.) (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.) (Luke 23:17.)

h. And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him. (Acts 7:9.) Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous. (I Jno. 3:12.)

i. But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. (Mat. 27:20.) But ye denied the Holy One and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you. (Acts 3:14.)

j. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. (Jer. 23:5. 6.)

k. And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha. (Jno. 19:17.) Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate. (Heb. 13:12.)

l. Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour. (Mat. 27:45.) And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King! (Jno. 19:14.)

m. Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors. (Is. 53:12.) For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end. (Luke 22:37.)

n. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying, He trusted on the Lord that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him. (Ps. 22:7, 8.)

said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save.

32 Let Chrīst the King of Īs'ra-el descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. [o]And they that were crucified with him reviled him.

33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

34 And at the ninth hour Jē'ṣus cried with a loud voice, saying, E-lō'ī, E-lō'ī, lā'mà sā-bach-thā'nī? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth E-lī'as.

36 And [p]one ran and filled a spunge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether E-lī'as will come to take him down.

37 And [q]Jē'ṣus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

38 [5]And the [r]vail of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

39 ¶ And [s]when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

40 There were also women looking on afar off: among whom was Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'ne, and Mā'rў the mother of Jāmeṣ the less and of Jō'sēṣ, and Sa-lō'me;

41 (Who also, when he was in Găl'ĭ-lee, [t]followed him, and ministered unto him;) and many other women which came up with him unto Je-rụ'sa-lĕm.

42 ¶ And [u]now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath,

43 Jō'ṣeph of Ăr-ĭ-mă-thæ'à, an honourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pī'late, and craved the body of Jē'ṣus.

44 And Pī'late marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Jō'ṣeph.

46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

47 And Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'ne and Mā'rў the mother of Jō'seṣ beheld where he was laid.

CHAPTER 16.

1 An angel declareth the resurrection of Christ to three women. 9 Christ appeareth to Mary Magdalene: 12 to two going into the country: 14 then to the apostles, 15 whom he sendeth forth to preach the gospel.

1 [1]And [a]when the sabbath was past, Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'ne, and Mā'rў the mother of Jāmeṣ, and [2]Sa-lō'me, [b]had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 And [c]very early in the morning the [3]first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

5 [d]And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jē'ṣus of Năz'a-rĕth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Pē'tēr that he goeth before you into Găl'ĭ-lee: there shall ye see him, [e]as he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

9 ¶ [4]Now then Jē'ṣus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'ne, out of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 And she went and told [5]them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

12 ¶ After [6]that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them.

14 ¶ Afterward he appeared unto the [7]eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

16 He [f]that believeth and is [8]baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

17 And these signs shall follow them that believe; [g]In my name shall they cast out devils; [h]they shall speak with new tongues;

5. In vs. 38-47 is an account of the signs and circumstances immediately following the death of Christ, his burial, and the placing of the guard around his tomb; parallel to Mat. 27:51-66 and Luke 23:47-56 and John 19:31-42.

Ch. 16. A. D. 33.

1. In this ch. are given the announcements to the women that Christ is risen, His appearance after the resurrection, the proclamation of his gospel, and his ascension; parallel to Mat. 28:1-20 and Luke 24:1-51 and John 20:1-29.

2. The mother of James and John.

3. Sunday, and has henceforth been called the Lord's day, because of his resurrection.

4. In vs. 9-18 is an account of the appearance of Jesus after his resurrection.

5. His apostles.

6. At Emmaus, about 8 miles from Jerusalem; parallel to Luke 24:13.

7. The official number, though only ten were present, Judas the traitor had already committed suiside, and Thomas was absent.

8. An external or public profession of an inward baptism of the spirit. An external expression of an inward consecration; a symbolical act of obedience to the command of God.

o. The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth. (Mat. 27:44.) And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us. (Luke 23:39.) For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds. (Heb. 12:3.)

p. And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink. (Mat. 27:48.) Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. (Jno. 19:29.)

q. And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost. (Luke 23:46.)

r. And thou shalt make a veil of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, of cunning work: with cherubim shall it be made. (Ex. 26:31.) For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us. (Eph. 2:14.)

s. Now when the centurion, and they that were with him watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God. (Mat. 27:54.)

t. And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. (Luke 2:3.)

u. And after this, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus. (Jno. 19:38.) When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple. He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed. And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre. (Mat. 27:57-61.) And, behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just: (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them:) he was of Arimathea, a city of the Jews: who also himself waited for the kingdom of God. This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. (Luke 23:50-52.)

Chapter 16.

a. In the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. (Mat. 28:1.)

b. And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day, according to the commandment. (Luke 23:56.)

c. The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre. (Jno. 20:1.)

d. And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus. (Luke 24:3.)

e. But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee (Mat. 26:32.)

f. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God (18). He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him. (Jno. 3:18, 36.)

g. And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name. (Luke 10:17.)

h. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. (Acts 2:4.) For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter. (Acts 10:46.) And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied. (Acts 19:6.) SAINT LUKE

NOTE.—The writer of this book of the Gospel was Luke, an abbreviated form of Lucanus or Luchilius, a physician by profession and a Gentile by race. Unless Job be accepted as a Gentile book, Luke is the only Gentile permitted to contribute to the Scriptures. He wrote especially to and for the Gentiles, which is proven by the explanation he gives of the many Jewish terms which are not supposed to be understood by the Gentiles. If his mission was to write the Gospel (that is, an account of the deeds, sayings, death and resurrection of Christ) particularly for the Gentiles, it affords proof that his selection for the Apostolic College was because of being a Gentile, as Christ came to declare unto the world the principles of his kingdom and the terms of salvation, not to the Jews alone, but to the Gentiles as well—to the whole human race. It is interesting to observe that whenever Mat. and Mark present a passage themselves agreeing, Luke also presents it, i. e., in every instance when Mat. and Mark agree upon anything, Luke coincides with them. It is a characteristic of Luke that whenever any point of our Lord's teachings might refer to the Jews and therefore not be of interest to the Gentiles, he would either pass over it altogether or present it in a very abbreviated form. For example, Luke omits that part of the Sermon on the Mount which concerns the relation of the new and the old law.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The preface of Luke. 5 The conception of John the Baptist, 26 and of Christ. 39 The prophecy of Elisabeth, and of Mary, concerning Christ. 57 The nativity and circumcision of John. 67 The prophecy of Zacharias, both of Christ, 76 and of John.

1 [1]Forasmuch as many have taken in hand to set forth [2]in order a declaration of [a]those things which are [b]most surely [3]believed among us,

2 Even as they delivered them unto us, [c]which from the [4]beginning were eyewitnesses, and ministers of the [d]word;

3 [e]It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent [5]The-ŏph′ĭ-lŭs,

4 That [f]thou mightest know the certainty of those things, wherein thou [g]hast been instructed.

5 ¶ [6]There was in the days of Hĕr′od, the king of Jū-dæ′ȧ, a certain priest named Zăch-a-rī′as, of the course of [7]A-bī′ȧ: and his wife [8]was of the daughters of Aâr′on, and her name was E-lĭs′a-bĕth.

6 And they were both [h]righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord [9]blameless.

7 And they had no child, because that E-lĭs′-a-bĕth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God [i]in the order of his course, 9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to [j]burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an angel [10]of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zăch-a-rī′as saw him, [k]he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zăch-a-rī′as: [l]for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife E-lĭs′a-bĕth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name [11]Jŏhn.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth.

15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and [m]shall drink neither wine nor [12]strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Hō′lȳ Ghōst, [n]even from his mother's womb.

16 And [o]many of the children of Ĭs′ra-el shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of E-lī′as, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the [p]Lord.

18 And Zăch-a-rī′as said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gā′brĭ-el, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And, behold, [q]thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people waited for Zăch-a-rī′as, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

Ref. Luke. Chapter 1.

a. And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. (I Tim. 3:16.)

b. And being fully persuaded that what he had promised he was able also to perform. (Rom. 4:21.) One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind. (Rom. 14:5.) Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always laboring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God. (Col. 4:12.) And we desire that every one of you do show the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end. (Heb. 6:11.)

c. And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning. (Jno. 15:27.) Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us. (Acts 1:21.)

d. The sower soweth the word. (Mk. 4:14.) And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following, Amen. (Mk. 16:20.) Therefore they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word. (Acts 8:4.) And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia. (Acts 14:25.) These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so. (Acts 17:11.)

e. But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God. (I Cor. 7:40.)

f. But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. (Jno. 20:31.)

g. This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John. (Acts 18:25.) And knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law. (Rom. 2:18.) Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue. (I Cor. 14:19.) Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things. (Gal. 6:6.)

h. I beseech thee, O Lord, remember now how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore. (II Ks. 20:3.)

i. And he appointed, according to the order of David his father, the courses of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their charges, to praise and minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required; the porters also by their courses at every gate: for so had David the man of God commanded. (II Chr. 8:14.)

j. And Aaron shall burn thereon sweet incense every morning: when he dresseth the lamps, he shall burn incense upon it. And when Aaron lighteth the lamps at even, he shall burn incense upon it; a perpetual incense before the Lord throughout your generations. (Ex. 30:7, 8.)

k. Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength. (Dan. 10:8.)

l. And Isaac entreated the Lord for his wife, because she was barren: and the Lord was entreated of him, and Rebekah his wife conceived. (Gen. 25:21.)

m. He shall separate himself from wine and strong drink, and shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes, or dried. (Num. 6:3.) For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil. (Luke 7:33.)

n. Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations. (Jer. 1:5.) But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace. (Gal. 1:15.)

o. Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord: And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse. (Mal. 4:5, 6.)

p. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. (Is. 40:3.)

q. And I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them a reprover: for they are a rebellious house. (Ez. 3:26.)

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife E-lĭṣ'a-bĕth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

26 [13]And in the sixth [14]month the angel Gā'-brĭ-el was sent from God unto a city of Găl'-ĭ-lee, named Năz'a-rĕth, 27 To a [r]virgin espoused to a man whose name was Jō'ṣeph, of the house of Dā'vid; and the virgin's name was Mā'rў.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, [15]Fear not, Mā'rў: for thou hast found favour with God.

31 And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JĒ'SUS.

32 He shall [s]be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and [t]the Lord God shall give unto him the throne [16]of his father Dā'vid:

33 And [u]he shall reign over the house of Jā'-cob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mā'rў unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, The Hō'lў Ghōst shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called [v]the Son of God.

36 And, behold, thy cousin E-lĭṣ'a-bĕth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37 For with God nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Mā'rў said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 [17]And Mā'rў arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, [w]into a city of Jū'dà;

40 And entered into the house of Zăch-a-rī'as, and saluted E-lĭṣ'a-bĕth.

41 And it came to pass, that, when E-lĭṣ'a-bĕth heard the salutation of Mā'rў, the babe leaped in her womb; and E-lĭṣ'a-bĕth was filled with the Hō'lў Ghōst:

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

13. In vs. 26-38 is an account of the annunciation of Christ, made to the Virgin Mary.

14. After the announcement to Zecharius.

15. After the announcement is made to Zacharias; thus the new dispensation opens with a denouncement of fear and a promise of salvation.

16. That is, the throne of the theocracy or government of God.

17. In vs. 39-56 is an account of Mary's visit to Elizabeth.

18. That is, the mother of human nature, of the Incarnate and not of God, as the Romish church interprets "Mary, the mother of God."

19. In vs. 46-55 is the "magnificat" or the song of triumph of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

20. In vs. 57-80 is an account of the birth of John the Baptist.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother [18]of my Lord should come to me?

44 For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And blessed is she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

46 [19]And Mā'rў said, My soul doth magnify the Lord, 47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

48 For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

49 For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is his name.

50 And [x]his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.

51 [y]He hath shewed strength with his arm; [z]he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 He [aa]hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 He [bb]hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away.

54 He hath holpen his servant Īs'ra-el, [cc]in remembrance of his mercy;

55 As [dd]he spake to our fathers, to Ā'brā-hăm, and to his seed for ever.

56 And Mā'rў abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 [20]Now E-lĭṣ'a-bĕth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

58 And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zăch-a-rī'as, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called Jōhn.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, His name is Jōhn. And they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Jū-dæ'à.

66 And all they that heard them laid them

r. Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. (Is. 7:14.)

s. That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth. (Phil. 2:10.) Which in his times he shall show, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords. (I Tim. 6:15.)

t. The Lord hath sworn in truth unto David; he will not turn from it; Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne. (Ps. 132:11.) For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. (Is. 9:6.) And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth. (Rev. 3:7.)

u. And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. (Dan. 2:44.) And saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the Lord's. (Ob. 21.) And I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation; and the Lord shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever. (Mic. 4:7.) But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom. (Heb. 1:8.)

v. Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God. (Mat. 14:33.) The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. (Mk. 1:1.) And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God. (Jno. 1:34.)

w. And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities which are here mentioned by name, Which the children of Aaron, being of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi, had: for theirs was the first lot. (Josh. 21:9, 10.)

x. And I will establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee in their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee. (Gen. 17:7.)

y. The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of the Lord doeth valiantly. (Ps. 118:15.)

z. The Lord bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect. (Ps. 33:10.) Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. (I Pet. 5:5.)

aa. To set up on high those that be low; that those which mourn may be exalted to safety. (Job. 5:11.) Who humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven, and in the earth! (Ps. 113:6.)

bb. The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing. (Ps. 34:10.)

cc. He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. (Ps. 98:3.) The Lord hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with loving-kindness have I drawn thee. (Jer. 31:3.)

dd. And God said, Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call him name Isaac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him. (Gen. 17:19.) Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. (Gal. 3:16.)

up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be! And the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zăch-a-rī'as [ee]was filled with the Hō'lў Ghōst, and prophesied, saying,

68 Blessed be the Lord God of Īs'ra-el; for he hath visited and redeemed his people,

69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant Dā'vid;

70 As [ff]he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began:

71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 To [gg]perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant;

73 The oath [21]which he sware to our father Ā'bră-hăm,

74 That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, 75 [hh]In holiness and [22]righteousness before him, all the days of our life.

76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for [ii]thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;

77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins,

78 Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the [jj]dayspring from on high hath visited us, 79 To [kk]give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Īs'ra-el.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Augustus taxeth the Roman empire. 6 The nativity of Christ. 8 An angel relateth it to the shepherds: 13 Many sing praises to God for it. 21 Christ is circumcised. 22 Mary purified. 28 Simon and Anna prophesy of Christ.

1 [1]And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Çæ'sar [2]Au-gŭs'tus, that all the [3]world should be [4]taxed.

2 (And this taxing was first made when Çў-rē'nĭ-us was governor of Sўr'ĭ-ā.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Jō'ṣeph also went up from Găl'ĭ-lee, out of the city of Năz'a-rĕth, into Jū-dæ'ā, [a]unto the city of Dā'vid, which is called Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm; (because he was of the house and lineage of Dā'vid:)

5 To be taxed with Mā'rў his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a [5]manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 [6]And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, [c]which shall be to all people.

11 For unto you is born this day in the city of Dā'vid a Saviour, which is Chrīst the Lord.

12 And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And [d]suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 Glory to God in the highest, and on [e]earth peace, [f]good will toward men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mā'rў, and Jō'ṣeph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mā'rў kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and [7]praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 And [g]when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JĒ'SUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

21. The covenant.

22. The holiness and righteousness toward men.

Ch. 2. B. C. 1—A. D. 12.

1. In vs. 1-7 is an account of the birth of Jesus.

2. Nephew of Julius Cæsar and the first Roman emperor.

3. The Roman empire.

4. The senses.

5. It is quite common for the native farmer to fit up the sides of his house for his cattle. The manger was built of small stones in one side of the room as a feeding trough. There was a raised or elevated platform about 2 ft. high in the center of the room, which was used for the family as a living room, the cattle occupying the places at the side. In one of these mangers was where Christ was laid.

6. In vs. 8-20 is an account of the angel's appearing to the shepherds and the shepherds' visit to Christ.

7. Supposed to have been singing one of the songs.

ee. And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions. (Joel 2:28.)

ff. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. (Jer. 23:5, 6.) Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began. (Acts 3:21.)

gg. Then will I remember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land. (Lev. 26:42.)

hh. And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them. (Jer. 32:39.) And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. (Eph. 4:24.)

ii. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. (Is. 40:3.) Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even a messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of hosts. (Mal. 3:1.) And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence. (Mat. 10:11.)

jj. I shall see him, but not now; I shall behold him, but not nigh: there shall come a Star out of Jacob, and a Sceptre shall rise out of Israel, and shall smite the corners of Moab, and destroy all the children of Sheth. (Num. 24:17.) And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. (Is. 11:1.) Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou, and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wondered at: for, behold, I will bring forth my servant The BRANCH. (Zech. 3:8.)

kk. The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light. they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined. (Is. 9:2.)

Chapter 2.

a. Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Bethlehem-judah, whose name was Jesse; and he had eight sons: and the man went among men for an old man in the days of Saul. (I Sam. 17:12.) But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting. (Mic. 5:2.)

b. For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him. (Is. 53:2.) In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. (II Cor. 4:4.)

c. And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed. (Gen. 12:3.)

d. Bless the Lord, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word. (Ps. 103:20.) Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation? (Heb. 1:14.)

e. I create the fruit of the lips; Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the Lord; and I will heal him. (Is. 57:19.) And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven. (Col. 1:20.)

f. But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us (4). That in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace and his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. (Eph. 2:4, 7.) In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only-begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. (I Jno. 4:9.)

g. And he that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man-child in your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed. (Gen.

22 [s]And when [h]the days of her purification according to the law of Mō'şeş were accomplished, they brought him to Je-rụ'sa-lĕm, to present him to the Lord;

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)

24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.

25 [9]And, behold, there was a man in Je-rụ'sa-lĕm, whose name was Sĭm'e-on; and the same man was just and devout, [i]waiting for the consolation of Ĭs'ra-el: and the Hō'lў Ghōst was upon him.

26 And it was revealed unto him by the Hō'lў Ghōst, that he should not [j]see death, before he had seen the Lord's Chrīst.

27 And he came by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jē'şus, to do for him after the custom of the law,

28 Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29 Lord, [k]now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word:

30 For mine eyes [l]have seen thy salvation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

32 A [m]light to lighten the Gĕn'tīleş, and the glory of thy people Ĭs'ra-el.

33 And Jō'şeph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 And Sĭm'e-on blessed them, and said unto Mā'rў his mother, Behold, this child is set for the [n]fall and rising again of many in Ĭs'ra-el; and for a sign which shall be spoken against;

35 (Yea, [o]a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

36 [10]And there was one Ān'nâ, a prophetess, the daughter of Phăn-ū'el, of the tribe of Ā'sĕr: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity;

37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers [p]night and day.

38 And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that [q]looked for redemption in Je-rụ'sa-lĕm.

8. In vs. 22-38 Jesus is presented in the temple, which must have taken place before the visit of the eastern Magi, because afterward Herod was seeking the life of the infant Christ so zealously that it would not have been safe for him to appear in public.

9. In vs. 25-35 is an account of the prophecy of Simeon.

10. In vs. 36-38 is an account of the reverence and homage paid to the infant Jesus by the prophetess Anna.

11. In vs. 40-52 is an account of the visit of Christ to Jerusalem at the passover, at the age of 12.

12. The seven days of the passover week.

13. The first recorded words of Jesus.

Ch. 3. A. D. 26, 27.

1. In vs. 1-20 is an account of the preaching, baptism and imprisonment of John the Baptist; parallel to Mat. 3:1-12 and Mark 1:1-8.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Găl'ĭ-lee, to their own city Năz'a-rĕth.

40 [11]And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

41 Now his parents went to Je-rụ'sa-lĕm every year at the feast of the passover.

42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Je-rụ'sa-lĕm after the custom of the feast.

43 And when they had [12]fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jē'şus tarried behind in Je-rụ'sa-lĕm; and Jō'şeph and his mother knew not of it.

44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Je-rụ'sa-lĕm, seeking him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, [r]both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And [s]all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

49 And he said unto them, [13]How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about [t]my Father's business?

50 And [u]they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

51 And he went down with them, and came to Năz'a-rĕth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Jē'şus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

CHAPTER 3.

1 The preaching and baptism of John: 15 his testimony of Christ. 20 Herod imprisoneth John. 21 Christ baptized, receiveth testimony from heaven. 23 The age, and genealogy of Christ from Joseph upwards.

1 [1]Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of 17:12.) And in the eight day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised. (Lev. 12:3.)

h. Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a woman have conceived seed, and born a man-child: then she shall be unclean seven days; according to the days of the separation for her infirmity shall she be unclean. (Lev. 12:2.)

i. Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. (Is. 40:1.) Joseph of Arimathea, an honorable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus. (Mk. 15:43.)

j. What man is he that liveth, and shall not see death? shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave? Selah. (Ps. 89:48.) By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God. (Heb. 11:5.)

k. And Israel said unto Joseph, Now let me die, since I have seen thy face, because thou art yet alive. (Gen. 46:30.) For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better. (Phil. 1:23.)

l. The Lord hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God. (Is. 52:10.) Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved. (Acts 4:12.)

m. The people that walk in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined. (Is. 9:2.) For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth. (Acts 13:47.)

n. For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria. (Is. 8:4.) Who is wise, and he shall understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? for the ways of the Lord are right, and the just shall walk in them: but the transgressors shall fall therein. (Hos. 14:9.) Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law: for they stumbled at that stumblingstone; As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. (Rom. 9:32, 33.) But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness; But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. (I Cor. 1:23, 24.) For we are unto God a sweet savor of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish. To the one we are the savor of death unto death; and to the other the savor of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things? (II Cor. 2:15, 16.)

o. As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me; while they say daily unto me, Where is thy God? (Ps. 42:10.) But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cesar. (Jno. 19:15.)

p. Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews. (Acts 26:7.) Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day. (I Tim. 5:5.)

q. Joseph of Arimathea, an honorable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus. (Mk. 15:43.) But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and besides all this, today is the third day since these things were done. (Luke 24:21.)

r. And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord. (Is. 11:1, 2.)

s. I have more understanding than all my teachers: for thy testimonies are my meditation. (Ps. 119:99.) And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine. (Mat. 7:28.) And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned? (15). The officers answered, Never man spake like this man. (Jno. 7:15, 46.)

t. I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart. (Ps. 40:8.) Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work. (Jno. 4:34.) I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work. (Jno. 9:4.)

u. But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying. (Luke 9:45.) And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken. (Luke 18:34.)

JESUS AT THE AGE OF TWELVE BEFORE THE WISE MEN IN THE TEMPLE.—Holman Hunt.

Tī-bē′rĭ-us Çæ′sar, Pŏn′tĭ-us Pī′late being governor of Jū-dæ′a, and Hĕr′od being tetrarch of Găl′ĭ-lee, and his brother Phĭl′ĭp tetrarch of I-tu-ræ′a and of the region of Trăch-o-nī′tis, and Lȳ-sā′nĭ-as the tetrarch of Āb-ī-lē′ne,

2 Ăn′nas and [a]Cā′ia-phăs being the high priests, the word of God came unto Jŏhn the son of Zăch-a-rī′as in the wilderness.

3 [b]And he came into all the country about Jor′dan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins;

4 As it is written in the book of the words of E-sā′ias the prophet, saying, [c]The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

6 And [d]all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, [e]O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring [f]forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Ā′brā-hăm to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Ā′brā-hăm.

9 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 [2]And the people asked him, saying, [g]What shall we do then?

11 He answereth and saith unto them, [h]He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then [i]came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

13 And he said unto them, [j]Exact no more than that which is appointed you.

14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither [k]accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages.

15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts of Jŏhn, whether he were the Chrīst, or not;

16 Jŏhn answered, saying unto them all, [l]I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Hō′lȳ Ghōst and with fire:

17 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

18 And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people.

19 [3]But [m]Hĕr′od the tetrarch, being reproved by him for He-rō′dĭ-as his brother Phĭl′ĭp's wife, and for all the evils which Hĕr′od had done, 20 Added yet this above all, that he shut up Jŏhn in prison.

21 [4]Now when all the people were baptized, [n]it came to pass, that Jē′sus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened,

22 [5]And the Hō′lȳ Ghōst descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came [o]from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

23 And Jē′sus himself began to be [q]about thirty years of age, being (as was supposed) [p]the son of Jō′sĕph, which was the son of Hē′lī,

24 Which was the son of Măt′that, which was the son of Lē′vī, which was the son of Měl′chī, which was the son of Jăn′nā, which was the son of Jō′sĕph,

25 Which was the son of Măt-ta-thī′as, which was the son of Ā′mos, which was the son of Nā′um, which was the son of Ēs′lī, which was the son of Năg′gē,

26 Which was the son of Mā′ath, which was the son of Măt-ta-thī′as, which was the son of Sĕm′e-ī, which was the son of Jō′sĕph, which was the son of Jū′dā,

27 Which was the son of Jo-ăn′nā, which was the son of Rhē′sā, which was the son of Zo-rŏb′a-bĕl, which was the son of Sa-lā′thī-el, which was the son of Nē′rī,

28 Which was the son of Měl′chī, which was the son of Ād′dī, which was the son of Cō′sam, which was the son of Ēl-mō′dăm, which was the son of Er,

29 Which was the son of Jō′se, which was the son of E-li-ē′zēr, which was the son of Jō′rim, which was the son of Măt′that, which was the son of Lē′vī,

30 Which was the son of Sĭm′e-on, which was the son of Jū′dā, which was the son of Jō′sĕph, which was the son of Jō′nan, which was the son of E-lī′a-kĭm,

2. In vs. 10-14 is an account of the manner in which John rebuked the sins of the time while preparing the way for the coming Messiah. Recorded only in Luke.

3. In vs. 19, 20 is an account of the death of John the Baptist.

4. In vs. 21-23 is recorded the baptism of Jesus; parallel to Mat. 3:13-17 and Mark 1:9-11. The account of Luke, however, is the most concise of the three.

5. In vs. 22-38 is an account of the genealogy of Jesus; parallel to Mat. 1:1-17.

Chapter 3.

a. And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all. (Jno. 11:49.) And led him away to Annas first: for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year. (Jno. 18:13.)

b. And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse. (Mal. 4:6.) In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea. (Mat. 3:1.) John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. (Mk. 1:4.) Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus. (Acts 19:4.)

c. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. (Is. 40:3.) For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. (Mat. 3:3.) He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias. (Jno. 1:23.)

d. The Lord hath made known his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly shown in the sight of the heathen. (Ps. 98:2.) The Lord hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God. (Is. 52:10.)

e. But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? (Mat. 3:7.)

f. But showed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance. (Acts 26:20.)

g. Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. (Acts 2:27.)

h. But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality. (II Cor. 8:14.) But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? (I Jno. 3:17.)

i. For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him. (Mat. 21:32.)

j. He hath shown thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? (Mic. 6:8.)

k. Thou shalt not raise a false report; put not thine hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness. (Ex. 23:1.) Ye shall not steal, neither deal falsely, neither lie one to another. (Lev. 19:11.)

l. I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire. (Mat. 3:11.)

m. As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is the wicked ruler over the poor people. The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days. (Prov. 28:15, 16.) For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife. (Mat. 14:3.)

n. Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. (Mat. 3:13.) And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him. (Jno. 1:32.)

o. For he received from God the Father honor and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. (II Pet. 1:17.)

p. Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas? (Mat. 13:55.) And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven? (Jno. 6:42.)

q. From thirty years old and upward even until fifty years old, all that enter into the host, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation. (Num. 4:3.)

31 Which was the son of Mē'le-à, which was the son of Mē'nan, which [r]was the son of Măt'-ta-thà, which was the son of Nā'than, which was the son of Dā'vid,

32 Which [s]was the son of Jĕs'se, which was the son of Ō'bed, which was the son of Bō'oz, which was the son of Săl'mŏn, which was the son of Na-ăs'son,

33 Which was the son of A-mĭn'a-dab, which was the son of Ā'ram, which was the son of Ēs'rom, which was the son of Phā'reş, which was the son of Jū'dà,

34 Which was the son of Jā'cob, which was the son of Ī'şaac, which was the son of Ā'brăhăm, which was the son of Thā'rà, which was the son of Nā'chor,

35 Which was the son of Sā'ruch, which was the son of Rā'gau, which was the son of Phā'-lec, which was the son of Hē'bēr, which was the son of Sā'là,

36 Which [t]was the son of Ca-ī'nan, which was the son of Ăr-phăx'ăd, which was the son of Sĕm, which was the son of Nō'e, which was the son of Lā'mech,

37 Which was the son of Ma-thu'sa-là, which was the son of Ē'nŏch, which was the son of Jā'red, which was the son of Ma-lē'le-el, which was the son of Ca-ī'nan, 38 Which was the son of Ē'nos, which was the son of Sĕth, which was the son of Ād'ăm, which was the son of God.

CHAPTER 4.

1 The temptation and fasting of Christ. 13 He overcometh the devil: 14 beginneth to preach. 33 He cureth one possessed of a devil, 38 Peter's mother in law, 40 and divers other sick persons. 41 The devils acknowledge Christ and are reproved for it.

1 [1]And [a]Jē'şus being full [2]of the Hō'lў Ghōst returned from Jor'dan, and [b]was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,

2 Being forty days [c]tempted of the devil. And [d]in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.

3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 And Jē'şus answered him, saying, [e]It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it.

Ch. 4. A. D. 27-31.

1. In vs. 1-13 is an account of the temptations of Jesus; parallel to Mat. 4:1-11 and Mark 1:12, 13.

2. Received at his baptism.

3. Each of the three temptations hang upon that mighty little word "if," which Christ shows can always be turned to our good whenever taken to the scriptures for interpretation.

4. In vs. 14-32 Jesus enters upon his public ministry and is rejected at Nazareth.

5. In vs. 16-35 is an account of the first visit to Nazareth, which seems to have been selected by Luke as the initiatory, as "he came to his own and his own received him not."

7 If [3]thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine.

8 And Jē'şus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Sā'tan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 And he brought him to Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, [f]cast thyself down from hence:

10 For [g]it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee:

11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jē'şus answering said unto him, [h]It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, [i]he departed from him for a season.

14 ¶ [4]And [j]Jē'şus returned in the power of the Spirit into Găl'ī-lee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

16 ¶ [5]And he came to Năz'a-rĕth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, [k]he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet E-şā'ias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 The [l]Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,

19 To preach the [m]acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and [n]wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Jō'şeph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in [o]Ca-pēr'na-ŭm, do also here in thy country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is [p]accepted in his own country.

---

r. And these be the names of those that were born unto him in Jerusalem: Shammuah, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon. (II Sam. 5:14.) And these were born unto him in Jerusalem: Shimea, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, four, of Bath-shua the daughter of Ammiel. (I Chr. 3:5.)

s. Now these are the generations of Pharez: Pharez begat Hezron. (Ruth 4:18.) And Ram begat Amminadab; and Amminadab begat Nahshon, prince of the children of Judah. (I Chr. 2:10.)

t. And Arphaxad lived five and thirty years, and begat Salah. (Gen 11:12.)

Chapter 4.

a. And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord. (Is. 11:2.)

b. And he came by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law. (Luke 2:27.)

c. And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel. (Gen. 3:15.) For in that he himself hath suffered, being tempted, he is able to succor them that are tempted. (Heb. 2:18.)

d. And he arose, and did eat and drink, and went in the strength of that meat forty days and forty nights unto Horeb the mount of God. (I Ks. 19:8.) And he was there with the Lord forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water. And he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten commandments. (Ex. 34:28.)

e. And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord doth man live. (Dt. 8:3.)

f. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. (I Pet. 5:8.)

g. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. (Ps. 91:11.)

h. Ye shall not tempt the Lord your God, as ye tempted him in Massah. (Dt. 6:16.)

i. Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. (Js. 4:7.)

j. Now when Jesus had heard that John was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee. (Mat. 4:12.)

k. But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down. (Acts 13:14.)

l. The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound. (Is. 61:1.)

m. To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn. (Is. 61:2.) (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succored thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.) (II Cor. 6:2.)

n. Thou art fairer than the children of men; grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever. (Ps. 45:2.) And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works? (Mat. 13:54.)

o. And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim. (Mat. 4:13.) And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. (Mat. 11:23.)

p. And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A

THE YOUTH OF CHRIST.

25 But I tell you of a truth, many [q]widows were in Ĭs'ra-el in the days of E-lī'as, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

26 But unto none of them was E-lī'as sent, save unto Sa-rĕp'tà, a city of Sī'dŏn, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 And [r]many lepers were in Ĭs'ra-el in the time of Ĕl-ĭ-sē'us the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Nā'a-man the Sўr'-ĭ-an.

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath, 29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.

30 But he [s]passing through the midst of them went his way, 31 And [t]came down to Ca-pĕr'na-ŭm, a city of Găl'ĭ-lee, and taught them on the sabbath days.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: [u]for his word was with power.

33 ¶ [6]And [v]in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice, 34 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; [w]the Holy One of God.

35 And Jē'sus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 [7]¶ And he [x]arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Sī'mon's house. And Sī'mon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

40 ¶ [y]Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 And [z]devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Chrīst the Son of God. And he rebuking them suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Chrīst.

42 And when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.

43 And he said unto them, [aa]I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the synagogues of Găl'ĭ-lee.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Christ teacheth the people out of Peter's ship. 4 A miraculous taking of fishes. 12 Christ cleanseth the leper: 16 prayeth in the wilderness: 18 healeth one sick of the palsy: 27 calleth Matthew the publican: 29 eateth with sinners: 36 and likeneth fainthearted disciples to old bottles and worn garments.

1 [1]And it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gĕn-nĕs'a-rĕt,

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Sī'mon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Sī'mon, [a]Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Sī'mon answering said unto him, Master, [b]we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Sī'mon Pē'tĕr saw it, he fell down at Jē'sus' knees, saying, [c]Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also Jāmes, and Jōhn, the sons of Zĕb'e-dee, which were partners with Sī'mon. And Jē'sus said unto Sī'mon, Fear not; from [d]henceforth thou shalt catch men.

6. In vs. 33-37 Christ heals the demoniac in the synagogue at Capernaum: parallel to Mark 1:21-28.

7. In vs. 38-44 Christ heals Peter's mother-in-law; parallel to Mat. 8:14-25 and Mark 1:29-39.

Ch. 5. A. D. 31.

1. In vs. 1-11 is an account of the miraculous draught of fishes and the call of Simon, Andrew, James and John; parallel to Mat. 4:18-22 and Mark 1:16-20.

prophet is not without honor, save in his own country, and in his own house. (Mat. 13:57.)

q. Arise, get thee to Zarephath, which belongeth to Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee. (I Ks. 17:9.)

r. Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean. (II Ks. 5:14.)

s. Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by. (Jno. 8:59.) Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand. (Jno. 10:39.)

t. And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim. (Mat. 4:13.) And they went into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught. (Mk. 1:21.)

u. And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine: For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. (Mat. 7:28, 29.)

v. And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out. (Mk. 1:23.)

w. For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. (Ps. 16:10.) Thus saith the Lord, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One; to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers, Kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the Lord that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and he shall choose thee. (Is. 49:7.) And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. (Luke 1:35.)

x. And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever. (Mat. 8:14.) And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, then entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. (Mk. 1:29.)

y. When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick. (Mat. 8:16.)

z. And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him. (Mk. 1:34.) And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God. (Mk. 3:11.)

aa. Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God; And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the Gospel. (Mk. 1:14, 15.) How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil: for God was with him. (Acts 10:38.)

a. And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore; and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. (Jno. 21:6.)

b. And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said (33). And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us. (Luke 9:33, 49.) And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. (Luke 17:13.)

c. And she said unto Elijah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come unto me to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son? (I Ks. 17:18.) Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes. (Job 42:6.)

d. Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith the Lord, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks. (Jer. 16:16.) And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men. (Mat. 4:19.) Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind. (Mat. 13:47.)

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, [e]they forsook all, and followed him.

12 ¶ [2]And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jē'ṣus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst [f]make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, [g]according as Mō'ṣeṣ commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great [h]multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 ¶ And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 [3]And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Găl'ĭ-lee, and Jū-dæ'ȧ, and Je-ru'sa-lēm: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 ¶ And, [i]behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the house top, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jē'ṣus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, [j]thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 And the scribes and the Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? [k]Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Jē'ṣus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

27 ¶ [4]And [l]after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Lē'vī, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 And [m]Lē'vī made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jē'ṣus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

32 I [n]came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ [5]And they said unto him, [o]Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Phăr'ĭ-seeṣ; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bridechamber fast, while the [p]bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall [q]be taken away from them, and then shall [r]they fast in those days.

36 ¶ And [s]he spake also a parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

2. Vs. 12-15 give an account of the healing of the leper; parallel to Mat. 8:2-4 and Mark 1:40-45.

3. Vs. 17-26 contain an account of the paralytic healed; parallel to Mat. 9:2-8 and Mark 2:1-12.

4. Vs. 27-32 give an account of Levi's call and feast in honor of Christ; parallel to Mat. 9:9-13.

5. Vs. 33-39 contain the discussion concerning fasting; parallel to Mat. 9:14-17.

e. And they straightway left their nets, and followed him (20). And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him. (Mat. 4:20, 22.) And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him (18). And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him. (Mk. 1:18, 20.) And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life. (Mat. 19:29.)

f. Is any thing too hard for the Lord? At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son. (Gen. 18:14.) Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. (Heb. 7:25.)

g. Then shall the priest command to take for him that is to be cleansed two birds alive and clean, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop (4). And on the eighth day he shall take two he-lambs without blemish, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish, and three tenth deals of fine flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, and one log of oil (10). And if he be poor, and cannot get so much; then he shall take one lamb for a trespass offering to be waved, to make an atonement for him, and one tenth deal of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering, and a log of oil; And two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, such as he is able to get; and the one shall be a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering. (Lev. 14:4, 10, 21, 22.)

h. And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased. (Jno. 6:2.)

i. And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith, said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee. (Mat. 9:2.)

j. Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. (Acts 5:31.)

k. I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah. (Ps. 32:5.) Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases. (Ps. 103:3.) I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins. (Is. 43:25.) To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him. (Dan. 9:9.)

l. And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him. (Mat. 9:9.)

m. And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples. (Mat. 9:10.)

n. But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. (Mat. 9:13.) This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. (I Tim. 1:15.)

o. Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not? (Mat. 9:14.)

p. The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son. (Mat. 22:2.) Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honor to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. (Rev. 19:7.)

q. And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined. (Dan. 9:26.) Awake, O sword, against my Shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the Lord of hosts: smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and I will turn mine hand upon the little ones. (Zech. 13:7.)

r. Moreover, when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face. (Mat. 6:16, 17.) And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. (Acts 13:3.) But in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in watchings, in fastings. (II Cor. 6:4, 5.) In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. (II Cor. 11:27.)

s. No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment; for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse. Neither do men put new wine into old bottles; else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved. (Mat. 9:16, 17.) No man also seweth a piece of new cloth on an old garment; else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse. And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles. (Mk. 2:21, 22.)

CHAPTER 6.

1 Christ reproveth the Pharisees' blindness about the observation of the sabbath: 13 chooseth twelve apostles: 17 healeth the diseased: 20 preacheth to his disciples before the people of blessings and curses: 27 how we must love our enemies.

1 [1]And [a]it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Phăr'ĭ-seeş said unto them, [b]Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days?

3 And Jē'şus answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, [c]what Dā'vid did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him;

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; [d]which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6 [2]And [e]it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and Phăr'ĭ-seeş watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he [f]knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said Jē'şus unto them, I will ask you one thing; [g]Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jē'şus.

12 [3]And [h]it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued [4]all night in prayer to God.

13 ¶ And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and [i]of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles;

14 Sī'mon, (whom he also named Pē'tēr,) and An'drew his brother, Jāmeş and Jŏhn, Phĭl'ĭp and Bär-thŏl'ō-mew, 15 Măt'thew and Thŏm'as, Jāmeş the son of Ăl-phæ'us, and Sī'mon called Ze-lō'tēş, 16 And Jū'das the brother of Jāmeş, and Jū'das Ĭs-căr'ĭ-ot, which also was the traitor.

17 ¶ And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, [j]and a great multitude of people out of all Jū-dæ'ā and Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and from the sea coast of Tȳre and Sī'dŏn, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to [k]touch him: for [l]there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ [5]And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, [m]Blessed be ye poor: for your's is the kingdom of God.

21 [n]Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

22 Blessed [o]are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

23 Rejoice [p]ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24 But woe unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation.

25 [q]Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.

26 [r]Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 ¶ But [s]I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you,

28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.

29 And unto him that smiteth thee on the

Ch. 6. A. D. 31.

1. Vs. 1-5 contain an account of plucking the ears of corn on the Sabbath; parallel to Mat. 12:1-8 and Mark 2:23-28.

2. Vs. 6-11 contain the record of the healing of the withered hand; parallel to Mat. 12:9-21 and Mark 3:1-12.

3. A customary Hebrew expression referring to the general period under discussion.

4. The next day Jesus was to appoint the 12 apostles to their work. So solemn was the occasion that he spends the preceding night in prayer.

5. Vs. 20-49 give the Sermon on the Mount; parallel to chs. 5, 6, 7 of Mat.

Chapter 6.

a. At that time Jesus went on the sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungered, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat. (Mat. 12:1.) And it came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn. (Mk. 2:23.)

b. But the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates. (Ex. 20:10.) And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled (that is to say, with unwashen) hands, they found fault. (Mk. 7:2.)

c. So the priest gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but the showbread, that was taken from before the Lord, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away. (I Sam. 21:6.)

d. And it shall be Aaron's and his sons'; and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy unto him of the offerings of the Lord made by fire by a perpetual statute. (Lev. 24:9.)

e. And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue. (Mat. 12:9.) And he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had a withered hand. (Mk. 3:1.) And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day. (Luke 13:14.)

f. But the Lord said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart. (I Sam. 16:7.) But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts? (Luke 5:22.) But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men, And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man. (Jno. 2:24, 25.) He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep. (Jno. 21:17.) And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts; and I will give unto every one of you according to your works. (Rev. 2:23.)

g. If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day? (Jno. 7:23.)

h. And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone. (Mat. 14:23.)

i. And when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness, and all manner of disease. (Mat. 10:1.)

j. And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judea, and from beyond Jordan. (Mat. 4:25.)

k. And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment; and as many as touched were made perfectly whole. (Mat. 14:36.)

l. And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes? (Mk. 5:30.)

m. Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. (Mat. 5:3.) Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him? (Js. 2:5.)

n. Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money, and without price. (Is. 55:1.)

o. Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. (Mat. 5:11.)

p. And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name. (Acts 5:41.) My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. (Js. 1:2, 3.)

q. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed. (Is. 65:13.)

r. If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. (Jno. 15:19.)

s. If thou meet thine enemy's ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him again. (Ex. 23:4.) If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink. (Prov. 25:21.)

one cheek offer also the other; and [t]him that taketh away thy cloke forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Give [u]to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

31 And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

34 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and [w]lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and [x]ye shall be the children of the Highest: for [y]he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

36 Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

37 Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:

38 Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into [z]your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.

39 And he spake a parable unto them, Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

40 The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master.

41 And [aa]why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

43 For [bb]a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

44 For every tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes.

45 A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 ¶ And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

47 Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like:

Ch. 7. A. D. 31.

1. In vs. 1-10 Christ heals a centurion's servant; parallel to Mat. 8:5-13.

2. Earnestly.

3. Great because of the paganism through which it had to come and great in its absolute trust.

4. In vs. 11-17 is an account of raising the dead son of the widow of Nain, which occurred the next day after healing the centurion's servant; recorded by Luke alone.

48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Christ findeth a greater faith in the centurion than in any of the Jews: 10 healeth his servant being absent: 11 raiseth from death the widow's son at Nain: 36 and sheweth, by occasion of Mary Magdalene, how he is a friend to sinners.

1 [1]Now when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Ca-pēr'na-ŭm.

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jē'sus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jē'sus, they besought him [2]instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jē'sus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof:

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jē'sus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great [3]faith, no, not [c]in Ĭs'ra-el.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ [4]And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nā'ĭn; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he [b]had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the bier: and

t. Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded? (I Cor. 6:7.)

u. If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren within any of thy gates in thy land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother; But thou shalt open thine hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth. (Dt. 15:7, 8.)

v. Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the Law and the Prophets. (Mat. 7:12.)

w. And if thy brother be waxen poor, and fallen in decay with thee, then thou shalt relieve him; yea, though he be a stranger, or a sojourner; that he may live with thee. (Lev. 25:35.)

x. That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. (Mat. 5:45.) Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God! therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. (I Jno. 3:1.)

y. Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness. (Acts 14:17.)

z. And render unto our neighbors sevenfold into their bosom their reproach, wherewith they have reproached thee, O Lord. (Ps. 79:12.)

aa. Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat. (Mat. 7:13.)

bb. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. (Mat. 7:16, 17.)

Chapter 7.

a. They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one. (Rom. 3:12.)

b. But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies. (Lam. 3:32.) Jesus wept. (Jno. 11:35.) For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with a feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. (Heb. 4:15.) But woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue, and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. (Luke 11:42.) And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith. And the Lord said, If we had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you. (Luke 17:5, 6.) Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon. (Luke 24:34.)

they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, [c]Arise.

15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

16 And [d]there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, That a [e]great prophet is risen up among us; and, That God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Jū-dæ'a, and throughout all the region round about.

18 [5]And the disciples of Jŏhn shewed him of all these things.

19 ¶ And Jŏhn calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jē'sus, saying, Art thou [f]he that should come? or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, Jŏhn Băp'tĭst hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

22 Then Jē'sus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell Jŏhn what things ye have seen and heard; [g]how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, [h]to the poor the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 ¶ And when the messengers of Jŏhn were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning Jŏhn, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, [i]Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, [j]being baptized with the baptism of Jŏhn.

30 But the Phăr'ĭ-sees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

35 [k]But wisdom is justified of all her children.

36 ¶ [6]And [l]one of the Phăr'ĭ-sees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Phăr'ĭ-see's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And, behold, [m]a woman in the city, which was a [7]sinner, when she knew that Jē'sus sat at meat in the Phăr'ĭ-see's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment,

38 And stood at his feet behind him [n]weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Phăr'ĭ-see which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Jē'sus answering said unto him, Sī'mon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain [8]creditor which had two [9]debtors: the one owed five [10]hundred [o]pence, and the other [10]fifty.

5. In vs. 18-23 John the Baptist sends his disciples and inquires of Jesus if he is the Messiah and Christ answers; parallel to Mat. 11: 2-19.

6. In vs. 36-50 is an account of a woman's washing Christ's feet with her tears; recorded by Luke only.

7. Here meaning a Gentile.

8. That is, God.

9. That is, Simon and the Gentile woman who had anointed Jesus with the ointment.

10. By these two sums Christ compares the self-estimation and worldly standing of the two persons under consideration—the one 10 times better than the other.

c. And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth. (Jno. 11:43.) But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up. (Acts 9:40.) (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were. (Rom. 4:17.)

d. And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these saying were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judea. (Luke 1:65.)

e. And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people. (Luke 24:19.) Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world. (Jno. 6:14.)

f. I will also smite mine hands together, and I will cause my fury to rest: I the Lord have said it. (Ez. 21:17.) Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the streets shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times. And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined. (Dan. 9:25, 26.) And I will shake all nations, and the Desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the Lord of hosts. (Hag. 2:7.) Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem; behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass. (Zech. 9:9.) Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of hosts. (Mal. 3:1.) But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall. (Mal. 4:2.)

g. And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness. (Is. 29:18.) Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped (5). And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be grass, with reeds and rushes. (Is. 35:5, 7.)

h. The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound. (Is. 61:1.) The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised. (Luke 4:18.) Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him? (Js. 2:5.)

i. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. (Is. 40:3.) Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of hosts. (Mal. 3:1.) Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord. (Mal. 4:5.)

j. Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region round about Jordan. (Mat. 3:5.) Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do? (Luke 3:12.)

k. The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But Wisdom is justified of her children. (Mat. 11:19.) But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness; But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. (I Cor. 1:23, 24.)

l. Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, (Mat. 26:26.) And being in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head. (Mk. 14:3.)

m. And certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdelene, out of whom went seven devils. (Luke 8:2.)

n. And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications; and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born. (Zech. 12:10.)

o. But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him an hundred pence; and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest. (Mat. 18:28.)

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly [p]forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Sī'mon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Sī'mon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no [q]water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore [11]I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

48 And he said unto her, [r]Thy sins are forgiven.

49 And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves, [s]Who is this that forgiveth sins also?

50 [12]And he said to the woman, [t]Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

CHAPTER 8.

3 Women minister unto Christ. 4 The parable of the sower, 16 and of the candle. 22 Christ rebuketh the winds: 37 is rejected of the Gadarenes: 43 healeth the woman of her bloody issue, 49 and raiseth Jairus' daughter.

1 And it came to pass [1]afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him.

2 And [a]certain women, which had been healed of [2]evil spirits and infirmities, Mā'rў called [3]Măg-da-lē'ne, out of whom went [4]seven devils,

3 And Jo-ăn'nà the wife of Chū'zà Hĕr'od's steward, and Sŭ-săn'nà, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

4 ¶ [5]And [b]when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; [c]that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those [d]by the way side are they that hear; then cometh [e]the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, [f]and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 ¶ [6]No [g]man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: [h]for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have.

19 ¶ [7]Then [i]came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

Ch. 8. A. D. 31.

1. After the Sermon on the Mount.

2. Indicating that evil spirits and infirmities are not the same.

3. So named because of the town Maddala, now called Medjil, situated on the west side of Lake Gennesaret.

4. Seven meaning complete; alluding to the complete control which the evil spirits had of Mary Magdalene.

5. In vs. 4-18 s the parable of the sower; parallel to Mat. 13:1-23 and Mark 4:1-20.

6. In vs. 16-18 are words almost similar to a passage in the Sermon on the Mount.

7. In vs. 19-21 the mother and brothers of Jesus attempt to see him.

11. Because of what she has done.

12. Faith is at the foundation of all blessings. It brings pardon, pardon brings the holy spirit, which inspires love, and the heart is thereby purified.

p. I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins. (Is. 43:25.) I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for I have redeemed thee. (Is. 44:22.)

q. Let a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. (Gen. 18:4.) Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work. (I Tim. 5:10.) And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their asses provender. (Gen. 43:24.) So he brought him into his house, and gave provender unto the asses: and they washed their feet, and did eat and drink. (Jud. 19:21.)

r. And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus, seeing their faith, said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee. (Mat. 9:2.) When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee. (Mk. 2:5.)

s. He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not. (Is. 53:3.) Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only? (Mk. 2:7.)

t. But Jesus turned him about; and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour. (Mat. 9:22.) And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague. (Mk. 5:34.) And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: thy faith hath saved thee. (Luke 18:42.) For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God. (Eph. 2:8.)

a. And many women were there beholding afar off, which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him: Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's children. (Mat. 27:55, 56.)

b. And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore. (Mat. 13:2.) And he began again to teach by the sea-side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land. (Mk. 4:1.)

c. And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not? (Is. 6:9.) That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them. (Mk. 4:12.)

d. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. (Js. 1:23, 24.)

e. For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. (I Cor. 2:11.) Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour. (I Pet. 5:8.)

f. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. (Gal. 5:22, 23.) But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing. (Js. 1:4.)

g. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. (Mat. 5:15.) And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick? (Mk. 4:21.) That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world; Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither labored in vain. (Phil. 2:15, 16.)

h. For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance; but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath. (Mat. 13:12.)

i. While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him. (Mat. 12:46.) Is

A MAN AND WOMAN OF SAMARIA AT JACOB'S WELL.

22 ¶ [s]Now [j]it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. [k]Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And [l]they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ [9]And [m]they arrived at the country of the Gād'a-rēnes, which is over against Gāl'ī-lee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jē'sus, [n]he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jē'sus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jē'sus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out [o]into the deep.

32 And there was there an [p]herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And [q]he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

8. In vs. 22-25 Jesus stills the tempest; parallel to Mat. 8:18-27 and Mark 4:35-41.

9. Vs. 26-40, the demoniac of Gadara healed.

10. In vs. 41-56 Jesus raises the daughter of Jairus and heals the woman with an issue of blood; parallel to Mat. 9:10-26 and Mark 5:22-43.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jē'sus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jē'sus, clothed, [r]and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37 ¶ Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gād'a-rēnes round about besought [s]him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now [t]the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jē'sus sent him away, saying,

39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jē'sus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jē'sus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶ [10]And, [u]behold, there came a man named Ja-ī'rus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jē'sus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

43 ¶ And [v]a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and [w]touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanched.

45 And Jē'sus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Pē'tēr and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jē'sus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that [x]virtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.

q. With him is strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceiver are his. (Job 12:16.)

r. He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. (I Jno. 3:8.)

s. But the Spirit of the Lord departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the Lord troubled him. (I Sam. 16:14.) Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God. (Mk. 1:24.). But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can they know them, because they are spiritually discerned. (I Cor. 2:14.)

t. Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name. (Ps. 103:1.) What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? (Ps. 116:12.) And when he was come into the ship, he that had been possessed of the devil prayed him that he might be with him. (Mk. 5:18.)

u. While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live. (Mat. 9:18.) And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet. (Mk. 5:22.)

v. And if a woman have an issue of her blood many days out of the time of her separation, or if it run beyond the time of her separation; all the days of the issue of her uncleanness shall be as the days of her separation: she shall be unclean. (Lev. 15:25.) And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment. (Mat. 9:20.)

w. Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them. (Acts 5:15.) So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them. (Acts 19:12.)

x. And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes? (Mk. 5:30.) And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all. (Luke 6:19.)

49 ¶ While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.
